

ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM GRADUATION CEREMONY

Saturday, June 10, 2000, 10:00 a.m.

Erb Memorial Union Fir Room

University of Oregon

PROGRAM OF EVENTS

Welcome and introductions Richard Kraus, Director

Remarks Dick Easley, Director
White Lotus Gallery, Eugene

B.A. student speaker Gabriel Bloch

M.A. student speaker Xin Yang

Conferring of Degrees..... Richard Kraus, Director

Class Photo

The Faculty and Staff of the Asian Studies Program invite all graduates and guests to a reception following the ceremony.

Please join us in extending congratulations to the graduates

1999-2000 GRADUATES OF THE ASIAN STUDIES PROGRAM

Master of Arts Degree

Larry David Clark:

Gender and Ethnic Identity in a Japanese New Religion: Reiuakai, a Case Study

David Douglas Neilson:

Methods in Madness: The Last Years of Toyotomi Hideyoshi

Kristopher Fredrik Newburg:

Master of Arts by Examination

Vanessa Robin Preisler:

Discriminating Eyes: Architectural Representations of Balinese Culture in Resort Design

Xin Yang:

Women of China and its Representation of Women's Identity in the 1990's

Bachelor of Arts Degree

Richard Balsley (double major in Japanese)

Gabriel Bloch (Phi Beta Kappa, Summa Cum Laude, Honors College)

Joshua Butler (triple major in History & International Studies)

Mandy Chong (minor in Business Administration)

Ann Craig (double major in History, minor in Chinese)

Matthew Jensen (double major in Chinese, minor in Business Administration)

Terry Johnson (double major in Business Administration, minor in Japanese)

Tiffany Phosrithong

Jesse Sartain

Kunitomo Shinjo

Mika Takamiya (minor in Chinese & Business Administration)

Ashley Wang

Undergraduate Minors

Vatsana Chanthala (major in International Studies, minor in Business Administration)

Takako Osaka (major in International Studies)

James Quan (major in Sociology, minor in History)

Tricia Schwenneson (major in Journalism)

Ravil Sharma (major in Psychology)

Hsiu-Ying Wang (double major in Business Administration & Japanese)

Weir, Elizabeth (major in International Studies)