My Dear Sir:

Enclosed find my check for $2 in payment of another year's subscription to Old Oregon. My wife and I enjoy it very much and feel that you are doing a good job. We have quite a community of Webfeet living in Buckingham Community in Arlington, Virginia. Included are Jesse Douglas, '31, and wife (Florence King, '32); John Halderman, LLB. '31, and wife (Elenor Louergan, '35); John Kendall, LLB. '35, and wife; Harlow Hudson, ex-'30, and wife (Kathryn Kjosness, '31); Denzil Page, '33, and wife, and ourselves. Sincerely yours,

JOHN H. KING, '33.

Mr. E. C. Fansett, Alumni Secretary, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon.

Dear Sir:

I have intended to write several times since graduating in '36 but you know how such things are; one simply never gets around to action. Your inquiry for information seems to have provided the necessary stimulus.

After receiving my B.S. from Oregon in 1936 I spent one year in graduate work under a fellowship at Northwestern University. My work there, as at Oregon, was in the school of business administration and I fully enjoyed the splendid opportunities that Northwestern has for that type of study.

Since that time I have been in the hav. grain, feed, and farm supplies business with Farr & Elwood, working in the Coquille branch. I have also tried to write my thesis, which is my remaining requirement for an M.B.A., but have been elected president of the newly organized Coquille Junior Chamber of Commerce and have entangled myself with so many other activities that no time remains for study.

That, then, is why you receive this letter from Eugene rather than Coquille. I have chucked everything at Coquille for a couple of months and have returned to Oregon to finish my thesis. It seems good, and quite natural, to be here again. I always enjoy Old Oregon and note with pride that each issue is increasingly excellent.

Sincerely yours,

DONALD H. FARR, '36.

Seoul, Korea, March 22, 1938.

Mr. E. C. Fansett, Oregon Alumni Association, Eugene, Oregon.

Dear Mr. Fansett:

Your cards saying "no stamp necesare quite useless to me, so I am resorting to regular letter paper. the purpose of the cards I can fulfill the request for news, but it would be pointless to have a subscription sent me here be-cause in three months I'll be back in Eugene. I'll attend to that after my arrival.

I am finishing up my second year of teaching in the Seoul Foreign School which is run for American, French, and English children. At present we have twelve nationalities in twelve grades, if we don't count the white Russians and Soviets separately. That would make thirteen which, as we all know, is unlucky!

The school is very interesting from the standpoint of teaching since practically without exception the children are much above average in intelligence and have a wide background of travel and variety of interests. Geography especially is a pleasure to teach when all the class have been at least half way around the world.

The only other person from Oregon around here was Bill Lazus, a graduate of Oregon State College. I am sorry to say he died early yesterday morning of spinal meningitis. The whole community is saddened by his death and feel the loss greatly as he was very popular.

Last summer I visited two Oregon alums in Manila—Chuck and Frances Woodin. I had a marvelous time but I don't envy them their climate! On the way back my boat, the Empress of Asia, was commandeered by the British Government to transport troops to Shanghai, so I was left in Hongkong to enjoy myself for a week at the expense of the British Government. The only thing it didn't pay for was a delightful trip to Macas during the week.

My friends in the States seem to think I'm dodging bullets with one hand and rin doughing butters with one hard and reaching for a gas mask with the other, but I assure you I know nothing of the "incident" except the annoyance of air-raid practice every month and constant surveillance by foolish gendarmes. (I hope this gets through the censors!) Enough is enough.

Very sincerely yours,

Dear Sirs:

Because of a tonsil operation I have been set back from graduating from recruit training a month. Life here at the station is severely strict, liberties are few, and the routine is quite monotonous. When I do get to sea I might have some interesting articles to write for OLD OREGON. They might be especially helpful to some other college man who wight contemplate a ratio extra contemplate a ratio grant articles. might contemplate a navy career.

Alumni Day Events Set for May 28

Over 600 students will join the ranks of the Oregon alumni when they are graduated from the University on May 30. This will be the largest class ever to receive degrees from the school.

The sixty-first annual commencement will also serve as the inauguration of Dr. Donald M. Erb. Dr. Erb will be commencement speaker and will give his inaugural address at this time.

"The Message of the Master" will be the topic of the baccalaureate sermon to be delivered Sunday evening by Dr. Edward M. Hulme. Dr. Hulme is emeritus professor of history at Stanford University. Dr. Hulme is a close personal friend of Dr. Erb and has been a member of the University summer school faculty several different years.

Commencement week will begin on May 27 (Friday) when a benefit tea will be given in the afternoon for the Pauline Potter Homer collection of beautiful books. That evening the Failing-Beekman orations will be given in the music auditorium.

will be given at the Osburn hotel in the morning. The association perpetuates the flower and fern procession for alumnae and senior women and also carries on a scholarship fund for University women.

Miss Lenore Casford, '27, president of the association, has announced the following University of Oregon alumnae to assist with arrangements:

Miss Elma Hendricks, '03, breakfast; Mrs. Frederic G. Stickels, '14, and Mrs. William Barker, '09, flower and fern procession; Mrs. Adah Amspoker, '20, mothers and daughters committee; Mrs. Henry H. Norton, '30, and Mrs. William Barker, nominating committee.

Mrs. Raymond Walsh, '12, decorations; Mrs. Ella T. Edmunson, '03, tribute to Dr. Luella Clay Carson, first dean of women at the University, who died recently; Mrs. Walter Banks, '20, committee on attendance by alumnae and senior women.

Other events include a reception for Dr. and Mrs. Donald M. Erb.

Hawaii Alumni Organize

Evidences that a strong alumni organization will soon become active in Honolulu is found in the following clipping from the Honolulu "Star Bulletin" which was received by the alumni office:

"Word has been received from E. C. Fansett, newly appointed secretary of the University of Oregon Alumni association in Eugene, Ore., requesting all former students and alumni residing in the islands to organize a local alumni chapter. Similar activity throughout the mainland has met with success.

The first meeting of the year will be held at the Oahu Country club May 23. All former students and alumni interested in organizing a local alumni club are requested to be present for a dinner then. This meeting will be held for the sole purpose of electing officers. For reservations or further information call Mr. Lord, Honolulu Automobile club, phone 4559."

Alumni Day May 28

Saturday, May 28, has been set aside as alumni day and will be given over to the annual meeting of the Alumni association and to class reunions of all sorts. The flower and fern procession at the site of the Pioneer Mother statue is to be held during the evening of alumni day.

Classes to be especially honored this year are those of 1883, 1888, 1898, 1908, 1913, 1918, and 1928. Every member of these classes has been sent a complete list of the names and latest available address of every member of his class. Thus, those who are so unfortunate as to be unable to attend may be able to communicate with their University friends. Alumni receiving lists are urged to check the lists and report any changes of addresses to the alumni office.

Another event of interest alumni day will be the annual breakfast and meeting of the state association of University Women which

MONDAY, MAY 30

3:30 P. M. Installation Tea and Reception for President and Mrs. Donald Milton Erb—Forecourt of University Library. Inspection of Museum and Art Collections.

8:00 P. M. Commencement exercises—conferring degrees. Address by Donald Milton Erb, Seventh President of the University of Oregon—"The Companionship of Learning and Life"

At 3:30 we'll all drift over to the reception given by the Alumni Association in honor of the new president, Donald M. Erb.

At 5:30 we'll begin to assemble at the Osburn Hotel for the reunion dinner. This is really the main event of the whole celebration. Informal—everybody right at home. Ralph Cake will ride herd on the crowd. Nothing long drawn-out. Florence Cleveland in charge. Remember how we used to sit spell-bound by her singing? There'll be a something-orother-scope to throw memory book pictures on the screen. Also pictures of those absent. (If you find you positively can't be here be sure to send your letter and a photograph. Snapshots will do. They will be returned if desired.) We can enjoy all the luxurious pangs of nostalgia to our heart's content. Dinner, $1.00.

Now as to total cost: Did you ever attend a convention? Compare the cost there, registration fee and all, which we don't have, with the expense of attending this reunion. Picnic 50c, Luncheon 60c, Dinner $1.00, assessment to cover incidentals, such as old profs as guests at the picnic, 25c. Total $2.35. Now we ask ya! By helping to make up a carload with others, travel won't be expensive. Lodging at hotel, auto camp, fraternity house, with friends. There'll also be rooms to rent in private homes. Classmates, you just can't afford to miss this! It's absolutely the only chance in your whole lifetime to attend your own 25th class reunion.

Class Badges

The girls in Portland, we hear, are bringing a 1913 badge with silver ribbon (silver reunion) for each of us. We can go Joe College, if we want to, by buying or renting rooter's caps at the Co-op with '13 on 'em. Some from less favored states, climatically speaking, are planning to get in some golf (three good courses) and fishing (remember the Mc-Kenzie?), and soak up some of this wonderful Oregon sunshine.

Well, folks, guess that's about all. Remember downtown headquarters at the Osburn. Hotels may be filled. If you want reservations write direct, or to any of us—or if there's anything you want done or want to know about, however trivial it may seem to you, write to us about it. We'd consider it an honor. Rates to 1913 class members are:

	Osburn	Eugene
Room with bath, double	$2.75	$3.25 up
Room with bath, single	2.25	2.25 up
Room without bath, double	1.75	2.75

KARL, CARLTON.

P. S. If you are driving be sure to fill your car with classmates if you can. And let your classmates know (a postcard will do) that you are going to be here and want to see them.

P. P. S. Bring your memory book.

The following members of the class of 1913 have written to class officers that they will be back for sure for their silver reunion:

Emma Job Adams, Franklin S. Allen, Zella Soults Anunsen, Louretta M. Archambeau, Norman B. Ashcraft, Edward F. Bailey, Lloyd D. Barzee, Henry Bauer, Pauline Beck, Faye Ball Bond, Ivy Williams Berry, Paul R. Briedwell, E. E. Brosius, Harold J. Broughton, Sybil Brown.

Hayward Trackmen Undefeated

By Hubard Kuokka

Bill Hayward's 1938 varsity track team finished its northern division dual meet competition undefeated by winning from Washington State, 1937 northern division champions, 67 to 64; University of Washington, 67 to 64, and Oregon State College, 73½ to 57½. Oregon also defeated the Portland University cinder team, 99 to 27. All but the OSC meet were held on Hayward field.

Mack Robinson, 1936 Olympic star, was the outstanding man on the Webfoot team, winning three or four first places in each meet, and setting several new records.

Robinson won four firsts in the meet against Washington. He tied both meet and field records in the 100 yard dash when he covered the distance in 9.6 seconds. He won the 220 yard dash in 21.2 seconds, the same stretch over the low hurdles in 23.5, and he leaped 24 feet 2½ inches in the broad jump.

Buck Shows Well

Jim Buck, sophomore from Salem, nosed out Hay, the Husky speedster, to place second to Robinson in the century and was right behind the ex-Olympic ace in the furlong.

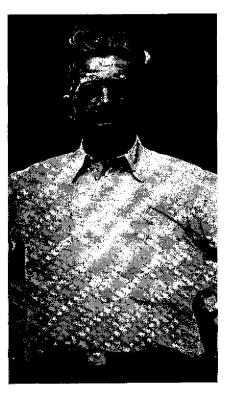

Boyd Brown, stalwart sophomore, won the javelin for Oregon with a heave of 190 feet 5 inches. Captain Leonard "Dutch" Holland threw the platter 148 feet 75% inches to win a first, Kirman Storli ran a 1:58.6 half mile to break the tape, and George Varoff set a new meet record of 13 feet 6 inches in the pole vault. Don Barker and Crawford Lyle placed one-two in the two mile run with the time of 9:45.5.

The Washington relay team set a new record of 3:19.7 in the mile, clipping 1.8 seconds off the old mark.

The victory can be contributed to Hayward's stratagem of pulling Buck out of the relay to run in the 220 low hurdles and to the sophomore speedball's exciting win to nose out the Washington Staters to win second. Before the low hurdles event the score stood 59 to 57 in favor of Oregon. Buck was the last man in a field of six at the half-way mark in the timber race, but he pulled up to win the event.

Robinson Cracks Record

Robinson set a new northern division mark in the broad jump by leaping 24 feet 105% inches in his first try. He also set a new meet record in the low hurdles, 23.7. He was disqualified in the 100 by taking two false starts and was nosed out by Orr of Washington State when the latter made a new meet record of 21.1 in the 220.

Another record fell when Wooten and Little of WSC tied to win the two-mile in 9:44.5.

Storli, followed by Jim Schriver, won the 880 in 1:57.1, Holland threw the discus 148 feet, Brown heaved the javelin 195 feet 9 inches, and "Pop" Varoff vaulted 12 feet to win first places. Ken Shipley, whom Bill Hayward "found" in the intramurals of the preceding Thursday, high jumped 5 feet 8 inches to tie with Bob Fitchard in the high jump. The latter was given first place because he made the height in a fewer number of attempts. Fitchard also placed second in the broad jump.

Oregon 721/2, OSC 571/2

The Webfoots won 10 out of the 15 events to defeat Oregon State in the 30th annual "Civil War" dual meet in Corvallis. Robinson was again high point man, winning three events to total 15 points. He set a new dual meet record of 9.7 in the 100 yard dash, and won the 220 in 21.9 and the broad jump with a hop of 22 feet 10 inches.

George Varoff took things easy and stopped after he had vaulted 12 feet to win second place, while Rod Hansen, Oregon sophomore, cleared 13 feet. Bob Mitchell and Wayne Mackin placed first and second in the mile, Barker and Lyle took a one-two in the two mile, Brown and Adams won the javelin and Storli and Schriver finished first and second in the half mile. Holland won the discus, and Jim Buck won the low hurdles.

When the Webfoots defeated the Portland Pilots, they won every event except the shot put, which Joe Enzler of Portland won with a heave of 46 feet 2¹/₄ inches. Robinson won his four events and Buck placed second to him in the sprints. Barker and Mitchell ran a dead heat in the mile, Varoff won the pole vault with a leap of 13 feet 3 inches (he has been troubled with his sore leg) and Brown won the javelin.

Varsity Golf Matches

The Webfoot golfers defeated the Oregon State linksmen 22½ to 4½ at the Eugene Country club in the first of two annual matches. The Webfoots turned back the Beavers, 8½ to ½ in the best ball foursome and dropped but four points in the singles play. Kirk Eldridge, sophomore number 2 player, was medalist with a sub-par 143.

The Webfoot golfers also defeated the University of British Columbia divoteers 19½ to 3½ at the Eugene Country club. Ben Hughes and Henry Moretty carded 72's to win medal honors. Hughes, with a 77, was also medalist in the Oregon-College of Puget Sound match at Tacoria when Oregon won 20½ to 6½. On the following day, however, the Husky golf team beat the Webfoots on the Husky links, 15½ to 11½. Captain Walt Cline of Oregon was low with a card of 144 for a 36-hole medal round. Ben Hughes was the only Oregon man to win all three points in singles. Oregon had a 5 to 4 edge in the doubles, but Washington had an 11½ to 6½ advantage in the singles.

The Webfoots also defeated the CPS golfers 20½ to 2 on the Eugene court. Hughes was again medalist with a subser 70

Junior Weekend Attracts Many Visitors

Down the brightly lighted millrace floated a huge white horse ridden by a white-garbed Russian empress. Four stalwart Cossacks held lighted torches guarding their mistress. It was the prizewinning float for the 1938 canoe fete entered by Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Alpha Mu. The float was accompanied musically by the national anthem of Old Russia and represented Russia in the Parade of Nations theme.

Second prize went to Alpha Xi Delta and Theta Chi, who had a huge white Buddha with three very small Chinese in the court paying homage. The theme of the float was "In a Chinese Temple Garden." The south seas float of Delta Delta Delta and Delta Upsilon took third place, with a ukulele-playing coed riding in a golden crescent moon.

Dr. Erb, new president of the University, delighted students when he appeared at the campus luncheon sans necktie in accordance to the old tradition that tie wearers get a dunking in the fountain.

Following the coronation ceremonies for Queen Virginia Regan, black robed Friars and Mortar Board wound in and out the crowd to tap junior students for membership to their organizations. Friars pledged were President Donald Erb, Zane Kemler, Harry Weston, Bill Cummings, Lloyd Tupling, Paul Deutschmann, and Henry Nilsen.

Mortar Board members named were: Betty Riesch, Ruth Tawney, Marionbeth Wolfenden, Catherine Philp, Elisabeth Stetson, Mary Elizabeth Norvell, Ruth Ketchum, and Mrs. John Stark

The meetings of the Mothers club during the weekend saw the election to the presidency of Mrs. Harry Weston of Portland. Mrs. Weston's son, Harry, was elected president of the student body the week before. Assisting her throughout the year will be Mrs. George Swift, Salem, vice-president; and Mrs. Joseph H. Riesch, Portland, treasurer. Regional vice-presidents elected include Mrs. Hugh Rosson, Salem, and Mrs. Dolph Phipps, Medford.

The Mothers' club presented a check of $1000 to the University to be made available for student loans.

Koyl, Gerlinger Cups

The Junior Prom saw the traditional awarding of the Gerlinger and Koyl cups to outstanding Juniors. Winner of the Koyl cup was Zane Kemler of Pendleton. Kemler was president of the Junior class and was recently elected first vice-president of the student body.

Marionbeth Wolfenden of Portland received the Gerlinger cup as the outstanding Junior woman.

The weekend activities concluded with the concert by Helen Jepson, Metropolitan Opera star, given by the Associated Students during the Sunday afternoon of the weekend.

Educators Conference

The University will play host to Oregon educators when a curriculum conference meets on the campus, July 10 through July 13, Dr. F. G. Macomber, professor of education, has announced. "The Core Curriculum Movement and Its Implications for Oregon Education" is the theme of the conference.

A service at the Methodist church, Sunday evening, July 10, will open the meeting. Dr. John Paul Williams of Massachusetts State college will speak.

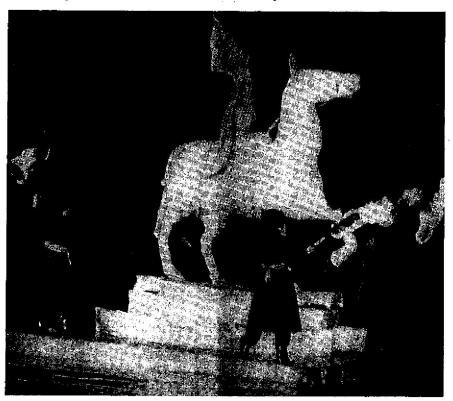

Monday the general session held in the music building will be opened by Dr. Macomber, who is chairman. President Erb will give the address of welcome, to be followed by Chancellor Hunter, speaking on the "Purposes of Education." Dean Jewell of the education department at the University will also be one of the speakers.

Section meetings in language, art, social studies, mathematics, and science will be held in the afternoon. The conference banquet is scheduled for 6:30 at John Straub hall with Dean Jewell as toastmaster. Dr. C. C. Trillingham, assistant superintendent of schools in Los Angeles county, California, will describe the "Ideal Principal."

Dr. F. L. Stetson, professor of education at the University, will be chairman at the general session on Tuesday. Dr. J. F. Cramer, superintendent of Eugene schools, and Dr. J. M. Hawley, superintendent of schools at Carpinteria, California, are the main speakers. Section meetings will be held in the afternoon.

Dean Jewell will preside over the general session Wednesday morning. The conference on "Guidance and Adult Education" will open that afternoon at Oregon State College at 2:30.

Walter Evans Kidd, 1926, under penname of Conrad Pendleton, has appeared in recent issues of New Republic with two poems, MARCH LAMB-ING and SHEEP TOWARD BED-DING. Recently he was elected editor-in-chief of PHSTA Magazine, published by Portland teachers.

This huge white horse with the lighted torchbearers won first prize for Kappa Alpha Theta and Sigma Alpha Mu during the Canoe fete. Riding the horse and dressed as a Russian Empress is Helen Labbe of Portland.

Class of 1913 Silver Jubilee

(The class of 1913 is, from all indication, going to set an all-time record for class reunions. This is a family letter—one of a series of many sent out by Karl Onthank and Carlton Spencer. It shows better than any news story the spirit and fun that is in store for everyone in the class of 1913.—Ed.)

May 21, 1938

Members of the Class of 1913, Everywhere.

Dear Folks:

Here we are with the last family letter before the big 25th reunion that we've been planning for the last five years. The stage is all set. It looks like just about everybody will be back.

Since our last letter, the Portland Committee has had several meetings and the Eugene Committee has had another meeting. Here's the story:

We'll all register in Johnson Hall on the campus. Be sure to register so that when the score is tallied every member will be counted. Karl Onthank's office is in Johnson Hall on the same floor with the registration desks and we'll make that our campus headquarters. If you want a place to rest, or phone or meet someone on the campus, that'll be a handy place. Downtown headquarters will be at the Osburn hotel. Be sure to give your Eugene address when you register. We might want to find you in a hurry.

At six o'clock Friday evening we'll have our class picnic under the Condon Oaks on the campus. Bring the family and bring your friends. All the faculty members of our day have been invited to come as our guests. This promises to be a most enjoyable affair. You'll have a chance to chat with a lot of people you won't see elsewhere. The cost of the picnic dinner will be fifty cents. After the picnic there will be the Failing-Beekman Contest and innumerable unplanned get-togethers and talk-fests.

Saturday at 10:30 a.m. is the Alumni Association meeting in Guild Theater, Johnson Hall. Here's something you don't want to miss. Ed Bailey, '13, President Alumni Association, will preside. Remember what happened at our reunion in 1923-how a resolution was passed proclaiming the class of 1913 the best class ever graduated? That couldn't have happened if a majority of those present hadn't been members of the class of 1913. History has been known to repeat itself. Then, of course, there'll be the usual serious alumni business in which we're all interested. Also there is the Association of University of Oregon Women's breakfast meeting at the Osburn hotel at 8:30 a.m. Our Co-eds will be interested in this.

At noon the annual alumni luncheon. Special tables for us. Response for the class of 1913 by Dean Walker. The cost of the luncheon will be sixty cents.

Here we are as Sophomores—that is those of us who sat for the picture. The faces of many distinguished members of the class do not appear, but look these over and observe that the names of more than half of them are on the list of those from whom we have advance notice that they are returning for the reunion. Others not on the advance list will doubtless also appear! Front Row: Lloyd D. Barzee, Will T. Neill, Harold Broughton, William Bartell, Harry Ding, Chester T. Kronenberg, Carlton E. Spencer, Verena Black, Mildred Whittlesey, Zella Soults. Second Row: Nettie Drew, Aline Norene, Marjory Cowan, Elizabeth Busch, Lena Newton, Maude Guthrie, Adam Krieger, Elliott Roberts, Esther U'Ren, Lora Pummill, Ida Warnock Jenks, Third Row: Lenora Hansen, Florence Cleveland, Ann McMicken, Dean Walker, Nell Hemenway, Carin Degermark, Unidentified, Bess Anderson, Agnes Ryder, Grace Tiffany, Carrie Bechen, Beatrice Pugh, Faye Ball, Betty Wagner, Third Row: Irwin Rolfe, Unidentified, Edith Watt, Dorothy Schoolcraft, Cecil Miller, William Wallace Mount, Francis Walsh, Homer Maris, Russell Calkins, Walter McClure, Howard Parsons, William P. Murphy, Clarence Moulton, Claude Washburne, Unidentified, Last Row: Vesta Holt, Bess Lewis, Alice Farnsworth, Maud Nail, Archie Service Helen Ramage, Ruth Westfall, Grace Cole, Harold Quigley, Richard S. Carrick, Andrew Collier, Thaddeus Wentworth.

Harry Weston Heads A.S.U.O.

Student Body Officers

Harry Weston of Portland has been elected president of the Associated Students for 1938-1939. Weston received 390 first choice votes to take a 34 vote margin over Zane Kemler of Pendleton, who will become first vice-president of the ASUO. Other members of the executive council chosen were Jean Palmer, San Diego, second vice-president, and Wally Johansen of Astoria, who will serve as secretary-treasurer.

Senior class officers elected were: Bob Bailey, Portland, president; Harriet Sarazin, Nyssa, vice-president; Jean Holmes, Palo Alto, secretary; and George Jackson, Grants Pass, treas-

Both Junior and Sophomore class tickets went in unopposed. Junior officers are: Scott Corbett, Portland, president; Rita Wright, Condon, vicepresident; Betty Cowan, Sacramento, secretary; and Irwin Mann, Adams, treasurer.

Heading the Sophomore class will be Stanley Staiger, Vancouver, Washington, president; Barbara Pierce, Salem, vice-president; Jean Kneass, Salem, secretary; and Lloyd Sullivan, Portland, treasurer.

Enders Wins Contest

Jack Enders was awarded first prize of $15 in an insurance salesmanship contest sponsored by the Oregon Mutual Life Insurance Managers' association.

Second prize of $10 was awarded to Bill Dalton, and Fayette Thompson received $5 as the third prize winner.

The three contestants, who were finalists in a recent campus speaking contest given by the University Business Administration school, explained their policies on sales presentation plans. Each was limited to a 10-minute address.

Bill "Caps" Finch, working with Dalton, was adjudged the best stooge and received a prize. The luncheon was attended by some 75 agents of the Oregon Mutual association.

Enders' name will be engraved, following that of Louis Rotenberg, 1937 winner, on the plaque, donated by the association, that hangs in the Business Administration school.

When the Chamber of Commerce executives of Oregon held their 19th annual conference on the campus recently, they named George H. Layman, '32, J.D. '33, as vice-president of their organization. Layman is from Newberg.

News of the death of Dr. Luella Clay Carson, first dean of women at the University, was received by friends on the campus from her home in California.

Luella Clay Carson

Dr. Luella Clay Carson, first dean of women at the University of Oregon, died May 3 in Pomona, California.

Dr. Carson first came to the campus in 1888 as professor of rhetoric and acted unofficially as dean long before given the title. Later, she became head of the English department and left the University in 1909 to become president of Mills college.

Miss Carson was the originator of the flower and fern procession and of Junior weekend. As a memorial to her work at the University, one of the panels on the stairway of the new library has been filled with a mural bearing one of her inspirational messages.

She was born in Portland in 1855, the daughter of two Oregon pioneers, John W. and Elizabeth Talbot Carson. She was graduated from St. Helen's Hall and Mills college and did graduate work at Columbia University. She also served as president and dean of several other colleges and universities. Surviving Dr. Carson is a half-sister, Mrs. Frances Carson Platt of New York city.

Library Has Birthday

On May 3, the University celebrated the first anniversary of the opening of the new $460,000 library building by opening to the public the John Henry Nash loan collection of rare books. The collection is open for public inspection every day except Sundays.

Alumni Assume Duties

New appointments, resignations, and releases recently announced by the State Board of Higher Education found many alumni affected. Heading the lists of appointments was the announcement that Dr. Olaf Larsell, ex-'10, has been named Dean of the Graduate Division to succeed Dean George Rebec, who retires this year.

New appointments include: Resident physicians at the Medical school, Joseph A. Beeman, '34, M.D. '36; Charles N. Holman, '31, M.D. '36; Edward W. Abrams, M.D. '37; Frank B. 15 Accepted by Medical Fifteen Oregon pre-medical students have been accepted by medical schools for entrance next fall. Entering the University Medical School at Portland will be Grover Bellinger, Andrew Bogdanovich, David Breuer, Barney Hall, Andrew Karstens, Ralph Olsen, all members of the class of 1938. Earle Canfield, '39; Robert Epler, '40; James Gerow, '40, and Scott McKeown, '39, will also enter school in Portland.

Maurice Manning, '40, will enter the Yale medical school; Donald Courtney, '40, will go to the University of Maryland in Baltimore; and Thomas Fuson, '39, and Robert Fulton, '38, are planning to go to Cleveland to enter the medical school at Western Reserve University.

State Librarians Meet

The University was host to approximately 115 librarians on May 5, when the southern members of the Oregon State Librarians' association met on the University campus with Harriet C. Long, state librarian, presiding.

Panel speakers included: Miss Mildred Oleson, Salem public library; J. E. Turnbull, trustee of the Eugene public library; and Willis Warren, University of Oregon assistant librarian. The afternoon was spent in book talks by Miss Ethel Sawyer, browsing room librarian, and by Mrs. Marian Herr, head of the children's department of the Portland Library association.

In the afternoon delegates inspected the John Henry Nash collection, now displayed in the library, and were served tea by the University library staff.

Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Xi

Phi Beta Kappa, scholastic honorary, has named fifteen seniors to membership. They are Margaret Earl, Dorothea Tuney, Andrew C. Bogdanovich, Robert H. Knapp, Elizabeth Turner, and Robert A. Lee, all of Portland; Marion Grace Fuiler, Roy Schwartz, Naomi Tobie, Elizabeth Anne De Busk, Orpha May Beck, and Robin Drews of Eugene; Charles Edward Bothwell, Maupin; Marjorie Murdock, Booth; and Edward C. Robbins, Newton Center. Mass.

Sigma Xi, national science honorary, also elected fifteen members. Chapter members elected were Kenneth S. Ghent, Francis J. Reithell, Nicholas P. Sullivan, Frederick R. Judy, and Lyle Veazie. Associate members named were: Franck Holderreed, Margaret Hair, James E. Herbertson, Theodore Lundy, Hiroaki Minatoya, Thomas Fuson, Alex D. Krieger, Richard Leong, Jane Myers, and John T. Van Bruggenn.

The Phi Beta Kappa $25 book award for the sophomore student with the highest grades went to Lorain Gjording of Eugene with a Grade Point Average of 3.86 out of a possible 4.00.

Thachers Leave for Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. F. G. Thacher left the campus on May 15 on a summer tour of Europe. Mr. Thacher is a professor of advertising and Mrs. Thacher a professor of piano in the music school.

Longest stop on the trip will be Vienna, where Mrs. Thacher studied music for some years. A week's visit in Paris with Ralph Casey, former professor of journalism at the University, is planned. In Switzerland, the Thachers will visit three former University professors: Gustave Mueller, professor of philosophy at the University of Oklahoma; Dr. Fritz Marti, University of Maryland philosophy department; and John Metz, former teacher of economics at the University.

The Thachers' tour itinerary includes Rome, Venice, the French Riviera, London, southern Scotland, and southern Germany.

Students Visit Campus

Some 400 Lane county high school students gathered on the campus here today as guests of the Eugene Hi-Y clubs and Girl Reserves. The one-day conference was devoted to study of courses at the University.

The prep students heard a welcome address from President Donald M. Erb and listened to Dr. Earl M. Pallett, University registrar, discuss educational opportunities offered at both state institutions of higher learning.

Jewell Named on Council

Professor J. R. Jewell, Dean of the school of education, has been recently named a member of the national advisory council for supervisors of student teachers. Dean Jewell will be one of eleven men on the board chosen from different geographical regions of the United States. He will represent Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and Montana.

P. E. School Outstanding

The Physical Education curriculum at the University is far advanced from the rest of the nations, Oregon delegates to the national conference for health, physical education, and recreation found. The three men going from the University to Atlanta, Georgia, were Dean Ralph W. Leighton, Professor Paul R. Washke, and Professor Earl Boushey.

At the conference Boushey was elected to the governing board of the association, Washke was made chairman of the men's athletic section, and Dr. Leighton was appointed secretary of the research division.

Emerald Gets High Rank

The Oregon Daily Emerald has been selected one of the six college papers of the country to receive "pacemaker" rating for the year. The judging was done by the all-American critical service of the Associated Collegiate Press. According to Fred L. Kildow, member of the University of Minnesota school of journalism and director of the service, four hundred and fifty college papers were examined before the best six were selected to receive "pacemaker" rating.

The new president of the Oregon Mothers and the new president of the Student Body get together to talk over a few problems. Mrs. Harry Weston of Portland and her son . Harry Weston will head the two organizations for the coming year.

golf course. Eugene was second with 7½.

The Frosh golf team defeated the OSC Rooks 16 to 11 over Eugene's Laurelwood course and 19 to 8 in Corvallis. In the Eugene play the Ducklings broke even in one, won four and lost one of the singles matches and won two of the three best ball foursomes in the afternoon.

Cliff Smith, Oregon No. 1 man, was medalist with a 70 and a 72.

In the Corvallis matches Smith carded a 71 to win the medal. In this game Ruth Tustin, Frosh co-ed and runner-up in the southern division junior women's championship, defeated Dorothy Sellars, Rook golfer and Oregon State junior women's champion, in 18 holes of play.

Oregon 5, WSC 6

Rain, errors, and erratic playing gave Coach Howard Hobson's Webfoot baseball team, 1937 northern division champions, a drab beginning in the 1938 season but a mid-season rally put the boys on the road to a successful season.

After a 4 to 1 victory over Oregon State in the opener on Howe field, the Duck nine lost four games straight, but managed to tighten up enough to place in the .500 mark at the middle of the season and to start the second half with a great deal of strength, knocking over strong opponents by hefty scores.

After their initial victory over the Staters the Webfoots suffered defeats of 11 to 2 by the Beavers on their own field, and lost two games to Washington State by scores of 6 to 5 and 5 to 4 and one to Idaho 2 to 1.

Then the Webfoots started their comeback and took Idaho 8 to 0, Washington twice, 8 to 4 and 10 to 6, and on the trip afield, took Idaho again, 17 to 3 and 8 to 7 at Moscow, and then shellacked Washington State 12 to 0.

In the opener with Oregon State the Webfoot victory was due to the pitching of Bob Creighton, who allowed but four hits. Good hitting had its share in the victory. In the very first inning "Wimpy" Quinn demonstrated his abilities at the plate by poling out a home run to score himself and Gale Smith. Later "Wimp" got a double. Smith hit two singles and Captain Ford Mullen socked a three-bagger and a single.

In the game at Corvallis the next day Oregon made 10 errors to allow the first Beaver win in two years. Lefthanded Bob Hardy was both the pitcher for Oregon and the top hitter of the game. He hit two doubles and a single in three trips. Oregon was held scoreless until the seventh inning, when Hardy and Jimmy Nicholson scored.

Washington State beat Oregon in a close game on a rainy diamond in the first contest of the two-game Eugene series. Oregon held an early lead until the sixth inning, after which the Cougars jumped ahead with the Ducks right behind. With the score 6 to 5 in the ninth in favor of the Cougars, the Oregon men started a rally which failed when two of Oregon's best men slipped up. Quinn was caught off the second base and Creighton was called out on three strikes.

Mullen, Jimmy Nicholson and Gale Smith each got two hits and Nicholson made three runs.

In the next game with the Cougars the following day Oregon was ahead 4 to 3 at the start of the ninth but the Cougars pushed over two runs that inning to win. Hardy, who was pitching, allowed 12 hits. Oregon made 11. Nicholson crossed the plate twice with winning runs and Mullen and Smith tallied one apiece. Nicholson bammed out a double and two singles in his five trips up and Mullen got three singles.

It was a rainy day when Idaho defeated Oregon 2 to 1 on Howe field for the Webfoots' fourth successive loss. The home boys couldn't hit Idaho's Earl Gregory until the sixth inning. In the ninth with the Vandals leading 2 to 1, Quinn was on third with one out, but Jack Gordon was put out on second and John Linde, pitcher, flied out before the run could get in. Creighton and Linde divided the hurling duties. Gordon hit twice and scored Oregon's only run in the seventh on Beard's double.

Oregon 8, Idaho 0

The following day, however, Oregon started a new deal and beat Idaho 8 to 0. Hardy pitched and gave 6 hits, all within the first four innings, and made nine assists. After the fourth inning no Idaho man reached first. The second inning was the big inning for the Ducks, who crossed the plate five times in that frame. Oregon got 13 hits and Mullen, Quinn, and Nicholson had a triple and a single each. Nicholson, the persistent scorer, brought in the first run.

Then on Junior Weekend the University of Washington Huskies came down and were defeated 8 to 4 by the Webfoots in the first game. Oregon got 11 hits to knock the Washington starting pitcher out of the box. Gale Smith poled out a homer and two singles and "Wimp" Quinn and Bob Beard both got a double and a single.

The next day Oregon won 10 to 6. but only after a six-run rally in the eighth at which time the Huskies were leading 6 to 4. Southpaw Hardy was on the mound and allowed the Huskies 6 hits, but the Oregon boys collected 14. Quinn, Beard, Hardy, Mullen, Nicholson and Matt Pavalunas scored in the eighth inning rally.

Then came the Webfoot trip into the Palouse country, and on a Friday afternoon Oregon beat Idaho 17 to 3 in Moscow, connecting with five Vandal pitchers for 17 hits. All the starting players scored. Quinn with three hits made four runs and Nicholson with three hits scored thrice. Homers by Quinn in the fifth and Mullen in the ninth scored six runners.

In the ninth inning of the next game the following day, Oregon was leading 8 to 3 and Idaho went on a rally to cross the platter four times, but they were held there. Oregon scored 5 runs in the first inning, and although they won they made seven hits to Idaho's 10. The three pitchers in the game, Gregory and Stoddard for Idaho and John Linde for Oregon, each hit home runs. Linde got his in the eighth

When the boys moved across the line into Washington they smacked the Cougar down 12 to 0. Two home runs by Shortstop Jack Gordon, brother of Joe Gordon, new Yankee infielder. were an important factor in the victory. Besides these two round trips, Gordon boomed out a three-baser and a single in five trips up to bat.

The Ducks started the first inning with five runs and kept a-moving all the way to avenge their double defeat in the hands of Buck Bailey's boys in Eugene. Creighton chucked for six innings and allowed but three hits. Le-Roy Mattingly, Emerald editor and pitcher, allowed only two hits in the last three innings. Altogether Oregon collected 13 hits. John Linde, pitcher who played outfield that day, smacked a homer and a triple, and Mullen got a double and a triple, the last scoring three men.

Varsity to Fly East

The University of Oregon basketball team, 1938 northern division champions, will fly to New York City next winter to play in Madison Square Garden on December 17 and at the Convention hall in Philadelphia, Coach Howard Hobson has reported. The team will play several games on the way back.

Wally Johansen, guard, and Laddie Gale, high scoring forward, have been named on this year's official all-coast team of Spaldings' basketball guide. Gale is the running mate of the Stanford's Hank Luisetti.

Varsity 24 Alumni 13

Coach "Tex" Oliver's 1938 gridiron machine defeated a team of ex-Webfoot football players 24 to 13 in a feature game of the Junior Weekend program. Showing fine morale, plenty of passing, and low, hard charging the Webfoots made 14 first downs to the "all-stars'" none. They scored three times in the first quarter. The first was a pass from "Duke" Hankinson to Don Mabee which was good for 40 yards and a touchdown; the second was a forward from Steve Anderson to Dave Gammon and then a lateral to Allen Samuelson who ran 7 yards to score; and the third was a pass from Anderson to Gammon from the three-yard line.

In the second quarter "all-star" Jerry Donnell's punt was blocked and Paul Rowe took the ball to the 11-yard line from which Jay Graybeal scored through right tackle.

The ex-Webfoots shone in the third quarter when Chan Berry grabbed a pass from Isberg of the varsity and ran 95 yards for a touchdown. Later Maury Van Vliet intercepted Graybeal's pass and ran 63 yards to score.

Frosh Baseball

John Warren's Frosh baseball team has defeated the Oregon State Rooks twice this spring, 9 to 1 and 14 to 7. Pete Igoe, ex-Eugene high school hurler, was credited with both victories. In the first game he allowed three hits and made 12 strikeouts, and in the second he gave but four hits in the seven innings he worked on the mound. Al Ridder, who replaced him in this latter game, blanked the Baby Beavers in the last two innings.

The Ducklings took a 5 to 1 lead in the first two innings but in the third the Rooks crossed the plate five times to go one run in the lead. In the fourth, however, Clayton Shaw drove in four runs to give the Frosh the lead and in the following inning the Ducklings pushed over three more to send the Rook pitcher to the showers. Jack Shimshak, Duckling second baseman, hit a home run and a triple.

In other games the Frosh defeated Springfield high school 4 to 0, Woodburn high school 4 to 0 to avenge a former 10 to 6 loss, Eugene high school 12 to 2, and Silverton 6 to 1. The Hills Creek semi-pros beat the Ducklings 3 to 2.

Tennis Squad Wins

The varsity tennis team, sweeping through its matches in top form, is making a strong bid for the northern division championship.

The Webfoots defeated the Idaho Vandals 6 to 1 in the conference opener in Eugene. Larry Crane, Les Werschkul, Ellsworth Ellis, Bill Zimmerman, and Karl Mann won singles matches. The Vandals won one of the doubles matches.

The Webfoots also defcated the WSC Cougars netmen 7 to 0 on the University court, dropping but one set. Oregon State gave the Webfoots their first defeat when the Beavers defeated the Oregon men 4 to 3 on the Eugene courts, but on the following day in Corvallis the Webfoots retaliated by beating the Beavers by the same score. Werschkul, Ellis, and Zimmerman won singles matches, and Crane and Zimmerman won one of the doubles matches.

In other matches Oregon defeated Linfield 6 to 1, Willamette 4 to 2, and the Frosh 7 to 0.

Frosh Tennis

The Frosh tennis team defeated the OSC Rooks 7 to 0 on the University courts, losing but two sets in the games. Later they took the baby Beavers in the latters' courts, 6 to 1, to win another victory from them. The Frosh won four out of the five singles. The Ducklings also defeated Oregon Normal School 7 to 0, losing but one set at Monmouth.

Rifles Place Second

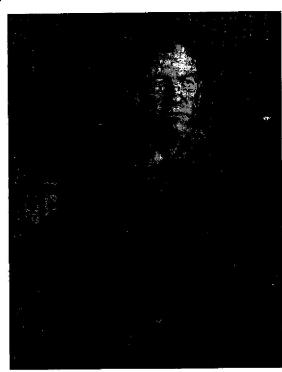

The Oregon varsity rifle team placed second in the ninth corps area in the national intercollegiate indoor shooting matches held this spring. Washington State was first with 7691 points out of a possible 8000. Oregon was second with 7661, and Washington third with 7626 points. Webfoot shooters, as they placed in the shoot, were William Gieseke, Stanley Warren, Robert Boyd, Galen Robbins, Jack Lew, Verlin Wolfe, Gilbert Wing, Joe Sallee, David Curtis, and Lawrence Lew.

Five Oregon students were in the Eugene division of the 162nd Infantry of the Oregon Nationad Guard which was awarded the United States championship in indoor rifle shooting contest: Warren, Gieseke, Robbins, Elbridge Warren and Fred Adlerd.

Women's Rifle Squad

The girls' rifle team ended the year with one loss, one tie and 15 wins in 17 postal matches shot against women's teams from the leading colleges and universities in the nation.

Emblems were awarded to Dorothy Burke, Virginia Enockson, Constance Kletzer, Louise Woodruff, Judith Oswald, Barbara Stallcup, Marjorie Bates, Blanche Moore, Catherine Miller, Lillian England, Jean Ramsdan, and Ruth Ketchum. Miss Ruth Russell received an emblem as coach of the team.

Coach "Tex" Oliver has rounded up Spring football practice and is already to assume his duties in the coaching school to be held during summer session. Coach Oliver had the pleasure of seeing his varsity whip a team of all-star alumni.

the new library, better infirmary facilities, and other improvements, was of great interest. In his pleasantly informal style Mr. Shumaker suggested that the University of Oregon does not lack features which might well be the basis for an enthusiastic personal advertising campaign.

As election of officers for the first meeting had been only a temporary arrangement, Mr.Rosenfeld appointed a committee to nominate permanent officers for the organization.

Copies of Old Oregon were passed out by Mr. Rosenfeld, together with membership cards, to each one present.

Mrs. C. N. Reynolds invited the group to met at her home on the Stanford campus on April 28. As this is to be an evening meeting, it is hoped that an even larger group will be present.

Very truly yours,

ELLEN GALEY, Secretary.

Salem, Oregon. April 23, 1938.

Alumni Secretary, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon.

Dear Sir:

Regarding my degrees from University of Oregon, there is some rather laughable ancient history.

In 1887, when I entered there was in operation no high school and it was necessary for me to take two years preparatory in the University and then four years regular college work, and upon graduation I received a diploma awarding me the degree of Master of Arts. This was not intentional and happened in the manner following:

The University had caused to be printed a supply of diplomas for graduates entitled to the degree of B.A. and also to the degree of M.A. These diplomas were beautifully printed in Latin using script. This script was beautiful penmanship and blanks were left to fill in the name of the graduates. Professor Hawthorne, in charge of the work, was a poor writer, so he sent these diplomas to a famous penman in Portland to fill in the names of the graduates. In some manner, my name and the name of Lawrence T. Harris and perhaps one more in the class were pinned on to or attached to diplomas for Master of Arts degrees. The penman filled in the diplomas beautifully and no one ever went to the trouble of trying to read upon graduation.

Afterwards, Mr. Harris and myself, although rusty in our Latin, decided to translate our diplomas and we found to our amazement that we had been awarded Master of Arts

the Latin and we were awarded the diplomas

Naturally we were worried about what to do, but decided to lay the matter before Professor Hawthorne. The good natured old professor had a good laugh and said it was all right to keep our diplomas and that it would save the trouble of issuing new diplomas three years later, as we were both going to continue our studies along professional lines.

Thus the only diploma I ever received was a Master of Arts awarded in June, 1893.

Yours truly,

CAREY F. MARTIN.

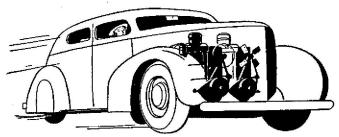

(On June 7, 1938, Mr. Martin will have practised law for 40 years.—Ed.)
