

Sand, Sea, Science:

The Oregon Institute of Marine Biology

History

Rippey Library

Research

Partnerships

The physical exhibit "Sand, Sea, Science: The Oregon Institute of Marine Biology" (Knight Library display cases July 7-October 3, 2003) acquaints viewers with the teaching and research programs at the Oregon Institute of Marine Biology in Charleston, Oregon. The four slide shows within this web exhibit include images from the physical exhibit as well as other photographs. For additional information about OIMB, see their web site: <http://www.uoregon.edu/~oimb>

Exhibit author: Barbara Butler

Photo credits and copyright policy

OIMB History

Photo by Dr. Oscar W. Richards

"Sand, Sea, Science"

Back

Forward

Loyd and Dorothy Rippey Library

The Loyd and Dorothy Rippey Library is located at the center of the OIMB campus.

"Sand, Sea, Science"

Back

Forward

Research at OIMB

For over 30 years students have studied a Pelagic Cormorant nesting site.

"Sand, Sea, Science"

Back

Forward

OIMB Partnerships

Image from the Coast to Crest Interpreters League tidepool guide

"Sand, Sea, Science"

Back

Forward

Sand, Sea, Science:

The Oregon Institute of Marine Biology

Images used in this exhibit are from of the OIMB Visual Resources Collection, or have been used with the permission of the owners. All materials in this exhibit are copyrighted. Reproduction of the images, in any format, including digital conversion, is prohibited and subject to prior agreement with the owner of the item.

Back to the exhibit