Oregon State System of Higher Education

THE Oregon State System of Higher Education, as organized in 1932 by the State Board of Higher Education following a federal survey of higher education in Oregon, includes all the state-supported institutions of higher learning. The several institutions are now elements in an articulated system, parts of an integrated whole. The educational program is so organized as to distribute as widely as possible throughout the state the opportunities for general education and to center on a particular campus specialized, technical, and professional curricula closely related to one another.

The institutions of the State System of Higher Education are the University of Oregon at Eugene, Oregon State College at Corvallis, the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, the Southern Oregon College of Education at Ashland, and the Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande. The University of Oregon Medical School and the University of Oregon Dental School are located in Portland.

Each of the five institutions provides the general studies fundamental to a well-rounded education. At the three colleges of education general and professional studies are combined in the teacher-training curriculum; students who do not plan to become elementary-school teachers may devote their time exclusively to lower-division studies in the liberal arts and sciences or (at Southern Oregon and Eastern Oregon colleges of education) to approved lower-division programs in semiprofessional fields.

At the University and the State College two years of unspecialized work in liberal arts and sciences are provided on a parallel basis in the lower division. Major curricula, both liberal and professional, are grouped on either campus in accordance with the distinctive functions of the respective institutions in the unified State System of Higher Education.

General Information

History

THE University of Oregon was established by an act of the Oregon Legislature in 1872, but did not open its doors to students until four years later, in 1876. The founding of the University grew out of a Federal grant, authorized in the Donation Act of September 27, 1850, of two townships of land "to aid in the establishment of a university in the territory of Oregon." The territory then included the entire Oregon Country; it was specified that one of the two townships selected was to be located north of the Columbia. On July 17, 1854, the grant was modified by an act reserving two townships each for the newly created Washington and Oregon territories. This grant was confirmed on February 14, 1859, when the Act of Congress admitting Oregon into the Union provided for a grant of seventy-two sections of land for the establishment and support of a state university. The Legislature, by an act of June 3, 1859, committed the people of Oregon to the application of the proceeds from this grant "to the use and support of a state university."

The settlement of Oregon and the accumulation of funds from the sale of these University lands proceeded slowly. The population of Oregon in 1850 (including the entire Oregon Country) was only 13,294. In 1860 the population of the state was 52,465, and in 1870, 90,993. There were already five denominational colleges established in the state in 1860; the United States census of 1870 reports twenty as the number of "classical, professional and technical" institutions ("not public") in Oregon. The creation of a state university was deferred.

However, after a fund of $31,635 had accumulated from the sale of University lands, the Legislature on October 19, 1872 passed an act "to create, organize and locate the University of the State of Oregon." Eugene was chosen as the site after the Lane County delegation in the Legislature had offered to provide a building and campus worth $50,000. The Union University Association of Eugene, the organization promoting the institution, was given two years in which to construct this building.

Construction of the building, Deady Hall, began in May 1873. Unfortunately, however, the genesis of the University and the economic troubles of 1873 came at about the same time. After an intense struggle to keep the enterprise alive and a two-year extension of time for completion, the conditions specified in the act creating the University were declared fulfilled, and the site and building were accepted by the state on July 28, 1876. The University opened its first session on October 16, 1876. The first class was graduated in June 1878.

Deady Hall was the nucleus around which other University buildings later arose; Villard Hall, the second campus structure, was built in 1885.

The first University courses were limited almost entirely to classical and literary subjects; the demand for a broader curriculum was, however, gradually met by the addition of scientific and professional instruction. Around the original liberal-arts college were organized the professional schools, beginning with the School of Law, established as a night law school in Portland in 1884; (in 1915 the School of Law was moved to Eugene and reorganized as a regular division of the University). The Medical School was established in Portland in 1887. The School of Music was established in 1902, the School of Education in 1910, the School of Architecture and Allied Arts and the School of Business Administration in 1914, the School of Journalism in 1916, and the School of Health and Physical Education in 1920. The University of Oregon Dental School was established in Portland in 1945, when the Oregon Legislature accepted the gift of the property of the North Pacific College of Oregon and made this institution a school of the University. (The North Pacific College was the outgrowth of the merger in 1900 of the Tacoma College of Dental Surgery, founded in 1893, and the Oregon College of Dentistry, founded in 1898).

In 1932, when the Oregon State System of Higher Education was formed, departments of the old liberal-arts college were reorganized into a College of Arts and Letters and a College of Social Science. Under the 1932 allocation of functions, the University offered only lower-division and service work in the biological and physical sciences. In 1941, the Board of Higher Education authorized the University to re-establish major undergraduate and graduate work in science, beginning with the academic year 1942-43. In 1942, the Board approved the merging of the College of Arts and Letters, the College of Social Science, and the science departments into a College of Liberal Arts.

The Graduate School was established in 1900. In 1933, as a part of the State System reorganization, an interinstitutional Graduate Division was created for the administration of graduate work in all institutions of the System. In October 1946 the Board of Higher Education returned to the institutions direct responsibility for their programs of advanced study, and re-established the University Graduate School.

Since the founding of the institution, the following men have served the University as president; John Wesley Johnson, 1876-1893; Charles H. Chapman, 1893-1899; Frank Strong, 1899-1902; Prince Lucien Campbell, 1902-1925; Arnold Bennett Hall, 1926-1932; Clarence Valentine Boyer, 1934-1938; Donald Milton Erb, 1938-1943; Orlando John Hollis, acting president 1944-45; Harry K. Newburn, from 1945.

Income

THE state law creating the Board of Higher Education specified that this body was to "have and exercise control of the use, distribution and disbursement of all funds, appropriations and taxes, now or hereafter in possession, levied and collected, received or appropriated for the use, benefit, support and maintenance of institutions of higher education." By virtue of this act, and beginning July 1, 1931, the Board has administered all funds for all state-supported higher-educational activities, including the University of Oregon, on the basis of a unified budget.

Funds for the support of higher education in Oregon are derived primarily from the following sources: a millage appropriation equal to 2.04 mills on all taxable property; certain continuing appropriations from the state for definite purposes; specified sums from the national government assigned for definite purposes by Congressional acts; income from student tuition and fees; and other sources such as sales, service charges, gifts, etc.

Campus

THE main campus of the University of Oregon is located at Eugene (population 38,000), 124 miles south of Portland, at the head of the Willamette Valley. Eugene is a progressive city with excellent schools, numerous churches, and strong civic and social organizations. The climate is mild, with moderate winters and cool summers. The average annual rainfall is 38½ inches, with the heaviest rainfall in the winter months, November, December, and January.

The Eugene campus occupies about 130 acres of land in the eastern part of the city. (See map, facing page 4.) The campus is bisected by Thirteenth Street. The first University buildings were erected north of this street, on what is known as the "old campus." Later expansions have been principally to the south and east.

Most of the buildings on the old campus are arranged in a quadrangle: Fenton Hall, Deady Hall, Villard Hall, the Art and Architecture Building, McClure Hall, the Journalism Building, and Friendly Hall. Johnson Hall (the Administration Building) is located across Thirteenth Street, facing the north quadrangle. South of Johnson Hall is an integrated group of buildings, including Gerlinger Hall (the women's gymnasium) and two women's dormitories, Hendricks Hall and Susan Campbell Hall.

A new quadrangle being developed to the west includes the Commerce Building and Oregon Hall, north of Thirteenth Street, and, to the south, Condon Hall, Chapman Hall, the Museum of Art, and the University Library. The Education Building and the Music Building are located south of this quadrangle.

Until the 1920s the east boundary of the campus was, roughly, University Street. Significant expansion beyond this boundary began with the erection of the University heating plant, the University Press, McArthur Court (the student athletic center), and the John Straub Memorial Building (the men's dormitory), and continued in the 1930s with the erection of the Physical Education Building and the Student Health Service. Recent additions in this area are Architecture Annex, Emerald Hall (a temporary structure housing administrative and student-counseling offices), the Erb Memorial Union, and Carson Hall, a women's dormitory.

Since the end of World War II, extensive temporary housing facilities for veteran students have been erected on or near the campus. These facilities include houses and apartments for married students, on University land east of the campus; two dormitories for men, south of the Education Building; and row-house apartments, occupying a 30-acre tract about six blocks southwest of the main campus.

There are two notable bronze statues on the campus, "The Pioneer," given to the University in 1919 by Joseph N. Teal; and "The Pioneer Mother," given to the University in 1932 by Vice-President Burt Brown Barker, in memory of his mother. "The Pioneer" stands on the old campus, facing Johnson Hall. "The Pioneer Mother" is in the women's quadrangle. Both are the work of Alexander Phimister Proctor.

For descriptions of the campuses and buildings of the Medical School and the Dental School in Portland, see the separate catalogs of these schools.

Libraries

THE University of Oregon Library building was erected in 1937. On the completion of a new addition, scheduled for August 1950, the building will have shelf space for a total of 535,000 books and facilities for 1,270 readers. The addition will increase the Library's floor space by 82 per cent.

When the new construction is completed, the Library will be reorganized according to subject divisions: Social Science, Science, Humanities, and General Reference. Under this plan, provision will be made for specialized services in each subject division and for much freer access to books by students.

The Audio-Visual Department will be provided with greatly improved facilities for the production and use of recordings, slides, films, and similar materials. The Adelaide Church Memorial Room, a "browsing room" for recreational reading, will be moved from the main Library building to the Erb Memorial Union, but will remain a department of the University Library.

The University Library was founded in 1882 through a gift of $1,000 worth of books selected and purchased by Henry Villard of New York City. Before 1882 the only library available to students was a collection of about 1,000 volumes owned by the Laorean and Eutaxian student literary societies. This collection was made a part of the University Library in 1900. In 1881 Mr. Villard gave the University $50,000 as a permanent endowment; a provision of the gift was that at least $400 of the income should be used for the purchase of nontechnical books for the Library. At the present time, all the income from this endowment is used for the purchase of books.

In addition to the collections in the central Library building, the University maintains a number of specialized libraries; the holdings of the several libraries are shown in the following table (figures followed by an asterisk are estimates):

General Library	380,373
Law Library	37,456
Art and Architecture Library	4,500*
Municipal Reference Library	12,638*
Curriculum Laboratory Library	16,960*
Educational Research Bureau Collection	900*
Museum of Art Library	4,917
University High School Library	5,421
Dental School Library (Portland)	5,024
Medical School Library (Portland)	44,435
Total.....	512,624

Other materials in the University Library include: 34,906 maps, 22,588 photographs, 3,053 sound recordings, and 34,123 film strips and slides.

The facilities for the undergraduate work of the institution are excellent; and special collections for advanced study and research are being built in the various fields of liberal and professional scholarship. All the books in the libraries of the several institutions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education are available to the students and faculty of the University.

Some of the Library's resources of particular value for advanced study are: a collection of source materials on English life and letters in the seventeenth century; a collection of books, reports, and periodicals on English opinion and politics of the nineteenth century, including considerable material on English liberalism in its relation to public education; materials on the history of American education in the nineteenth century; a collection of pamphlets on the English corn laws; the Overmeyer Collection of published works on the Civil War; a collection of Balzaciana; unusually extensive and complete files of psychological journals; an extensive collection of Oregon and Pacific Northwest manuscripts, photographs, maps, pamphlets, books, and newspapers. The noncurrent records of the University of Oregon are deposited with the Library as University archives.

The Burgess Collection of manuscripts, incunabula, and rare books is the gift of Miss Julia Burgess, late professor of English at the University, and of friends of the institution.

The Douglass Room, established through a bequest from the late Matthew Hale Douglass, former librarian of the University, contains record collections, collections of music scores, and reference books in the field of music. The room is equipped with phonographs with earphone attachments for individual listening; a larger phonograph for group listening is available in a small adjacent room.

The Philip Brooks Memorial Library, the gift of Mrs. Lester Brooks, is a reference collection of standard sets of American and English authors; it is housed in a special room on the third floor of the Library building.

The Pauline Potter Homer Collection of Beautiful Books is a "browsing" collection, which includes fine editions, illustrated books, books with fine bindings, and examples of the work of famous presses. The collection is located in the Adelaide Church Memorial Room.

The Municipal Reference Library, maintained by the Bureau of Municipal Research and Service in Johnson Hall, contains books, pamphlets, and other materials dealing with problems of local government.

The Law Library, housed in Fenton Hall, contains complete case reports of the National Reporter System, complete state reports from colonial times to the establishment of the Reporter System, a substantial collection of English and Canadian case law, codes and compilations of state and Federal statute law, standard legal digests and encyclopaedias, etc. Its periodical collection includes files of about 100 legal periodicals. An excellent collection of publications relating to Oregon territorial and state law includes an extensive file of Oregon Supreme Court briefs.

The Museum of Art Library of books on the history, literature, life, and particularly the art of Oriental countries, is the gift of Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner; it is growing steadily through additional gifts from Mrs. Warner. The library occupies attractive quarters on the first floor of the Museum of Art.

The School of Architecture and Allied Arts has a reference collection in the Art and Architecture Building. The collection includes the architecture library of the late Ion Lewis, Portland architect, given in 1929 by Mr. Lewis, and the library of William Whidden, given by his heirs.

The University of Oregon Medical School Library and the University of Oregon Dental School Library are located in Portland.

Service. During the regular session the main Library is open on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.; on Fridays from 8:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.; on Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m.; and on Sundays from 2:00 to 9:00 p.m. During vacations, the Library is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Books others than reference books and those especially reserved for use in the Library may be drawn out for a period of two weeks, with the privilege of renewal if there is no other demand. Library privileges are extended to all University students and staff members, and may be granted to other persons upon application.

Library Fines and Charges. The following regulations govern Library fines and charges:

- (1) A fine of 5 cents per day is charged for all overdue books other than reserve books.
- (2) The following fines are charged for violation of reserve-book rules: (a) for overdue books, a regular fine of 25 cents for the first hour and 5 cents for each succeeding hour, or fraction thereof, until the book is returned or reported lost (a maximum charge of $1.00 an hour may be made in cases of flagrant violation of the rules); (b) for failure to recheck books at the required times, a fine of 25 cents; (c) for failure to return books to proper department desk, a fine of 25 cents.
- (3) Books needed for use in the Library are subject to recall at any time. A maximum fine of $1.00 a day may be imposed for failure to return promptly.

(4) A service charge of 10 cents is added to all fines reported to the Business Office for collection.

(5) Patrons losing books are charged the list price of the book, plus the amount of fine incurred up to the time the book is reported missing. In addition, a charge of 50 cents is made to cover the cost of processing the bill and collection.

(6) When a lost book, for which the borrower has been billed, is returned before a replacement has been ordered, a refund equal to the list price of the book is made. In cases where a replacement has been ordered, refunds to the patron may be made, at the discretion of the Library.

Instruction. A program of study for students interested in school library work is offered through the School of Education, principally during the summer sessions. A few courses in library methods are, however, given during the regular school year.

The School of Education also offers service courses to acquaint students with the resources of the University Library and to aid them in the efficient use of these resources. These courses are taught by members of the Library staff.

Unified Facilities. The library facilities of the state institutions of higher education in Oregon are coordinated through a State System director of libraries. The director is also librarian of Oregon State College, Corvallis, where the central offices of the library system are located.

The collections at the several institutions are developed to meet special needs on each campus; but the book stock of the libraries, as property of the state, circulates freely to permit the fullest use of all books. An author list of books in the State College Library is maintained in the University Library.

Museums and Collections

MUSEUMS and collections maintained by the University include the Murray Warner Collection of Oriental Art, housed in the Museum of Art, and the Museum of National History in Condon Hall. Student art work and loan exhibitions are shown in the Art Gallery in the Art and Architecture Building. A permanent collection of contemporary paintings is exhibited in the Art and Architecture Library.

Museum of Art

GERTRUDE BASS WARNER, M.A.	Director
MADEL KLOCKARS GARNER, B.A.	Cataloger
EVELYN STREET	Acting Curator
FRANCES NEWSOM, B.A.	Librarian

The Museum of Art Building, the first unit of which was erected in 1930, at a cost of $200,000, is designed to be a "temple of things beautiful and significant." The building was made possible by gifts from the citizens of Oregon.

The Murray Warner Collection of Oriental Art, given to the University in 1921 by Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner as a memorial to her husband, was started by Major and Mrs. Warner while they were living in Shanghai, China. Major Warner had a considerable knowledge of the Orient. While serving the American government through the Boxer Rebellion and the unsettled times following, he had opportunities to obtain many beautiful specimens of Chinese art, some of which are now in the collection. Since Major Warner's death, Mrs. Warner has made a number of trips to the Orient to augment the collection and to replace articles that were not up to museum standards. Mrs. Warner has given a part of the original collection to the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D. C., but the larger portion has come to the University of Oregon in order to foster on the Pacific Coast a sympathetic understanding and appreciation of the peoples of the Orient.

The Warner Collection is especially distinguished by the rarity and the perfect preservation of the objects composing it. Included in the material exhibited are: a large collection of Chinese paintings by old masters; tapestries and embroideries; fine examples of cinnabar lacquer; jade; Chinese porcelains, including specimens of old blue and white of the Ming period; and ancient bronzes dating from the Chou, Han, and Sung dynasties.

The Japanese collection includes old prints, brocades, temple hangings and altar cloths, embroideries, a collection of old gold lacquer, a lacquered palanquin, porcelain, jewelry, and collections of silver, pewter, copper, bronze armor, and wood carvings.

The Korean collection includes some very beautiful screens, old bronzes, a Korean chest inlaid with mother of pearl, etc. Cambodian and Mongolian collections are also on exhibit.

A Russian collection has been recently acquired. It consists of ikons dating from the fifteenth to the eighteenth century, a cloissone triptych, a bronze cross, and an enamel and marble chalice.

The Museum of Art has a large collection of modern water colors, woodblock prints, and oil paintings with Oriental subjects, by Helen Hyde, Elizabeth Keith, Charles Bartlett, Bertha Lum, and Maude I. Kerns.

The Murray Warner Museum Library is a valuable collection of books dealing with the history, the literature, the life, and the art of the Oriental countries. Periodicals concerned with the art and life of the Orient are on file in the library reading room.

Museum of Natural History

L. S. CRESSMAN, Ph.D.	Director; Curator of Anthropology
HOMER G. BARNETT, Ph.D.	Acting Director
R. R. HUESTIS, Ph.D.	Curator of Vertebrate Collections
E. M. BALDWIN, Ph.D.	Curator of Geology
LEROY DETLING, Ph.D.	Curator of Herbarium
J. A. SHOTWELL, B.S.	Preparator

The Museum of Natural History of the University of Oregon consists of five divisions: Anthropology, Botany, Geology, Palaeontology, and Zoology. The museum's exhibits are located on the second floor of Condon Hall. The staff invites inquiries concerning the collections and the fields of knowledge represented. Access to study specimens may be had on application to the curators. The Museum of Natural History welcomes gifts to its collections.

Condon Museum of Geology. The Condon Museum of Geology consists of collections of rocks, minerals, and fossils. It grew out of the early collection made by Dr. Thomas Condon. The Condon Museum contains: interesting and valuable material from the John Day fossil beds in central Oregon; fine display collections of minerals arranged according to the Dana classification; an educational set of rocks and minerals, given to the University by the United States Geological Survey; suites of fossils, both vertebrate and invertebrate, from various regions in the western part of the American continent; a complete fossil skeleton of the extinct saber-tooth tiger from the Rancho La Brea near Los Angeles, California; and other items of general and educational interest, including relief models and demonstration materials.

Herbarium. The Herbarium is well supplied with mounted specimens from Oregon and the Pacific Northwest, and has several thousand from eastern states and the Philippines. It includes the Howell Collection of 10,000 specimens, mostly from Oregon; the Leiberg Collection, presented to the University by John B. Leiberg in 1908, consisting of about 15,000 sheets from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, and California; the Cusick Collection of 7,000 specimens; 1,200 sheets from the Philadelphia Academy of Sciences, obtained by exchange; and more than 25,000 sheets collected by the late Louis F. Henderson while curator of the Herbarium. These are housed for the most part in regulation steel herbarium cases, the gift of numerous friends in the state. Representative collections of the fossil flora of the state are being built up.

Oregon State Museum of Anthropology. The anthropological collections of the University were designated by the 1935 Legislature as the Oregon State Museum of Anthropology. The collections consist of skeletal and cultural materials from both archaeological and contemporary sources. Of particular interest are the following gift collections: the Condon Collection of archaeological material, collected in Oregon by Dr. Thomas Condon, consisting of many specimens illustrative of the prehistoric civilization of Oregon and the Northwest; the Ada Bradley Millican Collection of basketry and textiles, containing many specimens from the Pacific Northwest and from the Southwest; the Mrs. Vincent Cook Collection of baskets, mostly from the Pacific Northwest; the Mrs. Annie Knox Collection of baskets from western Oregon; the Phoebe Ellison Smith Memorial Collection of Philippine artifacts; a collection of Philippine war implements donated by Mrs. Creed C. Hammond; a large collection of Indian baskets, given to the museum by Miss A. O. Walton of Seattle; the D. P. Thompson Collection of fine Pacific Northwest and California baskets, presented by Mrs. Genevieve Thompson Smith; the Van de Velde Collection of Congolese iron and wood artifacts and musical instruments; and the Alice Henson Ernst Collection of North Pacific Coast masks and related objects.

Museum of Zoology. The University has about 6,600 specimens of vertebrates available for study. The majority of these are study skins of birds and mammals taken in various parts of Oregon and prepared by members of the Department of Biology. This collection has, in the past, been considerably enriched by contributions of individual specimens and private collections. Among the notable contributions are the collection of mounted birds and mammals presented by Dr. A. G. Prill, a collection of Oregon reptiles made by J. R. Wetherbee, and a collection of fishes made by J. R. Bretherton.

In 1945 the University purchased Dr. Prill's complete collection, adding to the museum approximately 1,600 bird skins, about 2,000 sets of eggs, and many nests. Most of the skins are of Oregon birds, and provide excellent material for the study of variation and adaptation. Some of the birds represented are now rare visitants in Oregon, and in some cases the only specimens reported.

The museum also has a collection of fresh- and salt-water invertebrates of the state of Oregon. A small part of the collection, mainly Echinoderms and Molluscs, has been identified; but most of the specimens are as yet uncataloged.

Official Publications

THE legislative act placing all the Oregon state institutions of higher education under the control of one Board provided that all public announcements pertaining to the several institutions "shall emanate from and bear the name of the Department of Higher Education and shall be conducted in such a way as to present to the citizens of the state and prospective students a fair and impartial view of the higher educational facilities provided by the state and the prospects for useful employment in the various fields for which those facilities afford preparation." Official publications of the University of Oregon include:

University of Oregon Bulletin. The UNIVERSITY OF OREGON BULLETIN is published eight times a year by the State Board of Higher Education. Included in the BULLETIN are the official catalogs of the University and its several divisions and other educational announcements.

University of Oregon Monographs. Research studies published by the University appear in a series known as UNIVERSITY OF OREGON MONOGRAPHS.

Comparative Literature. COMPARATIVE LITERATURE, a quarterly journal, is published by the University of Oregon in cooperation with the Comparative Literature Section of the Modern Language Association of America.

Oregon Law Review. The OREGON LAW REVIEW is published quarterly under the editorship of the faculty of the School of Law as a service to the members of the Oregon bar and as a stimulus to legal research and productive scholarship on the part of students.

Oregon Business Review. The OREGON BUSINESS REVIEW is published monthly by the Bureau of Business Research. Its primary purpose is to report and interpret current business and economic conditions in Oregon and the Pacific Northwest.

Studies in Bibliography. Bibliographical studies, based principally on the resources of the University Library, are published in a series entitled UNIVERSITY OF OREGON LIBRARY STUDIES IN BIBLIOGRAPHY.

Municipal Research Bulletins. The publications of the Bureau of Municipal Research and Service, intended primarily as a service to city officials in the state of Oregon, are issued in four series, INFORMATION BULLETINS, LEGAL BULLETINS, FINANCE BULLETINS, and SPECIAL BULLETINS, published for the most part in mimeographed form.

Academic Regulations

Admission

TO BE admitted to the University of Oregon a student must be of good moral character and must present evidence of acceptable preparation for work at the college level. The development of character is regarded as a primary aim in education and is emphasized at all the Oregon state institutions of higher education.

Every person wishing to be admitted to the regular sessions of the University must file with the University Registrar: (1) an application on an official form supplied by the Registrar; (2) official transcripts of high-school and college records.

Application and transcripts of records should be filed several weeks before the applicant intends to enter the University; late filing may delay or prevent registration. If a student fails to submit the required documents in complete and satisfactory form, the University may cancel his admission and registration. All records submitted become the property of the University.

Admission to Freshman Standing

Graduation from a standard high school is required for admission to freshman standing. Residents of the state of Oregon who are graduates of standard high schools, and who have not been previously registered in any collegiate institution, are admitted to the University as freshmen when complete records have been received in the Registrar's Office.

The University thus affords to all Oregon residents who are graduates of standard high schools the opportunity to demonstrate in the University their ability to pursue higher education. But it cannot extend to all nonresident high-school graduates the same opportunity to prove their ability by work in the University; only those nonresident high-school graduates for whom the University can predict reasonably certain success in higher education are admitted. To provide a basis for selection, one or more of the following are required of a nonresident:

(1) A rank in the upper half of his high-school graduating class (certified by his principal).

(2) A rank of at least decile 5 on his high-school grades (as computed by the University).

(3) A college-ability test-score decile rank of at least 5 (on the Ohio Psychological Examination or an acceptable equivalent).

High-school records submitted must include records of all work beyond the eighth grade; they must be certified by the proper school official, on the official form used by the high school for this purpose.

Admission of Transfer Students

Transfer students are persons admitted to the University of Oregon after having been registered in any other institution of collegiate grade or in a department or center of extension work, including the General Extension Division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education.

Since the University of Oregon requires its students to maintain a scholastic average of C (grade-point average of 2.00) for "satisfactory" status in the University and for graduation, it also requires that students transferring to the University with regular standing from other collegiate institutions present records of C-average scholastic work and evidence of honorable dismissal. Transfer students who present fewer than 12 term hours of collegiate credit must also meet the requirements for freshman standing.

The amount of transferred credit granted depends upon the nature and quality of the applicant's previous work, evaluated according to the academic requirements of the University.

No advanced standing is granted at entrance for work done in nonaccredited collegiate institutions. After three terms of satisfactory work in the University, an undergraduate student transferring from a nonaccredited institution may petition for credit in University of Oregon courses which are the equivalent of courses taken in the nonaccredited institution; validating examinations may be required.

Transfer students are required to file complete official records of all school work beyond the eighth grade. College records must be certified by the registrar of the institution providing the record. If the student's high-school record is adequately shown on his college transcript, he need not obtain another record direct from his high school.

Admission of Special Students

Students qualified by maturity and ability to do satisfactory University work, but who fail in some respect to meet the requirements for regular standing, may apply for admission as special students. Requirements for special-student admission include a score of decile 5 or above on the Ohio Psychological Examination or an acceptable equivalent, and the joint approval of the Registrar and the dean of the college or school in which the applicant wishes to study.

A special student should qualify for regular standing as soon as possible, by satisfactory University work and by the removal of any entrance deficiencies; he may not continue for more than 45 term hours of University work under special-student classification without explicit permission (which is seldom granted). A special student may earn credits toward a degree; to qualify for a degree, however, he must complete at least 45 term hours of work after he has been granted regular standing. (In case a regular student changes to special status, work done while a special student will not apply towards a degree.)

Admission to Graduate Standing

Graduates of accredited colleges and universities are admitted to regular graduate standing when they have filed official records of all college work with the University Registrar. Provisional graduate standing may be allowed, as a temporary classification, when the applicant files evidence that he has a degree and will be able to qualify for regular graduate standing. Graduates of non-accredited institutions may be admitted to regular graduate standing after completing at least one term of satisfactory graduate work in the University.

Entrance Examinations

TO provide the faculty with a basis for reliable advice and assistance to students planning their programs, the University requires entering undergraduates to take placement and physical examinations. The placement examinations are considered to some extent a measure of ability to do University work, and the results are used as a basis for planning the student's educational and vocational program. Freshmen with low ratings on the placement examinations are required to take Corrective English (Wr K).

The physical examination is given by a physician chosen by the student, who provides an examination report to the University Student Health Service. The physical examination is a safeguard both to the institution and to the student. For the student, it may result in the discovery and correction of defects which, if allowed to continue, might seriously impair his health; for the institution it may result in the prevention of epidemics which might develop from undiagnosed cases of contagious disease.

Degrees and Certificates

THE University offers curricula leading to certificates and to baccalaureate and advanced degrees. If changes are made in the requirements for degrees or certificates, special arrangements may be made for students who have taken work under the old requirements. In general, however, a student will be expected to meet the requirements in force at the time he plans to receive a degree or certificate. The University grants the following academic degrees:

- Liberal Arts—B.A., B.S., M.A., M.S., Ph.D.
- Architecture and Allied Arts—B.A., B.S., B.Arch., B.I.Arch., B.L.A., M.A., M.S., M.Arch., M.F.A., M.L.A.
- Business Administration—B.A., B.S., B.B.A., M.A., M.S., M.B.A.
- Dentistry—D.M.D.
- Education—B.A., B.S., B.Ed., M.A., M.S., M.Ed., D.Ed., Ph.D.
- Health and Physical Education—B.A., B.S., B.P.E., M.A., M.S.
- Journalism—B.A., B.S., M.A., M.S.
- Law—B.A., B.S., LL.B., J.D.
- Medicine—M.A., M.S., Ph.D., M.D.
- Music—B.A., B.S., B.Mus., M.A., M.S., M.Mus.
- Nursing Education—B.A., B.S.

Work leading to the degrees of Master of Arts in General Studies and Master of Science in General Studies is offered under the direction of the Graduate School.

Requirements for Certificates

The Junior Certificate admits to upper-division standing and the opportunity to pursue a major curriculum leading to a degree.* A student is expected to fulfill the requirements for the Junior Certificate during his first two years at the University. The requirements are as follows:

* A student who transfers to the University after completing the equivalent of the requirements for the Junior Certificate at another institution may be admitted to upper-division standing without the formal granting of the Junior Certificate.

- (1) Term hours: minimum, 93.
- (2) Grade-point average: minimum, 2.00.
- (3) English:
 - (a) Freshmen who receive low ratings in a placement examination given to entering students must take and pass the course designated Corrective English (Wr K).
 - (b) English Composition: 9 term hours, unless excused. A student whose work meets the standard aimed at may, with the consent of the head of the Department of English, be excused from further required written English at the end of any term.
- (4) Physical Education: 5 terms in activity courses, unless excused.* A student who has completed four terms of physical education with a grade of C or above, and who has satisfied all requirements, may, with the consent of the dean of the School of Health and Physical Education, be excused from further work in this field.
- (5) Military Science: 6 terms for men, unless excused.*
- (6) Health Education: HE 150 for men; HE 114, 115, 116 for women (HE 250 will satisfy the requirement for men or women).*
- (7) Group requirement: A prescribed amount of work in the College of Liberal Arts, selected from three "groups" representing comprehensive fields of knowledge. The three groups are: language and literature, social science, science.† Courses that satisfy the group requirement are numbered from 100 to 110 and 200 to 210. The group requirement is as follows:
 - (a) For majors in the College of Liberal Arts—At least 9 approved term hours in each of the three groups and at least 9 additional approved term hours in courses numbered 200-210 in any one of the three groups.
 - (b) For majors in the professional schools—At least 9 approved term hours in each of two of three groups.‡

The Junior Certificate with Honors Privileges admits to upper-division standing and permits the student to work for a bachelor's degree with honors in the schools and departments providing an honors program. For this certificate the student must have a grade-point average of at least 2.75, in addition to satisfying all the requirements for the Junior Certificate.

The Lower-Division Certificate recognizes the successful completion of two years of lower-division work. This certificate is granted upon request to students whose desire has been only to round out their general education. It does not admit to upper-division standing.

Requirements for Degrees

Bachelor's Degree. When a student has satisfied all the requirements for a Junior Certificate, he is classified as an upper-division student and may become

* Veterans of World War II, on filing evidence of military service, are granted credit for instruction in military science and in health and physical education received in the armed services, and are exempt from required work in these fields. No credit is granted for military service entered upon after March 31, 1949; but students who have had one or more years of military service are exempt from required work in military science.

† For a classified list of courses satisfying the group requirement, see pages 85-86. To satisfy the group requirement in science, a sequence must either include laboratory work or carry 12 term hours of credit.

‡ Students intending to major in architecture and allied arts, business administration, education, journalism, or music are classified as liberal-arts students during their lower-division years, and must complete the group requirement stated under (a) above.

a candidate for a bachelor's degree in the college or school of his choice. The requirements for a bachelor's degree (including both lower- and upper-division work) are as follows:

- (1) Term hours: minimum, 186, including:
 - (a) Hours in upper-division courses: minimum for students majoring in the College of Liberal Arts, 62; for students in professional schools, 45.
 - (b) Hours in the major: minimum, 36, including at least 24 in upper-division courses.
 - (c) Hours after receipt of Junior Certificate: minimum, 45.
- (2) Distribution of hours for different bachelor's degrees:
 - (a) Bachelor of Arts: 36 hours in language and literature,* including two years (normally 24 term hours) of college work in a foreign language.
 - (b) Bachelor of Science: 36 hours in science or in social science.*
- (3) Grade-point average: minimum, 2.00.
- (4) Residence: minimum, 45 term hours (normally the last 45).†
- (5) Dean's recommendation, certifying satisfaction of all requirements of major department or school.
- (6) Restrictions:
 - (a) Correspondence study: maximum, 60 hours.
 - (b) Dentistry, law, medicine: maximum, 48 term hours toward any degree other than a professional degree.
 - (c) Applied music: maximum for all students except music majors: 12 term hours. Maximum for music majors toward the B.A. or B.S. degree: 24 term hours—of which at least 15 term hours must be taken in Mus 390 and Mus 490 during the junior and senior years.
 - (d) No-grade courses: at least 150 term hours in grade courses. See page 60.

The Bachelor's Degree with Honors. As a challenge to superior students who desire to study independently in fields related to but not fully covered by regular courses, the University offers work leading to the degrees of Bachelor of Arts with Honors and Bachelor of Science with Honors. The aim of the honors program is to stimulate wide reading, thorough scholarship, and original or creative work on the part of the student. An honors student is required to maintain a grade-point average of 3.00 or better during each term of his honors program. Two types of honors work are available, as described below.

Eligibility and Enrollment. Students who have received the Junior Certificate with Honors Privileges are automatically eligible for honors work. Other students who have been admitted to junior standing must, to be admitted to honors work,

* For the purpose of determining distribution of hours for the B.A. or B.S. degree, the instructional fields of the College of Liberal Arts are classified as follows:

Language and Literature: General Arts and Letters, English, Foreign Languages, Speech.

Social Science: General Social Science, Anthropology, Economics, Geography, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Sociology.

Science: General Science, Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Mathematics, Nursing Education, Physics.

obtain the approval of the Honors Council upon the recommendation of the head of their major department or school. An honors student enrolls with the chairman of the Honors Council each term during the period he is working for honors. Usually a student begins his honors program the first term of his junior year.

Study Programs. Each honor student works under the guidance of a single department or school. His program includes regular courses which satisfy University requirements for a degree and courses related to his honors project. But work in regular courses is supplemented by independent studies supervised by a member of the faculty. For this work the student registers for "Research" or "Reading and Conference," and for "Thesis." Not more than 18 term hours of credit may be earned by an honors student in independent studies in his major field. Two types of honors program, differing in the breadth of the field of study, are recognized:

(1) General Honors. For general honors, the student's honors program includes work offered by at least two departments (or more at the discretion of the Honors Council).

(2) Departmental Honors. For departmental honors, the field of the student's honors program need not extend beyond a single department or school.

Thesis and Examination. Honors studies culminate in an essay or thesis, and in an examination conducted by the department or school supervising the candidate's program. The examination must be passed and three copies of an accepted thesis must be submitted to the chairman of the Honors Council at least three weeks before Commencement. If these requirements, in addition to general University requirements for a degree, are fulfilled to the satisfaction of the Honors Council, the student receive a bachelor's degree with honors.

Advanced Degrees. The requirements for graduate degrees are listed under GRADUATE SCHOOL. The requirements for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence are listed under SCHOOL OF LAW. The requirements for the degree of Doctor of Medicine are listed in the University of Oregon Medical School Catalog. The requirements for the degree of Doctor of Dental Medicine are listed in the University of Oregon Dental School Catalog.

Academic Procedure

THE regular academic year throughout the Oregon State System of Higher Education is divided into three terms of approximately twelve weeks each. The summer session supplements the work of the regular year (see special announcements). Students may enter at the beginning of any term. It is important that freshmen and transferring students entering in the fall term be present for New-Student Week (see page 64). A detailed calendar for the current year will be found on pages 8-9.

Students are held responsible for familiarity with University requirements governing such matters as routine of registration, academic standards, student activities, organizations, etc. Complete academic regulations are included in the separately published Schedule of Classes, a copy of which is furnished each student by the Registrar's Office.

Definitions

A COURSE is a subject, or an instructional subdivision of a subject, offered through a single term.

A YEAR SEQUENCE consists of three closely articulated courses extending through the three terms of the academic year.

A CURRICULUM is an organized program of study arranged to provide integrated cultural or professional education.

A TERM HOUR represents three hours of the student's time each week for one term. This time may be assigned to work in classroom or laboratory or to outside preparation. The number of lecture, recitation, laboratory, or other periods required per week for any course may be found in the Schedule of Classes.

Course-Numbering System

Courses throughout the Oregon State System of Higher Education are numbered as follows:

- 1-99. Courses in the first two-years of foreign language, or other courses of similar grade.
- 100-110, 200-210. Survey or foundation courses that satisfy the lower-division group requirement in the language and literature, science, and social-science fields.
- 111-199, 211-299. Other courses offered at first-year and second-year level.
- 300-399. Upper-division courses not applicable for graduate credit.
- 400-499. Upper-division courses primarily for seniors. If approved by the Graduate School, these courses may be taken for graduate credit. In this Catalog, courses numbered 400-499, if approved for graduate major credit, are designated (G) following the title. Courses approved for graduate minor credit only are designated (g).
- 500-599. Courses primarily for graduate students but to which seniors of superior scholastic achievement may be admitted on approval of the instructor and department head concerned.
- 600-699. Courses that are highly professional or technical in nature and may count toward a professional degree only, and cannot apply toward advanced academic degrees such as M.A., M.S., or Ph.D.

Certain numbers are reserved for courses that may be taken through successive terms under the same course number, credit being granted according to the amount of work done. These course numbers are as follows:

- 301, 401, 501. Research, or other supervised original work.
- 303, 403, 503. Thesis (reading or research reported in writing).
- 305, 405, 505. Reading and Conference* (individual reading reported orally to instructor).
- 307, 407, 507. Seminar.

Grading System

The quality of student work is measured by a system of grades and by computed "grade-point averages."

Grades. Student work is graded as follows: A, exceptional; B, superior; C, average; D, inferior; F, failed; INC, incomplete; W, withdrawn. Students ordinarily receive one of the four passing grades or F. When the quality of the work is satisfactory, but some minor yet essential requirement of the course has not been completed, for reasons acceptable to the instructor, a report of INC may be made and additional time granted. Students may withdraw from a course by filing the proper forms at the Registrar's Office in accordance with University regulations. A student who discontinues attendance in a course without official withdrawal receives a grade of F in the course.

* At the University, only students eligible for honors work may register for 305 or 405 Reading and Conference courses.

Grade-Point Average. For purposes of computing a student's "grade-point average," the standard measure of scholastic standing, all work graded is assigned a numerical point value, as follows: A, 4 points per term hour; B, 3 points per term hour; C, 2 points per term hour; D, 1 point per term hour; F, 0 points per term hour. The grade-point average (GPA) is the quotient of total points divided by total term hours for which grades are received. Marks of INC and W are disregarded in the computation of the grade-point average.

No-Grade Courses. Certain University courses are designated "no-grade" courses. Students in these courses are rated simply "pass" or "not pass" in the term grade reports. No-grade courses are not considered in the computation of a student's grade-point average. To graduate from the University, a student must receive at least 150 term hours of credit in courses for which grades are given.

Scholarship Regulations

The administration of the regulations governing scholarship requirements is vested in the Scholarship Committee of the faculty. This committee has authority to disqualify a student from attending the University when it appears that his work is of such character that he cannot continue with profit to himself and with credit to the institution. In general, profitable and creditable work means substantial progress toward meeting graduation requirements. Any term or cumulative grade-point average below 2.00 is considered unsatisfactory, and may bring the student's record under review by the Scholarship Committee.

The scholarship requirements for participation in student extracurricular activities are printed on page 80.

Fees and Deposits

STUDENTS at the University* and at Oregon State College pay the same fees. In the fee schedule printed below regular fees are those paid by all students under the usual conditions of undergraduate or graduate study. Regular fees are payable in full at the time of registration. Special fees are paid under the special conditions indicated.

The institution reserves the right to change the schedule of tuition and fees without notice.

Payment of the stipulated fees entitles all students registered for academic credit (undergraduate and graduate, full-time and part-time) to all services maintained by the University for the benefit of students. These services include: use of the University Library; use of laboratory and course equipment and materials in connection with courses for which the student is registered; medical attention and advice at the Student Health Service; use of gymnasium equipment (including gymnasium suits and laundry service); a subscription to the student daily newspaper; admission to athletic events; admission to concert and lecture series sponsored by the University. No reduction in fees is made to students who may not desire to take advantage of some of these privileges.

Regular Fees

Undergraduate Students. Undergraduate students enrolled in the University who are residents of Oregon pay regular fees each term of the regular academic year, as follows: tuition, $10.00; laboratory and course fee, $13.50; incidental fee, $15.50; building fee, $5.00. The total in regular fees, which includes all laboratory and other charges in connection with instruction,* is $44.00 per term.

* Except students at the Medical School and Dental School. The fee schedules for students in these schools are published in their separate catalogs.

Undergraduate students who are not residents of Oregon pay the same fees as Oregon residents, and, in addition, a nonresident fee of $50.00 per term, making a total of $94.00 per term.

The regular fees for undergraduate students for a term and for a year may be summarized as follows:

Fees	Per Term	Per Year
Tuition.....	$ 10.00	$ 30.00
Laboratory and course fee.....	13.50	40.50
Incidental fee.....	15.50	46.50
Building fee.....	5.00	15.00
Total for Oregon residents.....	$ 44.00	$132.00
Total for non residents (who pay an additional nonresident fee of $50.00 per term).....	$ 94.00	$282.00

Graduate Students. The regular fees and tuition for graduate students total $40.00 per term. Students holding graduate or research assistantships or fellowships pay fees totaling $17.50 per term. Graduate students do not pay the nonresident fee. Graduate students registered for 6 term hours or work or less pay the regular part-time fee. Payment of graduate fees entitles the student to all services maintained by the University for the benefit of students.

Deposits

All persons who enroll for academic credit (except staff members) must make a deposit of $5.00, payable once each year at the time of first registration. This is required as a protection against loss or damage of institutional property such as: dormitory equipment, laboratory equipment, military uniforms, Library books, locker keys. If at any time charges against this deposit become excessive, the student may be called upon to re-establish the original amount.

Special Fees

The following special fees are paid by students under the conditions indicated:

Part-Time Fee.....per term, $10.00 to $30.00

Students (undergraduate or graduate) who register for 6 term hours of work or less pay, instead of regular registration fees, a part-time fee in accordance with the following scale: 1-2 term hours, $10.00; 3 term hours, $15.00; 4 term hours, $20.00; 5 term hours, $25.00; 6 term hours, $30.00. Students registered for 6 term hours or less do not pay the nonresident fee. Payment of the part-time fee entitles the student to all services maintained by the University for the benefit of students.

Staff Feeper term hour, $3.00

On approval by the President's Office, full-time staff members registering for University courses pay a special staff fee of $3.00 per term hour. Payment of this fee entitles staff members to instructional and Library privileges only.

Auditor's Feeper term hour, $3.00

An auditor is a person who has obtained permission to attend classes without receiving academic credit. The auditor's fee is payable at the time of registration, and entitles the student to attend classes, but to no other institutional privileges. Students regularly enrolled in the University may be granted the privileges of an auditor without paying the auditor's fee.

Late-Registration Fee.....per day, $1.00.

Students registering after the scheduled registration dates of any term pay a late-registration fee of $1.00 per day. Part-time students and auditors (see above) are not required to pay the late-registration fee.

* Except special fees for instruction in applied music. See SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Change-of-Program Fee	$1.00
A student may be required to pay this fee for each change in his official program after the scheduled last day for adding courses.
Reinstatement Fee	$2.00
If for any reason a student has his registration canceled during a term for failure to comply with the regulations of the institution, but is later allowed to continue his work, he must pay the reinstatement fee.
Special Examination Fees	$1.00 to $10.00
A student pays a fee of $1.00 a term hour for the privilege of taking an examination for advanced credit, or other special examinations. A graduate student taking his preliminary or final examination at a time when he is not registered for academic work pays an examination fee of $10.00.
Graduate Qualifying-Examination Fee.....	$1.00 to $15.00
Paid by students taking the Graduate Record Examination or other standard tests of ability to do graduate work.
Transcript Fee	$1.00
This fee is charged for each transcript of credits issued after the first, which is issued free of charge.
Placement-Service Fees.....	See SCHOOL OF EDUCATION
Music Course Fees.....	See SCHOOL OF MUSIC
Library Fines and Charges.....	See LIBRARY

Refunds

Fee Refunds. Students who withdraw from the University and who have complied with the regulations governing withdrawals are entitled to certain refunds of fees paid, depending on the time of withdrawal. The refund schedule has been established by the State Board of Higher Education, and is on file in the University Business Office. All refunds are subject to the following regulations:

- (1) Any claim for refund must be made in writing before the close of the term in which the claim originated.
- (2) Refunds in all cases are calculated from the date of application for refund and not from the date when the student ceased attending classes, except in unusual cases when formal withdrawal has been delayed through causes largely beyond the control of the student.

Deposit Refunds. The $5.00 deposit, less any deductions which may have been made, is refunded about three weeks after the close of the academic year. Students who discontinue their work at the University before the end of the year may receive refunds, upon petition to the Business Office, about six weeks after the close of the fall or winter term.

Regulations Governing Nonresident Fee

The Oregon State Board of Higher Education has defined a nonresident student as a person who comes into Oregon from another state for the purpose of attending one of the institutions under the control of the Board.

In order to draw a clear line between resident and nonresident students, the Board has ordered that all students in the institutions under its control who have not been domiciled in Oregon for more than one year immediately preceding the day of their first enrollment in the institution shall be termed nonresident students, with the following exceptions:

- (1) Students whose father (or mother, if the father is not living) is domiciled in the state of Oregon.
- (2) Children of regular employees of the Federal government stationed in the state of Oregon.
- (3) Students enrolled in the Graduate School.
- (4) Students in summer sessions.

Office of Student Affairs

AT THE University of Oregon, an integrated program of student counseling and supervision of student life and group activities is administered through the Office of Student Affairs. The Director of Student Affairs is assisted by four associate directors, with special responsibilities for: women's affairs, men's affairs, the University Counseling Center, and employment and graduate placement. The Registrar's Office also operates under the general direction of the Director of Student Affairs.

The director and his associates maintain close personal contact with individual students and with student organizations, and are available at all times for advice and help on all matters pertaining to their welfare.

University Counseling Center. The University Counseling Center provides facilities for testing and counseling University students, to help them make wise choices in their studies and solve academic and personal problems. A special fee of $5.00 is charged for the full educational and vocational testing service of the Counseling Center.

Speech and Hearing Clinic. The Speech and Hearing Clinic, operating in conjunction with the Counseling Center, provides diagnosis, consultation, and treatment in connection with speech and hearing problems of University students. Students are referred to the clinic either by the Counseling Center or by faculty advisers.

Reading Clinic. Some students, although they may not clearly recognize their disability, fail to get the most from their University work because of difficulties in reading. Frequently these difficulties are correctable. The Reading Clinic, operating in conjunction with the Counseling Center, provides an opportunity for scientific diagnosis and correction of student reading difficulties.

Veterans Advisory Program. Every effort is made to adapt the educational resources of the University to the needs of veterans of World War II. A special advisory program for veterans is administered through the Registrar's Office. This service supplements but does not take the place of the regular advising and counseling agencies in the University.

Foreign-Student Adviser. A member of the staff of the Office of Student Affairs serves as special adviser to foreign students attending the University, to assist them with personal problems and with adjustments to the customs and procedures of American educational systems. The foreign-student adviser is prepared to give advice and help in connection with visas, government regulations, scholarships, employment, and general orientation to American life.

University Placement Services. The University maintains three offices to provide assistance to students and graduates in obtaining employment: (1) the Student Employment Service, to aid students seeking part-time and vacation jobs;

(see page 68); (2) the Teacher Placement Service, for the placement of graduates in teaching and administrative positions in the public schools (see SCHOOL OF EDUCATION); and (3) the Graduate Placement Service, to aid graduates seeking professional employment in nonteaching fields.

In its effort to help persons trained at the University to find positions for which they are qualified by education and personality, the Graduate Placement Service maintains contacts between the University and employers, particularly in Oregon and the Pacific Northwest. Its program is carried on in cooperation with University schools and departments. Senior students are encouraged to file credentials with the Placement Service for future use, whether or not they need immediate assistance in obtaining employment.

The University endeavors to help each student in the selection of the life career which for him promises to be most satisfactory, and to guide him into courses and activities which are most likely to contribute toward success in his vocation and toward the development of a well-rounded personality. Successful men and women in many fields are brought to the campus for conferences with students on vocational problems.

New-Student Week

NEW-STUDENT Week, a program of orientation for entering undergraduate students, is held annually the week before classes begin. During New-Student Week new students are made familiar with the aims of higher education, the principles governing the wise use of time and effort, methods of study, and the ideals and traditions of the institution. Every effort is made to assist new students in getting the best possible start in their work. Full directions concerning New-Student Week and registration procedure are sent to each student who is accepted for admission.

The examinations and tests given entering students during New-Student Week provide the University faculty with a basis for advising and assisting students in planning their University programs. These examinations are scheduled at regular times during the week. Each entering student receives from the Registrar a detailed schedule of his individual appointments for examinations. The student should follow this schedule faithfully, in order to avoid delay in registration and possible penalties for make-up appointments.

The University, recognizing that fraternities and sororities form a part of University life and provide living quarters for a substantial part of the student body, has, with the cooperation of these organizations, made provisions by which they may choose their members in an orderly fashion, with a minimum of interference with the beginning of University work.

A "welcome book," the ORE-NTER is published annually in August and is sent to all new students who have been admitted to the University.

Student Living

COMFORTABLE, healthful, and congenial living conditions contribute much to the success of University life and work. Living conditions of the right kind aid students to do their best in their studies and contribute, through the experiences of group life, to the building of character and personality. Hence the University is vitally concerned with student housing. Halls of residence are maintained on the campus by the institution, and the living conditions of students residing outside the dormitories are closely supervised.

Many students live in fraternity houses accommodating groups of from twenty to fifty persons. Admission to these groups is by invitation only. Students also live in private homes and rooming houses near the campus. In several cooperative houses, groups of students enjoy the benefits of group living while keeping expenses at a minimum.

University Dormitories

The University provides dormitory accommodations for 1,607 students. Living conditions are comfortable and democratic, favorable to successful student work and to participation in the wholesome activities of campus life.

Men's Dormitories. The John Straub Memorial Building provides six halls of residence for men: Alpha, Gamma, Sigma, Omega, Zeta, and Sherry Ross halls. The building houses 272 students. Each hall has its own club rooms. Each room is equipped with individual study tables, study chairs, a lounge chair, individual dressers, a steel costumer, and individual closet space. Sleeping porches, each accommodating four men, are equipped with single beds.

Housing for 752 men is provided in two frame dormitories which were moved to the campus from industrial centers of the Pacific Northwest after the close of World War II. Each of the dormitories is divided into five units, which are named in honor of University alumni who gave their lives for their country in the war. These dormitories were originally open only to veterans; this restriction has, however, been removed. The units of Veterans Dormitory No. 1 are: Stitzer, Stan Ray, McChesney, Minturn, and Merrick halls. The units of Veterans Dormitory No. 2 are: Cherney, French, Hunter, Nestor, and Sederstrom halls. Both double and single rooms are available. Room furnishings include: single beds, chest of drawers, study table, study chairs, clothes closet for each man, occasional chair, and night stand.

Men living in the dormitories must furnish towels, a water glass, and an extra blanket.

Women's Dormitories. The University maintains three halls of residence for women, Hendricks Hall, Susan Campbell Hall, and Carson Hall.

Carson Hall is a new five-story building, completed in 1949. It houses 333 student residents, principally in rooms accommodating two girls. A few single rooms are available. Much of the furniture—single beds, individual wardrobes, chests of drawers with mirrors, and study desks—is of built-in construction. Snack kitchenettes, bathrooms with tubs and showers, complete laundry facilities, and trunk-storage rooms are provided on each floor.

Hendricks Hall and Susan Campbell Hall house 112 students each, in suites accommodating four girls. A suite includes a study room, dressing room, and sleeping porch with individual beds. Each study room is furnished with a study table, book stands, chairs, and a couch. Each dressing room has individual chiffoniers with mirrors, and individual closet space. The suites are arranged in units of approximately nine suites each; each floor of each unit has a bathroom equipped with showers. Complete laundry equipment and trunk-storage space are provided in the hall basements.

Dormitory accommodations for women students are also provided in Mary Spiller Hall, an annex to Hendricks Hall.

Women residing in the halls must supply their own towels, a water glass, and an extra blanket.

University Dining Halls. The University maintains five dining halls for students, in the John Straub Memorial Building, in Hendricks Hall, in Carson

Hall, in a separate cafeteria building between the two veterans dormitories, and in the Erb Memorial Union. Residents of Susan Campbell Hall take their meals in the Straub dining hall.

Room Reservations. Students who plan to live in the dormitories should make room reservations as early as possible before the opening of the school year. Application must be made on an official form, and must be accompanied by a room deposit of $15.00. Copies of the form may be obtained from the Director of Dormitories. Dormitory reservations will not be cleared until the student has been cleared by the Registrar for admission to the University.

Dormitory Living Expenses. Board and room rates in the University dormitories are as follows:

	Board, per Month	Room, per Term
		Multiple Units	Single Rooms
Straub, Hendricks, Campbell	$45.00	$50.00	$75.00
*Veterans dormitories	45.00	42.00	54.00
Carson	45.00	65.00	97.50

Room rent is payable in two equal installments each term. The first installment is paid when the student arrives at the dormitory at the beginning of the term, the second on a fixed date later in the term. The dates on which second installments are due during 1950-51 are: fall term, November 6; winter term, February 6; spring term, May 5. Board bills must be paid monthly in advance.

Students who do not pay board and room charges within five days after payment is due are assessed a late-penalty fee of $1.00 for the first day (after five) and $1.00 for each additional day until a maximum charge of $5.00 is reached. If dormitory charges are not paid within ten days after they are due, the student's registration may be canceled.

The right is reserved to increase the charge for room or board, should advance in costs require it. The charges will be decreased whenever decreased costs make this possible.

Dormitory Deposit Refund. The $15.00 dormitory room deposit is regularly refunded at the close of the academic year. The deposit will, however, be refunded at the end of any term to students who do not plan to return to the University the following term, or who are moving from the dormitories to other quarters; students withdrawing from the University before the end of a term may receive a refund at the time of withdrawal.

If dormitory reservations are canceled, the deposit will be refunded only if the cancellation is made two weeks before the opening of the term for which reservations have been made. A student who has made dormitory reservations, and has not canceled his reservations two weeks before the opening of the term, will be required to live in the dormitories if he enrolls in the University.

Fraternities and Sororities

Fraternities and sororities provide comfortable living accommodations under University supervision. Members are chosen during rushing periods set aside for this purpose. Board and room costs are approximately the same as for students living in University dormitories.

In the summer, after formal notice of admission has been received, new students who are interested in fraternity or sorority membership should write to the Office of Student Affairs for full information, instructions, and a copy of rushing rules.

* Open to all men students; restriction of occupancy to veterans has been discontinued.

Further information may be obtained from the Director of Women's Affairs for sororities, and the Director of Men's Affairs for fraternities.

Fraternities on the Oregon campus are organized into the Interfraternity Council, which is a member of the National Interfraternity Conference. Sororities are organized into the Panhellenic Council, which is a member of the National Panhellenic Congress.

Sororities at the University are: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Fraternities at the University are: Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Chi Psi, Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Kappa Sigma, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Alpha Mu, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Theta Chi.

Cooperative and Independent Houses

Students with urgent financial problems, excellent character, and superior scholarship may apply for membership in cooperative houses, where, by sharing housekeeping responsibilities, they are able to save about $15.00 a month on board and room costs. There are three cooperative houses for women, Highland, Rebec, and University; and two for men, Campbell Club and Philadelphia House. Applications for membership must be made through the Office of Student Affairs; applications are subject to approval by the undergraduate membership of the house.

Although, under general University housing regulations, freshman students are required to live in the dormitories, permission to live in cooperative houses will be granted to freshmen, if, for financial reasons, they would otherwise be unable to enter the University.

Ann Judson House, maintained by the Baptist Church but with membership open to young women of all religions, is operated as an independent dormitory, under University supervision. Applications for membership should be addressed to the Director of Women's Affairs.

Rooms in Private Homes

The housing secretary in the Office of Student Affairs maintains a file of rooms available in private homes in Eugene. Students are advised to engage rooms personally after inspection of the quarters and a conference with the householder; the housing secretary is available for any needed assistance.

Housing for Married Students

Housing for married veteran students is provided in 375 family-dwelling units owned or operated by the University. The units include a wide variety of accommodations, from trailer houses to two-bedroom apartments. The rents range from $26.00 to $43.00 per month. The number of family units available is short of the demand. Applications for reservations will be accepted, but applicants must take their turn on a waiting list. Application should be made to the Director of Veterans Family Housing, University Business Office.

Housing Regulations

(1) Freshmen students are required to live in the University dormitories; other lower-division men and other undergraduate women are required to live either in the dormitories or in houses maintained by organized University living groups (fraternities, sororities, cooperatives). Married students and students living with relatives in Eugene are excepted from this rule. Other exceptions are rare, and are made only for students working for room and board, or for whom rooms are not available in campus quarters.

(2) Unmarried undergraduate students are not allowed to live in apartment houses, motor courts, hotels, or separate houses.

(3) All students living in dormitories must take their meals in the dormitory dining rooms.

(4) Students (except freshman) who are living in the dormitories may move to fraternity or sorority houses, or to other quarters, at the end of any term—if permission is granted by the Director of Men's Affairs or the Director of Women's Affairs.

Student Expenses

The average expenses incurred by a student at the University during an academic year are shown in the table below. Some students with ample means spend more; but many students find it possible to attend the University at a much lower cost. Board-and-room estimates are based on charges in the halls of residence. The incidental item will vary greatly with the individual. The expenses of the fall term are listed also, since there are expenses during this term not incurred during the winter and spring terms.

	Fall Term	Year
Institutional fees.....	$ 44.00	$132.00
Books, supplies, etc.....	20.00	45.00
Board and room.....	186.00	503.00
Incidentals.....	25.00	75.00
Total.....	$275.00	$755.00

It should be remembered that, in thinking of the cost of a year at the University, a student usually has in mind the amount he will spend from the time he leaves home until he returns at the close of the year. Such an estimate would include, clothing, travel, and amusements—items which vary according to the thrift, discrimination, and habits of the individual. These items are not included in the table.

Self-Support

Many students earn a large part of their University expenses by work in the summers and during the academic year; some students are entirely self-supporting. The University assists those seeking part-time and vacation jobs through the Student Employment Service. Students wishing part-time jobs on the campus or in the Eugene community are advised to write to the Employment Service a few weeks before the opening of the fall term; in most cases, however, definite commitments for employment are made only after personal interviews.

Student Health Service

THROUGH the Student Health Service the University does all in its power to safeguard the health of its students. The Health Service accomplishes its ends through health education, complete medical examinations for the detection of remediable defects, constant vigilance against incipient disease, medical treatment of acute diseases, and the maintenance of hygienic student living conditions.

The student health services at the institutions in the Oregon State System of Higher Education are supported by student registration fees. Every student registered for credit may receive general medical attention and advice at the Student Health Service during office hours. Limited hospital facilities are maintained for students whose condition requires hospitalization for general medical attention. Such patients are admitted only upon the advice of the Health Service physician. Fifteen days is the maximum period of hospital service during any one academic year. When a special nurse is necessary, the expense must be met by the student. All expenses of, or connected with, surgical operations or specialized service must be borne by the student. Under no circumstances will the Health Service pay or be responsible for bills from private physicians or private hospitals. The privileges of the Health Service are not available to members of the faculty.

The Student Health Service occupies a $125,000 building. On the first floor are modern clinical facilities, including examining rooms, physiotherapy department, minor surgery, laboratory, and X-ray department. On the second floor are two-bed and four-bed wards for hospital service. Contagious cases may be isolated on this floor. The staff of the hospital and clinic includes three physicians and eleven registered nurses, one of whom is a registered X-ray technician and one a laboratory technician.

Vaccination. Under a ruling of the State Board of Higher Education, students are required, as a condition of entrance to any of the institutions of the State System, to satisfy the institutional physician of immunity to smallpox (by evidence of having had the disease or of successful vaccination). Exception is made, however, for students who decline vaccination because of religious convictions. Such students may be admitted, but only on the condition that they or (in the case of minor dependent students) their parents or guardians agree in writing to assume all expenses incident to their care or quarantine, should they fall ill of smallpox while students at the institution.

Physical Examination. Before admission, each entering undergraduate student is required to have a physical examination by a physician of his choice, and to present a record of this examination on a form provided by the University. The object of this examination is twofold, the benefit of the individual and the protection of the group. In making the physical examination compulsory in all the institutions of the State System, the Board of Higher Education has been motivated principally by the second consideration.

Student Loan Funds

THE University of Oregon administers student loan funds totaling approximately $215,000. These funds are available for two types of loans: regular loans for a period of six months to two years; and emergency loans of small amounts for a period of sixty days or less.

The first University loan fund was founded in 1901 through the generosity of William M. Ladd of Portland. Other early contributors were A. S. Roberts of The Dalles and the Class of 1904. Although for a number of years the total amount of the fund was only a little over $500, its benefits were large. Through it many students were enabled to complete their University work who otherwise could not have done so. In 1909 Senator R. A. Booth of Eugene became interested in the loan funds and through his efforts a number of others made substantial donations.

Among these early donors were: Theodore B. Wilcox and J. C. Ainsworth of Portland, John Kelly of Eugene, W. B. Ayer of Portland, the classes of 1911 and 1913, Mrs. Ellen Condon McCornack, Ben Selling of Portland, and the estate of the late D. P. Thompson of Portland.

In recent years the loan funds have grown very rapidly through gifts, bequests, and accumulated interest.

In addition to the funds administered by the University, the following loan funds are available to University of Oregon students. Except where another procedure is indicated, applications for loans from these funds are made through the Office of Student Affairs.

American Association of University Women Loan Fund. Women students of the University are eligible to receive aid from the scholarship loan fund of the Eugene branch of the American Association of University Women.

American Bankers' Association Loan Scholarship. The American Bankers' Association awards annually a $250 loan scholarship to a senior student in business administration. The award is made by a faculty committee of the School of Business Administration.

Crawford Loan Fund. This fund, a bequest of Edward G. Crawford and Mrs. Ida M. Crawford, his wife, is administered by the United States National Bank of Portland as trustee. All loans must be approved by a committee consisting of three residents of Portland. The purpose of the fund is to assist worthy young men desiring to educate themselves.

Eastern Star Educational Fund. Loans of not more than $300 in a school year are available to students who are members or daughters of members of the Order of the Eastern Star. Notes are for one year, renewable at the pleasure of the worthy matron, and draw 4 per cent interest. Loans are made upon honor, no security being asked, and will be made by the trustees of the Grand Lodge upon the recommendation of the University and the approval of the worthy matron and worthy patron of the Eugene chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

Gertrude Watson Holman Memorial Gift Fund. Small amounts of money for emergency financial assistance to worthy women students are provided through this fund. Repayment is not required; but recipients of assistance are invited to contribute voluntarily to the fund, when they are financially able, in order that equally deserving girls may benefit.

Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs Educational Fund. This fund provides loans to women students who are well recommended.

Ben Selling Loan Fund. This fund was bequeathed by Ben Selling, and is administered by his son, Dr. Laurence Selling of Portland.

Mary Spiller Scholarship Loan Fund. The Mary Spiller Scholarship Loan Fund of $5,000 was established by the State Association of University of Oregon Women in honor of Mrs. Mary P. Spiller, the first woman member of the faculty. The income from the fund is available for scholarship loans.

Administration of Loan Funds

The loan funds held in trust by the University are governed by uniform principles and policies, administered by a Student Loan Committee. Applications for loans are made through the Office of Student Affairs. Loans are made in accordance with the following regulations:

(1) Any student may borrow from the University loan funds who has been enrolled in the University for at least one term and has a cumulative GPA of at least 2.00.

(2) The service charge for emergency loans for one month is 25 cents for all loans up to $10.00 and 50 cents for all loans over $10.00. Students who do not redeem their emergency-loan notes within a month must pay an additional service charge of 25 cents per month for five months, and thereafter 6 per cent interest on the unpaid balance.

(3) The interest rate for long-time loans is 4 per cent per year.

Amount of Loans. Rarely is more than $300 lent to any individual student from University loan funds. Some other funds available to University students permit larger loans.

Period of Loans. It is the policy of the University to encourage repayment of loans as soon as the borrower is able to pay. The maximum loan period is two years, with the privilege of renewal if the borrower has in every way proved himself worthy of this consideration. Payment of loans in monthly installments as soon as possible after graduation is encouraged. The interest on renewed loans is 4 per cent a year if the borrower is still a student at the University; the rate of interest on renewals made after the student leaves the University is 6 per cent.

Security for Regular Loans. The University does not accept various forms of collateral which most money lenders require for the security of loans. The only security accepted is the signature of two responsible property owners, in addition to that of the student borrower. The co-signers must submit evidence of their ability to pay the note—by filing a financial statement or by giving bank references. The Student Loan Committee requires that one co-signer qualify by bank reference. It is desirable that one of the co-signers be the parent or guardian of the borrower.

Emergency Loans. Emergency loans are granted for short periods of time, usually from one to thirty days; a few loans are made for sixty days. The signature of the borrower is the only security required for an emergency loan.

Personal Qualities. In considering applications, these personal qualities of the student weigh heavily in the minds of the members of the Student Loan Committee: (1) scholastic record; (2) reputation for reliability, honesty, and industry; (3) need for aid and probability of wise expenditure; (4) amount of present indebtedness; (5) ability to repay; (6) effort which the student has made to assist himself.

Medical School and Dental School Students. Except in the case of a few funds which are specifically restricted to University students at Eugene, students at the Medical School and at the Dental School are eligible for loans from University student loan funds on the same basis as students on the campus at Eugene.

Scholarships and Fellowships

SCHOLARSHIPS and fellowships are available to University students of ability and promise. Most of these awards have been established through the generosity of private donors. Fellowships and scholarships offered to students at the University of Oregon Medical School are listed in the Medical School Catalog.

The scholarships and fellowships listed below have a value at least sufficient to cover the cost of tuition and laboratory and course fees at the University for a full academic year, and are open to competition by all students or by specified groups of students. A number of partial scholarships and special funds for the assistance of needy students are also available; information concerning these funds may be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs.

The award of scholarships and fellowships is coordinated through a faculty Committee on Scholarships and Grants-in-Aid. A single form is provided for application for all undergraduate scholarships (except state fee scholarships, for which application on a special form is required). A student applying for a particular scholarship is automatically given consideration for all available scholarships for which he may be eligible.

Application forms and further information on scholarships and fellowships may be obtained from Karl W. Onthank, chairman of the Committee on Scholarships and Grants-in-Aid.

State Scholarships. A limited number of state scholarships are awarded annually to students of the institutions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. These scholarships cover tuition and laboratory and course fees (a total of $23.50 a term or $70.50 a year for a student attending the University). Recipients of scholarships must, however, pay the incidental fee, the building fee, and special fees. At least fifty per cent of the scholarships are awarded to entering freshmen. To be eligible, an entering student must rank in the upper third of his high-school graduating class. Students who have previously attended an institution of higher learning must have a grade-point average of 2.50 (computed according to the grade-point system in use by the Oregon state institutions of higher education). All applicants, to be eligible, must be in need of financial assistance. Application should be made on official blanks to the University Registrar. Applications must be filed by April 1.

State Scholarships for Foreign Students. A limited number of state scholarships are awarded annually to students from foreign countries attending the institutions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. Similar scholarships are also awarded to selected students from Alaska and Hawaii. These scholarships cover tuition, the nonresident fee, and the laboratory and course fee (a total of $73.50 a term or $220.50 a year at the University). Application for scholarships by students wishing to attend the University of Oregon should be made to the University Registrar not later than April 1.

University Assistantships and Fellowships. Graduate and research assistantships and fellowships are awarded annually by the University to qualified graduate students. For stipends and application procedure, see GRADUATE SCHOOL.

Associated Women Students Scholarships. The Associated Women Students of the University award one or more $75 scholarships each year to worthy women students.

Robert A. Booth Fellowship in Public Service. This $250 fellowship, supported by a bequest from the late Robert A. Booth of Eugene, is awarded annually to an outstanding graduate of an accredited college or university. The award is made on the basis of scholarship, character, personality, and interest in public service as a career.

Thomas Condon Fellowship in Palaeontology. The Thomas Condon Fellowship is awarded as an aid to graduate study in the field of palaeontology. It is endowed through a bequest from the late Mrs. Ellen Condon McCornack, and is named in memory of her father, Dr. Thomas Condon, member of the University faculty from 1876 until his death in 1906.

Bernard Daly Scholarships. Under terms of the will of the late Dr. Bernard Daly of Lakeview, Oregon, worthy young men and women of Lake County, Oregon may receive a portion of their college expenses from the Bernard Daly Educational Fund. The fund is administered by a board of trustees, including a representative of the University of Oregon, who select the scholars annually after a qualifying examination held in Lake County.

Delta Delta Delta Scholarships. Two scholarships are awarded annually by the Delta Delta Delta sorority to University women students: a $350 scholarship to provide financial assistance to a student during her junior year; and a $250 scholarship to assist a student during her senior year. The awards, which are announced during Junior Week End, are made on the basis of need, scholarship, and record of student activities. The scholarships are financed by the local Delta Delta Delta chapter and by alumnae groups.

Maud Densmore Music Scholarship. This scholarship, ranging in value between $90 and $150, is awarded annually by the Women's Choral Club of Eugene to a graduate of a Eugene high school, for vocal-music instruction at the University. The award is made on the basis of vocal ability, character and personality, and financial need.

Donald M. Erb Memorial Scholarships. The Oregon Dads organization awards several $200 scholarships and a number of smaller grants each year to freshmen students graduating from Oregon high schools. The scholarships are named in memory of the late Dr. Donald M. Erb, President of the University from 1938 to 1943. High-school students may apply for Erb Scholarships during their senior year or during the two years following their graduation. Application should be made to Karl W. Onthank, associate director of student affairs, not later than April 1.

Herbert Crombie Howe Scholarship. This scholarship is endowed through a gift from Mrs. Herbert Crombie Howe in memory of her husband, a member of the faculty of the Department of English from 1901 until his death in 1940, and for many years faculty representative to the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Athletic Conference. It is awarded to students injured in athletic competition, to help them continue their education.

Kappa Alpha Theta Art Scholarship. A scholarship amounting to $70 or more is awarded annually by the University chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta to a junior or senior woman majoring in the field of fine arts. The recipient must be unmarried and not more than 25 years of age.

Kwama Scholarships. Kwama, sophomore women's honor society, awards one or more $75 scholarships each year to women students on the basis of ability and need.

Ion Lewis Scholarship in Architecture. This traveling scholarship is awarded, whenever sufficient funds are available, to advanced students in architecture at the University of Oregon. Scholarships vary in amount from $200 to $1,000. Award is made on the basis of character, ability, promise, and need of travel. The scholarship is supported by a trust fund established by the late Ion Lewis of Portland.

Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie Memorial Scholarships. Five $200 scholarships are awarded annually for the study of medicine, in accordance with the following plan: one $200 scholarship is awarded each year to the outstanding premedical student at the University of Oregon in the last year of his premedical studies; if the student enters the University of Oregon Medical School and continues to maintain a high scholastic record, the scholarship is renewable for each of his four years of medical training; if the student does not maintain a high scholastic record at the Medical School, his scholarship is transferred to the outstanding member of his Medical School class who took his premedical work at the University of Oregon. The scholarships are a memorial to Dr. Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie, former dean of the Medical School; they are endowed through a bequest from the late Mildred Anna Williams.

Mortar Board Scholarships. Mortar Board, senior women's honor society, awards one or more $75 scholarships each year to worthy women students.

Mu Phi Epsilon Scholarships. These scholarships, covering applied-music fees, are awarded by the members of the Eugene Alumnae Club of Mu Phi Epsilon to active members of Nu chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon.

Oregon Mothers Scholarship. The Oregon Mothers organization awards three $200 scholarships annually to freshman students graduating from Oregon high schools: the Petronella G. Peets Scholarship, the Louise H. Cook Scholarship, and the Burt Brown Barker Scholarship. Additional awards of from $50 to $150 are made as funds are available. High-school students may apply for Oregon Mothers Scholarships during their senior year or during the two years following their graduation. Application should be made to Karl W. Onthank, associate director of student affairs, not later than April 1.

Orides Mothers-Janet Smith Scholarship. Two fee scholarships are awarded each year to senior Orides girls. Funds for the scholarships are given by the Orides Mothers Club and friends of the late Janet Smith.

Panhellenic Scholarship. The University of Oregon Panhellenic Association awards annually one or more $75 scholarships to women students. The awards are made on the basis of need, scholastic record, and service in campus activities.

Ellen M. Pennell Scholarships. These scholarships, covering regular tuition and fees, are awarded annually to students in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. They are endowed through a bequest from Mrs. Ellen M. Pennell, for many years a member of the University Library staff.

Phi Beta Scholarships. These scholarships, covering applied-music fees, are awarded by Phi Beta, women's national professional fraternity for music and drama, to women students in the School of Music, on the basis of talent, scholarship, and worthiness.

Phi Gamma Delta Scholarship. The Phi Gamma Delta scholarship, a memorial to Robert C. Jones, is a $150 award given annually to an upper-division student who is outstanding in scholarship, leadership, and prospects for future service. Mr. Jones, a graduate of the University in the Class of '43, was killed on December 26, 1944 in the Battle of the Bulge. The scholarship has been endowed by Mrs. Eleanor Jones Mumm and Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Jones.

Phi Theta Upsilon Scholarship. Phi Theta Upsilon, junior women's honor, awards one or more $75 scholarships each year to women students.

Arthur P. Pratt Scholarship. This scholarship, at present approximately $400, is awarded biennially to a graduating senior of the University of Oregon, as an aid to postgraduate study at the University. In choosing a Pratt scholar, a faculty committee gives consideration to scholastic record, character, good citizenship, and promise as a graduate student. The scholarship is endowed through a gift from John G. Foster of Eugene, and is named in honor of Arthur P. Pratt of Los Angeles, California.

Quota International Scholarships. The Eugene chapter of Quota International awards a scholarship, covering a year's fees and tuition, to a junior woman. The club also awards partial scholarships as funds are available.

F. G. G. Schmidt Fellowship in German. This $250 fellowship, supported by a gift from the late Dr. F. G. G. Schmidt, a member of the University faculty from 1897 until his death in 1945, is awarded biennially to a worthy graduate student majoring in German. (No award will be made in 1950-51.)

Hazel P. Schwering Memorial Scholarship. A $300 scholarship, named in honor of the late Mrs. Hazel P. Schwering, is awarded annually to an outstanding junior woman. Funds for the scholarship are raised by the Heads of Houses and by a committee of friends of the University.

Janet Smith Memorial Coop Scholarship. A $75 scholarship is awarded annually to a member of one of the women's cooperative houses on the University campus. The scholarship is named in memory of Miss Janet Smith, University employment secretary from 1933 until her death in 1945, and adviser to the women's cooperatives.

Orin Fletcher Stafford Scholarship in Chemistry. A $1,000 scholarship is awarded annually to a student beginning upper-division work with a major in chemistry. Of the total award, $400 is paid during the junior year and $600 during the senior year. Qualifications include: a superior scholastic record and aptitude for advanced work in chemistry, good character, and need for financial aid. To be eligible for the award, the student must also have attended the University of Oregon for at least one year. If a junior holder of the scholarship fails to maintain a high scholastic record or is otherwise disqualified, the senior award may be canceled and granted to another senior student. The scholarship is financed through gifts from an anonymous donor. It is named in memory of the late Orin Fletcher Stafford, a member of the faculty of the Department of Chemistry from 1902 until his death in 1941.

Standard Oil Company of California Scholarships. The Standard Oil Company of California provides funds for four $500 scholarships, awarded annually on the basis of scholarship and leadership. A scholarship is awarded to a member of each of the four undergraduate classes.

C. P. Tillman Scholarship. The C. P. Tillman Scholarship, about $100, is awarded biennially to a University student on the basis of ability and financial need. The scholarship is supported by an endowment bequeathed to the University by the late C. P. Tillman of Eugene.

Zimmerman Scholarship. The Joseph P. and Eva Zimmerman Scholarship is a $500 award given annually to a senior or graduate student. The scholarship is supported through a bequest from the late Miss Lois Zimmerman, graduate of the University in the Class of '28, and is named in memory of her father and mother.

Zonta Scholarship. The Eugene chapter of Zonta awards a $150 scholarship to a junior woman student.

Prizes and Awards

DISTINCTION in scholarship is recognized at the University through degrees with honors, through election to the various honor societies, and through prizes and awards. A statement of the requirements for degrees with honors and a list of honor societies will be found elsewhere in this Catalog. There are also

Erb Memorial Student Union

THE CENTER of student life, recreation, and extracurricular activities at the University of Oregon is the Erb Memorial Student Union, a new building of modern design, completed in the summer of 1950. The facilities of the Student Union, which is one of the largest structures on the campus, include: a cafeteria and soda bar, and dining rooms for group lunches and dinners; a spacious ballroom which serves also as a banquet room and a hall for concerts, lectures, and motion pictures; a game section with bowling alleys, billiard tables, and ping pong tables; an art gallery, a library for recreational reading, two music rooms, and a piano practice room; offices and meeting rooms for student organizations; a barber shop and a branch postoffice.

The Erb Memorial Union has been erected and furnished at a total cost of about $2,100,000. The building has been financed solely through gifts from alumni and friends of the University, student building fees, and sale of bonds to be retired from future building fees and the income from student activities.

The building is named in memory of Dr. Donald M. Erb, president of the University from 1938 until his death in 1943.

Extracurricular Activities

THE University recognizes the values of extracurricular student activities as a part of a college education: formation of habits of civic responsibility and leadership through self-government and through student clubs and societies; the broadening of outlook and sympathies through varied human associations; cultural development through participation in the intellectual and aesthetic life of the campus.

Regulations Governing Activities Participation. The following regulations govern eligibility for participation in student extracurricular activities:

(1) A student who has been suspended or expelled from the University, or who has been disqualified for enrollment because of poor scholarship, is denied all privileges of the institution, and of all organizations in any way connected with it; he is not permitted to attend any social gathering of students, or to reside in any fraternity, sorority, club house, or dormitory.

(2) No student may accept an elective or appointive office in any extracurricular or organization activity until he has obtained a certificate of eligibility from the Office of Student Affairs. A student is automatically removed from any such office when he becomes ineligible for this certificate. For eligibility, a student:

(a) Must be currently enrolled as a regular student in good standing, carrying at least 12 term hours of work (a lighter load is permitted seniors if their graduation will not be delayed).

(b) Must have completed at least 12 term hours of work with at least a 2.00 GPA during his last previous term in the University. (Incompletes may be counted as a part of these 12 hours, but only to establish eligibility during the term immediately following the term for which the INC was reported.)

(c) Must have a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.00.

(d) Must have attained upper-division standing if he has been in residence for six terms or the equivalent.

(3) The rules of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Athletic Conference govern in all questions of athletic eligibility.

Associated Students. The students of the University are organized for self-government into the Associated Students of the University of Oregon.

The Executive Council, composed of twelve members elected from the student body, is the central governing body of the A.S.U.O. Members of the council and students appointed by it have places on University committees dealing with all phases of student activities, from the Union Board to the Discipline Committee.

The Associated Women Students, a group within the general student organization, sponsors and supervises activities of women students.

Each entering class forms an organization which retains its identity throughout its four years at the University and after graduation. Class reunions are held regularly by alumni. Graduating classes usually leave a gift to the University.

Club and Societies. A wide variety of student clubs and societies are active on the University campus; many are chapters of national organizations. Some of these clubs and societies are listed below:

Allied Arts League	Orchesis (dance, women)
Alpha Delta Sigma (advertising, men)	Order of the Coif (law honorary)
Alpha Kappa Delta (sociology honorary)	Order of the "O" (varsity athletics, men)
Alpha Phi Omega (service honorary, men)	Oregon Yeomen (independent men)
Amphibians (swimming, women)	Orides (independent women)
Anthropology Club	Phi Alpha Delta (law, men)
Asklepiads (premedics)	Phi Beta (music and drama, women)

Lectures. The regular University curriculum is supplemented by University assemblies at which visiting speakers address the general student body, and by frequent public lectures by faculty members and visiting scholars. Special lectures are sponsored by the University Lectures and the Religious and Spiritual Activities committees of the faculty, Associated Students, Sigma Xi, and various schools and departments.

Forensics and Dramatics. Forensics and dramatics are fostered on the campus not only for their value to those participating but also for their intellectual and cultural value for the whole University community.

Training and experience in acting, play production, and stagecraft are provided by the Department of Speech. Each season several full-length plays are given in connection with courses in drama. The department also produces a series of plays for which students not registered in drama courses may try out. Plays are occasionally taken on tour. Various special groups also provide outlets for dramatic talent and opportunities for experience in play production.

The Associated Students, in cooperation with the Department of Speech, sponsor a public-discussion program for both men and women. Students participating in this program lead discussions of topics of current and vital interest on the campus and throughout the state at meetings arranged by high schools, civic organizations, churches, etc. The program includes thorough supervised research in preparation for these public appearances. Students also have excellent opportunities for radio experience through participation in broadcasts from the University studios of Station KOAC and from Eugene stations.

Art and Music. The University gives special encouragement to extracurricular activities in art and music. Concerts and recitals, sponsored by the School of Music, the Associated Students, and the several student musical organizations, play a central part in the cultural life of the University community. The Allied Arts League and the School of Architecture and Allied Arts present frequent exhibits of student art work and loan collections.

The University Symphony Orchestra, an organization of about seventy student musicians, presents several concerts each year. In addition to its own concert series, the orchestra supports faculty and advanced student soloists, and cooperates with choral organizations in oratorio productions. Any University student is eligible to try out for the orchestra.

The University Choral Union includes in its membership more than 400 students, faculty members, and townspeople who are interested in the study and interpretation of great choral literature.

The University Band is divided into four groups: the Concert Band, first and second divisions; the Pep Band; and the Military Band. The Concert Band gives several concerts of classical and modern music each year. The Pep Band plays for athletic contests and rallies. The Military Band, composed of freshman and sophomore military students, plays for all R.O.T.C. ceremonies and reviews.

The Associated Students bring artists of international fame to the campus each year for concerts, to which all students have free admission. Free public recitals by members of the faculty of the School of Music and by advanced music students are given in the Music Auditorium during the school year.

Athletics and Sports. The University of Oregon is a member of the Pacific Coast Athletic Conference, composed of ten leading universities and colleges of the region. In addition to intercollegiate athletics, a comprehensive program of intramural sports is sponsored by the institution through the School of Health and Physical Education. The sports program is closely correlated with instruction in physical education.

Student Publications. University of Oregon student publications are listed below. The official publications of the University are listed on another page.

THE OREGON DAILY EMERALD is a tabloid-size newspaper, published five days a week during the school year. It is edited, managed, and financed by students. All students are eligible for positions on its staff. Payment of registration fees entitles every student to a subscription to the EMERALD.

THE OREGANA, the yearbook of the Associated Students, presents a pictorial record of student life. It is edited, managed, and financed by students. All students are eligible for positions on its staff. The volume is published in May during Junior Week End.

THE ORE-NTER, a handbook for entering new students, is published annually by the Associated Students and the Office of Student Affairs.

The FACULTY AND STUDENT DIRECTORY is compiled and published about November 1 of each school year by the Associated Students.

Alumni Association

MEMBERSHIP in the University of Oregon Alumni Association is open to all persons who have completed work for credit at the University. Semi-annual meetings are held at Homecoming and at Commencement. The Alumni Association publishes a monthly magazine, OLD OREGON. In it are recorded the activities of the association, news of the University, and special articles by students, faculty members, and graduates. The officers and directors of the association are as follows:

The University of Oregon Medical School and the University of Oregon Dental School have their own active alumni associations. The Medical School Alumni Association includes in its membership graduates of the Willamette University department of medicine, which was merged with the Medical School in 1913. The Dental School Alumni Association includes in its membership graduates of the North Pacific College of Oregon, which was incorporated into the University in 1945. Officers of these two associations are listed in the separate catalogs of the two schools.

College of Liberal Arts

ELDON LEE JOHNSON, Ph.D., Dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

ROBERT DONALD CLARK, Ph.D., Assistant to the Dean.

MARCELLA B. KING, B.A., Secretary to the Dean.

THE College of Liberal Arts represents the ancient and continuing effort of men to extend the range of their experience beyond the narrow limits of the time and place in which they find themselves at birth. To achieve and enjoy such a freedom, men must know all they can about themselves and their environment, both physical and social. The liberal arts are a group of studies designed to assist and direct the exploration of man's nature and his position in the world.

By the help of some of these studies, we are able to compare our own experiences with those of men in other times, places, and circumstances, and thus share in the inherited wisdom and satisfactions of mankind. Through others, we deepen and extend our knowledge of our physical environment. Knowledge—scientific, historical, and literary—is the indispensable condition of the good life of free men.

From the founding of the University of Oregon, the liberal arts have remained the central core of the educational program of the institution. In the earliest University Catalogs, the several "courses" of liberal-arts instruction were rather loosely grouped under the "Collegiate Department," distinguished at first only from the "English Preparatory Department" but later also from the professional schools. In the Catalogs of the 1890s, the term "College of Letters" occurs, but only as a heading in lists of students and graduates.

As a part of the first formal organization plan for the University, inaugurated by President Strong, the College of Literature, Science and the Arts was established in 1899. The University continued to administer its liberal-arts program through this college until the reorganization of the Oregon State System of Higher Education in 1932.

Under the original State System plan, a College of Arts and Letters and a College of Social Science were organized at the University, and major work in the physical and biological sciences was allocated to the School of Science at Oregon State College. The University continued to offer nonmajor service courses in science through the Lower Division and Service Departments.

In the fall of 1942, major work in science was re-established at the University, and the separate liberal-arts divisions were merged into the College of Liberal Arts.

The instructional departments included in the college are: Anthropology, Biology, Chemistry, Economics, English, Foreign Languages, Geography and Geology, History, Home Economics, Mathematics, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Sociology, and Speech. All the departments, except the departments of Home Economics and Religion, offer major curricula leading to baccalaureate and graduate degrees.

The University of Oregon Bureau of Municipal Research and Service is administered as a department of the College of Liberal Arts (see page 163).

Entrance Requirements. There are no entrance requirements, beyond the general entrance requirements of the University, for students intending to choose a major within the College of Liberal Arts.

Students intending to major in any of the natural sciences are, however, advised to present at least two units of high-school mathematics and two units of high-school science. Experience has proved that students who lack this preparation are handicapped in University work in science. Students planning to major in chemistry, mathematics, or physics or planning to prepare themselves for entrance to a medical school will find it to their advantage to take intermediate algebra, plane geometry, and trigonometry in high school.

Degree Requirements. The general requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in the College of Liberal Arts are—a minimum of 186 term hours of University work including:

- (1) A minimum of 36 term hours in lower-division liberal-arts courses approved for satisfaction of the group requirement (see below).
- (2) A minimum of 62 term hours in upper-division courses.
- (3) A minimum of 36 term hours in the student's major field, at least 24 of which must be in upper-division courses. In some fields, more than the 36-hour minimum are required to meet departmental standards. For certain interdepartmental majors (described below under SPECIAL CURRICULA), the major requirement is approximately 72 term hours of work distributed in several departments.

A more detailed statement of University requirements for the bachelor's degree may be found on page 57. Special requirements of the several major curricula of the college are stated in the departmental sections and under SPECIAL CURRICULA below.

For requirements for advanced degrees, see GRADUATE SCHOOL.

Group Requirement

ALL University students are required, during their freshman and sophomore years, to complete a stated minimum of work in lower-division survey or foundation courses in the College of Liberal Arts. Courses approved for the satisfaction of this requirement are numbered 100-110 and 200-210, and are divided into three general "groups"—language and literature, social science, and science. Each sequence approved for satisfaction of the group requirement carries a total of at least 9 term hours of credit.

Majors in the College of Liberal Arts, to satisfy the group requirement, must complete a year sequence in each of the three groups, and a second year sequence numbered 200-210 in one of the three groups.

The courses approved for satisfaction of the group requirement are listed below:

Special Curricula

IN ADDITION to the major curricula offered by the departments of the College of Liberal Arts, the college has arranged several programs of study utilizing the course offerings of the departments of the college and other divisions of the University to provide broad cultural education (without departmental specialization) and programs providing the basic liberal-arts preparation required for admission to technical training for the professions.

Curriculum in Basic Liberal Studies

The curriculum in basic liberal studies, leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree, is designed to lay a substantial foundation for understanding the literature, science, and history of civilization. It represents a departure from the free-elective system that has prevailed in American colleges and universities for many years. It should be called a restricted elective program, since the greater part of a student's work must be selected from a restricted list of courses.

The curriculum is administered by a committee, the members of which serve as the official advisers of all students following this program of study. Dr. Hoyt Trowbridge of the Department of English is chairman of this committee.

The curriculum is open to any freshman whose scholastic-aptitude test or high-school record ranks him in the upper three deciles of his class. However, for admission to certain of the required lower-division courses, the student must have completed a minimum of one year of high-school algebra and two years of high-school Latin, German, French, or Spanish, or the equivalent. Students who have not taken this work in high school may make up their deficiencies in courses offered by the University, but completion of graduation requirements may be delayed.

Freshman and Sophomore Years

During his freshman and sophomore years, in addition to satisfying general University requirements in English composition*, physical education, health education, and military science, the student must complete eight year sequences from the following list of courses in five fundamental fields of study. If, however, by an examination given by the department concerned, a student shows mastery of the material of any sequence, he may substitute for it any other sequence in the list.

Foreign Language—one of the following sequences:

Second-Year Latin (CL 7, 8, 9)
Second-Year German (GL 4, 5, 6)
Second-Year French (RL 4, 5, 6)
Second-Year Spanish (RL 14, 15, 16)

Literature—Shakespeare (Eng 201, 202, 203)

and one of the following sequences:
Latin Lit.: Aug. Age (CL 204, 205, 206)
Survey of German Lit. (GL 201, 202, 203)
Survey of French Lit. (RL 201, 202, 203)
Survey of Spanish Lit. (RL 207, 208, 209)
†Survey of English Lit. (Eng 101, 102, 103)
†Apprec. of Lit. (Eng 104, 105, 106)

Science—two of the following sequences:

General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203)
General Chemistry (Ch 201, 202, 203)
General Zoology (Bi 201, 202, 203) or
General Botany (Bi 204, 205, 206)

Mathematics—one of the following sequences:

Elementary Analysis (Mth 101, 102, 103)
Any three of the following: Intermediate Algebra (Mth 100), College Algebra (Mth 105), Plane Trigonometry (Mth 106), Analytical Geometry (Mth 200)

Social Science—History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 102, 103) and one of the following sequences:

Gen. Anthropology (Anth 101, 102, 103)
Principles of Econ. (Ec 201, 202, 203)
Intro. Geography (Geog 105, 106, 107)
American Govts. (PS 201, 202): American Govts. (PS 203) or European Govts. (PS 204)
General Psychology (Psy 201, 202), Applied Psych. (Psy 205), and General Psych. Lab. (Psy 208, 209, 210)
General Sociology (Soc 204, 205, 206)

Junior and Senior Years

During his junior and senior years, the student is required to complete at least nine sequences from the lists printed below, not more than two of which may be chosen from any one subject division.

Anthropology

Primitive Thought (Anth 444, 445, 446)
Beg. & Develop. of Civilizations (Anth 314, 315, 316)
Problems of Race & Culture (Anth 411, 412, 413)

Biology

Evolution (Bi 315), Genetics (Bi 442), Genetics Lab. (Bi 443)
Intro. to Bacteriology (Bi 311), Human Physiology (Bi 312, 313)
Algae & Fungi (Bi 331), Ferns & Mosses (Bi 332), Gymnosperms (Bi 333)
Intro. to Gen. Physiology (Bi 491), Vertebrate Embryology (Bi 445)
Protozoology (Bi 461), Invertebrate Zoology (Bi 463)

Chemistry

Analytical & Theoretical Chemistry (Ch 204, 205, 206)
Organic Chemistry (Ch 430, 431, 432)

Classical Languages

First-Year Greek (CL 1, 2, 3)
Second-Year Greek (CL 314, 315, 316)
Greek Tragedy (CL 317, 318, 319)
Latin Literature (CL 341, 342, 343)

Economics

Economic Theory (Ec 375, 376, 377)
Labor Problems (Ec 425), Organized Labor (Ec 426), Labor Legislation (Ec 427)
Hist. of Ec. Thought (Ec 470, 471, 472)

* Any student registered in this curriculum who demonstrates his ability to write good English will be excused by the head of the Department of English from the required work in English composition.

† Students electing these sequences must also complete a second year in a foreign language to qualify for the B.A. degree.

English

English Novel (Eng 320, 321, 322)
 American Novel (Eng 391, 392, 393)
 Romantic Poets (Eng 460, 461, 462)
 Later 19th-Century Poets (Eng 463, 464, 465)
 18th Century Lit. (Eng 450, 451, 452)
 English Drama (Eng 411, 412, 413)
 17th Century Lit. (Eng 440, 441, 442)
 Lit. of Renaissance (Eng 430, 431, 432)
 19th Century Prose (Eng 470, 471, 472)
 Any three of the following: Chaucer (Eng 428), Spenser (Eng 434), Pope (Eng 455), Milton (Eng 444)

Geography and Geology

General Geology (Geol 101, 102, 103)
 Intro. to Palaeontology (Geol 381, 382, 383)
 Climatology (Geog 215), Geomorphology (Geog 316)
 Geog. of Pac. N.W. (Geog 323, 324, 325)

 History of France (Hst 441, 442, 443)
 Constitutional Hist. of U. S. (Hst 483, 484, 485)

Mathematics

Analytical Geometry (Mth 200), Dif. & Int. Calculus (Mth 201, 202)
 Dif. & Int. Calculus (Mth 201, 202, 203)
 Adv. College Algebra (Mth 314), Theory of Equations (Mth 412), Higher Algebra (Mth 413)

Curriculum in General Arts and Letters

The curriculum in general arts and letters is designed for students who wish to build a program of general studies around a core of literature. The work of the first two years serves as an introduction to the main aspects of Western culture. In the last two years the more intensive study of the history of ideas, of literary movements, and of art forms serves to interpret modern trends in civilization.

The major in general arts and letters leads to the Bachelor of Arts degree. The following courses are required:

Lower Division

- (1) Introduction to Literature (Eng 107, 108, 109), or Survey of English Literature (Eng 101, 102, 103), or Appreciation of Literature (Eng 104, 105, 106), or any sequence in foreign literature which has a prerequisite two years (or equivalent) of foreign language in college.
- (2) Shakespeare (Eng 201, 202, 203).
- (3) Two years of one foreign language.
- (4) One of the following year sequences in history: History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 102, 103); English History (Hst 207, 208, 209).

Mathematics (Continued)

Solid Analyt. Geometry (Mth 316), Adv. Euclidean Geometry (Mth 415), Projective Geometry (Mth 416)
 Intro. to Applied Math. (Mth 421, 422, 423)

Philosophy

Logic (Phl 461, 462, 463)
 Ethical & Pol. Theory (Phl 311, 312, 313)
 Development of Scientific Thought (Phl 451, 452, 453)
 History of Philosophy (Phl 411, 412, 413)

Physics

Elementary Meteorology (Ph 207), Descriptive Astronomy (Ph 208, 209)
 Advanced Gen. Physics (Ph 411, 412, 413)

Political Science

British Govt. (PS 325), Govts. of Cont. Europe (PS 326, 327)
 European Pol. Theory (PS 430, 431, 432)

Psychology

Social Psychology (Psy 334, 335)
 Genetic Psych. (Psy 411), Adolescence, Maturity, & Senescence (Psy 412), Abnormal Psych. (Psy 413)
 History of Psych. (Psy 473, 474, 475)

Religion

Rel. of Classical Antiquity (R 461), Judaism & Christianity (R 462), Living Religions of Orient (R 463)

Romance Languages

17th Cent. French Lit. (RL 411, 412, 413)
 Dante & His Times (AL 477, 478, 479)

Sociology

Hist. of Social Thought (Soc 450, 451, 452)
 Criminology and Penology (Soc 415, 416), Juvenile Delinquency (Soc 417)

Upper Division

- (1) Dante and His Times (AL 477, 478, 479).
- (2) Literature of the Ancient World (AL 311, 312, 313).
- (3) One of the following sequences in philosophy: History of Philosophy (Phl 411, 412, 413); Philosophy and Literature (Phl 431, 432, 433); Development of Scientific Thought (Phl 451, 452, 453).
- (4) History of Literary Criticism (Eng 414, 415, 416) or Aesthetics (Phl 441, 442, 443).

In addition the student must complete four upper-division sequences chosen from the major departments in the College of Liberal Arts; however, any of the following sequences may be elected for the satisfaction of this requirement: History of Music (Mus 357, 358, 359); Special Periods in Music History (Mus 425, 426, 427); History of Painting (AA 346, 347, 348).

The student's program of study should form an integrated whole. The electives in the main should support the objectives of this program.

Curriculum in General Science

The curriculum in general science is intended for students who wish to build a program of cultural studies around a central interest in science as an aspect of human civilization, and for prospective teachers in the secondary schools for whom a departmental science major may be too highly specialized.

The general-science major leads to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. The special requirements are—a minimum of 72 term hours in science (biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics, physics), distributed as follows:

- (1) Four year sequences, numbered 100-110 or 200-210, one in each of four science departments.
- (2) A minimum of 24 upper-division hours in science, including not less than 9 term hours in each of two science departments.

Curriculum in General Social Science

The curriculum in general social science is designed for students who wish broad cultural training, and for prospective teachers for whom a departmental major may be too highly specialized. In addition to fulfilling the general University requirements, students following this program must take a minimum of 72 hours in social-science courses numbered 200 or above. This work must include four year sequences numbered 200-210, one in each of four of the following fields: anthropology, economics, geography, history, philosophy, political science, psychology, sociology. It must also include 36 upper-division hours in the social sciences, earned after receiving the Junior Certificate. The upper-division work must include two one-year sequences (not less than 18 hours) in one department, and one one-year sequence (not less than 9 hours) in each of two additional departments.

Curriculum in Far Eastern Studies

The curriculum in Far Eastern studies is a program of area training through groups of courses concerned with the Far East. The primary emphasis is on the Chinese culture sphere. The program is intended to provide necessary basic knowledge for students who are interested in commercial, governmental, journalistic, or educational work relating to the region, for students who are preparing for graduate work in Far Eastern studies, or for students who wish to broaden their understanding of the interrelated world in which they live. The curriculum is administered by a coordinator and an interdepartmental advisory committee.

The major in Far Eastern studies leads to the Bachelor of Arts or the Bachelor of Science degree. The requirements are as follows:

(1) Far East in Modern Times (Hst or PS 391, 392, 393); Geography of Asia (Geog 431); Peoples of Southern and Eastern Asia (Anth 438, 439, 440). These courses are required of all majors.

(2) Selections, with the approval of the student's adviser, from the following two groups of courses—for the B.S. degree, 24 term hours from group (a); for the B.A. degree, 39 term hours from both groups, of which not more than 24 term hours may be selected from group (b).

(a) Lecture-course group: Chinese and Japanese Classics in Translation (AL 317, 318, 319); Governments of the Far East (PS 330); Far Eastern International Relations (PS 331); Far Eastern Policy of the United States (PS 332); History of Oriental Art (AA 446, 447, 448); Civilizations of China and Japan (Hst 394, 395, 396); Economic Problems of the Pacific (Ec 445, 446, 447); Living Religions of the Orient (R 463); History of China (Hst 494, 495, 496); History of Japan (Hst 497, 498, 499).

(b) Language-course group: First-Year Japanese (OL 1, 2, 3); Second-Year Japanese (OL 4, 5, 6); First-Year Chinese (OL 21, 22, 23); Second-Year Chinese (OL 24, 25, 26).

Premedical Curriculum

A premedical curriculum, including courses prescribed by the American Medical Association for entrance to standard medical schools, is offered at the University. Students pursuing this curriculum work under the supervision of a special advisory committee, to insure a selection of studies which will satisfy medical-school entrance requirements and the cultural needs of students planning to enter the profession of medicine. The chairman of this committee is Dr. A. H. Kunz, head of the Department of Chemistry.

For entrance to a standard medical school, the student must not only complete certain prescribed work but also show an aptitude for medical studies. A medical-aptitude test is given each year to all students who expect to apply during the next academic year for admission to a medical school. Further knowledge of the student's ability is obtained through frequent conferences between the student and his instructors and authorized advisers.

The entrance requirements of the University of Oregon Medical School are as follows.

(1) High-School Preparation. The following high-school course, which meets all the formal requirements, is strongly recommended.

English	4	Latin	2
Algebra	1½	History	1
Geometry	1	German or French	2
Physics	1	Electives	1½
Total	15

Students entering college with less than the amount of work recommended in these fields (especially mathematics and science) may find it necessary to devote more than the minimum of three years to collegiate premedical preparation.

(2) Collegiate Preparation. The Medical School requires for admission at least three academic years of preparatory work (138 term hours, exclusive of credit in military science). The following work is prescribed:

	Term hours
Chemistry	23
General inorganic, which may include qualitative analysis	12
Quantitative analysis, emphasis on volumetric analysis	3
Organic	8
Biology	15
General biology or zoology	9
Selections from general embryology, vertebrate anatomy, or general physiology	6
Physics	12
Mathematics	6
English	9
Totals prescribed credit	65

Foreign language is not specifically required for admission to the Medical School, but some knowledge of a major modern foreign language (German, French, Russian, Spanish) is highly recommended as a part of the cultural training of a physician. Students anticipating research in the medical sciences should obtain a basic knowledge of German and French. The premedical student should keep in mind that some medical schools require credit in foreign language for admission.

The work in organic chemistry must include the chemistry of both aliphatic and aromatic compounds. Biochemistry will not be accepted toward meeting the requirement. Students electing additional work are advised to take a course in elementary physical chemistry. At least 25 per cent of all chemistry credit must be for laboratory work.

Human anatomy is not accepted toward meeting the minimum requirements in biology. Students electing additional work are advised to take courses in embryology, vertebrate anatomy, histological technique, or general physiology.

The work in physics must include the divisions of mechanics, heat and sound, light and electricity. Students electing additional work are advised to take further courses in electricity or atomic physics.

The work in mathematics should be of standard college grade, and include subjects such as algebra, elementary analysis, or trigonometry. Students electing additional work in mathematics are advised to take calculus.

The premedical student is advised very strongly against taking any medical courses in his preparation for the study of medicine. Rather, he should devote his efforts to obtaining the best possible general cultural education and, in addition, a thorough training in the basic sciences of chemistry, physics, and biology.

Recommended Elective Subjects. The student preparing to study medicine is advised to plan a balance in elective courses between courses in liberal arts and courses, beyond the minimum requirements, in subjects prescribed for admission to the Medical School. Subjects suggested are: history, economics, sociology, psychology, English, public speaking, and foreign language.

The Medical School also requires that the student who enters without a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree must complete the work for one of these degrees in the Oregon State System of Higher Education, or at the institution at which he received his premedical preparation, before entering upon the work of the third year at the Medical School. Under University regulations, a maximum of 48 term hours of work in medicine may be counted as credit earned in residence toward the bachelor's degree.

Before entering the Medical School, the student should satisfy all requirements for the Junior Certificate, and all requirements for a degree (including University requirements and requirements for a major within the College of Liberal Arts) that cannot be satisfied at the Medical School. The courses taken during the first year of medical training, together with the science courses prescribed in the premedical curriculum, will satisfy all major requirements in general science or biology. Students selecting other liberal-arts majors must satisfy all major requirements before entering the Medical School, except that Biochemistry (RCh 411, 412), offered at the Medical School, may be counted toward the satisfaction of the major requirement in chemistry.

The following premedical curriculum meets all the requirements stated above. It provides a substantial foundation in the sciences basic to the study of medicine, together with opportunity for broad liberal education.

Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie Memorial Scholarships. Five $200 scholarships are awarded annually for the study of medicine, in accordance with the following plan: one $200 scholarship is awarded each year to the outstanding premedical student at the University of Oregon in the last year of his premedical studies; if the student enters the University of Oregon Medical School and continues to maintain a high scholastic record, the scholarship is renewable for each of his four years of medical training; if the student does not maintain a high scholastic record at the Medical School, his scholarship is transferred to the outstanding member of his Medical School class who has taken his premedical work at the University of Oregon. The scholarships are a memorial to Dr. Kenneth A. J. Mackenzie, former dean of the Medical School; they are endowed through a bequest from the late Mildred Anna Williams.

Pre dental Curricula

The Council on Dental Education of the American Dental Association has established the following minimum requirements for admission to approved dental schools: At least 90 term hours of collegiate courses, including one year of English, one year of general chemistry, one year of biology or zoology, one year of physics, and one-half year of organic chemistry; a grade-point average of at least 2.00.

The University offers a two-year and a three-year pre dental curriculum to prepare students for admission to the University of Oregon Dental School or other approved dental schools. Both of these curricula satisfy the requirements stated above. With proper choice of electives, students completing the three-year curriculum may qualify for a bachelor's degree after one or more years of dental-school work.

* Students are registered into mathematics courses for which they have adequate preparation; as a basis for placement, high-school records are supplemented by a placement examination.

Prenursing Curriculum

The Department of Nursing Education of the University of Oregon Medical School offers a four-year curriculum which leads to the Bachelor of Science degree and prepares for state examinations for nurse registration. The student takes five terms of pre nursing work at the University of Oregon at Eugene or at Oregon State College at Corvallis, or at another accredited college or university. The pre-nursing curriculum is completed with one term of work on the campus of the Medical School (during which the student completes the satisfaction of academic requirements for the Junior Certificate), and is followed by ten terms of clinical instruction coordinated with practice in the hospitals and clinics of the Medical School.

Students in nursing education receive their degrees from the University of Oregon or from the institution at which they took their pre nursing work.

Preparatory Curriculum for Medical Technologists

The University offers a two-year curriculum which satisfies the standards of the Registry of Medical Technologists for admission to approved training schools for medical technologists. Dr. Arnold L. Soderwall of the Department of Biology acts as adviser to students in this curriculum. The preparatory work must total at least 90 term hours in college courses. Required and recommended courses are:

Required: Biology, 18 term hours, including General Zoology (Bi 201, 202, 203); chemistry, 18 term hours, including general inorganic chemistry and quantitative analysis.

Recommended: General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203); Microtechnique (Bi 451); Histology (Bi 444); Vertebrate Embryology (Bi 445); Parasitology (Bi 463); Introduction to Bacteriology (Bi 311); General Bacteriology (Bi 412, 413); Human Physiology (Bi 312, 313); organic chemistry, biochemistry.

To be eligible for certification as a medical technologist, the student must, after completion of the preparatory curriculum, "have instruction for at least twelve consecutive months in an approved training school for medical technologists, or apprenticeship instruction of at least twelve consecutive months under a qualified clinical pathologist."

Interdepartmental Courses

CERTAIN courses offered by the College of Liberal Arts are broader in scope and objective than the instruction offered by any of the traditional liberal-arts departments. These courses are listed below under the headings: General Arts and Letters, General Science, and General Social Science.

General Arts and Letters

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

AL 311, 312, 313. Literature of the Ancient World. 3 hours each term.
Fall: Homer and Greek epic; winter: the fifth century; spring: Latin poetry.

Lectures and readings in English. Special attention to influence of Greek and Latin writers on English literature. Combellack.

- AL 314, 315, 316. Introduction of Germanic Literature. 3 hours each term.
In English. Lectures and assigned readings covering the whole range of German literature.
- AL 317, 318, 319. Chinese and Japanese Classics in Translation. 2 hours each term.
Fall and winter: Chinese literature; the classics, historians, philosophers; poetry and prose, including drama and the novel—both traditional and contemporary. Spring: Japanese literature, traditional and contemporary. Willis.
- AL 321, 322, 323. Classic Myths. 1 hour each term.
The three major myths of the classical world: Troy, Thebes, and the Golden Fleece. Lectures and readings in English. Laudros.
- AL 331, 332, 333. Russian Literature in Translation. 3 hours each term.
A survey of Russian classical literature, with interpretation and criticism of selected texts from representative authors. Prerequisite: senior standing or consent of instructor. Strash.
- AL 351, 352, 353. Scandinavian Literature in Translation. 3 hours each term.
Outstanding works of Scandinavian literature, studied in translation. Fall: Norwegian; winter: Swedish; spring: Danish. Prerequisite: upper-division standing. Williams.
- AL 407. Seminar. (g) Hours to be arranged.
- AL 477, 478, 479. Dante and His Times. (g) 3 hours each term.
Historical and literary background of the Divine Comedy; study of the poem and of Dante's minor works; Petrarch and Boccaccio. Lectures and readings in English. Prerequisite: upper-division course in literature. Beall.

General Science

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- GS 101, 102, 103. Biological-Science Survey. 4 hours each term.
Fundamental principles of plant and animal biology; man's interactions with the living world. 3 lectures; 1 two-hour laboratory period. Not open to students who have taken Bi 201, 202, 203. Huestis, Detling, staff.
- GS 104, 105, 106. Physical-Science Survey. 4 hours each term.
General introduction to the physical sciences; principles of physics and chemistry, geologic processes, and man's relation to them. Special emphasis on scientific method. 3 lectures; 1 quiz period. Ebbighausen.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- GS 311, 312, 313. Natural History of Oregon. 3 hours each term.
The earth and life history of Oregon; kinds and distribution of contemporary plant and animal life; man and his relation to the environment. Prerequisite: upper-division standing, and a group-satisfying year sequence in general anthropology, biology, or geology. Detling, staff.

General Social Science

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- SSc 101, 102, 103. Background of Social Science. 3 hours each term.
Orientation in each of the social sciences; study of the method of science and its application to the social studies; attempts to create in the student the urge to independent thought through wide reading. Breen.

SSc 104, 105. Background of Social Science. 5 hours each term, winter and spring.

A two-term sequence covering same ground as SSc 101, 102, 103.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

SSc 408. Social-Science Symposium. (g) Hours to be arranged.

A cooperative study of the social problems of the state of Oregon. Open to qualified seniors and graduate students.

SSc 411. Social-Science Synthesis for Teachers. (G) 3 hours fall or winter.

A study of economic, social, and political problems that are of local, state-wide, or national import. Designed especially for social-science teachers in secondary schools.

Department of Anthropology

*PROFESSOR: L. S. CRESSMAN (department head).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: H. G. BARNETT (acting department head).

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: W. S. LAUGHLIN, THEODORE STERN.

ASSISTANTS: BARBARA F. COLLIE, J. M. FORDE, KATHARINE H. HONNEN.

THE courses offered by the Department of Anthropology are planned to provide a breadth of background and a depth of perspective in human society for students in other fields, as well as integrated programs for majors in anthropology.

A high-school student planning to major in anthropology is advised to take two years of high-school mathematics, preferably algebra. He should also come to the University with a sound background in English, so that he can read with understanding and express himself with clarity.

Majors in anthropology are required to take the following lower-division courses: Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (Anth 207, 208, 209); General Psychology (Psy 201, 202); Psychology of Adjustment (Psy 204) or Applied Psychology (Psy 205).

Upper-division and graduate majors select courses in anthropology and supporting fields in accordance with their individual interests. However, the following courses are required of all majors: (1) The American Indian (Anth 317, 318, 319); (2) a year sequence selected from Peoples of the Pacific (Anth 423, 424, 425), Peoples of Africa, the Near East, and Interior Asia (Anth 435, 436, 437), or Peoples of Southern and Eastern Asia (Anth 438, 439, 440); (3) Physical Anthropology (Anth 320, 321, 322); (4) Beginnings and Development of Civilizations (Anth 314, 315, 316) or American Archaeology (Anth 420, 421, 422). Mth 325 is recommended for majors and is essential for completion of the work for the master's degree. Graduate students must complete Linguistics (Anth 441, 442, 443) to qualify for the master's degree.

The department offers work at the graduate level in the fields of archaeology, ethnology, and linguistics.

The carefully selected anthropology collections of the Museum of Natural History in Condon Hall provide excellent material for class instruction, particularly in the culture of the American Indian.

* On sabbatical leave 1949-50.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Anth 101, 102, 103. General Anthropology. 3 hours each term.

Fall: man as a living organism; biological evolution; the human life cycle. Winter: evolution of man; human races, nature and problems. Spring: the development of culture; organization of culture; man, participant in and observer of culture. Cressman.

Anth 207, 208, 209. Introduction to Cultural Anthropology. 3 hours each term.

The meaning of culture; its significance for human beings; its diverse forms and degrees of elaboration among different groups of men; its processes of growth and expansion. Barnett.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Anth 314, 315, 316. Beginnings and Development of Civilizations. 3 hours each term.

Fall: the palaeolithic world; its environment, technology, preagricultural economy, society, and art forms. Winter: the development of agriculture and sedentary life in the Near East; economy and society based on metallurgy; urban civilization; development of cultural complexes basic to Western civilization. Spring: diffusion of Near Eastern complexes to Europe and Asia; selected Asiatic and New World developments. Emphasis on cultural processes. Prerequisite: upper-division standing. Cressman.

Anth 317, 318, 319. The American Indian. 3 hours each term.

Indian life in North, Central, and South America before white contact; contemporary Indian life where groups still survive. Prerequisite: upper-division standing. Stern.

Anth 320, 321, 322. Physical Anthropology. 3 hours each term.

Study of human physical development, racial differentiation, and racial distributions. Man's place among the primates, morphological and genetic racial criteria, blood groups, constitutional types, prehistoric and historic racial movements. Prerequisite: course in biology. Laughlin.

Anth 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Anth 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Anth 408. Field Work in Anthropology. (G) Hours to be arranged.

Anth 411, 412, 413. Problems of Race and Culture. (G) 3 hours each term.

The morphological and genetic basis of racial classification; stability of racial types, mental equality of races, race crossing; race prejudice as a cultural product. Socialization of the individual; adjustment of the group and individual to culture. Development of man's analysis of himself and his cultures. Prerequisite: upper-division standing. Laughlin.

Anth 420, 421, 422. American Archaeology. 3 hours each term.

Problems and methods of archaeology in America. The peopling of the New World; problems of Early Man; development of cultures. 2 lectures, 1 two-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: upper-division standing. Cressman.

Anth 423, 424, 425. Peoples of the Pacific. (G) 3 hours each term.

Life and customs among the native groups of the South Pacific, including Polynesia, Micronesia, Melanesia, Australia, and Indonesia. Prerequisite: 9 hours in anthropology. Barnett.

Anth 431, 432, 433. Primitive Society. (G) 3 hours each term.

Social relationships and organizations among primitive peoples, including kinship, fraternal, political, and religious forms and behaviors. Prerequisite: 9 hours in anthropology. Barnett.

Anth 435, 436, 437. Peoples of Africa, the Near East, and Interior Asia. (G) 3 hours each term.

Fall: life and customs of the African native peoples; problems of culture change arising from European and Asiatic contact. Winter: ethnic groups of the Near East—Arabs, Jews, Druses, etc.; Islamic social structure; relations of the Near East with Africa and Asia. Spring: cultures of Interior Asia; palaeo-Siberians, Mongols, Manchus, Kirghiz, Kazaks, and other tribes of Asiatic Russia. Prerequisite: 9 hours in anthropology; upper-division standing. Stern.

Anth 438, 439, 440. Peoples of Southern and Eastern Asia. (G) 3 hours each term.

Introduction to the cultures of India, Farther India, China, Japan, and related areas. Development of distinctive cultural configurations. Interrelationships of cultures; impact of westernization. Racial, ethnic, and linguistic factors. Fall: the Hindu culture sphere; winter: the Chinese culture sphere; spring: southeastern Asia. Prerequisite: 9 hours in anthropology; upper-division standing. Stern.

Anth 441, 442, 443. Linguistics. (G) 2 hours each term.

The relation of language to culture; nature and forms of language; influence of linguistic patterns on thought; sounds of language—phonetics and phonemics; linguistic structures; morphophonemics and morphology; semantics; techniques of linguistic recording, analysis; field work. Prerequisite: upper-division standing; Anth 207, 208, 209 or two years of a foreign language; consent of instructor. Stern.

Anth 444, 445, 446. Primitive Thought. (G) 3 hours each term.

Fall: thought processes and systems of primitive cultures, as reflected in technology, magic, and religion; winter: thought of primitives as reflected in aesthetic expression in various art forms; spring: folklore and mythology as an expression of the imaginative and creative thought of primitive peoples. Prerequisite: 9 hours in anthropology, sequence in ethnography. Stern.

Anth 450, 451, 452. Cultural Dynamics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Evaluation of approaches to the problem of cultural changes; analysis of invention and intergroup cultural borrowing; agents and conditions promoting change; mechanics of cultural growth; application of techniques for inducing change. Prerequisite: Anth 207, 208, 209 or consent of instructor. Barnett.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

Anth 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Anth 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Anth 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Anth 506. Special Problems. Hours to be arranged.

Anth 507. Seminar. 3 hours any term.

Department of Biology

PROFESSORS: P. L. RISLEY (department head), R. R. HUESTIS, A. R. MOORE (emeritus), H. B. YOCOM (emeritus).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: C. W. CLANCY, F. P. SIPE.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: L. E. DETLING, B. H. MCCONNAUGHEY, A. L. SODERWALL.

INSTRUCTOR: A. S. LOCKLEY.

FELLOW: S. W. LESHER.

ASSISTANTS: T. P. ASHFORD, J. M. BALLINGALL, ALLENE M. BROWN, A. L. CHAIMOV, E. W. ELY, R. W. KELLY, EVELYN S. MCCONNAUGHEY, E. W. PFEIFFER, W. P. STOUTAMIRE, M. J. TEDFORD.

THE courses offered by the Department of Biology are planned to provide: (1) a broad background in the fields of animal and plant biology; (2) thorough training for undergraduate and graduate major students, and for students planning to teach biology in the secondary schools; and (3) the work in biology required for admission to schools of medicine, nursing, dentistry, veterinary medicine, pharmacy, forestry, and medical technology.

Students intending to major in biology should include in their high-school course two years of work in mathematics, two years in foreign language, and two years in natural science.

The following lower-division courses or their equivalents are required of biology majors: Intermediate Algebra (Mth 100); Elementary or General Chemistry (Ch 101, 102, 103 or Ch 201, 202); and 20 term hours selected from biology courses numbered in the 200s.

A total of at least 36 term hours of upper-division courses in biology are to be selected with the advice of departmental advisers, in accordance with the objectives of the student.

Special curricula preparatory to training for biological professions are suggested on pages 92-93. These may be followed as recommended patterns for the selection of courses toward the biology major during the student's first two years.

Students preparing themselves to become teachers of biological science in the high schools should plan their upper-division programs to include adequate training in both botany and zoology. Requirements for the major may be adjusted within reasonable limits to the needs of the individual.

The department offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Candidates for a master's degree are expected to have met undergraduate major requirements or their equivalents before beginning graduate study. Facilities are available for graduate work in: plant taxonomy, plant morphology, vertebrate and invertebrate zoology, mammalogy, genetics, cytology, embryology, endocrinology, general physiology, and ecology.

The Museum of Natural History has representative collections of Oregon birds and mammals; the University Herbarium contains excellent collections of plants from Oregon and Pacific Northwest.

Institute of Marine Biology. The Oregon State System of Higher Education maintains an interinstitutional Institute of Marine Biology at Coos Bay on the Oregon coast during the summer months. The institute is located on a 100-acre tract of coastland, given to the University by the Federal government in 1932 and 1941. The deeds of gift provide that the land "shall be used by the University of Oregon solely for scientific and educational purposes." The institute occupies a group of buildings erected by the Civilian Conservation Corps.

Students working toward degrees in biology should plan to spend at least one summer at the Institute of Marine Biology or at another marine laboratory.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Bi 201, 202, 203. General Zoology. 4 hours each term.
A study of animal biology, beginning with the invertebrates; comparative vertebrate anatomy during spring term. 2 lectures; 2 two-hour laboratory periods. Riskey, Lockley.
- Bi 204, 205, 206. General Botany. 4 hours each term.
A study of the fundamental principles of plant biology. 2 lectures; 2 two-hour laboratory periods. Sipe.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Bi 311. Introduction to Bacteriology. 3 hours fall.
Basic principles and techniques of bacteriology. Prerequisite to Bi 412, 413. 2 lectures; 2 two-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: one year of biology and one year of chemistry. McConnaughey.
- Bi 312, 313. Human Physiology. 3 hours each term, winter and spring.
Required for majors in physical education, elective for others qualified. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: one year of chemistry and one year of zoology, or consent of instructor. Soderwall.
- Bi 315. Evolution. 2 hours winter.
Some of the facts which bear upon theories of plant and animal development. Huestis.
- Bi 331. Algae and Fungi. 4 hours fall.
Structures and life histories of representative algae and fungi. Locally growing material is used wherever possible. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: general botany. Sipe.
- Bi 332. Ferns and Mosses. 4 hours winter.
A detailed study of the life histories of representative ferns, fern allies, liverworts, and mosses. Evolution among pteridophytes. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: general botany. Sipe.
- Bi 333. Gymnosperms. 4 hours spring.
Comparative study of the gymnosperms. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: general biology. Sipe.
- Bi 334. Oregon Flora. 3 hours spring.
Principles of plant classification; common plant families; collection and identification of Oregon plants. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: Bi 204, 205, 206. Sipe.
- Bi 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- Bi 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Bi 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Bi 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
- Bi 408. Laboratory Projects. (G) Hours to be arranged.
Special laboratory training in research methods.
- Bi 412, 413. General Bacteriology. (g) 3 hours each term, winter and spring.
2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: Bi 311. Soderwall, McConnaughey.

- Bi 441. Introduction to Mammalian Physiology. (g) 4 hours fall.
Introduction to the physiology of mammalian organs and organ systems. 3 lectures, 3 hours laboratory. Prerequisite: Bi 203, one year of chemistry. Soderwall.
- Bi 442. Genetics. (g) 3 hours fall.
Heredity and variation in plants and animals; similarities and differences among related organisms. Lectures may be taken without laboratory (Bi 443) by liberal-arts majors who have upper-division standing, or who have had one year of biology. 2 lectures. Huestis.
- Bi 443. Genetics Laboratory. (g) 2 hours fall.
It is recommended that this course be taken concurrently with Bi 442. 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: one year of biology. Clancy.
- Bi 444. Histology. (g) 4 hours winter.
Systematic study, description, and identification of histological structures. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: general zoology. Clancy.
- Bi 445. Vertebrate Embryology. (g) 4 hours spring.
Early developmental stages of vertebrates. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: general zoology. Huestis, Clancy.
- Bi 451. Microtechnique. (g) 4 hours winter.
Laboratory experience in preparing tissues for microscopic study. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: general zoology or general botany. McConnaughey.
- Bi 456. Higher Fungi. (G) 4 hours fall.
Structure and classification of the more common fungi. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bi 331. Sipe.
- Bi 461. Protozoology. (G) 4 hours.
Structure, classification, life histories, physiology, and ecology of the protozoa. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: one year of biology and junior standing.
- Bi 462. Invertebrate Zoology. (G) 4 hours fall.
A survey of invertebrate phyla, with particular emphasis in nonparasitic forms. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: one year of zoology and junior standing. McConnaughey.
- Bi 463. Parasitology. (G) 4 hours winter.
Biological relationships of parasite and host, and the effect of such relationships on each. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: one year of zoology and junior standing. McConnaughey.
- Bi 464. Principles of Ecology. (G) 4 hours spring.
Fundamental principles underlying the relationship between organisms and environment; survey of past and present trends in ecological studies. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: one year of chemistry; two years of biology. Lockley.
- Bi 471, 472, 473. Advanced Systematic Botany. (G) 4 hours each term.
Classification of the seed plants of the Pacific Northwest, with emphasis on distribution and speciation. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: two years of botany, including work in plant classification. Detling.
- Bi 475, 476, 477. Advanced Plant Morphology. (G) 4 hours each term.
Structure and life histories of the plant phyla above the thallophytes. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: two years of botany. Detling.

Bi 481. Mammalian Embryology. (G) 3 hours.

Early developmental stages of the mammal. 1 demonstration period; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: vertebrate embryology. Huestis.

Bi 485. Endocrinology. (G) 4 hours spring.

Morphology and physiology of the glands of internal secretion, and their role in normal body functions of the organism. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: two years of zoology; organic chemistry. Soderwall.

Bi 491. Introduction to General Physiology. (G) 4 hours fall.

The properties of living matter; the cell as a physicochemical system; osmotic pressure; ion effects; contraction of muscle; conduction of the nerve impulse. Prerequisite: general zoology; chemistry. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period.

Bi 492, 493. Physiological Foundations of Behavior. (G) 4 hours each term, winter and spring.

Physiology of animal behavior, nerve physiology, tropisms, conditioned reflexes; effects of environment and internal secretions on animal conduct. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: Bi 491 or consent of instructor.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

Bi 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.Bi 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.Bi 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.Bi 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.Bi 523. Modern Genetics. 2 hours.

Lectures and assigned readings in current genetic literature, with demonstrations and laboratory practice in various experimental techniques of modern genetics. With the consent of the instructor, additional experimental work may be carried on in connection with this course under Bi 501. Prerequisite: two years of biology; elementary genetics; and organic chemistry. Clancy.

Bi 525. Experimental Morphogenesis. 2 hours.

Problems and techniques of experimental morphogenesis and development. Lectures. With the consent of the instructor, experimental work may be carried on in connection with this course under Bi 501. Prerequisite: two years of zoology, including vertebrate embryology. Risley.

Bi 527. Cytology. 3 hours winter.

The problems of cytology; methods of study of the cell as the fundamental unit of structure and function in living organisms; experimental procedures. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: Bi 445, Bi 451, Bi 444, Bi 491, or consent of instructor. Risley.

Bi 531. Physiology of the Cell. 4 hours.

Physiological mechanisms, including biochemical and biophysical factors, in cellular activities and metabolism. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: Bi 491, 492.

INSTRUCTOR: R. C. ANDREWS.

ASSOCIATES: F. L. CHAN, PAUL DELAHAY,† J. M. MCGEE.

FELLOWS: G. H. BAIN,‡ SHIH-HAN CHEN, P. Y. CHENG, RUSSELL PANKRATZ,‡ NICHOLAS STOLICA, R. G. YOUNG.

ASSISTANTS: F. G. BENNETT, D. C. DUNHAM,§ H. R. DURSCH, J. M. FAHNER, H. G. FRYE, J. W. FULTON, CHARLOTTE HERZOG, M. G. HOROWITZ, R. O. MACLAREN, G. A. MURDOCK, ANN E. PELLET, C. N. SPALARIS, JOSEPH SPEYER, T. E. TEETER, H. M. TOBEY.

THE undergraduate courses in chemistry offered by the department are planned to provide a broad knowledge of the field as a part of the University's program of liberal education, and to provide a substantial foundation in chemistry for students planning (1) to become professional chemists, (2) to take advanced work in other sciences, (3) to enter a medical or dental school, or (4) to teach science in the secondary schools.

High-school preparation for major work in chemistry should include at least one unit each in algebra and geometry, and two units in science. The student's high-school program should also include substantial courses in English, social science, literature, and foreign languages. Students entering with insufficient preparation in mathematics must make up their deficiencies through elementary courses offered by the University.

The standard curriculum for majors includes the following courses in chemistry and related fields:

Freshman Year—General Chemistry (Ch 201, 202, 203); year sequence in mathematics (students will be registered in a mathematics course for which they have adequate preparation; as a basis for placement, high-school records are supplemented by a placement examination).

Sophomore Year—Analytical and Theoretical Chemistry (Ch 204, 205, 206); General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203); German.

Senior Year—Physical Chemistry (Ch 440, 441, 442); Physical-Chemical Measurements (Ch 443, 444, 445).

Majors should elect at least one additional advanced sequence in chemistry, such as Advanced Inorganic Chemistry (Ch 411, 412, 413), Biochemistry (Ch 450, 451, 452), Colloid Chemistry (Ch 460, 461, 462). Additional courses in physics and mathematics are strongly recommended. Upper-division electives should include courses in the humanities as well as in the sciences. Majors in chemistry who intend to enter a medical school must take required work in biology (see page 92).

To be recommended by the department for the teaching of chemistry in the secondary schools, a student must have completed satisfactorily at least two year sequences in chemistry, together with supporting work in mathematics and physics.

The department offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. The graduate program consists of thesis work, seminars, and broad fundamental courses. The graduate student is advised to elect some advanced courses in other fields of science. In most cases, professional chemical-research positions are open only to persons having an advanced degree.

The laboratories and classrooms of the Department of Chemistry are located in McClure Hall and in the Journalism Building, adjoining McClure.

The University of Oregon is on the approved list of schools whose chemistry faculties, facilities, and curricula have been investigated by the Committee on the Professional Training of Chemists of the American Chemical Society.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Ch 101, 102, 103. Elementary Chemistry. 4 hours each term.

Similar to Ch 201, 202, 203 but less rigorous. Does not serve as a foundation for advanced courses in chemistry. Concurrent work in mathematics recommended. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period, including 1 hour recitation. Andrews.

Ch 201, 202, 203. General Chemistry. 5 hours each term.

Standard first-year college chemistry. Third-year laboratory work devoted entirely to qualitative analysis. Prerequisite: Mth 10 or equivalent. 3 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods, including 1 hour recitation. Kunz, Andrews.

Ch 204, 205, 206. Analytical and Theoretical Chemistry. 5 hours each term.

A second-year sequence for students expecting to do further work in chemistry. Laboratory in quantitative analysis. Prerequisite: Ch 203. 3 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Swinehart.

Ch 220. Analytical Chemistry. 4 or 5 hours.

Lectures on the fundamentals of qualitative and quantitative analysis. Laboratory work devoted mainly to quantitative analysis. Prerequisite: Ch 203. 3 lectures; 1 or 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Dean.

Ch 226, 227. Introductory Organic Chemistry. 4 hours each term.

Chemistry of the carbon compounds; the aliphatics, aromatics, and derivatives. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Dean.

Ch 231. Qualitative Analysis. 4 hours.

Classification, separation, and identification of the common anions and cations. Prerequisite: Ch 205 or equivalent. 1 lecture; 3 three-hour laboratory periods.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Ch 320. Quantitative Analysis. 2 to 3 hours.

An extension of the laboratory work of Ch 204, 205, 206, which is prerequisite. 2 or 3 three-hour laboratory periods.

Ch 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.

For advanced undergraduates. An introduction to the methods of chemical investigation.

Ch 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Open only to students eligible to work for the bachelor's degree with honors in chemistry.

Ch 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Ch 411, 412, 413. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. (G) 2 or 3 hours each term.

A comprehensive study of the chemical elements and their compounds, including atomic, molecular, and crystal structures. Lectures and laboratory. Prerequisite: three years of college chemistry. Swinehart.

Ch 430, 431, 432. Organic Chemistry. (g) 5 hours each term.

Comprehensive study of the chemistry of the compounds of carbon. 3 lectures; 2 laboratory periods. Prerequisite: two years of college chemistry. Gaertner.

Ch 440, 441, 442. Physical Chemistry. (g) 3 hours each term.

Comprehensive study of the theoretical aspects of physical-chemical phenomena. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: two years of college chemistry; one year of calculus. Van Rysselberghe.

Ch 443, 444, 445. Physical-Chemical Measurements. (g) 1 hour each term.

A laboratory sequence; fundamental experiments illustrating physical-chemical principles. Normally taken with Ch 440, 441, 442. Van Rysselberghe.

Ch 449. Survey of Physical Chemistry. (g) 4 hours spring.

Fundamental principles of physical chemistry. Prerequisite: Ch 205. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period.

Ch 450, 451, 452. Biochemistry. (G) 3 or 4 hours each term.

The chemical interpretation of biological phenomena; study of compounds having biological significance; chemical analysis of biological materials. Lectures and laboratory. Prerequisite: organic chemistry and biology. Reithel.

Ch 460, 461, 462. Colloid Chemistry. (G) 2 or 3 hours each term.

The chemistry of surfaces, small particles, and large molecules, including naturally occurring high polymers and synthetic plastics. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period (optional for nonmajors). Prerequisite: organic and analytical chemistry. Dean.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) or (g) may be taken for graduate credit.

Ch 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Ch 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Ch 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Ch 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Ch 520, 521, 522. Advanced Analytical Chemistry. 2 or 3 hours each term.

Special topics in analytical chemistry, such as microanalysis, electrometric titration, conductimetric analysis, spectroscopic analysis, etc. 1 lecture; 1 or 2 laboratory periods. Kunz, Dean.

Ch 530, 531, 532. Advanced Organic Chemistry. 2 or 3 hours each term.

An advanced discussion of the fundamental reactions of organic compounds. Gaertner.

Ch 533, 534, 535. Advanced Organic Laboratory. 2 hours each term.

Designed to accompany Ch 530, 531, 532. Gaertner.

Ch 540, 541, 542. Advanced Physical Chemistry. 2 or 3 hours each term.

The work of each term is selected from such topics as: phase rule, chemical kinetics, quantum chemistry, catalysis. Dean, Swinehart.

Ch 543, 544, 545. Electrochemistry. 2 hours each term.

Systematic study of electrode potentials, galvanic cells, electrolysis, polarization phenomena, reversible and irreversible electrode reactions, with applications in electrometric analytical procedures, polarography, electrolytic organic preparations, etc. Van Rysselberghe.

Ch 550, 551, 552. Chemical Thermodynamics. 3 hours each term.

The laws of thermodynamics, and their application to physicochemical problems, with special emphasis on free energies, chemical potentials, and statistical partition functions. Van Rysselberghe.

Ch 560, 561, 562. Advanced Biochemistry. 2 or 3 hours each term.

Detailed consideration of such phases of biochemistry as carbohydrate and lipid metabolism, structure of nucleoproteins, enzyme action, antibiotics. Reithel.

Department of Economics

PROFESSORS: C. W. MACY (department head),* CALVIN CRUMBAKER,† J. H. GILBERT (emeritus), P. L. KLEINSORGE, V. P. MORRIS, H. S. PIQUET,‡ L. A. WOOD (emeritus).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: P. W. ELLIS, P. B. SIMPSON.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: L. R. SORENSON.

INSTRUCTORS: R. B. ALLDREDGE, E. C. ROBBINS, JR.

FELLOW: W. J. MEAD.

ASSISTANTS: SHIRLEY A. BURR, C. L. CRISWELL, MILDRED G. MASSEY, J. E. RICKENBACKER.

THE curriculum of the Department of Economics is intended not only to meet the needs of majors but also to provide nonmajor students with an insight into economic facts and problems, as a part of their liberal education and as training for intelligent citizenship. The study of economics is basic for professional training in law, business, and public service.

Undergraduate Major. The undergraduate major in economics, leading to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree, normally includes the following:

Sophomore Year. Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203), required of all majors and prerequisite to all upper-division work in the department. Majors are strongly urged to complete at least one year's work in college mathematics and one year of accounting by the end of the sophomore year.

Junior and Senior Years. Economic Theory (Ec 375, 376, 377), required of all majors; at least 27 term hours in upper-division courses in economics, of which at least 18 must be made up of related sequences.

Option in Statistical Economics. This option, leading to the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in economics, is intended to prepare students for the investigation of economic and business problems through the application of modern statistical methods. The lower-division work is planned to provide a general foundation in the fields of mathematics, economics, and business. In the junior and senior years, advanced work in economic theory is supplemented by intensive training in pure and applied statistics. The following program is recommended:

Freshman Year. Freshman mathematics; Constructive Accounting (BA 111, 112, 113).

Sophomore Year. Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203); Differential and Integral Calculus (Mth 201, 202, 203); Mathematics of Finance (Mth 108); Elements of Finance (BA 222); Analysis of Financial Statements (BA 313).

Junior Year. Elements of Statistical Methods (Mth 325, 326); Probability (Mth 427); Introduction to Applied Mathematics (Mth 421, 422, 423).

Senior Year. Business Statistics (BA 432); Measurement of Economic Trends (Ec 469); Business Cycles (BA 466); Mathematical Economics (Ec 480, 481); Statistical Economics (Ec 482); Money and Banking (Ec 411, 412, 413); Public Finance (Ec 418, 419, 420); Economic Theory (Ec 375, 376, 377).

Graduate Work in Economics. The Department of Economics offers graduate work leading to the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy. For the general requirements for these degrees, see GRADUATE SCHOOL.

All candidates for the Ph.D. degree in economics must present evidence of a working knowledge of statistics and accounting. A candidate normally selects one or two minors in other schools or departments of the University, and is expected to devote not to exceed forty per cent of his time to work in his minor or minors.

Comprehensive written preliminary examinations and an oral preliminary examination in five fields of economics are required; all candidates are examined in the fields of economic theory and history of economic thought; the three additional fields may be elected by the candidate. The completion of a course or courses in any of these fields will not be accepted as a substitute for the required comprehensive examination.

A candidate for the Ph.D. degree in another field may present a minor in economics, provided he has had proper preparation. Work in economic theory is required of all minors; other fields may be elected by the candidate. Written comprehensive examinations are required in each field of economics included in the minor.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Ec 201, 202, 203. Principles of Economics. 3 hours each term.

Principles that underlie production, exchange, and distribution, etc. Prerequisite: sophomore standing. Ellis, Kleinsorge, Morris, Robbins, Simpson.

Ec 204, 205. Principles of Economics. 5 hours each term, winter and spring.

Two-term sequence covering same material as Ec 201, 202, 203.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Ec 375, 376, 377. Economic Theory. 3 hours each term.

Systematic study of the concepts and methods of current economic analysis, with special attention to the neoclassical school. Includes work in the fields of value and distribution, fluctuations, employment, etc. Required of all majors. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203.

Ec 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.

- Ec 411, 412, 413. Money and Banking. (G) 3 hours each term.
Nature and functions of money and credit; monetary theory and policy; principles and theory of commercial banking; historical development of the present monetary and banking institutions of the United States; comparative study of banking systems; international banking. Robbins.
- Ec 415. National Income Analysis. (G) 3 hours fall.
Analysis of statistical estimates of gross national production, national income, and related series. Emphasis on theory and limitations. Use of forecasting and economic analysis. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203; BA 111, 112, 113 or consent of instructor. Ellis.
- Ec 416. Economics of American Industry. (G) 3 hours winter.
Technological development of the major manufacturing industries; competitive conditions in each; effects of the business cycle on each; relation to general economic theory. Ellis.
- Ec 417. Contemporary Economic Problems. (G) 3 hours spring.
A study of contemporary business conditions and problems; the impact of World War II upon our economic system; problems of adjustment to a permanent basis. Ellis.
- Ec 418, 419, 420. Public Finance. (G) 3 hours each term.
Expenditures; taxes and other revenues; debt and fiscal policies of Federal, state, and local governments; budgeting. Principles, administration, and quantitative data. Special attention to Oregon.
- Ec 425. Labor Problems. (G) 5 hours fall.
Conditions of labor since the industrial revolution. The labor market; wages, hours, conditions of work; unemployment; etc. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Kleinsorge.
- Ec 426. Organized Labor. (G) 3 hours winter.
History of the labor movement; aims, methods, and policies of trade unions, conservative and radical. Prerequisite: Ec 425. Kleinsorge.
- Ec 427. Labor Legislation. (G) 3 hours spring.
Labor legislation in the United States; problems facing employee, employer, and public which call for regulation through public authority. Prerequisite: Ec 425. Kleinsorge.
- Ec 429. Statistics and Applied Economics. (G) 3 hours spring.
Technique of collecting, classifying, and analyzing quantitative data relating to economic conditions and problems. Prerequisite: Mth 325, 326. Simpson.
- Ec 432, 433. Economics of Business Organization and Finance. (G) 2 hours each term, fall and winter.
A descriptive study of the principal characteristics of the several types of business organization; the rights, duties, and obligations of investors and managing officials; the problems of promoting, organizing, and financing business; the political and economic problems of the modern giant corporation. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203 and BA 222.
- Ec 434. Economics of Public Utilities. (G) 3 hours fall.
Economic relationships which establish a public interest in a business enterprise. Economic and political problems of the organization, financing, management, and public relations of public utilities.
- Ec 435. Economic Problems of State Regulation. (G) 2 hours fall.
Regulation of intrastate services; merits of state control and home rule; regulation of publicly owned utilities; regulation of holding companies. Prerequisite: Ec 434 or consent of instructor.

- Ec 436. Economics of Transportation. (G) 3 hours winter.
Economic problems of contract and common carriers by water, highway, airway, railway. Passenger, freight, express, mail services; theories of rate making; public policy on subsidies and aids; competition and coordination.
- Ec 437. Economic Problems of Federal Regulation. (G) 2 hours winter.
Regulation of interstate common carriers and public utilities through Federal boards and commissions. Prerequisite: Ec 436 or consent of instructor.
- Ec 438. Government Control of Private Business. (G) 3 hours spring.
Survey of the general movement to subject business and personal and property rights to regulation by state or Federal agencies. Prerequisite: Ec 434 or Ec 436; or consent of instructor.
- Ec 440, 441, 442. International Trade and Economic Policies. (G) 3 hours each term.
Theory of international trade; nature and effects of government interference in the form of bounties, subsidies, import and export duties; commercial policies of the more important nations. Economic causes and effects of the two world wars; remedial policies proposed. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Robbins.
- Ec 445, 446, 447. Economic Problems of the Pacific. (G) 3 hours each term.
Resources, trade, economic policies, and interdependence in the Pacific area, with special emphasis on the Far East.
- Ec 448, 449. Collective Bargaining Systems. (G) 2 hours each term, winter and spring.
Major techniques of negotiation; union and management policies; strikes and lockouts. Methods of settling labor disputes, including grievance procedures, conciliation, fact finding, and arbitration. Prerequisite: Ec 425. Kleinsorge.
- Ec 450, 451, 452. Comparative Economic Systems. (G) 2 hours each term.
An analytical comparison of capitalism and other economic systems. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203.
- Ec 453. Land Economics. (G) 3 hours fall.
Economic principles underlying the utilization of agricultural, forest, recreational, and urban lands. Attention to rural and urban planning and zoning.
- Ec 454. Agriculture and the National Economy. (G) 3 hours winter.
The place of American agriculture in the national and world economy. Problems of agricultural credit and finance, tenancy, housing, and labor; government control of production and of foreign and domestic marketing, with particular emphasis on price-control legislation; agricultural cooperatives.
- Ec 455. Conservation of Natural Resources. (G) 3 hours spring.
Inventory of national resources in water, water power, soil, timber, and mineral wealth, with particular emphasis on the public domain; practices leading to wasteful and extravagant use; public policy calculated to prevent waste, promote restoration, and encourage conservation.
- Ec 465. Economic Problems of Social Security. (G) 3 hours fall.
Fiscal, administrative, and constitutional problems of social security. Unemployment and old-age insurance, with special reference to Oregon; compensation for industrial injuries and occupational diseases.
- Ec 466, 467, 468. Economic History of Modern Europe. (G) 3 hours each term.
European economic development and its effect upon society from the beginning of the modern era. Fall: the commercialization of economic life, 1500-1750; winter: the beginnings of industrialization, 1750-1850; spring: the spread of industrialism, 1850 to the present. Sorenson.

- Ec 469. Measurement of Economic Trends. (G) 2 hours winter.
Recent developments in analysis of economic time series; application of these to the measurement of economic trends. Prerequisite: Mth 325, 326. Simpson.
- Ec 470, 471, 472. History of Economic Thought. (G) 3 hours each term.
The evolution of man's ideas about economic matters; the classical school and the development of modern economic thought. Kleinsorge.
- Ec 475, 476, 477. Recent Economic Theories. (G) 2 hours each term.
A detailed analysis and critique of theories of recent major economists. Prerequisite: Ec 375, 376, 377.
- Ec 480, 481. Mathematical Economics. (G) 3 hours each terms, fall and winter.
Analytical and critical examination of mathematical economics. Prerequisite: Mth 101, 102, 103 or equivalent; Ec 470, 471, 472 or Ec 475, 476, 477. Simpson.

THE Department of English offers instruction in English and American literature and in writing. Its lower-division courses are designed to supply the training essential to good writing, to serve as an introduction to humanistic studies, and to impart the fundamental knowledge requisite for a major in English. Its upper-division courses are designed to develop an intelligent and just appreciation of literature, to give some insight into the continuity of literature and the interrelation of literary movements, and to provide the opportunity for a well-rounded knowledge of the history of English and American literature and of the English language.

The department offers undergraduate and graduate majors in English literature and in American literature, and an undergraduate major in writing.

Major Requirements. The Department of English expects its majors to acquire, in addition to a knowledge of English literature, a general knowledge of philosophy and history and a reading knowledge of at least one foreign language. The general major requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Department of English are as follows:

- (1) Greek, Latin, French, Italian, Spanish, or German during both the freshman and sophomore years (two successive years in one of the six languages).
- (2) English History (Hst 207, 208, 209) or History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 102, 103); and a year sequence in biological or physical science.
- (3) Survey of English Literature (Eng 101, 102, 103), or Appreciation of Literature (Eng 104, 105, 106), or Introduction to Literature (Eng 107, 108, 109); and Shakespeare (Eng 201, 202, 203).
- (4) Additional courses, as follows:

Major in English Literature. Twenty-seven term hours in upper-division courses in English, with at least 15 hours in the 400 group. To assure variety and distribution of knowledge, these upper-division courses must include: (a) courses in periods of literature, not less than 9 hours; (b) courses in single authors, not less than 6 hours; (c) courses in types of literature, major literary expressions, and language, not less than 6 hours. Within this minimum requirement of 27 hours, the student must avoid choosing courses in single authors and periods of literature that will involve a repetition of work or concentration on a particular century. Three term hours in American literature may be counted in meeting the requirement. It is expected that at least 3 term hours be devoted to a course dealing with mediaeval literature.

Major in American Literature. (a) Fifteen term hours in upper-division courses in English literature, including not less than 9 hours in the 400 group; for the satisfaction of this minimum requirement, the student may not count more than 3 hours in nineteenth-century literature; the English major requirement of 6 hours in single-author courses must be fulfilled. (b) Twenty-one term hours in American literature, 12 of which must be in upper-division courses and at least 6 in the 400 group.

Major in Writing. (a) Twenty-four term hours in upper-division courses in English or American literature, of which at least 15 must be in the 400 group; of these courses, at least 15 term hours must be in English literature, including at least 9 term hours in the 400 group and not more than 3 term hours in nineteenth-century literature; not more than 9 term hours may be in American literature—of which maximum, 6 hours must be in the 400 group. (b) Nine term hours in upper-division courses in writing, of which 6 must be in the 400 group.

Honors in English. Majors in English who have received the Junior Certificate with Honors Privileges are automatically eligible to become candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts with Honors in English. Other students may become candidates with the approval of the Honors Council upon the recommendation of the head of the department. In addition to the regular requirements for a major in English, candidates for the degree with honors must submit a thesis that displays an aptitude for original and independent study or a literary composition that displays an aptitude for good writing, and must pass a comprehensive examination. All work in English and related subjects should be of honor grade.

To support the work in honors, the Department of English offers courses in Reading and Conference (Eng 305, 405) and Thesis (Eng 403). The candidate chooses a member of the faculty authorized to give such courses, who will act as his adviser, direct his reading, and oversee his thesis during his junior and senior years. Ordinarily, not more than a total of 3 hours per term, or a total of 18 hours for the two years, may be earned in Reading and Conference and Thesis. In special cases, credit for Reading and Conference may be substituted for course requirements.

State Teacher's Certificate. English majors intending to teach in the secondary schools must satisfy the education and subject requirements for a state teacher's certificate. (See SCHOOL OF EDUCATION).

Writing

The major in writing offered by the Department of English is planned to offer students of demonstrated talent an opportunity to develop their abilities through practice in a variety of literary forms. Seniors are expected to undertake a sustained project of some length, such as a novel, a biography, a long poem or play, etc.

The department also offers required and elective courses in writing for all University students, to help them develop the ability to express themselves clearly in good English. English Composition (Wr 111, 112, 113) is a freshman sequence required of all students in the University; each term's work must be taken in its sequential order. A student who meets the standard aimed at may, with the consent of the head of the Department of English, be excused from further required work in written English at the end of any term. Students who do superior work in the first two terms of English Composition may substitute the first term of Advanced Writing (Wr 211) for Wr 113. Students planning to major in writing are advised to complete at least 6 term hours in Wr 211, 212, 213.

Students who receive a low rating in a placement examination given to all entering freshmen are required to take Corrective English (Wr K) before they are permitted to register for English Composition.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

THE Department of Foreign Languages offers instruction in the following languages: Chinese, French, German, Greek, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Norwegian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, and Swedish. Major curricula leading to baccalaureate and advanced degrees are offered in Classical languages, Germanic languages, and Romance languages.

The undergraduate instructional program has been planned to provide:

(1) A foundation for graduate study and teaching of Greek, Latin, German, French, Italian, and Spanish.

(2) A thorough reading knowledge of the languages for the satisfaction of the language requirement for the Bachelor of Arts degree, and as preparation for advanced studies in the natural sciences, social sciences, and humanities.

(3) A competent speaking knowledge of German, French, and Spanish through courses in conversation and through practical use of the languages in student-faculty language clubs and societies.

Major Requirements. Departmental requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in the Department of Foreign Languages are as follows:

Classical Languages. Greek: 30 term hours beyond the first-year course; History of Greece (Hst 411), History of Rome (Hst 412, 413) (students majoring in Greek are normally expected to take courses in Latin). Latin: 24 term hours in upper-division courses in Latin; two year sequences in either Greek or a modern European language; Hst 411, Hst 412, 413.

Modern Languages (French, German, Spanish). 30 term hours beyond the second-year course; normally the survey of literature, composition and conversation, and two additional upper-division year sequences (at least one a literature sequence). Attainment of a reading knowledge of a second foreign language is recommended.

Romance Languages. 30 term hours beyond the second-year sequence in one language and 15 term hours beyond the second-year sequence in a second language.

Honors in Foreign Languages. Majors in French, German, Greek, Latin, or Spanish who have been awarded the Junior Certificate with Honors Privileges are automatically eligible to become candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts with Honors; other students may become honors candidates with the approval of the Honors Council (on the recommendation of the head of the Department of Foreign Languages). Honors candidates must, in addition to satisfying major requirements, submit a thesis and pass a comprehensive examination.

State Teacher's Certificate. Foreign-language majors who plan to teach in the secondary schools must satisfy the education and subject requirements for a state teacher's certificate. See SCHOOL OF EDUCATION.

Department of Geography and Geology

PROFESSORS: S. N. DICKEN (department head), W. D. SMITH (emeritus).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: L. W. STAPLES.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: E. M. BALDWIN, S. D. ERICKSEN, J. E. GAIR, J. C. STOVALL.

ASSISTANTS: R. D. BROWN, JOHN GIERHART, D. M. HAUSEN, VINSON HOLBROOK, ELLEN L. JAMES, L. H. SCHRAG.

THE Department of Geography and Geology serves three classes of students; (1) professional major students; (2) nonprofessional major students, who wish to build a broad cultural education around a central interest in geography and geology; and (3) students majoring in other fields who wish some acquaintance with the contribution of these studies to the understanding of the world and its problems.

For major students, the department provides work in four general fields of specialization: (1) petrology, mineralogy, and economic geology; (2) historical geology and palaeontology; (3) physical geography; (4) economic geography. The first of these fields has a natural alliance with physics and chemistry, the second a natural alliance with botany and zoology, and the third and fourth a natural alliance with the social sciences. The student should keep these alliances in mind when he chooses elective courses. Students may specialize in these fields, or may elect a broad program combining work in both geography and geology.

High-school students planning to major in geology or geography at the University are advised to include in their high-school course work in: algebra, plane geometry, trigonometry, geography, science (physics, chemistry, or general science).

Major Curriculum in Geography. The following courses are required for an undergraduate major in geography.

Lower Division—Regional Economic Geography (Geog 201, 202, 203); Climatology (Geog 215); Field Geography (Geog 221); Cartography (Geog 219, 220).

Upper Division—Geomorphology (Geog 316); Geography of the Pacific Northwest (Geog 323, 324, 325); "geography of the continents" series and other upper-division courses in the field in accordance with the student's interest.

Major Curriculum in Geology. The following courses are required for an undergraduate major in geology:

Lower Division—General Geology (Geol 101, 102, 103); Mathematics (Mth 100, 105, 106); General Chemistry (Ch 201, 202, 203); General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203); Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203).

Upper Division—Mineralogy (Geol 312, 313, 314); Geomorphology (Geog 316); Introduction to Field Geology (Geol 391); Structural Geology (Geol 421); Introduction to Palaeontology (Geol 381, 382, 383); Stratigraphy (Geol 393); Economic Geology (Geol 411, 412, 413); Petrology and Petrography (Geol 414); Seminar (Geol 507).

Major Curriculum in Geography and Geology. The requirements for a combined major in geography and geology are:

Lower Division—Introductory Geography (Geog 105, 106, 107) or Regional Economic Geography (Geog 201, 202, 203); General Geology (Geol 101, 102, 103).

Upper Division—A minimum of two upper-division year sequences in geography and two upper-division year sequences in geology.

Graduate Study. Candidates for a master's degree with a major in geology are required to take advanced courses in the three fields of economic geology, petrology, and palaeontology. Suggested minor fields are: chemistry, physics, biology, or mathematics.

Graduate work leading to a master's degree in geography is offered in three fields of specialization: physical geography, economic geography, and regional geography.

Facilities. The department has laboratory facilities for work in cartography, mineralogy, palaeontology, and petrography, including equipment for the making of thin sections. Working collections of maps, ores, minerals, rocks, and fossils are available for student use. The Condon Museum of Geology contains excellent collections of rocks, minerals, and vertebrate fossils from the John Day Valley. Oregon is especially rich in field material for both geology and geography.

Geography

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Geol 101, 102, 103. General Geology. 4 hours each term.
Processes of nature affecting the surface of the earth; formation of economic geologic deposits; the main events in the history of the earth. Lectures, laboratory, and field trips.
- Geol 290. Introduction to the Geology of Oregon. 3 hours.
Lectures, assigned reading, and field trips, to acquaint the student with some of the salient features of the geology of the state. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103. Baldwin.
- Geol 291. Rocks and Minerals. 3 hours.
A study of the common minerals and rocks; origin, lore, and properties of precious, semiprecious, and ornamental stones; economically important rocks and minerals. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Staples.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Geol 312, 313, 314. Mineralogy. 4 hours each term.
Methods used in determinative mineralogy; crystallographic studies; occurrence and properties of some of the important minerals; optical mineralogy. 2 lectures; 2 laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Ch 201, 202, 203; Geol 101, 102, 103. Staples.
- Geol 321, 322, 323. Geologic History of Life. 3 hours each term.
Fall: origins and early history of life, as revealed by the fossil remains of animals and plants; winter: geologic history of vertebrates; spring: geologic history of the Primates. Baldwin.
- Geol 381, 382, 383. Introduction to Palaeontology. 3 hours each term.
Elementary study of representative forms of extinct animals, principally from several phyla of the invertebrates and vertebrates. Prerequisite: Geol 103. Baldwin.
- Geol 391. Introduction to Field Geology. 3 hours any term.
Elementary topographic mapping; use of field instruments; geological mapping of a small selected area near Eugene. Gair.
- Geol 393. Stratigraphy. 3 hours.
Genesis and subsequent history of stratified rocks; sedimentation, induration, weathering; the methods of correlation of such formations. Essential for students in archaeology. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103. Baldwin.
- Geol 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 406. Advanced Field Geology. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 411, 412, 413. Economic Geology. (G) 3 hours each term.
The general principles of the formation of metallic and nonmetallic economic geologic deposits; principal economic deposits, domestic and foreign. 2 lectures; 1 laboratory period. Prerequisite: Geol 312, 313, 314. Staples.

- Geol 414, 415, 416. Petrology and Petrography. (G) 4 hours each term.
Study of rocks and their alteration products; use of the petrographic microscope. 2 lectures; 2 laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Geol 312, 313, 314; Ph 101, 102, 103 or Ph 201, 202, 203. Gair.
- Geol 421. Structural Geology. (g) 3 hours.
Origin, interpretation, and mapping of minor rock structures, and of major structures such as faults and folds. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103; Ph 101, 102, 103 or Ph 201, 202, 203. Baldwin.
- Geol 451, 452. Pacific Coast Geology. (G) 3 hours each term.
Advanced study of the general geology of the west coast of the United States and Canada from Alaska to southern California; special problems of the region. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103; senior or graduate standing.
- Geol 454, 455. Pacific Basin Geology. (G) 3 hours each term.
General survey of the geology of the Pacific Basin, with some consideration of the special problems of individual regions. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103; senior or graduate standing.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) or (g) may be taken for graduate credit.

- Geol 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 506. Advanced Field Geology. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Periodical Literature.
Founders of Geology.
Geologic Problems.
Regional Geologic Studies.
Classical Geologic Treatises.
- Geol 511, 512, 513. Advanced Microscopy. 4 hours each term.
Designed to familiarize the student with microscopic technique in connection with immersion methods, polished sections, heavy mineral residues, and micro-chemical mineral determination. 2 lectures; 2 laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Geol 314. Staples.
- Geol 514, 515, 516. Advanced Petrology and Petrography. 3 hours each term.
Systems of rock classification. Studies of suites illustrating special petrographic problems. Prerequisite: Geol 414, 415, 416. Gair.
- Geol 520. Advanced Economic Geology. 3 hours.
Emphasis on theories of the origin of mineral deposits; study of examples illustrating general principles. Student reports on selected types of deposits. Review of current literature. Prerequisite: Geol 411, 412, 413. Staples.
- Geol 531, 532, 533. Advanced Palaeontology. 3 hours each term.
Methods of collecting, preparing, and identifying faunas; emphasis on taxonomy and palaeoecology. Prerequisite: Geol 381, 382, 383. Baldwin.

Department of History

- PROFESSORS: D. E. CLARK (department head), ANDREW FISH (emeritus), GORDON WRIGHT.
- ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: QUIRINUS BREEN,* P. S. DULL, E. S. POMEROY.
- ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: R. W. SMITH, L. R. SORENSON, J. F. WEIR.
- INSTRUCTOR: E. R. BINGHAM.
- ASSOCIATES: MABEL McCLAIN (emeritus), LANCASTER POLLARD.
- FELLOWS: H. D. CARLIN, GERALDINE MERONEY.
- ASSISTANTS: W. E. ADAMS, A. R. CAMPBELL, R. V. HART, N. M. MALOUF, R. L. TYLER.

THE curriculum of the Department of History includes a comprehensive program of elementary and advanced courses in United States, European, English, Oriental, and Latin American history. The department's course offerings are planned to provide not only intensive instruction in special fields for majors in history but also background or foundational studies for students majoring in other departments.

Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree. For a bachelor's degree with a major in history a student must complete a minimum of 36 term hours in history (of which 24 must be upper division), including: History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 102, 103); a year sequence (9 hours) in United States history. A seminar in historical method is recommended for seniors who definitely plan to do graduate work. Students planning to teach history in the secondary schools should consult the School of Education in regard to the requirements for a high-school teacher's certificate and the subject-preparation requirement in social science.

Graduate Degrees. The department offers graduate work toward the master's degree in a wide variety of fields. Work toward the degree of Doctor of Philosophy is offered in a limited number of fields.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Hst 101, 102, 103. History of Western Civilization. 3 hours each term.
Origins and development of Western civilization from ancient times to the present. Sorenson, Bingham.
- Hst 201, 202, 203. History of the United States. 3 hours each term.
From colonial times to the present day. Bingham, Carlin, Meroney, Pomeroy, Weir.
- Hst 207, 208, 209. English History. 3 hours each term.
A general survey, covering political, economic, social, intellectual, and religious developments. Smith.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Hst 341, 342, 343. Europe since 1815. 3 hours each term.
Political, social, economic, and cultural trends from the fall of Napoleon to the present. Fall: 1815 to 1890; winter: 1890 to 1929; spring: 1929 to the present. Wright.

* On sabbatical leave, spring term, 1949-50.

- Hst 350, 351, 352. Hispanic America. 3 hours each term.
From the establishment of the Spanish empire to the present; necessary background consideration of Spanish history. Weir.
- Hst 377. Oregon History. 2 hours any term.
Brief survey of the building of civilization in the Oregon Country. Bingham.
- Hst 391, 392, 393. Far East in Modern Times. 3 hours each term.
Political, economic, and diplomatic history of China, Japan, and Korea, with some attention to Asiatic Russia and the Philippines, from the middle of the nineteenth century to the present. Dull.
- Hst 394, 395, 396. Civilizations of China and Japan. 2 hours each term.
Origin, development, and influence of factors shaping the culture and civilization of China and Japan. Not offered 1950-51. Dull.
- Hst 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Hst 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
Readings and conferences with members of the faculty. For honors students.
- Hst 411. History of Greece. (G) 3 hours fall.
Political and cultural history of ancient Greece. Not offered 1950-51. Breen.
- Hst 412, 413. History of Romé. (G) 3 hours each term, winter and spring.
Winter: history of Rome from its earliest beginnings to the end of the Republic; spring: the period of the Empire. Not offered 1950-51. Breen.
- Hst 421, 422, 423. Middle Ages. (G) 3 hours each term.
History of Europe from the decline of the Western Roman Empire to the Age of the Councils. Fall: to 1000 A.D.; winter: to 1200 A.D.; spring: to the Council of Constance. Breen.
- Hst 430, 431. Renaissance. (G) 3 hours each term, fall and winter.
The Italian phase of the Renaissance; its spread to other sections of Europe. Breen.
- Hst 432. Reformation. (G) 3 hours spring.
The disruption of the Church in Western Europe, the Counterreformation, and the religious wars. Breen.
- Hst 433. Europe 1600-1789. (G) 3 hours.
Political, economic, social, and cultural development of European states from the close of the Reformation to the French Revolution. Wright.
- Hst 437, 438, 439. Economic History of Modern Europe. (G) 3 hours each term.
European economic development and its effect upon society from the beginning of the modern era. Fall: the commercialization of economic life, 1500-1750; winter: the beginnings of industrialization, 1750-1850; spring: the spread of industrialism, 1850 to the present. Sorenson.
- Hst 441, 442, 443. History of France. (G) 3 hours each term.
Fall: growth of the monarchy; winter: Old Regime, Revolution and Napoleonic era, nineteenth-century monarchy; spring: 1948 to the present. Some background in European history or in French recommended but not required. Not offered 1950-51. Wright.
- Hst 445. Europe since 1939. (G) 3 hours.
Origins and course of World War II; postwar developments in the European states. Wright.
- Hst 446. Recent Germany. (G) 3 hours.
The German Empire, the republican experiment, 1918-33, the National Socialist regime, World War II and after. Not offered 1950-51. Wright.

- Hst 447. Tsarist Russia. (G) 3 hours.
Origins of the Russian state; growth of Russian institutions; rise of the revolutionary movement. Wright.
- Hst 448. Soviet Union. (G) 3 hours.
The revolution of 1917; Russian domestic and foreign policies from 1917 to the present. Wright.
- Hst 449. East-Central Europe since 1900. (G) 3 hours.
The Baltic, Danubian, and Balkan states in recent times; political, social, and economic problems; role of the area in international affairs. Wright.
- Hst 453, 454. Portuguese Empire and Brazil. (G) 3 hours each term.
The evolution of Portugal as a national state, and the building of her colonial empire in Africa, the Far East, and Brazil. The main emphasis is on Brazil from colonial times to the present. Weir.
- Hst 456. History of Mexico. (G) 3 hours.
Political, economic, and social development of Mexico from colonial times to the present, with some attention to pre-Columbian civilizations of the region. Weir.
- Hst 457. Recent Hispanic America. 3 hours.
Developments in Spanish America since World War I, with emphasis on economic and social aspects. Weir.
- Hst 463, 464, 465. British Dominions. (G) 3 hours each term.
History of the dominions, India, and the crown colonies. Prerequisite: 9 term hours in history or consent of instructor. Not offered 1950-51. Smith.
- Hst 466. Tudor England. (G) 3 hours fall.
The political, social, economic, and intellectual development of England through the reigns of the Tudor sovereigns, 1485-1603. Smith.
- Hst 468. England 1815-1870. (G) 3 hours winter.
Social, political, economic, and intellectual history of England from 1815 to 1870. Smith.
- Hst 469. Recent England. (G) 3 hours.
Recent social, political, economic, and intellectual changes in Great Britain. Smith.
- Hst 470, 471. Leading Americans. (G) 3 hours each term, fall and winter.
American leaders who have been outstanding in their periods. Not offered 1950-51.
- Hst 473, 474. American Foreign Relations. (G) 3 hours each term.
The relations of the United States with other powers; the development of American foreign policies. Clark.
- Hst 475, 476. History of the West. (G) 3 hours each term.
The American frontier. First term: the early American frontier; second term: the trans-Mississippi West. Pomeroy.
- Hst 477. History of the Pacific Northwest. (G) 3 hours.
Detailed study of the building of civilization in the Pacific Northwest. Required for graduate students planning to present theses in Oregon history. Prerequisite: Hst 201, 202 or consent of instructor. Clark.
- Hst 478. History of Political Parties in the United States. (G) 3 hours.
Origin and history of political parties; issues, policies; changes in methods of nomination; presidential campaigns; minor parties. Prerequisite: 9 hours in United States history or consent of instructor. Clark.

Hst 479. Forces and Influences in American History. (G) 3 hours.

Geographic influences; influence of the frontier; inheritance and tradition; economic forces; nationalism; sectionalism; manifest destiny; democracy. Prerequisite: Hst 201, 202, 203 or consent of instructor.

Hst 480, 481, 482. The United States in the Twentieth Century. (G) 3 hours each term.

The progressive era; the impact of the Spanish-American War and the wars of 1914-18 and 1939-45 on the United States; prosperity, depression, and the New Deal. Fall: 1898 to 1914; winter: 1914-1932; spring: 1932 to the present. Prerequisite: Hst 201, 202, 203 or consent of instructor. Pomeroy.

Hst 483, 484, 485. Constitutional History of the United States. (G) 3 hours each term.

Origin of the Constitution; development of the national government since 1787. Pomeroy.

Hst 486. Colonial North America. (G) 3 hours.

Advanced study of the establishment and development of European colonies in North America, with emphasis on the English colonies. Prerequisite: Hst 201 or consent of instructor. Pomeroy.

Hst 487, 488, 489. American Economic History. (G) 3 hours each term.

All phases of the economic development of the United States. Sorenson.

Hst 494, 495, 496. History of China. (G) 3 hours each term.

Fall: from legendary times to the T'ang Dynasty (618-907); winter: from the Sung Dynasty (960-1276) to the "Second Treaty Settlement" of the Manchus in 1860; spring: 1860 to the present. Dull.

Hst 497, 498, 499. History of Japan. (G) 3 hours each term.

History of Japan, from its beginnings to the present. Dull.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

Hst 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.Hst 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.Hst 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.Hst 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Department of Home Economics

PROFESSORS: MABEL A. WOOD, (department head), LILIAN E. TINGLE (emeritus).

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: FAITH JOHNSTON, FRANCIS VAN VOORHIS, L. MILDRED WILSON.

INSTRUCTORS: HELEN R. HOLT, MARGARET WIESE.

LOWER-DIVISION and service courses in home economics are offered at the University. By action of the State Board of Higher Education on March 7, 1932, all major work in the Oregon State System of Higher Education leading to baccalaureate and advanced degrees in home economics was confined to the School of Home Economics at the State College, and lower-division work (instruction in the freshman and sophomore years) was assigned to both the State College and the University.

The lower-division work in home economics is essentially the same at both institutions. While it is recommended that students intending to major in home economics enter the institution at which major work is offered at the beginning of their freshman year, they may, if they wish, spend their freshman and sophomore years at the University, and transfer to the State College for their major work at the beginning of the junior year, without loss of credit and with fundamental requirements for upper-division standing fully met. University students wishing to complete the first two years of Curriculum B (technical curriculum) should have their programs carefully planned by the head of the Department of Home Economics.

At both institutions, the lower-division program is intended, not only to lay the foundation for specialization in home economics, but also to serve the needs of students majoring in other fields. In addition to lower-division work, the University offers upper-division service courses in home economics.

The Department of Home Economics occupies the entire third floor of Chapman Hall, erected in 1939. The foods and clothing laboratories are designed and equipped in accordance with the best modern standards.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

HEc 111, 112, 113. Clothing Construction. 2 hours each term.

Adaptation of patterns, fitting of garments, and the basic processes of the construction of artistic clothing. Students must have had HEc 114, 115, 116, or must take this sequence at the same time. 2 two-hour laboratory periods.

HEc 114, 115, 116. Clothing Selection. 1 hour each term.

Selection of clothing from the standpoints of design, textile material, hygiene, and cost for homemade and ready-made garments.

HEc 125. Textiles. 2 hours any term.

Textile fibers and their relation to dress and household textiles. Suggested parallel for HEc 111.

HEc 211, 212, 213. Foods. 3 hours each term.

Introduction to foods; selection, preparation, and serving of meals. 2 recitations; 2 two-hour laboratory periods.

HEc 222. Family Relationships. 2 hours any term.

Designed to give the student with no particular background in sociology or psychology an understanding of the problems and adjustments of family life. Does not satisfy any requirements in sociology.

HEc 225. Principles of Dietetics. 2 hours any term.

The nutritive value of food; the selection of a proper diet for health, based on dietetic principles. Open to men and women.

HEc 250. Camp Cookery. 1 hour any term.

Fundamental principles of cookery applied to simple meals in home and camp. 1 three-hour laboratory period. Open to men only.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

HEc 325. Child Care and Training. 3 hours any term.

The growth, development, and training of the young child. No prerequisite.

HEc 331. Home Planning and Furnishing. 3 hours any term.

Principles involved in the planning and furnishing of a home.

HEc 339. Household Management. 3 hours any term.

Application of the principles of scientific management to the home; household operations and finances; family and community relationships.

HEc 340. Purchasing Problems of the Home. 3 hours.

Designed to provide the student with information needed as a basis for wise selection of household consumer goods; evaluation of sources of consumer information; the legal protection and responsibility of the consumer.

Department of Mathematics

PROFESSOR: A. F. MOURSUND (department head).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: PAUL CIVIN, W. J. DIXON, K. S. GHENT, I. M. NIVEN, T. S. PETERSON, F. E. WOOD.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: F. J. MASSEY.

INSTRUCTORS: J. C. GYSBERS, MARIE R. MASON, MARCUS PETERSON, W. L. SHEPHERD, F. H. YOUNG.

FELLOW: MARGARET W. MAXFIELD.

ASSISTANTS: THELMA M. CHANEY, P. H. CHEO, I. J. CHRISTOPHER, RUTH B. GYSBERS, L. G. JONES, R. F. LINK, A. E. LIVINGSTON, J. E. MAXFIELD, R. J. SCANLON, J. C. SORENSON, J. H. SWIFT, JR., G. T. THOMPSON, C. K. TSAO, L. H. WEGNER.

MATHEMATICS courses at the University are designed to provide the training in rigorous thinking and analytical processes which is fundamental to a liberal education; to provide basic mathematical training for students in the social, biological, and physical sciences and in the professional schools; to prepare prospective teachers of mathematics; and to provide advanced and graduate work for students specializing in the field.

High-School Preparation for Major Work. Students intending to major in mathematics at the University should take high-school courses in algebra (at least one and one-half years), plane geometry, and, if possible, trigonometry and solid geometry. Majors usually begin their University work in mathematics with College Algebra (Mth 105) or Elementary Analysis I (Mth 101); if they are not prepared for these courses, they must make up their deficiencies by taking one or more of the following courses: Elements of Algebra (Mth 10), Intermediate Algebra (Mth 100), Elements of Plane and Solid Geometry (Mth 20, 21, 22). These courses may not be counted toward the satisfaction of the major requirements for a bachelor's degree. It is strongly recommended that prospective mathematics majors take as many high-school courses in science as possible.

Courses Satisfying Science Group Requirement. Any three one-term courses in mathematics numbered 100-110 will satisfy the group requirement in science. Any two of these courses, followed by Mth 200 will also satisfy the group requirement. Mth 100 may not be taken for credit after the completion of any other course in the 100-110 group, except with the approval of the department. The courses in each of the sequences listed below are correlated to make up an integrated year's work. Majors in business administration should choose a sequence containing Mth 108.

(1) For students entering with only one year of high-school algebra: Mth 100, 105, 106; Mth 100, 105, 108.

(2) For students entering with one and one-half years of high-school algebra: Mth 101, 102, 103; Mth 101, 102, 108; Mth 105, 106, 200; Mth 105, 106, 108.

Sophomore Sequences. Any three one-term courses numbered 200-210 will satisfy the group requirement in science. Differential and Integral Calculus (Mth 201, 202, 203) is the standard sequence for students in the physical, biological, and social science.

Requirements for Bachelor's Degree. For a bachelor's degree with a major in mathematics, a student must complete 48 term hours of work in the field, including Differential and Integral Calculus (Mth 201, 202, 203) and at least 24 hours in upper-division mathematics courses.

The following courses are recommended as electives: General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203) and other physics courses; General Chemistry (Ch 201, 202, 203); Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203); Statistics and Applied Economics (Ec 429); Logic (Phl 461, 462, 463); Development of Scientific Thought (Phl 451, 452, 453); Constructive Accounting (BA 111, 112, 113).

Recommendations for Prospective Teachers. Students intending to teach high-school mathematics must plan their programs to include the courses required for certification (see SCHOOL OF EDUCATION). To receive the unqualified recommendation of the department, prospective mathematics teachers should also complete two terms of Differential and Integral Calculus (Mth 201, 202), Advanced Euclidean Geometry (Mth 415), and either Advanced College Algebra (Mth 314) or Theory of Equations (Mth 412). It is also recommended that, to supplement the courses listed above, the student's program include 12 additional term hours in courses selected from: Mth 108, Mth 203, and upper-division mathematics courses. Special upper-division courses in algebra, geometry, and the foundations of mathematics, offered during summer sessions, are acceptable substitutes for the upper-division mathematics courses listed above.

Graduate Degrees. The Department of Mathematics offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Candidates for a master's degree with a major in mathematics should plan to take a year sequence in the 511-599 group, in addition to the research and seminar work required by the Graduate School.

Candidates for the Ph.D. degree are accepted in the fields of algebra and number theory, analysis, and mathematical statistics. Students interested in work toward the doctor's degree should consult the head of the department concerning departmental requirements.

Statistics. A major option in statistical theory has been arranged for students wishing to specialize in this field. Students interested in this work should consult Dr. W. J. Dixon, associate professor of mathematics.

At the University of Oregon all basic courses in statistical theory are offered by the Department of Mathematics. The following courses in applied statistics are offered by the Department of Economics, the Department of Psychology, the School of Business Administration, and the School of Education: Statistics and Applied Economics (Ec 429); Measurement of Economic Trends (Ec 469); Mathematical Economics (Ec 480, 481); Statistical Economics (Ec 482); Psychometrics (Psy 443, 444, 445); Advanced Business Statistics (BA 433); Educational Statistics (Ed 515, 516, 517). Mth 325, 326 or equivalent is a prerequisite for all of these courses except Ed 515, 516, 517. A major option in applied statistics, with special emphasis on application to economic and business problems, is offered by the Department of Economics (see page 106).

Through the cooperation of the several schools and departments offering work in statistics, a Statistical Laboratory, equipped with electric and hand-operated calculating machines, is maintained in Emerald Hall. The facilities of the laboratory and the advice of laboratory assistants are available to all students whose work involves statistics.

Computational Service. The Department of Mathematics provides a computational service for University schools, departments, faculty members, and graduate students who need assistance or advice in connection with statistical or other mathematical problems. No charge is made for this service, except for long computations, which are performed by competent students at standard rates set by the department.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Mth 10. Elements of Algebra. 3 hours.

For students entering with less than one year of elementary algebra. Open to others only on recommendation of the department. May not be taken for credit after completion of other courses in college mathematics. 4 recitations.

Mth 20, 21, 22. Elements of Plane and Solid Geometry. 2 hours each term.

For students entering with less than one year of high-school geometry. Students having credit for plane geometry but not for solid geometry enter the third term.

Mth 100. Intermediate Algebra. 4 hours.

Prerequisite: one year of high-school algebra.

Mth 101, 102, 103. Elementary Analysis I, II, III. 4 hours each term.

Algebra, trigonometry, plane and solid analytical geometry, introduction to the simple notions of the calculus. Prerequisite: one and one-half years of high-school algebra; high-school trigonometry.

Mth 105. College Algebra. 4 hours.

Prerequisite: one and one-half years of high-school algebra or Mth 100.

Mth 106. Plane Trigonometry. 4 hours.

Prerequisite: Mth 105.

Mth 108. Mathematics of Finance. 4 hours.

Simple and compound interest and discount, annuities, periodic-payment plans, bonds, depreciation, and other topics related to business. Prerequisite: Mth 101 or Mth 105.

Mth 200. Analytical Geometry. 4 hours.

Prerequisite: college algebra and plane trigonometry, or Mth 101, 102.

Mth 201, 202, 203. Differential and Integral Calculus. 4 hours each term.

Standard sequence for students of physical, biological, and social sciences. Prerequisite: Mth 200 or Mth 101, 102, 103.

Mth 230. Spherical Trigonometry and Elements of Navigation. 3 hours.

Spherical trigonometry and application of plane and spherical trigonometry to navigation. Prerequisite: plane trigonometry, consent of instructor.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Mth 311. History of Mathematics. 3 hours.

Ancient, mediaeval, and modern mathematics; emphasis on the great human interest of this most ancient and most modern of the sciences. Prerequisite: one year of college mathematics. Wood.

Mth 313. Calculus. 4 hours.

Applications of differential and integral calculus. Prerequisite: Mth 201, 202 and junior standing. Ghent, Wood.

Mth 314. Advanced College Algebra. 3 hours.

An extension of the work in algebra given in freshman mathematics. Prerequisite: one year of college mathematics. Ghent, Niven.

Mth 316. Solid Analytical Geometry. 3 hours.

An analytical treatment of curves and surfaces in three-dimensional space. Prerequisite: calculus or Mth 314. Ghent, Niven.

Mth 325, 326. Elements of Statistical Methods. 3 or 4 hours each term.

Tabulation and graphical presentation of statistical data; descriptive statistics, correlation; design of experiments, sampling theory, tests of significance, analysis of variance. Prerequisite: one year of high-school algebra or equivalent. Students registered for 4 hours must have completed Mth 105 or equivalent. Dixon, Massey.

Mth 341. Mathematics of Life Insurance. 3 hours.

A mathematical treatment of the theory of life-insurance and annuity premiums and reserves. Prerequisite: Mth 108, consent of instructor. Civin, Ghent.

Mth 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Mth 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Mth 411. Number Theory. (G) 3 hours.

Congruences, Diophantine equations, quadratic residues, the Fermat-Euler theorem. Prerequisite: calculus or Mth 314. Ghent, Niven.

Mth 412. Theory of Equations. 3 hours.

Methods of solution of algebraic equations and related topics. Prerequisite: calculus. Ghent, Niven.

Mth 413, 414. Higher Algebra. (G) 3 hours each term.

Basic concepts of algebra, matrices, linear transformations, quadratic forms. Prerequisite: calculus and Mth 412, or consent of instructor. Ghent, Niven.

Mth 415. Advanced Euclidean Geometry. (G) 3 hours.

Modern developments in geometry based on the plane geometry of Euclid, dealing with the geometry of triangles and circles. Prerequisite: calculus or consent of instructor. Moursund, Wood.

Mth 416, 417. Projective Geometry. (G) 3 hours each term.

Elements of synthetic and analytical projective geometry. Prerequisite: calculus. Wood.

Mth 421, 422, 423. Introduction to Applied Mathematics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Differential equations, with applications and applied topics. Prerequisite: calculus. Peterson.

Mth 427. Advanced Statistical Method. (g) 3 hours.

Modern procedures for efficient analysis of statistical investigations, including sampling methods used in opinion and population studies and in sequential analysis. Special problems adapted to the needs of students. Prerequisite: Mth 325, 326. Dixon, Massey.

Mth 431, 432, 433. Advanced Calculus. (G) 3 hours each term.

A rigorous treatment of the elements of the calculus, including such advanced topics as line integrals, elliptic integrals, Green's theorem, and allied topics. Prerequisite: calculus. Civin, Moursund.

Mth 447, 448, 449. Mathematical Statistics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Development of distribution theory from the theory of probability. Derivation of sampling distributions. Introduction to theory of statistical estimation and inference. Prerequisite: calculus; Mth 325, 326. Dixon, Massey.

Mth 451. Vector Analysis. (G) 3 hours.

Application of gradient, divergence, and curl to irrotational and solenoidal vectors. Scalar and vector potentials, including harmonic functions and their physical applications. Prerequisite: calculus; Ph 201, 202, 203. Peterson.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) or (g) may be taken for graduate credit.

Mth 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Mth 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Mth 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Algebra and Number Theory. Ghent, Niven.
Differential Geometry. Peterson.
Fourier Series and Summability. Civin, Moursund.
Integral Equations. Peterson.
Probability and Statistics. Dixon, Massey.
Topology. Civin.

Mth 511, 512, 513. Theoretical Mechanics. 3 hours each term.

Lagrange's equations; Hamilton's principles and equations; potential theory; applications to gravitation, hydrodynamics, and theory of elasticity. 3 lectures. Peterson.

Mth 521, 522, 523. Advanced Differential Equations. 3 hours each term.

Ordinary and partial linear differential equations and boundary value problems, with applications. Peterson.

Mth 533, 534, 535. Fourier Series. 3 hours each term.

Elements of the theory of convergence and summability of Fourier series. Civin, Moursund.

Mth 541, 542, 543. Abstract Algebra. 3 hours each term.

Group theory, fields, Galois theory, algebraic numbers, matrices, rings, ideals. Ghent, Niven.

Mth 551, 552, 553. Functions of a Real Variable. 3 hours each term.

Number, sets and functions, convergence, continuity and the derivative, primitives, limits and higher derivatives, Riemann and Lebesgue integrals, series. Civin, Moursund.

Mth 554, 555, 556. Functions of a Complex Variable. 3 hours each term.

Complex numbers, analytical functions, differentiation and integration, mapping, linear fractional transformations, infinite series, general properties of single- and multiple-valued functions. Civin, Moursund.

Mth 571, 572, 573. Topology. 3 hours each term.

Topological spaces, metrizability, continuous transformations, mapping theorems, cyclic element theory, Jordan curve theorem, semicontinuous collections. Civin.

Mth 581, 582, 583. Theory of Estimation and Testing Hypotheses. 3 hours each term.

General theory of estimation and of testing hypotheses; mathematical theory of design of experiments; theory and application of sequential analysis. Massey.

Mth 591, 592, 593. Advanced Mathematical Statistics. 3 hours each term.

Distribution and sampling theory; estimation; tests of hypotheses; regression; analysis of variance; combinatorial theory; multivariate analysis. Dixon, Massey.

Department of Nursing Education

PROFESSOR: HENRIETTA DOLTZ (director of department).

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: OLIVE A. SLOCUM.

THE University offers on the campus in Eugene: (1) a prenursing curriculum in preparation for professional work in basic nursing at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland; and (2) work in liberal arts and sciences required as a part of the Medical School's degree curricula for graduate nurses. For prenursing curriculum, see pages 93-94. For the programs for graduate nurses, see the published announcements of the Department of Nursing Education.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Nur 111. Backgrounds of Nursing. 3 hours.

The historical background of modern social and health movements; the relation of these to the evolution of nursing as a profession. Slocum.

Nur 230. Home Nursing. 2 hours.

Home care of the sick; demonstration of ordinary nursing techniques under home conditions; improvising equipment. Designed primarily for students who are not preparing for professional nursing. 1 lecture; 3 hours laboratory. Slocum.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Nur 311, 312, 313. Modern Nursing Problems. 1 or 2 hours each term.

Aims and problems of nursing at home and abroad. Open only to registered nurses. Slocum.

Department of Philosophy

PROFESSORS: ALBUREY CASTELL (department head), H. N. WIEMAN.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: B. E. JESSUP.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: ARTHUR PAP.

ASSISTANTS: L. R. GEISELMAN, W. H. HARRIS.*

THE lower-division courses in philosophy are designed for students who desire a brief introductory survey. The upper-division courses provide a more intensive study of selected philosophical problems. The department offers a major program leading to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. History of Philosophy (Phl 411, 412, 413) is required of all majors.

Students may satisfy the social-science group requirement with any three of the four courses, Phl 201, Phl 202, Phl 203, Phl 204; these courses may be taken in any order.

* Resigned Dec. 31, 1949.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Phl 201. Elementary Logic. 3 hours.
An introduction to the study of argument, reasoning, proof. How to recognize, analyze, criticize, and construct the main types.
- Phl 202. Problems of Philosophy. 3 hours.
An introduction to the study of some of the persistent problems of philosophy.
- Phl 203. Elementary Ethics. 3 hours.
An introduction to problems which mark the philosophical study of morality, e.g., right and wrong, free will and determinism, morals and society, etc.
- Phl 204. Elementary Aesthetics. 3 hours.
An elementary study of aesthetic fact and value, and of the relation of aesthetic interest to other human interests, such as the moral, the intellectual, and the religious. Jessup.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Phl 311, 312, 313. Ethical and Political Theory. 3 hours each term.
Theory of right and wrong; its embodiment in major institutions; the career of institutions in the modern world. Castell.
- Phl 322. Philosophies of Mind. 2 hours.
Lectures, readings, and examination on the changing concepts of mind and human nature. Pap.
- Phl 323. Man and Metaphysics. 2 hours.
An examination of naturalism, supernaturalism, and humanism in recent philosophy. Castell.
- Phl 331, 332, 333. Contemporary Philosophy. 2 hours each term.
Some common phases of recent philosophical theory. No prerequisites, but not open to lower-division students. Jessup.
- Phl 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
For students who have had previous study of philosophy.
- Phl 407. Undergraduate Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
For students who have had previous study of philosophy.
- Phl 411, 412, 413. History of Philosophy. (g) 3 hours each term.
Survey of European philosophy from Socrates to the present. Castell.
- Phl 421, 422, 423. Philosophy in America. (g) 2 hours each term.
Survey of philosophical history in America from colonial times to the present. Puritanism, transcendentalism, idealism, pragmatism, and realism.
- Phl 431, 432, 433. Philosophy and Literature. (G) 2 hours each term.
The philosophical backgrounds of the literature of modern Europe and America. Jessup.
- Phl 441, 442, 443. Aesthetics. (G) 3 hours each term.
Major theories of beauty and the aesthetic experience—ancient, mediaeval, renaissance, modern, and contemporary. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Jessup.
- Phl 451, 452, 453. Development of Scientific Thought. (g) 2 hours each term.
Preliminary study of classical and mediaeval beginnings, with thorough consideration of renaissance and modern scientific thinking. Influence of science on contemporary thought in art and literature. Pap.

- Phl 461, 462, 463. Logic. (g) 2 hours each term.
The forms and methods of knowledge, the problems of inference, the nature of evidence, scientific method, and the function and limits of human understanding. Prerequisite: Phl 201. Pap.
- Phl 471, 472, 473. Philosophy of Science. (G) 3 hours each term.
Analysis of the basic concepts of the sciences. Pap.

GRADUATE COURSES

- Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) or (g) may be taken for graduate credit.
- Phl 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Phl 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Phl 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Department of Physics

PROFESSORS: R. T. ELLICKSON (department head), A. E. CASWELL (emeritus), W. V. NORRIS.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: S. Y. CH'EN, E. G. EBBIGHAUSEN.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: F. E. DART, G. D. HOYT.

INSTRUCTOR: L. A. WEBB.

FELLOWS: E. D. CLAYTON, E. B. NEHER, R. S. PAUL.

ASSISTANTS: S. E. ADLER, D. E. BARLOW, E. A. BOYRIE, JR., H. Y. CHEN, PHYLLIS HANSON,* C. C. HUDSON, V. L. LONG, R. S. WRIGHT, N. YOKOGAWA.

COURSES offered by the Department of Physics are planned to provide basic training for (1) professional physics majors, (2) persons desiring a broad liberal-arts education centered around a major in physics, (3) major students in other science fields, (4) premedical students, and (5) students planning to teach the physical sciences in the secondary schools. The major requirements for a bachelor's degree in physics are:

Freshman Year—General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203); College Algebra (Mth 105), Plane Trigonometry (Mth 106), Analytical Geometry (Mth 200), or equivalent.

Sophomore Year—Modern Physics (Ph 321); Analytical Mechanics (Ph 322, 323); Differential and Integral Calculus (Mth 201, 202, 203); General Chemistry (Ch 201, 202, 203).

Junior and Senior Years—Electricity and Electronics (Ph 431, 432, 433); Radiation Physics (Ph 441, 442, 443); Physical Chemistry (Ch 440, 441, 442).

If the student elects additional work in physics during his junior and senior years, Thermodynamics and Chemical Physics (Ph 451, 452, 453) is recommended. Upper-division physics majors are advised to take advanced courses in mathematics—Introduction to Applied Mathematics (Mth 421, 422, 423) and Vector

* Resigned Dec. 31, 1949.

Analysis (Mth 451) are especially recommended—and additional advanced work in chemistry. Other recommended electives are: History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 102, 103) or other social-science sequences; Principles of Cost Accounting (BA 312); Business Law (BA 416, 417, 418); and basic courses in foreign languages.

Students planning to teach in the secondary schools must take General Psychology and required courses in education (see SCHOOL OF EDUCATION).

Advanced Degrees. The Department of Physics offers graduate work leading to the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy.

Course requirements for a master's degree with a major in physics normally include, in addition to the substantial equivalent of the undergraduate requirements listed above: two year sequences in physics, at least one of which must be a 500 sequence; a year sequence in advanced chemistry; one of the following sequences in mathematics: Advanced Calculus (Mth 431, 432, 433), Introduction to Applied Mathematics (Mth 421, 422, 423), or Functions of a Complex Variable (Mth 544, 555, 556).

The department is prepared to accept candidates for the doctor's degree in the fields of electronics, nuclear physics, physics of solids, and spectroscopy.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Ph 101, 102, 103. Essentials of Physics. 3 hours each term.

Fundamental principles of physics, intended for students not majoring in science; requires less mathematical preparation than Ph 201, 202, 203. Prerequisite: Mth 10. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Dart.

Ph 161. Rudiments of Photography. 2 hours.

Intended for students interested in photography as an avocation. No prerequisite. 1 lecture; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Hoyt.

Ph 201, 202, 203. General Physics. 4 or 5 hours each term.

Standard first-year college physics. Prerequisite: mathematics equivalent of Mth 105, 106 or consent of instructor. 3 or 4 lectures and recitations; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Norris.

Ph 207. Elementary Meteorology. 3 hours.

Elementary treatment of weather phenomena. 2 lectures; 1 laboratory period. Ebbighausen.

Ph 208, 209. Descriptive Astronomy. 3 hours each term.

Descriptive treatment of the more important facts relating to the heavenly bodies. First term: the solar system; second term: the stellar system. 2 lectures; 1 observation or laboratory period. Ebbighausen.

Ph 296. Practical Astronomy. 3 hours.

Determination of time, latitude, longitude, and azimuth by astronomical methods. Prerequisite: Ph 208 and trigonometry. 1 lecture; 2 observation periods. Ebbighausen.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Unless an exception is noted in the course description, general physics and calculus are prerequisite to all advanced and graduate courses.

Ph 321. Modern Physics. 4 hours fall.

Atomic and molecular physics; introduction to nuclear physics; physics of solids. Prerequisite: Ph 201, 202, 203; must be preceded by or accompanied by calculus. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Hoyt.

Ph 322, 323. Analytical Mechanics. 4 hours each term, winter and spring.

Statics, dynamics of a particle, dynamics of rigid bodies. Prerequisite: Ph 201, 202, 203; must be preceded by or accompanied by calculus. 4 lectures. Hoyt.

Ph 369, 370, 371. Architectural Physics. 1 hour each term.

Physical principles involved in heating, ventilation, illumination, acoustics, etc. Prerequisite: one year of college physics. Norris.

Ph 411, 412, 413. Advanced General Physics. (g) 3 hours each term.

Intensive treatment of dynamics, thermodynamics, alternating currents, electron physics, optics. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Norris.

Ph 431, 432, 433. Electricity and Electronics. (g) 4 hours each term.

Electrostatics; electrolytics; d-c and a-c currents; electromagnetism; electronics; circuit theory; ultra-high frequencies; high-voltage generators; elementary electric particles. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Dart.

Ph 441, 442, 443. Radiation Physics. (g) 4 hours each term.

Supersonic radiation; wave and quantum properties of radio waves, microwaves, infrared rays, visible and ultraviolet radiation, X-rays, and gamma rays; spectroscopy and X-ray diffraction, electron optics. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Chen.

Ph 451, 452, 453. Thermodynamics and Chemical Physics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Thermodynamics, statistical mechanics, kinetic theory; applications to gases, liquids, solids, atoms, molecules, and the structure of matter. Hoyt.

Ph 461, 462, 463. Introduction to Biophysics. (g) 3 hours each term.

Physical methods and techniques used in biological and biochemical research; biophysical characteristics of the eye, ear, structures, and membranes; nerve conduction. Prerequisite: Ph 203; Bi 491, Bi 492, 493. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Dart.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) or (g) may be taken for graduate credit.

Ph 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Ph 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Ph 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Ph 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Current Periodical Literature.

Theory of Relativity.

Quantum Theory of Radiation.

Physics of Solids.

Spectroscopy.

Ph 511, 512, 513. Theoretical Mechanics. 3 hours each term.

Lagrange's equations; Hamilton's principle and equations; potential theory; applications to gravitation, hydrodynamics, and theory of elasticity. 3 lectures.

Ph 520. Advanced Thermodynamics. 4 hours.

Advanced thermodynamics, relation of thermodynamics to statistical mechanics, application to specific heats, properties of steam, and radiation. 4 lectures.

Ph 521, 522, 523. Theory of Electricity and Magnetism. 3 hours each term.

Electrostatics, magnetostatics; dia-, para-, and ferromagnetism; electromagnetic fields; electromagnetic induction; Maxwell's equations; propagation of waves; diffraction; dispersion; electron and magneto-optics. 3 lectures.

Ph 531, 532. Quantum Mechanics. 4 hours each term.

Mathematical theories of the structures of molecules, atoms, and atomic nuclei, and their interactions with one another and with radiation. Quantum laws of radiation and relativistic quantum mechanics. 4 lectures. Ellickson.

Ph 541, 542, 543. Nuclear Physics and Cosmic Radiation. 3 hours each term.

Fundamental experimental evidences of nuclear structure; natural and artificial radioactivities; relation of nuclear physics to cosmic radiation; nuclear forces. 3 lectures. Ebbighausen.

Department of Political Science

PROFESSORS: E. S. WENGERT (department head), J. D. BARNETT (emeritus), E. L. JOHNSON, C. P. SCHLEICHER, WALDO SCHUMACHER.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: P. S. DULL, HERMAN KEHRLI.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: I. G. NAGY, V. A. OSTROM.

LECTURER: D. M. DUSHANE.

FELLOW: A. D. BARRE.

ASSISTANTS: P. V. DAVIS, W. H. DODD, E. J. TENDOLLEN.

POLITICAL science embraces the study of government and its problems, ranging from international governmental relations to local town and city administration. Its central concern is with human efforts to reconcile the claims of public authority and individual liberty.

The courses of the Department of Political Science are designed: (1) to provide a general knowledge of government and public affairs essential to participation in a democratic society; (2) to assist in the preparation of students, both majors in the department and students specializing in other fields, for positions in public service; and (3) to prepare students for teaching and research in political science.

The introductory courses offered at the lower-division level provide two terms of study in American national government (PS 201, 202), after which the student may elect a third term's work in American state and local governments (PS 203), European governments (PS 204), or international relations (PS 205).

The upper-division course offerings fall into the following broad fields: (1) foreign and comparative governments; (2) international relations; (3) public administration; (4) American government and public law; (5) political parties and public opinion; (6) political theory. Majors in political science are required to take courses in at least three of these fields. Principles of Political Science (PS 400) is required of all majors.

The Department of Political Science offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts or Master of Science degree. The department also offers, in cooperation with other social-science departments, a special program leading to the Ph.D. degree for students preparing for college teaching in the social sciences; these students may choose political science as their major field.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

PS 201, 202, 203. American Governments. 3 hours each term.

Fall and winter: national government. Spring: state and local governments. Dean, Ostrom, Schleicher, Schumacher, Wengert.

PS 204. European Governments. 3 hours winter or spring.

A survey of the constitutions and governmental operations of selected democratic and nondemocratic governments in Europe, including the governments of Britain, France, and the Soviet Union. Nagy, Schumacher.

PS 205. International Relations. 3 hours fall or spring.

Analysis of the nature of relations among states, with particular reference to contemporary international issues; a study of motivating factors, including nationalism, imperialism, economic rivalries, quest for security, etc.; study of the problem of national sovereignty and its relation to international cooperation. Nagy, Schleicher.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

PS 314, 315, 316. Problems of State and Local Government. 3 hours each term.

A study of the major problems in the organization and function of state. A study of the major problems in the organization and function of state, Ostrom.

PS 320, 321. World Politics. 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

Basic principles of the modern state system; analysis of factors making for conflict and cooperation. Emphasis, during second term, on the foreign policies of the leading states, exclusive of the United States. Schleicher.

PS 322. American Diplomacy. (G) 3 hours spring.

Contemporary foreign relations of the United States; objectives, world and domestic factors affecting American foreign policy, governmental institutions concerned with development and execution of foreign policy, major issues and problems. Schleicher.

PS 325. British Government. 3 hours fall.

Organization and operation of the national government, with special attention to the relations between Parliament and the executive; local government in England. DuShane.

PS 326, 327. Governments of Continental Europe. 3 hours each term, winter and spring.

A study of the governments of Europe, with special attention to France, Italy, Germany, and Russia. DuShane.

PS 328. Governments in the British Commonwealth. 3 hours.

Special attention given to the governments of Canada and Australia. Offered alternate years.

PS 329. Governments of Latin America. 3 hours.

Study of governmental systems and practices of the major states of Central and South America. Offered alternate years.

PS 330. Governments of the Far East. 3 hours fall.

Analysis of the nature and significance of the political institutions and internal political problems of the countries of the Far East, with special reference to China, Japan, and the Philippines. Dull.

PS 331. Far Eastern International Relations. 3 hours winter.

Study of the international contacts of Far Eastern states, principally Japan and China, with each other and with the West; related political problems. Dull.

PS 332. Far Eastern Policy of the United States. 3 hours spring.

Study and analysis of the principles of the Far Eastern foreign policy of the United States, with particular reference to Japan, China, and Asiatic Russia; analysis of the problems which the United States must consider in developing its postwar policies in the Far East. Dull.

- PS 391, 392, 393. Far East in Modern Times. 3 hours each term.
Political, economic, and diplomatic history of China, Japan, and Korea, with some attention to Asiatic Russia and the Philippines, from the middle of the nineteenth century to the present. Dull.
- PS 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- PS 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- PS 411, 412. Introduction to Public Administration. (G) 3 hours each term, fall and winter.
Study of the organization and activities of government in carrying out public policy, with special reference to the Federal government and to the government of Oregon. Wengert.
- PS 413. City Administration. (G) 3 hours spring.
A study of the operation of city government, including planning, improvements, public health and safety, public utilities, and finance. Prerequisite: PS 411, 412. Kehrl.
- PS 414. Political Parties and Election Problems. (G) 4 hours fall.
The nature, organization, and operation of political parties; election and recall of officers; proportional representation; initiative and referendum; civil-service reform. Schumacher.
- PS 415. Public Opinion. (G) 4 hours winter.
Study of the methods of formation and control of public opinion. Schumacher.
- PS 419, 420. International Organization. (G) 3 hours each term, fall and winter.
A survey and analysis of the development of public international organization, with chief emphasis on the United Nations and its affiliated organizations; consideration of the leading problems of the United Nations; international administration. Nagy.
- PS 421. International Law. (G) 3 hours spring.
Introduction to international public law. Forces influencing its development; the nature and sources of international law; codification; the International Court of Justice. Rules of international law respecting more important subjects. Nagy.
- PS 430, 431, 432. European Political Theory. (G) 3 hours each term.
Study of the leading ideas of major political theorists. Fall: from Plato to the Renaissance; winter: from the Renaissance to the French Revolution; spring: from the French Revolution to the present. Dean.
- PS 433. American Political Theory. (G) 3 hours fall or spring.
The development of American political theories from early colonial days to the present. Dean.
- PS 482. The Legislature in American Government. (G) 3 hours fall.
Study of the work of representative lawmaking bodies in a modern technological society; how legislatures are organized and operate in the Federal and state governments. Offered alternate years. Wengert.
- PS 483. The Executive in American Government. (G) 3 hours spring.
Study of the executive branch in American government, with particular emphasis on the part played by the executive, and agencies attached to it, in legislative and judicial matters. Johnson.
- PS 484, 485. The Supreme Court in American Government. (G) 3 hours each term, winter and spring.
The part of the Supreme Court in shaping American public policy; study of leading cases and other materials. Wengert.

- PS 490. Principles of Political Science. (G) 3 hours spring.
A comprehensive course dealing with the principles underlying all aspects of the study of politics and administration. Designed to assist advanced political-science majors to integrate and evaluate the facts and principles presented in their previous studies in the field. Wengert.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

- PS 501. Research Hours to be arranged.
- PS 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- PS 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- PS 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Department of Psychology

PROFESSORS: H. R. TAYLOR (department head), R. W. LEEPER.

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: L. F. BECK,* J. V. BERREMAN, H. R. CROSLAND, LEONA TYLER.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: J. S. CARLSON, P. E. EISERER, R. A. LITTMAN.

INSTRUCTOR: W. R. HUBBARD.

FELLOW: HAROLD MOLENKAMP.

ASSISTANTS: C. F. FORD, MARY B. HALL, G. W. KENT, L. D. MATHAE, JEAN J. SMITH, H. W. VON HOLT, E. A. WADE.

LOWER-DIVISION courses in psychology are intended to prepare for major work in the field, and to provide an introduction to psychology as a part of the cultural education or professional training of nonmajor students.

Courses in psychology in which the student earns a grade of D may not be counted toward the satisfaction of the 36-hour requirement for a major in psychology, unless the student's average in all courses taken in psychology is C or better. A maximum of 6 term hours of work in allied fields may be counted toward the satisfaction of the major requirement, if approved by the department as relevant to the student's major program.

Entering students who plan to major in psychology are advised to register for Biological-Science Survey (GS 101, 102, 103) or Background of Social Science (SSc 101, 102, 103) during their freshman year. They should also take, during their lower-division years, courses in college mathematics as preparation for upper-division work in statistics.

A minimum of 9 term hours of lower-division work in psychology (including Psy 201, 202) is an indispensable prerequisite to all upper-division courses in the field. Not more than 12 term hours in lower-division psychology courses may be counted toward the major.

In his major work in psychology, a student may follow any one of five patterns of study:

Psychology (General)—Required: Genetic Psychology (Psy 411); Adolescence, Maturity, and Senescence (Psy 412); Abnormal Psychology (Psy 413).

* On leave of absence 1949-50.

Psychology (Professional)—Required: General Psychology Laboratory (Psy 208, 209, 210) or equivalent laboratory training in a biological or physical science; Advanced Experimental Psychology (Psy 551, 552, 553); at least one experimental project (Psy 401 or Psy 403). Recommended: Systematic Psychology (Psy 521, 522, 523); Elements of Statistical Methods (Mth 325, 326).

Applied Psychology—Required: Elements of Statistical Methods (Mth 325, 326); Individual Differences (Psy 341, 342); Industrial Psychology (Psy 462); Personnel Procedures (Psy 464). Recommended: Clinical Methods in Psychology (Psy 431, 432); Counseling Procedures (Psy 435); Psychometrics (Psy 443, 444, 445).

Child Guidance—Required: Genetic Psychology (Psy 411); Adolescence, Maturity, and Senescence (Psy 412); Abnormal Psychology (Psy 413); Clinical Methods in Psychology (Psy 431, 432). Recommended: Motivation (Psy 465); Conditioning (Psy 467); Trial-and-Error Learning (Psy 468); Ideational Learning (Psy 469).

Physiological Psychology—Required: Genetic Psychology (Psy 411); Adolescence, Maturity, and Senescence (Psy 412); Abnormal Psychology (Psy 413); Introduction to General Physiology (Bi 491); Physiological Foundations of Behavior (Psy 492, 493). Recommended: Advanced Experimental Psychology (Psy 551, 552, 553).

The department has excellent facilities for psychological research. The University Library contains unusually extensive and complete files of the psychological journals.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Psy 201, 202. General Psychology. 3 hours each term.

Introductory study of behavior and conscious processes. Survey of experimental studies with reference to motivation, learning, thinking, perceiving, and individual differences. Crosland, Hubbard, Leeper, Littman, Molenkamp, Taylor.

Psy 204. Psychology of Adjustment. 3 hours.

The nature and origins of differences in personality; means of making desired changes. Prerequisite: Psy 201, 202. Leeper, Littman, Molenkamp.

Psy 205. Applied Psychology. 3 hours.

A survey of the ways in which psychology is applied in advertising, salesmanship, market research, measurement of opinion, occupational placement, development of personal efficiency. Prerequisite: Psy 201, 202. Crosland, Hubbard, Taylor.

Psy 208, 209, 210. General Psychology Laboratory. 1 hour each term.

Introduction to experimental methods. Laboratory work coordinated with Psy 201, 202, Psy 204, Psy 205. 1 laboratory period each week. Littman.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

A lower-division sequence in psychology or equivalent is an indispensable prerequisite to all upper-division courses.

Psy 334, 335. Social Psychology. 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

Analysis of the psychological and sociological processes involved in personality formation and in various forms of group behavior. Particular attention to origin, function, ideologies, membership, and leadership. Prerequisite: Psy 201, 202 or Soc 204, 205. Berreman, Littman.

Psy 341, 342. Individual Differences. 2 hours each term, fall and winter.

Importance and extent of individual differences in various human traits; origin, measurements, and practical significance. Tyler.

Psy 351, 352. Individual-Differences Laboratory. 1 hour each term.

Collection and statistical analysis of data illustrating the more important types of comparison between individuals; the inferences which can be drawn from these data. 3 hours laboratory. Littman.

Psy 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Open only to students eligible to work for honors.

Psy 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Open only to students eligible to work for honors.

Psy 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Open only to students eligible to work for honors.

Psy 411. Genetic Psychology. (G) 3 hours fall.

Growth of behavior during the prenatal period, infancy, and childhood. Development of muscular activities, perception, emotional adjustment, intelligence, language, and social behavior in childhood. Not open to students who have completed Ed 460. Eiserer.

Psy 412. Adolescence, Maturity, and Senescence. (G) 3 hours winter.

Study of the behavior changes during pre-adolescence, adolescence, maturity, and old age. Intended to follow Psy 411. Not open to students who have completed Ed 461. Eiserer.

Psy 413. Abnormal Psychology. (G) 3 hours spring.

Various forms of unusual behavior, including anxiety states, hysteria, hypnotic phenomena, and psychoses. Normal motives and adjustment mechanisms as they are exaggerated in the so-called neurotic person. Hubbard, Tyler.

Psy 415, 416, 417. Advanced Laboratory. (G) 2 hours each term.

Thorough training in laboratory techniques used in the study of problems of general psychology. Littman.

Psy 431, 432. Clinical Methods in Psychology. (G) 2 hours each term.

Application of psychological methods to the study of the individual; survey of intelligence, achievement, special-aptitude, and personality tests; theoretical and statistical background for interpretation of test scores; training in diagnosis of actual cases. Hubbard, Tyler.

Psy 433, 434. Mental-Testing Laboratory. (G) 2 hours each term.

Supervised practice in the administration and scoring of individual and group intelligence tests and various tests of achievement, special aptitude, and personality. 2 two-hour laboratory periods. Hubbard, Tyler.

Psy 435. Counseling Procedures. (G) 3 hours.

Counseling problems of various types. Methods of interviewing for different purposes. Sources of vocational information. Diagnosis of individual cases. Evaluation of counseling programs. Prerequisite: Psy 431, 432 or equivalent. Leeper, Tyler.

Psy 436. Character and Personality. (G) 3 hours spring.

Development, functioning, and measurement of personality in normal individuals; emphasis on the mode of operation of the social environment on personality. Prerequisite: Psy 204 or equivalent. Leeper.

Psy 437. Projective Techniques. (G) 3 hours.

History and theory of projective methods in the analysis of personality structure. Emphasis on the administration and interpretation of the Rorschach and thematic apperception tests. Eiserer.

- Psy 438. Projective-Testing Laboratory. (G) 2 hours.
Clinical practice in administering and interpreting selected projective tests, especially Rorschach and thematic apperception tests. 2 two-hour laboratory periods. Eiserer.
- Psy 443, 444, 445. Psychometrics. (G) 2 hours each term.
Selection and construction of test items; methods of item analysis; use of multiple regression in the construction of test batteries; problems of weighting applied to a particular project; the use of norms and systems of derived scores; factor analysis in the construction of tests and attitude scales. Prerequisite: Mth 325, 326; or Ed 515; or equivalent. Tyler.
- Psy 458. Nature of Intelligence. (G) 2 hours winter.
History and theory of intelligence testing. Individual and group testing. What such tests measure. Evaluation of the concept of "general intelligence." Prerequisite: Psy 341, 342; or Mth 325, 326; or Ed 515. Not offered 1950-51. Taylor.
- Psy 459. Theories of Mental Organization. (G) 2 hours spring.
Methods of classifying traits. Experimental studies of "primary" abilities. Vocational significance of trait analysis. Testing proficiency and aptitudes. Prerequisite: Psy 341, 342; or Mth 325, 326; or Ed 515. Not offered 1950-51. Taylor.
- Psy 461. Psychology of Testimony. (G) 3 hours fall.
Psychological analysis of the reliability of testimony and proof of guilt. Prerequisite: junior standing. Not offered in 1950-51. Crosland.
- Psy 462. Industrial Psychology. (G) 2 hours fall.
Problems of industrial motivation and morale; measurement of proficiency; acquisition of skill; prevention of fatigue, monotony, and accidents; effects of improved working conditions. Prerequisite: Psy 341, 342; or Mth 325, 326; or equivalent. Taylor.
- Psy 463. Occupational Selection and Placement. (G) 2 hours winter.
Principles underlying job analysis and classification; use of psychological tests in the selection and placement of employees. Prerequisite: Psy 341, 342; or Mth 325, 326; or equivalent. Taylor.
- Psy 464. Personnel Procedures. (G) 2 hours spring.
Improvement of interviews, questionnaires, attitude scales, and ratings as psychological measures; evaluation of service. Prerequisite: Psy 341, 342; or Mth 325, 326; or equivalent. Taylor.
- Psy 465. Motivation. (G) 2 hours spring.
Review of changing conceptions of motivation, particularly as a result of psychological studies, experimental work on animal behavior, and the contributions of topological psychology. Leeper.
- Psy 467. Conditioning. (G) 2 hours fall.
Study of the experimental literature on conditioned responses; the significance of conditioning for theories of learning and for practical problems of emotional habits and social attitudes. Not offered 1950-51. Leeper.
- Psy 468. Trial-and-Error Learning. (G) 2 hours winter.
Problem solving in its simplest form, overt trial-and-error learning; the development of skills important in industry, athletics, and music. Implications for general learning theory. Not offered 1950-51. Leeper.
- Psy 469. Ideational Learning. (G) 2 hours spring.
Study of experimental and theoretical literature on memorizing, problem-solving thinking, and creative thinking. Not offered 1950-51. Leeper.

- Psy 470, 471. Comparative Psychology. (G) 2 hours each term, fall and winter.
The contribution of research on animal behavior to basic experimental and theoretical problems of psychology, such as maturation, inheritance of abilities, learning, and nervous mechanisms of behavior. Not offered 1950-51. Leeper.
- Psy 473, 474, 475. History of Psychology. (G) 2 hours each term.
Contemporary psychological concepts traced back to their origins; the influence of chronological and biographical factors stressed in connection with each topic. Not offered 1950-51. Crosland.
- Psy 481. Psychology of Pain. (G) 3 hours.
The sense organs and neural connections involved in pain sensitivity; physiological and psychological components of the conscious experience of pain; relationships to the psychology of perception, emotion, illusions, hallucinations, and other abnormal phenomena. Crosland.
- Psy 492, 493. Physiological Foundations of Behavior. (G) 4 hours each term, winter and spring.
Physiology of animal behavior, nerve physiology, tropisms, conditioned reflexes; effects of environment and internal secretions on animal conduct. Prerequisites: Bi 491 or consent of instructor. Not offered 1950-51.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

- Psy 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- Psy 502. Research Symposium. Hours to be arranged.
Reports of original investigations by students and staff members; reviews of current research in related fields.
- Psy 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Psy 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Psy 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Abnormal Psychology. Beck.
Experimental Psychology. Crosland.
Genetic Psychology. Beck.
Individual Differences. Taylor.
Social Psychology. Littman.
- Psy 508. Seminar (Biopsychology). 1 to 3 hours each term.
Given in a three-year cycle, with a different topic each year. Discussion of literature and experimental techniques. Not offered 1950-51.
- Psy 511. Psychology of Attention and Perception. 2 hours fall.
Phenomena of attention, perception, and appreciation considered from various points of view, with demonstrations and consideration of experimental literature. Training in special techniques of research if desired. Crosland.
- Psy 512. Psychology of Memory and the Image. 2 hours winter.
Various phases of representative processes in mental organization. Eidetic imagery, dissociation, assimilation, organization, and generalization of memory contents, etc. Practice in methodology if desired. Crosland.
- Psy 518. Association. 2 hours spring.
Association psychology, presented from the point of view of practical psychology, of the general psychological significance of the concept, or of its history—determined by student interest. Research experience if desired. Crosland.
- Psy 521, 522, 523. Systematic Psychology. (G) 2 hours each term.
Contemporary systems: Gestalt psychology, purposive behaviorism, topological psychology, psychoanalysis, etc. Aims of psychology, nature of explanation, and functions of abstractions in psychology. Leeper.

Psy 535. Practical Clinical Experience. 3 hours.

Practical clinical experience with counseling agencies appropriate to individual interests, experience, and vocational plans. Prerequisite: Psy 435 or Psy 437. Carlson, Eiserer, Tyler.

Psy 551, 552, 553. Advanced Experimental Psychology. (G) 3 hours each term.

Thorough study of periodical literature of general psychology. The point of view is consistently experimental. Opportunity offered for an experimental project to coordinate with class discussions. Crosland.

Department of Religion

PROFESSORS: P. B. MEANS (department head),* N. P. JACOBSON (acting department head).

THE Department of Religion is nonsectarian in spirit, the aim being to acquaint students with the far-reaching influence of religion in the cultural history of the world. The instruction is planned in accordance with the same standards of authoritative scholarship recognized in other departments of the University of Oregon.

Through these courses, the University seeks to develop an appreciation of the nature and processes of religious thought and experience, and to relate these facts to the life and problems of our time. The courses are also intended to meet the needs of students whose major work in other fields fits them for positions of leadership, and who can become effective and influential in the religious and spiritual life of their communities through a better understanding of the power of religion over men's lives and over the destiny of civilization.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

R 111, 112, 113. Introduction to Religious Thought. 3 hours each term.

Introduction to religious problems and to methods of studying these problems. Religion in different cultures. Consideration of some of the common questions men have asked about God, the soul, immortality, good and evil, the religious fellowship and society, the nature and destiny of man. Criteria for evaluating religion. Means.

R 201, 202, 203. Religious Foundations of Western Civilization. 3 hours each term.

An introduction to the history of our classical Hebrew-Christian heritage of religious ideas from the earliest times to the present day. Means.

R 211, 212, 213. The Bible and Civilization. 3 hours each term.

A survey of the literature of the Old Testament and the New Testament to discover its significance for civilization. How the Bible came into being; how its influence was preserved and extended. Means.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

R 321. Religion in Contemporary Society. 3 hours.

The relation of religion to social institutions. Religion and the state, totalitarian and democratic. The social teachings of the various churches and religious groups. The religious situation today. Criteria for evaluating religion as a social force. Means.

* On sabbatical leave, winter and spring terms, 1949-50.

R 322. Psychology of Religion. 3 hours winter.

A study of the psychology of various forms of religious behavior. Means.

R 323. Philosophy of Religion. 3 hours spring.

An inquiry into the nature of religion and its basic underlying convictions. An analysis of the religious factor in culture and civilization. Means.

R 461. Religions of Classical Antiquity. (g) 3 hours fall.

Theories of the origin of religion. Animistic religion; Egyptian, Babylonian, Greek, Roman religions, religions of the Graeco-Roman world. Means.

R 462. Judaism and Christianity. (g) 3 hours winter.

History of the two religions; how they arose, the social conditions bearing on their development, their internal struggles, their beliefs. Means.

R 463. Living Religions of the Orient. (g) 3 hours spring.

Study of Zoroastrianism, Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Confucianism, Taoism, Shinto, and other living religions, with special reference to origins, organization, philosophy, and sacred literature. Means.

Department of Sociology

PROFESSOR: E. H. MOORE (department head).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: J. V. BERREMAN, J. M. FOSKETT.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: J. R. PARSONS, W. T. MARTIN.

INSTRUCTOR: JOHN JAMES.

FELLOW: R. L. JAMES.

ASSISTANTS: D. F. APPLETON, A. E. GRAVATT, ELEANOR C. RIBBANS.

LOWER-division, upper-division, and graduate courses in sociology are offered at the University. It is a major aim of the work in sociology to give the student an understanding of the principles that govern human associations and relationships. Particular attention is paid to public attitudes and habits of mind, to characteristic reactions to public events and social institutions, and to contemporary social problems.

The basic sequence in General Sociology (Soc 204, 205, 206) is prerequisite to most of the advanced courses in the field. Introduction to Social Research (Soc 327, 328) is required for a major in sociology (Mth 325 may be substituted for Soc 328). Students anticipating graduate work or research in the field are advised to take algebra (Mth 100) and Elements of Statistical Methods (Mth 325, 326).

Majors, including those interested in the field of social work, should consult their advisers in the Department of Sociology concerning additional requirements and recommended courses. Students planning to major in sociology should complete year sequences, during their freshman and sophomore years, in two or three of the following fields: anthropology, economics, geography, history, philosophy, political science, psychology.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Soc 204, 205, 206. General Sociology. 3 hours each term.

Fall and winter: the basic findings of sociology concerning the individual, culture, group life, social institutions, and factors of social change. Spring: analysis of major social problems in terms of the basic sociological concepts developed during the first two terms. Prerequisite: sophomore standing or consent of instructor.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Soc 305. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Soc 327, 328. Introduction to Social Research. 3 hours each term.

First term: The development of social research; the nature of scientific inquiry and the basic methods and techniques; examination of representative sociological studies from the standpoint of methodology. Second term: the class plans and carries through to completion research projects designed to give experience in the use of the basic methods and techniques, including the construction of graphs and maps used in sociological research and exhibits. Prerequisite: Soc 204, 205, 206 or consent of instructor. Foskett, Martin.

Soc 334, 335. Social Psychology. 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

Analysis of the psychological and sociological processes involved in personality formation and in various forms of group behavior. Particular attention to origin, function, ideologies, membership, and leadership. Prerequisite: Soc 204, 205 or Psy 201, 202. Berreman, Littman.

Soc 338. Marriage and the Family. 3 hours.

The role of the family in the development of personality. Mate selection and courtship; marital discord and adjustment. Prerequisite: general sociology or general psychology. Berreman, J. James.

Soc 340, 341, 342. Social Work and Public Welfare. 4 hours each term.

Fall: history and current philosophies of social work; the fields of case work, group work, and community organization; qualifications for and training of social workers. Winter: the field of public welfare as an extension of governmental responsibility; history, principles, and current practices of public welfare. Spring: child welfare; historical and present-day status of the child; public and private programs for child care; current trends in child welfare. The work of any term may be taken independently. Prerequisite: general sociology or general psychology. Parsons.

Soc 343, 344. Field Work. 2 hours each term.

Supervised field-work experience in a social agency. Must be taken concurrently with Soc 340, Soc 341, or Soc 342. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Parsons.

Soc 403. Thesis for Honors Candidates. Hours to be arranged.

Soc 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Soc 415, 416. Criminology and Penology. (G) 3 hours each term.

First term: the nature of crime, with reference to causative factors. Second term: theories underlying punishment; the role of the police and the courts; history of punishment and recent penal developments. Prerequisite: Soc 204, 205, or Psy 201, 202, or consent of instructor. The work of either term may be taken independently. Moore.

Soc 417. Juvenile Delinquency. (G) 3 hours.

Nature and extent of delinquent behavior; contributing factors; current preventive and treatment programs. Prerequisite: general sociology or general psychology. Parsons.

Soc 421. Social-Welfare Legislation. (G) 2 hours.

Analysis of the programs of legislative control in the field of social welfare. Parsons.

Soc 431, 432, 433. Human Ecology. (G) 3 hours each term.

Fall: social class structure in the contemporary American community, and its relation to social participation, the functioning of social institutions, conflicts and cleavages, integration, and other phases of community organization. Winter: the modern urban community; urbanization, patterns of urban growth and structure, and factors related to special distribution of people and institutions within the community. Spring: contemporary adjustment patterns to rural habitat; the agricultural revolution; rural society in transition; rural-urban integration. Prerequisite: Soc 327, 328 or consent of instructor. Martin.

Soc 435. Population and Population Theory. (G) 3 hours fall.

Theories of population, with reference to increase and decrease, and to the problems of quality; current programs of control. Migration and internal mobility. Martin.

Soc 436. Social Control. (G) 3 hours spring.

Techniques and agencies by which the behavior of crowds, classes, associations, and publics is controlled. Prerequisite: Soc or Psy 334, 335, or consent of instructor. Berreman.

Soc 437. Sociology of Race Relations. (G) 3 hours winter.

The development of "race consciousness" and emergent problems of race-culture contacts. Prerequisite: introductory course in sociology, anthropology, or psychology. Berreman.

Soc 448. Social Analysis. (G) 2 or 3 hours.

Study of the theoretical premises, methods, techniques, and conclusions of research selected from sociological literature. Prerequisite: Soc 327, 328 or equivalent. Martin.

Soc 450, 451, 452. History of Social Thought. (G) 3 hours each term.

An historical analysis of Western social thought in terms of its recurrent problems, its basic concepts, and its relation to contemporary sociological thought. The third term is devoted to an intensive study of the work of outstanding sociologists since Comte and Spencer. Foskett.

Soc 454. Principles of Sociology. (G) 3 hours.

Fundamental current concepts of sociology. Open to seniors and graduate students. J. James.

Soc 455. Systematic Sociological Theory. (G) 3 hours.

Application of structure-function concepts to the study of social phenomena. Prerequisite: Soc 454 or consent of instructor. J. James.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

Soc 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Soc 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Soc 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Soc 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Social Psychology. Berreman.
Small-Group Integration. J. James.
Contemporary Social Thought. Foskett.
Later Maturity. Moore.
Penological Theories. Moore.
Delinquency Treatment Programs. Parsons.

Soc 537. Social Movements. 3 hours.

Study of the endeavors of groups of people to alter the course of events by their joint activities. Social and psychological factors which give rise to social movements and determine their course; the relation of such purposive collective activity to the process of social and cultural change. Prerequisite: Soc or Psy 334, 335 and graduate standing; or consent of instructor. Berreman.

Soc 556. Experimental Sociology. 3 hours.

Critical analysis of selected experiments in sociology. Each student is expected to formulate a research problem, and to design an experiment suitable for testing the proposed hypothesis. Prerequisite: elementary course in statistics. J. James.

Department of Speech

PROFESSOR: R. C. MCCALL (department head).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: W. A. DAHLBERG, R. D. CLARK, W. H. EWING, H. W. ROBINSON, OTTILIE T. SEYBOLT, K. S. WOOD.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: K. E. MONTGOMERY, E. R. NICHOLS, JR., D. G. STARLIN.

INSTRUCTORS: HERMAN COHEN, R. F. HUDSON, R. L. MONTGOMERY, W. E. SCHLOSSER.

ASSISTANTS: LAWRENCE BARNES, JOAN LANDMAN, LA NOR LOMBARD, K. H. SULSTON, H. C. ZIMMERMAN.

THE Department of Speech offers major curricula leading to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts, and Master of Science degrees, with opportunities for study in the fields of drama, public speaking, radio broadcasting, and speech correction.

Work in speech is also offered for students majoring in other fields. For these students, the department directs its efforts toward two principal objectives: (1) the development of ability to communicate thought and feeling; and (2) the improvement of powers of appreciation and evaluation in listening.

Practical experience in the various phases of the departmental program is provided through the University Theater, the University Symposium and forensic activities, the University Radio Studios, and the Speech and Hearing Clinic (see page 63).

The minimum requirement for a major in speech is 45 term hours in courses in the department, of which at least 30 hours must be in upper-division courses.

To direct students toward a broad liberal education and to insure some acquaintance with the several aspects of the field of speech, the following courses or their equivalents are required of all majors:

- (1) Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 111, 112, 113).
- (2) Appreciation of Drama (Sp 264, 265, 266) or Fundamentals of Stagecraft (Sp 261, 262, 263).
- (3) At least 5 term hours selected from: Radio Program Production (Sp 444, 445, 446), Radio Workshop (Sp 341, 342, 343).
- (4) Phonetics (Sp 370); Speech Science (Sp 371) or Speech Defects and Disorders (Sp 481).
- (5) Nine term hours in general psychology.
- (6) A minimum of 18 term hours in upper-division courses in other departments which support the student's interest within his major field (e.g., for those with a strong interest in drama—literature and history; in public speaking and radio—social science and literature; in speech correction—psychology and biology). Usually, the student satisfies this requirement with two year sequences.

In addition to courses satisfying requirement (6) above, students are expected to elect, in other departments, courses which have special value in relation to their individual objectives (e.g., for students preparing for careers in drama—visual arts, physics, play writing; in public speaking—social psychology, advanced writing; in radio—music literature, news editing, advertising, physics, language; in speech correction—mental hygiene, abnormal psychology, tests and measurements, physics, anatomy, physiology).

For requirements for the M.A. and M.S. degrees, see GRADUATE SCHOOL.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Sp 111, 112, 113. Fundamentals of Speech. 3 hours each term.

Projects in extempore speaking. Primary emphasis on content and organization, with attention also to the student's adjustment to the speaking situation, effective delivery, audience motivation, and language of the speech.

A study of the anatomy, psychology, and physics of speech.
- Sp 411. Speech for the Classroom Teacher. 3 hours spring.
Instruction in speech and speech forms designed for classroom use. Required for English majors who intend to teach but open to all prospective teachers. McCall.
- Sp 421, 422, 423. History and Literature of Oratory. (G) 3 hours each term.
Masterpieces of oratorical literature. Fall: Greek and Roman; winter: British oratory from Pitt to modern times; spring: American oratory. Clark, Dahlberg, K. E. Montgomery.
- Sp 444, 445, 446. Radio Program Production. 3 hours each term.
Theory and application of radio production techniques as they apply to major continuity types; actual "on the air" production and direction, with critical evaluation of programs produced. Experience in casting, rewriting, rehearsing, and broadcasting under conditions similar to those found in the industry. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Starlin.
- Sp 448. Radio and the Public. (G) 3 hours.
The influence and importance of radio as a social, political, and cultural force;

- history of radio programming; commercial versus public-service broadcasting; public opinion and propaganda influence of radio. Starlin.
- Sp 451, 452, 453. Theory of Acting. (G) 3 hours each term.
Lectures, discussion, and analysis of acting theory. Prerequisite: Sp 351, 352, 353. Robinson.
- Sp 461, 462, 463. Scene Design. (G) 3 hours each term.
The physical theater; its social and historical background; forms of theater auditoriums and types of stage settings; the design of stage settings. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Schlosser.
- Sp 464, 465, 466. History of the Theater. (G) 3 hours each term.
An historical study of the theater from ancient to modern times. Starlin.
- Sp 472. Experimental Phonetics. (G) 3 hours.
Experimental methods in voice and phonetics; analysis and measurement of variables in the production of speech. 1 hour of laboratory work required. Prerequisite: Sp 370, Sp 371. Wood.
- Sp 481, 482. Speech Defects and Disorders. (G) 3 hours each term.
First term: symptoms and causes of speech abnormalities; emphasis on diagnosis and basic pathology of articulatory defects and delayed speech, with discussion of methods of treatment limited to general principles. Second term: emphasis on cleft-palate and spastic speech, aphasia, stuttering, and neurological speech disorders. Wood.
- Sp 483. Clinical Methods in Speech Correction. (G) 3 hours.
Study of specific approaches and techniques in the treatment of the major speech defects, including functional articulatory difficulties, cleft-palate speech, stuttering, and neurological speech disorders. Wood.
- Sp 484, 485, 486. Clinical Practice in Speech Correction. (G) 2 hours each term.
Actual case experience for student clinicians in the diagnosis and treatment of speech-defective children and adults, under supervised practice. Wood.
- Sp 487, 488. Rehabilitation of the Hard-of-Hearing. (G) 3 hours each term.
First term: the nature of hearing; hearing loss and speech involvements. Second term: auditory tests and their interpretation; hearing aids; lip reading and auditory training. Wood.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

- Sp 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- Sp 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Sp 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Sp 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Bureau of Municipal Research and Service

HERMAN KEHRLI, M.A.	Director
ALFRED C. SHEPARD, M.A.	Assistant Director, Portland Office
ARNOLD M. WESTLING, B.S.	Planning Consultant
RAYMOND P. UNDERWOOD, LL.B.	Legal Consultant
EDGAR J. DAVIES, M.A.	Research Assistant

THE Bureau of Municipal Research and Service carries on a comprehensive program of research and service in the field of local government. A reference library and an information service are provided to public officials and civic groups on various aspects of municipal administration and public finance. Special studies are conducted, at the request of legislative interim committees and public officials, in the broader field of state government and welfare. The bureau cooperates with the League of Oregon Cities in providing a consultation service on problems related to local legislation, charter revision, ordinance codification, municipal budgeting, revenue and taxation, law, and general administration.

Assistance is also provided in conducting in-service training programs for local officials in cooperation with the Oregon Finance Officers Association and the Oregon Association of City Police Officers.

The bureau publishes several series of bulletins, intended primarily as a service to city officials in the state of Oregon, and occasional special research studies.

THE School of Architecture and Allied Arts offers instruction leading to baccalaureate and advanced degrees in the fields of architecture, interior design, landscape architecture, drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, weaving, art history, and art education. All lower-division courses in the school, and all courses in art history, may be elected by nonmajors.

The school is organized as an integrated unit, without formal departmentalization. This form of organization reflects and facilitates the school's policy of cooperative teaching to bring the resources and insights of the several arts to bear on common problems of design.

Admission. The major curricula in the fields listed above are organized on an upper-division and graduate basis. Freshman students intending to major in any of these fields are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts and pursue, for two years, a program combining liberal-arts courses with introductory preprofessional courses in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

The lower-division preprofessional courses are planned to provide continuity of training and experience in the several major fields throughout the student's undergraduate years. Educational continuity is further insured through the assignment of members of the staff of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts as faculty advisers to preprofessional students.

Before admission as professional majors, students must satisfy all University and College of Liberal Arts requirements for a Junior Certificate, including the lower-division group requirement for liberal-arts students (see pages 85-86).

Students transferring to the University from other collegiate institutions for work in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts must satisfy the regular lower-division requirements, including both liberal-arts and preprofessional requirements, before admission as professional majors. Credit may be transferred for courses that are the equivalent of University offerings; but transfer students wishing credit, toward major requirements, for upper-division professional work completed at another institution must first submit an exhibit of their work.

Facilities. The school is housed in a group of buildings around an arcaded patio, at the northeast corner of the campus. The buildings contain drafting rooms, exhibition rooms, studios, classrooms, a library, and staff offices. Additional drafting-room and studio space for lower-division classes are provided in the Architecture Annex, a new building east of the main art and architecture group.

The school provides desks, easels, and certain materials which are not readily available for individual purchase. Students supply their own instruments and drawing materials; these materials are obtainable from a branch of the University Cooperative Store, maintained in the Art and Architecture Building.

The Art and Architecture Library is a reference of about 4,500 books, administered as a branch of the University Library.

Graduate Work. The School of Architecture and Allied Arts offers graduate work leading to master's degrees in architecture, landscape architecture, drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, weaving, art education, and art history. Graduate programs may emphasize technical studies, creative work, historical studies, or theoretical studies. The following degrees are granted:

Master of Architecture.

Master of Landscape Architecture.

Master of Fine Arts (for creative work at the graduate level in drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, and weaving).

Master of Arts, Master of Science (for historical and theoretical studies in the fine arts and architecture, and for graduate work in art education).

Master of Science in General Studies (a graduate degree for public-school teachers; the program is adapted to the needs of many students in art education).

Application for admission to graduate study in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts must be made both to the University Registrar and to the dean of the school. Transcripts of the student's previous college work must be submitted, with the application, both to the Registrar and to the dean. A student planning graduate work in a creative field must submit to the dean photographs of recent work and other information bearing on his accomplishments in the arts.

The applicant must satisfy all general admission requirements of the Graduate School, including the requirement of the equivalent of an undergraduate major in the special field in which he plans to do graduate work. The School of Architecture and Allied Arts enforces additional admission requirements related to standards of ability and training in the several fields. Applications are accepted or rejected by the school after individual consideration of the applicant's record in the light of these standards.

Advanced degrees are awarded upon the successful completion of programs of study planned in consultation of a faculty committee. Each program is planned on an individual basis; there are no general course requirements.

For the M.F.A. degree, a substantial and extended creative project, terminating in a gallery exhibition of a one-man show, is required.

Candidates for the M.Arch. or M.L.Arch. degree may undertake programs of study placing major emphasis on regional and urban planning. Such programs include graduate courses in other University departments concerned with the various aspects of planning, and utilize the research facilities of the Bureau of Municipal Research and Service.

Basic Design

BASIC DESIGN is an introductory course required of all students planning to major in any field within the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. The course is planned and taught cooperatively by all members of the faculty of the school.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSE

AA 195. Basic Design. 2 hours any term.

No-grade course. Through individual projects in a series of studio assignments, the student achieves an understanding of design in the basic visual arts, and a familiarity with all the professional fields of the school. Correlated with Survey of Visual Arts (AA 114, 115, 116).

Architecture

ADVISERS: LITTLE, HAYDEN, HANNAFORD, BELSER.

THE curriculum in architecture, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Architecture, is a three-year program following two years of preprofessional work. The preprofessional program includes lower-division courses which provide acquaintance with the more elementary aspects of architecture; these courses are organized to insure continuity with the professional work begun in the third year. The following courses are required for admission to an upper-division major in architecture:

	Term	Hours
Basic Design (AA 195).....		6
Graphics (AA 211, 212, 213).....		9
Lower-Division Drawing (AA 291).....		3
Construction and Design (AA 285, 286, 287).....		12
*Mathematics (Mth 105, 106, 200 or Mth 101, 102, 103).....		12
*Physics (Ph 101, 102, 103 or Ph 201, 202, 203).....		9-12

Because the upper-division program is planned as continuous with the basic courses offered during the first two years, students planning to major in architecture at the University are strongly advised to enter the University as freshmen, in order to profit by this continuous training. In special cases, however, students transferring from other institutions, with preprofessional preparation differing in some respects from the pattern indicated above, may be admitted to the professional curriculum in architecture.

The curriculum in architecture provides two options, a design option and a structural option. Both options include sound training in both phases of architecture; the structural option, however, requires additional technical work, indicated below.

* Satisfies also requirements in liberal arts.

The major option in design includes the following required courses:

	Term Hours
Architectural Design (AA 387).....	12
Architectural Design (AA 487).....	18
Architectural Design (AA 587).....	24
History of Architecture I (AA 337, 338, 339).....	9
History of Architecture II (AA 340, 341, 342).....	9
Theory of Structures I (AA 369, 370, 371).....	9
Theory of Structures II (AA 469, 470, 471).....	12
Architectural Physics (Ph 369, 370, 371).....	3
Building Construction I (AA 417, 418, 419).....	6
Building Construction II (AA 420, 421, 422).....	6
City Planning I (AA 353, 354, 355).....	6
Surveying for Architects (AA 317).....	2
Architectural Practice (AA 529, 530, 531).....	3
Art Studio Course (Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Weaving, or Ceramics).....	6

The requirements for the structural option include the courses listed above and, in addition:

Differential and Integral Calculus (Mth 201, 202, 203).....	12
Theory of Structures III (AA 472, 473, 474).....	12

The following regulations govern the curriculum in architecture and the granting of the Bachelor of Architecture degree:

(1) A student may obtain each year credits in excess of those called for in the curriculum, by demonstrating through examination that he has professional training, through experience or otherwise, which will justify the granting of additional credit and more rapid progress toward the degree.

(2) The student must earn 220 term hours of credit, of which 147 hours must be in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. He must have completed all of the professional work of the five-year program, and must have satisfied all University requirements for graduation. A minimum of one year of residence is required.

(3) A student may take elective subjects in addition to the electives scheduled in the curriculum, provided his record for the preceding years shows no grade below C.

(4) The five-year program is planned for students of average preparation and ability. Students with superior preparation and ability may, through examination as provided under Rule 1, or by presenting work in design as provided under Rule 5, complete the required number of hours of professional work and graduate in less than five years.

(5) Before the professional degree is granted, the student must complete satisfactorily each division of design. By special permission of the dean, a student may be allowed to do the work required in the courses in design as rapidly as he is able. By arrangement with the Registrar, credit for work done in these courses before formal registration will be entered in the student's record when certified by the dean.

Graduate work is offered in architecture, leading to the Master of Architecture degree. For requirements see pages 166-167.

The curriculum in architecture is accredited by the National Architectural Accrediting Board.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

AA 211, 212, 213. Graphics. 3 hours each term.

Fall: Problems in mechanical and freehand perspective, orthographic projection, shades and shadows, as applied to graphic presentation of architectural design. Winter: media of graphic presentation. Spring: methods and techniques of design presentation.

AA 285, 286, 287. Construction and Design. 4 hours each term.

No-grade course. A basic preprofessional sequence dealing with materials, their properties, design quantities, and applications to design. Principles of light construction in wood and masonry. Short design problems planned to integrate the basic principles of design in analytical solutions of typical problems in architecture, landscape architecture, and interior design.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

AA 311, 312, 313. Domestic Architecture. 2 hours each term.

Fundamental analysis of factors influencing domestic design. Short studio problems and discussions. Prerequisite: 10 term hours in AA 387; open to nonmajors who have completed AA 285, 286, 287.

AA 317. Surveying for Architects. 2 or 3 hours fall or spring

Elements of plane surveying adapted to the needs of architects; field practice in the use of steel tape, level, and transit; determination of building-plot contours and their interpretation on plot-plan drawings; methods of calculating excavations and fills for building purposes. For landscape majors, 3 term hours required, with special attention to plane-table surveying. Prerequisite: trigonometry.

AA 369, 370, 371. Theory of Structures I. 3 hours each term.

Application of mathematics to the design of building structures. Wood and steel construction; beams, columns, trusses, and simple frames; the relationship of structural design to architectural design.

AA 387. Architectural Design. 2 to 6 hours any term.

No-grade course. A series of problems in architectural design, beginning a three-year sequence of intensive study of professional planning. Major problems in planning and design; sketch problems. Individual criticisms by the entire staff. Prerequisite: AA 285, 286, 287.

AA 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

AA 405. Senior Assigned Reading. Hours to be arranged.

AA 407. Senior Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

AA 411, 412, 413. Housing. (G) 2 hours each term.

Needs and problems of public and private housing. General principles governing siting and design of housing projects. Prerequisite: AA 355 and fourth-year standing in design.

AA 417, 418, 419. Building Construction I. 2 hours each term.

The preparation of working drawings, including scale and full-sized details; architectural specifications; field supervision of building construction. Prerequisite: fourth-year standing in architectural or interior design.

AA 420, 421, 422. Building Construction II. (G) 2 hours each term.

Mechanical accessories to buildings; plumbing, heating, ventilation, electric lighting, acoustics. Ph 369, 370, 371 taken concurrently.

AA 469, 470, 471. Theory of Structures II. (G) 4 hours each term.

Wood and steel building trusses, reinforced-concrete building construction; retaining walls, footings, and foundations for buildings. Prerequisite: AA 369, 370, 371.

AA 472, 473, 474. Theory of Structures III. (G) 4 hours each term.

Continuous frames, rigid frames, and their effects on architectural design. A series of problems, presented in conjunction with fifth-year architectural design. Elective for design majors, required for structural majors.

AA 487. Architectural Design. 4 to 8 hours any term.

No-grade course. A series of architectural problems of increasing complexity, with emphasis on analysis in planning and design. Individual criticisms by the entire staff. Prerequisite: 15 term hours in AA 387.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

AA 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

AA 505. Assigned Reading. Hours to be arranged.

AA 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

AA 508. Seminar in Planning and Housing. Hours to be arranged.

Analysis and discussion of regional and urban planning problems; urban rehabilitation and housing.

AA 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.AA 529, 530, 531. Architectural Practice. 1 hour each term.

Problems of professional ethics, business relations, office management, etc. Open only to fifth-year students.

AA 587. Architectural Design. 5 to 10 hours any term.

No-grade course. Planning analysis and design study, with more complex problems. Individual criticisms and public presentations; one term devoted to a terminal project. Prerequisite: 18 term hours in AA 487.

Interior Design

ADVISER: FRAZIER.

TWO- AND THREE-YEAR professional curricula, following two years of preprofessional work, are offered in the field of interior design. The three-year program leads to the degree of Bachelor of Interior Architecture, the two-year program to the degree of Bachelor of Science. Instruction in interior design is closely correlated with work in architectural design and the related arts. The following courses are required for admission to an upper-division major in interior design:

	Term Hours
Basic Design (AA 195).....	6
Graphics (AA 211, 212, 213).....	9
Lower-Division Drawing (AA 291).....	3
Construction and Design (AA 285, 286, 287).....	12

In the upper-division program, the student is assigned individual problems in interior planning; emphasis is placed on his creative development and on the relating of his education to the solution of design problems. All teaching is by means of individual criticism, supplemented by lectures by members of the school faculty. The student works in the same drafting room and is closely associated with students and instructors in architecture and landscape design.

The two-year professional program includes the following required courses:

	Term Hours
Interior Design (AA 388).....	12
Interior Design (AA 488).....	18
History of Interior Architecture (AA 443, 444, 445).....	6
History of Architecture I (AA 337, 338, 339).....	9
History of Architecture II (AA 340, 341, 342).....	9
Building Construction I (AA 417, 418, 419).....	6
Drawing, Painting, Sculpture, Ceramics, Weaving.....	27

The three-year professional program includes the courses listed above and, in addition:

Interior Design (AA 588).....	24
Interior-Design Laboratory (AA 484, 485, 486).....	9
Interior-Design Professional Practice (AA 465, 466, 467).....	6
Architectural Practice (AA 529, 530, 531).....	3

The curriculum in interior design and the granting of the degree of Bachelor of Interior Architecture are governed by the same regulations stated above for the curriculum and professional degree in architecture (see page 168).

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

AA 388. Interior Design. 2 to 6 hours any term.

No-grade course. A series of problems in interior design, beginning intensive study in the analysis of professional problems. Individual criticisms. Prerequisite: AA 285, 286, 287.

AA 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.AA 465, 466, 467. Interior-Design Professional Practice. (G) 3 hours each term.

Ethics and office procedure for the interior designer in private practice. Trade contacts, discounts, interprofessional relations. Sources of materials.

AA 484, 485, 486. Interior-Design Laboratory. 2 hours each term.

Workroom practice; estimating and cost studies. Fabrics and decorating materials. Furniture design.

AA 488. Interior Design. 4 to 6 hours any term.

No-grade course. A series of problems in interior design, developing the analytical approach; emphasis on integration with architecture. Some attention to period design. Individual criticisms. Prerequisite: 10 term hours in AA 388.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

AA 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.AA 505. Assigned Reading. Hours to be arranged.AA 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.AA 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.AA 588. Interior Design. 5 to 10 hours any term.

No-grade course. Professional interior-design problems of increasing complexity. Individual criticisms, public presentations. One term devoted to a terminal project.

Landscape Architecture

ADVISER: CUTHBERT.

THE CURRICULUM in landscape architecture, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Landscape Architecture, is a three-year program following two years of preprofessional work. The following courses are required for admission to an upper-division major in landscape architecture:

	Term Hours
Basic Design (AA 195).....	6
Graphics (AA 211, 212, 213).....	9
Lower-Division Drawing (AA 291).....	3
Construction and Design (AA 285, 286, 287).....	12
*General Botany (Bi 204, 205, 206).....	12

The program provides the student with a broad educational background, together with technical studies essential for the professional practice of landscape architecture. Courses in the field are supplemented by courses in art, architectural design, construction, and city planning. Majors in landscape architecture work side by side with students of architecture and interior design, and have the benefit of design criticism from the entire faculty of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. Opportunities are provided for collaboration on design problems by landscape and architecture students. The instructional program includes field trips to acquaint students with outstanding examples of the design and construction of parks, cemeteries, airports, private properties and subdivisions, golf courses, and planned civic developments—and for study of the use of various plant materials under different conditions of climate, soil, and exposure.

Students planning to major in landscape architecture are advised to complete courses in high-school mathematics through trigonometry.

The major in landscape architecture includes the following required upper-division courses:

	Term	Hours
Landscape Design (AA 389).....	12	12
Landscape Design (AA 489).....	12	12
Landscape Design (AA 589).....	30	30
Landscape Design (AA 589).....	9	9
Plant Materials (AA 326, 327, 328).....	6	6
History and Lit. of Landscape Arch. (AA 356, 357).....	3	3
History of Architecture (AA 342).....	12	12
Plant Composition (AA 430, 431, 432).....	6	6
Maintenance and Construction (AA 359, 360, 361).....	3	3
Surveying for Architects (AA 317).....	12	12
Adv. Landscape Construction (AA 459, 460, 461).....	6	6
City Planning I (AA 353, 354, 355).....	9	9
City Planning II (AA 499).....	3	3
Office Practice (AA 433, 434, 435).....	3	3
Theory of Structures I (AA 369, 370).....	6	6

The curriculum in landscape architecture and the granting of the degree of Bachelor of Landscape Architecture are governed by the same regulations stated above for the curriculum and professional degree in architecture (see page 168).

Graduate work is offered in landscape architecture, leading to the degree of Master of Landscape Architecture. For requirements, see pages 166-167.

The curriculum in landscape architecture is accredited by the American Society of Landscape Architects.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

AA 250, 251, 252. Lower-Division Landscape Design. 2 hours each term.

Principles of landscape design; application to the design of small residence properties; the ordinary city lot, town house property, and suburban residence properties not exceeding three acres. For students planning to major in landscape maintenance at Oregon State College. Prerequisite: AA 195.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

AA 326, 327, 328. Plant Materials. 3 hours each term.

The characteristics, identification, and design uses of trees, shrubs, vines, and flowers. Open to nonmajors with consent of instructor.

AA 353, 354, 355. City Planning I. 2 hours each term.

Fall and winter: history and significance of city planning; modern achievements in zoning, housing, and city and regional planning. Spring: economic, practical, and aesthetic factors.

AA 359, 360, 361. Maintenance and Construction. 2 hours each term.

General survey of maintenance problems and construction details, as related to the work of the professional landscape architect. Fall: integrated with surveying; winter and spring: integrated with landscape design.

AA 366, 367, 368. Surveying and Structures for Landscapes. 3 hours each term.

Elements of plane surveying, with special application to landscape architect-ture; field practice, contour determination, calculating excavation and fill. Simple wood structures, retaining walls, pools, steps, roads; concrete construction.

AA 389. Landscape Design. 2 to 6 hours any term.

No-grade course. A series of problems in landscape architecture, beginning a three-year sequence of intensive study in analysis, solution, and presentation. Prerequisite: AA 285, 286, 287.

AA 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

AA 405. Senior Assigned Reading. Hours to be arranged.

AA 407. Senior Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

AA 430, 431, 432. Plant Composition. 4 to 6 hours each term.

No-grade course. Design of planting of trees, shrubs, and flowers. Lectures, field trips, and drafting.

AA 433, 434, 435. Office Practice (Landscape). 1 hour each term.

Professional ethics, office management, and principles of superintendence.

AA 459, 460, 461. Advanced Landscape Construction and Field Practice. 4 hours each term.

Interpretation of designs in ground and plot situations. Development of construction problems in field practice. Prerequisite: AA 359, 360, 361.

AA 489. Landscape Design. 4 to 8 hours any term.

No-grade course. A series of advanced problems in landscape architecture, with emphasis on broad planning problems and integration with architecture. Individual criticism. Prerequisite: 10 term hours in AA 389.

AA 499. City Planning II. (G) 1 to 6 hours any term.

No-grade course. Course in civic design. Maximum credit, 12 hours. Prerequisite: architecture majors, AA 353; landscape majors, AA 353, 354, 355.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

AA 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

AA 505. Assigned Reading. Hours to be arranged.

AA 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

AA 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.

AA 589. Landscape Design. 5 to 10 hours any term.

No-grade course. Landscape-design problems of increasing complexity. Individual criticisms. One term devoted to terminal project, with emphasis on planning analysis and public presentation. Prerequisite: 18 term hours in AA 489.

Drawing and Painting

ADVISERS: VINCENT, McCOSH.

INSTRUCTION in drawing and painting at the lower-division level is offered both for students preparing for advanced professional study and for other University students who wish some experience in creative work as a part of a liberal education. Sufficient studio work is provided to insure adequate technical training as a basis for an upper-division major in drawing and painting.

At the upper-division level the special interests of students (landscape, portraiture, mural illustration, commercial applications, etc.) are given special attention and encouragement. All teaching is through individual criticism. The student works at his easel or drawing board on his particular problem, and receives individual help from the instructor.

The following lower-division courses in art are required as preparation for a major in drawing and painting:

	Term Hours
Basic Design (AA 195).....	6
Survey of Visual Arts (AA 114, 115, 116).....	24
Lower-Division Painting (AA 290).....	24
Lower-Division Drawing (AA 291).....	24

The upper-division major program leading to a bachelor's degree must include a minimum total of 78 hours from the following courses:

	Term Hours
Upper-Division Painting (AA 490).....	24

Sculpture

ADVISER: SPONENBURGH.

THE LOWER-DIVISION program leading to a major in sculpture combines elementary instruction in the field with liberal-arts courses and with work in design, drawing, and painting, to broaden the student's understanding of general art principles.

All work in sculpture is executed in the sculpture studio under the personal direction of the instructor. During their senior year, students work in close collaboration with advanced students in architecture and landscape architecture, for the purpose of developing close professional relations between these fields; the collaboration includes joint work on practical projects.

The following lower-division courses in art are required as preparation for a major in sculpture:

	Term Hours
Basic Design (AA 195).....	6
Survey of Visual Arts (AA 114, 115, 116).....	9
Elementary Sculpture (AA 293).....	9
Lower-Division Drawing or Painting (AA 290 or AA 291).....	6

The upper-division major program in sculpture, leading to a bachelor's degree, includes the following required courses:

	Term Hours
Techniques of Sculpture (AA 393).....	15
Advanced Sculpture (AA 494).....	15
History of the Plastic Arts (AA 376, 377, 378).....	9
Sculpture Seminar (AA 407).....	3
Advanced Ceramics or Jewelry (AA 455 or AA 457).....	6
Upper-Division Drawing (AA 491).....	6
Backgrounds of Modern Art (AA 476, 477, 478).....	9

Graduate work, leading to the degree of Master of Fine Arts, is offered in the field of sculpture. For requirements, see page 166.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSE

AA 293. Elementary Sculpture. 2 to 4 hours any term.

Introduction to materials. Elementary considerations of form; technical and compositional exercises in clay and plaster. Sections for pre-dental students and other nonmajors.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

AA 393. Techniques of Sculpture. 2 to 6 hours any term.

AA 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

AA 405. Senior Assigned Reading. Hours to be arranged.

AA 407. Senior Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

AA 494. Advanced Sculpture. (G) 2 to 8 hours any term.

No-grade course. Studies in space and motion. Application of sculpture to related fields of architecture, landscape architecture, and industrial design.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

AA 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

THE University of Oregon offers, through the School of Business Administration, a program of major work, both undergraduate and graduate, to prepare young men and women for leadership in the various phases of business and commerce.* The school recognizes a primary obligation to provide the trained personnel needed in the rapidly expanding business and economic life of the state of Oregon.

Admission. The major curricula in business administration are organized on an upper-division and graduate basis. Freshman students intending to major in business administration are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts for a two-year prebusiness program, which combines liberal-arts courses with introductory pre-professional courses in the School of Business Administration.

The lower-division prebusiness courses are planned to provide continuity of training throughout the student's undergraduate years. Educational continuity is further insured through the assignment of members of the staff of the School of Business Administration as faculty advisers to prebusiness students.

Before admission as professional majors in business administration, students must satisfy all University and College of Liberal Arts requirements for a Junior Certificate, including the lower-division group requirement for liberal-arts students (see pages 85-86). Through courses satisfying group requirements and

* An undergraduate program, combining courses in business and courses in a technical field, is offered at Oregon State College through the School of Business and Technology. Technical "minors" are available in agriculture, engineering, forestry, home economics, industrial chemistry, mining or petroleum geology, and applied physics; 36 term hours in the technical minor are required, in addition to courses in business. The State College program leads to a bachelor's degree; by action of the State Board of Higher Education, graduate majors in business are offered exclusively at the University.

through electives, prebusiness students are expected to obtain a broad background in the social sciences.

The following courses are required for admission to an upper-division major status in business administration:

	Term	Hours
Constructive Accounting (BA 111, 112, 113).....	9
Elements of Finance (BA 222).....	4
Elements of Marketing (BA 223).....	4
Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203).....	9
Business English (Wr 214).....	3

Major Curricula. Upper-division major programs, leading to the B.A., B.S., or B.B.A. degree, are offered by the School of Business Administration. Programs may be arranged with emphasis on the following basic fields of specialization:

General Business	Finance and Investments
Accounting	Foreign Trade
Advertising and Selling	Real Estate and Insurance
Merchandising and Marketing	Industrial Management
Business Education	Industrial Traffic Management and Transportation

Students choosing one of these fields of special interest should also take supplementary work in other fields to give breadth to their business training. Majors are also urged to elect courses in geography, psychology, sociology, political science, and economics.

The general major requirement is 43 term hours in upper-division courses in business and economics, in addition to the 29-hour prebusiness requirement stated above, making a total of 72 term hours in business and economics. Of the 43 term hours in upper-division courses required, 24 hours must be in courses in business.

The following courses are required of candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Business Administration: Business Law (BA 416, 417, 418); three courses from the following optional management series: Finance Management (BA 459), Sales Management (BA 435), Business Statistics (BA 432), and either Production Management (BA 429) or Personnel Management (BA 412, 413).

Secretarial Science. Graduates in business administration find skill in typing and shorthand great assets in the business world. For students who have not acquired these skills before coming to the University, the University offers service courses in Typing (SS 121, 122, 123), Stenography (SS 111, 112, 113), and Applied Stenography (SS 211, 212, 213). (See page 188).

Teacher Training. The School of Business Administration, in cooperation with the School of Education, offers a major program for the training of teachers of business in the high schools. The program includes courses for the development of skills in typing and shorthand, courses providing a basic knowledge of accounting, and special courses for prospective teachers—Principles of Business Education (BA 421) and Problems in Business Education (BA 422, 423). The student also takes courses in a second teaching field and work in education required for a teacher's certificate. A member of the faculty of the School of Business Administration serves as a special adviser to students preparing for teaching. For information concerning requirements for the Oregon state teacher's certificate, see SCHOOL OF EDUCATION.

Graduate Work in Business Administration. Students who hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, and who have completed a total of 45 term hours of undergraduate work (or equivalent) in business administration and economics, may register in the Graduate School for work in business administration leading to the M.B.A., M.A., or M.S. degrees. A student is normally able to earn in one year the 45 hours of graduate credit required for the master's degree. Of these 45 hours, 15 may be taken in some approved allied field selected as a minor. A candidate for the master's degree must present a satisfactory thesis in the field of business administration (for which he receives 9 hours of credit). He must take an oral qualifying examination and a final oral examination. All requirements must be completed within seven years. For the M.A. degree a reading knowledge of one foreign language is required.

Graduates of accredited colleges and universities who wish to take work in business administration, but who do not wish to become candidates for advanced degrees, may register in the Graduate School and be extended the privileges of classification as graduate students. Such students may take courses which best suit their individual needs, without regard for the requirements stated above.

For further information on graduate work, see GRADUATE SCHOOL.

Bureau of Business Research. The school maintains a Bureau of Business Research for the study of business problems related to the state of Oregon and to the Pacific Northwest. The entire staff cooperates in carrying on the work of the bureau. Studies are frequently undertaken at the request of businessmen and officials of the state. Graduate students and seniors assist in the study and solution of problems as a part of their training. The bureau publishes the OREGON BUSINESS REVIEW, a monthly periodical devoted principally to the analysis of current business and economic trends in Oregon and the Pacific Northwest.

The Foreign Trade Advisory Board assists the faculty in shaping the curriculum in foreign trade, and in planning and carrying out the program of the Bureau of Business Research. The members of the board are:

JOHN G. BARNETT, Portland.
 MARK BEACH, Seaport Shipping Company, Portland.
 CARTER BRANDON, Portland Chamber of Commerce.
 HAROLD K. CHERRY, E. G. Griffith & Company, Inc., Portland.
 KENNETH C. COCHRAN, Bank of California, Portland.

Dental School

HAROLD JUDD NOYES, D.D.S., M.D., Dean of the Dental School.
TED RUSSELL, M.S., Business Manager and Registrar.

THE University of Oregon Dental School, located in Portland, was established through an act of the 1945 Oregon Legislature; the act accepted the gift of the property of the North Pacific College of Oregon in Portland, and incorporated the college into the Oregon State System of Higher Education as a school of the University. The North Pacific College of Oregon was the outgrowth of a merger in 1900 of the Tacoma Dental College (founded in 1893) and the Oregon College of Dentistry (founded in 1898).

The professional curriculum in dentistry offered by the University of Oregon Dental School leads to the degree of Doctor of Dental Medicine; it is organized to provide the basic scientific knowledge, the mechanical skills, and the clinical experience essential for competence and success in the profession. The curriculum requires four academic years of didactic and clinical training, following a minimum of two academic years of preprofessional work in liberal arts at an accredited college or university. The University offers, on the Eugene campus, two-year and three-year pre-dental curricula which satisfy the admission requirements of the University of Oregon Dental School. See pages 92-93.

The Dental School also offers a two-year program of training for dental hygienists.

Detailed information concerning the faculty, facilities, requirements, and curriculum of the Dental School is published in a separate catalog. Copies of this catalog will be furnished on request. The Dental School is located at 809 N.E. Sixth Ave., Portland, Ore.

ALL professional preparation for teaching within the State System of Higher Education, except undergraduate preparation for elementary-school teaching, is organized under the School of Education. The school is concerned especially with the preparation of teachers for the high schools of Oregon, and with the promotion of high standards of secondary education.

The School of Education operates on both the University and the State College campuses. Preparation for high-school teaching in the various fields is divided between the two institutions in accordance with the allocation of major curricula. The director of high-school teacher training, with offices on the University campus, has administrative control over all high-school teacher education within the State System.

At the University are given general education courses, professional work in educational administration, and major curricula preparing for the teaching of literature, languages, speech, social sciences, biological science, general science, physical science, mathematics, art, business, music, health and physical education, and approved combinations of subjects. The University also offers graduate work in the field of elementary education, and training to prepare teachers for work with exceptional children.

At the State College are given major curricula preparing for teaching of biological science, general science, physical science, mathematics, agriculture, home economics, industrial arts, secretarial science, and approved combinations of subjects, and for educational and vocational guidance.

Professional Program. In planning its program, the School of Education has recognized three qualifications for a good teacher: (1) a broad and liberal education; (2) mastery of subject matter; (3) an understanding of child and adolescent psychology, and of professional problems and techniques.

To encourage prospective teachers to devote their first two years at the University exclusively to liberal studies and to basic work in the subject fields, the University of Oregon has organized its professional instruction in education on an upper-division and graduate basis, and requires junior standing for admission to major work in the School of Education. Lower-division students planning to major in education register in the College of Liberal Arts during their first two years in the University. A student who, by the time he has completed his lower-division work, has decided on the teaching field in which his principal interest lies is encouraged to continue work toward a bachelor's degree in this subject field—completing as electives the professional courses in education required by the state of Oregon for teacher certification.

An undergraduate major program in education is, however, available, principally for students with a definite, mature interest in educational administration and for transfer students for whom this major may be convenient. The program leads to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, or Bachelor of Education degree.

Professional work in education beyond the undergraduate courses required for certification is offered principally at the graduate level. Programs of specialized graduate study are offered in: school administration and supervision, remedial and diagnostic work in reading and other phases of the education of handicapped children, curriculum and instruction, secondary education, higher education, educational psychology, history and philosophy of education, and elementary education. Graduate work in education leads to the following degrees: Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Education, Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Education.

Research Procedures in Education (Ed 512) or the equivalent is required of all candidates for advanced degrees in education; it is recommended that the student take this course early in his graduate program.

Special programs of graduate study are also offered toward the satisfaction of the Oregon state requirement of a fifth year of college work for regular high-school teacher certification. If his program is properly planned, the student may qualify, on the completion of the fifth year, for the degree of Master of Science in General Studies or for a departmental master's degree with a major in a subject field or in education.

School Administration. The program in school administration is differentiated from the program for students preparing for classroom teaching only at the graduate level. During his undergraduate years, the student takes courses in education and in subject fields required for teacher certification, and satisfies University requirements for a baccalaureate degree. In his fifth year, the student planning to prepare himself for educational administration should take Ed 572, Ed 573, Ed 574, in addition to courses required for a teacher's certificate. This sequence satisfies the general academic requirement for the Oregon administrative credential—12 term hours of preparation in addition to that required for a teacher's certificate. (Candidates for the elementary principal's credential who have had teaching experience may take Ed 572, Ed 573, Ed 574 during their senior year.)

Since the state of Oregon issues six different administrative credentials, each requiring the completion of specific courses, all students planning to prepare for administrative work should obtain further information from the School of Education.

In addition to courses satisfying the minimum requirements for an administrative credential, the School of Education offers a program of graduate work in the field of administration, leading to master's and doctor's degrees.

Curriculum Studies. The Curriculum Laboratory, established by the School of Education in 1937, provides excellent facilities for specialized study of the public-school curriculum and for practical research on curriculum problems. The equipment of the laboratory includes: (1) the most recent and important courses of study, units, and other curriculum materials available in the United States; (2) a comprehensive collection of elementary- and secondary-school textbooks; (3) a complete file of standardized tests and other instruments of pupil evaluation; (4) a large collection of free and inexpensive pamphlets, maps, exhibits, and other materials suitable for use in the classroom; (5) selected professional books on the curriculum; (6) bibliographies on various phases of the curriculum.

Through the Curriculum Laboratory, the School of Education provides consultant services on curriculum problems to the school systems of Oregon, by means of extension courses, curriculum and evaluation surveys, and curriculum conferences.

Education of the Exceptional Child. Through the DeBusk Memorial Clinic, named for its founder and first director, the late Dr. Burchard Woodson DeBusk, the School of Education offers instruction designed: (1) to help classroom teachers to meet the special needs of handicapped children in their regular classes; (2) to provide partial preparation for remedial-reading teachers and specialists in the education of handicapped children; and (3) to satisfy, in part, the course requirements for the Oregon special-education certificate. This certificate, issued by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is granted to teachers qualified to deal with all classes of handicapped or maladjusted children or children with extreme learning problems.

For the Oregon special-education certificate, a total of 42 term hours of work in education and related fields is required, including 6 term hours in general education courses and 36 term hours in special education. Training in certain areas is specified. The following University courses satisfy these requirements:

General education:	Term Hours
Educational Psychology (Ed 312)	3
Secondary Education in American Life (Ed 311)	3
Psychology of Adjustment (Psy 204)	3
Genetic Psychology (Psy 411)	3
Special education:
Education of Handicapped Children (Ed 435) or Psychology of Exceptional Children (Ed 462)	3
Social Work and Public Welfare (Soc 342)	4
Clinical Methods in Psychology (Psy 431, 432)	6
Diagnostic and Remedial Techniques (Ed 465)	3
Psycho-Educational Clinic (Ed 409)	6
The Maladjusted Child (Ed 463)	3
The Mentally Handicapped Child (Ed 464)	3
Speech Defects and Disorders (Sp 481, 482)	6

Elementary Education. The Oregon State System of Higher Education offers undergraduate work in elementary education through three colleges of education: Oregon College of Education, Monmouth; Eastern Oregon College of Education, La Grande; and Southern Oregon College of Education, Ashland. Graduate study in elementary education, for teachers and administrators who wish to work toward advanced degrees in this field, is allocated to the School of Education at the University of Oregon.

Supervised Teaching. The School of Education provides an opportunity for supervised high-school and junior-high-school teaching in all the major fields allocated to the University. Supervised teaching cannot be done at the University in fields in which the University does not offer major work. Student teachers observe teaching by expert instructors, work out their own lesson plans under the guidance of the supervisors, and teach high-school classes under close supervision. Credit for supervised teaching is granted only on the approval of the director of supervision.

Bureau of Educational Research. Through the Bureau of Educational Research the faculty of the School of Education investigates educational problems, frequently at the request of school officials. The bureau is often called upon for advice concerning educational tests and their use. School systems are aided in the study of their peculiar problems. Expert building and financial surveys are made for various cities and counties of Oregon. Cooperative testing programs have been established in several of the larger systems of the state.

Teacher Placement Service. A Teacher Placement Service is maintained by the School of Education for the placement of graduates of the University who are prepared and qualified to teach in the secondary schools. The Placement Service compiles and makes available to school officials full information concerning the preparation and experience of graduates who desire teaching positions. The Placement Service also furnishes to students information concerning the certification requirements and school laws of other states, and recommends graduates for certification in other states, on the endorsement of the dean of the School of Education and the University Registrar. The following fees are charged by the Placement Service:

Registration fee	$5.00
Charge for late registration	1.00
Charge for late payment of registration fee	1.00
Credential fee25

The schedule of dates for registration and payment of registration fees may be obtained at the Placement Service office. The credential fee is charged if credentials are sent at the request of the applicant, but not if they are sent at the initiative of the Placement Service or at the request of a prospective employer.

Library Instruction. The University offers, through the School of Education, a series of courses designed for: (1) students preparing for positions as librarians and teacher-librarians in the public schools; (2) teachers and prospective teachers who wish to become better acquainted with books and other library materials suitable for use with children and young people; (3) school administrators who wish to explore from an administrative viewpoint the place of the library in the instructional program of the school; (4) University students in general, to acquaint them with the resources of the University Library, and to provide instruction in the efficient use of these resources; (5) University students who are interested in a general survey of books and reading.

State Teacher's Certificate

ALL teachers in the high schools of the state of Oregon must hold a high-school teacher's certificate, issued by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Students wishing to qualify for certification and placement should confer with members of the faculty of the School of Education not later than the end of the second term of their sophomore year. Two types of certification are recognized in Oregon: (1) provisional certification; (2) regular certification.

Regular Certification. To be eligible for regular certification, the applicant must have completed:

- (1) A total of 45 term hours of upper-division or graduate work, after meeting the requirements for the baccalaureate degree.
- (2) A minimum of 32 term hours of work in education, of which 17 term hours must be undergraduate and 9 graduate work. The undergraduate work must be distributed as follows:

	Term Hours
Secondary Education in American Life (Ed 311)	3
Educational Psychology (Ed 312)	3
Principles of Teaching (Ed 313)	3
Supervised Teaching (Ed 415)	6
Oregon School Law and System of Education (Ed 316)	2

- (3) Oregon History (Hst 377).

- (4) A minimum of 3 hours in General Psychology—6 recommended (prerequisite to Ed 311, Ed 312).

Special Methods (Ed 408) is recommended as an undergraduate elective in education.

Provisional Certification. Provisional certification is granted upon the completion of the requirements for a baccalaureate degree from a standard college, university, or teachers college qualified to prepare teachers for secondary-school teaching in the state of Oregon.

The student's undergraduate program should include courses providing a broad knowledge of English and literature, social studies, natural science and mathematics, and fine arts. Believing that such liberal studies should be a fundamental part of the preparation of every secondary-school teacher, the Oregon State Department of Education has recommended that every teacher employed in state-approved schools should have completed, as a minimum, the following college work:

English (composition, literature, speech, dramatics)—24 term hours. A maximum of 6 term hours in library science may be applied toward the satisfaction of this recommendation.

Social Studies (history, political science, economics, sociology, geography, philosophy)—24 term hours.

Science and Mathematics—17 term hours (including 9 term hours in biological science and 8 term hours in physical science or mathematics or in both of these subjects).

Arts and Crafts (music, plastic, graphic, and industrial arts)—6 term hours. Equivalent accomplishment in performance may be accepted, if approved by the teacher-training institution.

Provisional certification may be continued over a maximum period of five years; during each of these five years the teacher must earn not less than 9 term hours in college courses, at the upper-division or graduate level, toward the satisfaction of the fifth-year requirement for regular certification. Many students will find it possible, while meeting this requirement, to satisfy also the requirements for the degree of Master of Science in General Studies or for a departmental master's degree in a subject field or in education.

More detailed information concerning regulations governing provisional certification may be obtained from the School of Education.

Subject Preparation

UNDER regulations adopted by the Oregon State Board of Education, new teachers employed in approved high schools may be assigned to teach only in those subject fields in which they have completed adequate college preparation. The State Board of Education has set the following minimum standards of subject preparation:

English—36 term hours, including at least 9 term hours in composition and rhetoric. It is recommended that a substantial amount of work in speech be included in this training.

Language—the equivalent of 30 term hours of college preparation in each language to be taught. High-school credits evaluated in terms of college hours may be accepted as a part of the minimum requirement.

Social Studies—36 term hours, including at least 18 term hours in American and European or world history, and a total of at least 10 term hours in two or more of the following subjects: economics, sociology, geography, anthropology, political science.

Mathematics—15 term hours in college mathematics.

Commerce—Shorthand: 18 term hours, which may include high-school credits or business-college courses, evaluated in terms of college hours or equivalent performance standards. Typing: 6 term hours, which may include high-school credits or business-college courses, evaluated in terms of college hours or equivalent performance standards. Bookkeeping, business training, and commercial law: 24 term hours in accounting and business administration.

Natural Science—Elementary science: 24 term hours in the natural sciences, including at least 9 term hours in physical science and 9 term hours in biological science or in combined courses in botany and zoology. Biology: 18 term hours in biology or in combined courses in botany and zoology. Physics: 12 term hours. Chemistry: 12 term hours.

Health and Physical Education—12 term hours in physical education and 12 term hours in health education.

Homemaking—24 term hours.

The University finds it difficult to place a beginning teacher who has not prepared himself, through suitable University courses, for the teaching of at least two subjects. To insure better opportunities for placement, it is desirable that students intending to teach qualify for the supervision of an extracurricular activity and, if possible, for teaching in a third subject field.

One of the student's subject fields must be a field in which the University offers supervised teaching, namely: art, biological sciences, business, general science, English, French, German, Latin, library, mathematics, music, physical education, physical sciences, social sciences, Spanish, or speech. Exceptions to this requirement may be made in the case of students transferring from other institutions, who have completed courses in special methods and supervised teaching before entering the University.

Certain courses offered by the several schools and departments of the University, which do not satisfy education or subject requirements, are of great help to teachers. Students should consult members of the faculty of the School of Education concerning such supplementary training that would be of particular value in relation to their individual training programs.

Listed below are courses which the University recommends for subject preparation in the several teaching fields; the courses designated "minimum" satisfy the minimum subject-preparation standards of the State Board of Education (see above).

Sequence of Courses

THE courses required by the State Board of Education for certification as a high-school teacher should be taken, both by education majors and by non-majors, in the following sequence. The order should be varied only with the approval of the School of Education. It should be noted that, because of required

* Prerequisite: mathematics through calculus.

prerequisites and sequential arrangement of certification courses, it is not possible to complete the 32 term hours of professional work in less than four terms; students are advised to spread the work over six terms or more.

Sophomore Year—General Psychology (Psy 201, 202).

Junior Year—Secondary Education in American Life (Ed 311), fall or winter term; Educational Psychology (Ed 312), fall or winter term; Principles of Teaching (Ed 313), spring term; Oregon History (Hst 377).

Senior Year—Oregon School Law and System of Education (Ed 316).

Senior or Graduate Year—Supervised Teaching (Ed 415).

Graduate Year—Education electives, 9 hours during year.

Undergraduate education majors should take sufficient additional elective hours in education, before the end of the senior year, to satisfy the 36-hour major requirement for a baccalaureate degree. General Psychology (Psy 201, 202) may be counted toward the satisfaction of the major requirement, but may not be counted toward the 32-hour professional requirement for certification. Clinical Methods in Psychology (Psy 431, 432) may be counted both toward the major requirement and toward the certification requirement.

Education majors may complete part of the University's residence requirement for the bachelor's degree in the extension centers of the State System of Higher Education, but must complete a minimum of 12 term hours of work in residence on the Eugene campus of the University.

Courses in Education

Students may be admitted to courses in education only with the consent of the School of Education. A grade-point average of 2.00 for the student's first two years of University work is required for admission to all 300 courses. Ed 311, Ed 312, Ed 313 are prerequisite to all 400 and 500 courses in education, unless an exception is indicated in the course description. In admitting students to these courses, the faculty of the School of Education gives additional consideration to psychological rating and teaching personality, and, in doubtful cases, to marked improvement in scholarship during the junior year.

THE School of Health and Physical Education offers professional training, both undergraduate and graduate, and service courses in health education, physical education, and recreation. Graduates of the school hold professional positions as: athletic coaches; high-school teachers of physical education and health education; directors of high-school athletics; school supervisors of health and physical education; community recreation and playground directors; leaders in Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., and other youth-organization work; directors of restricted and corrective physical education; workers in the field of physical therapy; college and university teachers and research workers in child growth, health education, and physical education.

Students who plan to meet the certification requirements for public school teaching should consult the School of Education for advice and direction before enrolling for their junior year.

Major in Health and Physical Education. The School of Health and Physical Education offers an undergraduate major curriculum combining a strong program of professional work in physical education with sufficient training in health education to prepare teachers for positions in the health and physical-education program of the Oregon public schools. This curriculum is outlined on pages 209-210; the courses specified are required of all undergraduate majors in the school, except majors in the special field of health education. It provides a sound basis for graduate study, leading to advanced degrees. The student may place emphasis on special fields, such as the dance, recreation, or preparatory training for graduate work in child growth, health education, physical education, physical therapy, or administration of physical education. The curriculum satisfies all requirements for the professional degree of Bachelor of Physical Education or for the Bachelor of Science degree; by a proper choice of electives, the student may satisfy the requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

Major in Health Education. The school also offers a special program of undergraduate study for students who wish to specialize in health education. A few Oregon public school systems and many schools in other states organize their health instruction as the responsibility of one specially trained teacher. Excellent vocational opportunities are available in such schools and with public and industrial health agencies for persons with professional training in health education. The curriculum, outlined on pages 210-211, meets the requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree and provides a strong basis for graduate work in health education, public health, and physical therapy.

Graduate Study. The School of Health and Physical Education offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts or Master of Science degree in health education, physical education, and recreation. The graduate student's program may place emphasis upon: (1) administration of programs, buildings, and grounds; (2) school health education; (3) corrective activities and physical therapy; (4) recreation; (5) anatomy, kinesiology, and physiological training and conditioning factors; (6) morphological, physiological, and motor aspects of child growth. Graduate programs are organized to include courses selected from those listed in the Catalog, seminars, and independent study and research.

Physical education may also be chosen as a major by candidates for the degree of Doctor of Education; work toward this degree is directed through the School of Education. A total of 135 term hours of graduate study is required, including the following: 40-60 hours in physical education; 30 hours in two related fields of education; 30 hours in fields other than education and physical education; thesis, for which 15 term hours of credit are granted.

Service Courses. The School of Health and Physical Education offers credit courses for all students in the University. These courses are organized as instruction in skills and in the principles of physical conditioning and health.

The University requirements for the Junior Certificate include five terms of physical education and a course in health education, unless the student is excused by the dean of the school.*

Courses which satisfy the physical-education requirement for the Junior Certificate are: PE 180 for women, PE 190 for men. (Not more than one hour of credit may be earned in these courses in any one term.) Women students satisfy the health-education requirement with HE 114, 115, 116. Men students satisfy this requirement with HE 150. Either men or women may satisfy the requirement with 3 term hours of credit in HE 250. Majors or other students preparing for the teaching of physical education satisfy the physical-education requirement with professional activity courses.

The student's program in physical education is adjusted to his needs and abilities. Whenever possible, the work is adapted to remedy physical disabilities.

Elective service courses (regularly scheduled classes) in physical activities

* Veterans of World War II are granted 6 term hours of credit for health and physical-education instruction received in the armed services, and are exempt from Junior Certificate requirements in these fields; they may, however, earn 6 term hours additional credit in upper-division elective courses in physical activities. No credit is granted for military service entered upon after March 1, 1949.

are provided for juniors and seniors. A total of not more than 12 term hours may be earned toward graduation in lower-division and upper-division service courses in physical education. Not more than one hour may be earned in any one term.

Fees. Payment of regular University registration fees entitles every student to the use of gymnasiums, pools, and showers, to the use of gymnasium and swimming suits and towels, and to laundry service, whether or not they are registered for physical-education courses. (A special instruction fee of $15.00 is paid by students electing golf in activities courses.) Students are urged to make full use of the gymnasium facilities for exercise and recreation.

Intramural Sports. The School of Health and Physical Education sponsors a comprehensive program of intramural sports. A primary purpose of the program is to encourage sportsmanship and friendly relations among the students of the University through athletic competition. Individual and group competitive sports for men are organized under the guidance of the department for men. The department for women provides a wide variety of sports for women students. Student leadership for women's athletics is furnished by the Women's Athletic Association.

Facilities. The University's buildings and playfields devoted to physical-education instruction and recreation occupy a 42-acre tract at the southeast corner of the campus. The Physical Education Building, erected in 1936, provides offices, classrooms, study halls, and research laboratories for the school and gymnasium facilities for men. The building is planned especially for the professional training in physical education, as well as for the recreational needs of students. The men's swimming pool is in a separate building in the northeast section of the campus.

The women's gymnasium and the women's swimming pool are in Gerlinger Hall, west of the Physical Education Building across University Street. There are special playing fields for women south and west of Gerlinger.

Adjoining the Physical Education Building to the south is McArthur Court, the basketball pavilion and athletic center of the Associated Students. McArthur Court seats 8,000 spectators.

Playing fields located east and south of the Physical Education Building provide excellent facilities for outdoor class instruction and for intramural and inter-collegiate sports. Hayward Stadium, the Associated Students' athletic field, has seats for 20,000 spectators. North of Hayward Stadium are fourteen standard concrete tennis courts.

School of Journalism

*CLIFFORD F. WEIGLE, M.A., Dean of the School of Journalism.
GLORIA BILLINGS, Secretary to the Dean.

PROFESSORS: L. R. CAMPBELL, W. F. G. THACHER (emeritus), G. S. TURNBULL (emeritus), C. F. WEIGLE.*

ASSOCIATE PROFESSORS: R. C. HALL (emeritus), W. C. PRICE.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: F. A. BEARD, R. D. MILLICAN, G. A. SABINE, C. C. WEBB.

INSTRUCTOR: R. V. JOHNSON.

LECTURER: W. M. TUGMAN.

ASSISTANTS: R. P. DORANG, C. F. H. WERMINE.

A DEPARTMENT of journalism was organized at the University of Oregon in 1912, and was raised to the rank of a professional school in 1916. The school is fully accredited by the American Council on Education in Journalism in the fields of news-editorial, advertising-newspaper management, and radio journalism.

The curriculum in journalism is designed to give the student (1) a broad and liberal education, (2) an understanding of the significance of newspapers and other media of mass communication as social institutions, and (3) technical training in the several phases of journalism. In addition to the professional program, service courses are offered for majors in other fields.

Admission. The major program in journalism is organized on an upper-division and graduate basis. Two years of work in liberal arts and satisfaction of the requirements for the Junior Certificate are required for admission (see pages 85-86). During his freshman and sophomore years, a student planning to specialize in journalism pursues a preprofessional program which will insure a sound educational basis for professional study at the upper-division level.

Prejournalism students are advised: (1) to complete as many as possible of the courses in liberal arts which are required and recommended by the school; (2) to gain proficiency in the use of the typewriter; and (3) to participate in extra-curricular journalistic activities. The following journalism courses are open to lower-division students: Introduction to Journalism (J 211) and Reporting (J 331). All other courses in the school are open only to upper-division and graduate students.

In considering applications for admission to major work, the School of Journalism gives special attention to the previous college record of the student (a grade-point average of 2.25 is normally required) and particularly to grades in English composition and in J 331.

Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree. The minimum requirement in professional courses for a major in journalism is 36 term hours; the maximum allowed in an undergraduate program is 46 term hours. Journalism majors are normally expected to maintain a 2.25 cumulative grade-point average, with a somewhat higher average in journalism courses. Course requirements for the bachelor's degree include: (1) a basic group of courses in journalism, required of all majors; (2) required supporting courses in the liberal arts; and (3) a group of advanced courses in one of three fields of journalism, chosen by the student in accordance with his main professional interest.

These three special fields are: (a) news-editorial (preparation for writing and editing for newspapers, magazines, press associations, etc.); (b) advertising-news-paper management; (c) radio journalism. Students who wish broader preparation may elect courses in more than one of these fields; but a full sequence in one field must be completed.

The courses required of all majors are as follows:

Journalism Basic Courses—Reporting (J 331); Mechanics of Publishing (J 311); Typography Laboratory (J 313); Principles of Advertising (J 339); Copyediting (J 434); History of Journalism (J 428); Journalism and Public Opinion (J 429).

Liberal Arts—General or English Literature, 9 term hours; General Psychology (Psy 201, 202); American Governments (PS 201, 202, 203); at least one year of related courses at the upper-division level in each of two of the following fields: anthropology, economics, geography, history, philosophy, political science, psychology, sociology.*

The course groups in special fields of journalism are as follows:

News-Editorial—Advanced Reporting (J 415); Reporting of Public Affairs (J 416), or Interpretative Writing (J 417), or Magazine Article Writing (J 421); Newsroom Policies (J 436), or Law of the Press (J 427), or Magazine Editing (J 461); Investigative Methods in Journalism (J 481).

Advertising-Newspaper Management—For advertising majors: Retail Advertising (J 445); Advertising Copywriting (J 446); Seminar, Advertising Research Procedures (J 407). For management majors: Advanced Reporting (J 415); Retail Advertising (J 445); Newspaper Problems and Shop Management (J 411, 412, 413); Investigative Methods in Journalism (J 481).†

Radio Journalism—Fundamentals of Broadcasting (Sp 241); Radio News Writing (J 431); Radio News Program Building (J 432); Investigative Methods in Journalism (J 481).

Graduate Study. The School of Journalism offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts or Master of Science degree. Programs of study include advanced courses in journalism and in an allied field or fields. Candidates for advanced degrees must satisfy all requirements of the Graduate School. The School of Journalism recommends that students not begin graduate study before they have had some practical experience in the field.

The school also offers graduate work toward a minor in journalism for students majoring in other fields (in special cases, doctoral candidates may complete a minor in journalism).

* In addition to the courses listed, all majors are strongly advised to take Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203) and 9 term hours in either United States or modern European history.

† Recommended electives for advertising-management majors: Constructive Accounting (BA 111, 112, 113); Applied Psychology (Psy 205); Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 111, 112); Elements of Marketing (BA 223); Business Statistics (BA 432) or Elements of Statistical Methods (Mth 325, 326), if the student is planning work in market analysis or copy testing.

Facilities. The School of Journalism is located in the Journalism Building, a three-story brick structure erected in 1923. Fully equipped laboratories are provided for writing, editing, photography, and typography (advanced laboratory work in typography is done at the University Press, a model printing plant which occupies a separate building near the Journalism Building). Current files of newspapers and technical publications are available in a journalism reading room; an excellent collection of journalistic literature is maintained in the University Library. Offices of the student newspaper, the OREGON DAILY EMERALD, adjoin the Journalism Building.

The Oregon Newspaper Publishers' Association has its offices in the Journalism Building. The school and the association cooperate in providing a placement service for graduates in journalism.

School of Law

ORLANDO JOHN HOLLIS, B.S., J.D., Dean of the School of Law.

LOIS INMAN BAKER, M.A., Law Librarian.

LOIS ACKERMAN, Secretary to the Dean.

PROFESSORS: O. J. HOLLIS, C. G. HOWARD, K. J. O'CONNELL, J. D. BARNETT (emeritus).

ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR: E. P. MORTON.

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR: F. R. LACY.

SPECIAL LECTURERS: S. R. DARLING, O. F. VONDERHEIT.

THE University of Oregon School of Law was established in 1884 as a night law school in the city of Portland. It was moved to the Eugene campus in 1915 and reorganized as a regular division of the University. The School of Law was admitted to the Association of American Law Schools in December 1919; the standards of the school were approved by the American Bar Association in August 1923.

Admission to the School of Law. A minimum of three years of prelegal studies in a college or university (138 term hours) is required for admission to the School of Law. The student's prelegal program must include: (1) courses satisfying all general University requirements for the Junior Certificate, including the group requirement for majors in liberal arts (see pages 85-86); (2) the first-year basic college course in accounting (BA 111, 112, 113 or equivalent); (3) a minimum of 36 term hours of credit in courses in the general field of social science.

The minimum requirement of 138 term hours of prelegal studies may include no work taken by correspondence, and may include a maximum of 13 term hours in nontheory courses in military science, hygiene, domestic arts, physical education, vocal or instrumental music, or other subjects without intellectual content of substantial value.

For admission to the School of Law, students who are residents of Oregon must have maintained a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.25 for all prelegal work; for students who are not residents of Oregon, a prelegal grade-point average of at least 2.50 is required.

Applicants for admission to the School of Law must take such entrance or aptitude examinations as may be required by the faculty of the school.

All students intending to enter the School of Law must file a formal application for admission with the dean of the school. Official application forms may be obtained from the School of Law, after the applicant has been admitted to the University.

Students intending to transfer to the University from other institutions and to enter the School of Law must also submit, to the University Registrar, complete records of all school work beyond the eighth grade. For failure to submit complete records, the University may cancel the student's registration. This regulation applies to work taken at other law schools, whether or not the student wishes to transfer credit.

Admission to the School of Law is restricted to students who are candidates for a professional law degree. Students are admitted to the professional study of law only at the opening of the fall term of each academic year.

Prelegal Program. Students pursuing prelegal studies at the University of Oregon are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts during the three years of the required preparatory program. They are, however, assigned advisers from the faculty of the School of Law. The student is allowed considerable freedom of choice in selecting his courses, as long as his program provides a substantial cultural background. The prelegal adviser, after considering the student's high-school record and any available evidence of his native abilities, assists him in working out a program that will provide such a background. The student's program should include courses which will enable him to meet all the general University requirements for the Junior Certificate by the end of the second year of his prelegal studies.

Law students may, under University regulations, count a maximum of 48 term hours (a year's work) in professional law courses toward satisfaction of the requirements for a nonprofessional baccalaureate degree. A student taking three years of prelegal work may, therefore, obtain the B.A., B.S., or B.B.A. degree at the end of his first year in the School of Law (fourth year in the University), provided he has earned at least 36 term hours of professional law credit (unweighted) and has satisfied all other degree requirements. The dean of the School of Law will not, however, recommend a student for the B.A. or B.S. degree who has been awarded, or is a candidate for, either of these degrees with a major in another field.

Registration and Fees. Law students register and pay their fees at the times set in the University calendar for undergraduate registration. All law students pay the regular undergraduate fees, whether or not they hold baccalaureate degrees; if they are not residents of Oregon, they pay the regular nonresident fee. (See pages 60-61).

Degrees and Graduation Requirements. The School of Law offers a standard curriculum leading to the Bachelor of Laws or Doctor of Jurisprudence degree. A total of at least three years' resident study in this or in some other law school of recognized standing is required of every applicant for a law degree, of which, normally, the last two years must be spent at this University. The School of Law reserves the right to withhold recommendation for the granting of a degree to any student who, in the opinion of the faculty of the school, does not possess the character and abilities essential to the maintenance of the public trust with which the legal profession is vested.

Bachelor of Laws. Students who have met the requirements for admission to the School of Law, and who have successfully completed courses in law aggregating 120 hours and have otherwise satisfied the requirements of the University and of the School of Law, will be granted the degree of Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.). For the LL.B. degree the student must have a minimum grade-point average of 2.00 over the full three years of his work in the School of Law.

Doctor of Jurisprudence. The degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.) will be granted to students who, in addition to satisfying the requirements for an LL.B. degree:

(1) Obtain (at least one year before completing work for the law degree) the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, or Bachelor of Business Administration degree, or an equivalent degree from this University or some other institution of recognized collegiate rank.

(2) Earn a minimum grade-point average of 3.00 in the School of Law.

(3) Complete 3 term hours in Thesis (L 503), involving the preparation, under the direction of the faculty of the School of Law, of a thesis or series of legal writings of high merit.

(4) Comply with such other requirements as the law faculty may from time to time impose.

Transferred Credit. A student as a general rule may transfer not to exceed one year of credit earned in another law school of recognized standing, provided that, at the time he was admitted to the law school from which he wishes to transfer credit, he could have met the then-existing admission requirements of the University of Oregon School of Law. In exceptional cases only, a student may be permitted to transfer not to exceed two years of credit. The right to reject any and all such credit is reserved.

Application for admission by a student who has attended another law school will not be considered unless: (1) the student is eligible for readmission in good standing to the school previously attended; and (2) the student's cumulative grade-point average for all professional law courses completed is at least 2.00, when computed on the basis of the system of grade-point-average determination used by the University of Oregon. Transferred credit will be granted, however, only if the student's professional law-school record is of high quality.

In determining whether a student who transfers credits from another law school has complied with the minimum grade-point average of 2.00 required for the LL.B. degree, only grades earned at the University of Oregon will be considered.

In determining whether a student who transfers credit from another law school has complied with the minimum grade-point average of 3.00 required for the J.D. degree, the following rules are applied:

(1) If the grades earned elsewhere, when expressed in terms of the University grading system, are not equivalent to a grade-point average of 3.00, then both the grades earned elsewhere and the grades earned at the University will be considered in determining whether the student has a minimum average of 3.00.

(2) If the grades earned elsewhere, when expressed in terms of the University grading system, are equal to or better than a grade-point average of 3.00, then only the grades earned at the University will be considered in determining whether the student has a minimum average of 3.00.

Facilities. The School of Law is housed in Fenton Hall, a three-story brick structure, with a fireproof annex in which the Law Library is located. Fenton Hall, named in honor of the late William David Fenton, Oregon attorney and benefactor of the school, was formerly the University Library. The building was extensively remodeled in 1938 to provide a permanent home for the School of Law.

The holdings of the Law Library total 38,850 volumes, including complete case reports of the National Reporter System, complete state reports from colonial times to the establishment of the Reporter System, a substantial collection of English and Canadian case law, codes and compilations of state and Federal statute law, standard legal digests and encyclopaedias, etc. Its periodical collection includes files of about 100 legal journals. An excellent collection of publications relating to Oregon territorial and state law includes an extensive file of Oregon Supreme Court briefs.

The Law Library reading rooms are adjacent to the stacks, allowing students direct and easy access to the book collections.

Oregon Law Review. The OREGON LAW REVIEW is published quarterly under the editorship of the faculty of the School of Law, as a service to the members of the Oregon bar and as a stimulus to legal research and productive scholarship on the part of students.

Order of the Coif. The Order of the Coif, national law-school honor society, maintains a chapter in the University of Oregon School of Law. The Order of the Coif was founded to encourage high scholarship, and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Members are selected by the faculty during the spring term each year from the ten per cent of the third-year class who rank highest in scholarship. Character, as well as scholarship, is considered in selecting students to membership.

Phi Delta Phi Lecture Series. A series of lectures by prominent members of the Oregon bar is sponsored each year in the School of Law by Phi Delta Phi, professional legal fraternity. Through these lectures, the school is able to present to law students many special topics and problems of the profession which do not fall within the scope of any of the regular courses.

Prizes and Awards. The following prizes and awards are given annually to students in the School of Law: American Jurisprudence Prizes; American Law Book Prizes; Bancroft-Whitney Prize; Bureau of National Affairs Prize; Nathan Burkan Memorial Prizes; Lawyers Cooperative Prizes. For descriptions see pages 76-77.

Courses in Law

The School of Law assumes that its primary duty is owed to the people of the state of Oregon. For this reason, special emphasis is placed on Oregon substantive law and on Oregon procedure. Each course is organized to give the student a thorough foundation in the fundamental principles of the common law, and an understanding of the modification of common-law principles in Oregon by judicial decisions and statutes.

The curriculum is arranged as far as possible to present the fundamental topics of the law during the first year, and the more specialized subjects during the second and third years.

The right is reserved to make any desirable or necessary changes in the course offerings listed below.

All courses are required except those marked with an asterisk ().*

Medical School

DAVID W. E. BAIRD, M.D., LL.D., Dean of the Medical School.

WILLIAM A. ZIMMERMAN, B.S., Executive Secretary and Business Manager.

CAROLINE P. HOOPMANN, B.S., Registrar.

HENRIETTA DOLTZ, M.N., R.N., Director, Department of Nursing Education.

THE University of Oregon Medical School, located in Portland, was established in 1887. The medical department of Willamette University was merged with the Medical School in 1913. The Medical school buildings occupy a 109-acre campus on Marquam Hill, southwest of the city center.

Curriculum in Medicine. The Medical School, which is rated Class A by the American Medical Association, offers a standard professional curriculum in medicine leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine. Since facilities for instruction provide for the acceptance of only a limited number of applicants, completion of premedical requirements does not guarantee admission to the Medical School.

A student entering the Medical School without a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree must complete the work required for one of these degrees in the Oregon State System of Higher Education, or in the institution at which he received his premedical preparation, before entering upon the work of the third year in the Medical School.

The University of Oregon and most of the colleges and universities of the Pacific Northwest recognize credit earned by a student during his first two years at the Medical School as credit earned in residence toward the bachelor's degree.

A suggested premedical curriculum for students planning to enter the Medical School is presented on pages 90-92 in this Catalog.

Curricula in Nursing Education. As an integral part of the Medical School, the Department of Nursing Education offers a four-year curriculum leading to the B.A. or B.S. degree. The student takes five terms of prenursing work at the University of Oregon in Eugene, at Oregon State College in Corvallis, or at another accredited college or university. The prenursing curriculum is completed with one term of work on the campus of the Medical School, and is followed by a ten-term professional curriculum coordinated with clinical instruction in the hospitals and clinics of the Medical School. The Department of Nursing Education also offers advanced professional curricula for graduate nurses in the fields of public health nursing, supervision, teaching, and professional bedside nursing.

A suggested preparatory curriculum is printed on pages 93-94 in this Catalog.

Medical School Catalog. A separate catalog, containing detailed information on organization, faculty, facilities, requirements, and curricula of the Medical School, including the Department of Nursing Education, may be obtained on request.

School of Music

MAN GELHAUSEN, J. H. STEHN.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: D. W. ALLTON, F. W. BITTNER, GEORGE BOUGHTON, MIL-TON DIETERICH, S. L. GREEN, R. W. HORD, FLORENCE VANDERWICKEN.

INSTRUCTORS: DORIS H. CALKINS, R. B. GLASGOW, WADE PARKS, C. W. PETERS,

ASSISTANTS: S. L. STONE, D. L. WIGHT.

A DEPARTMENT of music was established at the University of Oregon in 1886. The School of Music was organized in 1902. The school was admitted to membership in the National Association of Schools of Music in 1930; requirements for entrance and for graduation are in accordance with the standards of the association.

The School of Music provides, for graduates of high schools and preparatory schools who have demonstrated talent in music, the opportunity to continue their musical studies, either as professional preparation or as an avocation, and to acquire at the same time a broad general education. Instruction is offered in the following fields: organ, piano, violin, cello, harp, orchestral and band instruments, voice, instrumental and choral conducting, musical theory, composition, music literature and history, and music education.

Admission. The major curricula in music are organized on an upper-division and graduate basis. Freshman students intending to major in music are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts and pursue, for two years, a program combining liberal-arts courses with introductory work in music theory, music literature, and applied music.

The lower-division courses in music are planned to insure continuity of training and experience throughout the student's undergraduate years. Educational continuity is further insured through the assignment of members of the staff of the School of Music as faculty advisers to students preparing for a music major.

Before admission as majors, students must satisfy all University and College of Liberal Arts requirements for the Junior Certificate, including the lower-division group requirements for liberal-arts students (see pages 85-86), and must complete the following lower-division courses in music:

	Term	Hours
Applied Music—Instrument or Voice (Mus 190, Mus 290).....	6	6
Introduction to Music Literature (Mus 127, 128, 129).....	6	6
Masterpieces of Music Literature (Mus 227, 228, 229).....	6	6
Music Theory I (Mus 111, 112, 113).....	6	6
Music Theory II (Mus 211, 212, 213).....	6	6
Band, Orchestra, or Chorus (Mus 195, Mus 196, or Mus 197).....	6	6

Facilities. The School of Music is housed in three adjoining buildings, each planned to serve one of the three principal functions of the school—instruction, practice, and performance. The landscaped grounds surrounding the buildings include an outdoor theater. The instruction wing, completed in the fall of 1949, is a modern brick and concrete structure, acoustically treated with sound-absorbing materials. In addition to school offices, it contains sixteen teaching studios, three large classrooms, and a lecture and rehearsal room seating 100 persons. All teaching studios are equipped with Steinway grand pianos. The practice wing contains forty practice rooms equipped with upright pianos (twenty additional practice rooms are provided in two temporary structures west of the Music Building). The auditorium wing seats 600 persons, and has a stage large enough to accommodate a full symphony orchestra. It is equipped with a four-manual Reuter organ. The new University Theater, on the north campus, provides facilities for the production of opera.

A music library is maintained in the Douglass Room in the University Library. The collections include music scores, the complete works of many of the masters, reference books, and an extensive collection of recordings. The room is equipped with phonographs with earphone attachments for individual listening; a larger phonograph for group listening is available in an adjacent room. The music library is partially supported through a bequest from the late Matthew Hale Douglass, former librarian of the University. The collections also include gifts from the Carnegie Corporation, Phi Beta, and Mu Phi Epsilon.

Musical Organizations. The University Choral Union, the University Singers, the University Symphony Orchestra, the University Concert Band, and smaller ensembles offer membership to all students in the University who can qualify. These organizations afford unusually good opportunities, under the direction of members of the faculty of the School of Music, for sight reading and for experience in choral, orchestral, and band routine. The value of thorough and careful study of a large amount of choral and instrumental literature through membership in such organizations cannot be overestimated by the serious student of music.

Concerts and Recitals. Every opportunity possible is provided to students to hear good music and to acquire the experience of public appearance. Faculty and student recitals are presented throughout the year. Concerts are given by the musical organizations listed above.

Students of the University are admitted free to the concerts of the Eugene and University Civic Music Association. This association brings artists of international fame to the campus each year for concerts.

Music Fees. Special fees are charged for instruction in applied music, in addition to regular registration fees. These fees are due at the time of registration each term.

The applied-music fees for instruction in piano, voice, violin, cello, harp, and organ are: one lesson a week, $30.00 per term; two lessons a week, $50.00 per term.

The applied-music fees for instruction in wind instruments are: one lesson a week, $20.00 per term; two lessons a week, $40.00 per term.

Private practice rooms may be reserved for the following fees: $4.00 per term for one hour a day; $7.00 per term for two hours; $10.00 per term for three hours; $12.00 per term for four hours. The organ practice fee is $20.00 per term for one hour a day.

Curricula in Music

THE School of Music offers undergraduate curricula leading to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Music degrees, and graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Master of Music degrees. The instructional program is planned to develop not only performers but also musicians. On the practical side, stress is laid on everything that can contribute to mastery of the instrument from the purely technical point of view. Technique, however, is looked upon as a means rather than an end. Notice is taken of the fundamental defects in most preliminary instruction, and suitable remedies are provided.

The work outlined in the several curricula, well and faithfully performed, and augmented by experience and continued serious study, will provide a substantial foundation upon which to build a professional career.

Students are advised not to concern themselves in advance with the details of their study programs. The faculty adviser to whom each student is assigned will explain fully general University requirements, school requirements, and desirable electives. Ample time is available for a thorough discussion of each student's qualifications and needs, in order that his program may be a consistent and profitable one.

Curriculum in Music Leading to B.A. or B.S. Degree. This curriculum is designed for majors in music who wish to place equal emphasis on cultural and on professional objectives. For lower-division courses required for admission, see page 234. The following upper-division courses are required:

	Term	Hours
Applied Music—Instrument or Voice (Mus 390).....	12
Music Theory III (Mus 311, 312, 313).....	9
History of Music (Mus 360, 361, 362).....	6
Band, Orchestra, or Chorus (Mus 395, Mus 396, Mus 397).....	6
Counterpoint I (Mus 411, 412, 413).....	6
Harmonic and Structural Analysis (Mus 460, 461, 462).....	6

In this program, the student devotes about half of his time to required work in music, leaving ample opportunity for electives in liberal arts or in music.

Curriculum in Music Education. This curriculum, which leads to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree, is designed for students who wish to prepare themselves for the teaching and supervision of music in junior and senior high schools. Options are provided in the vocal and instrumental fields; students of unusual ability may complete the requirements in both fields in five years. For lower-division courses required for admission, see page 234.

The following upper-division courses are required in both the instrumental and the vocal options:

	Term	Hours
Music Theory III (Mus 311, 312, 313).....	9
Applied Music—Instrument or Voice (Mus 390).....	12
History of Music (Mus 360, 361, 362).....	6
Band, Orchestra, or Chorus (Mus 395, Mus 396, or Mus 397).....	6-12
Secondary Education in American Life (Ed 311).....	3
Educational Psychology (Ed 312).....	3
Principles of Teaching (Ed 313).....	3
Special Methods (Ed 408).....	6
Oregon School Law and System of Education (Ed 316).....	2
Oregon History (Hst 377).....	2
Supervised Teaching (Ed 415).....	9

In addition to the common group of courses listed above, the following upper-division courses are required in the vocal option:

	Term	Hours
Public-School Music (Mus 317, 318, 319).....	9
Choral Conducting (Mus 323, 324, 325).....	6
Public-School Music Voice Class (Mus 351, 352, 353).....	6

	Term	Hours
Instrumental Conducting (Mus 320, 321, 322).....	6
Stringed Instruments (Mus 332, 333, 334).....	3
Wind and Percussion Instruments (Mus 335, 336, 337).....	3
Instrumentation and Arranging (Mus 329, 330, 331).....	6

The program outlined satisfies the Oregon state requirements for a provisional state teacher's certificate. A fifth year of preparation is required for regular certification. For further information concerning regular certification, see SCHOOL OF EDUCATION.

Curriculum in Applied Music Leading to B.Mus. Degree. This curriculum is designed for students whose talents justify intensive professional training in music, with emphasis on performance and preparation for studio teaching. One of the applied-music subjects (organ, piano, violin, cello, a legitimate orchestral or band instrument, or voice) must be carried through the student's four undergraduate years. Students majoring in voice must complete at least two years of one foreign language (French, German, or Italian).

For lower-division courses required for admission, see page 234. The following upper-division courses are required:

	Term	Hours
Applied Music—Instrument or Voice (Mus 390).....	12
Applied Music—Instrument or Voice (Mus 490).....	12
Music Theory III (Mus 311, 312, 313).....	9
History of Music (Mus 360, 361, 362).....	6
Band, Orchestra, or Chorus (Mus 395, Mus 396, Mus 397).....	6
Counterpoint I (Mus 411, 412, 413).....	6
Harmonic and Structural Analysis (Mus 460, 461, 462).....	6

In their senior year, candidates for the B.Mus. degree with a major in an applied-music field are required to present a public recital, including the following:

Organ Students—Passacaglia and Fugue by Bach; sonatas by Guilman; movements from symphonies by Widor and Vierne; and selections from the more important works of modern composers.

Piano Students—A concerto or chamber-music composition of advanced difficulty; a Beethoven sonata equivalent in grade of difficulty to Opus 31, E-flat, or any polyphonic work of similar grade; at least two Chopin etudes; and selections from the works of modern writers.

Violin and Cello Students—A Bach sonata; a concerto; and selections from the more important works of some of the leading modern composers.

Voice Students—An aria from an opera or an oratorio; a group of classic songs; and a group of modern songs.

Students selecting a legitimate orchestral or band instrument for major study toward the B.Mus. degree must, in their senior year, demonstrate a thorough command of the instrument and the ability to play satisfactorily at sight excerpts from symphonic compositions of the nineteenth century.

Before graduation, all candidates for the B.Mus. degree must be able to play at sight piano accompaniments of moderate difficulty.

Curriculum in Music Theory and Composition. This curriculum, leading to the B.Mus. degree, is planned for students whose major interest is in creative work, and whose talent justifies intensive training in music theory and composition. For lower-division courses required for admission, see page 234. The following upper-division courses are required:

	Term	Hours
Music Theory III (Mus 311, 312, 313).....	9
History of Music (Mus 360, 361, 362).....	6
Counterpoint I (Mus 411, 412, 413).....	6
Harmonic and Structural Analysis (Mus 460, 461, 462).....	6
Counterpoint II (Mus 420, 421, 422).....	6
Advanced Harmony (Mus 417, 418, 419).....	6
Composition I (Mus 414, 415, 416).....	6

In their senior year, students who are candidates for the B.Mus. degree with a major in theory and composition must submit such original compositions in the smaller or larger forms as may be required by their instructors. Before graduation, they must also be able to play at sight piano accompaniments of moderate difficulty.

Graduate Work. The School of Music offers graduate work leading to master's degrees in the following fields: music theory and composition, instrumental music, vocal music, and music education. The following degrees are granted:

Master of Arts, Master of Science (for historical and theoretical studies, and for graduate work in music education).

Master of Music (for graduate work in theory and composition, instrumental music, and vocal music).

Master of Science in General Studies (a graduate degree for public-school teachers; the program is adapted to the needs of many students in music education).

Candidate for the degree of Doctor of Education in the School of Education may choose music education as a field of major interest.

Application for admission to graduate study in the School of Music must be made both to the University Registrar and to the dean of the school. Transcripts of the student's previous college work must be submitted, with the application, both to the Registrar and to the dean. The applicant must satisfy all general admission requirements of the Graduate School, including the requirement of the equivalent of an undergraduate major in the special field in which he plans to do graduate work. The School of Music enforces additional admission requirements related to standards of ability and training in the several fields. Applications are accepted or rejected after individual consideration of the applicant's record in the light of these standards.

Courses in Music

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Mus 111, 112, 113. Music Theory I. 2 hours each term.

Theory I, II, and III are basic courses for all majors in the School of Music. They provide a thorough groundwork in the elements of musical science—melodic, harmonic, and rhythmic—taught through the analysis of the styles of Bach, Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, and other eighteenth- and nineteenth-century composers. Bittner, Dieterich.

Mus 127, 128, 129. Introduction to Music Literature. 2 hours each term.

A nontechnical study of the development of music, stressing the elements of musical understanding; study of representative compositions, with emphasis on their musical and historical significance. Bittner, Kratt.

Mus 190. Applied Music. 1 to 4 hours any term.

Freshman year. Individual instruction in organ, piano, violin, cello, harp, voice, orchestral and band instruments. Prerequisite: qualifying examination; consent of dean.

Mus 195. Band. 1 hour each term.

Six hours maximum credit. Stehn.

Mus 196. Orchestra. 1 hour each term.

Six hours maximum credit. Cykler, Kratt.

Mus 197. Choral Union. 1 hour each term.

Six hours maximum credit. Kratt, Allton.

Mus 211, 212, 213. Music Theory II. 2 hours each term.

For description, see Mus 111, 112, 113. Prerequisite: Mus 111, 112, 113. Bittner, Dieterich.

Mus 214, 215, 216. Keyboard Harmony. 1 hour each term.

Application of theoretical principles to the keyboard; exercises in modulation, transposition, and development of extempore playing. Prerequisite: Mus 111, 112, 113. Garnett.

Mus 227, 228, 229. Masterpieces in Music Literature. 2 hours each term.

A nontechnical historical and analytical study of selected compositions, instrumental and vocal, by outstanding composers from Bach to the present day. Prerequisite: Mus 127, 128, 129. Cykler.

Mus 290. Applied Music. 1 to 4 hours any term.

Sophomore year. Continuation of Mus 190, which is prerequisite.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Mus 311, 312, 313. Music Theory III. 3 hours each term.

For description, see Mus 111, 112, 113. Prerequisite: Mus 211, 212, 213. Allton, Green.

Mus 317, 318, 319. Public-School Music. 3 hours each term.

Survey of methods and materials used in teaching music in the public schools, with emphasis upon junior and senior high-school music. Garnett.

Mus 320, 321, 322. Instrumental Conducting. 2 hours each term.

The principles of conducting and training instrumental organizations. Practical experience in conducting campus organizations. Stehn.

Mus 323, 324, 325. Choral Conducting. 2 hours each term.

The principles of conducting and training choral organizations. Practical experience in conducting campus organizations. Garnett.

Mus 329, 330, 331. Instrumentation and Arranging. 2 hours each term.

A study of the instruments of the orchestra, together with practical study of the art of scoring for the various choirs and for full orchestra. Cykler.

Mus 332, 333, 334. Stringed Instruments. 1 hour each term.

A study of the stringed instruments of the symphony orchestra. For public-school music students only. 2 recitations a week. Boughton.

Mus 335, 336, 337. Wind and Percussion Instruments. 1 hour each term.

A study of the wind and percussion instruments of the orchestra and band. For public-school music students only. 2 recitations a week. Stehn.

Mus 340, 341, 342. Accompanying. 2 hours each term.

Practical problems in accompanying. Students must also be registered for upper-division work in piano or organ. Prerequisite: consent of dean.

Mus 343, 344, 345. Chamber Music. 1 hour each term.

Prerequisite: consent of dean. Boughton, Stehn.

Mus 351, 352, 353. Public-School Music Voice Class. 2 hours each term.

Study of the voice problems of public-school music. Garnett.

Mus 354, 355, 356. Band Arranging. 2 hours each term.

Scoring for combinations of wind instruments, from quartets to full symphonic bands; special emphasis on arrangements for school bands of various degrees of advancements. Stehn.

Mus 357, 358, 359. Opera Workshop. 2 hours each term.

Study, translation, analysis, rehearsal, and performance of opera, from the classics of the eighteenth century to modern works. Small works and excerpts from longer operas. Prerequisite: upper-division standing, consent of instructor. Gelhausen, Vanderwicken.

- Mus 360, 361, 362. History of Music. 2 hours each term.
A study of the development of music from primitive times to the present day. Cykler.
- Mus 390. Applied Music. 1 to 4 hours any term.
Junior year. Continuation of Mus 290, which is prerequisite.
- Mus 395. Band. 1 hour each term.
Six hours maximum credit. Stehn.
- Mus 396. Orchestra. 1 hour each term.
Six hours maximum credit. Cykler, Kratt.
- Mus 397. Choral Union. 1 hour each term.
Six hours maximum credit. Kratt, Allton.
- Mus 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Mus 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
- Ed 408. Special Teaching Methods. 2 hours each term.
This course parallels practice teaching in the junior and senior high schools. Observations, reports, and conferences on material and procedures used in choral and instrumental groups. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Garnett, Stehn.
- Mus 411, 412, 413. Counterpoint I. 2 hours each term.
Writing vocal polyphony, based on the contrapuntal technique of the sixteenth-century masters (Palestrina, Lassus, Byrd, and Vittoria). Both sacred and secular styles are employed, using such forms as the mass, motet, and madrigal. Prerequisite: Mus 311, 312, 313. Elston.
- Mus 414, 415, 416. Composition I. (G) 2 hours each term.
Composition in the smaller forms for piano, voice, and other instruments. Prerequisite: Mus 411, 412, 413; Mus 460, 461, 462. Elston.
- Ed 415. Supervised Teaching. 1-10 hours any term (12 hours maximum credit).
Prerequisite: consent of the School of Education.
- Mus 417, 418, 419. Advanced Harmony. 2 hours each term.
A study of the harmonic practices of the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries. Written work, analysis, and theoretical research. Prerequisite: Mus 311, 312, 313; Mus 411, 412, 413. Elston.
- Mus 420, 421, 422. Counterpoint II. (G) 2 hours each term.
Writing of instrumental polyphony, based on the style of J. S. Bach. Study of invertible counterpoint and other contrapuntal techniques, with their application in the canon, two- and three-part invention, and fughetta. Prerequisite: Mus 411, 412, 413. Elston.
- Mus 425, 426, 427. Special Periods in Music History. (G) 2 or 3 hours each term.
A detailed study of selected compositions, with emphasis on historical styles—orchestral, dramatic, chamber music, church music, and music for solo instruments. Fall: preclassical; winter: classical; spring: romantic. Prerequisite: Mus 360, 361, 362. Cykler.
- Mus 428, 429, 430. Introduction to Musicology. (G) 3 hours each term.
Study of the methods of research in music, and application of research technique to particular musical problems. Prerequisite: Mus 360, 361, 362; consent of instructor. Cykler.
- Mus 431, 432, 433. Advanced Conducting. (G) 2 or 3 hours each term.
The routine and technique of conducting. Problems of the symphony orchestra and choral groups. Score reading. Actual practice in conducting. Prerequisite: Mus 311, 312, 313 or equivalent, and consent of instructor. Kratt.

- Mus 460, 462, 463. Harmonic and Structural Analysis. 2 hours each term.
Thorough study of formal analysis, including the phrase unit, period, two- and three-part song forms, developed ternary forms, sonata, symphony, concerto, etc. Elston.
- Mus 490. Applied Music. 1 to 4 hours any term.
Senior year. Continuation of Mus 390, which is prerequisite.

GRADUATE COURSES

Courses numbered 400-499 and designated (G) may be taken for graduate credit.

- Mus 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- Mus 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Mus 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Mus 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
- Mus 511, 512, 513. Applied Counterpoint. 2 or 3 hours each term.
A practical study of the writing of the strict and free-style fugue, both vocal and instrumental. The application of larger contrapuntal forms; passacaglia and contrapuntal variations. Prerequisite: Mus 420, 421, 422. Elston.
- Mus 514, 515, 516. Composition II. 2 hours each term.
A continuation of Mus 414, 415, 416, applying larger forms and instrumental combinations. Prerequisite: Mus 414, 415, 416; consent of instructor. Elston.
- Mus 520, 521, 522. Interpretation of Symphonic Literature. 2 or 3 hours each term.
Study of symphonic literature. Presupposes proficiency in techniques of conducting, a major instrument, and knowledge of theory and history of music. Prerequisite: Mus 431, 432, 433 or equivalent; consent of instructor. Kratt.
- Mus 523, 524, 525. Interpretation of Choral Literature. 2 or 3 hours each term.
Detailed study of choral literature. Emphasis on the conducting problems of each individual work. Interpretation, tradition, etc. Prerequisite: Mus 431, 432, 433 or equivalent; consent of instructor. Kratt.
- Mus 526, 527, 528. Composition III. 2 or 3 hours each term.
Intensive work in the larger forms; variation, rondo, and sonata-allegro forms; symphonic form. For students who are candidates for advanced degrees in composition. Prerequisite: Mus 514, 515, 516. Elston.
- Mus 529, 530, 531. Choral Literature for Secondary Schools. 2 or 3 hours each term.
Musical repertory for junior and senior high-school choruses; problems of leadership, presentation, organization, and program planning. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Garnett.
- Mus 532, 533, 534. Instrumental Literature for Secondary Schools. 2 or 3 hours each term.
Repertory suitable for junior and senior high-school bands and orchestras; problems of leadership, presentation, organization, and program planning. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Stehn.
- Mus 590. Applied Music. 1 to 4 hours any term.
Individual instruction in organ, piano, violin, voice, orchestral and band instruments at the graduate level. Allton, Boughton, Gelhausen, Green, Hopkins, Stehn, Thacher.

Department of Military and Air Science and Tactics

PROFESSORS: COLONEL F. R. MAERDIAN (department head), MAJOR E. L. HIBNER.

ASSISTANT PROFESSORS: LIEUTENANT COLONEL J. H. CUNNINGHAM, MAJOR M. F. GIBBONS, MAJOR W. E. HANES, CAPTAIN E. F. DOOLEY, CAPTAIN R. J. GREINER, CAPTAIN W. F. HINTZ, CAPTAIN W. A. KOCH, CAPTAIN J. M. PAGANO, CAPTAIN R. M. PEDEN, CAPTAIN R. C. WORDEN.

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANTS: MASTER SERGEANT E. T. AKIN, MASTER SERGEANT B. A. BRINDAMOUR, SERGEANT (FIRST CLASS) R. C. BURKE, SERGEANT (FIRST CLASS) D. N. ELLIOTT, TECHNICAL SERGEANT W. I. WATSON, SERGEANT J. T. FRANKENBERGER.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANTS: MASTER SERGEANT A. E. MAYEA, MASTER SERGEANT R. J. MORGAN, MASTER SERGEANT M. D. MUDD, SERGEANT (FIRST CLASS) JOHN JAMESON, SERGEANT (FIRST CLASS) F. B. LUEKE, SERGEANT (FIRST CLASS) L. M. WEAVER, SERGEANT R. E. WOHLFORD.

THE Department of Military and Air Science and Tactics is organized as a regular instructional division of the University and a unit of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps of the United States Army and Air Force, with special advanced training for Infantry, Transportation Corps, Air Force Administration and Supply, and Air Force Comptrollership. The program of instruction includes a two-year Basic Course and a two-year Advanced Course.

Basic Course. The Basic Course is designed to lay a foundation of intelligent citizenship and to provide training in military subjects common to all branches of service; it is prerequisite to specialized training in the Advanced Course. All male students under 23 years of age, who are physically qualified for military training and who are citizens of the United States, are required to take the Basic Course during their freshman and sophomore years, unless excused by University authorities or by virtue of previous military service. As grounds for exemption, consideration is given to physical incapacity and to conscientious objection to military service. Veterans of World War II are granted credit for instruction in military science received in the armed services, and are exempt from the Basic Course requirement. No credit is granted for military service entered upon after March 31, 1949; but all students who have had one or more years of military service are exempt from the Basic Course requirement.

Students enrolled in the Basic Course are uniformed and equipped at the expense of the United States. They are not, however, in the military service and assume no military obligations.

Advanced Course. Selected upper-division students are admitted to the Advanced Course. If successfully completed, the course leads to a reserve commission as second lieutenant in the Infantry or Transportation Corps of the United States Army, or in the United States Air Force. The work is designed to provide training in subjects common to all arms and services, as well as specialized training in subjects pertaining especially to the Infantry, Transportation Corps, or Air Force.

To be eligible for admission to the Advanced Course, a student: (1) must be a citizen of the United States and not less than 14 years of age; (2) must be physically qualified under standards prescribed by the Army and Air Force; (3) must be accepted by the institution as a regularly enrolled student; (4) must not have reached 27 years of age at the time of initial enrollment in the Advanced Course; (5) must successfully complete such survey and general screening tests as may be prescribed; (6) must be selected by the professor of military science and tactics or the professor of air science and tactics and the head of the institution; (7) must execute a written agreement with the United States government to complete the Advanced Course at the institution in which he is enrolled or any other institution where such course is given, to devote five hours per week during such period to the military training prescribed, and to pursue the courses of camp training during such period as prescribed by the Army and Air Force, in consideration of commutation of subsistence to be paid the student by the government; (8) must have completed the Basic Course, Senior Division R.O.T.C., or have received credit in lieu thereof for previous honorable active service in World War II in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard, or in the United States Naval Academy, the United States Coast Guard Academy, the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps, or the Army Specialized Training Program, as approved under regulations established by the Departments of the Army and the Air Force.

Students in the Advanced Course receive commutation of rations, the value of which is determined yearly by the Departments of the Army and the Air Force, on the basis of two 32-week school years. During the summer training camp, which normally comes between the first and second years of the Advanced Course, students receive rations, quarters, and the base pay of the seventh enlisted grade. Textbooks, reference books, and officer-type uniforms are provided.

Advanced Course students participating in the summer-camp program are registered in one of the following courses; Infantry Summer Camp (Mil 330); Transportation-Corps Summer Camp (Mil 331); Air-Force Summer Camp (Mil 332). Each of these courses carries 6 term hours of credit.

Courses in Military Science

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Mil 111, 112, 113. First-Year Basic Course. 1 hour each term.

Military organization; military policy of the United States; National Defense Act and R.O.T.C.; evolution of warfare; maps and aerial photographs; military psychology and personnel management; first aid and hygiene; geographical foundations of national power; military problems of the United States; mobilization and demobilization; leadership, drill, and exercise of command. 3 hours a week.

Mil 211, 212, 213. Second-Year Basic Course (Infantry). 1 hour each term.

Leadership, drill, and exercise of command; organization of infantry units; weapons and marksmanship; technique of fire of basic infantry units; tactics of basic infantry units. 3 hours a week.

Mil 214, 215, 216. Second-Year Basic Course (Transportation Corps). 1 hour each term.

Introduction to Transportation Corps; economics of military transportation; military highway transport; highway organization and operation. 3 hours a week.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Mil 311, 312, 313. First-Year Advanced Course (Infantry). 3 hours each term.

Leadership, drill, and exercise of command; organization; infantry crewserviced weapon; gunnery and technique of fire; communications; combat intelligence; estimate of situation and combat orders; field fortifications; tactics of rifle and heavy-weapon platoons and companies. 5 hours a week.

Mil 314, 315, 316. First-Year Advanced Course (Transportation Corps). 3 hours each term.

Organization of transportation staff sections; railroad transportation (zone of interior); military railway service; movements; port operations (ports of embarkation and debarkation); stevedore operations; harbor craft and marine maintenance; highway transport service operation (theater of operations); individual weapons and marksmanship; leadership, drill, and exercise of command. 5 hours a week.

Mil 330. Infantry Summer Camp. 6 hours.

Mil 331. Transportation-Corps Summer Camp. 6 hours.

Mil 411, 412, 413. Second-Year Advanced Course (Infantry). 3 hours each term.

Leadership, drill, and exercise of command; military administration and personnel management; military teaching methods; psychological warfare; organization; command and staff; communications; motors and transportation; supply and evacuation; troop movements; new developments; military team; tactics of infantry battalion in attack and defense. 5 hours a week.

Mil 414, 415, 416. Second-Year Advanced Course (Transportation Corps). 3 hours each term.

Military leadership and personnel management; military teaching methods; psychological warfare; leadership, drill, and exercise of command; military railway service; highway transport operations; highway traffic regulations and control; movements control; logistics; overseas supply; command and staff; combat intelligence; responsibilities of a Transportation Corps officer. 5 hours a week.

Courses in Air Science

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Mil 111, 112, 113. First-Year Basic Course. 1 hour each term.

For description, see under Military Science, above.

Mil 221, 222, 223. Second-Year Basic Course (Air-Force Administration). 1 hour each term.

Aerodynamics and propulsion; weather and navigation; applied air power (types and uses of military aircraft, guided missiles and allied equipment, strategic and tactical employment of the air weapon); leadership, drill, and exercise of command. Specialized training in military and personnel administration and in supply. 3 hours a week.

Mil 224, 225, 226. Second-Year Basic Course (Air-Force Comptrollership). 1 hour each term.

Aerodynamics and propulsion; weather and navigation; applied air power; leadership, drill, and exercise of command. Specialized training in statistics, budget and fiscal control, finance. 3 hours a week.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Mil 321, 322, 323. First-Year Advanced Course (Air-Force Administration). 3 hours each term.

Air operations; logistics (supply, procurement, classification, purchasing and contracting, transportation); psychology of leadership; voice and command; field laboratory for leadership; specialized training in administration. 5 hours a week.

Mil 324, 325, 326. First-Year Advanced Course (Air-Force Comptrollership). 3 hours each term.

Air operations; logistics; psychology of leadership; voice and command; field laboratory for leadership; specialized training in comptrollership. 5 hours a week.

Mil 332. Air-Force Summer Camp. 6 hours.

Mil 421, 422, 423. Second-Year Advanced Course (Air-Force Administration). 3 hours each term.

Inspector general; military law and boards; military teaching methods; Air Force management; career management; officer development; voice and command; field laboratory for leadership. Specialized training in administration. 5 hours a week.

Mil 424, 425, 426. Second-Year Advanced Course (Air-Force Comptrollership). 3 hours each term.

Inspector general; military law and boards; military teaching methods; Air Force management; career management; officer development; voice and command; field laboratory for leadership. Specialized training in comptrollership. 5 hours a week.

Graduate Council

E. L. JOHNSON (chairman), W. C. BALLAINE, C. B. BEALL, J. F. CRAMER, E. A. CYKLER, W. J. DIXON, R. T. ELLICKSON, C. W. HINTZ, P. B. JACOBSON, R. W. LEEFER, R. W. LEIGHTON, E. H. MOORE, PIERRE VAN RYSSELBERGHE.

IN THE discipline of undergraduate education the primary aim is to prepare the student for cultured living and intelligent citizenship, and in techniques leading to a professional career. In graduate study the dominant aim is the development of the scholar, capable of original thinking and of creative achievement in the advancement and extension of knowledge. Hence, a graduate degree indicates more than the mere completion of a prescribed amount of advanced study; it indicates that the student has shown both promise and performance in some field of independent scholarship.

At the University of Oregon, all study beyond the bachelor's degree, except strictly professional work in dentistry, law, and medicine, is administered through the Graduate School. The formulation of graduate programs in their special fields and the working out and direction of the programs of individual students are the responsibilities of the instructional departments, subject, however, to the general rules and requirements of the Graduate School.

The Graduate School also administers the University's program for the encouragement of research by members of its faculty, through the provision of necessary facilities and through grants in aid.

Although honorary master's and doctor's degrees were conferred by the University in the 1880s, a program of graduate study with definite residence requirements was first established in 1897; two master's degrees, under these standards, were conferred in 1899. The Graduate School was organized in 1900.

For many years, the graduate program was limited to work toward the master's degree. Requirements for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy were first announced in 1920; the first Ph.D. degree was granted in 1926.

In 1933, as a part of the original plan of the Oregon State System of Higher Education, an interinstitutional Graduate Division was created for the administration of graduate work in all institutions of the System. In October 1946, the State Board of Higher Education returned to the institutions direct responsibility for their programs of advanced study, and re-established the University Graduate School.

Advanced Degrees

THE University of Oregon offers through the Graduate School work leading to advanced degrees in the liberal arts and sciences, and in the professional fields of architecture and allied arts, business administration, education, health and physical education, journalism, medical sciences (at the Medical School in Portland), and music. The degrees granted, and the fields in which programs of study leading to the respective degrees are currently offered, are listed below:

Doctor of Philosophy: biology, chemistry, economics, education, English, history, mathematics, medical sciences, physics, psychology, Romance languages, sociology. (A new program leading to the Ph.D. degree in the social sciences was introduced in the fall of 1949; the student must satisfy major requirements in one of the traditional social-science fields, but does at least half of his work beyond the master's degree in closely related social sciences.)

Doctor of Education: education.

Master of Arts (departmental): anthropology, architecture, art, biology, business administration, chemistry, economics, education, English, geography, geology, health and physical education, history, journalism, landscape architecture, mathematics, medical sciences, music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, Romance languages, sociology, speech (also authorized—Classical languages, Germanic languages).

Master of Arts in General Studies: see page 250.

Master of Science (departmental): anthropology, architecture, art, biology, business administration, chemistry, economics, education, geography, geology, health and physical education, history, journalism, landscape architecture, mathematics, medical sciences, music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, sociology, speech.

Master of Science in General Studies: see page 251.

Master of Architecture: architecture, interior design.

Master of Fine Arts: painting, sculpture, ceramics, weaving.

Master of Business Administration: business administration.

Master of Education: education.

Master of Landscape Architecture: landscape architecture, regional or city planning.

Master of Music: composition, instrumental music, vocal music.

General Regulations

THREE classes of graduate students are recognized: (1) those wishing to become candidates for a master's degree; (2) those wishing to become candidates for a doctor's degree; and (3) those wishing merely to take work beyond the requirements for the bachelor's degree. Students of the first and second classes follow programs organized in conformity with the rules stated below. Students of the third class register for the courses they desire, with the understanding that the institution is under no implied obligation to accept credit earned as credit toward a degree. Whether a student is adequately prepared to enter a particular course is determined by the instructor in charge and the head of the department.

Admission. A graduate of any accredited college or university is admitted to the Graduate School if his credentials indicate that he will be able to maintain a satisfactory scholastic average as a graduate student.

Admission to the Graduate School does not of itself entitle a student to become a candidate for a degree. Admission to candidacy for an advanced degree is granted only after the student has demonstrated, by passing a qualifying examination, the thoroughness of his previous preparation and his ability to do work of graduate character.

Provisional graduate standing may be granted to graduates of nonaccredited institutions. After at least one term of satisfactory graduate work in the University, such students may petition for regular graduate standing, and for credit in courses completed acceptably under provisional admission. The Graduate Record Examination may be required as additional validation.

Graduate credit is not granted for undergraduate work taken in excess of the requirements for the bachelor's degree.

Preparation Required for Graduate Study. Preparation for a graduate major must be an undergraduate major in the same subject, or a fair equivalent. Preparation for a graduate minor must be at least a one-year sequence of upper-division work in addition to foundational courses in the subject. Graduate credit may not be earned in courses for which the student does not show proper preparation by previous record or special examination.

Study Program and Load. Graduate students beginning studies toward a degree are expected to work out, in tentative form at least, a complete program leading toward the degree desired. This program should allow sufficient time for completion of the thesis. Work on the thesis should be begun as early as possible.

The normal load for a graduate student devoting all of his time to graduate study is 12 term hours of course work and 3 term hours for thesis. The maximum load is 16 term hours. For assistants and fellows, the maximum load is 12 term hours. Assistants receiving a fractional stipend may carry a maximum of 15 term hours of work, but are advised to limit their study programs in proportion to the amount of service rendered. All graduate students who devote part of their time to other occupations are expected to limit their programs in a similar fashion, according to the share of their time available for graduate work.

The graduate program of each candidate should include a substantial amount of work with at least three faculty members offering graduate instruction.

Grade Requirements. A grade of D or F or an accumulation of 9 term hours of C grades disqualifies a student for further graduate work toward the master's degree. To be eligible for a master's degree, a student must present 45 term hours of graduate work with grades of A or B.

Graduate Courses. All courses numbered in the 500s carry graduate credit, as do those in the 400s which have been approved by the Graduate Council. Approved courses in the 400s are designated in the Catalog by (G) or (g) following the course title. Courses designated (G) may form a part of either a major or a minor; courses designated (g) may be taken toward a minor only. Graduate students taking courses in the 400s are expected to do work of a higher order and broader scope than the work of undergraduate students in the same courses.

Fees and Deposits. The regular fees and tuition for graduate students total $40.00 per term. Students holding graduate or research assistantships or fellowships pay a special reduced fee of $17.50 per term. Students enrolled in the Graduate School do not pay the nonresident fee. Graduate students registered for 6 term hours of work or less pay the regular part-time fee (see page 61). Payment of graduate fees entitles the student to all services maintained by the University for the benefit of students.

Graduate students must make a $5.00 deposit once each year at the time of first registration; the deposit is required as a protection to the University against the loss or damage of institutional property (see page 61).

Master of Arts and Master of Science

Credit Requirement. For the departmental Master of Arts or Master of Science degree, the student must complete a program of study totaling not less than 45 term hours in courses approved for graduate credit. A minimum of two-thirds of the work (30 term hours) must be in the major. One-third (15 term hours) may be in: (1) a related minor; (2) appropriate service courses; (3) suitable complementary courses in the major; or (4) some combination of (2) and (3). A strong minor is recommended, especially for candidates for the M.S. degree.

Residence Requirement. For all master's degrees the residence requirement is one academic year of full-time study, or equivalent. (Work taken in summer sessions counts toward the satisfaction of the residence requirement.) Graduate or research assistants may satisfy the residence requirement by four terms of work or by three terms and a summer session. Students who have taken graduate work at another institution may lighten their load by transferring credit; but transferred credit will not shorten the residence requirement.

A maximum of 15 term hours earned in graduate courses in the General Extension Division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education or at Oregon State College may be counted as credit earned in residence toward the departmental master's degree or the Master of Science in General Studies. If adequate course offerings are available, 33 of the 45 term hours of work required for the degree of Master of Arts in General Studies may be taken in the Portland Extension Center.

Transferred Credit. A maximum of 15 term hours earned in graduate courses at other accredited institutions may be counted toward the master's degree, under the following conditions: (1) the courses must be relevant to the degree program as a whole; (2) the transfer must be approved by the student's major department and by the Graduate School; (3) the grades earned must be A or B. Graduate credit is not allowed for correspondence courses. Credit granted for work done at another institution is tentative until validated by work in residence. (See also "Time Limit" below.)

Language Requirements. For the Master of Arts degree, the student must show, by examination or by adequate undergraduate courses (two years of college work), a reading knowledge of one foreign language, preferably French or German. By petition to the dean of the Graduate School, a student may be permitted to substitute another language, if it is equally relevant to his program of graduate studies. For the Master of Science degree there is no foreign-language requirement, unless a language is required by the school or department.

Course Requirements. For the departmental Master of Arts or Master of Science degree, at least one year sequence in the 500-599 series (normally of seminar or research nature and for approximately 3 hours of credit per term) is required.

Time Limit. All work counted toward the master's degree (including work for which credit is transferred from another institution, thesis, and the final examination) must be completed within a period of seven years.

Qualifying Examination. A student wishing to become a candidate for a master's degree is given a qualifying examination designed to test his basic training and his ability to pursue studies at the graduate level in his chosen field. This examination may be oral or written or both. It is expected that the examination be taken before the student has completed 15 term hours of graduate work. If satisfactory knowledge and ability are demonstrated, the student is formally advanced to candidacy for the degree sought, subject to the approval of the dean of the Graduate School.

The examination may cover any work done at another institution for which transfer credit is requested.

The qualifying examination for the master's degree is scheduled by the major school or department; the date must be reported to the Graduate School office at least one week in advance.

A graduate of the University who has taken the bachelor's degree with honors in the field of his graduate major is ordinarily exempt from the qualifying examination for the master's degree.

Thesis. In some schools and departments, all candidates for the Master of Arts or Master of Science degree are required to present a thesis; in others the thesis is optional.

If a thesis is presented, the student must file in the Graduate School office, not less than two weeks before the date of his final oral examination: (1) three copies of his thesis, carrying the signature of his thesis adviser; and (2) six copies of an abstract not exceeding 500 words in length.

The three copies of the thesis are filed unbound, and are bound at the expense of the University. Two copies are deposited in the Library, and one becomes the property of the major department. One of the Library copies is available for general circulation.

Full information concerning the prescribed style of theses may be obtained on request to the Graduate School.

Students are not allowed to register for the final hours of Thesis unless it is very probable that the thesis will be completed within the term.

Final Examination. A final examination is required of every candidate for a master's degree. For students presenting a thesis, the examination is oral, and of not less than two hours duration. For students not presenting a thesis, an oral examination of not less than one hour and a written examination are required.

The examining committee consists of at least three members—two in the student's major field, one in the minor field. The examining committee is nominated by the student's adviser, subject to the approval of the dean of the Graduate School, who is ex-officio a member of all examining committees.

A student passing a final examination with exceptional merit may, by vote of the examining committee, be awarded a master's degree with honors.

Master of Arts in General Studies

The University offers the degree of Master of Arts in General Studies in fields in which graduate work is allocated to the institution. This degree is granted for achievement in cultural scholarship, not for specialized work in one of the traditional fields of learning. The student pursues a program of study selected from the offerings of not less than three departments or schools. The requirements are flexible, but the work must be integrated and organic. The student's thesis provides the focus which determines the selection of courses for his program. On the recommendation of the student's adviser, the foreign-language requirement may be waived.

The program is supervised by the Committee on General Studies, of which Dr. W. J. Dixon, associate professor of mathematics, is chairman.

In addition to courses chosen from the offerings of the several University schools and departments, the following courses are available for the general-studies student:

GSt 501. Research in General Studies. Hours to be arranged.

GSt 503. Graduate Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

GSt 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Master of Science in General Studies

The University offers a program of graduate study planned especially for students working toward the satisfaction of the Oregon state requirement of a fifth year of college work for regular high-school teacher certification. The program leads to the degree of Master of Science in General Studies.

Enrollment in the program is open to any person who is eligible for admission to the Graduate School; the student must, however, have a reasonable background of undergraduate study in the fields or departments in which he proposes to work, and must complete prerequisites for specific courses. The requirements for the degree of Master of Science in General Studies are:

(1) A total of between 45 and 51 term hours in graduate courses, distributed in accordance with (a) and (b), below:

(a) A total of 36 term hours in graduate courses in two departments or fields of study (other than education), including not less than 15 term hours in each field. At least 6 term hours must be in 500 courses in one of the two departments; the student's program must be planned to provide well-rounded knowledge and must not be made up of scattered, unrelated courses.

(b) Between 9 and 15 term hours in graduate courses in the field of education, the number of hours to be determined on the basis of the work in education completed by the student as an undergraduate. (The state certification requirement specifies 9 term hours of graduate work in education and 6 term hours in education electives, which may be taken either at the undergraduate or the graduate level; students who take these electives in the fifth year must complete a total of 15 term hours of graduate work in education to qualify for the degree of Master of Science in General Studies.)

(2) Satisfaction of the regular requirements of the Graduate School for the master's degree, except that no thesis is required.

The program is administered by the dean of the Graduate School and supervised by the Committee on General Studies, of which Dr. W. J. Dixon, associate professor of mathematics, is chairman.

Doctor of Philosophy

General Requirements. The degree of Doctor of Philosophy is granted primarily for attainments and proven ability. Requirements of time and credit are secondary; but no candidate will be recommended for the degree until he has satisfied the minimum requirements of residence and study.

It is the policy of the Graduate School not to accept as a candidate for the Ph.D. any person whose academic training, both undergraduate and graduate, has been exclusively at the University of Oregon.

Qualifying Examinations. Early in the first term of his doctoral work, the student takes qualifying examinations in his major and minor subjects. The examinations may cover any work done at another institution for which transferred credit is requested. All doctoral candidates are required to take the Graduate Record Examination and to furnish the Graduate School with a report. Information concerning this examination may be obtained in the Graduate Office.

Graduate Program. The student plans his doctoral program with the assistance of his major adviser. As soon as he has passed his qualifying examinations, his program is presented for approval to an advisory committee, appointed by the dean of the Graduate School.

The program should consist of studies in a major field and, in addition, closely related studies in a minor field or a substantial amount of work in several related fields. The minor or part of the cognate studies must be in some other than the major school or department. A student electing a formal minor should choose approximately forty per cent of his course work from the minor field. The selection of work in minor or cognate fields is subject to the approval of the Graduate Council.

Residence. For the doctor's degree, at least three years of full-time work beyond the bachelor's degree are required, of which at least one year (usually the last) must be spent in residence on the Eugene campus of the University of Oregon or at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland.

Preliminary Examinations. The student working toward the doctor's degree must pass a group of comprehensive preliminary examinations (oral or written, or both) in his major and minor subjects not less than one academic year before he expects to receive the degree. Advancement to candidacy is contingent on passing these examinations.

Language Requirements. For the Doctor of Philosophy degree, a reading knowledge of French and German must be demonstrated by a formal examination in each language. These examinations should be taken as early as possible after the beginning of graduate work, and must be passed before the preliminary examinations may be taken. Another foreign language may, with the approval of the Graduate Council, be substituted for either French or German if, in the opinion of the student's advisory committee, it will be of more value in his program.

Thesis. Every candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy must submit a thesis embodying the results of research, and showing evidence of originality and ability in independent investigation. The thesis must be a real contribution to knowledge, based on the candidate's own investigations. It must show a mastery of the literature of the subject, and be written in creditable literary form. It is expected that the preparation of an acceptable thesis will require at least the greater part of an academic year.

Five copies of the thesis, approved by the adviser, must be deposited unbound in the Graduate Office not less than four weeks before the time set for the final examination. Ten copies of an abstract of the approved thesis (not longer than 1,500 words) must be filed two weeks before the examination.

Final Examination. The final examination for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy may be written in part, but must include an oral examination, usually of three hours' duration. The oral examination is open to all members of the faculty and to advanced graduate students. The date of the oral examination is publicly announced at least one week before it is held. The examining committee consists of the candidate's advisory committee and other members, including at least one not directly connected with the major or minor department. The committee is nominated by the major department or school, subject to the approval of the dean of the Graduate School.

At the oral examination the candidate is expected to defend his thesis and to show a satisfactory knowledge of his major and minor fields. The written examination, if given, is expected to cover aspects of the major and minor fields with which the thesis is not directly concerned.

Other Graduate Degrees

Master of Education. The Master of Education is a professional degree in the field of education. Programs of study leading to the M.Ed. degree are designed to provide graduate training for teachers in either the elementary or the secondary schools. Instead of a thesis, a field study is required. Two written comprehensive final examinations are required, one in the candidate's area of concentration, the other in the more general functional areas of teaching.

Programs of studying leading to the M.Ed. degree are offered on the University campus and in the Portland Extension Center; but at least 12 of the 45 term hours of work required must be done on the University campus.

Master of Fine Arts. Work leading to this degree is offered in four fields: painting, sculpture, ceramics, weaving. The requirements include the completion of an extended creative project of professional character, instead of a thesis. Normally, candidates having a high degree of creative ability may expect to spend about two years on this project and correlated course work before receiving the degree. Since, however, the degree is awarded primarily for creative achievement, there is considerable individual variation in the time required. The student chooses his project and related courses with the advice of a committee of members of the faculty of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

Master of Music. Work leading to the degree of Master of Music is offered in three fields: composition, instrumental music, and vocal music. To be admitted to candidacy for the M.Mus. degree in the field of composition, the student must demonstrate the requisite skills and abilities for creative work, and must submit two original compositions. To be admitted to candidacy for the degree in the field of instrumental or vocal music, the student must demonstrate the requisite skills and abilities for professional performance, and must submit a complete repertory. The "thesis" for the M.Mus. degree may be a research paper, an original composition in the large form, or a public instrumental or vocal performance. The student of vocal music must demonstrate a reading knowledge of at least two foreign languages and satisfactory diction in a third.

Doctor of Education. To be admitted to graduate study toward the degree of Doctor of Education, the student must submit evidence of successful professional experience. Three full years of graduate work (135 term hours), including work for the master's degree, are required for the D.Ed. degree. This work should be distributed approximately as follows: education, 60 term hours; work in a field or fields, other than education, which is closely related to the major aim of the student's graduate program, 40 term hours; electives, 20 term hours; doctoral thesis, 15 term hours.

The student chooses one of ten divisions within the field of education as a field of major interest. Normally, from 20 to 30 term hours of work (exclusive of thesis) are taken in this major field and from 12 to 18 term hours of work are selected from each of two related divisions.

Physical education and music education are recognized as divisions of the field of education; students choosing one of these two as a field of major interest complete from 40 to 60 term hours of work in the major (exclusive of thesis) and at least 30 term hours in two related divisions.

The candidate for the D.Ed. degree must present a thesis on a problem in the field of education. The thesis may be: (1) a mature and expert evaluation of existing knowledge in its application to the student's problem; or (2) an original contribution to knowledge through research.

There is no foreign-language requirement for this degree, unless the student's program demands an acquaintance with foreign literature.

The student working toward the D.Ed. degree takes the following examinations: (1) the Graduate Record Examination, which must be taken during the student's first term of work toward the degree or before registering for a second term; (2) divisional examinations covering his major field in education and related fields, given after he has completed not less than 105 term hours of graduate work; (3) a final oral examination on his thesis.

Assistantships, Scholarships, and Fellowships

GRADUATE and research assistantships, scholarships, and fellowships are awarded annually to graduates of accredited universities and colleges who have superior records in their undergraduate work. All persons holding these positions are expected to register in the Graduate School, and to become candidates for advanced degrees. Application should be made before March 15. Application blanks are furnished on request by the Graduate School.

The University will welcome the submission of Graduate Record Examination scores by students applying for assistantships, scholarships, or fellowships. For information about this examination write to Educational Testing Service, Box 775, Berkeley, California.

Graduate Assistantships. Graduate assistants render services amounting to not more than 15 hours a week—reading papers, handling laboratory and quiz sections, etc. They are permitted to enroll for a maximum of 12 term hours of course work. Stipends range from $700 to $900 a year. Graduate assistants pay a special reduced fee of $17.50 per term.

Research Assistantships. Research assistants aid faculty members in carrying on research projects. Compensation, fees, and enrollment limitations are the same as for graduate assistants.

Teaching and Research Fellowships. Fellows are normally candidates for the doctorate, with at least one year of markedly superior work toward that degree completed. Teaching fellows give instructional assistance in their departments. The duties of research fellows are similar to the duties of research assistants; fellows are, however, expected to assume greater responsibility in connection with the research project to which they are assigned. Fellows are allowed to enroll for a maximum of 12 term hours of course work. Stipends range from $1,000 to $1,200 a year. Fellows pay a special reduced fee of $17.50 per term.

State Scholarships. A limited number of scholarships covering tuition and laboratory and course fees ($22.50 per term) are available to graduate students. All applicants, to be eligible, must be in need of financial assistance, and must show evidence of superior scholarship. Application should be made to the Registrar of the University, on official blanks furnished by his office, and must be filed before April 1.

Other Scholarships and Fellowships. Other scholarships and fellowships available to University graduate students are listed on pages 72-75. See especially: Robert A. Booth Fellowship in Public Service, Thomas Condon Fellowship in Palaeontology, Arthur P. Pratt Scholarship, Zimmerman Scholarship.

Graduate Work at the Medical School

THE University of Oregon Medical School offers graduate instruction leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees in the medical sciences: anatomy, bacteriology, biochemistry, pathology, pharmacology, and physiology. Graduate degrees earned at the Medical School are conferred by the University of Oregon, upon recommendation by the faculty of the Medical School.

In addition to opportunities for graduate study and research in the preclinical departments, arrangements may be made for special study of clinical problems by experimental methods, through the cooperation of the preclinical and clinical departments. In some cases, students doing work of this kind may qualify for graduate degrees.

Graduate Work in the Portland Center

WITHIN the Oregon State System of Higher Education, graduate degrees are awarded only by the University of Oregon and Oregon State College. However, if adequate course offerings are available for an integrated program in the fields in which the student wishes to work, part of the requirements for master's degrees may be completed in the Portland Extension Center of the State System.

The maximum amount of work which may be completed in the Portland Center toward the departmental Master of Arts or Master of Science degree or the Master of Science in General Studies is 15 term hours. A total of 33 term hours of work toward the Master of Arts in General Studies or the Master of Education degree may be completed in Portland. Degrees are awarded by the University or the State College according to major subject, in harmony with State System allocations of curricula.

Graduate work beyond the master's degree is not offered in the Portland Center.

Summer Sessions

PAUL B. JACOBSON, Ph.D., Director of Summer Sessions.
GERALDINE R. PICKETT, B.A., Secretary of Summer Sessions.

THE regular sessions of the University are supplemented by an annual eight-week summer session. The summer program includes courses both for undergraduate and for graduate students; special attention is given to the needs of teachers in the public schools.

Students who wish to earn credit toward degrees from the University of Oregon through summer study must satisfy the regular University requirements for admission, and should file credentials in the Registrar's Office as early as possible before the opening of the summer session (for credentials required, see pages 53-54.)

The summer-session fee for students registering for more than 5 term hours of work is $55.00. The fees for students registered for 5 term hours of work or less are as follows: 1 or 2 hours, $14.00; 3 hours, $21.00; 4 hours, $28.00; 5 hours, $35.00. The fees stated above are for the 1950 session. There is no additional fee for students who are not residents of Oregon.

The 1950 summer session opens on June 19 and closes on August 11. For the 1951 summer calendar, see page 9.

Detailed announcements of summer courses are included in a special Catalog, published annually in March. Copies will be furnished on request to the Director of Summer Sessions.

THROUGH extension services the benefits of all the Oregon state institutions of higher education are brought to the people of the state in their own communities. All divisions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education seek through every means possible, so far as resources and facilities permit, to serve the entire state. All extension activities of the several institutions are administered through two coordinated extension services: the General Extension Division and the Federal Cooperative Extension Service.* The latter includes all extension activities carried on jointly with the Federal government.

The General Extension Division of the Oregon State System of Higher Education serves the people of the state through adult education by means of extension classes, correspondence study, visual instruction, and radio. Its work is organized into the following departments: at Eugene: Correspondence Study, State-Wide Extension Classes; at Corvallis: Visual Instruction, Radio Station KOAC; at Portland: Portland Extension Center, Vanport Extension Center.

Portland Extension Center. General extension in Portland is carried on through the Portland Extension Center. More than two hundred evening courses in thirty-five different departments and professional schools were offered during the academic year 1949-50. The work of these classes is of standard college or university grade. Resident credit at the University, the State College, or the state colleges of education may be earned through these courses. Courses may be taken at the Portland Extension Center for graduate credit toward a master's degree at the University or the State College. Detailed information is published in the Portland Extension Center Announcements.

* The Federal Cooperative Extension Service is charged with extending to the residents of the state the benefits, advantages, and available information of the State College and of the United States Department of Agriculture in agriculture and home economics. This service includes all forms of cooperative off-campus instruction and assistance in those subjects which can be adapted, through extension methods, to the direct needs of the people of the state, particularly in enlarging and enriching the agricultural and home interests of Oregon.

State-Wide Extension Classes. Through its program of state-wide extension classes, the General Extension Division provides the people of the state of Oregon with opportunities for college instruction and educational growth in their home communities. Courses will be organized in any community which can furnish a suitable meeting place for a class and give assurance of an enrollment large enough to pay, through course fees, the cost of providing an instructor. The state-wide extension program includes both courses for college credit and noncredit courses. Through the Department of State-Wide Classes, the General Extension Division cooperates in the operation of local community-college programs at Bend and Klamath Falls.

Correspondence Study. Study at home under competent supervision is possible for any adult through carefully organized courses of instruction prepared by members of the faculties of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. These lesson outlines take the place of lectures and class exercises given to students in residence. More than two hundred courses in a wide variety of subjects are offered. Courses may be taken without credit by persons who enjoy the intellectual stimulus of organized, directed study, or they may be taken for credit toward a college degree. There are no special entrance requirements for correspondence courses; any adult who has sufficient preparation to profit from them may enroll. Complete information is published in a special Correspondence Study Catalog.

Visual Instruction. The Department of Visual Instruction of the General Extension Division provides glass and film slides, microscope slides, and motion-picture films suitable for educational use by schools, community clubs, and other organizations. A special catalog lists the material available. This department is maintained jointly by the General Extension Division and the Federal Cooperative Extension Service.

Radio Station KOAC. Radio Station KOAC is Oregon's public-owned station, of which the State Board of Higher Education is the managing agency. The station is located at Corvallis, Oregon, on the campus of Oregon State College, the licensee and operator of the physical plant. The General Extension Division of the State System of Higher Education directs the program service. Program talent is drawn from the University of Oregon, Oregon State College, the Oregon colleges of education, and various departments of the Oregon state government. Studios are located at Eugene, Corvallis, and Salem. In addition, many other public agencies, organizations, and individuals contribute frequently to broadcasts from the station. The station, established in 1925, is operated in the interest of the Oregon public. The programs are free from commercialism. KOAC operates with 5,000 watts power on a frequency of 550 kilocycles by authority of the Federal Communications Commission. Announcements of radio programs are issued periodically, and will be furnished on request.

Vanport Extension Center. To meet congested conditions in institutions of the State System, the Board of Higher Education established the Vanport Extension Center in the summer of 1946. Designed to provide for the overflow from the institutions, Vanport Center offers freshman and sophomore courses in a wide variety of fields. Course work is closely integrated with campus instruction; all credits earned are transferable to the University of Oregon, Oregon State College, and the colleges of education.
