President's Welcome

On behalf of the University of Oregon, I congratulate members of the class of 1978 and extend best wishes to their parents, families, and friends here assembled.

The completion of your degree program marks the successful conclusion of one endeavor and the beginning of another. We salute each individual whose accomplishments are recognized during these ceremonies.

William Boyd, President

The University

The University of Oregon opened its doors to 177 students on October 16, 1876. Today the University enrolls some 17,000 students. Its 932 faculty are engaged in teaching, research, and scholarship covering a broad range of humanistic, scientific, and professional knowledge.

The campus houses 35 departments and special programs in the liberal arts; nine professional schools and colleges; 12 research bureaus, institutes, and centers; and a graduate division.

The University's more than 80,000 alumni include two graduates who have won the Nobel Prize: William Parry Murphy, co-winner of the prize in 1934 for a development in the treatment of anemia, and Walter Houser Brattain, who won it in 1956 for the co-invention of the transistor. Seventeen Rhodes Scholars call the University of Oregon their alma mater.

The University is one of only 23 public schools in the nation to be selected for membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities.

Welcome to New Alumni

Congratulations and welcome to the University of Oregon Alumni Association. As graduates you may take part in any of the Association's activities, including foreign travel, reunions, vacation learning experiences, or one of the many alumni groups around the world. You also will receive copies of the alumni publications Old Oregon and Oregon Today. The Alumni Association is a great way to keep in touch with "Oregon." We're here to serve you.

John Charles Morris, President

Academic Costume

The history of academic dress goes back several centuries, to the chilly universities where cap and gown and hood were needed for covering and warmth. Subsequently this has become a ceremonial costume, with certain standardized features. For example, sleeves in the bachelor's gown are pointed, in the master's gown are oblong, in the doctor's gown are bell-shaped. Only the doctor's gown has velvet facing. The hood is lined with the official colors of the degree-conferring institution; for the University of Oregon these are yellow and green. The outside trimming of the hood and the color of the tassel signify the subject in which the degree is conferred, as follows:

Maize/Agriculture
White/Art, Letters, Humanities
Drab/Commerce, Accountancy, Business
Lilac/Dentistry
Copper/Economics
Light Blue/Education
Orange/Engineering
Brown/Fine Arts, including Architecture
Russet/Forestry
Crimson/Journalism
Purple/Law
Lemon/Library Science
Green/Medicine
Pink/Music
Apricot/Nursing
Silver Gray/Oratory, Speech
Olive Green/Pharmacy
Dark Blue/Philosophy
Sage Green/Physical Education
Peacock Blue/Public Administration, including Foreign Service
Salmon Pink/Public Health
Golden Yellow/Science
Citron/Social Work
Scarlet/Theology
Gray/Veterinary Science

Commencement Setting: Memorial Quadrangle

At the University of Oregon it is customary for master's candidates to wear their hoods in the academic procession. Doctoral candidates carry their hoods and are hooded during the ceremony. Traditionally, baccalaureate candidates change tassels on their cap from front right to the front left as the degree is conferred. Caps are removed during the playing of The Pledge Song and during the commencement address if desired.

Today's Commencement setting is the Memorial Quadrangle facing the University of Oregon Library. The Library was founded in 1882 with a gift from Henry Villard. The two rows of Pyramidal English Oaks which line the Quadrangle were a gift to the University in memory of Robert Chase Bailey who was president of the senior class in 1939. A bronze plaque on the library terrace wall behind the speaker's platform also honors the memory of Bailey. A verse on the plaque written by the late Professor Robert D. Horn reads:

*Here where the living mind and step of youth retrace
The ancient path to human wisdom's goal,
The symmetry of oaks shall keep this place
For one, for all who like him seek the whole
Joy of life for men, in thought, in soul,
In body, voice, and friendship's smiling face.*

"The ancient path to human wisdom's goal" is further exemplified by the Library facade. Above the entrances are reminders of the purpose of education: "Ye Shall Know the Truth." over the east doorway "And the Truth Shall Make You Free." (John 8:32) over the west doorway.

Below the cornice of the Library is a series of sculptured heads representing the seven major liberal arts disciplines: Philosophia, Historia, Religio, Ars, Natura, Societas and Litterae. The individuals represented are: Aquinas, Aristotle, Locke, Thucydides, Buddha, Christ, Michelangelo, Beethoven, DaVinci, Newton, Darwin, Jefferson, Holmes, Shakespeare, and Dante.

Under the cornice of the Museum of Art, the building on the east side of the Quadrangle, is a series of recurring sculptured heads each representing one form of art: Primitive, Egyptian, Greek, and Oriental. On the front steps of the Museum is the sculpture, "Indian Maiden and Fawn," one of four sculptures on the campus executed by Alexander Phimster Proctor.

To the west of Memorial Quadrangle is Prince Lucien Campbell Hall named in honor of the University's fourth president. In its courtyard is a sculpture, "The Falconer," by James Lee Hansen. This sculpture was donated by Jordan Schnitzer, Class of 1974, to honor three University of Oregon English professors.

The walks on the Quadrangle were the gift of Colonel William S. Gilbert, U.S. Army Chaplain, who served in the Philippines and through World War I. The walks are dedicated as a memorial to the men of the University who served their country in time of war. The Rev. Mr. Gilbert was a member of the University's Board of Regents from about 1920 to 1932.

Modern art is represented on the Quadrangle by Duane Loppnow's yellow metal sculpture, "Reflections on a Summer Day," a fitting title for this occasion.
