UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

McARTHUR COURT
MARCH 20, 1976

OFFICIAL
DEGREE LIST
APPROVED BY THE
UNIVERSITY FACULTY
AND THE STATE BOARD
OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Education is a companion
which no misfortune can depress,
no crime can destroy,
no enemy can alienate,
no despotism can enslave.

JOSEPH ADDISON

Oregon Pledge Song

Fair Oregon, we pledge to thee
Our honor and fidelity,
Both now and in the years to be,
A never failing loyalty.
Fair Oregon, thy name shall be written high in liberty.
Now, uncovered, swear we every one
Our pledge to Oregon.

Taking pictures? Please note:

Out of consideration for other members of the audience, it is requested that those who wish to take photographs of portions of the ceremony not block aisles or passageways. Attendants have been instructed to request photographers to refrain from interfering with the view of others and to remain well in front of the platform.

President's Welcome

On behalf of the University of Oregon I congratulate members of the Centennial Class of 1976 and extend best wishes to their parents, families and friends here assembled.

The year 1976 is an auspicious one in the life of the University, in the life of the nation, and, we hope, in the life of each individual whose accomplishments are recognized during this ceremony.

William Boyd, President

The University

The University of Oregon opened its doors to 177 students on October 16, 1876. Today the University enrolls some 17,000 students. Its 925 faculty are engaged in teaching, research and scholarship covering a broad range of humanistic, scientific and professional knowledge.

The campus houses 35 departments and special programs in the liberal arts; nine professional schools and colleges; 12 research bureaus, institutes and centers; and a graduate division.

The University's more than 80,000 alumni include two graduates who have won the Nobel Prize: William Parry Murphy, who won the prize in 1934 for a development in the medical use of insulin, and Walter Houser Brattain, who won it in 1956 for the co-invention of the transistor. Seventeen Rhodes Scholars call the U of O their alma mater.

The University is one of only 24 public schools in the nation to be selected for membership in the prestigious American Association of Universities.

Alumni Membership

Welcome to the University of Oregon Alumni Association. As graduates you are entitled to receive copies of the Old Oregon magazine and Oregon Today. These are published alternately with eight issues a year. In addition to these publications the Alumni Association sponsors social events in several communities, reunions, and money-saving alumni charter flights throughout the year.

The University of Oregon's Centennial

"EDUCATION : A Heritage and Future for Oregon" is the theme of the University of Oregon year long Centennial observance which began January 1, 1976.

In August of 1872 five Eugene citizens resolved to build a University. They organized the Union University Association and presented a proposal to the 1872 State Legislature that the State locate the University of Oregon in Eugene if the local citizens could buy a site and erect on it a building worth $50,000. Governor LaFayette Grover signed the enabling act "To create, organize and locate the University of the State of Oregon . . ." on October 19, 1872. Four years later Deady Hall, located on a 17 acre site, opened its doors on October 16, 1876 to 177 students, 79 in the collegiate course and 98 in the preparatory program, and a faculty of five.

The University's first class graduated in 1878 with five students eligible for degrees. The community celebrated the event. Newspaper accounts reported that people donated art works to hang on the walls of the auditorium and hundreds attended to honor the first graduates.

Today the University of Oregon enrolls more than 17,000 students and confers more than 3,500 bachelor, master and doctoral degrees each year. The campus encompasses some 250 acres with 41 major buildings. The full-time faculty numbers 925.

The basic mission of the university has remained what the 1872 legislature authorized : "The University shall have for its design to provide instruction and complete education in all departments of science, literature, professional pursuits and general education. . . ."

Academic Costume

The history of academic dress goes back several centuries, to the chilly universities where cap and gown and hood were needed for covering and warmth. Subsequently this has become a ceremonial costume, with certain standardized features. For example, sleeves in the bachelor's gown are pointed, in the master's gown are oblong, in the doctor's gown are bell-shaped. Only the doctor's gown has velvet facing. The hood is lined with the official colors of the degree-conferring institution; for the University of Oregon these are lemon yellow and green. The outside trimming of the hood and the color of the tassel signify the subject in which the degree is conferred, as follows:

Maize—Agriculture
White—Arts, Letters,Humanities
Drab—Commerce, Accountancy, Business
Lilac—Dentistry
Copper—Economics
Light Blue—Education
Orange—Engineering
Brown—Fine Arts, including Architecture
Russet—Forestry
Crimson—Journalism
Purple—Law
Lemon—Library Science
Green—Medicine
Pink—Music
Apricot—Nursing
Silver Gray—Oratory, Speech
Olive Green—Pharmacy
Dark Blue—Philosophy
Sage Green—Physical Education
Peacock Blue—Public Administration, including Foreign Service
Salmon Pink—Public Health
Golden Yellow—Science
Citron—Social Work
Scarlet—Theology
Gray—Veterinary Science

At the University of Oregon it is customary for master candidates to wear their hoods in the academic procession. Doctoral candidates carry their hoods and are hooded during the ceremony. Traditionally bachelor candidates change tassles on their caps from front right to the front left as the degree is conferred. Caps are removed during prayer, the playing of the National Anthem and the Alma Mater, and during the commencement address if desired.
