Commencement Program

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

Ninety-eighth Annual Commencement

HAYWARD FIELD

June 15, 1975

Education is a companion
which no misfortune can depress,
no crime can destroy,
no enemy can alienate,
no despotism can enslave.

Joseph Addison

Oregon Pledge Song

Fair Oregon, we pledge to thee
Our honor and fidelity,
Both now and in the years to be,
A never failing loyalty.
Fair Oregon, thy name shall be Written high in liberty.
Now, uncovered, swear we every one
Our pledge to Oregon.

Awards for Distinguished Service

Jacob Avshalomov

Of the creative gifts, that of music evokes vibrant response in the audience. In this his chosen field, Jacob Avshalomov has been accorded national awards as a composer and conductor. The vitality of his work brings special pleasure to his listeners and rich experiences to the performers. For more than twenty years the cultural life of Portland has been enhanced eloquently by his artistry and skill as the conductor of the Portland Junior Symphony. Student, teacher, composer, and lecturer, his radiant talent has captivated audiences throughout Oregon.

Gordon Waverly Gilkey

Artist, collector-conservator, Gordon Waverly Gilkey has brought to his native Oregon a rare insight to an exacting art. Internationally recognized as a printmaker and as a discriminating collector of prints, he is known for his own art work which has been exhibited widely and for his personal collection judged one of the finest in the Western states. As a conservator of fine art, he was founder of the United States Commission for the Protection and Salvage of Artistic and Historic Monuments in the War Areas at the onset of World War II. He became the founder and director of the International Exchange Print Exhibits. Through various trusteeships with the Portland Art Museum and School, Oregon Museum of Science and Industry and the Oregon Art Alliance, he has shared his expertise widely and in sharing has enriched the cultural lives of his fellow Oregonians.

Wesley G. Nicholson

Wisdom, warmth and a perceptive understanding of the corroding needs of those to whom he has ministered has characterized the more than fifty years of service of Wesley G. Nicholson. His insight into the workings of human nature penetrates cultural, racial and sectarian barriers. His devotion to protecting the fragile human spirit in the sprawling stress of urban living has inspired all of those privileged to have known him. His sturdy independence, personal commitment to social causes, and uncounted hours of caring service have been a kindly light to those seeking direction in today's chaotic and confusing world.

Robert D. Clark

Dr. Robert D. Clark, eleventh President of the University of Oregon 1969-1975, retires this June after twenty-seven years of service to the University. His excellence as a teacher and scholar in Rhetoric and Public Address remains vivid in the minds of those who studied with him. He has proven his leadership in educational administration as a Department Head, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts, Dean of Faculties, and as President. Under his guidance the University of Oregon has grown in stature as a distinguished university. He has made clear his concern for faculty and student rights and his insistence that the University must remain a place to uphold the dignity of thought and learning. He has always insisted on the right of full and fair inquiry—in the belief that a free exchange of ideas ultimately brings reason and wisdom into the conduct of human affairs.

Academic Costume

The history of academic dress goes back several centuries, to the chill universities where cap and gown and hood were needed for covering and warmth. Subsequently this has become a ceremonial costume, with certain standardized features. For example, sleeves in the bachelor's gown are pointed, in the master's gown are oblong, in the doctor's gown are bell-shaped. Only the doctor's gown has velvet facing. The hood is lined with the official colors of the degree-conferring institution; for the University of Oregon these are lemon yellow and green. The outside trimming of the hood and the color of the tassel signify the subject in which the degree is conferred, as follows:

Maize	Agriculture
White	Arts, Letters, Humanities
Drab	Commerce, Accountancy, Business
Lilac	Dentistry
Copper	Economics
Light Blue	Education
Orange	Engineering
Brown	Fine Arts, including Architecture
Russet	Forestry
Crimson	Journalism
Purple	Law
Lemon	Library Science
Green	Medicine
Pink	Music
Apricot	Nursing
Silver Gray	Oratory, Speech
Olive Green	Pharmacy
Dark Blue	Philosophy
Sage Green	Physical Education
Peacock Blue	Public Administration, including Foreign Service
Salmon Pink	Public Health
Golden Yellow	Science
Citron	Social Work
Scarlet	Theology
Gray	Veterinary Science

At the University of Oregon it is customary for master candidates to wear their hoods in the academic procession. Doctoral candidates carry their hoods and are hooded during the ceremony. Traditionally bachelor candidates change tassels on their caps from the front right to the front left as the degree is conferred. Caps are removed during prayer, the playing of the National Anthem and the Alma Mater, and during the commencement address if desired.
