Dale Morse, Dean

Heartfelt Congratulations

On behalf of our distinguished faculty and administration, I would like to welcome you to the 1998 Lundquist College of Business commencement. We are very proud to honor these students who have earned their bachelor degrees in business. Today, we congratulate you and celebrate your achievement with your family and friends.

This is a time of celebration and transition for our graduating students. The path to knowledge and personal growth you have now concluded is one that I hope will remain with you and serve you well throughout the rest of your life. I hope the journey of discovery is one that you will repeat often as you begin and sustain a successful career.

At the Lundquist College of Business we strive to provide the highest standards of academic inquiry, learning and service for our students. The college continues to be an innovative, entrepreneurial learning community focused on giving our students the skills to move on to new responsibilities. You can be proud to be a Lundquist College of Business graduate and we are proud of you.

Charles H. Lundquist College of Business Overview

U.S. News and World Report ranked the undergraduate program at Lundquist College of Business the best in Oregon and the second best in the Pacific Northwest.

Business Week, U.S. News and World Report, and the Gourman Report rank the Lundquist College of Business in the top 70 of the nation's 389 graduate schools of business.

The U.S. Association of Small Business and Entrepreneurship, representing almost 70 countries, named the Lundquist College of Business winner of its "1997 Model MBA Entrepreneurship Program."

Success magazine listed the Lundquist College of Business as one of the top 35 U.S. entrepreneurial MBA programs.

Prominent UO alumni include Edwin Artz, former chairman and CEO of Procter and Gamble; Paul Brainerd, founder of Aldus Corporation and developer of PageMaker software; and Philip Knight, founder of NIKE.

The University of Oregon offered the first business course in 1876 and founded the college of business in 1894. The college of business awarded its first MBA in 1923.

The University of Oregon enrolls 17,000 students, boasts seven National Academy of Sciences members, 37 Guggenheim Fellowships, 132 Fulbright Fellowships, and is one of only 30 public research universities afforded membership in the prestigious Association of American Universities.

The James H. Warsaw Sports Marketing Center is the first and only endowed sports marketing center to function within a college of business at a major AAU research university. Its advisory board boasts leaders from NIKE, ESPN, ABC Sports and NBC among others.
