University of Oregon
Commencement

AUGUST 16, 2003

The President's Centennial Medallion, shown on the next page, was commissioned in 1975 and is worn by the president as a badge of office during formal university ceremonies. Professor Emeritus Paul Buckner of the Department of Art created and executed the design.

The University Seal, shown on the title page, was created by Judge Matthew P. Deady, first president of the Board of Regents, and was approved by that body in 1878. In its center is a representation of Mt. Hood as a symbol of the state. Around its edge is the university's motto, mens agitat molem—mind moves the mass.

University of Oregon Summer Commencement August 16, 2003

WELCOME—STUDENTS, PARENTS, AND FRIENDS—to the University of Oregon. With each year's commencement comes a great sense of accomplishment as well as an awareness of the future. This year is no exception, holding as it does the joy and satisfaction of achievement and the promise of challenges and opportunities that will stretch courage and creativity in new and exciting directions.

The University of Oregon began 126 years ago with a promise from one generation of Oregonians to future generations. It was based on the belief that education could make a difference in the lives of men and women, and it was this difference that would, in turn, improve the quality of the state, the nation, and the world. This year, we renew our commitment to be a part of making a difference.

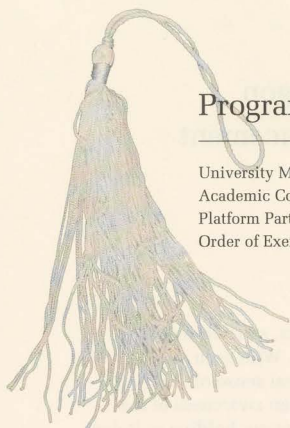

Our pledge is kept in part by the traditional commencement ceremony we attend today, and it will be kept in full by the accomplishments that you as graduates build and celebrate in the future.

On behalf of the university community, I offer our best wishes as you continue to fulfill that original promise in the years to come.

The University of Oregon opened its doors in 1876. Deady Hall housed the entire university in those days. Built of bricks made from clay dug out of the local hills, the building was guaranteed by its architect to last 1,000 years. The first commencement in 1878 graduated five students. Today the university serves 20,000 students on its 295-acre campus. More than 1,500 faculty members teach in its professional schools and its arts and sciences departments.

At the University of Oregon, it is customary for master's degree candidates to wear their hoods in the procession. Doctoral candidates carry them and are hooded during the ceremony. Each bachelor's degree candidate moves the cap tassel from front right to front left as the degree is conferred. Caps are removed during the pledge song and the commencement address.

Honor Cords

Bachelor's degree candidates who graduate with academic honors may wear honor cords over their gowns. Colors of honor cords signify specific honors.

Recessional

A reception immediately follows the Recession.

Named university librarian for the University of Oregon in May of this year, commencement speaker Deborah Carver received a bachelor's degree in political science in 1973, graduating magna cum laude from the University of Massachusetts. Carver earned a master's degree in library science from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, in 1976, and a master's degree in public administration from the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, in 1984.

From 1976 to 1984, she held several posts in libraries at the University of Virginia, and was associate librarian for public services at Appalachian State University in Boone, North Carolina, from 1984 to 1989. Carver was president of the Oregon Library Association in 1995-96.

She has served as interim university librarian at the UO since July 2000.

Graduation with Latin Honors

Graduating seniors who have earned at least 90 credits in residence at the University of Oregon and have completed all other university degree requirements shall be awarded graduation with honors: upper 2 percent, summa cum laude; upper 5 percent, magna cum laude; upper 10 percent, cum laude. These distinctions are based on students' percentile rankings for their graduation term. The honors determination for summer 2003 degree candidates is provisional. It is based on academic work completed prior to the graduation term and is not official until final grades have been recorded.

Names of degree candidates are listed alphabetically by college or school and degree.

For summer 2003 candidates, the students whose names are listed herein were considered to be candidates for the degrees indicated when the program was printed. This is not an official degree list. The appropriate degrees and diplomas will be awarded to those candidates who have successfully completed all requirements by the end of summer session 2003.

Oregon Pledge Song

Old Oregon, we pledge to thee
Our honor and fidelity,
Both now and in the years to be,
A never failing loyalty.
Fair Oregon, thy name shall be
Written high in liberty.
Now, uncovered, swear we every one
Our pledge to Oregon.

John Stark Evans, a member of the music faculty for many years, wrote the Oregon Pledge Song, fondly known as "Old Oregon," in 1919.
He gave the rights to the pledge song to the University of Oregon.
