Oregon Pledge Song

Fair Oregon, we pledge to thee

Our honor and fidelity,

Both now and in the years to be,

A never failing loyalty.

Fair Oregon, thy name shall be Written high in liberty.

Now, uncovered, swear we every one

Our pledge to Oregon.

John Stark Evans, a music major at the University of Oregon, wrote the "Oregon Pledge Song" while waiting to be shipped out during World War I. When he returned in 1922, he gave the rights to the pledge song to the university.

A Sense of Tradition

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON
SUMMER COMMENCEMENT
AUGUST 14, 1999

WELCOME—STUDENTS, PARENTS, AND FRIENDS—to the University of Oregon. With each year's commencement comes a great sense of accomplishment as well as an awareness of the future. This year is no exception, holding as it does the joy and satisfaction of achievement and the promise of challenges and opportunities that will stretch courage and creativity in new and exciting directions.

The University of Oregon began with a promise from one generation of Oregonians to future generations. It was based on the belief that education could make a difference in the lives of men and women, and it was this difference that would, in turn, improve the quality of the state, the nation, and the world.

That pledge—made nearly 125 years ago—is kept in part by the traditional commencement ceremony we attend today, and it will be kept in full by the accomplishments that you as graduates build and celebrate in the future.

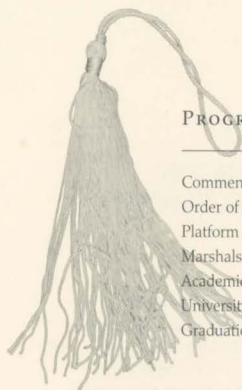

On behalf of the university community, I offer our best wishes as you continue to fulfill that original promise in the years to come.

The President's Centennial Medallion, shown above, was commissioned in 1975 and is worn by the president as a badge of office during formal university ceremonies. Professor Emeritus Paul Buckner of the Department of Fine and Applied Arts created and executed the design.

The University Seal, shown on the title page, was created by Judge Matthew P. Deady, first president of the Board of Regents, and was approved by that body in 1878. In its center is a representation of Mt. Hood as a symbol of the state. Around its edge is the university's motto, mens agitat molem—mind moves the mass.

The University of Oregon opened its doors in 1876. Deady Hall housed the entire university in those days. Built of bricks made from clay dug out of the local hills, the building was guaranteed by its architect to last 1,000 years. The first commencement in 1878 graduated five students. Today the university serves 17,200 students on its 380-acre campus. More than 1,200 faculty members teach in its professional schools and its arts and sciences departments.

Commencement Speaker Timothy Gleason is professor and dean of the School of Journalism and Communication at the University of Oregon,
where he joined the faculty in 1987.

Focusing on communication law and ethics, Gleason has authored The Watchdog Concept: The Press and the Courts in Nineteenth-Century America,
coauthored Social Research
in Communication and Law, and serves on the editorial boards of four journals.

In 1990 the UO journalism school awarded Gleason its first Jonathan Marshall Teaching Award for excellence in teaching.
Prior to his teaching career, Gleason worked as a freelance photographer
as well as a general-assignment reporter and photojournalist.

The academic procession is led by the university marshal, who carries the university mace. The position is one of honor and is traditionally held by a previous recipient of the Thomas F.
Herman Faculty Achievement Award for Distinguished Teaching.

Academic Costume

The history of academic dress goes back several centuries to the chilly universities where cap, gown, and hood were needed for covering and warmth. Subsequently this has become a ceremonial costume with certain standardized features. The hood is lined with the official colors of the degree-conferring institution; for the University of Oregon these are yellow and green. The outside trimming of the hood and the color of the tassel signify the subject in which the degree is conferred:

maize/agriculture
white/arts, letters, humanities drab/commerce, accounting, business
blue-violet/architecture
lilac/dentistry
copper/economics
light blue/education
orange/engineering
brown/fine arts
russet/forestry
crimson/journalism
purple/law
lemon/library science
green/medicine
pink/music
apricot/nursing
silver gray/oratory, speech
olive green/pharmacy dark blue/philosophy
sage green/physical education
peacock blue/public administration
salmon pink/public health
golden yellow/science
citron/social work
scarlet/theology
gray/veterinary science

At the University of Oregon it is customary for master's degree candidates to wear their hoods in the procession. Doctoral candidates carry their hoods and are hooded during the ceremony. Each bachelor's degree candidate changes the cap tassel from front right to front left as the degree is conferred. Caps are removed during the pledge song and during the commencement address.

University Mace

In medieval times the mace was usually carried into battle by kings, bishops, and other leaders for use as a weapon. Later on it came to be used more for ceremonial occasions. Today it is a symbol of authority.

The mace leading the University of Oregon's academic procession was designed and made by C. Max Nixon, professor emeritus of fine and applied arts, as a gift to the university he has served since 1958. The creative use of copper, bronze, silver, and walnut typify the spirit of the university over the past 125 years.

The head of the mace is a sphere made up of four university seals joined at a common axis. The outer rims of the seals are copper. The university's name and motto, in Latin, are in bronze. The mountain at the center of the sphere is in silver, while the forests and hills are in bronze. Surmounting the linked seals is a replica of Deady Hall, the university's first building, cast in bronze.

At the top of the oiled walnut shaft and within the sphere created by the seals is the university's founding date. At the base of the shaft is a finial ornament in bronze, finished with a stylized pine-cone pattern. Embedded in its tip is the seal of the State of Oregon, also in bronze.

Graduation with Honors

Students who complete honors requirements in their majors are awarded departmental honors.

Graduating seniors who have earned at least 90 credits in residence at the University of Oregon and have completed all other university degree requirements shall be awarded graduation with Latin honors: upper 2 percent, summa cum laude; upper 5 percent, magna cum laude; upper 10 percent, cum laude. These distinctions are based on students' percentile rankings for their graduation term.

Honors determinations for summer 1999 degree candidates are provisional. They are based on academic work completed prior to the graduation term and are not official until final grades have been recorded.

For summer 1999 candidates, the students whose names are listed herein were considered to be candidates for the degrees indicated when the program was printed. This is not an official degree list. The appropriate degrees and diplomas will be awarded to those candidates who have successfully completed all requirements by the end of summer session 1999.

Names of degree candidates are listed alphabetically by college or school and degree.
