COLLEGE OF BUSINESS

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Philip J. Romero, Dean

CLASS OF 2000

On behalf of our distinguished faculty and staff, I would like to welcome you to the

UNDERGRADUATE COMMENCEMENT

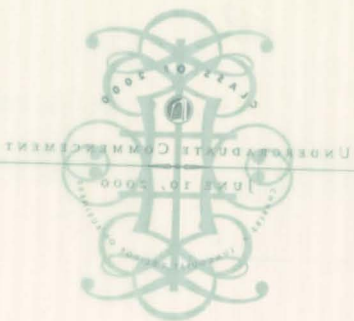

on Wednesday, June 10, 2000 at 10:00 a.m. in the Student Center.

This is a time to reflect on the journey you have taken. The path to knowledge and personal growth you have now concluded is one that will serve you well in the future. You will begin the journey of discovery when you begin your career. We hope you will begin and sustain a successful career.

At the Lundquist College of Business we strive to provide the highest standards of academic inquiry, learning, and service for our students. The college continues to be an innovative, entrepreneurial learning community. We are proud of giving our students the skills to move on to new opportunities. You can be proud to be a Lundquist College of Business graduate and we are proud of you.

Congratulations and good luck.

HEARTFELT CONGRATULATIONS

Philip J. Romero, Dean

On behalf of our distinguished faculty and administration, I would like to welcome you to the 2000 Lundquist College of Business commencement. Today, we congratulate you and celebrate your achievement with your family and friends.

This is a time of celebration and transition for you. The path to knowledge and personal growth you have now concluded is one that I hope will remain with you and serve you well throughout the rest of your life. I hope the journey of discovery is one that you will repeat often as you begin and sustain a successful career.

At the Lundquist College of Business we strive to provide the highest standards of academic inquiry, learning and service for our students. The college continues to be an innovative, entrepreneurial learning community focused on giving our students the skills to move on to new responsibilities. You can be proud to be a Lundquist College of Business graduate and we are proud of you.

Congratulations and good luck,

CHARLES H. LUNDQUIST COLLEGE OF BUSINESS OVERVIEW

U.S. News & World Report ranks the undergraduate program at the Lundquist College of Business the best in Oregon and the second best in the Pacific Northwest.

Recently, the Lundquist Center for Entrepreneurship was ranked in the top 30 nationally by U.S. News & World Report.

Prominent UO alumni include Edwin Artzt, former chairman and CEO of Procter and Gamble; Paul Brainerd, founder of Aldus Corporation and developer of PageMaker software; Charles Lillis, Chairman of MediaOne; and Philip Knight, founder of NIKE.

The University of Oregon offered its first business course in 1876 and founded the college of business in 1894. The college of business awarded its first Bachelor's degree in 1917.

The University of Oregon enrolls 17,000 students, boasts seven National Academy of Sciences members, 37 Guggenheim Fellowships, 132 Fulbright Fellowships, and is one of only 30 public research universities afforded membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities.

The James H. Warsaw Sports Marketing Center is the first and only sports marketing center to function within a college of business at a major AAU research university. Its advisory board boasts leaders from NIKE, ESPN, ABC Sports, and NBC among others.

HELPFUL INFORMATION

In consideration of your fellow graduates, please return to your seat following receipt of your diploma.

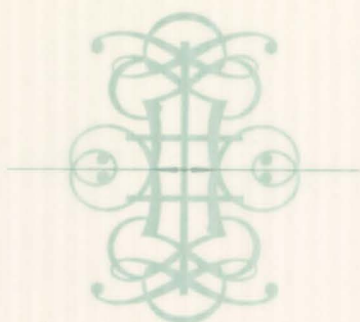

PHOTOGRAPHY

Professional photographs will be taken of the graduates as they receive their diploma covers. For personal photographs, please use the designated roped off area. Please be courteous of others, and stay clear of this area when you are not taking pictures. We also ask that you please keep the center aisles and the front of the stage clear for graduates.

FLOWERS

Alpha Phi Omega (service fraternity) is selling flowers, the prices vary.
