DEPARTMENTS.

The University comprises two departments--the Collegiate and the English Preparatory.

Collegiate Department.

This department furnishes three courses of study-the Classical, the Scientific, and the Normal.

All candidates for admission to the Normal Course will be required to pass an examination in the following studies:

| Reading. | Written Arithmetic. |
| :--- | :--- |
| Writing. | English Grammar. |
| Orthography. | Geography. |
| Mental Arithmetic. | History of the United States. |

Students entering the Classical Course, in addition to the above, will be examined in Latin Grammar and Reader, two Books of Sallust, four Books of Cæsar, Greek Grammar and Reader, three Books of Xenophon's Anabasis, Elementary Algebra, Plane Geometry, and Elementary Rhetoric.

Students entering the Scientific Course will be examined in the same studies, Greek excepted, as are required for admission into the Classical Course. They will be examined also in German Grammar, German Reader, and Classic German.

English Preparatory Department.

This department has been organized to supply the existing want of suitable preparatory schools in the State, and therefore may not become a permanent feature of the University.

For the present, candidates for admission to this department will be examined in the following studies:

Orthography.

Reading-Through the Fourth Reader.
Writing.
Elements of English Grammar.
Geography-Through Monteith's No. 3.
Mental Arithmetic-To Percentage.
Written Arithmetic-To Interest.
The course of study in the English Preparatory Department will embrace those studies necessary to fit a student for the Normal Course of the University.

Studies preparatory to entering the Classical or the Scientific Course, not included in the English Preparatory Department, will be under the direct supervision of the Faculty, and students taking them will be charged college tuition and incidentals.

APPARATUS.

The University has aloout $$ \mathbf{2}, 000$ worth of mathematical instruments.
Students in surveying and engineering by means of the Solar Compass and Engineer's Transit can become accquainted with practical field work in their department, and by means of the Sextant and other instruments they can learn the methods of finding the latitude and longitude of any place.
Students in Astronomy will have access for observatory practice to the Si dereal Clock, the 42 -inch Astronomical Transit and the Sextant, and with these instruments the students will be ahle to find the latitude and longitude as well as the exact solar time of the University building by the methods used ly astronomers and navigators. Those students who wish to do so can by means of these instruments extend the range of their mathematical knowledge almost as far as they please.
The collection of Mechanical, Physical and Chemical Apparatus is large and expensive, and provides for a very full course of class illustrations.
The Departments of Geolory, Mineralogy, and Natural History are provided with large and valuable collections to illustrate their teachings. Professor Condon's cabinet is already widely known on this coast, and is justly noted for its wonderful record of Oregon's former history.
To this collection, large additions of eastern and foreign minerals are yearly made, and the whole is freely used in illustrating truth to the classes taught in these dlepartments.

The Supply of Apparatus in all departments will soon be largely increased by the expenditure of the $$ \mathbf{r}$, ooo donated by Mr. Villard for that purpose.

In all the Courses each Student will have a weekly exercise in Composition or Declamation.

DONATIONS.

During the year an embarrassing claim against the buildings of the University, which the courts had decided to be valid, has been paid.

For this purpose the citizens of Lane County generonsly donated $$ 1,182$, and Mr. H. Villard, President of the Northern Pacific Railroad, still more generously gave $7,000.

Mr. Villard has also given $$ 1,000$ in Books for the library; $$ \mathrm{I}, 000$ for Ap paratus; $$ 250$ to be awarded in scholarships of $$ 50$ each to worthy and successful students, whose lack of funds exposed them to more than ordinary difficulty in their educational course; and has agreed to pay the salary of one professor for a year. This makes Mr. Villard's whole donation for the year $iroio. It is only necessary to know how greeat relief these donations gave to understand how thankfully they were received.

THE LIBRARY.

This much needed Department has been founded this present School Year, ( $\mathbf{1 8 8 1 - 2}$ ) by the generosity, and intelligent oversight of Mr. Villard, in the choice of the books. His special donation to the library was $\$ 1,000$, and most judiciously has it been expended. The lines of Investigation chiefly represented are Art, Literature and History.

The binding is in each case good,--suitable for use--the edition generally the best, the Authors the first in their special fields. The following are some of the more prominent works:

Art.

Lubke's, and Winkelmann's Histories of Art.
Ferguson's History of Architecture.
The editions are amply illustrated.

Literature.

Teuffel's Roman, Van Laun's French, 'Tylor's American, and Ticknor's Spanish, Literatures, and Hallam's Literature of Europe.

History.

This line is specially cared for. Here are, Greene, Froude, Macualey, Knight, Hume, Godwin, and the Epoch Series in English History. Buckle's Civilization, Bancroft's, Parkman's American Histories, Prescott's Mexico, Peru, and Ferdinand and Isabella, and Motley's Dutch Republic, John Barneveld, and United Netherlands.

Dyre's Modern Europe, Gibbon's, Mommsen's, and Arnold's Histories of Rome, Grote's Greece. Thiers' Consulate and Empire, Taine's French Revolution, and Ancient Regime, Milman, Freeman, Lecky, Froissart, Duneker's "Antiquity," Rawlinson's Ancient Monarchies, etc.
The above is, as is seen, a choice nucleus, yet only a nucleus, of a Library.
A small annual appropriation from the Legislature, of some $$ 500$, for Library and Reading Room, is much needed.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Literary Societies.

There are two Literary Societies--the Eutaxian and the Laurean-connected with the University, having a common Library of nearly one thousand volumes.

Expenses.

All bills of the University must be paid each term in advance.
Tuition, per year, in the College, $$ 40 \infty$; in the Preparatory, $$ 300$; Incidentals in College, $$$ ro oo.
Board and room may be had in private families at $$ 400$ per week; in clubs at $$ 3$ oo.

Students are not allowed to board or room at hotels.
