THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

HISTORICAL

The University of Oregon was established by act of the state legislature October 19, 1872, and located at Eugene. Deady hall, the first University building, was erected by the citizens of Lane county, and presented to the Board of Regents in July, 1876. In September of the same year, the University opened its doors for the reception of students. The first class was graduated in June, 1878.

The equipment of the University was at first very small, and the courses of instruction were limited practically to literary lines. The University grew rapidly, and the demand for a broader curriculum was met by the addition of engineering, scientific, and technical courses. The Law School, established in Portland in 1884 as a night school, was discontinued in 1915 when a regular three year Law School was established at Eugene. The School of Medicine was established in Portland in 1887. More recently the Graduate School, 1900, and the Schools of Music, 1902, Education, 1910, Journalism, 1912, Architecture, 1914, Business Administration, 1914, Sociology, 1920, and Physical Education, 1921, have been added. The Extension Division, including the department of correspondence study, was established in 1907. This, with the summer sessions, makes the resources of the University available to those who are unable to attend the sessions of the regular academic year on the campus.

LOCATION AND CLIMATE

The campus of the University of Oregon is located in the city of Eugene, at the head of the Willamette valley. Aside from the convenience of its location on through lines of rail and highway, it enjoys exceptional health and climatic conditions. The city has an abundant supply of pure wholesome water, and modern sanitation. The mean annual temperature is about 52, that for January being 40.1 and for July and August 65.7 and 65.3 respectively. The mean minimum temperature for January, the coldest month, is 34.1. The mean maximum temperatures for July and August are 79.5 and 73.3 respectively. The annual rainfall is about 38½ inches; the main precipitation coming in the winter months, November, December, and January, while the summers are practically free from rain.

GOVERNMENT

The government of the University of Oregon is vested, under the laws of the state of Oregon, in a Board of Regents, consisting of ten members. The governor, the secretary of state and the superintendent of public instruction are additional members ex officio. Each regent is appointed for a term of twelve years.

Academic matters are in the hands of the voting members of the faculty consisting of the president, deans, full professors and associate professors.

ENDOWMENT AND SUPPORT

The University of Oregon is one of the three state-supported institutions which derive their income from the millage taxes. The millage income of the University for the year 1924 is approximately $820,000, in addition to which certain fees are charged, especially to non-resident students.

No income producing property is owned by the University, but an income of $8,000 a year is obtained from the state land fund and a small endowment fund given to the University by Henry Villard.

The School of Medicine, which is situated in Portland, is on a separate budget and is supported by fees, by private gifts and by appropriations from the state legislature.

ORGANIZATION AND DEGREES

The University as a whole is subdivided into the following:

- The Graduate School*, the work in which leads to the degree of doctor of philosophy in the departments of education, history, physics, psychology and zoology; and to the master's degrees in all departments at Eugene, and in the laboratory departments of the School of Medicine at Portland.
- The College of Literature, Science and the Arts*, with 22 undergraduate departments, the work of which leads to the degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of science.
- The School of Architecture and Allied Arts*, the work of which leads to the bachelor of arts and bachelor of science, or in the five year course, to the degree of bachelor of architecture.
- The School of Business Administration*, in which students proceed to the degree of bachelor of business administration, and subsequently, if desired, to the degree of master of business administration.
- The School of Education*, whose students proceed to the conventional bachelor's degrees, or occasionally to the special degree of bachelor of science in education.
- The School of Journalism*, the graduates of which take the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science in journalism.
- The School of Law*, which has a five-year curriculum leading to the degree of bachelor of laws, and a six-year curriculum leading first to the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science, and proceeding to that of doctor of jurisprudence.
- The School of Medicine*, the seven-year curriculum of which leads first to bachelor's degree, and then to that of doctor of medicine. It also offers work leading to the master's degree.
- The School of Music*, in which those who proceed to degrees take the bachelor of arts, bachelor of science, or bachelor of music, according to courses chosen.
- The School of Physical Education*, whose students proceed to the bachelor's degrees.
- The School of Sociology*, which contains also the Portland school of social work, and through which the bachelor's degrees are obtainable.
- The Extension Division*, containing the departments of visual instruction and correspondence study, the lecture bureau, and the various extension courses throughout the state, including the numerous ones of the Portland Extension center.
- The Summer sessions*, two simultaneous sessions of six weeks each, given in Eugene and Portland, work in which may usually be applied toward the bachelor's and master's degrees.

EQUIPMENT

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS

The university campus is situated about one mile southeast of the center of Eugene. Electric cars pass through the campus, giving communication with the business section and other parts of the city. The campus contains about 100 acres of land, divided into two sections by the Pacific Highway.

On the north campus are located the older university buildings, such as Deady, Villard and McClure, and a few of the newer buildings, the home of the School of Law, and the School of Business Administration, as well as the Architecture and Art group.

The south campus is mainly occupied by the newer buildings, the administration building, or Johnson hall, the education group, the School of Music, and the buildings of the woman's quadrangle. East of this section of the campus is a large tract devoted to military and athletic purposes.

The university buildings are situated on rising ground well wooded with native and exotic trees.

In the description below, the buildings are grouped according to location on the campus. The first group takes in the buildings on the north campus, beginning with Deady hall, the oldest of the university buildings, and making a circuit to the north, east, south, and west. The second group beginning with the administration building, Johnson hall, describes the newer buildings on the south part of the campus.

Deady Hall, a four-story building, was presented to the State on the opening of the University in 1876 by the citizens of Lane County, and was named in honor of Matthew P. Deady, the first president of the Board of Regents. It houses the departments of botany, zoology and physics.

Villard Hall, erected in 1885, was named in honor of Henry Villard, the builder of the Northern Pacific Railroad, the greatest individual donor to the University's endowment. It is a cemented brick building north of Deady, occupied by the department of English, and contains the general assembly hall of the University.

Sociology Hall, a substantial red brick building, east of Villard, erected in 1901, is the headquarters for the School of Sociology, and furnishes additional space for the department of English, and the School of Architecture.

Architecture and Allied Arts occupy a group of buildings connected by an arcade and a court with Sociology hall. Included in the group is Architecture hall, erected in 1914, the Fine Arts studio, and the new Art building, which contains the studios of sculpture and normal arts, together with the small exhibit museum.

Across University street from the Architecture group is the new power house and university depot, a brick building which contains the heating plant, the postoffice and express office, and headquarters for the superintendent of grounds.

The Household Arts Building, next the power house on University street, contains quarters for the department of household arts, on the ground floor, while the campus offices of the extension division are located on the upper floor.

The Infirmery is a frame building, near the Household Arts building, in which students receive hospital care and attention when necessary.

The Journalism Building is adjacent to the Architecture group on University street. It is annexed to McClure Hall and houses the School of Journalism. The basement contains offices, library, copy-room, and seminar rooms, and is connected with the University Press in the adjoining building. The floor above supplies class, assembly, and laboratory rooms. The entire top floor is occupied by the department of chemistry.

McClure Hall, which looks westward on the campus, was built in 1900. It was named after Professor S. E. McClure of the class of 1883, head of the department of chemistry, who lost his life on Mt. Rainier, July 27, 1897. It provides quarters for the departments of chemistry and psychology, and the University Press.

Friendly Hall, the men's hall of residence, situated south of McClure, was erected in 1893, with additions completed in 1903, 1914, and 1920. It is a three-story brick building, equipped with electric lights, steam heat, hot and cold water. The north end of the main floor is occupied by the University Health Service, including the Dispensary.

The Men's Gymnasium, built in 1909, is east of Friendly hall, across University street. It is fitted with modern conveniences, apparatus, an indoor running track, a swimming pool, shower baths, lockers, etc. Supplementing the gymnasium proper is the outdoor gymnasium, with a floor 120 by 87 feet, divided by movable partitions into three distinct gymnasium floors, each large enough for basketball, hand ball, or indoor tennis.

The University at present uses two athletic fields, Hayward field, laid out in a 35-acre tract southeast of the main campus, is surrounded by a grandstand and bleachers capable of seating 13,000 people. The old Kincaid field is still used for football and track practice. To the east of this field is a separate diamond for baseball.

Library Hall, which contains the university library, is across the campus quadrangle from and facing Friendly. It is a two-story and basement building of pressed brick. On account of the rapid growth of the library, a fireproof stack room of steel and concrete construction was added in 1914. The first floor contains the general reading room and circulation department; on the second floor are the reference and seminar rooms.

Commerce Hall, west of the Library, was completed in 1921. It furnishes offices, class rooms, reference library and laboratories for the School of Business Administration, and in addition provides accommodations for the closely related departments of economics and history. This building is externally a replica of Oregon Hall, which it faces.

Oregon Hall was completed in 1916. It is a three-story brick building, 80 by 120 feet, and provides accommodations for the Law School, and the departments of languages and political science.

On the south campus, across Thirteenth Avenue, and facing the campus quadrangle is Johnson Hall, the administration building. It is a two-story and basement building, erected in 1915, and named after the first president of the University. The administration offices of the University occupy the entire second floor. The main floor contains classrooms, offices, and the little theatre. Guild Theatre, with a seating capacity of 200, is used for student plays and for the work of the department of drama and the speech arts. The dean of men and the dean of women also have offices on this floor, as well as the departments of mathematics and geology, which have in addition classrooms in the basement.

Hendricks Hall, erected in 1917, and Susan Campbell, erected in 1920-21, are situated on the women's quadrangle, south of the administration building. These are three-story fireproof buildings of Colonial type, accommodating 112 girls each. The rooms are arranged in suites, with a sleeping porch for each suite.

Mary Spiller Hall, on the east side of the women's quadrangle next to Hendricks, was named for Mrs. Mary Spiller, the first woman member of the faculty. It is a three-story and basement building, used for a residence and dining hall for women of the University.

The Woman's Building, which forms the south end of the woman's quadrangle, was erected with funds raised by popular subscription, supplemented by legislative appropriations, and first occupied early in 1921. It provides ample facilities for the department of physical education for women, and has four gymnasium floors. The large indoor gymnasium is equipped with all modern apparatus and laid out for indoor sports. A smaller one is artistically decorated and used mostly for the different forms of rhythmic work. The corrective gymnasium is large and sunny and equipped with apparatus for caring for the girls with remedial defects or who for any reason are not able to take the regular activities. The examining rooms in connection with this are equipped with all the usual examining apparatus, including a schematograph. The fourth is an open air gymnasium and adjacent to it is an athletic field large enough to accommodate all the girls for games and out-door sports during the pleasant weather. Another feature is the large swimming pool purified by constant filtration. Connected with this are ample dressing rooms and lockers and seventy-eight shower baths. There are also several recreation rooms and offices for the staff of the physical education department. In the social end of the Woman's building is the large and beautifully appointed alumnae hall, which is in constant use for university gatherings, both of students and faculty. The third floor of this part of the building is occupied at present by the Oregon Museum of Fine Arts, which includes the Murray Warner Memorial collection of oriental art, a reference library, and several smaller collections.

The R. O. T. C. Building, built originally as barracks for the S. A. T. C., has been remodeled and equipped for the offices and the instructional work of the department of military science. It is located near the main campus southeast of the Woman's Building and west of the athletic field.

The Education Building and the University High School, completed and occupied in the spring of 1921, are southwest of the Woman's Building. They furnish offices and class rooms for the staff of the School of Education, as well as practice school facilities. The high school building represents the most modern ideas in school architecture, and in addition to the regular school equipment, is provided with an open air covered gymnasium and playing fields.

Farthest south on the campus is the Music Building, completed in 1921. Here are teaching and practice rooms of modern type, and in addition it will ultimately contain a well-equipped auditorium capable of seating about 600 persons.

In addition to the foregoing main campus buildings, there are numerous subsidiary structures in various locations, among these are the following:

The "Bungalow" and the "Hut", situated on Kincaid street at the edge of the campus, are the quarters of the Y. W. C. A. and the Y. M. C. A. respectively, while the Newman Club, near 13th street on Kincaid supplies a recreational center for Catholic students.

The "Co-op" Store on the corner of Kincaid street and 13th avenue, opposite Oregon Hall, furnishes text books and supplies, and is the center of distribution for student publications.

The University Library is a well selected and rapidly growing collection of books numbering 131,822 volumes. Available from various sources annually, there is from $18,000 to $20,000 for books and periodicals and for binding. This is occasionally supplemented by special appropriations to secure particular collections.

The library is supplied with the best general and special reference books; with the files of the principal American and foreign periodicals of general interest, and with many of the most useful sets of periodicals of special and scientific interest, both American and foreign. Periodicals currently received, number 1234, besides many of the daily and weekly newspapers of the state. Bound files of about 90 Oregon newspapers are on hand.

The library is a depository for the public documents published by the United States government and also for Oregon state documents.

Besides the new books that are being added continually, the library attempts to add each year some sets of important periodicals or other valuable collections of source material for advanced study and research.

The library is open each week day from 7:45 a. m. to 10 p. m. On Sunday it is open from 2 to 6 p. m. Books, other than reference books and those especially reserved for use in the library, may be drawn for a period of one month, and at the expiration of that time renewed if there is no other demand for them. All persons connected with the University have the privilege of drawing books, and the use of the library for reference purposes is extended to the general public as well. Books that can be spared from the University are also loaned for a month at a time to other libraries, to superintendents and principals of Oregon schools, and to individual citizens of the state.

Branches of the reserve department of the University library are maintained in the School of Law and the School of Business Administration in their respective buildings, while a reading room is operated in connection with the School of Architecture for books of technical nature.

In the School of Law also is the Fenton Memorial library, which is more fully described under the law school section.

THE UNIVERSITY MUSEUMS

The Oregon Museum of Fine Arts, housed at present in the Woman's building, includes the Murray Warner Memorial collection given to the University in 1920 by Mrs. Warner, to which considerable additions have been made during the past year; the Millican loan collection of Indian basketry, weaving and pottery; and a loan collection of Philippine embroideries, bead-work and basketry by the Bagabos of Mindanao, and the Igorot of Luzon.

The Murray Warner collection of oriental art given to the University in 1922 by Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner, was gathered by Major Warner during his fifteen years in China in the service of the United States government. Major Warner was a recognized authority on the art of the orient, and serving as he did, through the Boxer rebellion and the unsettled conditions following, he had unexcelled opportunities to assemble rare and priceless examples of the finest periods of oriental art. Mrs. Warner has given a portion of her collection to the Smithsonian Institute but the larger amount has come to the University of Oregon in order to foster on the Pacific coast a sympathetic understanding and appreciation of the art of the orient, and to stimulate trade and travel between the trans-Pacific countries.

The Warner collection is especially distinguished by the rarity and perfect preservation of the objects composing it. At the present time only the Chinese part of the collection is on display, the Japanese prints, robes, armour, tapestries, etc., being packed away on account of lack of museum space available. Included in the material exhibited at present is a group of rare Chinese wall paintings, paintings on silk, and tapestries; fine examples of cinnabar laquer, and carvings of wood, ivory, jades, and turquoise; Chinese porcelains including specimens of old blue of the Ming period, rare peach blow, oxblood, and other varieties; and ancient brass and bronzes dating from the Han, Sung, and Ming dynasties. Especially interesting is the display of robes on typical figures, and in cases, among which are four rare antique ancestral robes, heavily embossed with gold and silver thread, and various robes from the Manchu and Ming dynasties, including several imperial coats rich in Chinese symbolism.

An interesting feature of the collection is the Helen Hyde room in which is grouped a number of prints, etchings and paintings by the well known American delineator of Japanese life, as well as her furniture and personal memorabilia.

A well selected library on oriental art, loaned by Mrs. Warner, adjoins the museum, and furnishes a reading room with special facilities for research work in history of art, oriental history and civilization, and anthropology.

The Art Exhibition Hall. The small exhibition hall connected with the Architecture and Allied Arts building, constructed since the fire in the summer of 1922, is used for special art exhibitions and loan collections of paintings, sculpture, architecture, and many of the minor arts. It is a fireproof structure.

Until the University Museum is built, this building will specially honor the sculpture of the late Roswell Doseh, an instructor in the School of Architecture who died in service during the war, and will be the home of the Dorland Robinson Memorial collection, the paintings of the daughter of Dr. J. W. Robinson of Jacksonville, Oregon.

The Condon Geological Museum includes the Condon Cabinet, which represents the life work of the late Dr. Thomas Condon, the first professor of geology of the University and a member of its first faculty. This collection is especially rich in vertebrate fossils from the John Day valley.

The museum also contains type collections of minerals, an ethnological collection of tools and implements used by primitive man, and a representative conchological collection, as well as good working collections of minerals.

With the exception of the materials used in geology teaching, much of the Condon collection is packed away at present until the University can supply adequate housing for the collection.

The Botanical Museum is well supplied with mounted specimens, especially those from Oregon and the Pacific northwest. It includes the Howell collection of 10,000 specimens, principally from Oregon, the Leiberg collection, presented to the University by John B. Leiberg in 1908, of 15,000 sheets, largely from Oregon, Washington and Idaho, as well as the Cusick collection of 7,000 specimens and the Kirk Whitehead and Edmund P. Sheldon gifts. It has been found necessary to pack away a considerable amount of the botanical collections for lack of space.

The Zoological Museum contains a considerable series of mounted and unmounted birds and mammals collected by Mr. Alfred Shelton as a beginning of a state biological survey; a collection of Oregon reptiles, made by Mr. J. R. Wetherbee; a series of fishes, mostly salmonidae from the Columbia river, donated by the United States government; a collection of food fishes of the Oregon coast, made by Mr. J. B. Bretherton, of Newport, Oregon, and presented to the University; and a collection of birds and mammals, made and presented by Dr. A. G. Prill, of Scio, Oregon.

At the present time it is not possible to display all of the zoological material available, on account of the crowded conditions in the department.

THE UNIVERSITY LABORATORIES

The Botanical Laboratories may be found in Deady Hall. The laboratory for the general botany classes has the regular equipment of work tables, lockers, and compound microscopes, as well as provision for the displaying of stereopticon illustrations and charts. This, as are all the other rooms, is furnished with gas and lighted with electricity. A series of botanical models of flower types and insectivorous plants is available. The supply of preserved material is constantly being added to and is fairly representative of the various plant groups. Each student is expected to provide dissecting set and drawing material, but the laboratory is prepared to furnish the necessary microscopic slides, reagents and glassware.

The collections of Mr. Howell, Mr. Leiberg, Mr. Cusick, Mr. Kirk Whitehead, and Mr. Sheldon are available for students of systematic botany. Facilities are provided for the study and preservation of local material and for cataloging of plants sent from various parts of the state, and the department is glad to name any specimen sent to the herbarium for determination.

The bacteriological laboratory is equipped with gas-fitted and electrically wired work tables and lockers combined, auto-clave, steam and hot-air sterilizers, incubators, hot water heater, and compound microscopes with oil-immersion lenses.

The Chemical Laboratories are located in McClure hall and the newly finished annex. Accommodations are now available for 400 students. The department of chemistry has separate laboratories for general chemistry, analytical chemistry, organic chemistry, physical chemistry, and advanced inorganic chemistry. It also has smaller rooms devoted to special problems in research work. Well equipped store-rooms provide all of the necessary apparatus and materials. A working library is kept in the departmental office to which the students in the department have free access.

The Geological Laboratories provide facilities for various lines of work. A general laboratory is provided for elementary geology and geography, and a special room for work in paleontology, including both invertebrate and vertebrate material. There is also a petrographic research laboratory with complete modern grinding machinery, microscopes, etc. The assay laboratory is provided with approved type of modern equipment, including a gas furnace with electric motor blower, as well as smaller furnaces and necessary grinding and sampling equipment. The foregoing are all located in Johnson Hall. In Quartz Hall is found the mineralogy and petrographic laboratory for elementary courses.

The department has a number of working collections in ores, minerals, rocks and fossils which are segregated in the several divisions of the department.

Household Arts. The department of Household Arts has its own building, in which are located its food and clothing laboratories. The food and dietetics laboratory and demonstration room with its communicating kitchen laboratory is equipped with the usual individual outfit for food preparation in family quantities, with gas stoves, sink, balances, supply cupboards, tables, etc. A family size dining room is arranged for practice meals. A class room is also available for the service of larger groups.

The sewing room is equipped with sewing machines, sewing and cutting tables, wardrobes, dressing rooms, lockers, etc.

Journalism. The University Press is the technical laboratory of the School of Journalism. Its equipment includes a large Optimus cylinder press, two smaller presses, two modern linotype machines, folding machines, stitchers, saws, trimmers, a power cutter, casters, a complete book and job bindery, and everything requisite to the publication either of a weekly or a small town daily newspaper. In this laboratory, training is offered in all the arts allied with journalism insofar as the journalism students can profit by them.

The Physical Laboratories are located in the basement and main floor of Deady Hall. The lecture room and laboratories for elementary and general work on the main floor are provided with the standard equipment necessary for effective teaching. A large dark room is equipped especially for instruction in photography. In the basement are rooms devoted to advanced work, particularly in electricity, and to research, and a seminar room containing a working departmental library. The department has special facilities for research in the thermal and electrical properties of metals, and the phenomena associated with electrical currents of high frequency and high potentials.

The Psychological Laboratories have especially adapted quarters in McClure hall. A well equipped suite of fifteen rooms is given over to the work of beginners in psychology. Another suite of nine rooms is devoted to the department offices, seminar, advanced laboratory and graduate student purposes. The apparatus equipment is modern and sufficient to meet all needs of undergraduate students as well as the requirements of research. Original investigations by advanced students and the department staff are constantly in progress.

The Zoological Laboratories. The offices of this department are on the second floor of Deady Hall, along with the laboratories for general animal biology, comparative anatomy, physiology and genetics. Besides several research rooms for advanced students, the department possesses a new research laboratory building, accommodating fifteen students, and provided with excellent quarters for animals in detached buildings.

THE UNIVERSITY STUDIOS

Architecture. The architectural drafting room is located on the second floor of the Architecture Building. It is well-lighted from three sides and provides facilities for the accommodation of students in architectural design, domestic architecture, and other architectural work. Much available wall space is covered with inspirational models and rendered details. The department furnishes drawing boards, but students provide their own instruments.

Adjoining this room is the departmental library supplied with books and folios from the main University Library and private collections that are constantly used for reference and research. The nature of the drafting room work is such that good material in art and architecture should be readily accessible, and for this reason approximately four thousand choice plates are available together with two thousand well selected slides for the display of stereopticon illustrations.

Fine Arts. The art studio, located on the main floor of the Architectural building, is provided with abundant north light, furnishing an excellent room for life drawing, water color and oil painting. An exhibit of valuable potteries, statues, casts and other antiques is displayed on racks and in cabinets about the studio. Anatomical charts for use in lectures in life class work also appear with this collection.

Another room is equipped with tables suitable for work in book and poster design, lettering, stained glass work and so on. Representative student work is displayed and the series of two hundred Racinet Polychromatic prints together with Raguene's ten volumes of Materiaux et Documents are reserved here for use by the departments.

Sculpture. The new Arts building houses the sculpture studios, with adequate space and lighting for what ever work the students take up. These new quarters are provided with materials and equipment of such a nature as to make them both modern and practical as an atelier. A continuous exhibit of both student and professional work is arranged; while a special modeling room and mezzanine offices for the members of the department offer both convenience and the facilities for advanced work. A dark room allows for the developing and handling of photographic plates.

In connection with the modeling atelier is the casting room, properly fitted. Here is done the casting of architectural ornament and sculpture subjects modeled in the room adjoining. Ample room and light will allow for marble and stone cutting.

Normal Arts. The department of Normal and Industrial Art is housed in the new Art building, together with the sculpture studio and the small art museum. There are six well lighted and equipped rooms. Those on the main floor are used for weaving, basketry, book-binding, construction work and dress design. The upper floor has special rooms for design, dying, batik, wood-block printing, and home decoration. The department is well supplied with drafting tables, gas-plates, filing cabinets, looms for weaving, lockers and metal-covered tables.

A new kiln and class room with modern equipment for pottery and cement tiles will be placed in the Architecture building. The kiln will also be used for stained glass, sculpture and architectural ornament.

Drama and the Speech Arts. The department of drama and the speech arts occupies Guild Theatre in the administration building (Johnson Hall) with an additional stage laboratory in another building. The Guild Theatre includes not only an auditorium and small but well equipped stage, but also complete dressing rooms, wardrobe, property and rehearsal rooms, box office, and property stacks. Public performances are regularly given.

UNIVERSITY PROCEDURE

The Term System. The academic year of the University is divided into three terms of approximately twelve weeks each. Supplementary to this school year is the summer session of six weeks, held each year both in Eugene and Portland. Students may enter at any term, but are advised to enter in the fall, since the most of the courses offered are either year courses or run in year sequences.

Definitions and explanations. The word course as used in the University means a special subject or study followed for a certain specified length of time, and carrying a certain fixed amount of credit toward a degree. A curriculum or course of study is a group of courses arranged to provide definite cultural or professional preparation. The work in the University is arranged into lower division, or freshman and sophomore years, and upper division or junior and senior years.

ADMISSION TO THE UNIVERSITY

Applications for admission should be filed with the registrar as early as possible, and must be filed at least two weeks before the opening day of the term. This applies to all new students, whether entering as freshmen or advanced students.

Receipt of credentials will be acknowledged, and applicants accepted will be notified of the next step in admission procedure.

Credentials filed become the permanent property of the University and will not be returned to the student. Hence, applicants should keep copies of their credentials for future reference.

ACCREDITED HIGH SCHOOLS

The University gives full accrediting to those high schools of Oregon which have been standardized by the state superintendent of public instruction, and which in addition have at least two teachers giving full time to high school work. Graduates of standardized high schools which do not have two full time instructors are admitted on trial, contingent upon the satisfactory completion of the first year's work.

ADMISSION TO FRESHMAN STANDING

For admission to freshman standing the student must have at least fifteen units earned by entrance examinations or evidenced by a certificate from a standard preparatory school. Unit means a subject taught five times a week, in periods of not less than forty minutes, for a school year of not less than thirty-six weeks.

The fifteen units presented for admission should be distributed as follows:

| (a) English, 3 units           | (f) One foreign language, 2 units                   |
| (b) Algebra, 1 unit            | (g) Additional in any of the above subjects, 1 unit |
| (c) Geometry, 1 unit           | (h) Elective, 5 units                               |
| (d) Laboratory science, 1 unit |   |
| (e) History, 1 unit            |   |

Entrance With Deficiencies. Students who present fifteen units for entrance, with ten units distributed among the subjects of English, mathematics, science, history and foreign language, but who may not meet the exact distribution of subjects required by the University may enter with deficiencies removable in the University. Such make-up work, however, is additional to the work regularly required in the corresponding subjects for University degree.

Removal of Deficiencies. In the removal of deficiencies, nine term hours of University work is considered the equivalent of one entrance unit, except in the case of foreign language, wherein the following rule applies:

Foreign Language Deficiencies. A student entering without any foreign language must take in the University one year (12 hours) of foreign language, and a student entering with only one year in any one language, must take two terms of the language presented, in addition to what he would otherwise be required to take.

History and Science Units. The history requirement may be fulfilled by one semester of American history and one semester of civics combined. The science requirement may be satisfied with a full year's work in any of the following: physics, chemistry, botany, zoology, biology, or general science, provided it includes a substantial amount of competently supervised laboratory work.

The Elective Units. It is recommended that the five elective units be selected whenever possible from the required subjects of English, foreign language, history, science, and mathematics. Credit will be given, however, for any subject offered in the state course of study for high schools.

No credit is granted for drill, spelling, penmanship, physical training, or for work which may be classed as largely or purely a student activity.

Preparation for Special Curricula. Students planning for major work in mathematics, physics, architecture, geology, or pre-engineering should increase their mathematical preparation to include a total of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  units of algebra, 1 unit of plane geometry and  $\frac{1}{2}$  unit of solid geometry, and will find it advantageous to present  $\frac{1}{2}$  unit of trigonometry. Students looking forward to chemistry should also present more than the minimum of algebra.

The School of Business Administration admits students upon fulfillment of the regular entrance requirements as outlined above, or under the following provisions: Seven units in the prescribed subjects (English, mathematics, language, history and science) and eight from acceptable electives, provided at least four are in commerce. Students entering under the latter provision may not subsequently change their enrollment to any other school or department without having fulfilled the regular entrance requirements.

UNIFORM REQUIREMENTS FOR OREGON COLLEGES

Uniform requirements for admission were adopted by all of the higher educational institutions of Oregon in 1921-22 and are as follows:

(a) Entrance without deficiency to the colleges, universities, and normal schools of Oregon should be contingent upon presentation of fifteen units, with at least ten units in English, mathematics, foreign languages (including Latin), laboratory sciences and history (including civics).

(b) The number of units in English should be three or four, and in these emphasis should fall upon syntax and upon composition of original character.

(c) The five elective units may be taken in any subject regularly or occasionally offered in the high school course of study in this state (such as agriculture, drawing, art, manual training, domestic science and commerce).

(d) It is recommended to high schools that students taking as many as five units of work, outside the five departments mentioned in section (a), should take significant amounts of each subject, to the end that the five units may not be merely a smattering of a number of these electives.

ADMISSION TO ADVANCED STANDING

Advanced standing is granted to students transferring from institutions of collegiate rank for work there completed which is equivalent in quality and quantity to the work of the University of Oregon, subject to the following provisions:

It is a clearly recognized principle that the University can give no credit toward its degrees for any work that it does not itself offer for credit, or which it does not consider a proper part of the curriculum of a state-supported higher educational institution.

The amount of credit to be granted upon transfer is determined by the committee on academic requirements, which will take into consideration, among other things, the nature of the school, the quality of the applicant's scholarship, the content, quality and quantity of the courses completed, etc. Credentials from other institutions are also evaluated with regard to their relationship to the course of study to be undertaken by the student submitting them, and credit therefor is granted only to the extent to which the courses pursued elsewhere articulate with the requirements of the school or department in which the student matriculates.

Final determination of the amount of advanced standing will not be made until after the student has been in attendance at the University of Oregon for at least one term.

All applications for advanced standing must be submitted to the registrar and must be accompanied by official transcripts covering both high school and college records and letters of honorable dismissal.

REGISTRATION

Excess High School Units. No university credit is granted for excess high school units, except that students who have credits in Latin, German, French, Greek, Spanish, higher algebra or trigonometry over and above the sixteen full units usually required for graduation from the high school may be permitted to take examinations for university credit. All examinations for such credit must be taken before the student attains junior standing. Requests for such examinations must be made on the official blank supplied by the University.

Credit by Examination. A student wishing to apply for credit for work done elsewhere than in an accredited educational institution must petition the committee on academic requirements on forms provided by the registrar for permission to take examinations in specified courses, as listed in the catalogue. The amount of credit to be allowed is determined by the committee.

ADMISSION AS SPECIAL STUDENT

The following regulations cover admission to special student standing and procedure therefor:

1. Special students are of two classes: (a) those who are not qualified for admission as regular students, but who are qualified by maturity and experience to carry one or more subjects along special lines; and (b) those who are qualified for admission, but who are not working toward a degree, and do not care to follow any of the courses of study leading to one.

2. An applicant for admission as a special student must be not less than 23 years of age, and must file with the registrar documentary evidence sufficient to prove his special fitness to pursue the subject desired. No applicant shall be admitted as a special student without the consent of the registrar and the dean of the school or college in which he plans his major work.

3. A special student is required to choose a major department, the head of which shall be his adviser. The student shall be governed by the directions of his adviser as to the work to be carried.

4. Credits earned by persons entering as special students shall not subsequently be counted toward a degree until the student has completed at least two years work (90 term hours) as a regular student.

5. Before a special student shall obtain status as a regular student, he shall fulfill all entrance requirements, and shall receive from the registrar a certificate of regular standing. College work done by a special student may be counted toward fulfilling entrance requirements to the extent that it has been done in the subjects required or accepted for entrance.

6. In the case of a regular student changing to special status, the work done while ranking as a special will not count toward a degree.

ADMISSION TO GRADUATE STANDING

Any college or university graduate holding a bachelor's degree from an institution of recognized standing, who has completed a four-year course above a standard high school course, will be admitted to the Graduate School without examination. The applicant must file with the registrar his application for admission on forms provided, accompanied by official credentials showing (1) all preparatory work, (2) all undergraduate work, and (3) all graduate work.

Admission to the Graduate School however does not necessarily involve acceptance as a candidate for an advanced degree, which is determined in each individual case after the student has spent some time in residence.

REGISTRATION

Registration material will be released to students on Wednesday, September 24, 1924. Registration will take place Thursday and Friday, September 25 and 26, 1924. Study programs will be made out for the entire year at that time and must be filed in the registrar's office before Monday, September 29, at which date classes begin.

English Examination. The entrance examination in English must be taken by all freshmen. Those who do not pass this examination take English A without credit in the University. These examinations are given at Villard hall on Tuesday, September 23, 1924, at 9:00 a. m., and 1:15 p. m.

Physical Examination. All entering students are required to present themselves for physical examination before assignment to classes in physical education. Appointments should be made with the dean of the School of Physical Education, during registration week.

Registration Procedure:

1. New students call at the registrar's office for certificate of admission and registration material.
2. Each student chooses a major department or school, the head of which department or school (or staff member designed by him) acts as the student's adviser. The certificate of admission is presented to the adviser who will fill out the year study program, conforming to the curriculum of the school or department which the student has selected.
3. The year study program should be signed by the instructors of the courses to be taken, approved by the adviser and filed in the registrar's office before Monday, September 29, 1924. A late filing fee must be paid by any student who files his study program on Monday, September 29, or thereafter, with a cumulative fee for each day thereafter.
4. No student is registered in the University until his year program has been filed in the registrar's office.
5. No credit will be allowed any student for a course which has not been placed on the year program, either originally or by change of registration.

Change of Registration. A fee of $1.00 must be paid for each course dropped and for each course added to the year study program. These changes may be made only by the consent of the adviser and within a limited time.

Entering New Courses. New courses may be entered only during the first two weeks of each term.

Withdrawal from Courses. Withdrawal from courses will be allowed only during the first three weeks of each term.

SCHOOLS AND DEPARTMENTS

The Schools and Departments of the University in which students may major are as follows:

COLLEGE OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND THE ARTS

|                           |                         |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| Botany                    | Mathematics             |
| Chemistry                 | Mechanics and Astronomy |
| Drama and the Speech Arts | Medicine                |
| Economics                 | Military Science        |
| English                   | Philosophy              |
| Geology                   | Physics                 |
| Germanic Languages        | Political Science       |
| Greek                     | Pre-engineering         |
| History                   | Psychology              |
| *Household Arts           | Romance Languages       |
| Latin                     | Zoology                 |

SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE AND ALLIED ARTS

Architecture      Fine Arts      Normal Arts

SCHOOL OF EDUCATION

SCHOOL OF JOURNALISM

SCHOOL OF MUSIC

SCHOOL OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

SCHOOL OF SOCIOLOGY

* Students may not major in Household Arts, although they may choose the head of the Household Arts staff as adviser, fulfilling the major requirements in another department or school.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

All candidates for undergraduate degrees must fulfill the requirements listed below. In addition, each candidate must comply with the prescribed curriculum of his school or department.

Credit. Credit for work completed in the University is figured in term-hours, by which is meant the work covered in one recitation, or one laboratory period per week for one term, or equivalent. A term hour is assumed to represent three hours a week for twelve weeks of a student's time, which may be assigned to work in the class-room, laboratory, or outside preparation.

Quantity of Work. In order to be graduated a student must have earned not less than 186 term-hours of credit in the University.

Quality of Work. Of the 186 hours required for graduation at least 140 must have been earned with a grade above V.

The grading system used by the University, groups students in the following classes:

All students who pass are assigned to one of the first five classifications.

I. Unusual excellence.

II. High quality. Classes I and II together constitute approximately the highest fourth or fifth of the class.

III. Satisfactory.

IV. Fair. Grades III and IV constitute from 55 to 65 percent of the class.

V. Passing. Approximately from 15 to 20 per cent of the class.

Inc., incomplete. Quality of work satisfactory, but unfinished for reasons acceptable to the instructor, and additional time granted.

Group Requirements. Each student must complete in the lower division (during the freshman and sophomore years) at least one year-course of not less than three hours each term in any three of the following four groups:

I. a. English (except prescribed work). b. Languages. Foreign language, ancient or modern.

II. Social Science. Including history, economics, political science, philosophy, sociology, education.

III. a. Mathematics, any three courses of lower division work. b. Science, including botany, chemistry, geology, physics, psychology and zoology. Each of these sciences shall include not less than one credit hour a week of laboratory time.

IV. Arts and Technical Training. a. Arts. Drama and the speech arts, fine arts, normal art and household arts, each including not less than one credit hour a week of laboratory or practice time. b. Architecture. In the school of architecture and allied arts, year courses, totalling nine hours. c. Music. d. Accounting.

Major Requirements. Each student must satisfy the requirements of his major department by taking courses in that department as prescribed by his adviser amounting to not less than 36 term hours of which not less than 24 term hours shall be advanced courses of the type described as "upper division," or junior and senior work. This major requirement is waived only in the case of certain rather rigid professional curricula which have been specifically authorized by the faculty.

Degree Requirements. Two year-courses in a foreign language, in addition to that offered for entrance, are required for the degree of B.A., and 36 term-hours in either science or social sciences for the B.S.

Residence. At least 45 term-hours must be earned in residence at the University of Oregon. The remainder of the requisite work is sometimes done through the Extension Division by correspondence, subject to the rule which applies to all students that not more than 60 term-hours earned by correspondence may be applied toward a degree. The 45 term-hours immediately preceding graduation must be earned with the University of Oregon (except in the department of pre-engineering), although not necessarily in residence.

Required Subjects:

Physical Education. All students must take physical education throughout the freshman and sophomore years.

Military Training must be taken by all men during the freshman and sophomore years.

Personal Hygiene must be taken by all women to the extent of three term-hours during the freshman year.

English. One year-course of written English as prescribed by the school or department. This course may not be taken in the freshman year.

Restrictions. Not more than one year (48 term-hours) of law, or of Portland medical work may be applied to any degree other than professional degrees. Not more than six hours of applied music may count toward any degree other than bachelor of music. (Note: This rule refers only to applied music, such as piano, voice, violin, organ, etc., not to theoretical music courses).

STUDENT LIVING

THE HEALTH SERVICE

The University Health Service, which is one of the departments of the School of Physical Education, maintains a dispensary and infirmary for the use of the students of the University. Two full time physicians are employed, and in addition a half time physician acts as medical consultant for women and maintains regular office hours daily in the woman's gymnasium. Five trained nurses and a technician assist in the dispensary and the infirmary.

The Dispensary. The dispensary service is free to all persons connected with the University, except for a small fee for medicine. The dispensary is located in the north side of Friendly hall, the men's hall of residence, with an entrance on the north end of the building.

The Infirmary. The University infirmary provides free care and medical attention for regularly registered students for a limited period of time, with moderate charges for longer service. The infirmary (and dispensary) service does not extend, however, to cases requiring the care of a specialist, or involving major operations or chronic diseases.

Physical Examinations. All students entering the University are required to take a physical examination, before being assigned to the required work in physical education. As far as possible these examinations should be arranged for during the registration week before classes begin. Appointments should be made through the office of the dean of the School of Physical Education.

No student is allowed to compete on any of the athletic teams who has not passed a satisfactory physical examination.

Students found to have physical and organic defects will be assigned to special classes in physical education adapted to their needs and designed to correct the defects wherever possible.

STUDENT WELFARE

The welfare of women students is under the supervision of the dean of women. At the time of registration, all women report to her office in Johnson hall, where a record of their Eugene residence and other needed information is filed. Changes in residence may be made only with the approval of the dean.

HALLS OF RESIDENCE

The University has four halls of residence for students, Friendly hall, used by the men, and Hendricks hall, Susan Campbell hall, and Mary Spiller hall, used by the women.

Friendly Hall, the men's residence hall, is a three-story brick building located on the campus, containing about fifty rooms which furnish accommodations for eighty-five men. The double rooms or suites easily accommodate three men and the small rooms accommodate two men. The dining room has seating capacity for one hundred.

In connection with Friendly hall and served from the same kitchen is a dining room which accommodates men living outside the hall at the same price per week as the board furnished to students living in the halls of residence.

Hendricks Hall and Susan Campbell Hall, the halls of residence for women, are modern three-story fireproof buildings. They contain living rooms furnished in colonial style, rooms for guests, and suites for students, each arranged to accommodate four girls. Each suite includes a study, wardrobe, dressing room, supplied with hot and cold water, and sleeping balcony.

Mary Spiller Hall is also used as a hall of residence for women.

Rates for room and board. Rates for room and board in the halls of residence are as follows:

| Room .....  | $2.00 a week |
| Board ..... | $6.00 a week |

Every effort is made to keep the living expenses as low as is consistent with the price of food and service.

The University reserves the right to change the price of room and board at any time without notice, whenever deemed advisable by the proper authorities.

Applications for Rooms. Rooms in the university halls of residence are reserved as far as possible for freshmen, though enough upper class students are included to help the entering freshmen orient himself during the first year. Applications for the women's halls should be made to the dean of women, Mrs. Virginia Judy Esterly, on a special blank furnished by her office. Applications for rooms in the men's hall should be made to the student adviser, Mr. Dean Walker.

All applications for rooms should be accompanied by a room deposit of $10.00 (checks should be made payable to the Comptroller of the University).

This deposit serves as a general insurance on state property. At the end of the college year the cost of all unnecessary wear and tear, or loss of equipment is charged to this fund and the unexpended balance is returned.

In case there is no space available, or the student is prevented from attending the University, the deposit will be returned.

ROOMS IN PRIVATE FAMILIES

A card catalogue of approved rooming and boarding places in town is assembled each year by the fifteenth of September, and is available for entering students without charge. The room list for girls may be consulted in the office of the dean of women, while that for men is open for use in the Y. M. C. A. hut at the edge of the campus.

The number of rooming and boarding places is fairly large, and students desiring such accommodation usually have no serious trouble in finding good locations. Ordinarily it is not advisable to engage a room before reaching Eugene. The price of rooms varies from about $8 to $25 a month, the good rooms usually ranging in price from $15 to $20. The average price for board and room is about $35.00 a month, while board alone runs from $25 to $27.50 a month.

INVITATIONAL HOUSES

Many of the students live in houses accommodating groups of from twenty to forty persons. These groups are generally designated by Greek letter names or club names and many of them are affiliated with national organizations. Admission to these groups is by invitation only.

These units are under the general supervision of the student living committee of the faculty, which endeavors to secure for them wholesome living conditions, and to protect them from the ills which might come from inexperience, or from attempts at exploitation. The invitational houses co-operate in matters of mutual interest and concern in such organizations as the "Pan-hellenic" and "Inter-fraternity Council."

SELF-SUPPORT

Approximately seventy per cent of the students attending the University are either wholly or in large part earning their own way by work in the summers and during the college year. The work available during the session consists of janitor work, typewriting, reporting, tutoring, waiting on table, clerking, clothes pressing, odd jobs, etc. The Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. conduct free employment bureaus for the students. The University is glad to be of all possible assistance to those desiring to find work. However, it cannot guarantee remunerative employment to all who may desire it, and the newly entering student should have sufficient funds to cover the expenses of at least the first term. In writing regarding employment, address the secretary of the University Y. M. C. A. or Y. W. C. A. Students who expect to earn a part of their expenses while in the University should not register for a full schedule of courses.

FEES

Tuition. Tuition in the academic establishments on the campus at Eugene is free to all residents of the state of Oregon. Non-residents pay a tuition fee of $50.00 each term, or $150 a year, in addition to the $11.25 registration fee per term, making a total of registration fees for non-resident students of $61.25 per term, or $163.75 a year.

Registration Fee. All undergraduate students pay a registration fee of $11.25 each term. This fee covers the membership in the Associated Students, and entitles the student to a ticket which admits him free to all concerts, games, etc., given on the campus during the term.

Graduate School Fee. Graduate students pay a registration fee of $6.00 a term in lieu of the regular registration fee. Members of the instructional staff registering for graduate work pay a registration fee of $3.00 a term. Graduate students are exempt from the non-resident tuition fee.

Law School Fee. In the Law School there is a tuition fee of $10.00 a term in addition to the regular registration fee.

Military Deposit. The military deposit of $10.00 is payable by every student subject to military training.

Departmental Fees. Departmental fees will be paid by students majoring in certain schools and departments instead of the various course fees in those schools or departments. Details will be found in the schedule of courses for the year in the registration manual issued at the beginning of the academic year in September.

Laboratory, Locker and Syllabus Fees. These fees are listed in detail in the schedule of courses listed in the registration manual which is issued at the beginning of the academic year in September. They usually range from $1 to $10 per term, according to the cost of the materials to be consumed, or other charges which have to be covered by them.

Diploma Fee. A diploma fee of $10 is charged for each degree taken. The rules prescribe that no person shall be recommended for a degree until he has paid all dues, including the diploma fee.

Penalty Fees. A late registration fee with cumulative charges for each additional day of tardiness will be charged to all undergraduate students registering on September 29 and thereafter, or after certain stated periods at the beginning of each term. Details can be found in the registration manual.

A change of registration fee of $1 will be charged for each course dropped or added after the year study program is filed in the office of the registrar.

The University reserves the right to change all fees at any time without notice, whenever it shall be deemed advisable by the proper authorities.

STUDENT EXPENSES

The probable living expenses of a resident student in the University may be tabulated for the year as follows:

|  | Low             | Medium          | Liberal         |
| Tuition, entrance and other institutional fees .....       | $ 50.00        | $ 50.00        | $ 50.00        |
| Books and class supplies .....                             | 60.00           | 80.00           | 100.00          |
| Board and room .....                                       | 290.00          | 350.00          | 400.00          |
| Laundry .....  | 20.00           | 40.00           | 50.00           |
| Incidentals, including class dues, church, recreation, etc | 80.00           | 125.00          | 200.00          |
|  | $500.00 | $645.00 | $800.00 |

STUDENT LOAN FUND

Through the generosity of Mr. William M. Ladd, of Portland, Mr. A. S. Roberts, of The Dalles, and the class of 1904, the University loan fund was founded. Although for a number of years the total amount of the fund reached only a little over $500, yet its benefits were large, and through it many students were enabled to complete their college course who otherwise could not have done so. At the beginning of 1909, Senator R. A. Booth, of Eugene, became interested, and through his efforts a number of others, among whom were Mr. Theodore B. Wilcox and Mr. J. C. Ainsworth, of Portland, Mr. John Kelly, of Eugene, Mr. W. B. Ayer, of Portland, classes of 1911 and 1913, the estate of the late D. P. Thompson of Portland, Mrs. Ellen Condon McCornack and Mr. Ben Selling, of Portland, made substantial donations. The University now has the following funds, amounting to $26,694.18.

The General Loan Fund, established by Mr. William M. Ladd, of Portland, Mr. A. S. Roberts, of The Dalles, the class of 1904, Mr. Theodore B. Wilcox of Portland, Mr. W. B. Ayer, of Portland, the class of 1913, Professor Max Handman of the University of Texas, and other donors, amounts to $3251.79.

The Oscar Brun Fund, bequeathed to the University by the late Oscar Brun, now amounts to $1,080.64.

The Ainsworth Loan Fund of $1000, established by Mr. J. C. Ainsworth of Portland, now amounts to $1,660.31.

The Booth Loan Fund of $1500, established by Senator R. A. Booth of Eugene, now amounts to $1,976.08.

The Class of 1911 Loan Fund, established by the class of 1911, now amounts to $290.00.

The Class of 1923 Loan Fund, established by the senior class of that year, now amounts to $220.64.

The Condon Loan Fund of $500, established by Mrs. Ellen Condon McCornack, in memory of her father, the late Dr. Thomas Condon, for many years professor of geology in the University, now amounts to $1,433.54.

The Kelly Loan Fund of $100 established by Mr. John F. Kelly, of Eugene, now amounts to $174.54.

The Fortnightly Loan Fund, established by the Fortnightly club, one of the pioneer women's clubs of Eugene, now amounts to $1,548.65.

The Roberts Loan Fund, established by Mr. A. S. Roberts, of The Dalles, now amounts to $966.25.

The Selling Loan Fund, established by Mr. Ben Selling, of Portland, now amounts to $2,256.49.

The D. P. Thompson Loan Fund of $1000, established by the estate of the late D. P. Thompson of Portland, now amounts to $1,836.25.

The Class of 1896 Loan Fund, established in 1921 at the 25th reunion of the class now amounts to $2,737.50, available for student loans.

The Alice Wheeler Wrisley Loan Fund of $10,000, recently bequeathed to the University by Mrs. Wrisley, will be available for use at an early date.

The A. A. U. W. Loan Fund. The women of the University are eligible also to receive aid from the scholarship loan fund of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, and the scholarship loan fund of the Eugene branch of the American Association of University Women.

Both the Masonic and Eastern Star lodges have set aside definite loan funds which they loan directly to University of Oregon students who are members, or whose parents are members. Information concerning these funds as well as all of the strictly university loan funds may be obtained from the director of loan funds, Mr. Dean Walker.

Applications for loans are made on blanks which may be procured from the director of loan funds, and are considered by a committee consisting of the president of the University, the director of loan funds, the comptroller and the registrar. At present loans are not made before the beginning of the sophomore year. The total amount which is loaned to any one student is limited, and in general every precaution is taken to safeguard against loss. These loans are made at a moderate rate of interest, and the funds available have grown to a point where many deserving applicants have been able to secure loans.

SCHOLARSHIPS

The Mary Spiller Scholarship. The Mary Spiller scholarship, given by the alumnae of the University in memory of Mrs. Mary Spiller, the first woman member of the faculty will not be awarded in 1924-25. The state alumnae association is endeavoring to raise a fund to endow this valuable scholarship for the future. Information concerning it may be obtained from Mrs. Lawrence T. Harris, 1465 Chemeketa street, Salem, Oregon.

Bernard Daly Scholarships for Lake County Students. The Bernard Daly Educational Fund was established by the will of the late Dr. Bernard Daly of Lakeview, Oregon, to be used in educating young men and women of Lake county in the schools, colleges and technical schools of the State of Oregon. The will provides that not less than fifteen students shall be aided each year. Those holding scholarships in the University during 1923-24 were Ralph A. Edmisten, Inez Vivian Harper, Thomas Holder, Emily Houston, Everett Ogle, Cornelia F. Robertson, Theresa B. Robinette, Cecil B. Owsley, Delbert Robinette, and Daisy Witham.

Medicine. The University of Oregon School of Medicine offers annually one full scholarship and two half scholarships. The holder of the full scholarship is exempt from all fees except some incidentals, the total reduction from the regular fees of the session being $120.00 for the first and second years of attendance. The half scholarship carries a reduction of $60.00 for each session in the same way. Two half scholarships cannot be united to make one full scholarship. The scholarships are awarded to graduates of the University of Oregon having a bachelor's degree of not more than three years' standing at entrance to the medical school. The awards are made by a committee of the faculty of the University, subject to approval of the medical faculty. In 1923, four half scholarships were awarded to George H. Adler, Ransom McArthur, Ralph E. Poston, and Ben I. Phillips.

Information concerning scholarships for advanced work in other institutions, either American or foreign, may be obtained from the committee on foreign scholarships.

FOREIGN SCHOLARSHIPS

Students of the University of Oregon who have completed the work of the sophomore year may enter the competition for the Rhodes Scholarships of Oxford University. In 1923 the Rhodes Scholarship for Oregon was won by Arthur Rosebraugh.

PRIZES

The Failing Prize. The Failing prize, not to exceed one hundred and fifty dollars, is the income from a gift of twenty-five hundred dollars made to the University by Hon. Henry Failing of Portland. It is awarded "to that member of the senior class in the classical, scientific or the literary course prescribed by the University, or such courses as may, at the time, be substituted for either of said courses, who shall pronounce the best original oration at the time of his or her graduation."

In 1923 the Failing prize was awarded to Paul Patterson.

The Beekman Prize. The Beekman prize, not to exceed one hundred dollars, is the income of a gift of sixteen hundred dollars made to the University by Hon. C. C. Beekman of Jacksonville. It is awarded under the same conditions as the Failing prize, for the second best oration.

In 1923 the Beekman prize was awarded to F. Kelsey Guilfoil.

The Bennett Prize. The Bennett prize is the income from a gift of four hundred dollars made to the University by Hon. Philo Sherman Bennett of New Haven, Connecticut. It is given for the best student paper on the principles of free government. The annual income is about $20.00. In 1923 the Bennett prize was awarded to Florence Walsh.

The Edison Marshall Short Story Prize. A prize of $50 will be given in 1924 by Edison Marshall for the best original short story written by a student. Prizes of $30 and $15 were given in 1923.

In 1923 the first prize was won by Margaret Skavlan, and the second by Walter E. Kidd.

The Albert Prize. The Albert Prize of $25.00, presented by J. H. Albert of Salem, is awarded at commencement to the senior student who during his college course shall have made the greatest progress toward all around development. The award is made upon the basis of character, scholarship, and qualities of leadership in student activities. In 1923 the Albert prize was won by John MacGregor.

The Koyl Cup. The Koyl cup, presented by Mr. Charles W. Koyl of the class of 1911, for many years secretary of the University Y. M. C. A., is awarded annually by a committee of the faculty to that man of the junior class who is in their judgment the best all-around man. In 1923 the cup was won by Ralph Spearow.

The Gerlinger Cup. The Gerlinger cup, presented by Mrs. G. T. Gerlinger, regent of the University, is awarded under conditions similar to those of the Koyl cup to the best all-around woman of the junior class. In 1923 the cup was won by Miriam Swartz.

Miscellaneous Prizes. Special and occasional prizes are frequently offered, many of them for excellence in some phase of the work of a professional school of the University.

ORGANIZATIONS

The widely varied interests of the University community find expression in a considerable number of organizations designed to foster those interests.

The Young Men's Christian Association and the Young Women's Christian Association occupy buildings on the edge of the campus and employ full-time paid secretaries.

The Newman Club occupies a building on Kincaid street and provides a recreational center for the Catholic students.

The Women's League is an organization of the women of the University supported by the Associated Students and affiliated with the state federation of Women's Clubs.

HONORARY SOCIETIES

Phi Beta Kappa, the national honorary society for the promotion of scholarship was installed in the University of Oregon in 1923. Members of the graduating class of the University who will receive the bachelor of arts or bachelor of science degrees, and who have made high records of scholarship are elected each year.

Sigma Xi, the national honorary society for the encouragement of original investigation in pure and applied science, was installed in the University at the time of the 1923 commencement exercises. Active members are elected from the faculty and students.

PROFESSIONAL, DEPARTMENTAL, AND CLASS SOCIETIES

Class honorary societies include To-Ko-Lo for sophomore men and Kwama for sophomore women, with the Friars, and Mortar Board, for senior men and women respectively.

The Oregon Knights assist at University functions and are made up of one freshman and one sophomore from each men's living organization, two from each underclass group from Friendly hall and the Oregon Club, the president of the freshman class, and three members elected by the freshman class. The Thespians, a similar group of women, assist in the secretarial work of the Associated Students.

The Order of the "O" is made up of men who have won "letters" on University teams.

Other organizations are associated with various departments or schools or with student activities and interests. Some of them are local, many have national charters. Such are the Students' Allied Arts League, and Normal Art and Sculpture Clubs, of the School of Architecture and Arts; Samara, a group of students of botany and bacteriology; Alpha Kappa Psi, Beta Gamma Sigma, Beta Alpha Psi, Pan Xenia, and Chamber of Commerce, for the men of the School of Business Administration, and Phi Theta Kappa for the women of the same school; the Chemists Club; Mask and Buskin chapter of the Associated University Players of those interested in dramatic work, and the Senior and Junior Companies, organizations of the advanced students in the department of drama and the speech arts; Hermian Club, for upperclass women majors in the physical education department; Phi Delta Kappa, a group of men interested in advanced educational work, and Pi Lambda Theta, a similar organization of women; Tau Kappa Alpha, Zeta Kappa Psi, and Pro and Con, forensic organizations for men and for women; the Eutaxian Society for women, the oldest literary society on the campus; the Condon Club, a chapter of the Geological and Mining Society of American Universities; Sigma Delta Chi, and Theta Sigma Phi for men and women respectively in journalism; Delta Theta Phi and Phi Delta Phi, men's law fraternities and Kappa Beta Phi, a similar organization for women; Mu Phi Epsilon, a musical organization for women and Phi Mu Alpha, for men; Nu Sigma Nu, Alpha Kappa Kappa, Phi Chi, Kappa Psi, and Alpha Epsilon Iota, organizations of medical students; Sigma Delta Pi for students of Spanish, El Circulo Castellano, and Le Foyer Francais; Pot and Quill, Sigma Upsilon, and Hammer and Coffin, organizations of women and men interested in writing; the Ad Club, which is composed of men interested in advertising; and the Home Economics Club.

Other types of organizations are Crossroads, an organization of students and faculty; the Dial, the Forum, and Agora, for the discussion of topics of general and timely interest; the Cosmopolitan Club; Varsity Philippinensis; The Oregon Club, designed to give the advantages of social organization to students who live outside of the residential houses; Tre Nu, a group of self supporting women; California and Washington Clubs.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Membership in the Alumni Association is open to all persons who have completed work for credit in the University. The control of the Association is vested in the annual alumni meeting held at commencement time. Alumni dues, which include subscription to "Old Oregon," the official magazine, are $2.00 a year. Life memberships are $25.00. The officers of the association are elected annually at commencement; those for 1923-24 are:

ROBERT B. KUYKENDALL, '13, (Portland) .....President
 MRS. R. S. BRYSON, '99, (Eugene) .....Vice-President
 GRACE EDGINGTON, '16, (Eugene) .....Secretary-Treasurer

STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The Associated Students. The body of undergraduate students is organized under the name of the Associated Students, the officers of which are elected each spring. In 1923, Claude Robinson was elected president.

Two major committees, the executive council and the student council, have general supervision over the interests of the organization. The executive council which includes the president of the University and representatives of the faculty and alumni as well as the student body, has control over student body activities, being assisted in its control by sub-committees whose membership consists partly of members of the executive committee and partly of outside members. These committees are the athletic committee, the publication committee, the woman's committee, the forensic committee, and the music committee. The object of these committees is to keep close supervision over these activities, and to make recommendations to the executive committee.

The athletic committee supervises inter-collegiate and intra-mural athletics, working in cooperation with the School of Physical Education. The publications committee has the supervision of the Emerald, the Oregana, and other minor publications on the campus, working with the School of Journalism. The woman's committee supervises the Women's League, the activities of women's athletics, etc. The forensic committee has the supervision of debate and oratory for both men and women, in cooperation with the department of English. The music committee supervises the glee clubs, both men's and women's, the University orchestra, the concert series and the artist concert series, with the assistance of the School of Music.

The Student Council elected at the annual elections in May, acts as an intermediary between the faculty and the students, and in general has charge of matters which concern the welfare of the student body.

The University Co-op is a co-operative store organized by faculty and students, which furnishes text books and supplies used by the University students. The payment of one dollar makes one a stock holder and entitles him to a dividend at the end of the academic year. It is conveniently located adjacent to the campus.

PUBLICATIONS

The University of Oregon Bulletin is published monthly, except during the summer vacation. Under this are included the general catalogue and announcements of the various schools and colleges of the University.

The Extension Monitor is published by the extension division for distribution among the correspondence students.

The Oregon Leaflet Series appear at regular intervals and contain miscellaneous informational matter.

Oregon Exchanges is a monthly publication of the School of Journalism. It is made up of articles and news items of interest to the newspapermen of the state.

The Commonwealth Review is issued quarterly as the publication agency of the community and commonwealth service movement instituted under the auspices of the University of Oregon.

The University of Oregon Publications is a series of scholarly contributions from the various departments of the University.

The University News Bulletin is a page of news items sent about twice a month to the newspapers of Oregon, in an effort to carry to the people through the public press such information about the University as will be of interest.

The Oregon Emerald is published six times a week during the college year by the student body of the University. The paper is devoted to general college news, and aims to keep the students and faculty posted concerning the every-day happenings at the University and neighboring institutions. The staff consists of an editor and a business manager, with a large corps of assistants. The editor is elected in May of each year, serving a one-year term. The assistants are appointed by the editor and the manager.

Old Oregon, the official organ of the Alumni Association, is issued nine times a year, with an average circulation of about five thousand copies. It attempts to interpret the present campus to the alumni body, and, incidentally, to interpret the alumni to the students of the University. The latter field is attempted because there is no other university magazine, and the campus field is covered by the addition of special departments of general interest to the students.

The Oregana is published annually by the Associated Students. It is a book of 400 pages, and from 700 to 1000 copies are issued. Its object is to present the life of the University from the student viewpoint, and to that end it includes stories of University life, cuts of buildings and grounds, drawings, campus scenes, class and organization photographs and records. The editors are chosen from the junior class.

The graduate council has general oversight of the work of the Graduate School, which includes all of the departments and schools of the University which offer work leading to the degrees of master of arts or science and doctor of philosophy.

ADMISSION

Graduates of standard colleges and universities are admitted to the Graduate School by the registrar upon presentation of an official transcript of credits earned in the institution from which they obtained their bachelor's degree. But admission to candidacy to an advanced degree is determined upon the merits of each individual case after a preliminary examination given by the major department.

Graduates of other than standard colleges and universities are advised to obtain a bachelor's degree from a standard institution, before proceeding to graduate work. Exceptions to this rule are made only by action of the graduate council after consideration of the individual case, and then only in the case of graduates of institutions closely approaching standardization. Such exceptions are always admitted conditionally.

Graduates of standard colleges and universities who desire to take additional work either of graduate or undergraduate character, without seeking an advanced degree may be admitted to the Graduate School, and enjoy the privileges and exemptions of that school.

DEGREES GRANTED

The following advanced degrees are offered in the Graduate School: master of arts, master of science, and, in certain departments, doctor of philosophy.

CANDIDACY FOR ADVANCED DEGREES

After a student has satisfied the heads of the major and minor departments that he is competent and is prepared to proceed to an advanced degree, application for formal candidacy may be made to the graduate council. The heads of the major and the minor departments may at their discretion require more than the minimum residence or more than the minimum amount of work when such is necessary to prepare the candidate properly for the degree.

*Leave of absence, 1924-25.

Detailed description of the requirements for advanced degrees will be found in the bulletin of the Graduate School which may be had on application to the registrar of the University.

THE MASTER'S DEGREE

The master's degree requires 45 term-hours of graduate work constituting a coherent program, based upon adequate preparation. Approximately 30 hours of this work is taken in the major and 15 hours in the minor department.

A year's residence is required except that students attending the summer sessions may fulfill this requirement by attending sessions aggregating not less than 18 weeks, with a total of 27 hours of credit, doing the remainder of their work through the extension division.

In case the student has received his first degree from an institution whose rating is below that of a standard college, or his specific preparation in either his major or his minor subject is less than that necessary for bona fide graduate work, he will be expected to take the necessary undergraduate courses without graduate credit. In such cases, or where the student has other demands upon his time and energies more than one year may be necessary.

The student must present an acceptable thesis and pass an oral examination before a committee of the faculty.

THE DOCTOR'S DEGREE

The degree of doctor of philosophy may be earned in the departments of education, history, physics, psychology and zoology.

The minimum amount of work for an adequately prepared student is three full years beyond the bachelor's degree. However, the degree of doctor of philosophy is based upon attainments and proven ability, and does not rest on any computation of time or any enumeration of courses, although no student may receive the degree until he has fulfilled the requirements of residence and study for the prescribed periods.

At least two full years must have been devoted to resident graduate study beyond the master's degree in some institution of recognized graduate standing. At least one full academic year, usually the last year, must have been spent in resident graduate work at the University of Oregon. But on the other hand it is not the policy of the University to grant the doctor's degree to any student whose academic training, both undergraduate and graduate, has been exclusively in this University.

A student working for the doctor's degree registers for one major and one or two minor subjects. Approximately 60 per cent of his time is to be devoted to his major subject, including the thesis, and 40 per cent to the minor subjects.

Before a formal acceptance as candidate for the degree the student must pass an examination showing a sufficient reading knowledge of French and German, and must have been in residence for a time sufficient to demonstrate that he has the requisite scholarly foundation and the intellectual characteristics requisite for productive scholarship. This acceptance should normally come about one academic year before the time for the conferring of the degree.

The candidate must present a thesis embodying the results of his own original investigations. The general field, and if possible the subject of this research should be selected and such preliminary investigation of the field made as will justify an expectation of its fruitfulness before and as one of the grounds of the promotion to candidacy. The thesis, if approved, shall be printed in such form as the graduate council shall approve, and not less than fifty copies shall be deposited in the University library. The degree shall not actually be conferred nor the diploma delivered until these copies have been deposited, or a sufficient financial guarantee made to ensure their printing and delivery.

The candidate must submit to an oral examination of three hours duration before a committee of not less than five, appointed by the graduate council on the nomination of the head of the major department. At least one member of this committee shall be some person of high standing in this major department, usually from some other institution of recognized graduate standing, if the attendance of such can be secured. This examination shall include both an examination upon the research work of the candidate, based upon his thesis, and upon his attainments in his major and minor subjects.

THE SUMMER SESSION

The University regularly offers a considerable number of graduate courses at each summer session. It is intended to offer these in such sequence that a student can pursue a coherent course for a series of summer sessions. Students of some advancement and ability who can work with a fair degree of independence may remain for an additional period of summer work after the regular session. Ordinarily, arrangements can be made which will ensure the student regular conference periods with the instructor in charge of his work.

GRADUATE WORK IN PROFESSIONAL SCHOOLS WORK FOR ACADEMIC DEGREES

In the professional schools the courses of which do not appear in the regular offerings of the Graduate School, certain courses are recognized as appropriate material toward the M. A. and the M. S. The student from advanced technical courses who desires to proceed with some phase of research and specialization in his field in distinction from the required professional competency, may register in the Graduate School, and such work is recognized as acceptable in meeting the requirements for the academic master's degree.

WORK FOR PROFESSIONAL DEGREES

In some of the professional schools of the University, certain work of graduate character is given toward professional or technical degrees, as well as toward the academic master's degrees which may be obtained through the Graduate School. The School of Architecture has a five year course leading to the degree of bachelor of architecture; the School of Business Administration gives the degree of master of business administration for graduate work of a special professional character; while the School of Law and the School of Medicine offer the doctor of jurisprudence and doctor of medicine degrees for advanced technical work in their respective fields. Information concerning these degrees may be obtained from the deans of the schools concerned.

GRADUATE ASSISTANTS

The University has established graduate assistantships of two ranks; teaching fellows, and graduate assistants. These are open in many of the departments and schools, to graduate students taking their major work in those departments or schools. The assistantships ordinarily pay $500.00 per year on first appointment, and are subject to an increase to $600.00 on reappointment while the teaching fellowships range upward from $700.00, according to the requirements and the preparation and ability of the applicant. Other minor positions, as readers or assistants, are also open to graduate students. Graduate students employed in such instructional work have the benefit of a reduction in their fees.

The duties of a full time graduate assistantship will require a maximum of from sixteen to twenty hours per week of the student's time, and hence the graduate council recommends that such full time assistants whose duties consist of instructional or other work not contributing directly towards their degree should not register for more than eight hours work each term, and does not permit them to carry over ten hours. Such students are strongly urged to seek reappointment, and to take two full years of work for their master's degree.

Those interested in securing such positions should correspond either with the dean of the Graduate School, or directly with the head of the department in which they expect to work.

GRADUATE BULLETIN

Further information concerning the Graduate School with a description of the courses offered for graduate credit may be found in the Graduate School bulletin, published by the University.

THE COLLEGE OF LITERATURE, SCIENCE AND THE ARTS

The College of Literature, Science, and the Arts is comprised of the following twenty-two departments:

|                           |                         |
|---------------------------|-------------------------|
| Botany and Bacteriology   | Mathematics             |
| Chemistry                 | Mechanics and Astronomy |
| Drama and the Speech Arts | Medicine                |
| Economics                 | Military Science        |
| English                   | Philosophy              |
| Geology                   | Physics                 |
| Germanic Languages        | Political Science       |
| Household Arts            | Romance Languages       |
| Latin                     | Zoology                 |

Students registering in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts must choose a major in some one of the above departments, and proceed through a four-year course of study to the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science.

The departments of the college also contain numerous service courses in liberal arts subjects for the use not only of their own major students but of those in other departments and in the professional schools. Full details as to each course of study will be found under the appropriate department heading.

The twenty-two departments of the college thus include the pure sciences, the literatures and the ancient and modern languages, philosophy, the social sciences, the drama, and in general those branches that represent the traditional seats of culture and the foundations of technical science.

Departmental Announcements

Numbers between 1 and 99 indicate courses intended primarily for lower division students, those between 100 and 199 indicate courses intended primarily for upper division students, although many of this group may be taken for graduate credit, while those numbered 200 and above are exclusively graduate courses.

Courses numbered a, b, c, represent year courses.

The "norm" referred to in the curricula is a minor subject which the student will prepare to teach. See section under the School of Education.

Laboratory and other fees in connection with the courses are given in detail in the schedule of courses published at the beginning of the academic year.

Not all the courses here listed are offered in any one year, although practically all the lower division courses and many of the upper division are so given. The work presented will however be open to the student during a reasonable period of residence.

In the curricula of the various departments the totals signify the maximum and minimum amount of work to be carried by the student electing each curriculum.

ART

The courses in fine arts and normal arts are described in the section under the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

BIOLOGY

See botany and zoology.

BOTANY

Professor SWEETSER, Miss SANBORN,* Miss TAYLOR.
Graduate Assistant, Mr. PRESCOTT

The four-year course of study in botany is intended for students interested in botany as a pure science and for those who in addition intend to teach botany among other subjects in high schools. The course of study contains prescriptions in physics, psychology, geology, and chemistry also, to the end that botany majors may be prepared to teach general science. Majors not intending to teach may take electives instead of the pedagogy courses listed.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

LOWER DIVISION

1-2-3. General Botany. 1. A study of the cell, its structure, function and relation to heredity. An investigation of life processes as exemplified in algae, fungi and lichens, and their economic importance. 2. A further study of life processes in the mosses and ferns, their classification and economic importance. 3. The habits, physiology, methods of reproduction, ecological relations, economic value and classification of the flowering plants. Students may enter this course any term. Three lectures and one laboratory period. Sweetser and Taylor. Four hours, each term.

8. Systematic Botany. The classification of as many plant forms as possible. Two lectures and one laboratory period a week. Sweetser and Sanborn. (Not given 1924-25.) Three hours, fall term.

9. Field and Systematic Botany. Analysis and classification of spring plant forms. Sweetser and Sanborn. Three hours, spring term.

UPPER DIVISION

101-102-103. Plant Histology. A study of plant tissues. The technique of killing, embedding, sectioning, staining, and mounting of plant tissues. Sanborn. Four hours, each term.

104. Medical and Economic Botany. Plants used in medicine and the powdered drugs made from them. Plants used for food and in the arts. Sweetser. Three hours, winter term.

*Leave of absence, 1924-25.

105. Plant Physiology. A study of life phenomena as manifested in the plant. Prerequisites, general botany. Lectures and laboratory. Sweetser. Three hours, fall term.

106. Bacteriology. Two lectures and two laboratory periods a week. Prerequisite, general chemistry. Sweetser and Sanborn. Four hours, winter term.

107. Bacteriology. Continuation of Bacteriology 106. Two lectures and two laboratory periods a week. Four hours, spring term.

108. Sanitation. The study of diseases, their causes and prevention; pure food, pure water, pure milk. Desirable as prerequisite for Botany 106. Sweetser. Three hours, fall term.

110. Botanical Problem. The taxonomy, ecology, physiology, or economy of some group or groups of plants. Hours and credit to be arranged.

111. Research. Thesis. Hours and credit to be arranged.

112. Pedagogy. Practical study of methods of instruction in botany. Sweetser. Three hours, winter term.

113-114-115. Seminar. One hour, each term.

116. Advanced Laboratory. Work in bacteriology. A continuation of Courses 106 and 107. Two laboratory periods. Two hours, any term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

213. Research. Botanical problem.

214. Research. Bacteriological problem.

215. Graduate Seminar.

CHEMISTRY

Professors STAFFORD, SHINN;
Associate Professor WILLIAMS; Assistant Professor TANNER;
Graduate Assistants: Mr. DEMING, Mr. JONES, Mr. REED

Students who major in chemistry are required under the following prescribed course of study to take a minimum of 60 hours in the department in addition to reinforcing work in pure science departments.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

NOTE: Prerequisites for advanced work in chemistry. Students making an average grade lower than IV in any course in chemistry may be refused admission to subsequent courses until by an approved amount of additional work of satisfactory character the fitness of the student to engage in advanced work is established. This rule is to apply particularly to students seeking entrance to organic chemistry after one year's work in general chemistry.

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. General Chemistry. An introduction to the study of chemistry for students of college grade. A previous elementary course in chemistry or physics is pre-requisite, as is also facility in the solution of problems in simple proportion and use of the metric system. Three lectures, one quiz, and one laboratory period. Stafford and Tanner.

Five hours, each term.

2a,b,c. Elementary Chemistry. A briefer course introductory to the study of chemistry. Not open to majors in chemistry, medicine or zoology for whom course 1 is prescribed. Pre-requisites as in course 1. Three lectures and one laboratory period. Stafford and Tanner.

Four hours, each term.

3-4-5. Analytical Chemistry. The first term is devoted to qualitative analysis; the second to gravimetric quantitative analysis; the third term to volumetric quantitative analysis. One lecture and three laboratory periods per week. Pre-requisite, course 1 or 2. Shinn.

Four hours, each term.

6. Continuation Course. The transition from the one-year course in general chemistry to the two-term course in organic chemistry presents difficulties to many students. The purpose of the present course is to make this transition an easier one while at the same time enough laboratory work in chemical analysis is included to give students of medicine and biology, particularly, some facility with fundamental analytical methods most useful to them. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Shinn.

Four hours, fall term.

7. Physical Chemistry for Medical Students. A non-mathematical presentation of selected fundamentals of particular interest to medical students. Two years of college chemistry pre-requisite. Shinn.

Four hours, fall term.

8a,b. Organic Chemistry for Medical Students. Pre-requisite course 1. Three lectures and one laboratory period. Williams.

Four hours, winter and spring terms.

10. Chemistry and its Relationships. A short course indicating the content of the field of chemistry together with portrayal of its problems, its achievements, and the broad relationships of these to human interests. The treatment is non-technical, the purpose of the course being to give to those desiring it an appreciation of the work of the chemist without undertaking the task of imparting a working knowledge of the subject. The chemistry staff. Two hours, spring term.

UPPER DIVISION

105a,b,c. Organic Chemistry. Three lectures and one laboratory period. Credit will not be given for less than two terms of work. Williams. Four hours, each term.

106-107-108. Advanced Inorganic Chemistry. The subject is treated largely from the point of view of the periodic table, the chemistry of the rarer elements being emphasized especially. Two lectures per week. Tanner. Two hours, each term.

109-110-111. Advanced Inorganic Laboratory. Tanner. Hours to be arranged.

112-113-114. Advanced Analytical Chemistry. Work in special lines may be chosen by the student. Shinn. Hours to be arranged.

116a,b,c. Physical Chemistry. Three lectures and one laboratory period. Stafford. Four hours, each term.

118. Advanced Physical Chemistry. Special topics to be determined by the interests of those enrolling. Hours to be arranged.

120. Advanced Organic Chemistry. Topical detailed treatment of tautomerism, directed valence forces, stereochemistry of benzene and the sugars, constitution of the proteins, enzyme action, etc. Williams. Three hours, fall term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201-202-203. Research and Thesis Laboratory. Hours to be arranged.

204-205-206. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

220-221-222. Seminar. The staff. One hour.

DRAMA AND THE SPEECH ARTS

Professor REDDIE; Miss BANFIELD.

This department offers specialized training as follows:

(a) To those who desire the work for its cultural value.
(b) To students who plan to supervise and direct similar work in high schools or colleges; who, as community organizers, will find a knowledge of the work an essential.

(c) To those looking toward a professional career who desire the benefits of a university training, while studying their chosen work.

NOTE: Students must have satisfied the University requirement of one year of written English through short story, playwriting, or some other accepted course. This course may be taken in the senior year.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

LOWER DIVISION

1. Voice and Expression. A practical training in pronunciation, enunciation, platform manner, the fundamentals of free expression, the elimination of mannerisms, restraints and self-consciousness. Voice production and analysis. Three hours class work for two hours of credit.

Two hours, any term.

2a,b,c. First-year Dramatic Company. Open to majors in the department. Character study, pantomime, make-up, and interpretation. Preparatory to 51. Three hours, each term.

51-52-53. Second-year Dramatic Company. Open to those who have passed course 2a,b,c with a grade of III or over, or by examination. Advanced character study, stage technique, make-up, and stagecraft. Students in this course are eligible for small parts in the public performances, and engage in the making of properties, the decoration and handling of scenery, and in stage management. First term, properties and make-up; second term, general stagecraft; third term, technique of acting. Banfield and assistants. Four hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

151-152-153. Third-year Dramatic Company. Open to junior students who have passed 51-52-53 with a grade of III or over, or upon examination. The entire work of this class is devoted to the rehearsal and production of plays, the best of which are given public presentation. A service course for those who may be called upon to organize dramatic work and to produce plays, etc. Students in this course are eligible for the secondary parts in the public performances given by the members of 161-162-163. Banfield. Five hours, each term.

154-155. Technique of the Speaking Voice. A service course in tone production with cultural spoken English as its goal. Anatomy of the speech producing organs and the resonating cavities, and their relation to the properties of vocal sound. Enunciation and pronunciation especially stressed. Prerequisite: consent of the instructors. Reddie, Banfield. Three hours, fall and winter terms.

156. Dramatization. The arrangement of literary material for dramatic production; the organization of data, etc., for use in pageants, community celebrations and festivals. Reddie. Three hours, spring term.

161-162-163. The Company. (Fourth year). Open to seniors who have passed 151-152-153 with a grade of III or over. This is the operative class in the acted drama, the members of the group being regularly engaged in the rehearsal and production of plays. Reddie. Five hours, each term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201-202-203. Interpretation of Shakespeare. For graduate students or qualified seniors. Especial emphasis is placed upon tonal quality and rhythm of action in their relation to the subject matter, as well as the value of color and form in background and costume as indispensable assets in the translation of poetic ideals to the audience mind. Three hours, each term.

204. Advanced Technique of the Speaking Voice. Graduate standing, with course 154-155 parallel or prerequisite. Class limited in number. Three hours, spring term.

205-206-207. Seminar. For graduate students, or seniors who have maintained a grade of I in this department for one year prior to registration in this course. Two hours, each term.

ECONOMICS

Professors GILBERT, CROCKATT; Assistant Professors CAMERON, ROLAND MILLER.

The department of economics offers two curricula, one intended to give general training in economics, the other special training for public service in connection with state and federal bureaus and commissions, boards of control, etc. Major students in economics are expected to adhere strictly to one or the other of these courses.

LOWER DIVISION

1. Economic History. The evolution of economic institutions from their simpler forms to the more complex systems of our own time. Forms of land tenure, systems of labor, the guilds, the industrial revolution, the growth of the factory system, the evolution of banking, improvement of transportation and the emergence of labor problems and those connected with large scale production. Cameron. Five hours, any term.

3a,b. The Principles of Economics. The principles that underlie production, exchange and distribution. Practical problems like monetary and banking reform, regulation of international trade, the taxation of land values, labor movement, regulation of railways, the control of the trusts, etc., are considered. Pre-requisite sophomore standing. Gilbert. Four hours, two terms.

4. Economics of Business Organization. The evolution of business units such as the partnership, joint stock concern, and the corporation. Special attention to the organization, financing, and promotion of corporations and the advantages and disadvantages of the corporate form of organization from the standpoint of industrial society. Pre-requisite course 3a and 3b. Cameron. Five hours, spring term.

UPPER DIVISION

105. Labor Problems. Treats of the conditions under which laborers work since the advent of the industrial revolution. Topics especially emphasized are: child labor, immigration, strikes and lockouts, industrial arbitration, social insurance, remedial legislation, etc. Open to students who have studied the principles of economics or the principles of sociology. Roland Miller. Four hours, spring term.

106. Organized Labor. Study of the history of the labor movement, the aims, methods and policies of trade unions, conservative and radical. Students are required to interpret the philosophy of unionism and evaluate the significance of the labor movement. Prerequisite, 105. Roland Miller. Four hours, fall term.

107. Labor Legislation. A detailed study of some problems facing the employee, employer and the public, which call for regulation through public authority. The course considers how far such legislation is consistent with the interests of all classes concerned. Roland Miller. Four hours, winter term.

108. Modern Theories of Social Reform. A combined lecture and problem course. Lectures present various suggested theories and show their relation to the labor movement. Appropriate problems are assigned involving considerable research on the part of the student. Prerequisites, Economics 105 and 106 or 107. Roland Miller. Four hours, spring term.

113. Money, Banking and Economic Crises. The principles of money, the laws controlling its value, methods for measuring price levels and devices for stabilizing the purchasing power. The monetary history of the United States and the present monetary system. Principles underlying sound banking and the use of credit with the history, causes and remedies for crises and panics. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. Gilbert. Five hours, spring term.

115a,b,c. History of Economic Thought. The evolution of economic doctrines from the Greek and Roman period to the more advanced ideas of today, and the relation to contemporary economic conditions. Special attention is given to the classical school and the transmission and criticism of their theories by subsequent writers. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. Cameron. Three hours, each term.

118a,b. Public Finance. The aim of this course is to ascertain sound principles affecting public expenditure, the raising of revenue, budgetary legislation, financial organization and the use of the public credit. Various forms of taxes and a constructive plan for fiscal reform. Special consideration given to Oregon problems. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. No credit for one term. Gilbert. Four hours, fall and winter terms.

123. Modern Industrial Tendencies. Recent changes affecting the organization of big business, and the economic influences, as well as the limits of the movement toward concentration and integration in the industrial world. Cameron. Five hours, fall term.

124. Public Utilities. Sound lines of policy in regulating, controlling or owning natural monopolies or public utilities other than steam railways. Municipal ownership in America and Europe and the economic and political problems incidental thereto. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. Cameron. Five hours, spring term.

125. Trusts and Industrial Combinations. The evolution of industrial combinations, the economics of concentration and the evils of combination from the standpoint of investor and the public. The attempts at regulation by state and federal authority and plans for safeguarding the public interest. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. Cameron. Five hours, winter term.

135. Railway Economics. The study of transportation by land as a factor in modern economic life, the tendency toward combination and the problems of discriminating rates. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. Four hours, fall term.

136. Water Transportation. A study of the transportation agencies by water in both the domestic and foreign trade. The evolution, services and organization of these carriers are studied and the contrast with and the relationships to the railways are especially emphasized. Particular attention is given to the problems of combination and competition, the history and effect of subsidies and forms of indirect aid by governments. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. Crockatt. Four hours, winter term.

137. Control of Carriers. The characteristics which determine whether a carrier is a common carrier or not are first taken up, after which a close study is made of the problems of regulation of rates, combinations and monopolies, relations between rail and water carriers, obtaining and use made of capital, relations of carriers to labor. Special attention is given to the work of the Interstate Commerce Commission and United States Shipping Board, and other government boards dealing with the problems of regulations. Prerequisites, Principles of Economics, and 135 and 136. Crockatt. Four hours, spring term.

138a,b. Traffic Problems. An intensive study of railway traffic management, industrial traffic management, and railway commission rules. A close study of both passenger and freight traffic is made and the problems of rate construction, application, and effects on traffic are studied from the standpoint of the railroad and the industrial concern. The actual rules of railway regulatory bodies as they affect traffic problems receive close attention. Prerequisites, Principles of Economics, 135, 136, and 137. Crockatt. Three hours, fall and winter terms.

141. Conservation of National Resources. An inventory of our resources in mineral wealth, water, soil, timber, etc., is taken and practices which lead to waste and extravagances considered. Discussion of sound lines of public policy which will arrest needless waste, promote restoration and encourage conservation. Prerequisite, Principles of Economics. Gilbert. Three hours, spring term.

152. Public Utility and Trade Commissions. This course aims to consider the evolution of our modern system of regulation through public commissions, their procedure and their problems. Special attention will be given to the federal trade commission and its rulings on unfair competition. Prerequisites, courses 123, 124, 125. Cameron. Four hours, fall term.

153. Railway Commissions. This course aims to consider railway commissions, state and federal, especially with reference to organization, power and achievements. Prerequisite courses, 134, 135. Crockatt. Four hours, winter term.

PRE-LIBRARY

The University of Oregon does not at the present time (exception in the summer session) offer courses in library training. Those planning to become librarians should, however, have a broad general education in addition to the technical training for the largest success in librarianship. For students planning to take a library school course after leaving the University, the following curriculum will be suggestive and give an adequate preparation for the specialized library training.

The well qualified librarian should have a reading knowledge of Latin and French and one other European language. If French is presented for entrance, Latin should be taken in the first three years of the course, with the second foreign language for the last two years.

The use of the typewriter by the touch system should be learned, preferably in high school, by all persons planning to go into library work.

183a,b,c. Shaftesbury and the Romantic Revolt. Shaftesbury's relation to English and continental writers of the romantic movement, in particular to Rousseau, Diderot, Wordsworth, and Shelley. Given alternately with English drama. Ernst.
Three hours, each term.

185-186-187. The English Novel. From Richardson and Fielding to the present. Watson.
Three hours, each term.

190, 191, 192. English Prose Writers. Nineteenth century writers who are not novelists. DeQuincey, Hazlitt, Lamb, Carlyle, Mill, Huxley, Arnold, Pater. Watson.
Three hours, each term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201. Survey of the English Critics. Required of candidates for the master's degree who major in English. Howe. Three hours, each term.

205. Seminar. Grouped research problems. Howe.

210-211-212. Philosophical Foundations of English Literature. Bacon, Hobbes, Locke, Berkeley, Hume, the deists, the economists, the evolutionists, the utilitarians, and the pragmatists. Watson. Three hours, each term.

WRITTEN ENGLISH

LOWER DIVISION

50a,b,c. Report Writing. A service course, to be given in segregated sections, as far as possible, for English majors, history majors, science majors, in which they may be given instruction and correction in writing papers, book reviews, etc., in their respective fields of study.
Two hours, each term.

51-52-53. Magazine Writing. Based on study of current literary magazines. Alternates with 101-102-103.
Two hours, each term.

54-55-56. Narration and Exposition. Practice in narrative and expository writing.
Three hours, each term.

57a,b,c. Short Story Writing. This course is designed to develop proficiency in the art of writing the short story. Thacher.
Two hours, each term.

58. The Study of Words. The purpose of this course is to aid students in the attempt to acquire a practical vocabulary.
Two hours, spring term.

59a,b,c. Advanced Written English. Work in practical writing, similar in nature to course 50a,b,c.
Three hours, each term.

65a,b,c. Versification. Analysis and practice of the principal metrical forms in English verse.

UPPER DIVISION

101a,b,c. Advanced Magazine Writing. A continuation of Course 51, 52, 53. Given in alternate years with 51, 52, 53. Two hours, each term.

103a,b,c. Advanced Short Story Writing. For those students who, on completing Course 57, show sufficient ability to justify further work. Thacher.
Two hours, each term.

Two hours, each term.

110a,b,c. Playwriting. A laboratory class, with incidental study of models, for creative experiment in the writing of plays. Analysis and class discussion of student work with relation to problems of technique, such as: plot, theme, dialogue, characterization. Three hours, each term.

115a,b,c. Technique of Versification. Advanced work, based on Course 65. Open only to those who have shown some proficiency in verse-writing.
Two hours, each term.

120a,b,c. Criticism. Practice in the writing of musical, dramatic, art, and literary criticism. Two hours, each term.

125a,b,c. Elements of Style. Analysis of strongly marked examples of style, and practice in securing typical stylistic effects. Given in alternate years with seminar in written English. Two hours, each term.

130. Teaching of English Composition. Required of all who expect to teach English. Perkins. Three hours, fall term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

204a,b,c. Seminar in Written English. Special study of written English problems, with attention to rhetorical theory from Plato and Aristotle to the present. Given in alternate years with elements of style 125a,b,c. Two hours, each term.

WRITTEN AND SPOKEN ENGLISH
LOWER DIVISION

75a,b,c. Written and Spoken English. Specially adapted to the needs of students making business administration their major subject, and of others who expect to go into some form of business. Snyder, Demmink. Three hours, each term.

80a,b,c. Pre-Legal English. Spoken and written English designed to meet the needs of law students. The course includes a study of the principles of effective spoken and written composition, with practice in writing and speaking, as specially related to the field of law.

Three hours, each term.

82-83-84. Argumentation. A practical course for debaters.

Three hours, each term.

86. Public Speaking—The Oration. A study of the oration as a special form of address, together with practice and training in writing original orations. Three hours, fall term.

87. Public Speaking—A Study of Masterpieces. A number of the great representative speeches are examined from the point of view of form, style, and content. Parts of these are used for training in delivery. Three hours, winter term.

88. Public Speaking—The Lecture and Other Forms. The lecture and other forms of public or semi-public address, such as college men and women are constantly called on to make, are here studied. Constant practice in the preparation and delivery of original speeches. Three hours, spring term.

89-90-91. Extempore Speaking. The selection, organization and presentation of speech material. Open to freshmen. Two hours, each term.

GEOLOGY

Professors SMITH, PACKARD, HODGE
Graduate Assistant: Mr. HENDON.

The course of study in geology is intended for students desiring to specialize in (1) economic geography and physiography, (2) economic geology, and (3) paleontology; for students desiring geology as a service course looking to the teaching of general science; and for majors in other departments of pure science who need a knowledge of certain geological branches, geology having a wide range of applications.

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b. General Geology. An elementary course dealing with those processes of nature by which the surface of the earth has been built up, deformed, or torn down. A study of the natural history and occurrence of the common rocks and useful minerals. Three lectures and one laboratory or field period. Staff. Four hours, fall and winter terms.

2. Historical Geology. An outline of the geological history of the earth, with special reference to the development of the North American continent. Prerequisites Geology 1a,b, or 3, or 9, or a satisfactory course in high school physiography. Three lectures and one laboratory or field period. Packard. Four hours, spring term.

3. Essentials of Geology. An intensive course in general geology. Lectures cover general discussion of composition and structure of the earth, forces in changing the earth's structure, composition and surface features; and a brief history of the earth. One or more field trips. Three lectures and several laboratory periods. Four hours, spring term.

4. Geology of Oregon. (Given in Portland Center under auspices of the Mazamas). Time to be arranged. Smith and Packard.

Two hours, one term.

8. Geologic History of Man. A study of the physical and cultural development of the ancient types of men, as shown by their fossil remains, their implements and art. Packard. Three hours, fall term.

9. Development and History of Life. A brief discussion of the origin of life upon the earth and an outline of the history of life as revealed by the fossil remains of animals and plants. Packard.

Three hours, winter term.

11-12-13. Geography. (a) Physical; (b) Economic; (c) Regional. A general service course offered as an introduction to the general field of geography. Three lectures and one laboratory. Smith.

Four hours, each term.

17a,b,c. Mineralogy. Lectures covering a description of 120 of the most common minerals, a discussion of their occurrence in nature, their industrial uses, and distribution over the world; combinations of minerals which form rocks. Laboratory work involves a study of the physical and chemical methods used in the identification of minerals and practice in determining unknown minerals. Prerequisite, general chemistry. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Hodge. Four hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

101. Structural Geology. Study of origin, interpretation and mapping of minor rock structures and of joints, faults, and folds. Prerequisites: 1a,b, or 3, and 111. Two lectures and one laboratory or field period. Smith. Three hours, spring term.

102a,b. Non-metallic Mineral Deposits. The geology, uses, and economics of the non-metallic minerals. Coal, oil, building stones, road materials, and fertilizers are stressed. Prerequisites, general geology, mineralogy and stratigraphy. Three lectures and one laboratory. Smith.

Four hours, fall and winter term.

103. Oil Geology. A study of the geologic principles affecting the petroleum industry with a survey of the principal oil fields and a consideration of field methods employed in their development. Prerequisites: general geology and stratigraphy. Three lectures; field trips. Hodge. (Not given 1924-25). Three hours, fall term.

104. Physiography. An advanced course reviewing and elaborating its general principles. Emphasis will be laid upon the physiographic cycle. Prerequisites Geology 1a, b, and 2. Two lectures and one laboratory. Smith. Three hours, fall term.

105. Physiography of the United States. Emphasis will be laid upon the interpretation of the historical and economic development of the various natural regions of the country. Prerequisites: Geology 1a, b, and 2, and 104. Two lectures and one laboratory. Smith.

Three hours, winter term.

106a,b,c. Petrography. The theory of and practice in the use of the petrographic microscope, and an introduction to the texture, structures, and minerals displayed in sliced rocks. Origin, occurrence, association, and uses of the igneous, sedimentary, and metamorphic rocks. Laboratory training in identification, description, and interpretation of rocks. The genesis and field interpretation of sedimentary rocks taken up only briefly. Metamorphism discussed in detail. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Hodge. Four hours, each term.

107. Metallic Ore Deposits. The origin, occurrence, uses, and conservation of metallic ores. Methods of prospecting, developing, and mining briefly treated. Prerequisite 17a,b,c. Three lectures and one laboratory or field trip. Hodge. Four hours, spring term.

108a. Elementary Paleontology. Laboratory and lecture study of the main groups of recent invertebrates and comparison with fossil specimens. Two laboratory and two lecture periods a week. Packard.

108b. Invertebrate Paleontology. Laboratory and lecture study of the most important genera of the invertebrates, with special reference to the characteristic West Coast types. Prerequisite, 108a. Packard.

Four hours, winter term.

109. Vertebrate Paleontology. Study of the osteology and evolutionary history of a few selected groups of vertebrates. Prerequisite, Zoology 1c. Three hours, spring term.

111. Principles of Stratigraphy. The genesis and subsequent history of stratified rocks, including a study of the geologic processes concerned with sedimentation, cementation, diastrophism, and weathering; and the consideration of methods of entombment of organic remains and their significance in geologic correlations. Prerequisites, Geology 1a,b, or 3, and 17a,b,c. Packard. Three hours, spring term.

115. Lithology. A study of the identification and uses of common rocks. Prerequisites Geology 1a,b, or 3 or 17a. Two lectures and two laboratory periods and a field trip. Hodge. Five hours, winter term.

118. Tertiary Faunas. A study of the faunal aspects of the principal West Coast horizons, and the determination of characteristic index fossils.

Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisites: stratigraphy and paleontology. Alternates with 119. Packard. Four hours, spring term.

119. Mesozoic Faunas. A consideration of the character, migrations, and successions of the Mesozoic West Coast faunas, including a laboratory study of typical species from the various horizons. Two lectures and two laboratory periods. Prerequisites: stratigraphy and paleontology. Packard. Not given 1924-25. Four hours, spring term.

120. Geologic History of North America. The geologic development of the North American continent. Prerequisite, 111. Packard. Three hours, fall term.

121. Geologic History of the Pacific Coast. The geologic history of the Pacific Coast of North America. Prerequisite: stratigraphy and paleontology. Packard. Three hours, winter term.

122. Geologic History of Pacific Countries. A study of the broad problems of the Pacific region as a whole and of the countries bordering thereon, with special reference to the islands and the Far East. Prerequisites, 1a,b, and 121. Smith. Three hours, spring term.

128. The Geography of the Pacific. An intensive study of the Pacific region, the physical geography and natural resources, with some attention given to the outstanding social, economic and political questions as influenced by the physical background of the more important countries bordering this ocean. Two-hour lecture, discussion, and collateral reading. Given in Portland 1923-24, Eugene, 1924-25. Smith. Two hours, winter term.

140. Principles of Assaying. Principles of fire assaying, practice in, and the determination of the precious and non-precious metals. (Given 1923 and every alternate year thereafter). Two or four hours, spring term.

146. Applied Geology. The application of geology to irrigation, drainage, river control, harbor improvement, road building, foundation and location of bridges, to buildings, reclamation of waste land, artesian water, water power, tunnels, aqueducts, canals, and all work which depends for its success upon an understanding of the earth's structure and its activities. (Not given 1924-25). Hodge. Three hours.

170. Advanced Field Geology. A general course in geologic mapping and surveying methods and in intensive study of a small area so chosen as to include a wide range of special problems. This work is conducted in a summer camp of four weeks. The course may be taken with full credit for a series of summers, since a different area is studied each season. Staff. Seven hours.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201. Seminar. Open to advanced major students of this and related departments for the consideration of research material and a review of the current technical literature. Staff. One hour, each term.

202. Advanced Geology. Special work assigned to meet the requirements of advanced students. Staff.

208. Advanced Paleontology. Special work assigned to meet the requirements of the advanced student. Packard.

246. Advanced Geography. Research in the physical and economic geography of Oregon and closely related Northwest regions. The investigations will consist largely in intensive studies of the various physiographic regions of Oregon. Prerequisites: general geology and physiography. Special work assigned to meet the needs of individual students. Smith.

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. Elementary German. The elementary course comprises: Vos' Essentials of German (Henry Holt), latest edition; and Huss' German Reader (D. C. Heath); German composition, translation of easy prose and poetry. Schmidt, Thorstenberg. Four hours, each term.

3a,b,c. Second Year German. Grammar, composition and conversation. Translation of standard German authors. Prerequisite, one year of college or two years of high school German. Schmidt, Thorstenberg. Four hours, each term.

4a,b,c. Scientific German. Recommended to students in science or medicine. Students desiring to enter this course should consult the instructor. Thorstenberg. Three hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

101a,b,c. Classical German. Open to students who have had two years of German. Some works of Goethe, Schiller, Lessing, Kleist. Grillparzer, will be read. Prerequisite, two years of college German. Schmidt. Three hours, each term.

102a,b,c. German Fiction and Contemporary Literature. During the year some of the following works will be read: Sudermann's Der Katzensteg; Keller's Kleider Machen Leute; Meyer's Juerg Jenatsch; Wildenbruch's Der Letzte; Riehl's Burg Neideck, Der Fluch der Schoenheit; Frenssen's Joern Uhl, etc. Schmidt. Three hours, each term.

105-106-107. Modern German Drama. Some of the following dramas will be read: Fulda's Der Talisman or Das Verlorene Paradies; Wildenbruch's Harold, Hauptmann's Die Versunkene Glocke; Ernst's Flachs- mann als Erzieher; Sudermann's Johannes or Heimat, etc.

Three hours, each term.

114. German Poetry. Poems of Goethe, Schiller, Uhland, etc., will be read.

Three hours, winter term.

115. Goethe's Faust. Part I with commentary. Schmidt.

Three hours, winter term.

116. Goethe's Faust. Part II with commentary.

Three hours, spring term.

117. Heine. Prose works.

Three hours, fall or winter term.

118. Historical and Philosophical German. The rapid translation of historical, philosophical and economic German. Two hours, spring term.

130. Teaching of Modern Languages. Discussion of methods of teaching German, French and Spanish; examination of texts. Open to juniors and seniors. Required of students who wish to be recommended as teachers of foreign languages. Schmidt. Three hours, spring or fall term.

131a,b,c. Advanced German Composition. Required of all students who wish to teach German. Two hours, each term.

132a,b,c. German Conversation. Open to all students who have had two years of German. No credits allowed unless two terms are taken.

Two hours, each term.

133-134-135. History of German Literature. Lectures in English. Outside reading and papers on assigned topics. No German required. Schmidt.

Two hours, each term.

141-142-143. The Nineteenth Century Novel. Representative works of Freytag, Keller, Meyer, Sudermann, Frenssen, Storm, Riehl, Heyse, Scheffel, Ludwig, Dahn, Ganghofer, Rosegger, Auerbach, Ebner-Eschenbach, Spielhagen, etc. will be included in the course.

GREEK

Dean STRAUB

As Greek is rarely offered in any of the accredited preparatory institutions of this state, and is not included in the high school course of study, it is necessary to offer beginning Greek in the University. In consequence, the drill in Greek grammar is emphasized during the first two years. Students are not advised to take Greek who do not propose continuing it until they have an easy reading knowledge of such prose writers as Thucydides and Herodotus. Majors in Greek are required to have a minimum of 54 term hours of courses in the original. On account of the demand for Greek from students of a theological school in Eugene, several courses in New Testament Greek are offered.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. Beginning Greek. Gleason's Greek Primer; Goodwin's Greek Grammar; The Anabasis of Xenophon (Harper and Wallace), Books I and II. Students must take all three terms to receive credit.

Four hours, each term.

50a,b,c. Xenophon, Homer, and Greek Grammar. Xenophon's Anabasis, Books III, IV, and V; Homer's Iliad, Books I II, III and VI, with readings on the lives and customs of the Homeric period. Thorough knowledge of Greek grammar will be considered necessary to proper translation. Major students should also take 51a,b,c.

Three hours, each term.

51a,b,c. Greek Grammar, Greek Prose and Greek Sight Translation. Completion and review of Goodwin's Greek grammar; continuous practice in Greek prose composition (Jones); easy sight translation.

UPPER DIVISION

100a,b,c. Xenophon and Greek Testament. Xenophon, Book VI; Matthew, Mark, Luke and John; selections from the Septuagint; review of Greek grammar and general study of Hellenistic Greek. This course is intended primarily for students in preparation for the ministry, but is elective for other students in Greek. Students are expected to have had 1a,b,c, 50a,b,c, and 51a,b,c or their full equivalent. Texts: Westcott and Hort's Greek New Testament; Conybeare and Stalk's Selections from the Septuagint (Ginn and Co.).

Four hours each term.

101a,b,c. Homer, Thucydides, and Herodotus. Homer, Odyssey, three books; Thucydides, Books I, II and III; Herodotus, Books VII, VIII and IX; review of Greek grammar; readings on the periods of Greek history covered in the original.

Three hours each term.

102a,b,c. Euripides, Aristophanes, Sophocles. Euripides, Bacchae; Aristophanes, The Wasps; Sophocles, The Antigone; study of Greek comedy and Greek tragedy of the periods covered in the original. Any good text acceptable. Review of Greek grammar.

Two hours, each term.

103a,b,c. Greek Mythology, Art, Life and Literature. This course is elective by majors or non-majors, and is intended to give an insight into the religion, habits and civilization of the Greeks. Texts and readings to be prescribed. Greek majors who elect this course should elect it only in conjunction with a course in original Greek.

Two hours, each term.

150a,b,c. Plato and Aristotle. Plato, The Republic, Books I to X; Aristotle, Ethics, Books I to IV and Book X, chapters 5 to 9. Brief outline of Greek philosophy of the period; students are advised, however, to elect also the course in history of philosophy in the department of philosophy.

Three hours, each term.

151a,b,c. Advanced Greek Prose Composition, Sight Translation and Selected Readings. Passages will be assigned for sight translation from Plato, Herodotus, Plutarch, and Demosthenes. Selected readings from Plato, Thucydides, Demosthenes and Aeschylus.

GRADUATE DIVISION

200a,b,c. Pindar, Theocritus and Aeschylus. Pindar, Olympian and Pythian Odes; Theocritus, Idylls and Epigrams; Aeschylus, Prometheus Bound and Agamemnon; study of Greek elegiac, iambic and lyric poetry.

Three hours, each term.

201a,b,c. Plato. Plato, The Dialogues. An extended reading of the dialogues with a study of their philosophical import.

202a,b,c. The Greek Drama. A reading of numerous plays in the original is expected, and is incidental to a detailed study of the rise, development and genius of the Greek drama.

203a,b,c. The Greek Historians. Students will be expected to know the original throughout of Xenophon, Thucydides and Herodotus. This is essentially a study of Greek history through the documents provided by the Greeks themselves.

HISTORY

Professors R. C. CLARK, SHELDON, WALTER BARNES;
Assistant Professors DONALD BARNES, ANDREW FISH;
Graduate Assistant: Mr. SCHOLL.

The two lower division courses, Modern Europe, and English history, designed for those majoring or minoring in history, are specifically introductory to advanced work in the department and give definite historical training for it. Students should take one of these courses before attempting advanced work.

The course in world history is designed to give a broad view of the achievements of the human race and help the student to discover the direction of his interests and abilities. World history, therefore is designed as a cultural course for students at large, rather than for students having a special interest in history. Senior history majors may well visit the lectures as a review of their college history courses.

European History (3-4-5) is also designed primarily as a three-hour service course for students in other departments.

Prospective teachers seeking a recommendation to teach history in the high school must take at least three full year courses in the department and their work should cover European and American history.

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. World History. A comprehensive and continuous story of the evolution of civilization from the earliest man to the present day, covering all the main lines of human thought and activity in the past. This course is open to students above freshman standing, but is specially designed for sophomores and juniors who are not majoring in history. Sheldon. Four hours, each term.

2a,b,c. World History from Later Middle Ages to Present. Continuation of course given in 1923-24. Subject to same limitations and qualifications as the above. Lectures, quizzes, and text book. Given only 1924-21. Fish. Three hours, each term.

3-4-5. European History. Follows in outline the course of Western European development from the decay of the Roman Empire to the present time. Though chiefly political, the course by no means neglects social and cultural factors. May be entered second or third term at the discretion of the instructor. Open to freshmen. Fish. Three hours, each term.

41, 42a,b. Modern Europe. The history of Europe from the death of Louis XIV to the present. Treats the Old Regime, the spirit of reform, the French revolution, the nineteenth century struggles for nationality and democracy, the colonial expansion of Europe, the World War, and the problems of peace. Economic, social, intellectual, and religious factors will be included. Open to freshmen. May be entered the second term by permission of the instructor, but credit is not given for less than two consecutive terms. Walter Barnes. Four hours, each term.

51. Europe since 1871. The domestic conditions and the socialist movements of the leading countries, the colonial expansion of Europe, the World War and the problems of peace. Designed for students who can find time for only one term of history. Open to freshmen. Walter Barnes. Five hours, spring term.

61-62-63. English History. General survey of English history covering the political and constitutional, the economic and social, the intellectual and religious lines of development. The third term will include a sketch of the growth of the empire. Open to freshmen. May be entered second or third term by permission of the instructor. Donald Barnes. Four hours, each term.

71-72-73. American History. The story of expansion of Europe in America, the struggle for independence of the American Colonies, establishment of a national government, and the history of the United States since 1787. Open to sophomores. Clark. Four hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

100. The Teaching of History. A course designed for major students and others who are preparing to teach history in high schools. Clark. Three hours, fall term.

101, 102, 103. The History of History. A study of the development of the art and science of history writing from the crudest early records to the highly scientific work of today. A correlation is shown between the changing conceptions of the function of written history and changes in the general intellectual outlook. Incidentally the student is introduced to the works of the great historians of the world. Prerequisite, two years of history. Fish. Two hours, each term.

104, 105, 106. Intellectual History. An outline study of the development of ideas from primitive man to the present. Contemporary mental traits are traced to their historical origins. The course serves also as a study of the history of the freedom of thought. Prerequisite, junior standing or instructor's permission. (142a,b,c., is a more intensive study in a limited period.) Fish. Three hours, each term.

107a,b,c. History of Civilization. Lectures with discussion group especially devoted to literature of the subject. Open only to students who have had two consecutive years work in history and are acquainted with the outlines of history. Sheldon. Four hours, each term.

111-112-113. Ancient History. History of Greece; history of Rome. Special attention will be given to the social, economic, and intellectual forces behind the political movements, and to the development of the Roman system of government. Three hours, each term.

121. The Middle Ages. A study of the development of Europe and its civilization from the decline of the Roman Empire to the age of Dante. (Not given 1924-25). Three hours, fall term.

131, 132. The Growth of the National Monarchies. Winter term, the Renaissance; spring term, the Reformation, the Religious Wars, and Louis XIV. This course traces the development from the medieval period of the universal church to the modern period of the independent states, and their rivalry in war, colonial expansion, commerce, culture, and religion, to the eve of the French Revolution. (Not given 1924-25.) Three hours, winter and spring terms.

HOUSEHOLD ARTS

Professor TINGLE; Miss DAVIS;
Graduate Assistant: Miss GURLEY.

Pursuant to a ruling of the board of higher curricula, the work in household arts does not constitute a major department, but offers service work for students whose special line of interest lies in the college or the professional schools. For such students certain home-making groups of courses have been arranged with specialization allowed either on food or the clothing option. A typical sequence of courses in preparation for home-making, which will require only three or four hours a term follows. If only three years are desired, the clothing courses may be omitted, and the course begun at the second year. A two year sequence may be similarly arranged.

FOUR-YEAR HOME-MAKING SEQUENCE

|   | FIRST YEAR | Fall | Winter | Spring |
|---|------------|------|--------|--------|
| Textiles and Clothing .....                     | 3          | 3    | 3      | 3      |
| Color and Line in Clothing .....                | 1          | 1    | 1      |        |
| SECOND YEAR                                     |            |      |        |        |
| Foods and Food Economics or Food Problems ..... | 3          | 3    | 3      |        |
| Food Laboratory .....                           | 1          | 1    | 1      |        |
| THIRD YEAR                                      |            |      |        |        |
| Sanitation (Botany) or Food Economics .....     | 3-4        |      |        |        |
| Home Nursing .....                              |            | 3    |        |        |
| Food for the Sick .....                         |            | 1    |        |        |
| Child Care .....                                |            |      |        | 3-4    |
| FOURTH YEAR                                     |            |      |        |        |
| Nutrition Problems or Food Problems .....       | 3-4        |      |        |        |
| Household Management .....                      |            | 3    |        | 3      |

The head of the household arts department may be chosen by students as adviser, but the major requirement must be fulfilled in some other department.

A combined course in business administration and household arts has been arranged by the department and the School of Business Administration, and may be found under the heading of the school.

First term, study of selection, cost, care, and renovation of household equipment. Practical efficiency problems. Second term, business and administrative problems. Courses in sequence, but may be taken separately. Upper division standing. Staff. Three hours, winter and spring terms.

135. Care of Children. Study of the physical and mental development of children, food and clothing for children from infancy to adolescence, general care and training for family life from the point of view of child welfare. Prerequisite, Home Nursing. Three or four hours, fall term.

175. Home Economics Journalism. A course for journalism majors, elective for upper division students. Prerequisite, Journalism 133, and one upper division course in Household Arts. Tingle, Allen. Two hours, winter or spring terms.

196a,b,c. Selection of Household Furnishings. Study of color and line in household furnishings. Application of art principles in the selection and arrangement of domestic interiors. A brief survey of characteristic period styles. One hour, each term.

197a,b,c. Home Decoration. A study of the history of articles of the home including silverware, pewter, pottery, china, porcelain, domestic and oriental rugs, textiles, period furniture, etc. Application of structural art principles in furnishing, gardens and house plans. Spacing, values and color in interior decoration. Prerequisite, Normal Arts, Design, 91, and Representation. Kerns. Three hours, each term.

HYGIENE

Courses in this subject are described in the section of the School of Physical Education.

ITALIAN

JOURNALISM

For courses in journalism see the section of the School of Journalism.

LATIN

Professor DUNN; Teaching Fellow: Miss KIRRE.

Students who have presented less than two units in Latin for entrance are not permitted to major in the department, and it is strongly urged that intending majors come with at least three and if possible four units of high school Latin. Students who have entered with insufficient Latin and who, accordingly, may not major in the department, may if they wish take the beginning service courses 1a,b,c, with such subsequent courses as are desired. In no case are courses 1a,b,c, and 2a,b,c, counted upon the major. The four year course of study hereafter laid down will equip students for high school teaching in Latin. Majors who do not intend to teach may substitute any electives for the courses in pedagogy.

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. Beginning Latin and Caesar. The year will begin with the First Year Book and close with the reading of two books of Caesar's Gallie War. Four hours, each term.

2a,b,c. Cicero's Orations and Vergil's Aeneid. Students electing this course must have had either two years of Latin in high school or 1a,b,c in the University. The year will be divided between four orations of Cicero and four books of Vergil's Aeneid. Four hours, each term.

21a,b,c. Horace, Vergil and Livy. Horace, Odes, Books I, II, III, and IV; Vergil, Bucolics and Georgics; Livy, Books I, II, and III. Dunn. Three hours, each term.

22a,b. Latin Prose Composition and Sight Translation. Continuous narrative of increasing difficulty for translation into Latin, and readings from Caesar, Cicero, and selected authors for sight work. Work in advanced grammar. Two hours, fall and winter terms.

22c. Plautus, Terence, Martial, Plautus, Trinummus and Menaechemi; Terence, Phormio and Andria; Martial, selected epigrams; lectures on early Roman drama. Two hours, spring term.

51a,b,c. Latin Elegy and Drama. Fragments of Roman Poetry, including Ennius and Naevius; The Augustan Elegy; Seneca's Tragedies. Dunn. Three hours, each term.

52a. Latin Prose Composition and Sight Translation. Two hours, fall term.

52b,c. Ovid, Catullus, Caesar. Ovid, the Fasti; Catullus; Caesar, Civil War, Books I and III. Dunn. Two hours, winter and spring terms.

UPPER DIVISION

101a,b. Cicero, Selected Letters (Watson); Tusculan Disputations; the De Finibus, with lectures on Roman philosophy. Three hours, fall and winter terms.

101c. Latin and Prose Composition and Sight Translation. An advanced course. Three hours, spring term.

102a,b. Horace and Juvenal. Horace, Epistles and Satires; Juvenal, Satires I, III, V, VII, VIII, X, XIII; lectures on the history of Roman satire and on the Roman life that produced it.

Two hours, fall and winter terms.

102c. Tacitus, The Annals. Books III, IV, V, and VI, with lectures on the period. Two hours, spring term.

151a. Latin Prose Composition and Sight Translation. Three hours, fall term.

151b. Roman Life, Mythology and Contributions. Lectures and readings upon the private life of the Romans, our inheritance from the Greco-Roman civilization and upon the myths of Greece and Rome and the Indo-Aryan races in general. Three hours, winter term.

151c. Latin Pedagogy. A laboratory course for prospective teachers of Latin, with a discussion of problems concerned with the authors to be taught; selected illustrative readings. Three hours, spring term.

152a,b,c. The Roman Historians. Livy, The Macedonian Wars; Vel- leius Paternulus, with lectures on the period; Suetonius, The Lives; His- toriae Augustae. Three hours, each term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201a,b,c. History of Latin Literature. Part I (Poetry).

202a,b,c. History of Latin Literature. Part II (Prose).

These courses, offered in alternate years, give a two-years' intensive study of Latin literature, comprising extensive reading in the works of the lesser known authors as well as those familiar through the under- graduate course, together with lectures on their lives and style.

203a,b,c. Roman Philosophy. Lectures covering the chief systems of doctrine prevailing among the Romans will alternate with readings from Cicero's De Officiis and the best portions of Lucretius.

204a,b,c. The Reign of Trajan. Trajan's reign will be studied from Pliny's Letters, from inscriptions, from monumental remains, and other sources.

205a,b,c. The Reign of Nero. Suetonius' Life of Nero and Tacitus' Annals are made the basis of a thorough study of this particular epoch.

LAW

The courses in law are described in the section of the School of Law.

MATHEMATICS

Professors DECOU, MILNE, MCALISTER; Assistant Professor SMAIL;
Graduate Assistants: Miss LESLEY, Mr. RIDDLE.

The courses below are intended to meet the needs of the following groups: first, those students seeking mental discipline through the study of an exact science; second, those desiring a mathematical basis for the study of the natural and applied sciences, as physics, chemistry, astronomy, geology, biology, architecture, engineering; third, those preparing to be teachers of mathematics in high schools; fourth, those desiring to proceed to graduate work in mathematics.

Courses 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8 and 61 are designed as a foundation for work in architecture, business administration and economics.

Major students in other departments wishing to be recommended as teachers of mathematics should take the following mathematics norm: advanced algebra, 4 hours; plane trigonometry, 4 hours; analytical geom- etry, 4 hours; calculus, 8 hours; theory of equations and determinants, 3 hours; teaching and history of mathematics, 3 hours.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

LOWER DIVISION

1. Solid Geometry. Staff. Four hours, one term.
2. Intermediate Algebra. A course based on the elementary algebra of the high school and preparatory to course 3, advanced algebra. Staff. Four hours, fall or winter terms.
3. Advanced Algebra. An elementary course based on three semesters of high school algebra, or course 2. This course is followed in the winter and spring terms by either plane trigonometry, mathematics of finance or elements of statistical methods. Staff. Four hours, any term.

4. Plane Trigonometry. An elementary course open to freshmen. It should be preceded by advanced algebra, and followed by analytical geometry, mathematics of finance or elements of statistical methods. Staff.
Four hours, winter or spring terms.

5. Analytical Geometry. Open to freshmen who have had advanced algebra and plane trigonometry. Staff.
Four hours, fall term.

6. Mathematics of Finance. An elementary treatment of interest, annuities, valuation of bonds, sinking funds, building and loan associations, life insurance, etc. Prerequisite, advanced algebra. Staff.
Four hours, winter or spring term.

7. Elements of Statistical Methods. An elementary course covering the topics of frequency curves, correlation and theory of sampling. Problems chosen from the fields of biology, economics, education and vital statistics, and solved under the direction of the instructor with modern instruments of calculation. Prerequisite, advanced algebra. Milne.
Four hours, spring term.

8a,b,c. Unified Mathematics. Advanced algebra, trigonometry, analytic geometry, and introduction to calculus. An introductory course in college mathematics, especially designed for a continuous year's work, and adapted to the needs of students of widely varying interests. Staff.
Four hours, each term.

61a,b. Differential and Integral Calculus. An introductory course for literary and scientific students. Prerequisite analytical geometry, course 5. Milne.
Four hours, winter and spring term.

UPPER DIVISION

101. Teaching and History of Mathematics. A study of the methods of teaching secondary mathematics; examination and comparison of recent texts as they exemplify these methods, and the humanizing of mathematics teaching through a knowledge of the history of the great men who developed the science. DeCou.
Three hours, spring term.

102a,b,c. Differential and Integral Calculus. A fundamental course laying a thorough foundation for all future work in mathematics and its applications. DeCou.
Four hours, each term.

103a,b. Differential Equations. A practical course in the solution of ordinary and partial differential equations. Prerequisite, course 102 a,b,c, differential and integral calculus. DeCou.
Three hours, winter and spring terms.

104. Higher Algebra. A more advanced and rigorous treatment of the topics of the preceding course in algebra, together with the addition of many new topics. DeCou.
Three hours, one term.

105. Theory of Equations and Determinants. An important course giving the essential principles required in various advanced studies. DeCou. (Not given 1924-25.)
Three hours, one term.

106. Solid Analytical Geometry. An advanced course dealing with surfaces of the second degree and their properties, together with some discussion of surfaces in general. DeCou.
Three hours, one term.

107a,b. Advanced Calculus. An important course rounding out undergraduate study of mathematics. It includes definite integrals, improper integrals, power series, Fourier's series, elliptic functions and other special functions. Applications to physics, mechanics and astronomy receive emphasis. Prerequisite, course 102a,b,c. Milne.
Three hours, winter and spring terms.

108. Analytical Trigonometry. Prerequisite, plane trigonometry. De Cou.
Three hours, one term.

110. Projective Geometry. Prerequisite, analytical geometry and calculus. DeCou. (Not given 1924-25.)
Three hours, one term.

111. Theory of Probability. Course for upperclassmen, presupposing a knowledge of calculus. Milne.
Three hours, fall term.

112. Theory of Statistics. Course for upperclassmen, presupposing a knowledge of calculus. Milne.
Three hours, winter term.

113. Advanced Analytical Geometry. A more advanced treatment of the subject and intended for students of fair mathematical maturity. DeCou.
Three hours, fall term.

115. Introduction to Lie's Theory of Differential Equations. A short course dealing with one parameter groups and their application to the theory of differential equations. Prerequisite, course 103a,b. Milne.
Three hours, fall term.

139. Applied Mathematics. Intended for students of chemistry and physics. A rapid review of differential and integral calculus, with application to problems of physics and chemistry; the development of infinite series; elements of differential equations; Fourier's theorem; theory of probability and adjustment of errors; calculus of variations. A course in calculus should precede this course. Hours to be determined. McAlister.
Three hours, two terms.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201a,b,c. Theory of Functions. An introduction to the theory of functions of real and complex variables, with applications. Prerequisites, courses 103a,b, 113, or their equivalent. Milne
Three hours, each term.

202. Infinite Series. This course deals with tests for convergence, uniform convergence, operations on infinite series, and the expansion of functions. Smail. (Not given 1924-25.)
Three hours, fall term.

203a,b. Differential Equations of Mathematical Physics. This course includes Fourier's series, Legendre's polynomials, spherical harmonics, and Bessel's functions. Methods are developed for the solution of the most important linear partial differential equations of mathematical physics, with application to elastic vibrations and the flow of heat. Prerequisite, course 202. Milne. (Not given 1924-25.)
Three hours, winter and spring terms.

204a,b,c. Mathematical Seminar. Conferences and reports on assigned subjects. DeCou, Milne, Smail.

MECHANICS AND ASTRONOMY

MECHANICS

UPPER DIVISION

101a,b,c. Analytical Mechanics. First term, statics; second term, particle dynamics; third term, dynamics of a rigid body. Calculus is a prerequisite. Three hours, each term.

102a,b,c. Applied Mechanics. For students of architecture, including analytical statics, and strength of materials. Calculus prerequisite. Three hours, each term.

161a,b. Strength of Materials. Practical problems and exercises in the design of beams, columns, thin plates and cylinders, including actual tests and experiments with the testing machines. Course 101a,b,c, or its equivalent is prerequisite. Three hours, winter and spring terms.

165. Hydraulics. A study of the laws governing the flow and pressure of water in pipes and conduits. Application to hydraulic motors, hydraulic elevators, sprinkler systems, etc. Three hours, spring term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201. Theory of Elasticity. The mechanics of elastic solids; applications to the strength, resistance and deformation of the ordinary materials of construction. Four hours, fall term.

202a,b. Hydrodynamics. The mechanics of fluids, with special reference to liquids, but including also some applications to air and other gases. The work of the second term requires a knowledge of spherical and cylindrical harmonics. Four hours, winter and spring terms.

205-206-207. Advanced Analytical Mechanics. Topics selected according to the needs of students, in relation to previous work and work contemplated in the future. Elective by terms. Three hours, each term.

209. Special Problems. Advanced work in the applications of mechanics, and problems relating thereto.

UPPER DIVISION

121a,b. General Astronomy. Descriptive in character, not involving mathematical discussions. Three lectures or recitations per week with an occasional evening of observation substituted for a lecture.

Three hours, winter and spring term.

122. Practical Astronomy. Determination of time, latitude, longitude, and azimuth by astronomical methods. A working knowledge of trigonometry is necessary. Lecture and laboratory with one evening period.

GRADUATE DIVISION

205. Celestial Mechanics. The fundamentals of the subject with such applications as time may permit; including some consideration of the theory of perturbed orbits.

MEDICINE

Professor TORREY, Chairman

The former premedical course of three years, given in Eugene, and the four year course at the School of Medicine in Portland have been combined and reorganized into a single course of study extending over seven years and leading not only to the private practice of medicine, but to careers in the fields of research medicine and public health.

The following program of studies has been arranged to provide two essentials in the education of a physician: sound basic training in the fundamental sciences of biology, chemistry, and physics, and a broad general culture.

The single starred subjects are required either for admission to the fourth year or to satisfy requirements for graduation. The double starred subjects are recommended as a group from which to select the required courses (totalling eight hours) in advanced biology. All the other subjects have been carefully selected on account of their importance in medical education. Electives should be chosen primarily from non-science subjects. Mathematics is strongly recommended for students preparing for advanced studies in physiology, bio-chemistry, and experimental medicine.

Two years of college work in one foreign language is a prerequisite to the bachelor of arts degree. A reading knowledge of both French and German is most desirable. One or the other language will be required of students entering the fourth year in 1924 and thereafter. It is a distinct advantage to have a reading knowledge of at least one of these languages before entering the University. German and French are included in the high school curriculum†, recommended for prospective students of medicine.

Course A, Conferences and Clinics, provides an opportunity for the observation of a limited number of actual cases which are considered in such a way as to show the significant bearing of the fundamental sciences on the practice and progress of medicine. The conferences are utilized especially to help students orient themselves with reference to the ideals, obligations, and opportunities of their future profession.

The course of study for the first three years in medicine follows; that for the remaining four years will be found under the School of Medicine in this catalogue.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

A—Conferences and Clinics. One hour of conference weekly with occasional clinics. Designed especially for first-year majors in medicine. Torrey.

PRE-NURSING WORK

For students preparing for professional nursing, especially for teaching and supervision in schools of nursing, and for social service and public health work, combined college and professional courses in nursing leading to the degrees of B.A. (or B.S.) and Gr.N. are now offered by a number of universities that possess appropriate hospital facilities.

These courses are five years in length. The first two, two and one-half, or three years are concerned with college, essentially foundation work. The next two (exceptionally three) years are concerned with professional training in hospital. In many cases part or all of the fifth year is spent in college residence devoted to that branch of the profession which the student wishes especially to pursue.

The University of Oregon has, as yet, no school of nursing in connection with a hospital. The following pre-nursing courses are suggested for the convenience of students who desire to continue their professional training elsewhere. These courses are in substantial agreement with those of other institutions, but each student should shape her preparation according to the requirements of the institution in which she plans to do her professional work. Dr. Torrey will be glad to aid in this.

MILITARY SCIENCE

Lieutenant Colonel SINCLAIR; Captains ARNOLD, CULIN, MURRAY;
Sergeants AGULE, CONYERS.

All physically fit male students are required to take two years military training during their first two years in the University. This qualifies them for appointment as non-commissioned officers in the organized reserves to which they are appointed if they so desire. Students who elect to take the full four years of military training are paid by the government during the last two years and upon graduation are commissioned in the Officers' Reserve Corps.

Students electing to major in military science, who satisfy the requirements listed below, will be recommended for commissions in the United States Army.

(1) Proficiency in three of the subjects named below must be attained by date of graduation. Conditions governing selection of subjects are as follows:

| GROUP A                 |                        |
|-------------------------|------------------------|
| Subjects:               |                        |
| (a) Analytical Geometry | (c) Advanced Mechanics |
| (b) Calculus            | (d) Surveying          |

GROUP B

Each student may select one of the two subjects of Group B among the three
(a) French (b) Spanish required.

GROUP C

(a) English and American Literature (d) Chemistry
(b) Constitution of the United States (e) Minor Tactics and Military Engineering.
(c) Military Law

Each student may elect not to exceed two of the subjects of Group C among the three required.

(2) A minimum of one term hour of Military Science per term during his first two years and a minimum of three term hours of Military Science per term during his last two years in the University.

The following course of study for majors is recommended. However, it may be modified to any extent so long as it comes within the limitations set forth above:

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

LOWER DIVISION

Course 1-2-3 is the minimum requirement for freshmen, and course 4-5-6, the minimum for sophomores. Courses 11-12-13 and 14-15-16 may be taken in place of the minimum courses, with additional credit.

1-2-3. Freshman Basic Course. Military courtesy, infantry drill regulations, rifle marksmanship, scouting and patrolling, and physical training.
One hour, each term.

11-12-13. Freshman Military Science. Course 1-2-3 with supplementary reading and one hour additional of lectures and recitation.

Two hours, each term.

4-5-6. Sophomore Basic Course. Map reading and military sketching, command and leadership, musketry, military hygiene and sanitation, infantry weapons (automatic rifle, grenades, and bayonet).

One hour, each term.

14-15-16. Sophomore Military Science. Course 4-5-6 with supplementary reading and one additional hour of lectures and recitation.

UPPER DIVISION

Courses 101-102-103 in the junior year and 121-122-123 in the senior year are the minimum requirements for men seeking commissions. Other courses may be elected in addition to these minimum requirements with additional credit.

101-102-103. Junior Advanced Course. Field engineering, command and leadership, military law and rule of land warfare, accompanying weapons (machine gun, 37 mm. gun and light mortar).

Three hours, each term.

106. Junior Military Science. Course 103, plus outside supplementary reading and four additional hours of lecture and recitations.

121-122-123. Senior Advanced Course. Administration, military history, tactics, command and leadership.

Three hours, each term.

124-125-126. Senior Military Science. Course 121-122-123, plus outside supplementary reading and three additional hours of lecture and recitation.

Six hours, each term.

MUSIC

Courses in music are described in the section of the School of Music

NORMAL ART

For normal arts courses, see the section of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

NORWEGIAN

See Germanic languages

PHILOSOPHY

Dean REBEC, Professor BATES*,
Teaching Fellows: Mr. LEE, Dr. MARTI.

Of the courses in philosophy, those in the lower division, 51, 52, and 53 are service courses, designed for general students, and may be taken to fulfill the requirement in Group II. Course 101, History of Philosophy is also a general course, open to all juniors and seniors without prerequisite. The rest of the courses are primarily for majors or minors in the department, although others may be admitted.

LOWER DIVISION

51. Elementary Logic. The essential body of the old "deductive" logic or "The logic of argument" and the modern "inductive" logic, or "logic of scientific method." More stress is laid on the practical values of logic than on its abstruser theoretic backgrounds. Three hours, fall term.

*Leave of absence, 1923-24.

52. Elementary Ethics. This course concerns itself less with the metaphysics of ethics than ethical points of view, notably types of the practical moral life and character, acute present-day ethical problems touching the individual, the family, society, politics, and industry.

Three hours, winter term.

53. Introduction to Philosophy. An attempt not only to acquaint the student with the broad, central problems of philosophy, but to initiate him into the habit of fundamental thinking.

Three hours, spring term.

UPPER DIVISION

101a,b,c. History of Philosophy. History of European thought from Thales to the present.

Three or four hours, each term.

105. Continental Philosophy of the Seventeenth and Eighteenth Centuries. Descartes, Discourse on Method, Meditations, Selections from Principles; Spinoza, Ethics; Leibnitz, New Essays and Monadology.

Three or four hours, fall term.

106. British Philosophy. From Bacon, Locke, Berkeley, Hume, to Mill and Spencer. Reading representative masterpieces.

107. From Kant to Hegel. Reading of Critique of Pure Reason or of Hegel's Logic.

Three or four hours, winter term.

108. Nineteenth Century Thought. From the death of Hegel to the present. Pessimism, materialism, positivism, agnosticism, the later idealism, pragmatism, the new realism.

Three or four hours, spring term.

109. American Philosophy. From Jonathan Edwards to Royce, James, Dewey, and Santayana.

111. Advanced Course in Ethics.

Three hours, spring term.

112. Plato's Republic.

113. Aristotle's Ethics.

Three hours, spring term.

115. Advanced Theoretical Logic.

Three or four hours, fall term.

120a,b,c. Aesthetics. The first term of the course will be devoted to systematic problems of the Philosophy of the Beautiful; the second and third terms will be historical—an attempt to trace the evolution of the aesthetic consciousness as revealed in the succession of art epochs and art forms.

Three or four hours, each term.

124. American Ideals. Origins, development, and meaning of the basic ideals enforming the American life and mind, viewed as factors in the larger process of modern civilization.

Three or four hours, spring term.

125a,b,c. Philosophy of History. The conflict of ideals in history. A critical attempt to envisage history as an evolution of such conflict. The study will converge upon an attempt to seize and interpret the essential movement of contemporary civilization.

Three or four hours, each term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201a,b,c. Philosophical Seminar.

PHYSICS

Professors BOYNTON, CASWELL

Graduate Assistants: Mr. MCALISTER, Mr. NEWMAN, Mr. PHIPPS.

The following course is one normally taken by students presenting for entrance 1½ units of algebra, geometry, and elementary physics, and entering immediately upon a physics major as candidate for the B.A. Slight modifications are obvious in the case of differences of preparation, or of transfer from another major department.

A maximum rather than a minimum of mathematics and chemistry should be taken.

Descriptive geometry and advanced mechanical drawing should be elected sophomore year if possible.

Upper division courses in mechanics can be counted as physics major work.

Journal Club, seminar and thesis work, required of seniors and candidates for the master's degree, demand a reading knowledge of German. Doctorate work requires both German and French.

Prospective teachers will elect the introductory group in education (51-52-53), in sophomore year, physics 101 and some form of practice teaching, either physics 100, education 107, or a laboratory assistantship in senior year, and complete the total of 22 required hours in education. This outline permits the completion of the norms in exact sciences and mathematics.

COURSE OF STUDY IN RADIO-PHYSICS

This course of study conforms to the requirements for major students in physics, and is identical for the first three years with the electrical option in pre-engineering. The five-year course leads to the degree of bachelor of arts (or bachelor of science) and master of science.

LOWER DIVISION

1-2-3. Elementary Physics. A preliminary course, not offered in 1924-1925. Three hours, each term.

4-5-6. General Physics. A general course covering mechanics, sound, heat, light, electricity and an introduction to the modern physics. Prerequisite trigonometry or high school physics. Normally taken in the sophomore year. Three lectures and one laboratory period per week. No credit for less than two terms. Caswell. Four hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

100. Laboratory Arts. Administration of the physical laboratory, and the construction, adjustment, repair and manipulation of physical apparatus, including a study of home-made apparatus for high school laboratories, the elements of glass working, etc. Lectures, assigned readings and laboratory. Caswell. Hours to be arranged.

101. History and Teaching of Physics. For prospective teachers of high school physics. Boynton. Three hours, spring term.

104. Sound. An extended treatment of the phenomena of vibration, for students interested in music. The scientific basis of harmony and music, and the physics of musical instruments. Textbook, experimental lectures, and lantern slides. Three hours, one term.

105. Meteorology. A treatment of the physical phenomena presented by the earth and atmosphere, such as air and ocean currents, distribution of temperature and moisture, weather observations and prediction, etc.

Three hours, one term.

106. Photography. Photographic methods and appliances including lenses, sensitive plates and their treatment, and the common photographic papers. Prerequisite, sophomore standing, a previous course in physics, and some familiarity with elementary chemistry. Two lectures and one laboratory period. Boynton. Three hours, fall term.

NOTE: Courses numbered above 110 require completion of general physics and calculus as prerequisites, and only such courses may be taken for graduate credit.

111-112-113. Advanced General Physics. Supplementing, and giving more attention to certain topics than the elementary courses, and especially to some of the more fruitful modern theories, such as the kinetic theory, the electromagnetic theory of light, the electron theory, etc. Two lectures and one laboratory period. Caswell. Three hours, each term.

114-115-116. Electrical Measurements. The more important electrical quantities, with some reference to their practical applications. Direct current measurements; the magnetic properties of iron; the introduction to alternating current theory and measurements; transient electrical phenomena; elementary theory of radio. Two lectures and one laboratory period. Boynton. Three hours, each term.

120. Advanced Laboratory. Including senior thesis. Department staff. Hours to be arranged.

121-122-123. Thermodynamics, Molecular Physics and Heat. A study of heat and other forms of energy in connection with ideal gases, saturated vapors, dilute solutions and other ideal or actual substances, including a discussion of the kinetic theory of gases and liquids. Especially for students of physics, physical chemistry and pre-engineering. Boynton. Three hours, each term.

127. Physical Optics. A study of such typical phenomena as refraction, dispersion, interference, diffraction and polarization. Lectures and laboratory. Three hours, one term.

130. Journal Club. Assigned readings with reports and conferences. The department staff. Hours to be arranged.

GRADUATE DIVISION

200. Research Laboratory. Qualified students will have all facilities of the laboratories placed at their disposal and will receive the advice and assistance of the department. Boynton, Caswell.

201. Thermodynamical Potentials. A continuation of 121, based upon the work of Gibbs and others upon the various thermodynamic potentials and their application to problems in physics and chemistry. Boynton. Three hours, fall term.

202. Statistical Physics. With especial reference to certain problems in the kinetic theory, such as the equipartition theorem, the nature of entropy, etc. Boynton. Three hours, winter term.

203. The Conduction of Heat. With especial reference to the Fourier theory. Caswell. Three hours, spring term.

204. Modern Physical Theories. A discussion of such topics as the electromagnetic theory of light, the electron theory, relativity and the quantum theory. Caswell.

211-212-213. Advanced Electrical Theory. With especial reference to transient phenomena, oscillations and waves, thermionic vacuum tubes, and the modern applications. Courses 114-115-116 are prerequisite. Boynton. Three hours, each term.

214-215-216. Advanced Electrical Laboratory. Designed to accompany the preceding course, dealing with the same topics. Boynton. Two hours, each term.

221. Advanced Mathematical Physics. Lectures and assigned readings. The topics treated will be varied from year to year to suit the needs of the students. Boynton, Caswell.

230. Seminar. Conferences and reports on assigned topics and current periodical literature. Boynton, Caswell.

LOWER DIVISION

1-2-3. Modern Governments. (1) American national government. The national government, with special attention to practical operation and contemporary reforms. (2) State and local governments. The state and local governments, with special attention to practical operation and contemporary reforms in Oregon. (3) European governments. The organization and operation of the governments of England, France, Germany, and Switzerland, with special attention to the government of England. Open to freshmen. Four hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

101. Constitutional Law. A study of the federal constitution as interpreted by the courts. Chiefly a discussion of leading cases. Four hours, one term.

102. Administrative Law. The principles of the law of public officers. Chiefly a discussion of leading cases. Open to students credited with at least one course in law. Three hours, one term.

103. Law of Municipal Corporations. The principles of the law of municipal corporations. Chiefly a discussion of leading cases. Open to students credited with at least one course in law. Three hours, one term.

104. International Law. The principles of international law. Four hours, one term.

105. City Government. The organization and operation of city government in France, Prussia, England and the United States, with special attention to contemporary reforms in the United States. Four hours, fall term.

106. Political Theory. A study of the main concepts of political theory, mostly from the works of modern writers. Four hours, winter term.

107. International Political Organization. The history and present status of the various forms of international organization, with special attention to the league of nations. Four hours, spring term.

108. Political Parties. The nature, organization, and operation of political parties, with special attention to conditions in the United States. Four hours, fall term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201a,b,c. Research in Political Science.

PRE-ENGINEERING

Professor CASWELL, Chairman

The department of pre-engineering has been organized as part of the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, for the purpose of co-ordinating the work of the University and professional schools of engineering so as to offer to western students and to Oregon students in particular the opportunity to obtain preparation for engineering and technical science. The course fits the student to enter upon the professional work leading to chemical engineering; civil engineering, including highway and railway engineering; hydraulic engineering, municipal and sanitary engineering; structural engineering; electrical engineering; mechanical engineering; mining and metallurgy; naval engineering; engineering and industrial administration; physical research; chemical research.

The course in radio-physics announced under the department of physics is identical for the first three years with the electrical option in the department of pre-engineering.

Students who have satisfactorily completed a prescribed program of three years in this University, and have been recommended by the University, are admitted to the professional school with credits enabling them to graduate with the bachelor's degree in engineering after two years of residence in the latter institution (in case of institutions granting this degree), or to graduate with the professional graduate degree of Engineer at the end of three years of residence.

Upon a report from the technical institution that the student satisfactorily has completed work therein equivalent to 45 term hours of work at this University, the University of Oregon grants the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science.

Those who desire to remain for a fourth year at the University are granted the B.A. or B.S. degree provided they complete not less than 36 units of work during the senior year and have met all the University and departmental requirements for graduation with the degree in question. The work taken during the senior year must form, with the three preceding years, a consistent whole.

The following is the normal course of study in this department. It is varied to meet the specific requirements of the respective engineering institutions.

COURSE OF STUDY FOR PRE-ENGINEERING STUDENTS

| FRESHMAN  | Fall  | Winter | Spring |
|---|-------|--------|--------|
| Advanced Algebra, Trigonometry, Analytical Geometry ..... | 4     | 4      | 4      |

|   | 16-17 | 16-17  | 16-17  |

* Students who are definitely planning to enter any technical school which does not require a foreign language for the professional degree may be permitted to substitute an approved elective for French or German in the freshman year.

SOPHOMORE

|                                  | 17-18 | 17-18 | 17-18 |

* Sophomores may substitute general geology in the fall and winter terms and an approved elective in the spring term, or mineralogy, for either the foreign language or the analytical chemistry of that year. In order to meet the requirements for the B.A. degree, a student must earn at least 24 credit hours in a foreign language.

JUNIOR

The regular program of the junior year consists of certain required subjects plus a number of electives, the latter becoming prescribed also according to the branch of engineering or technical work contemplated, the prescriptions being indicated by the letters immediately following the subject as listed, thus:

- (c) Required for civil engineering.
- (e) Required for mechanical or electrical engineering.
- (k) Required for chemical engineering.
- (m) Required for mining.

Variations from this program are made to meet the requirements of individual institutions.

| REQUIRED SUBJECTS                                    | Fall | Winter | Spring |

Shop work and surveying are prescribed during the summers following the sophomore and junior years whenever necessary to prepare student for admission to the technical school.

PSYCHOLOGY

BENJAMIN J. HAWTHORNE, Professor Emeritus
 Professors CONKLIN, WHEELER; Assistant Professors, YOUNG, CROSLAND; Miss HAGER
 Teaching Fellow: Mr. CUTSFORTH;
 Graduate Assistants: Miss McALISTER, Miss RIDDLE.

Courses in this department are not open to freshmen.

Students proposing to major in this department will be expected to follow so far as the University schedule will permit one of the following prescribed courses of study. Electives provided for in these prescribed courses should be elected with the advice of the major professor in order that the most helpful selections may be made.

PROFESSIONAL PSYCHOLOGICAL PROGRAM

The following program of undergraduate courses is designed for the guidance of students who expect to proceed immediately to graduate work for the degree of doctor of philosophy in this or any university.

It should be observed that this program is made up with a minor in biological subjects given in the department of zoology. Although the staff of the department of psychology consider this to be ideally the best program, practically many students should substitute (in the upper division) sufficient work in the school of education to make possible a graduate minor in that subject in whatever institution they may desire to do their graduate work.

If the schedule in either freshman or sophomore years should permit, the student is strongly urged to take mathematics 4, 7a, and 7b (analytical geometry and calculus).

PSYCHOLOGY CURRICULA

APPLIED PSYCHOLOGY PROGRAM

The following course of study is designed for persons who plan to take up applied psychology, such as juvenile court work, personnel work, and work in educational and correctional institutions with those who constitute abnormal and subnormal problems. The work is largely technical training in the psychological and educational tests and measurements, abnormal psychology, personnel, social psychology as it applies to modern industrialism, with the sociological backgrounds necessary for interpretation. Under this program the student will major in psychology and minor in sociology, although in special instances his future plans might make it advisable for him to minor in education or economics.

Students following this program should plan for a fifth or graduate year in order to obtain adequate preparation. In this type of work there is little demand for people who have only an undergraduate training.

It is obvious that the relation of the minors to the majors must be somewhat tentative. Hence there is provided a considerable number of choices. Still others might be included from sociology.

If a student were to minor in economics his work would consist chiefly in such courses as organized labor, labor legislation, and social insurance, and courses bearing perhaps on economic theory or social economics.

If minoring in education the student's work would consist chiefly in such courses as: social education, psychology of childhood, research in mental tests, mental hygiene, and the like.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

LOWER DIVISION

Beginners in psychology should note carefully that the first course in psychology is ordinarily a full year of work. The science group requirement may be satisfied by taking the full year of work with laboratory in course 11a,b,c. Course 12a,b,c is designed for students who do not desire laboratory training. Course 11a,b,c, includes one period of laboratory work each week.

11a,b,c. Beginners (with laboratory). An introductory study of the material of general experimental psychology, learning, memory, perception, imagination, sensation, attention, reasoning, instinct, emotion, will, etc. Accompanied by one period of laboratory practice each week. Department staff. Four hours, each term.

12a,b,c. Beginners (without laboratory). This course covers, so far as possible, the same content as that described for 11a,b,c, but does not include the laboratory practice. Department staff. Three hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

103-104-105. Systematic Psychology. An intensive study of the physiological correlate of psychology, of psychological systems and of the monographic literature on the more vital problems in experimental psychology. 103, special problems in experimental psychology; 104, concerns psychological systems; 105, the physiological background of psychology. Wheeler. Three hours, each term.

106a,b. Adolescence. An elaborate study of genetic psychology and the writings of G. Stanley Hall. Conklin. Three hours, two terms.

108. Mental Measurements. Principles and practice of testing intelligence and individual differences. Young. Three hours, one term.

109. Psychology of Learning. Genetic and comparative study of learning in the behavior of organisms from the lowest up to and including man. Crosland. Three hours, one term.

111. Character and Personality. Concerns the growth of character, the integration of personality; use of rating schemes, tests, etc., in studying same. Young. Three hours, one term.

113. Problems in Employment Psychology and Personnel. Applications of psychology to employment problems, vocational testing, personnel work. Prerequisite, 123. Not offered 1924-25. Young. Two hours, one term.

117a,b,c. Advanced Laboratory. A thorough training in laboratory technique as used in the problems of general psychology. Wheeler. Two hours, each term.

118. Abnormal Psychology. Traits and theories of hysterical phenomena, insanity and the borderland phenomena. Conklin. Three hours, one term.

122. Principles of Psychoanalytic Psychology. An introduction to the literature and concepts of psychoanalysis. Conklin. Two hours, one term.

123. Statistical Methods in Psychology. A short course designed to meet the needs of students in certain courses in the applications of psychology. Young. Three hours, one term.

124a,b. General Psychology for Medical Students. A special intensive course on the phenomena, technique and interpretations of normal psychology arranged for medical students. Crosland.

Three hours, two terms.

131. Social Anthropology. The rise of art, science, and technology. The concrete material here will concern the origins of social, economic, and political organizations, the rise of religion, the fine arts, and the applied technologies. Young. Three hours, one term.

132. Race Psychology. The problem of the distribution of races and the matter of race mixture in ancient and modern times. This mixture cannot be understood aside from the psychological nature of mankind nor apart from his cultural background. A perspective of present race problems is presented from this dual angle. Young. Three hours, one term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201. History of Psychology. The contributions of the classical psychologists from the early Greeks to the founders of modern psychology with consideration of developmental tendencies, schools of thought and culture influences constitute the content of the course. Most of the work is done through class discussion of the assigned readings in original texts. Conklin. Three hours, one term.

203. Methodology. A comparative study of the various methods used in psychological research. Conklin. Two hours, one term.

205. Advanced Experimental Psychology. An intensive training in the introspective method and its application to experimental problems. The student is introduced to an experimental problem which he must attempt to solve by the introspective method. The student acts as observer and the instructor as experimenter. The student is then required to organize and interpret his own results. An analysis of the literature and criticisms of the introspective method. Wheeler. Two hours, one term.

206. Advanced Physiological Psychology. Devoted to the current experimental literature in the physiology of sensation and the emotions, to such neurological problems as directly affect an understanding of advanced psychology, involving the problems of nerve regeneration and degeneration, localization of function, the nerve structure and function underlying speech, etc. A continuation of work in systematic psychology. Wheeler. Two hours, one term.

207. Research and Thesis. Original work for thesis purposes under the direction of the instructor in charge. Conklin, Wheeler.

208. The Higher Thought Process and Volition. An intensive study of judging, reasoning, the psychology of purpose and the psychology of volition. Each subject is considered historically and genetically, its relations to other mental processes discussed, and the experimental literature thoroughly reviewed. Each process is also studied from various angles—the introspective, the purely subjective, the behavioristic, the objective, the structural and dynamic. Wheeler. Two hours, one term.

209. Behaviorism. An historical approach to the problem of behaviorism followed by a logical, philosophical, theoretical and experimental examination of its position. In this latter study the more general and fundamental points are first taken up, followed by a detailed application of these general principles to specific problems of sensation, affection, attention, memory, perception, learning and the higher intellectual processes. (Offered alternately with course 205). Wheeler.

Two hours, one term.

210. Psychology of Attention and Perception. A detailed and systematic handling of the various factors and the various aspects of attention phenomena and the phenomena of perception and apperception. Various points of view, of behaviorist, objectivist, centralist, subjectivist, idealist, realist, nativist and empiricist. Special attention to the modern conception of attention and perception so influential in medicine, psychiatry, ethics, and education. Crosland.

Two hours, one term.

211. Psychology of Memory and the Image. A rigorous analytical and synthetic treatment of the various phases of mental organization manifested in conscious memory phenomena and in the image of imagination. Dissociation, assimilation, organization and generalization of memory contents will be thoroughly studied and illustrated, together with many technical as well as practical applications of the facts here presented. Crosland.

Two hours, one term.

212. Psychology of Religion. The place and nature of religious experience in human behavior, social and personal. The psychological aspects of belief, conversion, prayer, sacrifice, myth, ritual and ceremony. Illustrative material from primitive and historical religions. Not given 1924-25. Young.

Three hours, one term.

213. Criminal Psychology. The bio-psychological foundations for the study of criminal types. A critical survey of psychological methods of diagnosis and treatment of crime. Not given 1924-25. Young.

Three hours, one term.

214. Special Problems in Social Psychology. Intensive work in individually assigned topics. Young.

One to three hours, any term.

215a,b,c. Psychology Seminar. This meets weekly and is attended by all members of the teaching staff and graduate students. Topics for presentation and discussion are selected in general conference from term to term.

ROMANCE LANGUAGES

Professor CLORAN;
Assistant Professor THOMPSON; Miss CORNIER, Miss CUEVAS,
Miss ESPINOSA, Miss GOUY, Miss GRAY, Mrs. MANERUD, Miss WHYTE
Graduate Assistant: Miss DEW

Freshmen must present not less than two years of high school French, Latin or Spanish to major in Romance languages.

Majors in Romance languages take a minimum of 30 hours of upper division courses in French and as many courses in Spanish as possible or majors may take a minimum of 30 hours of upper division courses in Spanish with as many courses in French as possible. Italian should not be omitted. The work of majors in Romance languages is prescribed for the four years and should follow the curriculum below.

Classes in beginning French and Spanish are provided for students entering the University in January. Students who have entrance credit for two years of high school French or Spanish take the second year in college. No credit is given if the first year work is repeated in college. Students who have entrance credit for one year of high school French or Spanish take the third term work in college. No credit is given for the first half year if the first year is repeated in college, but credit is given for the second half year (6 hours). Students who have entrance credit for three years of high school French or Spanish take third year courses in college. No credit is given if the second year work is repeated in college.

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. First Year French. Cerf and Giese's Beginning French Grammar. Pronunciation, composition, conversation, translation of French prose and poetry. Gray, Gouy, Cornier. Four hours, each term.

2a,b,c. Second Year French. Review of grammar, composition, conversation, translation of modern French authors. Gray, Gouy, Cornier. Four hours, each term.

3a,b. Second Year French. An abridgment of course 2 for students beginning the course in the winter term.

11a,b,c. First Year Spanish. Olmsted's First Spanish Course, composition, conversation, translation of Spanish prose and poetry. Thompson, Whyte, Cuevas, Espinosa. Four hours, each term.

12a,b,c. Second Year Spanish. Review of grammar, composition, conversation, translation of modern Spanish authors. Thompson, Whyte, Cuevas, Espinosa. Four hours, each term.

13a,b. Second Year Spanish. An abridgment of course 12 for students beginning the course in the winter term. Cuevas.

Five hours, winter and spring terms.

32a,b,c. First Year Italian. Grammar, composition and translation of modern authors. Cloran. Three hours, each term.

33a,b,c. Second Year Italian. Reading of modern authors. Composition. Cloran. Two hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

100a,b,c. Third Year Italian. Reading of selections from representative works of great authors. Reports. Outlines of Italian literature.

Two hours, each term.

101b,c. Methods of Teaching Romance Languages.

One hour, winter and spring terms.

103a,b,c. French Literature. (Third year). Reading of masterpieces of writers of various periods. A general view of French literature. Lectures. Cloran. Three hours, each term.

105a,b,c. French Conversation and Composition. (Third year French). Gouy, Cornier. Three hours, each term.

106a,b,c. French Conversation and Composition. (Fourth year French). Course 105 is required as prerequisite for admission. Gouy. Two hours, each term.

108a,b,c. Scientific French. (Third year French). Two hours, each term.

109a,b,c. French Composition. (Fifth year French). Two hours, each term.

110a,b,c. Readings in the French Historians. Survey of French civilization. Cornier. Three hours, each term.

111a,b,c. French Classics. Reading of representative plays of Corneille, Moliere and Racine. Gouy. Three hours, each term.

113a,b,c. Spanish Literature. (Third year Spanish). Reading of nineteenth century authors. Outlines of Spanish literature. Cloran. Three hours, each term.

114a,b,c. Spanish Literature. (Fourth year). Reading of selections from the great writers of Spain. Lectures, reports and explanation of texts. History of Spanish literature. Cloran. Two hours, each term.

115a,b,c. Spanish Composition and Conversation. (Third year Spanish). Cuevas. Three hours, each term.

116a,b,c. Spanish Composition. (Third year). Thompson. Two hours, each term.

117a,b,c. Spanish Composition and Conversation. (Fourth year Spanish). Course 115 is required as a prerequisite for admission. Cuevas.

Two hours, each term.

119a,b,c. Spanish Composition. (Fourth year Spanish). Thompson. Two hours, each term.

130a,b,c. Elementary Portuguese. Branner's Portuguese Grammar. Readings of Portuguese prose and poetry. Open to students who have had two years of Spanish. Two hours, each term.

160a,b,c. Commercial Spanish. Spanish commercial correspondence, business forms, industrial readings, conversation. Prerequisite, Spanish 12, or 20, or three years high school Spanish. Whyte.

Three hours, each term.

161a,b,c. Advanced Commercial Spanish. An intensive study of two or more Latin-American countries. Textbooks will be used as guides, with supplementary readings from Spanish-American periodicals and newspapers. Conversation on business affairs, and current events. Study of scientific and technical vocabulary. Composition. Prerequisite, Spanish 160. Whyte. Three hours, each term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201a,b,c. French Literature in the Eighteenth Century. Readings from Fontenelle, Fenelon, Montesquien, Voltaire, Le Sage, Marivaux, Saint-Simon, Diderot, Rousseau, Andre Chenier. Cloran. Three hours, each term.

202a,b,c. French Literature in the Seventeenth Century. Readings from Malherbe, Pascal, La Rochefoucauld, Boileau, La Fontaine, Bossuet, Madame de Sevigne, La Bruyere. Cloran. Two hours, each term.

206a,b,c. Old French. Phonology and Inflections. The oldest texts. Readings from the Chanson de Roland, Marie de France, Chretien de Troyes, Aucassin et Nicolette. Cloran. One hour, each term.

216a,b,c. Old Spanish. Phonology and Inflections. The oldest texts. The poem of the Cid. Cloran. One hour, each term.

217a,b,c. A Survey of Spanish and Latin American-Civilization. Cloran. Two hours, each term.

218a,b,c. Spanish Literature of the Sixteenth and Seventeenth Centuries. Cervantes, Lope de Vega, Calderon. Cloran. Three hours, each term.

219a,b,c. Spanish and Spanish-American Literature from the beginning of the nineteenth century to the present time. Cloran. Three hours, each term.

The graduate courses are given in rotation. Only two or three of them are given in any one year.

Professor TORREY; Assistant Professors HORNING, RIDDLE, YOCOM; Mr. NICHOL; Teaching Fellow, Mr. RICHARDS; Graduate Assistants, Miss HAYS, Mr. TAYLOR.

Course 1 is designed as a service course for majors in other departments and a foundation for upper division work in this department. Courses 10 and 12 are given especially for students with at least junior standing, who have not had course 1, or its equivalent, but desire a general acquaintance with the facts and theories of organic evolution, heredity and eugenics.

An undergraduate major in zoology will comprise:

1. (a) Course 1—Normally a first year course.
- (b) 30 term-hours of upper division courses to be selected, in consultation with the department, according to the interest of the individual student.
- (c) At least 5 term-hours under (b) of research—normally a senior course.
- (d) A dissertation based on (c).
2. General Chemistry, (normally a first year course), one year of college physics, and another year of natural science, or mathematics.
3. Reading knowledge of French or German—both languages if possible.
4. Fulfillment of group and all other requirements of the University for a bachelor's degree.

Thirty hours of zoology, at least half of which shall be obtained from graduate courses, constitute a major in zoology for the master's degree. The equivalent of an undergraduate major in zoology is prerequisite.

Fifteen hours from graduate or upper division courses constitute a minor in zoology for the master's degree. General chemistry is prerequisite.

That candidates for higher degrees in zoology may have a broad fundamental training in science, it is strongly recommended that minors be chosen from physics, chemistry, and mathematics as well as botany and psychology; though minors are in no sense limited to these subjects.

Candidates for the degree of doctor of philosophy in zoology will ordinarily give one-half the time devoted to their major subject to research. Candidates for the doctorate who elect zoology as their minor subject will ordinarily fulfill the requirements for major work for the master's degree in zoology, with the exception of the prerequisite of a full undergraduate major.

Prospective Teachers of animal biology should consult the head of the department as soon as possible regarding the appropriate courses to select.

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. Animal Biology. A general introduction to the fundamental principals and problems of biology. Prerequisite to all other courses in the department. Two lectures and two two-hour laboratory periods weekly. Torrey, Horning. Four hours, each term.

ZOOLOGY

5. Microscopical Technique. A course dealing with the preparation of tissues for study with the microscope. The principles of fixing, sectioning and staining, will be worked out in the laboratory. One three-hour laboratory period. Yocom. One hour, each term.

8. Elementary Physiology. An introductory course in human physiology for general students; without prerequisites. Lectures, recitations and demonstrations. Horning. Four hours, winter term.

10. Organic Evolution. A historical and critical analysis of the evolution theories, giving the sources, nature and value of the evidence supporting them. The present status of organic evolution. General application of evolution theories. Open to upper division students without prerequisite. Term papers. Two lectures. Riddle. Two hours, fall term.

12. Heredity. A consideration of the basic theories, principles and laws of heredity and their application to social and biological problems. Follows 10 but may be taken independently. A general course designed for upper division students without previous courses in biology. Open to upper division students without prerequisite. Two lectures. Riddle. Two hours, spring term.

UPPER DIVISION

101. Human Physiology: Muscle, Nerve and Special Senses. An analysis of the sensory and motor adjustment of the body to environmental changes. The physiology of muscular and nervous tissues. The reflex. Relation between structure and function in the chord, brain, autonomic system and special sense organs. Prerequisite: Chemistry 1a,b,c and Physics 4-5-6. Three lectures. Two laboratory periods. Five hours, fall term.

102. General Physiology. A study of the fundamental structure and behavior of living organisms, the analysis of their vital activities and of the physico-chemical nature of the factors underlying them. Prerequisite: Physics 4-5-6 and Chemistry 8a,b. Two lectures. Two laboratory periods. Four hours, spring term.

103. Vertebrate Embryology. This course deals with the principles of development especially as applied to the early development of vertebrate animals. The laboratory work in the main consists of the study of the chick through the first three days of incubation during which time the principal organs have been laid down. Two lectures and six laboratory hours. Yocom. Four hours, spring term.

104. General Embryology. An advanced course dealing with the experimental morphology and physiology of development. Lectures, conferences, reports and laboratory work which will be in the nature of individual problems carried through the term. Two class hours and a minimum of six laboratory hours. Prerequisite, course 103. Yocom. Four hours, spring term.

107. Cytology and Comparative Histology. The fore part of the term's work will consist of a study of the structure of the cell; its metabolism; growth and reproduction; germ cells and their formation and function in reproduction, heredity and evolution. The latter part of the course will deal with the organization of cells into tissues and their relation to the multicellular organism. Two lectures and six laboratory hours. Yocom. Four hours, fall or winter term.

108. Comparative Anatomy. A comparative study of the structure of typical chordates from the standpoint of the development of the individual and of the species, with reference to analogous structures in type invertebrates, and special inference to the structure of man. Every attempt is made to make a correlation between structure and function. Two lectures and six hours of laboratory work.

Four hours, fall or winter term.

109. Mammalian Anatomy. An intensive study of a typical mammal with special emphasis on its gross structure; and the correlation of structure with function. The course is comparative in that every attempt is made to apply the knowledge of the animal studied in the laboratory to the human body. One lecture and six hours of laboratory work. Nichol.

Three hours, winter term.

110. Advanced Invertebrate Zoology. A course dealing with the morphology, taxonomy, habits, habitats, and life histories of invertebrate animals, with special reference to the local fauna in its relation to its environment. Lectures, readings, laboratory and field work. Two class periods and six hours of laboratory or field work. Yocom.

Four hours, spring term.

111. Human Physiology. Circulation, Respiration, Digestion, Secretion and Excretion. A study of the metabolism associated with the assimilation, digestion and utilization of food materials, with the formation and elimination of waste substances and with the liberation and action of secretory products, and of the structural mechanism and physical principles concerned with these processes. Prerequisite: Chemistry 1a,b,c, and Physics 4-5-6. Three lectures and one laboratory period.

Four hours, winter term.

115. Genetics. An analysis and interpretation of genetic processes in the light of Mendelism and of its recent modifications. A discussion of the modern genetic problems. Prerequisite: course 103 or 107. Term problem, conferences, two lectures.

Three hours, winter term.

116. Protozoology. A course dealing with the problems of protozoa in their relation to the larger problems of biology. A study of the morphology, physiology and ecology of the free living forms with special reference to the parasitic forms as the causative agents in disease. Two lectures and six laboratory hours. Yocom.

Four hours, fall term.

117. Parasitology. A consideration of animals in their relation to the cause and transmission of disease especially those important as producers of disease in man and domesticated animals. Two lectures and six laboratory hours. Yocom.

Four hours, winter term.

120. Special Problems. Department Staff. Hours to be arranged.

121. The Teaching of Animal Biology in the Grades. Torrey.

Hours to be arranged.

124. Field Zoology. A study of the local fauna, including habits and habitats, life histories, ecological associations, taxonomy, economic problems. Prerequisite course 1a,b,c. Two lectures and six hours of field and laboratory work.

Four hours, spring term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201a,b,c. Seminar. Torrey.

203a,b,c. Research. Topics to be arranged upon consultation with the professor in charge of the student's work. Department staff.

204a,b,c. Problems in Cytology. Yocom.

205a,b,c. Genetics.

207. The Behavior of Organisms. Torrey.

ORGANIZATION AND DEGREES

The School of Architecture and Allied Arts was organized in 1914. The degree of bachelor of architecture is offered for the completion of the prescribed five-year course in architecture. The degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science is offered those majoring in the art departments or in the structural option who comply with the general University requirements for that degree. The school offers training for students contemplating careers in architecture, structural design, painting, modeling, illustrating, various forms of commercial arts, interior decorating, and crafts. In connection with the School of Education, it offers special courses for art teachers.

The school is a member of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture.

Students who major in any of the departments of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts should report to the dean or assistant dean of the school for assignment to advisers.

Students majoring in the departments of fine arts and normal arts are subject to the general entrance requirements of the University, while those majoring in the department of architecture are subject to the following entrance requirements:

|                        |               |                              |
|------------------------|---------------|------------------------------|
| (a) Fixed requirements | .....9 units  |                              |
| 1. English             | .....3 units  | 3. History                   |
| 2. Mathematics:        |               | 4. Foreign Language          |
| Algebra                | .....1½ units | (French or German preferred) |
| Plane Geometry         | .....1 unit   |                              |
| Solid Geometry         | .....½ unit   | (b) Elective subjects        |
|                        |               | .....6 units                 |

It is strongly recommended that the 6 units of elective work include, as far as possible, courses in the following subjects: English, advanced algebra, trigonometry, mechanical drawing, physics, chemistry.

For further information concerning entrance requirements, excess matriculation credits and special student standing, see section entitled University Procedure.

The American Institute of Architects offers each year a medal to each of the fifteen members of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Architecture to be awarded the student graduating with the best record in architecture; the Oregon Chapter of the American Institute of Architecture offers the prizes of $20 and $5 for the two seniors whose improvement in the last year's work in architectural design is greatest. Other prizes are awarded each year. A series of exhibitions is held in the fireproof exhibition hall during the school year. During the season of 1923-24, such exhibitions as the following have been held: paintings by Emil Jacques, John Carlson, Jonas Lie, Frederick Waugh and Daniel Tarber; block prints (American Federation of Arts), textiles by Hewlitt Studio of New York, and arts and crafts work from Portland Arts and Crafts Society.

ARCHITECTURE

ARCHITECTURAL DESIGN

Architectural design is introduced in the first year in order to bring the student in touch with his professional work and co-workers as early as possible. This elementary design is taught by simple problems of composition—i.e., placing openings in the facades of a prescribed building and lectures on materials, mouldings, function, detail, composition. Paper models of the building are finally made to give the student an early experience in the reality of the "third dimension."

In the second year, carried along parallel with the course in history of architecture, problems are given in the application of the orders. Short problems are also assigned to bring the students face to face with the problem of fitting simple architectural solutions to the practical limitations of materials—requirements of plan and site.

The third, fourth and fifth year design is given by means of projects, major sketch and minor sketch problems. Actual conditions of site and environment are incorporated in the program as far as possible and the work of city planning, domestic architecture and architectural design are correlated in such problems as "An Industrial Village" and "A State Capitol City," in which actual topography is given and the problems in architectural design associated definitely with living conditions and other practical considerations.

All design problems are given by individual assignments. The competitive system of teaching design has been abandoned by this school, accent being placed on honesty of thought and expression, and on stimulation of a spirit of cooperation.

JURIES

The problems given in the school are criticized by juries of architects, artists, and craftsmen.

REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE AWARD OF THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF ARCHITECTURE

1. Trigonometry and an approved course in physics shall be prerequisites for Structural Theory (Construction III).
2. The student shall fulfil the entrance language requirement of the University and take one additional year of language in the University, excepting that students presenting three years of high school language shall not be required to take any language in the University.
3. A "data book" satisfactory to the dean shall be presented by the student each year, including the results of his research in design, construction, history, ornament, and practice. The degree shall not be granted until such a data book is presented.
4. Each year a student may secure professional credits in excess of those called for in the schedule below, providing he shows in examination that he has had by experience or otherwise, the equivalent work.
5. In order to graduate, the student shall present at least 220 earned credits of which at least 147 credits shall be for work prescribed under graphics, delineation, design, construction, history, practice. He shall have clear records in physical education and military science. At least one year in residence shall be required.
6. A student may register in three credits of electives in addition to the scheduled elective subjects, providing his record for the preceding year shows no grade below III.

7. While the course of study has been prepared for students of average preparation and ability, it is not intended to preclude the graduation of students in less than five years who by experience or ability may be granted advanced credits in their professional subjects by examinations as provided in rule 4, or by presenting work in design as provided in rule 8.

8. Architectural design shall be offered under the point system. Before receiving the professional degree in this option, each student will be obliged to receive at least a passing grade in each course in design I, II, III, IV, V, VI, VII. By special permission of the dean, any student may proceed with the prescribed work of a course upon completion of the preceding course with a grade of III or better, and the registrar will enter to the student's credit such advanced credits as are certified to by the dean of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

FINE ARTS

The aim of the fine arts course is not primarily to produce artists and sculptors, but to teach the actual practice of art, not by lectures only, but by every means intensively and with energy calculated to refine the powers of observation of the eye, and, in cooperation with the School of Music, the perceptions of the ear. It is felt that the student's powers of observation may be strengthened and refined by some thorough practice in art, the works of which are to be appreciated in after life, and that his sphere of possible art pleasure may be greatly increased and refined thereby, thus widening out the student's taste, making it more catholic and universal.

Life class study induces concentration of perspective faculties intensively. The lectures are planned for the understanding of history, theory, practice and technique of master works of the world. They cover the psychology and intellectual analysis of the artistic perception and the emotional response which each work of art requires, thus insuring the complete understanding of its essence.

Lectures in civilization and art epochs begin with Cretan-Minoan civilizations and close with the "modernistic" tendencies of the present day, covering the whole of the "world history" from the viewpoint of the artist and archaeologist.

NORMAL ART

The aim of the normal art courses is to develop an appreciation for the beautiful, to give freedom, spontaneity, and power of original self-expression in design, with some understanding of the design and processes employed in the industrial arts and crafts. The student is also prepared for the work of supervising and teaching art in the schools.

ARCHITECTURE DESIGN OPTION

For students taking the five-year design course leading to the degree of bachelor of architecture, the general courses of the School of Architecture are grouped under six main divisions, namely: graphics, delineation, design, construction, history, and practice.

1a,b. Graphics I. First year. The principles of orthographic projection are studied, applications being made to the construction of plans and elevations and correct location of shades and shadows for design problems. Two hours, fall and winter terms.

2a,b,c. Graphics II. Second year. The principles of descriptive geometry are studied in relation to the point, line and plane. Applications of these principles are applied to problems in stereotomy and perspective. Two hours, each term.

5a,b,c. Delineation I. First year. Freehand drawings from still life are executed in charcoal. The students' dimensional perceptions are developed through the medium of clay modeling, while the color sense is properly trained by a study of color theory and its applications. Two hours, fall and winter terms; three hours, spring term.

6a,b,c. Delineation II. Second year. The training of the hand and dimensional perceptions is continued by further freehand drawing, while the color sense finds an application in the making of water color drawings. Two hours, each term.

7a,b,c. Delineation III. Third year. This is a continuation of the work of the previous year in life, drawing, modeling and water color. Two hours, each term.

101a,b,c. Delineation IV. Fourth year. The training of the hand and eye is now carried on by drawing and modeling from living models. Two hours, fall term; one hour winter and spring terms.

102a,b,c. Delineation V. Fifth year. This year is given to the design and execution of mural paintings and cartoons for stained glass, mosaic, etc. One hour, each term.

11a,b,c. Architectural Design II. Second year. Architectural design is studied by means of simple problems in planning, whose solutions require well executed drawings. Two hours, each term.

12a,b,c. Architectural Design III. Third year. The work of the preceding year is continued by means of more complex problems in architectural design. The relation of planning to design is carefully studied. Four hours, each term.

105a,b,c. Architectural Design IV. Fourth year. This is another year of studies in architectural design and planning. Four hours, fall term; five hours, winter term; six hours, spring term.

106a,b,c. Architectural Design V. Fourth year. A study of the principles and requirements incident to domestic architecture is applied to the execution of plans and elevations of residence buildings. One hour, each term.

107a,b,c. Architectural Design VI. Fifth year. A continuation of Design IV. Intensive study of planning and rendered drawings. A thesis is planned and executed. Ten hours, each term.

108a,b,c. Architectural Design VII. Fifth year. The principles and practice of city planning are discussed and applications suggested. One hour, each term.

15. Construction I. First year. Students are introduced to construction methods by means of direct observation of buildings under construction. These observations are made the basis of class discussion and calculations. One hour, spring term.

16a,b,c. Construction II. Third year. Scale and full size details of building construction are studied and drawings executed. Buildings under course of construction are visited and notes taken as to details. One hour, each term.

110a,b,c. Construction III. Third year. This course is intended to follow trigonometry and involves the application of mathematics to the designing of structures. Three hours, each term.

111a,b,c. Construction IV. Fourth year. This course is intended to give a general knowledge of various special subjects such as building materials, i. e., stone, concrete, steel, etc.; heating; plumbing; ventilation; acoustics; illumination; mechanical equipment of buildings; etc. One hour, each term.

112a,b,c. Construction V. Fourth year. Students are assigned to make inspection reports on buildings under construction, paralleling a study of building specifications.
One hour, each term.

113a,b,c. Construction VI. Fourth year. A course in constructive design continuing the work of Construction III. Designs include trusses in wood and steel, plate girders, reinforced concrete, retaining walls, arches, etc.
Two hours, each term.

17a,b,c. Architectural History I. First year. A course in art appreciation intended to present a general historical background in the various branches of art, such as painting, sculpture, decorative design, stained glass, etc.
One hour, each term.

18a,b,c. Architectural History II. Second year. An intensive study of the historic styles of architecture, supplemented by individual research investigation of historic ornament.
Two hours, each term.

115a,b,c. Architectural History III. Third year. This course continues the work of Architectural History II.
Two hours, each term.

116a,b,c. Architectural History IV. Fifth year. The civilization and art epochs of former generations are studied in their relations to each other and to present day art.
Two hours, each term.

120a,b,c. Architectural Practice. Fifth year. Office management, business relations, professional ethics, etc., are studied and discussed.
One hour, each term.

GRAPHICS LOWER DIVISION

51. Descriptive Geometry. An analytical study of the subject of projections, giving a thorough groundwork for all branches of drafting. Problems in the geometry of points, lines, and planes; solids; development of surfaces; plane sections; intersections of solids; etc.
Two hours, fall term.

53a,b,c. Instrumental Drawing. For students in normal art. Practice in the use of drawing instruments, making simple plans and elevations. Geometric drawing, projections and perspectives are made the basis of the problems.
One hour, each term.

54a,b,c. Mechanical Drawing. A study of the underlying principles of drafting, including problems in projections, developments, intersections of solids, isometric drawing, tracing, and blue printing.
Two hours, each term.

55. Perspective. The principles involved in the construction of perspective drawings. The orthographic plan method and the perspective plan method are both analyzed and used. Vanishing points and vanishing traces are found by construction. Practical applications to conditions that arise in practice.
Two hours, spring term.

57. Advanced Mechanical Drawing. Application of course 54 to drawing machine parts. Empirical rules for machine drafting.
Two hours, spring term.

58. Stereotomy. Methods of drawing and laying out the work for stone cutting.

CONSTRUCTION LOWER DIVISION

62a,b. Surveying. Lectures and field work designed to enable the student to measure lines with the steel tape; to measure angles with the transit; to determine the differences in level by means of the level instrument; to run traverse lines and plot lines; to plot field notes; to make contour maps and profiles; to perform simple calculations of area and earthwork.
Two hours, winter and spring terms.

UPPER DIVISION

161a,b. Strength of Materials. Practical problems and exercises in the design of beams, columns, thin plates, and cylinders, including actual tests and experiments with the testing machines.
Three hours, winter and spring terms.

162a,b. Graphic Statics. Problems in equilibrium are solved by graphic constructions. The stresses in framed structures are determined by means of stress diagrams. A study is made of the influence line for moving loads. The subject matter of this course parallels that of the course in stresses.
Two hours, fall and winter terms.

163. Stresses. The subject matter covered by this course is the same as in graphic statics. The solutions, however, are worked out by analytical calculation instead of graphic construction.
Three hours, spring term.

164. Wooden Trusses. A careful study of the theory and practice in regard to wooden truss design. The sizes of truss members are designed in accordance with their stresses. Detail drawings for constructive purposes. Proper design of the truss joints.
Two hours, spring term.

165. Hydraulics. A study of the laws governing the flow and pressure of water in pipes and conduits. Application to hydraulic motors, hydraulic elevators, sprinkler systems, etc.
Three hours, spring term.

170a,b. Reinforced Concrete. The underlying principles upon which the design of reinforced concrete construction is based. Problems in designing simple beams and columns. Practical working formulas and data. McAlister.
Three hours, fall and winter terms.

171. Masonry. The various uses of brick and stone in building construction in their relation to strength and durability. Bonding; relieving arches; limits; strength of walls; bearing plates; footings, etc.
Four hours, fall term.

172. Heating and Ventilation. The various methods of heating and ventilation. The fundamental principles governing the efficiency and adaptability of the systems to practical problems. Calculations for sizes of installations.
Three hours, fall term.

173. Electric Lighting and Wiring. Proper sizes of wires for various lighting installations. Direct and indirect systems of illumination and proper methods of installation. Lighting for special purposes, such as residences, stores, auditoriums, etc. Rules and regulations of the National Board of Fire Underwriters.
Three hours, winter term.

174. Mechanical Appliances for Buildings. Investigation of the special appliances and machinery to be found in hotels, apartment houses, public buildings, etc; pumps, vacuum systems; refrigeration systems; private water systems, etc.
Three hours, spring term.

175. Foundations. Investigation of the bearing powers of different soils, and methods of designing and constructing foundations to suit the conditions. Use and construction of caissons. Three hours, fall term.

176a,b. Arches. The theoretical and practical consideration involved in the design of arches in stone, brick and concrete, applied to problems in practice. Three hours, fall and winter terms.

FINE ARTS

LOWER DIVISION

20a,b,c. Elementary Still Life and Cast Drawing. Elementary painting from still life, and out-of-doors in oil, water-colors, and pastels. One three-hour period per week. One hour, each term.

23a,b,c. Oil Painting I. Still life studies of pottery bric-a-brac, drapery, outdoor landscape, etc. Painting from nature when weather permits. Representation, composition, and technique are studied in this course. The mediums used are oil, water-color, pastel, etc. Enrollment limited. One hour, each term.

26a,b,c. Color Theory. The prismatic and pigment theories are both discussed and demonstrated, together with practical problems covering the subjects of balance, chroma, color relations in areas and intensities, all leading up to the science of color harmony. One hour, each term.

31-32-33. Life Class. Studies of nude form from living models. One to four hours, each term.

35a,b,c. Oil Painting II. A continuation of the course begun in Oil Painting I. One hour, each term.

42a,b,c. Decorative Design I. Historic parallels and precedents, as applied to contemporary decoration in commercial art, are studied and applications are made by means of well studied drawings. Two hours, each term.

43a,b,c. Decorative Design II. A continuation of Decorative Design I. Two hours, each term.

FINE ARTS

45a,b,c. Book and Poster I. Lecture and laboratory of the principles and practices of the printing art. Laboratory training in designs that will reproduce effectively. Open to journalism and business administration majors. Schroff. Two hours, each term.

46a,b,c. Book and Poster II. Design of original alphabets, initials, end paper, colophons, head and tail pieces, etc. Two hours, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

131-132-133. Life Class. Drawing from model. One to four hours, each term.

135a,b,c. Mural Painting and Stained Glass. Practical problems worked out in the studio, leading to the production of actual work in stained glass, and interior decoration. Open only to seniors who have learned to draw the human figure and to create in color. Two three-hour periods a week. Two hours, each term.

141a,b,c. Civilization and Art Epochs. Lectures covering history, archaeology and evolution of all the art in the world. The influence of political, ecclesiastical, aesthetic and ethnological evolution upon art in every form; the influence of art of all times upon humanity. Illustrated by means of photographs, lantern slides, colored plates, etc. Prerequisite, upper division standing. Two hours, each term.

142a,b,c. Decorative Design III. The student begins here to execute the actual drawings for commercial work, such as textiles, rugs, wall paper, mosaic, etc., making use of the principles studied in Decorative Design I and II. Two hours, each term.

143a,b,c. Decorative Design IV. Not only drawings are made, but, in some cases, the work is carried to final conclusion by actual production of a piece of stained glass, a mural decoration, a mosaic or some such piece of art work. It is planned to have the students execute pieces of exterior and interior decorative detail to be incorporated in the buildings and grounds of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. Two hours, each term.

145a,b. Artistic Anatomy. One lecture a week. One hour, winter and spring terms.

146a,b,c. Advanced Architectural Ornament. A more thorough study of ornament and the use of nature in the creation of ornamental design. One hour, each term.

149a,b,c. Artistic Photography. One hour, each term.

152a,b,c. Book and Poster III. Problems in book plates, decorative book illustration, posters, binding, etc. Two hours, each term.

153a,b,c. Book and Poster IV. Problems in book binding, large decorative bill boards, posters, etc. Two hours, each term.

NORMAL ART

92a,b,c. Design II. A continuation of course 91. A study of nature forms, landscapes and human figure, applied to illustrations, magazine covers and decorative compositions. Paper on historic textiles with application to wood block, tie-dyeing and batik. Prerequisite, Design 91. Kerns. Two hours, each term.

93a,b,c. Representation I. Principles of perspective. Proportion and the accurate rendering of form in studies of still life, flowers and plant form, interiors and landscapes, expressed through line, dark and light and color, using methods applicable to the presentation of the subject in grade and high schools. Emphasis on selection and arrangement of subject matter. Mediums used are pencil, charcoal, crayon, transparent and opaque water colors, cut paper and poster paints. Avakian. One hour, each term.

94a,b,c. Representation II. A continuation of course 93 with more advanced problems along the same lines. Prerequisite 93. Avakian. One hour, each term.

96a,b,c. Life and Costume. Fifteen minute sketches from draped model, together with sketching problems. Designed to develop quickness and accuracy of eye and hand. Prerequisite for the course in Dress Design. One hour, each term.

97b,c. Applied Design. Pottery, including the building by hand and casting from moulds of tiles, bowl and vase forms, candle sticks and lamp bases; glazing and firing and the use of the potters' wheel; the making of tiles and garden pottery from cement. Special attention to beauty of form. Historical resume of the potter's craft through assigned readings. Prerequisites 91 and 92. Avakian. Two hours, winter and spring terms.

98a,b,c. Color Theory. A study of color with reference to its scientific background and artistic use. Practical applications to every day life in dress, the home, the commercial world, and the theatre. Kerns. One hour, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

193a. Applied Design. Weaving. Raffia, reed and pine needle basketry; the preparation and dyeing of materials; various processes used in sewing and weaving; the gathering of local materials suitable for use; readings. Prerequisite, 91 and 92. Avakian. Two hours, fall term.

196a,b,c. House Furnishing. Application of structural art principles to choice and arrangement of household furnishing. Required of majors, open to upper division students of other departments. No prerequisite. Kerns. One hour lecture, one hour laboratory. One hour, each term.

198a,b,c. Practice Teaching. One year of supervised teaching in the University high school for Normal Art seniors. Three hours, fall term; two hours, winter and spring terms.

ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

The School of Business Administration, organized as a distinct unit of the University of Oregon in 1914, is divided into an undergraduate and a graduate department. The State Board of Higher Curricula assigned to it as a special field the work in "higher commerce," with the exclusive right to offer graduate work in business training.

Accordingly, the School has built its curricula, both undergraduate and graduate, around one idea, the development of business executives. Each student in business administration is viewed as a future manager. This singleness of purpose enables the School to concentrate all its energies on the managerial and administrative aspects of business training rather than to spread them over the entire realm of commercial activity.

Sound training in business administration necessitates a broad knowledge of economics, law and liberal arts, and technical business procedure. Through careful correlation between the allied courses in economics, law, liberal arts and business administration, the School bases its training in business technique on a broad foundation of this character. In addition to such correlation, a series of management courses is offered each year which covers every phase of management, so that at the conclusion of his course each major has studied all aspects of business management.

Opportunity is also offered for specialization in some one field during the senior and graduate years. The various curricula are so arranged that a student may specialize in a subject as a whole, such as Accounting or Banking, or he may specialize within a given field, i. e. he may study to become a Certified Public Accountant or the manager of a bank. In other words, the School is meeting the individual needs of each student.

GRADUATE DIVISION

Holders of a bachelor's degree from a standard college or university are admitted to the graduate division of the School of Business Administration.

Members of the graduate division who have previously completed at least forty-five term-hours of undergraduate work in business administration are normally able to earn the forty-eight hours necessary for the master's degree in one year.

Members who have not completed forty-five term-hours of undergraduate work in business administration will have to complete that amount of undergraduate work before proceeding upon the forty-eight hours required for the master's degree.

Of the work required for the master's degree, three hours are allowed for the thesis and a minimum of fifteen hours must be made in courses of strictly graduate work; that is, in courses open to graduate students only. The remaining work must be done either in strictly graduate courses or in approved upper division courses.

FIELDS OF TRAINING

Following is a brief summary of the fields available for specialization in the School of Business Administration. It will be seen that these fields include the vast majority of managerial positions in the business world. For instance, in the field of finance there are dozens of individual positions such as bond department manager, financial manager, bank manager, broker, bond buyer, bond and stock trader, financial sales manager, credit manager, etc. As stated above, the work of the school is so arranged as to give individual attention to the problems of each major.

Accounting. As business procedure grows more scientific, accounting becomes more and more urgently necessary. Thus the field offers increasing opportunity for persons of native ability and sound training. How faulty the average preparation is today is evidenced by the fact that upwards of 85 per cent of those who take the examinations to become certified public accountants fail.

The School of Business Administration offers two thorough courses in Accounting: 1—For those who are interested in securing positions in accounting departments of business firms, banks or manufacturing establishments, a four-year managerial course is open. 2—For those who wish to prepare for public accountancy, a five-year course is available. The latter work in addition to covering all the ground found in the four-year course, particularly stresses problems which confront the certified public accountant.

Finance. Since modern business is organized on a monetary basis, and money-making is regarded by many as a test of success in business, it is not strange that the field of finance itself is especially attractive. Every concern of size has its finance department which offers good positions to properly qualified persons. In addition, the rapid growth of banking institutions, bond houses, brokerage firms and investment companies of all kinds, has created a steady demand for young men and women who know the fundamentals of management, plus specific knowledge in a given line of financial endeavor. The School has so developed its finance courses that the student can specialize in any phase of that work.

Marketing. Producing goods is a highly technical process and in most instances depends upon extensive use of machinery combined with much technical information, but marketing the products (except transportation) is largely a matter where the personal element involved is a deciding factor. The fields of marketing include: (a) The management of retail and wholesale stores of all kinds; (b) sales management, which comprises not only the successful handling of a sales force but also the actual selling of the product; and (c) advertising management, which as taught by the School of Business Administration not only offers occasion for developing ingenuity by arousing the buyer's desire to purchase, but shows the relation of advertising programs to sound marketing development.

Foreign Trade. Because of the chance for travel in distant lands, foreign trade courses have always proved alluring to the college student, but stripped of all its romantic setting, this field still offers splendid opportunities. Economic writers are freely predicting that the next great wave of prosperity in this country will rest primarily upon the sound development of our foreign trade. We have already reached the stage where normal domestic production far outruns normal consumption of domestic goods. New markets must be secured. This is especially true of the Pacific northwest with its many natural resources. Its advantageous situation relative to South American and oriental ports gives it unusual opportunities for engaging in foreign trade. The School offers training for foreign trade experts in import and export houses located in this country; and for salesmen, auditors and resident managers of companies doing business in foreign lands.

Transportation. The rapid development of transportation as a part of modern business has created a demand for traffic managers. Such persons are needed not alone by (a) the railroads; but (b) by chambers of commerce and other civic bodies which have found it advisable to create traffic departments for the sound development of community enterprise; and (c) by manufacturing concerns and business houses of size that have found it highly desirable to establish their own traffic departments to facilitate the easy movement of their products.

Labor Management. Personnel or labor management is one of the new fields open in modern business. For many years the employers were content to place emphasis upon the development of machinery alone. That great economies could be realized through the proper conservation of the labor force did not occur to the employer until recently. Today, however, no successful manager can ignore this phase of business. This means that companies must employ experts in this line, and hence, there is an ever growing demand for both men and women who are qualified to act as personnel managers. The School offers a four-year course covering this field.

Business Administration and Household Arts. The call of business is strong in the ears of the modern girl but statistics show that upwards of 86 per cent of college girls marry. In order to give sound training for business and at the same time permit the student to qualify as manager of a household, the School of Business Administration, in conjunction with the department of Household Arts, offers a four-year combined course in Business Administration and Household Arts. This combined course assures the student of sound training in homekeeping and at the same time prepares her to assume positions in the business world. Some business opportunities depend upon the specific training offered in this group. For example, wholesale and retail organizations dealing with foods and food products are particularly desirous to obtain employees who have the combined knowledge of the elements of business and household management.

Chamber of Commerce Managers. Chamber of Commerce work is a field which is more and more attracting talented young men and women. The business of guiding the welfare of any town or city requires native leadership, tact and appreciation of community development, and is no longer left to chance, but is in the hands of specialists.

For the person who is anxious to engage in community work, few openings offer greater opportunity for real service and advancement. To those possessing native ability, splendid openings are available in the larger cities. Others use the experience they have gained in chambers of commerce as a basis for entering some business enterprise. The School offers a four-year course in chamber of commerce management.

Business Administration and Law. Many students enter the University hesitating whether to enroll in Business Administration or in Law. At many points the training in these two fields cross and the student properly trained in both business and law is doubly fortified to battle with the world. To meet an increasing demand for training of this kind the School of Business Administration and the School of Law offer a combined six-year course leading to the degree of bachelor of business administration on the one hand and the bachelor of laws on the other.

DEGREES

Four degrees are offered for students in the School of Business Administration.

UNDERGRADUATE

Bachelor of Business Administration—wherein students must meet all general requirements for graduation and in addition successfully complete 45 term hours in approved business administration subjects.

Bachelor of Arts—wherein students must meet all university requirements respecting the bachelor of arts degree and in addition successfully complete 45 term hours in approved business administration subjects.

SCHOLARSHIPS AND PRIZES

Phi Theta Kappa Scholarship. Phi Theta Kappa, national honorary commerce fraternity for women students, gives an annual scholarship of fifty dollars to a woman in the junior or senior class. This scholarship is awarded on the basis of high scholastic standing and general student activities.

Beta Gamma Sigma Scholarship Record. Beta Gamma Sigma, national honorary commerce fraternity, has placed in the corridor of the Commerce building a permanent record plate on which appears the following inscription: "To honor outstanding scholastic attainment, Beta Gamma Sigma inscribes hereon annually the name of a freshman major in the School of Business Administration." The name of the freshman receiving the highest scholastic average for a year is inscribed on this record.

Life Insurance Prizes. Annually cash prizes amounting to fifty or more dollars are awarded to the students making the best sales demonstration of a real life insurance policy by the following companies: The Mutual Life Insurance Company of New York, The Massachusetts Mutual Life, Northwestern National Life Insurance Company, New York Life Insurance Company.

The Oregon Life Insurance Company has presented the School of Business Administration with a silver loving cup upon which the name of the winner of the contest each year is inscribed. In addition to the cup, the winner is presented with a personal memento from the company.

BUREAU OF BUSINESS RESEARCH

The School of Business Administration maintains a Bureau of Business Research for the purpose of studying cost systems and problems of management in various business enterprises in the state. Through the results of thorough investigations the School is able to render definite assistance to the business men of the state respecting the sound management of their enterprises. The information so accumulated can be used as the basis for original investigations by the students in the School of Business Administration.

SPECIMEN CURRICULA

The curricula of the following four groups, Finance, Foreign Trade, Professional Accounting, Business Administration and Law, and Business Administration and Household Arts are given to illustrate the type of work which the School offers. An individual curriculum is made to suit the need of each student.

Students in the School of Education receive instruction from practically all departments of the University. This list includes only the names of instructors giving courses especially designed for the students in the School of Education.

ORGANIZATION

The School of Education of the University of Oregon was authorized by the Board of Regents in February, 1910. The general purpose of the school is to organize and correlate all the forces of the University which have for their ultimate aim the growth of the educational efficiency in the state of Oregon. The new Education building, designed for the School of Education, gives commodious and well fitted quarters for the school.

OPPORTUNITIES FOR SPECIALIZATION

The School of Education, by means of the professional training offered in the various departments of education and the academic instruction given in the respective University departments, is prepared to train the following classes of teachers.

- (1) Superintendents, principals, supervisors and teachers for administrative work.
- (2) Teachers for departmental work in senior high schools.
- (3) Teachers for departmental work in junior high schools.
- (4) Special supervisors in music, art, physical training, athletic sports, public speaking and commerce.
- (5) Teachers for normal schools and colleges.
- (6) Teachers who are interested in defective and subnormal children and delinquents.
- (7) Those who are interested in physical and mental measurements and tests as specialists in large cities.

THE UNIVERSITY HIGH SCHOOL

A model high school building on Alder street north of 16th avenue near the School of Education building houses the University High School. Here students may have an opportunity of observing the application of methods of teaching and may acquire, under supervision, such skill as will lead to the actual work of the school. Model lessons are given by the supervisors in charge so that those who are preparing to teach may have illustrations to guide them in the application of the principles underlying education. Lesson plans are worked out and supervised teaching is done. Much of the teaching is done by the problematic or project method. Problems of discipline and organization are worked out.

THE APPOINTMENT BUREAU

The University maintains an Appointment Bureau to aid its graduates and alumni to find those positions for which their academic and professional training has fitted them. The fee is one dollar, payable but once. The bureau keeps in touch with the boards of education and superintendents desiring teachers and strives to put the right teacher in the right place. The bureau does not assist teachers who are not University of Oregon graduates, but concentrates all its energies in the service of its own graduates. The recommendation of the bureau will be limited to candidates who have taken courses as prescribed by the School of Education.

THE BUREAU OF EDUCATIONAL RESEARCH

Under the head of "The Bureau of Educational Research," provisions have been made for the purchase and distribution of all the standard tests, both mental and school achievement. These can be secured by anyone in the state at practically cost price. Such work is done under the immediate direction of Professors Gregory, DeBusk and Stetson.

DEGREES

The degree of bachelor of arts or of bachelor of science is conferred upon the students of the School of Education who have met the requirements of the College of Literature, Science and the Arts for the degree.

The degree of Bachelor of Science in Education is conferred upon students of the School of Education who have secured 186 hours of college credit and who have completed a prescribed curriculum in the School of Education.

The Graduate School of Education as a department of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences, offers opportunities for graduate study and the earning of advanced degrees to those who have done their major work in Education.

TEACHERS' CERTIFICATE

Graduates from the School of Education are entitled to teaching certificates as provided in the following Oregon school law:
Certificates shall be issued to graduates from standard colleges or universities who have completed 120 semester hours (180 term hours) including 15 semester hours (22 term hours) in Education as follows:

1. One-year State certificates shall be issued without examination, upon application, to such graduates of standard colleges and universities, authorizing them to teach only in the high schools of this State.
2. The holder of a one-year State certificate, issued in accordance with the provisions of this section shall, after six months' successful teaching experience in this State and upon the recommendation of the county superintendent of the county in which the applicant last taught, receive, without examination, a five-year State certificate authorizing him to teach only in the high schools of this State.
3. The holder of a five-year State certificate issued in accordance with the provisions of this section shall, after thirty months' successful teaching experience in this State and upon the recommendation of the county superintendent of the county in which the applicant last taught, receive, without examination, a State life certificate authorizing him to teach only in the high schools of this State.

4. The holder of a one-year State certificate, or a five-year State certificate, or a life certificate, secured in accordance with the provisions of this section, is hereby authorized to act as city superintendent of schools of any city.

Fees are as follows, payable to the State Superintendent of Public Instruction:
One-year certificate ..... $1.00
Five-year certificate (after six months' teaching) ..... 2.00

NORMS

After September, 1924, the University of Oregon will recommend no graduate to the state superintendent of public instruction for the general high school certificate who has not completed either (a) a major course of study and one "norm" of academic work; or (b) two such norms of academic work, in each case in addition to the professional requirements specified in the Oregon school law; provided, however, that students electing to take the two-norm course as distinct from a major course and one norm shall be required to register as students in the School of Education and proceed to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Education.

Following is the list of norms, intended to correspond to the main lines of high school teaching which are undertaken by the University's graduates.

For social workers the fifth year is to be taken in the School of Social Work in Portland.

The School of Education provides a number of curricula, intended to provide training in such groups of allied subjects as most commonly be taught by the same teacher in a high school of moderate size. The curriculum for science teachers, given below, is typical of these.

COURSE FOR TEACHERS OF SCIENCE

This course, leading to the degree of bachelor of science in education, is characterized by its substitution of an extensive training in the fundamental sciences, which are commonly taught in high schools, for the customary major requirement in a single department. It prescribes basic courses in botany, physics, zoology and geology, and further requires that the student shall select some one of the sciences as a specialty, which is to be pursued for at least a year beyond the prescribed fundamental course.

The electives of the first two years must include at least one year-course of not less than three hours per term in either the first or the fourth group. They may well include such subjects as literature, foreign language, history or government, chemistry, mathematics, mechanics, mechanical drawing or household arts.

The upper division courses will include the courses in Education and Practice Teaching required for certification and at least two methodology courses (6 term hours). The remaining hours may be taken as free elective. Additional courses in the sciences already begun, or courses in mathematics, chemistry, physiology, astronomy or graphics will appeal to those who wish as complete a grasp as possible of the range of high school science.

Description of Courses

Practice Teaching is counted toward the certificate only when the student is regularly registered in Supervised Teaching, Education 107.

ORGANIZATION AND PURPOSE

Classes in journalism have been taught in the University since 1900. In 1912 a department of journalism was established, which has since been developed into one of the few well equipped and staffed schools of journalism in the country, with a complete practical equipment for the training of newspaper men and magazine, trade and class journalists. It is the only school of the kind in Oregon.

The purpose of the school is to prepare for the various branches of journalism and publishing, including the editorial, reportorial, critical, advertising, circulation and business departments, and to contribute, insofar as an educational institution may, to the progress of American journalism.

Already, former students of the school are owners of both daily and weekly newspapers; are reporters, editors, advertising managers, advertising agency men, advertising managers of department stores, trade journalists, circulation men, foreign correspondents, publishers, teachers of journalism, government representatives abroad, copy editors, managing editors, and special writers. Several are story writers and one has obtained a national reputation as a novelist.

EQUIPMENT

The School of Journalism is one of the best equipped in the country. It occupies its own three story brick building, in which, and in neighboring structures, it utilizes 26 rooms and offices. The school is well supplied with typewriters, copydesks, library facilities, seminar rooms and the conveniences necessary to the most practical work under very favorable conditions. Its principal copydesk is a testimonial gift from the newspapers of Oregon, embellished with a bronze plate expressing appreciation of the work of the school.

The school possesses an unexcelled technical laboratory in the University Press, which was founded to furnish instruction for journalism students in the practical branches, and which is now one of the important departments of the school. The University Press inventories at about $30,000 and its equipment includes a large Optimus cylinder press, two smaller presses, two modern linotype machines, folding machines, stitchers, saws, trimmers, a power cutter, casters, a complete bindery, and everything requisite to the publication either of a weekly or a small town daily newspaper. In this laboratory, training is offered in the arts allied with journalism, such as advertising, etc.

DEGREES

The degrees of bachelor of arts and bachelor of science are open to students in the School of Journalism, as well as the professional degrees of bachelor of arts or science in Journalism.

PRIZES AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The Advertising Club of Portland Scholarship of $150.00 is given annually to the man in the School of Journalism who is considered best qualified to profit by the training offered for entrance into the field of advertising.

The Botsford-Constantine Prizes of $30 and $25 are offered each year by the Botsford-Constantine Advertising Agency of Portland, for the best and the second best solutions of an advertising problem by students in the class in advertising, in the School of Journalism.

COURSES OF STUDY

The School of Journalism offers five separate courses called options, and a considerable number of variations of these options for persons preparing for various specialties. The options are writer's option, advertising option, manager's option, news executive's option and five-year journalism course. Of these the writer's option is given as typical:

HISTORICAL

The Law School of the University of Oregon was originally established in the city of Portland in 1884 and was operated there as a night school until its removal to the campus of the University in Eugene in 1915. When the school was brought to the campus it was reorganized as a full-time day school and the entrance requirements were increased from a high school course to two years of college work. In December, 1919, the Law School was admitted as a member of the Association of American Law Schools.

THE LAW LIBRARY

The law library is arranged to give students and faculty easy access to the books. In content it is such as to serve every normal need of both students and faculty. It now numbers approximately eighteen thousand volumes and is receiving continual accessions. The library includes substantial gifts from the libraries of the late Lewis Russell, the late Judge Matthew P. Deady, and Judge W. D. Fenton. Judge Fenton's gift is known as "The Kenneth Lucas Fenton Memorial Library," and numbers about eight thousand volumes.

ADMISSION TO THE LAW SCHOOL

REGULAR STUDENTS

For admission to the Law School the student must have completed ninety term hours of credit in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, including the specific lower division requirements, or present satisfactory credentials covering equivalent work done in some other school or institution.

Pre-legal students should select their program of studies from the following list:

Freshman: Latin, English history, modern governments, accounting, mathematics, physics, extempore speaking.

Sophomore: American history, argumentation, Latin, principles of economics, business finance, railways and rate regulation, trusts and industrial combinations, philosophy, psychology, sociology, written English (prescribed).

SPECIAL STUDENTS

In exceptional cases students who have not complied with the regular admission requirements, may be admitted as special students. Such admissions will be restricted to those who are at least 23 years of age and who have completed a four-year high school course, and who are otherwise deemed qualified by the dean of the school.

Not more than ten per cent of the entering class will be admitted as special students in any one year.

Neither admission nor attendance as a special student in the School of Law for one term shall give the right to continue as such in any subsequent term, nor a right to a degree. If a special student's record has been in any respect unsatisfactory, the dean may refuse permission to register or continue as a special student in any subsequent term.

Work carried as a special student for a three-year period will entitle one to take the state bar examination.

ADVANCED STANDING

A student may transfer not to exceed two years of credit earned in other schools of recognized standing, provided the credit was earned subsequent to the completion of the prescribed two years of academic work. The right to reject any and all such credits is, however, reserved.

COMBINED COURSES IN ARTS OR SCIENCE AND LAW AND IN COMMERCE AND LAW

SIX YEAR COURSE IN ARTS OR SCIENCE AND LAW

Students who wish to secure both arts and law or science and law degrees, may enter the Law school at the beginning of the senior year and count the first year of law toward both the collegiate and the law degrees, and by so doing may obtain the two degrees in six years from the date of their admission to the University.

If all requirements are complied with, the degree of bachelor of arts or of bachelor of science is conferred at the close of the first year in the Law school, and the degree of doctor of jurisprudence at the conclusion of the law course two years later.

The third pre-legal year in either of these combined courses may be profitably spent in English, history, economics, philosophy, and business administration courses. Such training will increase substantially one's professional opportunities.

SIX YEAR COURSE IN COMMERCE AND LAW

Present-day conditions make it highly desirable for the lawyer to have an adequate knowledge of sound business administration. Likewise, it is practically essential for a business man to have a knowledge of law. In order to provide such training for law and commerce students, the School of Law and the School of Business Administration are offering a combined six-year course in commerce and law. Students completing this work will receive the degrees of bachelor of business administration and doctor of jurisprudence. Any student who has taken this course is doubly fortified to go successfully into the business or legal world. Detailed information regarding the curricula may be secured from the dean of the Law school.

THE DEGREE OF BACHELOR OF LAWS (LL.B.)

Students who have acquired ninety term hours of pre-legal credits in this University or their equivalent in another institution of recognized collegiate rank, and who have successfully completed courses in law aggregating one hundred fifteen credits, and who have otherwise satisfied the requirements of the University and of the Law School, will be granted the degree of bachelor of laws (LL.B.).

Special students who have completed one year of college work in addition to a four-year high school course and who have maintained over the full three years of their law course. an average mark of II, and who by reason of their exceptional ability and character are, in the opinion of the Law faculty, deserving of the honor, may be granted the degree of bachelor of laws.

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF JURISPRUDENCE (J.D.)

The degree of doctor of jurisprudence (J.D.) will be granted to students who have received the degree of bachelor of arts, bachelor of science or bachelor of business administration from this University, or from some other institution of recognized collegiate rank, who have satisfactorily completed courses in law aggregating one hundred and fifteen term-hours with an average grade of not less than II, and who have otherwise satisfied the requirements of the University and of the Law school. Since one year of law may be counted toward both the collegiate degree and the law degree, the requirements for the degree of doctor of jurisprudence may be satisfied by the successful completion of a combined six-year course.

ADDITIONAL DEGREE REQUIREMENTS

1. Any student who fails to obtain a minimum average of IV over the full three years of his law course shall not receive any law degree.
2. A total of at least three years resident study in this or in some other law school of recognized standing is required of every applicant for a degree.
3. No degree shall be conferred upon any student who has not spent at least one year in resident law study at this University.

HILTON PRIZE

Frank R. Hilton, Esq., of Portland, offers an annual prize of fifty dollars to the student who presents the best oral discussion of a legal subject selected by the faculty of the Law School.

THE OREGON LAW REVIEW

The Oregon Law Review is published quarterly under the editorship of the law faculty as a service to the members of the Oregon bar, and as a stimulus to legal research and productive scholarship on the part of the students.

REGISTRATION FEES

The law registration fee for all regular and special students and for partial students carrying more than six term hours in law, is ten dollars a term or $30 a year. This fee is in addition to the University registration fee of $11.25 a term.

Students registering late are required to pay the full registration fees for the term in which they register, and in addition, the penalty fees levied by the University for late registration.

Description of Courses

The Law School assumes that its primary duty is owed to the people of the state of Oregon. For this reason, special emphasis is placed on both Oregon substantive law and Oregon procedure. In all courses, reference is repeatedly made to Oregon decisions and statutes. The attention of the student is called particularly to courses 105, 107, 231, 232, 233 and 234, for a fuller statement concerning the procedural work.

The courses of instruction are arranged to present, as far as possible, the fundamental topics of the law during the first year, and the more specialized subjects during the second and third years. In courses continuing more than one term, credit may be withheld until the course is completed.

HISTORY AND EQUIPMENT

The Medical School of the University of Oregon was established at Portland in 1887 by a charter from the regents of the University.

The merger of the medical department of the Willamette University with the Medical School of the University of Oregon, was effected by mutual and friendly arrangements on the first day of September, 1913. Under the terms of the merger the medical department of Willamette University retired permanently from the field of medical education, and transferred its entire enrollment, numbering forty, to the State School in the city of Portland, and arrangements were effected so that the students of the Willamette University were graduated during the course of the following three years, and received degrees indicative of the merger of the two schools, and the alumni of both schools are consolidated under the Medical School of the University of Oregon, which becomes at once the sole school of medicine in the Pacific Northwest, thus serving the largest territory in the United States, served exclusively by one medical school.

In the spring of 1914, twenty acres of land occupying a commanding position on Marquam Hill, overlooking the city, was deeded by the Oregon-Washington Railroad and Navigation company to the regents of the University of Oregon as a site for the school of medicine and affiliated hospitals. Here the first unit of the medical group, made possible by appropriations by the state of $110,000 and $25,000 given by citizens of Portland, was finished and occupied in the summer of 1919. It is a three-story structure of reinforced concrete faced with brick, covering two hundred by sixty-five feet.

The second unit, a four story building, of similar construction and twice the size of the first, was completed in the summer of 1922. It was made possible by an appropriation by the state of $113,000 and an appropriation of an equal sum by the General Education Board. Upon completion of the building the General Education Board made an additional appropriation of $50,000 for equipment and maintenance. The plant and equipment embody all the modern standards in medical school construction.

CLINICAL FACILITIES

Under the terms of the original gift, the Regents of the University conveyed to the County of Multnomah seven acres upon the campus for the construction of a general charity hospital. The first unit of this hospital, which opened September 1st, 1923, provides 250 beds and exceptional accessory clinical facilities for bedside and clerkship instruction. The future plan contemplates the addition of facilities to accommodate 500 patients. The buildings which embody the most modern conceptions of hospital construction were planned with particular attention to their use for teaching purposes. A metabolic unit, pathologic institute, electro-cardiographic equipment, etc., will be installed in the near future.

Extra mural clinics and ward walks are maintained for classes limited to nine students in other Portland Hospitals.

DISPENSARY

The Portland Free Dispensary is conducted by the School of Medicine in affiliation with the People's Institute, a private philanthropic organization which established the dispensary in 1907.

It cooperates with the Multnomah County Hospital in providing for the out patient work of the hospital and offers a practical school of methods for students in medicine and nursing under the direction of the staff of the medical school. All departments in the medical school conduct daily clinics at the dispensary.

In cooperation with other agencies 9,068 individual patients were cared for in 1922.

LIBRARY

The library is supported from the general fund and by annual gifts from the Portland Academy of Medicine and the City and County Medical Society of Portland. It contains over 6,000 bound volumes. Two hundred current journals are received.

PATHOLOGICAL MUSEUM

The pathological museum which is an essential adjunct to the study of morbid anatomy, is under the direct care of a well-trained full time curator. It already contains a collection of several thousand tissue specimens representing the various human disease processes. The pathology department performs at present about 400 autopsies annually, including all the coroner's cases and about an equal number of private cases. The museum is being continually augmented from this source and by material received from the various surgical clinics.

THE JONES LECTURESHIP IN MEDICINE

The Jones Lectureship in Medicine has been founded by Dr. Noble Wiley Jones of Portland. Under the terms of the foundation, an annual gift of $300 provides for a series of lectures by an authority in some branch of medical science. These lectures are presented in conjunction with the annual meetings of the Alumni Association. The first lectures were given in 1920 by Professor Ludwig Hektoen, Professor of Pathology of the University of Chicago; the second, in 1921 by Professor William Ophüls, Professor of Pathology, Leland Stanford University; the third, in 1922, by Sir Thomas Lewis of London.

FELLOWSHIPS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

For several years Dr. Noble Wiley Jones has given annually a fellowship known as the N. W. Jones Fellowship in Pathology. This amounts to $300.00 a year, and is awarded each year by the pathology staff to a student who has manifested particular interest and proficiency in that branch of study.

Four scholarships in the Medical School are open to students in the preliminary medical courses in the University. The tenure of each scholarship is two years.

These scholarships are awarded on the basis of high standard of work in preliminary subjects, and preferably to those students who have completed four years in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, with the A.B. or B.S. degree; next, to those in the seven-year combined course who have completed the fourth year; and lastly to those of exceptional merits who have finished three years of the combined course.

Application for scholarships must be in the hands of the committee on medical scholarships at Eugene not later than April 10 of each year. Awards will be made by May 1.

ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

The Medical School Alumni Association, made up of the graduates of the merged schools, is a strong organization working for the interests of students and graduates and encouraging scientific and professional progress among its members and the medical profession; it is working with the faculty to build up in Portland a great medical center; it is lending its aid in every way possible for the benefit of the medical profession.

The Alumni Association holds each year an annual meeting in June. The meeting lasts three full days and includes papers, clinics and the business meeting and banquet. Many out of town physicians attend these meetings. All members of the profession are cordially welcome to all sessions. The proceedings of the meetings are published and sent to all members.

All graduates and past and present instructors of the medical schools of the University of Oregon and Willamette University are eligible to membership. The dues are one dollar a year.

|                             |   |
|-----------------------------|---|
| President .....             | Dr. Eugene P. Steinmetz, Portland, Oregon |
| First Vice President .....  | Dr. Irving M. Lupton, Portland, Oregon    |
| Second Vice President ..... | Dr. Jas. L. Wooden, Clatskanie, Oregon    |
| Third Vice President .....  | Dr. Banner R. Brooke, Portland, Oregon    |
| Fourth Vice President ..... | Dr. T. Cobarth, The Dalles, Oregon        |
| Treasurer .....             | Dr. Kitty Plummer Gray, Portland, Oregon  |
| Secretary .....             | Dr. Dorwin L. Palmer, Portland, Oregon    |

GENERAL INFORMATION

Tuition. For all resident students the tuition is $180 per year, and for all students who are not bona fide residents of Oregon an additional fee of $60 per year is charged. Arrangements may be made for paying the tuition in installments at the beginning of each term.

Cost of Living. The cost of living for medical students in Portland is approximately the same as at the University of Oregon at Eugene viz: from $150 to $200 per quarter, exclusive of tuition fees and clothing. There are numerous rooming houses and boarding houses located near the Medical School, Dispensary and the hospitals.

Tuition for special students and for summer work is $3.50 per term hour.

Breakage Deposit. A deposit of ten dollars ($10) is required of each student at the beginning of each year for general breakage. The cost of damage done by an individual to University property will be deducted from his deposit; and in case the identity of the one responsible cannot be established, a pro rata charge will be made against the entire class of which he is a member. The remainder of this deposit will be returned at the end of each school year.

Microscopes. Students are expected to provide themselves with microscopes. An arrangement has been made with a local supply house whereby payments can be made over an extended period of time.

Lockers. Coat room and laboratory lockers will be assigned and a deposit of fifty cents must be made when a key for the same is received.

Special Examinations. If a special examination is granted, a fee of $5 must be paid at the office.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION

Present facilities necessitate limiting each entering class to seventy. Many more than this number apply for admission. The selection is made upon the basis of scholarship, thoroughness of preparation, and personal fitness for the profession.

Applicants for admission to the School of Medicine must have fulfilled the requirements for admission to the University, and have, in addition, completed three years (135 term-hours) of college work with the following prescribed work: Chemistry, 23 hours, 8 of which shall be organic; biology, 20 hours; physics, 12 hours; English, 9 hours; French or German, 20 hours (or reading knowledge).

Additional College Work Recommended. In addition to the prescribed work constituting a part of the 135 hours stated above, it is strongly advised that students take at least 36 hours in the following subjects: Psychology, history, economics and literature.

Candidates who are deficient in any of the above minimum requirements will not be admitted.

Applications for admission must be made before July 11. Notification of acceptance or non-acceptance will be sent to all candidates on July 15. On acceptance of the applicant, a $5.00 matriculation fee becomes payable on or before August 15 and if not received by the Medical School the acceptance is nullified.

Upon completion of the first four years, provided the group and major requirements of the university have been fulfilled, all students shall be eligible for the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science from the University of Oregon. The requirements for one of the foregoing degrees shall be satisfied before admission to the work of the sixth year. This applies equally to students of other institutions who enter the course in medicine with advanced standing.

PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

All entering students are required to take a physical examination at the Medical School building.

SPECIAL STUDENTS

Students who are not candidates for the degree of doctor of medicine may register in courses in the fundamental laboratory branches for which they are prepared, as special students; and graduates in medicine may register as special students in any course. But no matriculants will be accepted as special students in clinical subjects, other than graduates in medicine. No graduates in medicine will be accepted as candidates for the degree of doctor of medicine.

Students registering for special work, who are not candidates for the degree of doctor of medicine, will be charged tuition according to the amount of work undertaken and the nature of the courses.

REQUIREMENTS FOR DEGREES

DOCTOR OF MEDICINE

A candidate for the degree of doctor of medicine must have completed satisfactorily the curriculum described or in case of admission with advanced standing, the last year must be taken in this medical school. All candidates for degrees are expected to be present at the commencement exercises and receive the diploma in person, unless excused for good reason by the faculty.

COMBINED DEGREE

Students who shall have completed successfully three years of work in the University required for the degree of bachelor of arts may upon the successful completion of the first year in the School of Medicine in Portland and with the approval of the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, receive the degree of bachelor of arts or of science.

THE GRADUATE SCHOOL

The departments of anatomy, bacteriology and hygiene, experimental biology, pathology, pharmacology and physiology offer instruction leading to the master's degree as an integral part of the graduate school of the University of Oregon and subject to the rules and regulations which are published in the bulletin of the graduate school.

SEVEN YEAR CURRICULUM IN MEDICINE

The course in medicine comprises seven years, three in the University of Oregon at Eugene or in some other accredited institution, and four in the medical school at Portland devoted to the subjects of the regular four year curriculum in medicine required by law.

The first three years must be satisfactorily completed before admission to the fourth. It has been found necessary for the present to limit the number of fourth year students, consequently, completion of the third year does not therefore guarantee admission to the fourth year.

Recommended High School Course

|                 | Units |                        | Units |
|-----------------|-------|------------------------|-------|
| English .....   | 4     | Latin .....            | 2     |
| Algebra .....   | 1½    | History .....          | 1     |
| Geometry .....  | 1     | French or German ..... | 2     |
| Physics .....   | 1     | Electives .....        | 1½    |
| Chemistry ..... | 1     |                        |       |
| Total .....     |       |                        | 15    |

REQUIRED COURSES

101. Gross Anatomy. Fourth year, each term; lectures and quizzes 4 hours per week; laboratory, 8 hours per week; total 396 hours; eighteen credits. Dr. Foster, Dr. Hausler and assistants.

102. Histology and Organology. Fourth year, fall term; lectures and quizzes 3 hours per week; laboratory, 9 hours per week; total 132 hours; six credits. Dr. Larsell and assistants.

103. Embryology. Fourth year, winter term; lectures 2 hours per week; laboratory 6 hours per week; total 88 hours; four credits. Dr. Allen and Dr. Larsell.

201. Neurology and Organs of Special Sense. Fifth year, fall term; prerequisite, Anatomy 101-103; lectures 2 hours per week; laboratory 6 hours per week; total 88 hours; four credits. Dr. Allen and Mr. LeCocq.

205. Applied Anatomy. Sixth year, spring term; prerequisite Anatomy 101; lectures and demonstrations 2 hours per week; laboratory 2 hours per week; total 55 hours; three credits. Dr. Foster.

ELECTIVE COURSES

105. Microscopic Technique. Fall and winter terms; limited to 12 students after consultation with instructor; laboratory, 3 hours per week; total 33 hours; one credit. Dr. Larsell and Mr. Freydig.

202. Advanced Histology. Winter and spring terms; prerequisite Anatomy 102 and 105; laboratory 6 hours a week or less; credits to be arranged. Dr. Larsell.

203. Topographical Anatomy. Fall term; prerequisite Anatomy 101; limited to 15 students; lectures 1 hour per week; laboratory 3 hours per week; total 44 hours; two credits. Dr. Foster.

204. Special Dissections. Limited to available material; prerequisite Anatomy 101; hours and credits to be arranged. Dr. Foster.

206. Applied Osteology. Lectures and demonstrations 1 hour per week; laboratory 3 hours per week; total 44 hours; two credits. Dr. Foster.

207. Mechanism of the Central Nervous System Studied from Lesions. Spring term; prerequisite Anatomy 104; laboratory 3 to 6 hours per week; credits to be arranged. Dr. Allen.

208. Seminar and Journal Club. Each term; includes anatomical staff and advanced students; hours and credits to be arranged. Dr. Allen.

209. Research in any branch of Anatomy. Open to qualified students upon approval of any of the instructors. Hours and credits to be arranged. Dr. Allen, Dr. Larsell and Dr. Foster.

REQUIRED COURSES

101. Physiology of Blood, Circulation and Respiration. Fourth year spring term; prerequisite, Biochemistry 101; lectures and recitations 3 hours per week; laboratory 6 hours per week; total 99 hours; five credits. Drs. Burget, Rush, Manville, Pynn and Mr. Wyatt.

102. Physiology of Digestion, Metabolism, Absorption, Secretion, Excretion, Muscle and Heat. Fifth year, fall term; prerequisite, Physiology 101; lectures and recitations 3 hours per week; laboratory 6 hours per week; total 99 hours; five credits. Drs. Burget, Rush, Manville, Pynn.

103. Physiology of the Nervous System. Fifth year, winter term; pre-requisite Anatomy 104; lectures and recitations 3 hours per week; laboratory 6 hours per week; total 99 hours; five credits. Drs. Burget, Rush, Manville, Pynn.

ELECTIVE COURSES

201. Special Physiology of Mammals. Winter term; prerequisite, Physiology 101-103; lecture 1 hour per week; laboratory 3 hours per week; total 44 hours; two credits. Dr. Burget and Dr. Pynn.

202. Physiology of the Glands of Internal Secretion. Spring term; prerequisite Physiology 101-103; lectures 1 hour per week; laboratory 3 hours per week; total 44 hours; two credits. Dr. Burget.

203. Studies in Metabolism. Fall term; prerequisite Physiology 101-103; lectures 1 hour per week; laboratory 3 hours per week; total 44 hours; two credits. Dr. Rush.

204. Diet and Nutrition. Fall and winter terms. A course in dietary requirements in health and in disease with special emphasis given to the indications and contra-indications for particular food factors; the hygiene of the intestinal tract; the peculiar value of sunlight and vitamins. Prerequisite, Physiology 101-102; lectures 2 hours per week; two credits Drs. Burget and Manville.

215. Research. Each term; hours and credits to be arranged. Drs. Burget, Rush, Manville and Pynn.

EXPERIMENTAL BIOLOGY

HARRY BEAL TORREY ..... Professor of Experimental Biology
MRS. JESSIE L. BRODIE ..... Assistant

The following courses may be offered as electives in the medical curriculum or in partial fulfillment of the major and minor requirements for the master's degree.

201. Biological Aspects of Abnormalities in Growth and Development. One lecture a week, fall term. Torrey.

202. Genetics, with Especial Reference to Pathology and Medicine. One lecture a week, winter term. Torrey.

203. The Organism Regarded as a Whole. A consideration of biological problems fundamental to the interpretation of human behavior. One lecture a week, spring term. Torrey.

204. Seminar. One hour per week, entire year; one credit per term. Torrey.

205. Research. Subject, hours and credits to be arranged with each student individually. Torrey.

BACTERIOLOGY, HYGIENE AND PUBLIC HEALTH

HARRY J. SEARS ..... Professor of Bacteriology
JOHN J. PUTNAM ..... Assistant Professor of Bacteriology
GEORGE PARRISH ..... Instructor in Public Health

REQUIRED COURSES

101. Medical Bacteriology. Fourth year, spring term; lectures 3 hours per week; laboratory, 9 hours per week; total 132 hours; six credits. Dr. Sears and Dr. Putnam.

102. Principles of Public Health. The general principles underlying public health activities. Control of communicable diseases. Organization of federal, state, local and other health agencies. Elements of infant, school and industrial hygiene and vital statistics. Lectures, discussions and inspection trips. Three hours per week, second term. Dr. Sears and Dr. Parrish.

Medical students are required to register for two units of work in this department in addition to the above. These may be selected from any elective courses offered in the department.

ELECTIVE COURSES

201. Public Health Laboratory Methods. Winter term; laboratory and quizzes 6 hours; total 66 hours; two credits. Dr. Putnam.

202. Serology. Fall and winter terms; prerequisite Bacteriology 101; laboratory and quizzes, 6 hours per week; total 66 hours; two credits.

204. Seminar in Bacteriology and Immunity. Meetings of the departmental staff and assistants with a number of specially qualified students to discuss the newer developments in the science as they appear in the current periodical literature. Topics are assigned and individual reports read at meetings of the class. Open to a limited number of students. Meetings held once each week. Dr. Sears and Dr. Putnam.

205. Principles of Immunology. Lectures, recitations and quizzes, together with assignment of special topics covering present progress in the subject. Prerequisite, Bacteriology 101 or its equivalent. Fall term. Two hours per week. Two credits. Dr. Sears.

206. Bacteriological Study at Autopsy. Cultural study of tissues removed at autopsy. Open to four to six students taking Pathology 201. Hours and credits to be arranged. Dr. Sears.

210. Research in Bacteriology and Immunity. Hours and credits to be arranged. Dr. Sears and Dr. Putnam.

WINIFRED DOUTHITH ..... Technician
MONTIE COLDWELL ..... Technician
C. LEROY HEINECK ..... Museum Technician

REQUIRED COURSES

101. Pathological Histology, General Pathology. A course in general pathology, comprising the study of prepared slides supplemented by experiments, fresh and museum specimens. Lectures, recitations and laboratory; 176 hours; eight credits. Dr. Benson and Mr. Hunter.

102. Systemic Pathology. Embraces a study of systemic pathology and tumors. Lectures, recitations and laboratory; 132 hours, six credits. Dr. Menne and Mr. Hunter.

103. Autopsy Clinic. Studies of autopsies, including a presentation of the clinical history. 22 hours; 1 credit. Dr. Menne and Mr. Hunter.

201a. Gynecology. Gynecologic Pathology. Dr. Menne (See Dept. of Gynecology).

ELECTIVE COURSES

201. Attendance at Autopsies. Students are allowed to attend autopsies in small groups. Each student is required to attend at least 6 autopsies. 5th year, 1 credit. Mr. Hunter.

202. Advanced Systemic Pathology. Study of the detached pathology of one system. Hours and credits to be arranged. Drs. Benson or Menne and Mr. Hunter.

203. Research. Open to specially qualified students. Hours to be arranged. Drs. Benson and Menne.

REQUIRED COURSES

101. Systemic Pharmacology and Prescription Writing. Fifth year, winter term; lectures and quizzes 5 hours per week; laboratory, 3 hours per week; total 88 hours; six credits. Dr. Myers, Dr. Thienes and Dr. White.

102. Systemic Pharmacology and Pharmacodynamics. Fifth year, winter term; lectures and quizzes 5 hours per week; laboratory, 3 hours per week; total 88 hours; six credits. Dr. Myers, Dr. Thienes and Dr. White.

ELECTIVE COURSES

201. Toxicology. Fifth year, spring term; lectures and quizzes 1 hour per week; laboratory 3 hours per week; total 44 hours; two credits. Dr. Myers and Dr. Thienes.

206. Medicine. Applied Pharmacology is taught in the dispensary in a section of the course described under the department of medicine as course 206.

203. Research. Students who are properly qualified and who can devote an adequate amount of time to the work are encouraged to pursue original investigation of pharmacological problems. Hours and credits to be arranged. Dr. Myers.

MILITARY SCIENCE AND TACTICS

|                                |   |
|--------------------------------|---|
| LIEUT. COL. W. A. POWELL ..... | Medical Corps, U. S. Army, RetiredProfessor of Military Science and Tactics |

The Army Reorganization Act of Congress, June 4, 1920, made possible the establishment of units of the Reserve Officers' Training Corps in certain selected medical schools. A unit of this corps was established in the medical school, University of Oregon, during the school year 1920-21, and was among the first ten units established in class A medical schools of the United States at the invitation of the surgeon general.

All students in the school who are citizens of the United States, and are physically fit, are eligible for enrollment in the unit. Its purpose is to train students so that they may qualify for commission in the Officers' Reserve Corps upon graduation. The course is voluntary, but students who elect to take it must satisfactorily complete it as a prerequisite to graduation unless for sufficient cause they are relieved by the institution authorities. Students who complete the first two years are not required to take further training unless they elect to do so and are selected for advanced training. Uniforms are not worn nor is there any drill required during the school year.

The course occupies a regular place on the schedule and in no way interferes with the regular work and is, in fact, a valuable addition to it. The subjects are so arranged as to act as corollaries to other subjects taught in the school, in addition to which the organization, administration and functions of the army, in both peace and war, are taught, particular stress being laid upon the organization, administration and functions of the medical department of the army. The course extends throughout the four years.

Students who can present satisfactory evidence of work performed in Reserve Officers' Training Corps in undergraduate colleges will receive credit for that work upon enrollment in the medical unit at this school. Briefly the course of instruction now required consists of the following:

(a) A theoretical course to be given at the school during the four school years. (The law requires a minimum of 90 hours instruction per year, but since practically every course of study prescribed in this school has important medico-military value, credit for 60 hours instruction is allowed per school year. Therefore only 30 hours instruction per year in this department is required).

(b) A practical course in drill and field duties of a medical officer to be given at summer camps immediately following either the sophomore or junior year. Attendance of all students taking the last two years, or advanced course, is compulsory. The student may elect to take the camp course following either the sophomore or junior year. Each encampment to be of six weeks duration and in addition to drill, instruction is given in map making and reading; medico-military paper work; equitation; construction; operations, and repair of motor vehicles; evacuation of sick and wounded from theatre of operations, camp hygiene including disposal of wastes and the destruction of mosquitos and flies.

(c) During the last two years, pay, consisting of the money value of the soldier's ration, amounting to over $200 is given. The student while attending the summer camp receives, in addition to pay at the rate of 70c per day, his transportation and food enroute to and from the camp, rations, uniforms, shelter, and medical treatment free at the camp.

Elective Credit.—Sixty hours of work, taken in the Department of Military Science and Tactics may be counted as part of the 360 class room hours of elective work required of candidates for the degree of Doctor of Medicine.

FIRST YEAR

Lectures include the organization and functions of the army in peace and war, and the relation of the medical department thereto. Duties of the medical soldier. The articles of war and army regulations as they affect or relate to the private soldier. The operation and results of anti-venereal work in the army and prescribed method of providing prophylaxis; history of military medicine; military policy of the United States; customs of the service; equipment of the medical soldier; personal hygiene; the army ration; military first aid. One hour a week, one credit.

SECOND YEAR

Lectures include a study of the duties of private and non-commissioned officers of the medical department, as members of sanitary units provided for in the tables of organization, especially of detachments, attached to regiments of infantry, cavalry, artillery, engineers, etc., in combat and under general field conditions. This includes discussion of the authorized equipment allotted each detachment and its employment in aid stations, in camps and other work.

Elements of map making and map reading. Diagrams are to be used showing the posts of the medical department soldier during open and stable warfare and the routes of evacuation of wounded from front to rear. Medical history of campaigns, supply of troops, first aid. One hour a week, one credit.

THIRD YEAR

Lectures include military hygiene and sanitation, particularly as relating to large camps and bodies of men. Functions of the medical department. Physical standards for the recruit. Evacuation and hospitalization of sick and wounded. The supply systems in the army—methods of procurement, distribution, storage and issue. Army regulations. Achievements of military surgeons.

FOURTH YEAR

Lectures include military law and rules of land warfare. First Aid. Chemical warfare service. History and development of hospitals. Hospitalization; types, buildings and sites, equipment, administration, etc.

Civil and military methods in control of disease. Staff relationship; military hygiene; military psychiatry and malingering.

Students graduating from the school, who have satisfactorily completed the course in military science and tactics, will be eligible for commissions in the medical reserve corps of the United States Army in the grade of first lieutenant.

PRESCRIBED COURSES

201. Elementary Radiology, Sixth Year. This course of twenty-two lectures of one hour each will be given twice a week, throughout the fall term. The fundamental principles of the medical application of X-rays in diagnosis will be dealt with, particularly the physics and the study of radiographs of the normal, more especially the osseous system. Some of the lectures will be of a practical nature in the actual demonstration of Roentgen technique. Twenty-two hours.

202. Advanced Radiology, Sixth year. This course also of twenty-two hour lectures two times each week throughout the winter term will be a continuation of the diagnostic work of the previous term but will include a consideration of the interpretation of pathology as depicted on the radiograph and fluorescent screen. In addition to the diagnostic side of Radiology, the therapeutic application will also be dealt with under its natural headings; the physics and basic principles of Roentgenotherapy and the radioactive substances. The rationale of the method, its uses, limitations and dangers. Twenty-two hours.

ORGANIZATION AND DEGREES

The School of Music was organized in 1902, although a department of Music had been instituted before that time.

This school takes care of that large and rapidly increasing group of regularly matriculated University students who are expected to take a degree in four years and who will offer music either as a major or minor subject. The idea that the intelligent study of music may be made a large and contributing factor in education is not a new one in theory but too often in practice the demands of the ordinary curriculum have been such as to leave little or no place for it. In the University of Oregon, however, music is a part of the "regular" University course of study. The students may offer it as a major subject under the same conditions as language, science, history or mathematics.

The student choosing music as a major subject may proceed toward either the degree of bachelor of arts or bachelor of science in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, or to the technical degree of bachelor of music.

For the college degrees, only six term hours of applied music, such as piano, violin, etc. may be submitted, the remainder of the major subject being taken from the courses in theoretical music.

For unconditioned admission to freshman standing in the professional course, leading to the degree of bachelor of music, the student must satisfy the general entrance requirements of the University, and in addition present evidence, either by examination or by statement from a duly "accredited" music teacher, that he has completed a satisfactory preparatory musical course.

As in the case of the bachelor of arts and science degrees 186 term-hours of work is required for graduation. However, more credit is allowed for applied music and the student substitutes school requirements for the University requirements.

* Leave of absence, 1923-24.

These requirements are as follows:

|  | Pianohours | Voicehours |
|--|----------------|----------------|
| Major subject, piano, organ, stringed instruments, etc. .... | 72             |                |
| Major subject, voice .....                                   |                | 36             |
| Minor subjects .....   | 9              | 9              |
| Science and History of Music and allied subjects .....       | 30             | 30             |
| Modern Language .....  | 24             |                |
| Modern Language (including one year of Italian) .....        |                | 36             |
| English .....  | 9              | 9              |
| Electives .....  | 86             | 60             |
| Physical Education .....                                     | 6              | 6              |
| Totals .....   | 186            | 186            |

In case a student majors in voice or violin, his minor subjects must be piano or organ. In case he majors in organ, his minor subject must be voice, with an additional minor in piano.

Minor subjects may be continued as elective and in special cases a reasonable number of these excess hours be deducted from the major requirements.

The student is urged to choose his electives from the College of Literature, Science and the Arts.

A public recital from memory is required of all the candidates for the degree of bachelor of music.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MUSIC

This course prepares the student for teaching and supervising music in the grade and high schools. The student is assumed to have the ability to play moderately difficult choruses or accompaniments. The course as at present outlined covers a period of two years. It includes:

|   |           |
|---|-----------|
| Public School Methods .....             | One year  |
| Practice Teaching (minimum) .....       | One year  |
| History and Appreciation of Music ..... | One year  |
| The Elements of Musical Science .....   | One year  |
| Scientific Music Reading .....          | One year  |
| Analysis of Music .....                 | Two terms |
| Education .....                         | One year  |
| Chorus or Glee Club experience.         |           |

FEEES

Fees are charged for all of the courses in applied music, and for most of the courses in theoretical music. The amounts of these fees may be found in the schedule of courses which is published at the beginning of the year. For detailed information concerning courses of study suggested, special curricula, and expenses write for special bulletin to the dean of the School of Music.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Through the generosity of members of the faculty of the School of Music, a number of scholarships are available each year. These are awarded by competitive examination to especially gifted and deserving students. Application should be made to the dean.

The Mu Phi Epsilon Scholarship. The musical sorority, Mu Phi Epsilon offers a scholarship for the year in either voice, violin, piano, or organ. Applications are considered throughout the year until June first. Three Mu Phi Epsilon members as judges for the sorority in consultation with the dean of the School of Music and other University authorities make the award according to talent, personality, financial situation, promise and general scholastic standing. It is a requirement that the scholarship be awarded a University student of at least one year's attendance, and preferably one eligible for Mu Phi Epsilon, if not already a member.

DESCRIPTION OF COURSES

LOWER DIVISION

1a,b,c. The Elements of Musical Science. A general course in the history, construction and treatment of harmonic forms. (a) Terminology, major and minor scales, intervals, major and minor triads, inversions—especially the “six-four chord”—general theory of harmonic progression, etc. (b) Dissonant combinations—especially seventh and ninth chords—open position, etc. (c) Modulation, foreign tones, contrapuntal chords, the augmented chords, enharmonic equivalents, modern scales and harmonizations, etc. Beck. Three hours, each term.

2. Contrapuntal Analysis. A study of the structural basis of the strict style in general and the inventions and earlier fugues of J. S. Bach in particular. Primarily a study of motive development. Prerequisite, Course 1. Landsbury. Three hours, one term.

3. Formal Analysis. The musical architecture of the free style, the career of the motive as influenced by the phrase, period and form, the song forms, developed ternary forms, etc. Texts, the sonatas of Haydn, Mozart, Beethoven, Schumann and Brahms. A practical course for those wishing to know the basis of interpretation. Prerequisite, courses 1 and 2. Landsbury. Three hours, one term.

4. Harmonical Analysis. A study of the methods of harmonic reduction and expansion based upon the works of the classical and romantic composers. Closely related to course in Formal Analysis, with which it could be taken. Prerequisite, Courses 1, 2 and 3. Landsbury. Three hours, one term.

5. Thorough Bass. A course in the harmonization of basses and melodies (usually called “harmony”) based upon the treatises of Emery, Richter, Judassohn and others. Accepted as a preparation for Counterpoint, but not as a substitute for Course 1. Evans.

6. Keyboard Harmony and Ear Training. A course aiming to teach students how to think music in the terms of the piano. Prerequisite, Course, 1 or 5. Evans. Two lectures, one term.

9-10-11. History and Appreciation of Music. Lectures dealing with the evolution of music, and the problems of intelligent listening. Illustrated with the victrola. Beck. Two hours, each term.

12a,b,c. Public School Music. A study of the development and care of the child voice, and the music and methods adapted to the grades and high school. Melody writing, high school chorus work, and the use of the talking machine. Beck. Three hours, each term.

13a,b,c. Scientific Music Reading and Choral Training. This course covers much the same ground as the usual sight singing course. However, the method of treatment is different in that syllables are not used and melody is considered in relation to its supporting harmonic structure. It is essentially an elementary course and is intended for those wishing for participation in larger choral efforts. Beck. One hour, each term.

22a,b,c. Ensemble. Underwood. One hour, each term.
31a,b,c. Orchestral Organization. Including elementary instruction in stringed instruments. Class limited to ten. Underwood. One hour, each term.

UPPER DIVISION

101. Strict Counterpoint. Constructive counterpoint, including a consideration of the so-called “harmonic counterpoint.” A study of such texts as Fux, Cherubini, Bellerman, Richter and Goetschius, together with the works of Bach, Handel and Wagner. Landsbury. Two hours, one term.

102-103. Double Counterpoint, Canon and Fugue. An elementary course dealing with the principles of double counterpoint in general, and the practical double counterpoints of J. S. Bach in particular. Simple types of canon and fugue, etc. Prerequisites, Courses 1, 2 and 101. Landsbury. Two hours, each term.

104a,b,c. Free Composition. A study of the characteristic idioms of the free style; the variation, simple and developed song form; developed ternary form, the art song, etc. Not more than three will be permitted in the class. Landsbury. Two hours, each term.

115. Musical Interpretation. Open only to piano students of collegiate rank. Especially designed for those who expect to teach. Landsbury. Two hours, one term.

131-132. Modulation. A comprehensive study of the resources of the triad, seventh chord, augmented chords, attendant chords, favorable and unfavorable positions, etc. in modulation. Much keyboard work will be demanded. The phrase and period will be used as the mold for the various formulae. Considerable attention will be given to the examination of the modulation of classical and romantic composers. Landsbury. Two hours, two terms.

140. The Philosophy of Music. Upper division seminar. Discussions of the physical basis of music, consonance and dissonance, musical content and associations, absolute and program music, the classical, romantic and modern viewpoints of the musical experience, etc. Landsbury. Hours to be arranged.

GRADUATE DIVISION

201. Seminar. A study of present day musical conditions with particular reference to the adjustment of music to the curriculum. Each student will be given a definite research problem, and must defend his solution before the class. For the coming year it is planned to consider the nature of music; its relation to literature and science; progress toward the educational ideal in music, etc. Although intended primarily for graduates, advanced students in the upper division, showing proper preparation, will be admitted.

202. Multiple Counterpoint, Canon and Fugue. A course dealing with the principles of multiple counterpoint in general, and the double, triple, and quadruple counterpoints of J. S. Bach in particular; types of finite and infinite canon; simple, double and triple fugue; application of the strict style to orchestral and choral composition.

Two hours, each term.

203. Advanced Free Composition. Open to students showing marked creative ability, who have had adequate preparation. Classes will be limited to three members and each member must produce specimens in both the small and large forms which will be deemed worthy of publication or public performance.

204. Practical Artistry. To be accepted, the student must possess a technique adequate to the needs of the classical, romantic and modern schools; the required undergraduate work for a B.M. degree; must be enrolled in courses 201 and 202, and must show promise of being able to demonstrate by public performance the beauty and cultural value of the tonal masterpieces.

ORGANIZATION

The School of Physical Education was authorized by the board of regents during the summer of 1920. It was intended that the school should be broad in its scope and not limited to the theoretical work in physical education. The school was organized to embrace all the work done in physical education for both men and women, intercollegiate athletics, the work in hygiene and all the activities concerned with student health.

The School of Physical Education unites together the interests of the following departments:

1. Physical education for women.
2. Physical education for men.
3. Intercollegiate athletics.
4. University health service.

The school supplies service courses for the University through the departments for men and women, physical education being required of all students during the first two years of their residence. All freshmen on entering, are given a medical examination by the University health service so that the student may be properly adjusted to his physical activities.

A course of study, in which all departments cooperate, is shown on another page and is intended as the foundation training for those who wish to specialize in the various fields of physical education. Such a course should be followed during the graduate years by a more intensive study if one expects to make physical education a profession. Some of the opportunities for service in physical education are as high school directors, city supervisors, community and play-ground managers, college and university instructors and directors, coaches of major and minor sports.

THE UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICE

While the Health Service is maintained primarily for the care of students who may become ill during their stay on the campus, it is also looked upon as an educational institution aiming to teach preventative medicine and hygiene. Through its consultations, examinations and advice it attempts to point out the causes of ill health and to present clearly the fundamental laws of good health.

The courses in hygiene offered by the School are given by the members of the health service.

DEGREES

Bachelor of Arts or Science. The courses in the School of Physical Education are so arranged that the student may fulfill all the requirements of the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, and may obtain either the B.A. or the B. S. degree.

Master of Arts or Science. Those who care to become specialists in the field of physical education are urged to take advantage of the graduate courses in the department and complete work for the M.A. or M.S. degree. Two lines of endeavor are open now, one in physiotherapy and the other in physiology.

The degree of master of arts or master of science is open to those who have a bachelor of arts or science degree from this institution or any other of approved standing.

Graduates from other institutions who wish to enter the graduate courses in the School of Physical Education should present as prerequisite the equivalent of the required curriculum in the School.

PHYSICAL AND MEDICAL EXAMINATION

All students whether freshmen or not, are required to have a physical examination upon entering the University. Examinations are conducted in the examination rooms of the physical education department during the week preceding the opening of the fall term and during the first week of the winter and spring terms. Every effort should be made to have the physical examination completed before regular university work begins, especially in the case of those whose physical condition makes it probable that some modification of the regular work in physical education must be made.

FEEES

A laboratory fee is charged every student registered in the gymnasium classes, to cover the use of pool and baths, locker, swimming suit, towels, bandages and other perishable supplies. The amount of this fee as well as the others charged by the University is given in the schedule of courses which is published at the beginning of the year.

EQUIPMENT

Uniform gymnasium suits and shoes which conform to definite hygienic requirements are necessary. Much of the gymnasium equipment is furnished the student on the payment of an equipment fee, so that nothing should be purchased before coming to the University.

TEACHERS' CERTIFICATES

Those majoring in physical education upon completion of the course of study as outlined, will have completed the requirements for a state teacher's certificate, entitling the holder to teach in the schools of Oregon.

Others, not majors, may obtain recommendations from the School of physical education provided they satisfactorily complete the course outlined as a norm in physical education. (See School of Education.)

For a recommendation to coach the major sports, a course has been outlined which includes not only the courses in coaching, but a minimum of work in hygiene and theory of physical education.

Description of Courses

Courses 1-2-3 and 4-5-6 (or 7-8-9) for women, and 51-52-53 and 54-55-56 (or 57-58-59) for men, are required of all undergraduates in the first two years of residence. Courses 13a,b,c and 23a,b,c for women and 73a,b,c and 83a,b,c for men may be considered as fulfilling the physical education requirement.

Courses Primarily for Women

1-2-3. Elementary Physical Education. Required of freshmen in good physical condition. Postural and developmental gymnastics, physical efficiency tests for endurance, strength and agility. Two periods, fall and winter terms. Educational interpretative dancing. Self-expression by means of coordinated, rhythmical and natural bodily movement, regulated or stimulated by music. One period a week, fall and winter terms. Choice of swimming, folk or educational interpretative dancing or outdoor sports. Three periods a week, spring term. One hour, each term.

4-5-6 Advanced Physical Education. Required of sophomores. A progression of course 1-2-3, with advanced gymnastic work and more difficult physical efficiency tests. Two periods a week, fall and winter terms. A progression of dancing in course 1-2-3. One period a week, fall and winter terms. Choice of swimming, folk or educational interpretative dancing, or outdoor sports. Three periods a week, spring term. One hour, each term.

7-8-9 Individual Gymnastics. For students referred to the department by the University health service or their family physicians, for special work. Prescriptive exercises, or heat and massage, as indicated, for body-building, posture, foot work, etc. Freshmen and sophomores required to enter this work substitute it for courses 1-2-3 and 4-5-6. Three periods a week. One hour, each term.

10a,b,c. Personal Hygiene. A study of anatomy and physiology, followed by the application of the laws of hygiene for the health and welfare of the individual. One lecture a week. One hour, each term.

11a,b,c. Introduction to Physical Education. Required of all majors in the freshmen year. The object of this course is to introduce the student to the scope and immediate objectives of physical education, its relation to and correlation with the sciences and its contribution to health and efficiency. A discussion of the different phases of physical education and their contribution to the foregoing. The spring term is devoted to the technique of all the major sports. Two lectures a week. Two hours, each term.

13a,b,c. Physical Education. Required of major students in the freshmen year in place of course 1-2-3. Includes gymnastics and folk dancing, fall and winter terms; and major sports and folk dancing, spring term. Four periods a week. One hour, each term.

21a,b,c. Fundamentals of Physical Education. Required of all majors in their sophomore year. The fall term is devoted to the history of physical education; the winter term to general and intergroup hygiene; and the spring term to symptomatology and first aid. Two lectures a week. Two hours, each term.

23a,b,c. Physical Education. Required of all sophomore majors. Takes the place of course 4-5-6. Includes practice in major sports, gymnastics and educational interpretative dancing. Three periods a week, fall and winter terms. Four periods a week, spring term. One hour, each term.

Courses Primarily for Men

51-52-53. Elementary Physical Education. Required of freshmen. After a physical examination the student is assigned to various classes by the instructor. Class work is given in the following: gymnasium, floor work, swimming, boxing, wrestling, basketball, football, track, etc. Three periods a week. One hour, each term.

54-55-56. Advanced Physical Education. Required of sophomores. Continuation of course 51-52-53, but more advanced in character. Students are required to have engaged in at least three lines of recreational activities before the end of the sophomore year. Three periods a week. One hour, each term.

57-58-59. Restricted Physical Education. Special courses for freshmen and sophomores not adapted to the heavier regular class work. Students are given individual attention and assigned to recreational and corrective programs suited to their needs. Substitute for courses 51-52-53 and 54-55-56. Three periods a week. One hour, each term.

60a,b,c. Personal Hygiene. A brief study of physiology followed by the application of the natural laws of hygiene for the health and welfare of the individual. Textbooks, references and lectures. One lecture a week. One hour, each term.

64-65-66. Physical Education Elective. Open only to freshmen and sophomores who expect to become squad leaders. Methods of handling large groups of men and of teaching gymnastics, games, athletics and swimming. The course does not take the place of the required physical education courses. Three periods a week. One hour, each term.

71a,b,c. Introduction to Physical Education. Required of freshmen majors. Introduces the student to the scope and immediate objectives of physical education, its relation to and correlation with the sciences and its contribution to health and efficiency. A discussion of some of the "tools" of physical education in their relation to the foregoing. Two lectures a week.

Two hours, each term.

73a,b,c. Physical Education. Required of all majors in the freshman year in place of course 51-52-53. Includes instruction in gymnastics, games, athletics and swimming. Three periods a week.
One hour, each term.

ORGANIZATION

The work of the School of Sociology is arranged to provide cultural courses for undergraduates and professional training for social workers and for civic leaders. The courses in theory lead to advanced degrees and prepare for effective handling of the problems of progress in present day democratic society. The courses in applied sociology afford training for social workers. To secure more available facilities for supervised field work the courses in applied sociology are given mainly at Portland, under the supervision of the Portland School of Social Work, a division of the school of Sociology.

AIMS

1. The development of ability to interpret the movements in the social process in which the student participates is the purpose of the courses in social origins, evolution and growth and the analysis of human nature. These courses are planned to coordinate any synthesize the knowledge of the student gained through experience and the study of literature, history and the special social sciences.

2. Through systematic analysis of the more fundamental and pressing problems of social adjustment to prepare for constructive leadership.

3. Through mastery of sociological systems of thought, and training in the technique of the social survey, the use of social statistics and their application in community organization and planning, to train for research activities and productive scholarship.

REQUIREMENTS FOR AN UNDERGRADUATE MAJOR

LOWER DIVISION

- 8 term hours in Principles of Economics.
- 6 term hours in Social Origins, Evolution and Growth.
- 3 term hours in Psychological Foundations.

UPPER DIVISION

- 15 term hours in Principles of Sociology and Social Adjustment (New Social Order).
- 12 term hours, Theory of Social Progress and Community Organization and Development.

* Leave of absence, 1923-24.

REQUIREMENTS FOR THE MASTER'S DEGREE

Prerequisites: The attention of the graduate student is called to the general requirements of the Graduate School as set forth under the Graduate School.

Undergraduate training, the equivalent of the requirements in the lower division of the undergraduate major in sociology, must be gained by the candidate for a master's degree with a major in sociology before credits can be earned in fulfillment of the requirements for this degree.

Courses required:
Principles of Sociology, 10 term hours.
Theory of Progress, 6 term hours.
Sociological Systems, 9 term hours.

COURSES OF STUDY FOR MAJORS IN SOCIOLOGY

Social agencies are making ever larger demands for university graduates. Every profession is more and more getting the point of view that normally its primary function is that of a constructive social agency and the avocation of the elite must necessarily be leadership in social adjustment. The distinctive line of social activity the student has in view will naturally determine the combination of courses to be selected. The following courses are suggested as a nucleus:

APPLIED SOCIOLOGY

In addition to the course of study already outlined the following grouping of courses for the first three years is designed especially for students who propose to spend the senior year in the Portland School of Social Work.

The Portland School of Social Work has designed its course to receive students from the campus in the senior year to complete the work for a

B.S. or A.B. degree in the regulation time of four years. The ideal arrangement, if the student is able to attend the Portland School of Social Work for two years, is to spend the senior year for the A.B. or B.S. degree at the School and take the second year of Social Work as graduate work. Well established schools in the East are tending in the direction of confining their activities exclusively to work with graduate students. While this is the goal toward which the Portland School of Social Work is aiming, the present conditions both in the social work field and in the University make it imperative that some social work training of specialized character should be given during the regular four-year course.

Candidates for the A.B. and B.S. degree may transfer to the School of Social Work at the beginning of the senior year. In the case of candidates for the A.B. degree the student will be careful to observe the language requirements for that course which must be completed on the campus, as the two years spent in the Portland School scarcely permit of pursuing a language course. Candidates for the B.S. degree, who are relieved from a year of language required of the A.B. candidates will substitute a natural science, preferably chemistry.

LOWER DIVISION

The following separate courses are regarded as a unit: the minimum elementary basis for the further study of sociology. The purpose of this year-course is to build up a unified and comprehensive view of the conditions under which mankind has advanced to higher planes of living. Prerequisite, sophomore standing.

1a. Social Origins and Development. The general evolutionary viewpoint is presented and applied to man. His origin, racial differentiation and dispersion are reviewed. The social nature of the fundamental human institutions is stressed, together with the influences of geographic environment, technology, social heritage, tribal organization and cultural contacts. Macy.

Three hours, fall term.

1b. Primitive Society and Culture. Several typical primitive culture areas are studied somewhat intensively with the idea of impressing upon the student the essential unity of mankind. Then the institutional aspects of primitive society are considered: government, religion, art, technology, the family, social organization, communication, etc. The object is to bring out the similarities and differences as between the various ethnic groups, and to show the relations of these factors to our own civilization, the prime purpose being to develop in the student a critical, comparative, and constructive attitude toward the problems of society. Macy.

Three hours, winter term.

1c. Psychological Foundations. The origin and development of human personality through social contact is traced. The play of the different social processes and the establishment of attitudes, habits and relationships are traced as they are determined by the instincts and other elements in human nature. The modifying and directing of the human dispositions toward the attainment of higher ideals are studied. Macy.

Three hours, spring term.

UPPER DIVISION

104a,b. Principles of Sociology. The influences and factors determining human life in association are studied. A comprehensive view of the social process is developed. Five hours, fall and winter term.

105. The New Social Order. The factors in the present situation of western civilization causing movements for reorganization are examined. The leading programs for the attainment of a new social order are analyzed. Five hour, spring term.

109-110-111. Social Work Seminar. Lectures, readings, written reports and papers designed to harmonize the campus class work with the social work training of the Portland school. The various fields of social work will be discussed and the student will familiarize himself with the literature, periodicals, and conspicuous examples of social work in its numerous phases. Open to juniors and seniors electing the pre-social work major in the school of sociology. Parsons. Three hours, each term.

112. Teaching of the Social Sciences. Prerequisite, two years work in some of the social sciences. Young. One hour, winter term.

120. Sociology and Ethics. The development of a world view with the sociological method and the application of it to the more fundamental and pressing ethical problems of the present time. Three hours, spring term.

136a,b. Theory of Social Progress. Concepts of the social self and of progress are developed and the roles of the different factors affecting progress are determined. Young. Three hours, fall and winter terms.

140. Community Organization and Development. The unit or focus of common life is defined and the organization for it that will serve to bring into play most effective functioning for normal development. Young. Three hours, spring term.

GRADUATE DIVISION

202a,b,c. Sociological Systems. Selected systems of thought essaying to interpret the course of human history are analyzed with the view of determining their fundamental ideas. The evolution to clearness and scientific character of the hypotheses used, through their receiving increasing support of natural and psychological science, is traced. Prerequisite, 104. Young. Three hours, each term.

203. Social Survey. Diagnosis of social problems and methods of social investigation; formulation of community programs; presentation of social facts and survey findings. Prerequisite, 104. Young.

Three hours, spring term.

204. Social Statistics. Principles of statistics and their application to the data furnished by official publications and special investigations; statistical methods applied to both theoretical and practical problems of sociology. Prerequisite, 104. Young. Three hours, winter term.

205. Town, City and Regional Planning. Study of the principles of city planning and the relation to regional, state and national planning. Formulation of programs of development based upon fundamental principles of progress. Prerequisite, 104. Young.

Three hours, spring term.

INTRODUCTORY

The twentieth annual summer sessions of the University of Oregon will be held simultaneously on the campus at Eugene and in the Portland Center, beginning immediately after commencement and continuing for six weeks.

On the campus at Eugene, emphasis will be placed upon courses of specialized, advanced and graduate character wherein the libraries and laboratories of the University can be utilized fully. In the Portland Center courses of more general character will be offered, reference work being done in the Multnomah County Library. This differentiation does not mean that there will be no elementary courses at Eugene and no advanced courses at Portland. It means, rather, that elementary courses will be offered at Eugene only in those subjects in which the demand is heavy or the need for the specialized facilities evident; and that advanced work in Portland will be restricted to courses in which large enrollment can be predicted.

REGISTRATION

Registration will take place on Monday, June 23. The Registration fee for the Summer session is twelve dollars and fifty cents ($12.50). In most of the laboratory courses there is a moderate laboratory fee to help defray the cost of materials and upkeep of equipment. The amounts of these fees will be given in the schedule of courses distributed at the opening of the session.

The student may carry the amount of work necessary to earn nine term-hours of credit during a six weeks session.

REQUIREMENTS FOR ADMISSION AND DEGREES

The only requirement for admission to the summer session is ability to do the work.

Admission to Work for a Degree—Students who wish to become candidates for a degree from the University must satisfy the regular university entrance requirements. Credentials consisting of the transcripts of the high school or preparatory work of such students should be filed with the registrar of the University as early as possible before the opening of the session.

Entrance Requirements—For entrance to the University the student must present 15 units of high school work, of which ten are from selected subjects as follows:

|                            |   |  |   |
|----------------------------|---|--|---|
| English .....              | 3 | History .....                          | 1 |
| Algebra .....              | 1 | Science (with laboratory) .....        | 1 |
| Geometry .....             | 1 | Additional unit in any subject in this | 1 |
| One foreign language ..... | 2 | group .....                            | 1 |

Elective units to the amount of five are permitted, but no credit is granted for drill, spelling, penmanship, physical training, or for work which may be classed as largely or purely a student activity.

Advanced Standing—Advanced standing will be given students coming from institutions of collegiate rank, who can satisfy the committee on advanced standing that the courses offered are equivalent to those given by the University. All applicants for advanced standing must present complete official transcripts covering both their high school and college records, and a letter of honorable dismissal. The committee will meet to consider petitions for advanced standing in the first week in July.

Residence Requirement for Degrees—At least 45 term-hours must be earned in residence at the University of Oregon. The 45 term-hours immediately preceding graduation must also be earned with the University, although not necessarily in residence.

Further information concerning admission and graduation requirements may be obtained from the registrar of the University.

Advanced Degrees—Students seeking advanced degrees should file their credentials with the registrar of the University for the consideration of the Graduate Council at an early date, and should as soon as practicable, draw up a tentative programme of work leading to the degree for submission to the Council.

GRADUATE WORK

Special consideration is given to the requirements of graduate students in planning the work of the campus summer session. A number of courses are offered which are open to graduate students only. Many of the upper division courses are so arranged that they may be used for graduate credit. The visiting members of the summer session faculty are selected for the stimulus which they can bring to the graduate work. In most departments the summer courses are arranged in two or three year sequences. Qualified students doing advanced or graduate work may, by special arrangement with their instructors, continue independent study for an additional six weeks in the library or the laboratories of the university.

Some advanced courses in the Portland Center may by special arrangement be used for graduate credit.

All students contemplating graduate work in the summer session should see the regulations concerning graduate study published in the bulletin of the graduate school (to be had upon application to the Registrar.)

SUMMER SESSION COURSES

The University has published a special bulletin giving a full description of the courses offered both at Eugene and in Portland, which may be secured by writing either to the Extension Division, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon, or to the Portland Extension Center, University of Oregon, 652 Courthouse, Portland, Oregon.

ORGANIZATION

The Extension division is an integral and specialized division of the University, correlative with the several schools of the University. Through the Extension division the University renders service to individuals, organizations and communities outside the campus. All such service when rendered in the name of the University of Oregon is undertaken and carried out through the extension service.

The main activities of the Extension division as at present organized are comprised in four departments:

- (1) Department of correspondence study.
- (2) Department of visual instruction.
- (3) Department of social welfare.
- (4) Portland extension center.

CORRESPONDENCE STUDY DEPARTMENT

The correspondence study department, begun in 1907, includes 91 courses, practically all of college grade.

No entrance examinations are required, but any person of sufficient maturity to carry courses with profit may register for them. The Extension division reserves the right, however, to advise students regarding the courses that are best suited to their preparation and needs.

FEES

The fees for correspondence-study are given in the correspondence-study catalogue published by the Extension Division, University of Oregon, Eugene, Oregon. Other information concerning the activities of the Extension Division is also available upon request.

ELIGIBILITY TO CORRESPONDENCE-STUDY

The correspondence courses offered by the extension division of the University of Oregon are intended primarily for residents of the state. Exceptions are sometimes made in the case of students who are out of the state temporarily or of non-residents who are definitely preparing to enter the University. Special fees are required of non-residents.

No student is expected to carry correspondence work while in actual attendance at any college or high school. If work is done under such conditions, it must be by special consent of the department of extension teaching, following the advice of the resident instructors of the student.

CREDIT FOR CORRESPONDENCE-STUDY

Undergraduate. Sixty term hours is the maximum amount of credit that may be earned in correspondence courses and counted toward the degree of bachelor of arts.

Graduate. Candidates for the degree of master of arts may, subject to the approval of the graduate council, satisfy the residence requirements by completing eighteen term hours in regular summer sessions and nine term hours in special research work at the University under the immediate direction of the major professor, subject to the rules of the graduate council and with the consent of the major professor, they may make arrangements to complete a portion of the work remaining through correspondence courses.

Entrance. Students who are deficient in entrance credits may, under certain conditions, make up such deficiencies through correspondence courses.

EXTENSION MONITOR

All correspondence students receive the Extension Monitor, a magazine published by the extension division as the special organ of the correspondence-study department, which contains information and suggestions for students, as well as articles of general interest.

TEACHER'S READING CIRCLE

Under correspondence-study may also be classified the Teachers' Reading Circle, given in cooperation with the State Superintendent of Public Instruction, through which between 4000 and 5000 teachers do professional reading each year under the supervision of the University.

MISCELLANEOUS EXTENSION CLASSES

Affiliated also with correspondence-study at present are extension classes held elsewhere than in Portland.

DEPARTMENT OF VISUAL INSTRUCTION

Visual instruction service includes a library of stereopticon slides, moving picture films, rock and mineral sets, microscopical slides, and other material usable for educational purposes by schools, community clubs and other appropriate organizations.

A special catalogue is published and seasonal lists are available on application to the Extension division, Eugene, Oregon.

The service of this department was extended in 1923 to audiences totaling approximately 250,000.

DEPARTMENT OF SOCIAL WELFARE

The department of social welfare includes extension lectures, extension participation in surveys and investigations, conferences, institutes and publications, as well as the direct service of the faculty members under extension auspices to many aspects of the intellectual and recreational life of the state.

In this department the secretaryship of the Oregon High School Debating league has been administered by the University since the foundation of the league in 1907. Bulletins of the league are available upon application.

Extension lectures are arranged by correspondence with the organizations interested. No lecture fee is charged, but the expenses of the lecturer are paid by the committee or organization in charge.

Among the surveys and investigations in which the Extension division has cooperated in recent years are:

The Oregon State survey of defectives and delinquents made by Dr. Chester L. Carlisle of the United States Public Health Service; a rural survey of Lane County, in connection with the Presbyterian county church commission; a study of the county school systems of the state of Oregon on the ten points of efficiency of the Russell Sage study of state systems. This last compilation was published by State Superintendent Churchill and has been of great value in improving school conditions.

PORTLAND EXTENSION CENTER

The Portland extension center, organized in 1917, maintains an office in the Multnomah county court house and holds its classes in the Lincoln high school and elsewhere.

The purposes of the Portland center are: (a) to make it possible for a large group of people to acquire some degree of higher education, or to continue or supplement their higher education, even though they be not able to drop their daily work and go to college; (b) to furnish information and counsel concerning University procedure—admission, credit, selection of courses, etc.

The activities of the Portland center are fully coordinated with those of the campus by the use of many campus instructors, and by frequent conferences with deans of schools and heads of campus departments.

GRADUATE WORK

It is possible, in a number of departments in the Portland Center, to accomplish the whole work for the degree of master of arts, and in other departments to accomplish at least some portion of that work. For special requirements see section on the Graduate School in this catalogue.

Description of Courses

Following is the offering of courses in the Portland Extension Center. The classes are in most cases evening classes, held at the Lincoln High School and the Public Library. Students may register for not more than six hours of work for each term. Students who have not matriculated in the University receive provisional credit only.

Numbers between 1 and 99 indicate courses intended primarily for lower division students, those between 100 and 199 indicate courses intended primarily for upper division students, although many of this group may be taken for graduate credit, while those numbered 200 and above are exclusively graduate courses.
