Address Before the Graduating Class

HON. JOHN M. GEARIN

Soprano Solo:—

a Der Schwan (A Swan)

Grieg

My swan, my treasure, with snowy white feather,
Of his songs sang me never a single measure;
Shyly fearing the elves in the bushes,
Glided he, listening there mid the rushes,
Yet when death came, and parting alarmed me,
With sweet song he charmed me;
And song, with death came.
And with its ringing, his spirit passed on, then,
He died while singing.
Was he only a swan then?
