Oregon State System of Higher Education

The Oregon State System of Higher Education was organized in 1932 by the State Board of Higher Education following a survey of higher education in Oregon by the U. S. Office of Education. Member institutions are elements of an articulated system, parts of an integrated whole. The educational program is so organized as to distribute as widely as possible throughout the state the opportunities for general education and to center on a particular campus specialized, technical, and professional curricula closely related to one another.

The institutions of the State System of Higher Education are the University of Oregon at Eugene, Oregon State University at Corvallis, Portland State College at Portland, Oregon College of Education at Monmouth, Southern Oregon College at Ashland, Eastern Oregon College at La Grande, and Oregon Technical Institute at Klamath Falls. The University of Oregon Medical School and the University of Oregon Dental School are located in Portland. The Division of Continuing Education, representing all the institutions, has offices in Ashland, Corvallis, Eugene, La Grande, Monmouth, Portland, and Salem.

At Oregon College of Education, Southern Oregon College, and Eastern Oregon College, students may complete major work in teacher education or general studies or enroll in a preprofessional program. Southern Oregon College offers a major program in business.

Portland State College offers major work in general studies and selected liberal arts and professional fields as well as certain preprofessional programs.

At the University of Oregon and Oregon State University, major curricula, both liberal and professional, are grouped on either campus in accordance with the distinctive functions of the respective institutions in the unified State System of Higher Education.

Oregon Technical Institute offers technological curricula leading to associate degrees in technical and semiprofessional areas.

An interinstitutional booklet, Your Education, which outlines the curricula of the several institutions and contains other information, is available. For a copy, write to Division of Publications, P.O. Box 5175, Eugene, Oregon 97403.

General Information

History of the University

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON was established by an act of the Oregon Legislature in 1872, but did not open its doors to students until four years later, in 1876. The founding of the University grew out of a Federal grant, authorized in the Donation Act of September 27, 1850, of two townships of land "to aid in the establishment of a university in the territory of Oregon." The territory then included the entire Oregon Country; it was specified that one of the townships was to be located north of the Columbia.

On July 17, 1854, the grant was changed by an act reserving two townships each for the newly separated Washington and Oregon territories. This grant was confirmed on February 14, 1859, when the Act of Congress admitting Oregon into the Union provided for a grant of seventy-two sections of land for the establishment and support of a state university. The Legislature, by an act of June 3, 1859, committed the people of Oregon to the application of the proceeds from this grant "to the use and support of a state university."

The settlement of Oregon and the accumulation of funds from the sale of these University lands progressed slowly. In 1850 the population of the entire Oregon Country was only 13,294. In 1860 the population of the state was 52,465, and in 1870, 90,993. There were already five denominational colleges in the state in 1860, and the United States census of 1870 reported that there were twenty "classical, professional and technical" institutions ("not public") in Oregon. The creation of a state university was deferred.

However, after a fund of $31,635 had accumulated from the sale of University lands, the Legislature on October 19, 1872 passed an act "to create, organize and locate the University of the State of Oregon." Eugene was chosen as a site after the Lane County delegation in the Legislature had offered to provide a building and campus worth $50,000. The Union University Association of Eugene, the organization promoting the institution, was given two years in which to construct this building.

Construction of the building, Deady Hall, began in May 1873. However, the genesis of the University and the economic troubles of 1873 coincided, and it was only after an intense struggle to keep the enterprise alive and a two-year extension of time for completion that the conditions specified in the act creating the University were declared fulfilled. The site and building were accepted by the state on July 28, 1876, and the University opened its first session on October 16, 1876. The first class was graduated in June 1878.

Deady Hall was the nucleus around which other University buildings later arose; Villard Hall, the second campus structure, was built in 1885.

The first University courses were limited almost entirely to classical and literary subjects; the demand for a broader curriculum was, however, gradually met by the addition of scientific and professional instruction. Around the original liberal arts college were organized the professional schools, beginning with the School of Law, established as a night law school in Portland in 1884 (in 1915 the School of Law was moved to Eugene and reorganized as a regular division of the University). The Medical School was established in Portland in 1887. The Graduate School was organized in 1900, the School of Music in 1902, the School of Education in 1910, the School of Architecture and Allied Arts and the School of Business Administration in 1914, the School of Journalism in 1916, and the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation in 1920. The Dental School, located in Portland, became a part of the University in 1945; its previous history as a privately supported institution dates from 1893. The School of Nursing, located on the Medical School campus in Portland, was organized in 1960 (a degree curriculum in nursing has been offered by the University since 1926; from 1932 to 1960 the program was administered through the Department of Nursing Education of the Medical School). The Honors College was established in 1960.

Since its founding, the following men have served the University as president: John Wesley Johnson, 1876-1893; Charles H. Chapman, 1893-1899; Frank Strong, 1899-1902; Prince Lucien Campbell, 1902-1925; Arnold Bennett Hall, 1926-1932; Clarence Valentine Boyer, 1934-1938; Donald Milton Erb, 1938-1943; Orlando John Hollis, acting president, 1944-1945; Harry K. Newburn, 1945-1953; Victor Pierpont Morris, acting president, 1953-1954; O. Meredith Wilson, 1954-1960; William C. Jones, acting president, 1960-1961; Arthur S. Flemming, since 1961.

Income

THE STATE LAW creating the Board of Higher Education specified that this body was to "have and exercise control of the use, distribution and disbursement of all funds, appropriations and taxes, now or hereafter in possession, levied and collected, received or appropriated for the use, benefit, support and maintenance of institutions of higher education." Under this act, effective July 1, 1931, the Board administers all funds for all state-supported higher-educational activities, including the University of Oregon, on the basis of a unified budget.

Funds for the support of higher education in Oregon are derived primarily from the following sources: state appropriations for the operation of the institutions; specified sums from the national government assigned for definite purposes by Congressional acts; income from student tuition and fees; and other sources such as gifts, grants, sales, service charges, etc.

University of Oregon Development Fund. An integrated and continuing program to obtain financial support of the academic work of the University from private donors is operated through the University of Oregon Development Fund, a nonprofit organization incorporated under the laws of the state of Oregon. The fund is administered through a Board of Directors, including alumni, faculty members, students, and other friends of the institution. Information concerning the program and concerning University needs for which private support is essential may be obtained from Richard C. Williams, Director of Development.

Campuses

THE MAIN CAMPUS of the University of Oregon is located in Eugene (population 51,000), 109 miles south of Portland, at the head of the Willamette Valley. Eugene is a progressive city with excellent schools, numerous churches, and strong civic and social organizations. The climate is mild, with moderate winters and cool summers. The average annual rainfall is 38½ inches, with the heaviest rainfall in the winter months, November, December, and January.

The Eugene campus occupies about 187 acres of land in the eastern part of the city. The campus is bisected by Thirteenth Avenue. The first University buildings were erected north of Thirteenth, on what is known as the "old campus." Later expansions have been principally to the south and east.

Most of the buildings on the old campus are arranged in a quadrangle: Fenton Hall, Deady Hall, Villard Hall, Lawrence Hall, Allen Hall, and Friendly Hall. Johnson Hall (the Administration Building) is located across Thirteenth Avenue, facing the north quadrangle. South of Johnson Hall is an integrated group of buildings, including Gerlinger Hall (the women's gymnasium), Hendricks Hall, and Susan Campbell Hall.

A new quadrangle to the west includes Commonwealth Hall, north of Thirteenth Avenue, and, to the south, Condon Hall, Chapman Hall, the Museum of Art, Prince L. Campbell Hall, and the University Library. The Education Building and the Music Building are located south of this quadrangle.

Until the 1920s the east boundary of the campus was, roughly, University Street. Significant expansion beyond this boundary began with the erection of McArthur Court (the student athletic center) and the John Straub Memorial Building (a men's dormitory), and continued in the 1930s with the erection of the Physical Education Building. More recent additions in this area are the Science Building, the Anthropology Building, Emerald Hall (a temporary structure housing administrative and student-affairs offices), the Donald M. Erb Memorial Union, several dormitories, and the Student Health Service Building.

Since the end of World War II, extensive temporary housing facilities for married students have been erected on or near the campus. These facilities include houses and apartments east of the main campus and row-house apartments occupying a 30-acre tract about six blocks southwest of the campus. A permanent housing project for married students has been developed on the west side of Eugene.

There are three notable works of sculpture on the campus. "The Pioneer," by Alexander Phimister Proctor, stands on the old campus, facing Johnson Hall; it was given to the University in 1919 by Joseph N. Teal. "The Pioneer Mother," also by Proctor, is located in the women's quadrangle; it was given to the University in 1932 by Vice-President Emeritus Burt Brown Barker, in memory of his mother. "Prometheus" (1958), by Jan Zach, north of the Museum of Art, is the gift of alumnae and student members of Gamma Phi Beta.

The Medical School, the Dental School, and the School of Nursing are located on an 101-acre campus in Portland's southwest hills, overlooking the city. For further information see the Medical School, Dental School, and School of Nursing catalogs.

THE SERVICES of the University of Oregon Library are organized in broad subject divisions: Social Science, Science, Humanities, and General Reference. Each of the divisions has its own reading rooms, conveniently integrated with its book collections. All University students have free access to the book stacks.

The services of the subject divisions are supplemented by the Audio-Visual Department, which provides facilities for the production, preservation, and use of recordings, slides, films, and similar materials, and by the Special Collections Division, which is responsible for the development and care of collections of Pacific Northwest historical materials, rare books, manuscripts, and University archives.

The University Library was founded in 1882 through a gift of books, worth $1,000, selected and purchased by Henry Villard of New York City. Before 1882 the only library available to students was a collection of about 1,000 volumes owned by the Laorean and Eutaxian student literary societies; this collection was made a part of the University Library in 1900. In 1881 Mr. Villard gave the University $50,000 as a permanent endowment; a provision of the gift was that at least $400 of the income should be used for the purchase of nontechnical books for the Library.

In addition to the general Library collections, the University has a number of specialized libraries with permanent collections. The holdings of the several libraries are shown below:

General Library	900,313
Law Library	61,198
Gertrude Bass Warner Memorial Library	984
Bureau of Municipal Research Library	21,525
Medical School Library	96,000
Dental School Library	9,324
Total	1,089,344

Other materials in the University Library include: 78,913 maps; 139,476 photos, pictures, and prints; 11,924 sound recordings; 80,928 slides; 558 film strips; 446 motion picture films; 102,127 uncataloged pamphlets; and 878,244 manuscripts.

The Library's facilities for undergraduate work are excellent, and strong collections for advanced study and research are being built in the various fields of liberal and professional scholarship. All of the books in the libraries of the institutions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education are available to the students and faculty of the University.

Some of the Library's resources of particular value for advanced study are: a collection of source materials on English life and letters in the seventeenth centure; a collection of books, reports, and periodicals on English opinion and politics of the nineteenth century, including considerable material on English liberalism in its relation to public education; materials on the history of American education in the nineteenth century; a collection of pamphlets on the English corn laws; the Overmeyer Collection of published works on the Civil War; a collection of Balzaciana; unusually extensive and complete files of psychological periodicals; an extensive collection of Oregon and Pacific Northwest manuscripts, photographs, maps, pamphlets, books, and newspapers. The noncurrent records of the University of Oregon are deposited with the Library as University archives.

The Burgess Collection of manuscripts, incunabula, and rare books is the gift of Miss Julia Burgess, late professor of English at the University, and of friends of the institution.

The Ernest Haycox Memorial Library, housed in a special room in the Library, consists of books and other materials accumulated by the late Mr. Ernest Haycox, '23, for background and reference use during his twenty-five-year career as a writer.

The Douglass Room, established through a bequest from the late Matthew Hale Douglass, former librarian of the University, contains record collections, collections of music scores, and reference books in the fields of music. The room is equipped with phonographs with earphone attachments for individual listening.

The Philip Brooks Memorial Library, the gift of Mrs. Lester Brooks, is a reference collection of standard sets of American and English authors; it is housed in a special room on the third floor of the Library building.

The Adelaide Church Memorial Room, a "browsing room" for recreational reading in the Student Union, is operated as a department of the University Library. Collections maintained in this room include the Pauline Potter Homer Collection of fine editions, illustrated books, books with fine bindings, and examples of the work of private presses.

The Bureau of Municipal Research Library, housed in Commonwealth Hall, contains books, pamphlets, and other materials dealing with problems of local government.

The Law Library, housed in Fenton Hall, contains complete case reports of the National Reporter System, complete state reports from Colonial times to the establishment of the Reporter System, a substantial collection of English and Canadian case law, compilations of state and Federal statute law, standard legal digests and encyclopaedias, etc. Its periodical collection includes about 300 titles. An excellent collection of publications relating to Oregon territorial and state laws includes an extensive file of Oregon Supreme Court briefs.

The Gertrude Bass Warner Memorial Library of books on the history, literature, life, and particularly the art of Oriental countries is the gift of Mrs. Warner.

The School of Architecture and Allied Arts has a reference collection in Lawrence Hall. The collection includes the architecture library of the late Ion Lewis, Portland architect, given in 1929 by Mr. Lewis, and the library of William Whidden, given by his heirs.

The University Library issues a semiannual periodical, the CALL NUMBER, containing articles and notes of a broadly bibliographical nature, with special reference to its own collections.

Service. During the regular sessions the main Library is open on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays, and Thursdays from 8:00 a.m. to 11:00 p.m.; on Fridays from 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m.; on Saturdays from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.; and on Sundays from 2:00 to 10:00 p.m. During vacation periods the Library is open from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Books other than reference books and those especially reserved for use in the Library may be borrowed for a period of two weeks, with the privilege of renewal if there is no other demand. Library privileges are extended to all University students and staff members, and may be granted to other persons upon application.

Library Fines and Charges. The following regulations govern Library fines and charges:

(1) A fine of 25 cents per day is charged for each overdue book, recording, or other Library material other than reserve books and material circulated by special permission (maximum, $10.00).

(2) The following fines are charged for violation of rules governing reserve books and material circulated by special permission: (a) for overdue books, 25 cents an hour or fraction thereof (maximum, $10.00), until the material is returned or reported lost (a maximum charge of $1.00 an hour may be made in case of flagrant violation of the rules); (b) for failure to return books to proper department desk, 25 cents.

(3) Books needed for use in the Library are subject to recall at any time. A maximum fine of $1.00 a day may be imposed for failure to return promptly.

(4) Borrowers losing Library materials are charged: (a) the replacement cost of the material, (b) the amount of fine incurred up to the time the material is reported missing (maximum, $10.00), and (c) a service charge of $3.00 for each title.

(5) When a lost book, for which the borrower has been billed, is returned before a replacement has been ordered, a refund not exceeding the replacement cost may be made. In cases where a replacement has been ordered, any refunds to the borrower are at the discretion of the librarian.

Instruction. A program of study in librarianship is offered through the Department of Librarianship of the School of Education to prepare students for positions as librarians in schools and public libraries of the Pacific Northwest. The program includes a graduate major leading to the master's degree.

The department also offers a service course to acquaint students with the resources of the University Library and to aid them in the use of these resources.

Unified Facilities. The library collections at the state institutions of higher education in Oregon have been developed to meet special needs on each campus; but the book stock of the libraries, as property of the state, circulates freely to permit the fullest use of all books. The library facilities of the several institutions are coordinated through a director of libraries. The current director is also the librarian of the University of Oregon. A union catalog of the libraries of the State System is maintained in the Oregon State University Library, and an author list of books in the Oregon State University Library is maintained in the University of Oregon Library.

Museums and Collections

MUSEUMS AND COLLECTIONS maintained at the University include the Miniature Wagon Museum, the Museum of Art and the Museum of Natural History. Art exhibits are also shown in the gallery on the second floor of the Student Union.

Museum of Art

WALLACE S. BALDINGER, Ph.D.....Director
MARK CLARKE, B.S.....Curator

The Museum of Art, housing the Murray Warner Collection of Oriental Art and other University art collections, was erected in 1930. The building and the garden court adjoining it, both dedicated to the memory of Prince Lucien Campbell, fourth president of the University, were financed through gifts.

The Warner Collection was given to the University in 1921 by Mrs. Gertrude Bass Warner as a memorial to her husband, Major Murray Warner, with whom she had been collecting works of Oriental art from the time of their marriage in China in 1904 until his death in 1920. Mrs. Warner continued until her death in 1951 to augment and improve the collection and direct its exhibition. She also established a museum reference library for studies in Oriental art; the collection is now known as the Gertrude Bass Warner Memorial Library.

The Murray Warner Collection includes 3,196 accessioned objects, representing principally the cultures of China and Japan, but including some works of art from Korea, Cambodia, Mongolia, and Russia.

The first-floor galleries of the Museum of Art are reserved for the showing of traveling exhibitions, the display of special study material, and exhibitions of Northwest artists. Exhibitions, a program of statewide services, including circulating exhibitions, and acquisitions for the permanent collections are financed principally through a Friends of the Museum organization; membership is open to the public.

Museum of Natural History

J. ARNOLD SHOTWELL, Ph.D.....Director; Curator of Fossil Vertebrates
DAVID L. COLE, M.S.....Curator of Anthropology
LEROY DETLING, Ph.D.....Curator of the Herbarium
JANE GRAY, Ph.D.....Curator of Palaeobotany
LAURENCE R. KITTLEMAN, Ph.D.....Curator of Geology

The Museum of Natural History is primarily a research department devoted to studies of the history of the earth, plants, animals, and man as found in Oregon. The knowledge gained in these studies is made available to the public through displays, publications, a public-school loan program, a museum information service, and loans to other institutions. As a repository, the Museum of Natural History maintains large collections of fossils, plants, animals, rocks, and the objects used by primitive man.

In addition to storage and display areas, the Museum of Natural History has a preparation laboratory and shop, an archaeology laboratory, palaeoecology laboratories including facilities for the study of sedimentation and pollen, and drafting, illustration, and darkroom areas, for staff and graduate-student research.

The former Condon Museum of Geology and the Museum of Vertebrate Zoology are integrated into the Museum of Natural History. The anthropological collections are designated by state law as the Oregon State Museum of Anthropology.

The Herbarium of the Museum of Natural History maintains a large collection of plants of Oregon and the Northwest, including the Howell, Leiberg, and Cusick collections. The palaeobotanical collections include fossil leaves and pollen from many localities. Tertiary fossil vertebrates represent all stages of the history of the fauna of Oregon. Skins and skeletons of mammals and birds are available for study. The artifacts of primitive man in Oregon are well represented in the large archaeological collections. The collections also include specimens illustrating the material culture of primitive peoples of many parts of the world. The collections are continually augmented through an intensive field program and gifts.

The displays of the museum are open daily. Large groups should make appointments in advance to avoid congestion. During the academic year the museum is open Monday through Friday from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. and on Saturday and Sunday from 1:30 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. The museum is not open on week ends in the summer.

Miniature Wagon Museum

IVAN COLLINSDirector

The Miniature Wagon Museum, located in Erb Memorial Union, houses over fifty miniatures of wagons, coaches, and other horse-drawn equipment used in America in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries. The miniatures are authentic reproductions one-eighth actual size. Many of the wagons are displayed in recreated historical settings.

Official Publications

THE 1932 LEGISLATIVE ACT placing all the Oregon state institutions of higher education under the control of one Board provided that all public announcements pertaining to the several institutions "shall emanate from and bear the name of the Department of Higher Education and shall be conducted in such a way as to present to the citizens of the state and prospective students a fair and impartial view of the higher educational facilities provided by the state and the prospects for useful employment in the various fields for which those facilities afford preparation." Official publications of the University of Oregon include:

University of Oregon Bulletin. The UNIVERSITY OF OREGON BULLETIN is published nine times a year by the State Board of Higher Education. Included in the BULLETIN are the official catalogs of the University and its several divisions.

University of Oregon Books. Scholarly studies published by the University appear under the imprint, UNIVERSITY OF OREGON BOOKS. Some studies also carry a serial designation, UNIVERSITY OF OREGON MONOGRAPHS.

Comparative Literature. COMPARATIVE LITERATURE, a quarterly journal, is published by the University of Oregon in cooperation with the Comparative Literature Section of the Modern Language Association of America.

Oregon Law Review. The OREGON LAW REVIEW is published quarterly under the editorship of the faculty of the School of Law as a service to the members of the Oregon bar and as a stimulus to legal research and productive scholarship on the part of students.

Oregon Business Review. The OREGON BUSINESS REVIEW is published monthly by the Bureau of Business and Economic Research. Its primary purpose is to report and interpret current business and economic conditions in Oregon and the Pacific Northwest.

Call Number. The CALL NUMBER is published semiannually by the University of Oregon Library. It contains articles and notes of a broadly bibliographical nature, with special reference to the Library's own collections.

Northwest Review. The NORTHWEST REVIEW, issued three times a year, is devoted to creative writing, art, criticism, and comment; the work of Pacific Northwest contributors is particularly welcome.

Northwest Folklore. NORTHWEST FOLKLORE, published semiannually, publishes research articles and notes, with special reference to the folklore of the Pacific Northwest.

Curriculum Bulletin. The Curriculum Bulletin is published ten times a year by the School of Education. Each issue presents a single topic of interest to school teachers and administrators.

Physical-Education Microcards. The University issues, through the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, several microcard series in the fields of health, physical education, recreation, and related subjects. The series include dissertations, theses, and other unpublished research materials, and out-of-print scholarly books and periodicals.

Municipal Research Bulletins. The publications of the Bureau of Municipal Research and Service, intended primarily as a service to city officials in the state of Oregon, are issued in four series, INFORMATION BULLETINS, LEGAL BULLETINS, FINANCE BULLETINS, and SPECIAL BULLETINS, published for the most part in mimeographed form.

Academic Regulations

Admission

TO BE ADMITTED to the University of Oregon a student must be of good moral character and must present evidence of acceptable preparation for work at the college level. Every person wishing to earn credit in the regular sessions of the University must send to the Office of Admissions: (1) an application on an official University form; (2) a $10.00 application fee (this fee is not refundable); (3) official transcripts of all high-school and college records.

Application and transcripts of records should be filed well before the applicant intends to enter the University; late filing may delay or prevent registration. If a student fails to submit the required documents in complete and satisfactory form, his admission and registration may be canceled. All records submitted become the property of the University.

Students planning to enter the University in the fall term should send their applications for admission to the Office of Admissions not later than August 31. A late-filing fee of $10.00 is charged if applications are filed later than this date.

Entrance Deposit. When he receives a notice of admission to the University, every entering student must send to the Office of Admissions an entrance deposit of $25.00; when he enrolls and completes registration, this deposit is retained as the student's general $25.00 deposit to cover loss or damage of University property, etc. (see page 84). If the student does not complete his registration, the entrance deposit is forfeited.

Admission to Freshman Standing

To be admitted to freshman standing in the University, a student must be a graduate of a standard or accredited high school and, in addition, meet certain qualitative educational standards. The qualitative requirements for residents of Oregon differ from those for nonresident students:

Resident Students. To be eligible for admission with freshman standing in the fall term, a student who is a resident of Oregon must: (1) have a 2.25 grade-point average in all high-school subjects taken for graduation; or (2) attain a satisfactory score (887) on the College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude Test; or (3) achieve a GPA of 2.00 on a full load of studies (at least 9 term hours) in a regular collegiate summer session, including a course in English composition and two or more courses from the fields of literature, social science, or science.

To be eligible for admission on the basis of high-school grades in the winter or spring terms, a resident student must have a high-school GPA of 2.00 or a satisfactory score (880) on the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Nonresident Students. To be eligible for admission with freshman standing, a student who is not a resident of Oregon must: (1) have a 2.75 grade-point average in all high-school subjects taken for graduation; or (2) have a 2.25 high-school GPA combined with a satisfactory score on the Scholastic Aptitude Test; or (3) achieve a GPA of 2.25 on 12 term hours of work in a regular collegiate summer session, including a course in English composition and two or more courses from the fields of literature, social science, or science.*

* A nonresident student who is not eligible for admission under the stated conditions may be admitted if a faculty committee determines that he can probably pursue University studies with profit.

Early Admission. A high-school student who is a resident of Oregon, has a cumulative GPA of 2.50 or a Scholastic Aptitude Test score of 950 at the end of the first half of his senior year, and is recommended by his high-school principal will be granted admission to the University before graduation. On application to the Director of Admissions a nonresident high-school student will be granted admission before graduation on the basis of a 3.00 GPA or a 2.50 GPA and a Scholastic Aptitude Test score of 1,000 at the end of the first half of his senior year. Enrollment in the University after early admission is contingent on graduation from high school and submission of a complete high-school transcript.

Credentials. A student applying for admission to freshman standing must send to the Office of Admissions: (1) an application on an official University form; (2) a $10.00 application fee (this fee is not refundable); (3) records of all school work taken beyond the eighth grade, certified by the proper school official on the official form used by his high school for this purpose; and (4) certified results of the following College Entrance Examination Board tests: (a) Scholastic Aptitude Test, (b) achievement test in English composition, (c) achievement test in level I mathematics, and (d) achievement test in a foreign language, if he has studied a foreign language for two years in high school.* See also ENTRANCE EXAMINATIONS, page 75.

Scores on the College Entrance Examination Board tests are used primarily as a basis for advising and placement. As indicated above, however, students may satisfy the University's qualitative standards for admission through a satisfactory score on the Scholastic Aptitude Test.

Advanced Placement Program. Students who have completed college-level studies in high school under the Advanced Placement Program sponsored by the College Entrance Examination Board, and who have received satisfactory grades in examinations administered by the Board, may be granted credit toward a bachelor's degree in comparable University courses on admission to freshman standing. For further information, see page 132.

Admission of Transfer Students

Transfer students are persons admitted to the University of Oregon after having been registered in any other institution of collegiate grade or in a department or center of extension work, including the Division of Continuing Education of the Oregon State System of Higher Education.

A transfer student must present evidence that he was in good standing when he left the college or university previously attended, and must meet certain qualitative standards of scholastic attainment. The qualitative requirements for residents of Oregon differ from the requirements for nonresidents: resident students—a grade-point average of 2.00 covering all previous college work; nonresident students—a GPA of 2.25.† Students who present fewer than 12 term hours of collegiate credit must meet the requirements for freshman standing.

The amount of transferred credit granted depends upon the nature and quality of the applicant's previous work, evaluated according to the academic requirements of the University. Records from fully accredited institutions are evaluated before admission is granted.

Credit transferred from an accredited junior college may be counted only as a part of the first 93 term hours earned toward a baccalaureate degree.

No advanced standing is granted at entrance for work done in nonaccredited collegiate institutions. However, after three terms of satisfactory work in the University, an undergraduate student transferring from a nonaccredited institution may, on petition, receive credit in University of Oregon courses to which courses taken at the unaccredited institution are approximately equivalent; validating examinations may be required. Petitions for such credit may be based only on regularly organized college-level courses.

* Information concerning scheduled test dates and the location of testing centers may be obtained from high-school counselors or from the College Entrance Examination Board, Box 592, Princeton, N.J., or 1947 Center St., Berkeley, Calif.

Transfer students must send to the Office of Admissions: (1) an application on an official University form; (2) a $10.00 application fee (this fee is not refundable); (3) complete official records of all school work beyond the eighth grade; and (4) a certified score on the College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude Test. College records must be certified by the registrar of the institution providing the record; if the student's high-school record is adequately shown on his college transcript, he need not obtain another record direct from his high school. If a student has taken the Scholastic Aptitude Test on a previous occasion, he need not take it again, but may obtain and submit a transcript of his score from the College Entrance Examination Board.

Admission to Major Programs. Several University schools and departments have special requirements for the admission of transfer students as majors and for the granting of transfer major credit—in addition to the general requirements of the University. These requirements are frequently set in accordance with the standards of national professional accrediting organizations. Where there are such special requirements, they are stated in school and department sections in this Catalog.

Admission of Special Students

Students qualified by maturity and ability to do satisfactory University work, but who fail in some respect to meet the requirements for regular standing, may apply for admission as special students. Requirements for special-student admission include a satisfactory score in the College Entrance Examination Board Scholastic Aptitude Test and the joint approval of the Director of Admissions and the dean of the college or school in which the applicant wishes to study. Special-student status is not granted to upper-division students with less than a 2.00 GPA.

A special student should qualify for regular standing as soon as possible, by satisfactory University work and by the removal of any entrance deficiencies; if his grades when admitted were below a C average, he must raise his cumulative average to that level before being granted regular standing. A student may not continue for more than 45 term hours of University work under special-student classification without explicit permission (which is seldom granted). A special student may earn credits toward a degree; to qualify for a degree, however, he must complete at least 45 term hours of work after he has been granted regular standing. (In case a regular student changes to special status, work done while a special student will not apply toward a degree.)

Admission to Graduate Standing

For requirements and procedures for admission to graduate study see GRADUATE SCHOOL, pages 112 ff.

Entrance Examinations

TO PROVIDE THE FACULTY with a basis for reliable advice and assistance to students in planning their programs and, in certain cases, for determination of eligibility for enrollment, the University requires all entering undergraduate students to submit certified scores on the College Entrance Examination

Board Scholastic Aptitude Test; freshman students are required to submit, in addition, scores on the College Board achievement tests in the following fields: English composition, level I mathematics, a foreign language (if the student has studied a foreign language for two years in high school).

It is important that students whose eligibility for enrollment may be determined in part by test scores take these examinations no later than the College Board's March or May test dates. All entering students are expected to take the tests before they arrive on the campus; however, students whose scores will be used for counseling purposes only may apply to the University Counseling Center for permission to take the tests at a special campus administration.

All entering students, undergraduate and graduate, are also required to take a physical examination and provide evidence of immunization to certain contagious diseases (see page 93). The physical examination is given by a physician chosen by the student, who provides an examination report to the University Student Health Service.

Degrees

WHEN REQUIREMENTS for degrees are changed, special arrangements may be made for students who have taken work under the old requirements. In general, however, a student will be expected to meet the requirements in force at the time he plans to receive a degree. The University grants the following degrees:

Honors College—B.A. (Honors College).

Liberal Arts—B.A., B.S., M.A., M.S., M.F.A., Ph.D.

Architecture and Allied Arts—B.A., B.S., B.Arch., B.I.Arch., B.L.A., M.A., M.S., M.Arch., M.F.A., M.L.A., M.U.P.

Business Administration—B.A., B.S., B.B.A., M.A., M.S., M.B.A., D.B.A.

Dentistry—M.S., D.M.D.

Education—B.A., B.S., B.Ed., M.A., M.S., M.Ed., D.Ed., Ph.D.

Health, Physical Education, and Recreation—B.A., B.S., B.P.E., M.A., M.S., D.Ed., Ph.D.

Journalism—B.A., B.S., M.A., M.S.

Law—B.A., B.S., LL.B., J.D.

Medicine—M.A., M.S., Ph.D., M.D.

Music—B.A., B.Mus., M.A., M.Mus., D.M.A.

Nursing—B.A., B.S., M.S.

The M.A. and M.S. degrees are also granted on the completion of programs of interdisciplinary studies.

Requirements for Bachelor's Degree

Requirements for a bachelor's degree include (a) lower-division requirements (which the student is expected to satisfy during his freshman and sophomore years) and (b) general requirements which must be satisfied before the degree is conferred.

Lower-Division Requirements. The lower-division requirements for a bachelor's degree are as follows:

(1) Written English:

- (a) For freshmen who receive low ratings on a placement examination given to all entering students: Corrective English (Wr 10), offered on the campus through the Division of Continuing Education of the Oregon State System of Higher Education (students register separately and pay a special fee for this remedial instruction).

- (b) For all students: English Composition (Wr 121, 122, 123), 9 term hours. (With the consent of the head of the Department of English, all or part of this requirement may be waived for students who demonstrate superior ability in writing.)
- (2) Physical education: 5 terms in activity courses unless excused.* (One or more terms of this requirement may be waived on the basis of proficiency examinations.)
- (3) Health education: HE 150 or HE 250. (This requirement may be waived on the basis of a proficiency examination.)
- (4) Group requirement—see pages 178-180.
- (5) Grade-point average on completion of 93 hours of work: minimum, 2.00.

General Requirements. The general requirements for a bachelor's degree are as follows:

(1) Total credit:

- (a) For B.A., B.S., B.B.A., B.Ed., B.P.E., or B.Mus. degree: minimum, 186 term hours.
- (b) For B.Arch., B.I.Arch., or B.L.A. degree: minimum, 220 term hours.
- (c) For LL.B. degree: minimum, 263 term hours.

(2) Work in upper-division courses: minimum, 62 term hours.

(3) Work in the major:

- (a) Minimum: 36 term hours, including at least 24 hours in upper-division courses.
- (b) Any additional requirements of the major school or department (satisfaction must be certified by the dean or department head).

(4) Work in residence: minimum, 45 term hours of the last 60 presented for the degree.†

(5) For the B.A. degree, work in language and literature: 36 term hours,‡ including attainment of proficiency in a foreign language equivalent to that attained at the end of two years of college study of the language.§

* Students who have completed six months of active military service in the Armed Forces of the United States are exempt from 3 terms of the physical-education requirement; to qualify for exemption, such students must file official documentary evidence of their service.

† Only University of Oregon work completed on the Eugene campus of the University or at the Medical School, the Dental School, or the School of Nursing in Portland may be counted for the satisfaction of this requirement.

‡ For the purpose of determining distribution of hours for the B.A. or B.S. degree, the instructional fields of the College of Liberal Arts are classified as follows:

Language and Literature: General Arts and Letters, English, Foreign Languages, Speech.
Social Science: General Social Science, Anthropology, Economics, Geography, Home Economics, History, Philosophy, Political Science, Psychology, Religion, Sociology.

Science: General Science, Biology, Chemistry, Geology, Mathematics, Nursing, Physics.

§ The language requirement for the B.A. degree may be met in any one of the following ways: (1) two years (normally 24 term hours) of college work in a foreign language; (2) one year of college work at the second-year or higher level; or (3) examination, administered by the Department of Foreign Languages, showing language competence equivalent to that attained at the end of two years of college study. The requirement may not be met by examination after the completion of a student's junior year.

- (6) For the B.S. degree, work in science or in social science: 36 term hours.*
- (7) Restrictions:
- Correspondence study: maximum, 60 term hours.
 - Law, medicine, dentistry: maximum, 48 term hours in professional courses toward any degree other than a professional degree.
 - Performance (individual study): maximum for all students except music majors, 12 term hours; maximum for music majors toward the B.A. degree, 24 term hours—of which not more than 12 hours may be taken in the student's freshman and sophomore years.
 - No-grade courses: minimum of 150 term hours in graded courses.
- (8) Grade-point average:
- Covering all graded college work: minimum, 2.00.
 - Covering all graded work taken at the University of Oregon: minimum, 2.00.

The occasional student who wishes to earn a second bachelor's degree must satisfy the requirements listed above and, in addition, must earn at least 36 term hours in courses on the Eugene campus after meeting all requirements for the first degree (45 hours if his first degree was not granted by the University of Oregon).

Advanced Degrees

The requirements for graduate degrees are listed under GRADUATE SCHOOL. The requirements for the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence are listed under SCHOOL OF LAW. The requirements for the degree of Doctor of Medicine are listed in the Medical School Catalog, the requirements for the degree of Doctor of Dental Medicine in the Dental School Catalog.

Application for Degree

All students who intend to receive a degree from the University must make application by filing the proper form in the Registrar's Office. This should be done at least one month in advance of the expected graduation date; late application may delay graduation. All University academic and financial obligations must be satisfied before any degree will be conferred.

Group Requirement

TO INSURE breadth of liberal education, all candidates for a bachelor's degree are required to complete work selected from restricted lists of sequences in each of three groups—arts and letters, social science, science. Courses which may be taken for the satisfaction of the group requirement are numbered 100 to 120, 200 to 220, and 300 to 310. The requirement, for majors in the College of Liberal Arts and for majors in the professional schools, is as follows:

Majors in Liberal Arts—(a) one sequence numbered 100-120 or 200-220 in each of the three groups; (b) an additional sequence numbered 100-120, 200-220, or 300-310 in each of the three groups.

Majors in Professional Schools—(a) one sequence numbered 100-120 or 200-220 in each of the three groups; (b) an additional sequence numbered 100-120, 200-220, or 300-310 in any one of the three groups.

* See note (†), p. 77.

At least one sequence selected for the satisfaction of the arts and letters group requirement must be a sequence in literature.

Each of the group sequences must total at least 9 term hours; each sequence in the science group must include laboratory work or total 12 term hours.

When two sequences are taken in social science or in science for the satisfaction of the requirement, the sequences must be in different departments.

Enrollment in group sequences designated "H.C." is restricted to students in the Honors College.

Sequences which may be taken for the satisfaction of the group requirement are listed below:

Arts and Letters Group

General Arts and Letters

- Literature (H.C.) (AL 101, 102, 103)
- *Intro. to Jap. Lit. (AL 301, 302, 303)

Honors

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON offers special programs of study as a challenge to students of superior scholastic ability, and provides official recognition for students completing regular degree programs with outstanding scholastic records. Recognition of outstanding scholarship is also provided through election to membership in several honor societies.

Honors College. The University of Oregon Honors College offers a four-year program of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts (Honors College). For further information, see pages 129 ff.

Recognition for High Scholarship. Candidates for the bachelor's degree who achieved a cumulative grade-point average of 3.75-4.00 receive the award

* Courses numbered 300-310 satisfy only second-sequence requirements.

‡ May be offered for the satisfaction of the science group requirement only by majors in the College of Liberal Arts.

of "Recognition for Highest Scholarship"; candidates who achieve a cumulative grade-point average of 3.50-3.74 receive the award of "Recognition for High Scholarship."

Master's Degree with Honors. Candidates for the master's degree who pass a final examination with exceptional merit may, by vote of the examining committee, be awarded the degree with honors.

Honor Societies. University of Oregon chapters of several national scholastic honor societies recognize exceptional distinction in scholarship through election to membership. Among these societies are: Phi Beta Kappa (liberal arts), Sigma Xi (science), Order of the Coif (law), Kappa Tau Alpha (journalism), Beta Gamma Sigma (business administration), Pi Kappa Lambda (music), Alpha Lambda Delta (freshman women), Phi Eta Sigma (freshman men).

Academic Procedure

THE REGULAR ACADEMIC YEAR throughout the Oregon State System of Higher Education is divided into three terms of approximately twelve weeks each. The summer session supplements the work of the regular year (see special announcements). Students may enter at the beginning of any term. It is important that freshmen and transferring students entering in the fall term be present for New Student Week (see page 88). A detailed calendar for the current year will be found on pages 8-9.

Students are held responsible for familiarity with University requirements governing such matters as routine of registration, academic standards, student activities, organizations, etc. Complete academic regulations are included each year in the separately published Time Schedule of Classes, a copy of which is furnished each student at registration.

When regulations are changed, the changed regulations are effective on the date of their publication, unless a later date is indicated on publication.

Registration Procedure

A registration period is set aside, with published dates, preceding the beginning of classes in each term or session. Complete registration instructions are contained in the Time Schedule. Students are officially registered and entitled to attend classes only when they have completed the prescribed procedures, including the payment of term fees.

Students are advised to register in person if possible. However, registration in absentia may be arranged through faculty advisers or department representatives, in cases where the student's presence is judged to be unreasonable or unnecessary and where proxy registration is feasible.

Students planning to register in a term of the regular academic year after absence of a term or more or after earning a degree or after attending only a summer session should notify the Registrar's Office several weeks before registration, in order to allow time for the preparation of registration materials. If notice is not given, registration will be delayed, and the student may become subject to penalties.

All regular students are required to file official transcripts of any academic work taken at other institutions since their first enrollment in the University; a student's official records must be kept complete at all times. Exceptions are made only for "special students," who are formally admitted on special individual arrangements, and for summer "transient" students, who are not formally evaluated and admitted. Any failure to file all required records is considered a breach of ethics, and may result in the cancellation of registration and credits.

Academic Advising

Academic advising is regarded by the University as an extension of the teaching function and, therefore, as an important responsibility of the faculty. Academic advisers attempt to communicate to students, particularly freshmen, the meaning of higher education and its significance to the student. Advisers also explain University academic requirements and assist individual students in building programs which satisfy these requirements.

The Office of Academic Advising coordinates a program of lower-division advising in which each student is assigned a faculty adviser, who normally teaches in the student's major field. The student must have his program approved in advance by his adviser, and should consult with him whenever he has academic problems.

Advisers for upper-division and graduate students are assigned by major schools and departments.

Definitions

A TERM HOUR represents three hours of the student's time each week for one term. This time may be assigned to work in classroom or laboratory or to outside preparation. The number of lecture, recitation, laboratory, or other periods required per week for any course may be found in the Time Schedule of Classes published each term.

A COURSE is a subject, or an instructional subdivision of a subject, offered through a single term.

A YEAR SEQUENCE consists of three closely articulated courses extending through the three terms of the academic year.

A CURRICULUM is an organized program of study arranged to provide integrated cultural or professional education.

Course Numbering System

Courses in University of Oregon catalogs are numbered in accordance with the course numbering plan of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. The plan, as it applies to University courses, is as follows:

- 1- 49. Remedial courses which carry no credit toward a degree.
- 50- 99. Beginning courses in subjects taught in high school which carry credit toward a bachelor's degree.
- 100-299. Lower-division courses.
 - 100-120, 200-220. Survey or foundation courses which satisfy the group requirement.
- 300-499. Upper-division courses.
 - 300-310. Upper-division courses which satisfy the group requirement.
 - 400-410. Upper-division courses which may be taken through successive terms under the same number, credit being granted according to the amount of work done. Certain numbers in this bracket are reserved for special types of work: 401, Research or other supervised original work; 403, Thesis; 405, Reading and Conference;* 407, Seminar.
 - 400-499, with designation (G) or (g). Upper-division courses which may be taken for graduate credit. Courses which may be taken for graduate major credit are designated (G); courses which may be taken for graduate minor credit only are designated (g).
- 500-599. Graduate courses. Seniors of superior scholastic achievement may be admitted to 500 courses on the approval of the instructor.

* Only students eligible for honors work may register for Reading and Conference (405).

500-510. Graduate courses which may be taken through successive terms under the same number, credit being granted according to the amount of work done. Certain numbers in this bracket are reserved for special types of work: 501, Research or other supervised original work;* 503, Thesis;* 505, Reading and Conference; 507, Seminar

500-599, with designation (p). Courses in a professional field offered at a level of intellectual maturity suitable for graduate students who have earned a bachelor's degree in a field other than their graduate professional field.

600-699. Courses of a highly professional or technical nature, which count toward a professional degree only (not toward advanced academic degrees such as M.A., M.S., Ph.D.).

Grading System

The quality of student work is measured by a system of grades, points, and grade-point averages.

Grades. Student work is graded as follows: A, exceptional; B, superior; C, average; D, inferior; F, failed; INC., incomplete; W, withdrawn. Students ordinarily receive one of the four passing grades or F. When the quality of the work is satisfactory, but some minor yet essential requirement of the course has not been completed, for reasons acceptable to the instructor, a report of INC may be made and additional time (normally not more than three terms) granted for completion of the work. Students may withdraw from a course by filing the proper forms in the Registrar's Office in accordance with University regulations.

No-Grade Courses. Certain University courses are designated no-grade courses. Students in these courses receive marks of "pass" (P) or "not pass" (N). For a bachelor's degree from the University, a student must receive at least 150 term hours of credit in courses for which grades are given.

Grade-Point Average. Grade points are assigned in relation to the level of the grade given, as follows: A, 4 points per term hour; B, 3 points per term hour; C, 2 points per term hour; D, 1 point per term hour; F, 0 points per term hour. The grade-point average (GPA) is the quotient of total points divided by total term hours for which grades are received. Marks of INC, W, P, and N are disregarded in the computation of the grade-point average.

Scholarship Regulations

The administration of the regulations governing scholarship requirements is vested in the Committee on Scholastic Deficiency of the faculty. This committee may disqualify a student from attending the University when it appears that his work is of such character that he cannot continue with profit to himself and with credit to the institution. In general, profitable and creditable work means substantial progress toward meeting graduation requirements. Any term or cumulative grade-point average below 2.00 is considered unsatisfactory, and may bring the student's record under review by the committee. Further details on committee procedures are published each year in the Time Schedule of Classes.

Fees and Deposits

STUDENTS AT THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON,† Oregon State University, and Portland State College pay the same fees. In the fee schedule printed below, regular fees are those paid by all students under the usual conditions of undergraduate or graduate study; regular fees are payable in full at the time of registration. Special fees are paid under the special conditions indicated.

* In all divisions except the School of Law, Research (501) and Thesis (503) are classified as no-grade courses (see below).

† Except students at the Medical School, the Dental School, and the School of Nursing. The fee schedules for these students are published in the separate catalogs of these schools.

The Board of Higher Education reserves the right to make changes in the fee schedule without notice.

Payment of the stipulated fees entitles all students enrolled for academic credit (undergraduate and graduate, full-time and part-time) to all services maintained by the University for the benefit of students. These services include: instruction in University courses; * use of the University Library; use of laboratory and course equipment and materials in connection with courses for which the student is registered; medical attention at the Student Health Service; use of gymnasium equipment (including gymnasium suits and laundry service); a subscription to the student daily newspaper; admission to athletic events; admission to concert and lecture series sponsored by the University. No reduction in fees is made to students who may not desire to take advantage of some of these privileges.

Regular Fees

Undergraduate Students. Undergraduate students who are residents of Oregon and who are enrolled for a total of 8 term hours of work or more during the regular academic year pay tuition and fees totaling $110.00 a term or $330.00 for the three-term academic year.

Undergraduate students who are not residents of Oregon and who are enrolled for a total of 8 term hours of work or more during the regular academic year pay, in addition, a nonresident fee of $190.00 a term, or a total of $300.00 a term or $900.00 for the three-term academic year. For regulations governing the assessment of the nonresident fee, see page 86.

Graduate Students. Graduate students enrolled for a total of 8 term hours of work or more pay tuition and fees totaling $110.00 a term; students employed as teaching or research assistants pay a reduced fee of $32.00 a term. Graduate students do not pay a nonresident fee.

Part-Time Students. Undergraduate or graduate students who enroll for 7 term hours of work or less pay a special part-time fee (see SPECIAL FEES, below).

Deposits

All persons who enroll for academic credit (except staff members) must make a general deposit of $25.00, payable once each year at the time of first registration. The deposit is required for protection of the University against loss or damage of institutional property such as dormitory and laboratory equipment, military uniforms, Library books, and locker keys, and against failure to pay promptly nominal fines and assessments, such as Library fines, campus traffic fines, and Health Service charges. If at any time charges against this deposit become excessive, the student may be called upon to re-establish the original amount.

See also ENTRANCE DEPOSIT, page 73.

Special Fees

The following special fees are paid by University students under the conditions indicated:

Part-Time Feeper term, $28.00 to $98.00
 Students (undergraduate or graduate) who enroll for 7 term hours of work or less pay, instead of regular registration fees, a part-time fee in accordance with the following scale:

* Special fees, in addition to regular fees, are charged for individual instruction in musical performance. See SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

lowing scale: 1-2 term hours $28.00; 3 term hours, $42.00; 4 term hours, $56.00; 5 term hours, $70.00; 6 term hours, $84.00; 7 term hours, $98.00. Students enrolled for 7 term hours or less do not pay the nonresident fee. Payment of the part-time fee entitles the student to all services maintained by the University for the benefit of students.

Staff Fee.....per term hour, $3.00

With the approval of the President's Office, staff members enrolled in University courses pay a special staff fee of $3.00 per term hour. Full-time staff members (academic or civil service) may enroll under this fee for a limited amount of work for credit, generally for not more than 3 term hours of work in any term; staff members employed half-time or more, but less than full-time, may enroll under this fee for a maximum of 10 term hours of work.

Auditor's Fee.....per term, $28.00 to $110.00

An auditor is a person who has obtained permission to attend classes without receiving academic credit; such a person is not considered an enrolled student. Auditors attending classes carrying a total credit of 8 term hours or more pay a fee of $110.00 a term; auditors attending classes carrying a total credit of 7 term hours or less pay fees in accordance with the part-time fee scale (see above).

Application Fee$10.00

See page 73.

Late-Registration Fee.....minimum, $5.00

A full-time student who registers after the scheduled registration dates of any term pays a late-registration fee of $5.00 for the first late day plus $1.00 for each late day thereafter.

Change-of-Program Fee.....$1.00

A student may be required to pay this fee for each change in his official program.

Reinstatement Fee.....$2.00

If for any reason a student has his registration canceled during a term for failure to comply with the regulations of the institution, but is later allowed to continue his work, he must pay the reinstatement fee.

Special Examination Fee.....per term hour, $1.00

A student pays a fee of $1.00 per term hour for the privilege of taking an examination for advanced credit, or other special examinations.

Graduate Qualifying Examination Fee.....$1.00 to $15.00

Paid by students taking the Graduate Record Examination or other standard tests of ability to do graduate work.

Transcript Fee.....$1.00

For a transcript of his University academic record, a student pays a fee of $1.00 for the first copy and 50 cents each for additional copies furnished at the same time.

Check Irregularity Penalty.....per business day, $1.00

Penalty assessed when a check in payment for institutional charges is returned because of irregularity for which the student is responsible (NSF, illegible signature, etc.) Maximum penalty, $5.00.

Late-Application Fee.....See page 73

Placement Service Fee.....See page 88

Refunds

Fee Refunds. Students who withdraw from the University and who have complied with the regulations governing withdrawals are entitled to certain refunds of fees paid, depending on the time of withdrawal. The refund schedule has been established by the State Board of Higher Education, and is on file in the University Business Office. All refunds are subject to the following regulations:

(1) Any claim for refund must be made in writing before the close of the term in which the claim originated.

(2) Refunds in all cases are calculated from the date the student officially withdraws from the University, not from the date when the student ceased attending classes, except in unusual cases when formal withdrawal has been delayed through causes largely beyond the control of the student.

Deposit Refunds. The $25.00 general deposit, less any deductions which may have been made, is refunded about six weeks after the close of the academic year. Students who discontinue their work at the University before the end of the year may receive refunds, upon petition to the Business Office, about six weeks after the close of the fall or winter terms.

Regulations Governing Nonresident Fee

Under the regulations of the Oregon State Board of Higher Education, a minor student whose parent or guardian is a bona fide resident of Oregon qualifies for enrollment under the resident fee; a student whose domicile is independent of his parent or guardian qualifies for enrollment under the resident fee if he presents convincing evidence that he established his domicile in Oregon six months prior to his first registration.

All other students are required to pay the nonresident fee, with the following exceptions: (1) a student who holds a degree from an accredited college or university (however, a nonresident student with a bachelor's degree enrolled in a curriculum at the University of Oregon Medical or Dental School leading to the degree of Doctor of Medicine or Doctor of Dental Medicine is required to pay the nonresident fee); (2) a student attending a summer session; (3) a student paying part-time fees.

A student who has been classified as a nonresident may be reclassified as a resident:

(1) In the case of a minor, if his parent or guardian has moved to Oregon and has established a bona fide residence in the state, or

(2) In the case of a student whose domicile is independent of that of his parent or guardian, if the student presents convincing evidence that he has established his domicile in Oregon and that he has resided in the state for an entire school year immediately prior to the term for which reclassification is sought, and that he has no intention of moving out of the state after completion of his school work.

A student whose official record shows a domicile outside of Oregon is prima facie a nonresident and the burden is upon the student to prove that he is a resident of Oregon. If his scholastic record shows attendance at a school outside of Oregon, he may be required to furnish further proof of Oregon domicile.

If any applicant has questions concerning the rules governing the administration of these policies, he should consult the Office of Admissions.

AT THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, an integrated program of student counseling and supervision of student life and group activities is administered through the Office of Student Affairs. The Dean of Students is assisted by associate deans with special responsibilities for: women's affairs, men's affairs, the University Counseling Center, and graduate placement. The Office of Admissions and the Registrar's Office also operate under the general direction of the Dean of Students.

The dean and his associates maintain close personal contacts with individual students and with student organizations, and are available at all times for advice and help on all matters pertaining to their welfare.

* On sabbatical leave, fall term, 1965-66.

University Counseling Center. The University Counseling Center provides facilities for testing and counseling University students, to help them in making wise choices in their studies and in solving academic and personal problems. A special fee of $5.00 is charged for the full educational and vocational testing service of the Counseling Center.

Speech and Hearing Clinic. The Speech and Hearing Clinic, operating in conjunction with the Counseling Center, provides diagnosis, consultation, and treatment in connection with speech and hearing problems of University students. Students may be referred to the clinic either by the Counseling Center or by faculty advisers, or they may contact the clinic without a referral.

Reading-Study Laboratory. Some students, although they may not clearly recognize their disability, fail to get the most from their University work because of difficulties in reading. Frequently these difficulties are correctable. The Reading-Study Laboratory, operating in conjunction with the Counseling Center, provides an opportunity for scientific diagnosis and correction of student reading difficulties.

International Student Adviser. A member of the staff of the Office of Student Affairs serves as a special adviser to students from abroad who are attending the University, to assist them with personal problems and with adjustments to the customs and procedures of American educational systems. The international student adviser is prepared to give advice and help in connection with visas, government regulations, scholarships, employment, and general orientation to American life. He is also prepared to advise American students planning study abroad.

University Placement Service. The University maintains a central Placement Service for the assistance of graduating students and alumni seeking new or better positions. The Placement Service serves students in all schools and departments in the University, including those trained in business and technical fields as well as in education and the liberal arts.

Students who have taken, or are currently enrolled for, at least 12 term hours of University work, and who are completing degree requirements, are provided initial placement service without charge. Alumni, graduate students whose undergraduate work was at another institution, and former registrants who desire to use this service are charged a fee of $5.00 per year. Registration forms may be obtained upon request.

New Student Week

NEW STUDENT WEEK, a program of orientation for entering undergraduate students, is held annually the week before classes begin. During this period, new students are made familiar with the aims of higher education, the principles governing the wise use of time and effort, methods of study, and the ideals and traditions of the institution. Every effort is made to assist new students in getting the best possible start in their work. Full directions concerning New Student Week and registration procedure are sent to each student who is accepted for admission.

The University, recognizing that fraternities and sororities form a part of University life and provide living quarters for a substantial part of the student body, has, with the cooperation of these organizations, made provisions by which they may choose their members in an orderly fashion, with a minimum of interference with the beginning of University work.

A "welcome book," the ORE-NTER, is published annually in August and is sent to all new students who have been admitted to the University.

Student Living

COMFORTABLE, healthful, and congenial living conditions contribute much to the success of University life and work. Living conditions of the right kind aid students to do their best in their studies and contribute, through the experiences of group life, to the building of character and personality. Hence the University is vitally concerned with student housing. Halls of residence are maintained on the campus by the institution, and the living conditions of students residing outside the dormitories are closely supervised.

Many students live in fraternity and sorority houses accommodating groups of from twenty to sixty persons. Admission to these groups is by invitation only. Students also live in private homes and rooming houses near the campus. In several cooperative houses, groups of students enjoy the benefits of group living while keeping expenses at a minimum.

University Dormitories

The University maintains six dormitories, accommodating 3,143 students. Living conditions are comfortable and conducive to successful academic accomplishment and to participation in the wholesome activities of campus life.

Robert S. Bean Hall houses 736 students in eight units: Caswell, DeBusk, Ganoe, Henderson, Moore, Parsons, Thornton, and Willcox. Each unit has its own lounge and dining room.

Carson Hall houses 320 women students, principally in rooms accommodating two occupants. Most of the furniture is of built-in construction.

Virgil D. Earl Hall houses 327 men students in five units: McClure, Morton, Sheldon, Stafford, and Young. Each unit has its own lounge, dining hall, and recreational area.

James W. Hamilton houses 832 students in ten units, each assigned to men or to women students: Boynton, Burgess, Cloran, Collier, Dunn, McClain, Robbins, Spiller, Tingle, and Watson. Each unit has its own lounge, dining hall, and recreation area.

John Straub Hall houses 278 men students in six units: Alpha, Gamma, Hale Kane, Barrister Inn, Omega, and Sherry Ross. Each unit has its own club room. Sleeping porches accommodate four students each.

Joshua J. Walton Hall houses 650 students in ten units, each assigned to men or to women students: Adams, Clark, DeCou, Douglass, Dymont, Hawthorne, McAlister, Schafer, Smith, and Sweetser. Each unit has its own lounge, dining hall, and recreational area.

Linen (blankets, sheets, pillows, pillow cases), water glasses, ashtrays, study lamps, wastebaskets, wardrobe, and laundry facilities are provided in all dormitories. Student occupants must furnish towels and irons.

University Dining Halls. The University maintains dining halls for students in Straub Hall, Earl Hall, Walton Hall, Carson Hall, Hamilton Hall, and Bean Hall. Students living in dormitories take their meals in assigned dining halls. Men and women dine together in all dining rooms. Students in the dormitories are expected to dress for Sunday dinners.

Room Reservations. Students who plan to live in the dormitories should make room reservations as early as possible before the opening of the school year.

Contracts for dormitory accommodations are for room and board for the entire school year. Application must be made on an official form, and must be accompanied by a room deposit of $50.00, which will be applied to the first term's room and board payment.

Dormitory Living Expenses. Board and room costs in University dormitories are approximately $307.50 for the fall term, $246 for the winter term, and $229.50 for the spring term—a total of approximately $783 for the academic year. The charges are based on the following rates:

Board, per month	$ 61.50
Room, multiple occupancy, per term:
Fall term	134.00
Winter term	90.00
Spring term	75.00
Room, single occupancy, per term:
Fall term	201.00
Winter term	135.00
Spring term	112.50

Board and room charges are payable at the beginning of each term. If a student is unable to make the total payment at the beginning of the term, arrangement may be made for payment in two installments, the first at the beginning of the term and the second on a fixed date later in the term.

Students who do not pay board and room charges within ten days after payment is due are assessed a late-penalty fee of $1.00 for the first day (after ten) and $1.00 for each additional day until a maximum charge of $5.00 is reached. If dormitory charges are not paid within ten days after they are due, the student's registration may be canceled.

Dormitory Deposit Refund. If dormitory reservations are canceled, the $50.00 room deposit will be refunded only if the cancellation is made by August 1 if dormitory reservations are made for the fall term, or, if reservations are made for the winter or spring term, at least fourteen calendar days before the opening of the term.

Fraternities and Sororities

Fraternities and sororities provide comfortable living accommodations under University supervision. Members are chosen during stated rushing periods. Board and room costs are approximately the same as for students living in University dormitories.

In the summer, after formal notice of admission has been received, new students receive from the Office of Student Affairs full information, instructions, and a copy of rushing rules.

Fraternities on the Oregon campus are organized into the Interfraternity Council, which is a member of the National Interfraternity Conference. Sororities are organized into the Panhellenic Council, which is a member of the National Panhellenic Congress.

Sororities at the University are: Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Delta Pi, Alpha Gamma Delta, Alpha Omicron Pi, Alpha Phi, Alpha Xi Delta, Chi Omega, Delta Delta Delta, Delta Gamma, Delta Zeta, Gamma Phi Beta, Kappa Alpha Theta, Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Beta Phi, Sigma Kappa, Zeta Tau Alpha.

Fraternities at the University are: Alpha Tau Omega, Beta Theta Pi, Chi Phi, Chi Psi, Delta Chi, Delta Tau Delta, Delta Upsilon, Kappa Sigma, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Delta Theta, Phi Gamma Delta, Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Kappa Sigma, Phi Sigma Kappa, Pi Kappa Alpha, Pi Kappa Phi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Chi, Sigma Nu, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Tau Kappa Epsilon, Theta Chi.

Cooperative Houses

Students with urgent financial problems, excellent character, and superior scholarship may apply for membership in cooperative houses, where, by sharing housekeeping responsibilities, they are able to save about $15.00 a month on board and room costs. There are four cooperative houses for women, Highland, Laurel, Rebec, and University; and two for men, Campbell Club and Philadelphia House. Applications for memberships must be made through the Office of Student Affairs; applications are subject to approval by the undergraduate membership of the house.

Although, under general University housing regulations, freshman students are required to live in the dormitories, permission to live in cooperative houses will be granted to freshmen if, for financial reasons, they would otherwise be unable to enter the University.

Ann Judson House, maintained by the Baptist Church but with membership open to young women of all religions, is operated as an independent dormitory, under University supervision. Applications for membership should be addressed to the Dean of Women.

Off-Campus Housing

The University Housing Office, Carson Hall, maintains a list of approved rooms, apartments, and houses available for rent. The list is not published for mail distribution. Students under 21 years of age who are eligible to live off campus must live in quarters found on the approved list. Students planning to live off campus are advised to engage quarters personally after inspection and conference with the householder.

Housing for Married Students

Housing for married students is provided in 716 furnished and unfurnished family-dwelling units owned and operated by the University. The units include a wide variety of accommodations. The rents range from $42.50 to $76.00 per month. Application should be made to the University Housing Office, Carson Hall.

The married-student housing program is intended primarily to accommodate married graduate students working toward advanced degrees. To be eligible for married-student housing, students must be enrolled for course work, as follows: graduate assistants, 0.5 FTE, 5 term hours; graduate assistants, 0.3 FTE, 9 hours; other graduate students, 9 hours; undergraduate students, 12 hours.

Maximum tenant occupancy is restricted to the following: 1-bedroom apartments—2 adults and 1 child under the age of one; 2-bedroom apartments—2 adults, 2 children over the age of one, and 1 child under the age of one. Occupancy is restricted to the members of one family.

Social Activities

Rules governing the social activities of the various living organizations are established by the Student Activities Committee, composed of faculty and student members. The rules are published in the student handbook, the ORE-NTER, copies of which are available in the administrative office of the Student Union and in the office of the Dean of Students.

Housing Regulations

(1) Freshmen students are required to live in University dormitories (see, however, under COOPERATIVE HOUSES, above.)

(2) Other undergraduate students under 21 years of age are required to live either in the dormitories or in houses maintained by organized University living groups (fraternities, sororities, cooperatives), unless their parents request that they be permitted to live off campus, in quarters found on the approved list maintained by the Housing Office.

(3) Married students and students living with relatives in the Eugene community are excepted from rules (1) and (2); other exceptions are rare, and are made only for students working for room and board, or for whom rooms are not available in campus quarters.

(4) Students who rent off-campus quarters are expected to remain in these quarters for at least one term. If the students does not plan to stay for a full term, he should make certain that this is understood by his landlord before a rental agreement is made. Oregon law provides that a tenant or landlord wishing to terminate a rental agreement must give a 30-day written notice (unless otherwise agreed).

(5) All students living in the dormitories must take their meals in the dormitory dining rooms.

(6) All dormitory housing is taken on a year basis; all other campus housing (fraternity, sorority, and cooperative) is taken on a term basis. Students may not move during a term without special permission from the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women.

(7) All students enrolled in the University (with the exceptions noted above) are subject to University housing regulations, including students enrolled for part-time study.

Student Expenses

The average expenses incurred by students at the University during an academic year are shown in the table below. Some students with ample means spend more; but many students find it possible to attend the University at a lower cost. Board and room estimates are based on charges in the halls of residence. The incidental item will vary greatly with the individual. The expenses of the fall term are listed also, since there are expenses during this term not incurred during the winter and spring terms.

	Fall Term	Academic Year
Institutional fees (for Oregon residents)	$110.00	$ 330.00
Books, supplies, etc.	45.00	100.00
Board and room	307.00	783.00
Incidentals	50.00	150.00
Total	$512.00	$1,363.00

It should be remembered that, in making an estimate of the cost of a year at the University, a student usually has in mind the amount he will spend from the time he leaves home until he returns at the close of the year. Such an estimate would include travel, clothing, and amusements—items which vary according to the thrift, discrimination, and habits of the individual. These items are not included in the table.

THROUGH THE STUDENT HEALTH SERVICE the University does all in its power to safeguard the health of its students. The Health Service accomplishes its ends through health education, complete medical examinations for the detection of remedial defects, constant vigilance against incipient disease, medical treatment of acute diseases, and the maintenance of hygienic student living conditions.

The student health services in the institutions in the Oregon State System of Higher Education are supported by student registration fees. Every student registered for credit and whose total registration fee includes the breakage deposit fee is entitled to all the services offered by the Student Health Service.

The Student Health Service facility is new, designed and equipped to meet the rapidly changing concepts in medical treatment and the rapid growth of the University; it consists of out-patient departments, a 44-bed hospital, including a modern isolation unit of four private beds, and the necessary laboratory, emergency, and administrative facilities. In general, medical services offered include: (1) general medical attention and treatment, including minor surgery (major surgery and other procedures requiring general anesthesia and specialists' services are referred); (2) 15-day free hospitalization during one academic year if recommended by a Health Service physician; (3) 24-hour daily emergency service; (4) complete routine laboratory procedures, including diagnostic X-ray, clinical laboratory, and physiotherapy; (5) a pharmacy; (6) limited psychiatric and counselling services on an out-patient basis, supervised by a psychiatrist.

All expenses of, or connected with, surgical operations or specialized services must be borne by the student, including the services of a special nurse, where deemed necessary. Under no circumstances will the Health Service pay or be responsible for bills from private physicians or private hospitals.

Physical Examination and Immunizations. For protection of the public health, the Board of Higher Education requires of all students, as a condition for admission to the University: (1) a physical examination by a licensed M.D. or D.O. chosen by the student, and presentation of a record of this examination on an official form provided by the University; (2) an intradermal tuberculin test at the time of the physical examination; and (3) proof, to the satisfaction of the University physician, of (a) immunization against smallpox within five years and (b) diphtheria-tetanus immunization within four years. (In addition, poliomyelitis immunization within one year is recommended.)

If the student is enrolled in the University at the close of a five-year period following the first physical examination, a second examination is required; a second examination may be required after a shorter interval, at the discretion of the University physician.

Students who decline immunizations because of religious conviction may be admitted, but only on the condition that they or (in the case of minor students) their parents or guardians agree in writing to assume all expenses incident to their care or quarantine, should they acquire smallpox, diphtheria, or tetanus while students at the University. This does not exempt them from the physical examination or the intradermal tuberculin skin test. However, the student may choose to have a chest X-ray in lieu of the skin test but must submit an annual chest X-ray report to remain in school.

Financial Aid

FOR STUDENTS who need financial aid, the University provides assistance in finding part-time and summer employment, loans from special funds supported by private donors, and scholarships and fellowships supported both by state funds and by private endowment. Federal and state educational aid is available for veterans of the Korean conflict; under certain conditions, children of deceased veterans of the two world wars and the Korean conflict may qualify for Federal educational grants.

Student Employment

Many students earn a large part of their University expenses by work in the summers and during the academic year; some students are entirely self-supporting. The University assists those seeking part-time and vacation jobs through the Student Employment Service. Students wishing part-time jobs on the campus or in the Eugene community are advised to write to the Employment Service a few weeks before the opening of the fall term; in most cases, however, definite commitments for employment are made only after personal interviews with prospective employers.

The University participates in the work-study program established under the Federal Economic Opportunity Act of 1964.

Loan Funds

The University of Oregon administers student loan funds totaling more than $421,500. These funds are available for two types of loans: regular loans for a period of six months to two years, and emergency loans of small amounts for a period of ninety days or less.

The loan funds held in trust by the University are governed by uniform principles and policies, administered by a Student Loan Committee. Applications for loans are made through the Office of Student Affairs. The following regulations govern student loans:

(1) Any student who has been enrolled in the University for at least one term and has a cumulative GPA of at least 2.00 may obtain an emergency loan for a period of three months or less; to be eligible for a long-term loan a student must have a GPA of 2.25.

(2) The service charge for emergency loans of $10.00 or less is 50 cents for one month, 75 cents for two months, and $1.00 for three months. The service charge for emergency loans of more than $10.00 is $1.00 for one month, $1.25 for two months, and $1.50 for three months. The service charge for all overdue emergency loans is 50 cents a month until paid in full.

(3) The interest rate for long-term loans is 4 per cent per year.

(4) No more than $800 will be lent to any individual from University long-term loan funds.

(5) It is the policy of the University to encourage repayment of loans as soon as the borrower is able to pay. The maximum loan period is two years, with the privilege of renewal if the borrower has in every way proved himself worthy of this consideration. Payment of loans in monthly installments as soon as possible after graduation is encouraged. The interest on renewed loans is 4 per cent a year if the borrower is still a student at the University; the rate of interest on renewals made after the student leaves the University is 6 per cent.

(6) The University does not accept various forms of collateral which most money lenders require for the security of loans. The only security accepted for long-term loans is the signature of two responsible property owners, in addition to that of the student borrower. The cosigners must submit evidence of their ability to pay the note—by filing a financial statement or by giving bank references. One cosigner must qualify by bank reference. It is desirable that one of the cosigners be the parent or guardian of the borrower. If a student is married, his or her spouse must sign the loan application.

(7) The signature of the borrower is the only security required for an emergency loan. Foreign students must also obtain the signature of the international student adviser.

(8) In considering applications, the members of the Student Loan Committee give weight to the following considerations: (a) the student's scholastic record; (b) his reputation for reliability, honesty, and industry; (c) need for aid and probability of wise expenditure; (d) amount of present indebtedness; (e) ability to repay; (f) effort which the student has made to assist himself.

(9) Except in the case of a few funds which are specifically restricted to University students at Eugene, students at the Medical School, the Dental School, and the School of Nursing are eligible for loans from University student loan funds on the same basis as students on the campus at Eugene.

The first University loan fund was founded in 1901 through the generosity of William M. Ladd of Portland. Other early contributors were A. S. Roberts of The Dalles and the Class of 1904. Although for a number of years the total amount of the fund was only a little over $500, its benefits were large. Through it many students were enabled to complete their University work who otherwise could not have done so. In 1909 Senator R. A. Booth of Eugene became interested in the loan fund and through his efforts a number of others made substantial donations. Among these early donors were: Theodore B. Wilcox and J. C. Ainsworth of Portland, John Kelly of Eugene, W. B. Ayer of Portland, the classes of 1911 and 1913, Mrs. Ellen Condon McCornack, Ben Selling of Portland, and the estate of the late D. P. Thompson of Portland. In recent years the University student loan funds have grown very rapidly through gifts, bequests, and accumulated interest.

Loans are also available to University of Oregon students and students in other institutions from funds administered through agencies outside the University. Information concerning these funds may be obtained in the Office of Student Affairs.

Special University loan funds administered under conditions differing from those stated above include the following:

American Bankers' Association Loan Scholarship. The American Bankers' Association awards annually a $250 loan scholarship to a senior student in business administration. The award is made by a faculty committee of the School of Business Administration.

Jackson Journalism Loan Fund. The interest from a $15,000 endowment fund, bequeathed to the University by the late Mrs. C. S. Jackson, widow of the founder of the Oregon Journal, provides no-interest loans to men students majoring in journalism.

National Defense Loan Fund. Under the National Defense Education Act of 1958 funds have been provided for national defense loans for students at the University. For students who enter the teaching profession on the primary, secondary, or higher-education level, one-tenth of the total indebtedness will be forgiven for each full year of teaching up to a maximum of 50 per cent of the loan. Further information may be obtained in the Office of Student Affairs.

Mary Spiller Scholarship Loan Fund. The Mary Spiller Scholarship Loan Fund of $5,000 has been established by the State Association of University of Oregon Women in honor of Mrs. Mary P. Spiller, the first woman member of the faculty. The income from the fund is available for scholarship loans.

United Student Aid Funds. United Student Aid Funds has developed a new "college reserve program" designed to provide low-cost, long-term bank credit to needy students through their hometown banks. The University is participating in this program on a limited basis. A student may borrow a maximum of $1,000 a year up to a total of $4,000; the interest rate is 6 per cent a year simple interest. The borrower is responsible to his hometown bank for repayment of the loan. Repayment starts four months after graduation and the student borrower may take up to thirty-six months to pay. Further information and application forms may be obtained from the Director of Financial Aids, Office of Student Affairs.

Scholarships and Fellowships

Scholarships and fellowships are available to University students of ability and promise. Most of these awards have been established through the generosity of private donors. Most of the scholarships listed below have a value at least equal to the Oregon state fee scholarships, and are open to competition by all students or by specified groups of students. A number of partial scholarships and special funds for the assistance of needy students are also available; information concerning these funds may be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs.

Scholarship and fellowship awards are administered through a faculty Committee on Scholarships and Financial Aid. A student applying for a particular scholarship is given consideration for all scholarships for which he may be eligible.

Application for any scholarship administered by the University of Oregon may be made on a form furnished by the Oregon State System of Higher Education; copies of the form may be obtained from high-school principals. Further information may be obtained from the Director of Financial Aids, Office of Student Affairs. Applications should be filed not later than March 1.

Fellowships and scholarships offered to students at the University of Oregon Medical School, Dental School, and School of Nursing are listed in the separate catalogs of these schools.

General

State Fee Scholarships for Oregon Residents. The Oregon State Scholarship Commission awards annually a limited number of scholarships to residents of Oregon for study in the institutions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. These scholarships cover a portion of the regular fees charged by the institutions—at the University, $78 a term or $234 an academic year. To be eligible, an entering freshman must rank in the upper half of his high-school graduating class; a student who has been previously enrolled in an institution of higher education must have a grade-point average of 2.50; all applicants, to be eligible, must be in need of financial assistance. Application should be made on forms available in the offices of high-school principals and of scholarship officers of the institutions of the State System, and should be submitted to the scholarship committee of the institution in which the student wishes to enroll. The scholarships include: (1) scholarships open to state-wide competition and (2) scholarships awarded to students residing in each of the counties and legislative districts of the state. The state-wide scholarships are apportioned to the several institutions of the State System, and are equal in number to 2.5 per cent of the enrollment of the institution; at least 50 per cent are awarded to freshmen; the scholarships are awarded for a period of one year, but may be canceled at the end of any term in which the recipient fails to make a GPA of 2.50. The county and legislative district scholarships are four-year awards for study in any State System institution chosen by the student, but may be canceled if the student fails to maintain a 2.50 GPA; they are transferable to any other institution of the State System after one year at the initially chosen institution. One new county scholarship is awarded annually in each county of the state; the number of new legislative district scholarships in each district is equal to the number of legislative seats in the district.

State Fee Scholarships for Nonresident Students. A limited number of state scholarships are awarded annually to residents of the United States who are not residents of Oregon, for study in the institutions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. These scholarships cover a portion of the regular fees charged by the institutions—at the University, $100, $150, or $190 a term.

State Fee Scholarships for Foreign Students. A limited number of state scholarships are awarded annually to students from foreign countries attending the institutions of the Oregon State System of Higher Education. These scholarships cover a portion of the regular fees charged by the institutions—at the University, a maximum of $268 a term for undergraduates, $78 a term for graduate students.

State Cash Scholarships. A limited number of cash scholarships, with a maximum value of $500, are awarded annually by the Oregon State Scholarship Commission to especially able graduates of Oregon high schools who are in need of financial assistance; the scholarships may be used in any accredited institution of higher education in the state of Oregon. A student may hold both a state cash scholarship and a state fee scholarship. Application forms may be obtained only from Oregon high-school principals; applications are transmitted by high-school principals to the State Scholarship Commission.

University Assistantships. Teaching and research assistantships are awarded annually by the University to qualified graduate students. For stipends and application procedure, see GRADUATE SCHOOL.

Carson Hall Mothers Cup. A cup, presented by the Portland, Oregon Mothers Club, is awarded annually to the outstanding girl residing in Carson Hall.

Gerlinger Cup. The Gerlinger Cup, given by Mrs. George Gerlinger, former regent of the University, is awarded by a committee of faculty, town, and student women to the best all-round woman of the junior class.

Koyl Cup. The Koyl Cup, the gift of Charles W. Koyl, Class of '11, is awarded each year to the man who, in the opinion of a committee of the faculty, is the best all-round man of the junior class.

Library Day Prizes. The Coop Book Store, the Association of Patrons and Friends of the University of Oregon Library, and other donors award prizes on Library Day each spring for the best personal libraries of University students.

Oregon Dads Honors for Leadership. In recognition of outstanding leadership in high school, superior qualities of character and scholarship, and unusual promise for leadership in public affairs, the Oregon Dads award annually to selected high-school seniors certificates of Special Honors for Leadership. Recipients in need of financial assistance to continue their education at the University may also be awarded scholarships.

Oregon Dads Honors for Scholarship. The University of Oregon Dads award annually certificates of Special Honors for Scholarship to a limited number of high-school graduates, in recognition of outstanding scholarship records in high school, superior qualities of character and leadership, and unusual promise for success in University studies. Recipients in need of financial assistance may also be awarded scholarships.

Phi Beta Kappa Prize. This prize, consisting of books to the value of $25, is offered annually by the Alpha of Oregon chapter of Phi Beta Kappa. The award is made, on the basis of scholarship, to a student completing lower-division work. The books are chosen by the student in consultation with a committee of the chapter.

Liberal Arts

Philo Sherman Bennett Prize. A prize of from $15 to $50, supported by a bequest from Philo Sherman Bennett of New Haven, Connecticut, is awarded for the best essay on the principles of free government.

Julia Burgess Poetry Prize. The Julia Burgess Poetry Prize of $25 is awarded annually for the best original poem submitted by an undergraduate. Information concerning the award may be obtained from the head of the Department of English. The prize is endowed through a bequest from the late Julia Burgess, member of the University faculty from 1907 until her death in 1942.

L. S. and D. C. Cressman Prize in Anthropology. A $75 prize is offered annually for the best essay in any subfield of anthropology submitted by a currently enrolled graduate student. It is expected that the essay be written especially for the prize competition and be suitable for publication, both in content and form. The prize is supported through funds provided by Dr. and Mrs. Luther S. Cressman.

DeCou Prize in Mathematics. A prize of $100 is awarded annually to a junior or senior student for excellence in the field of mathematics. The prize is named in memory of Edgar E. DeCou, a member of the University faculty from 1902 until his death in 1947, and in memory of his son, Edgar J. DeCou.

Delta Phi Alpha Award. A volume of German literature is awarded each year by the University chapter of Delta Phi Alpha, national German honor society, to the most outstanding student in German literature.

Failing-Beekman Prizes. These prizes are awarded annually to members of the senior class who have demonstrated during their University career the greatest ability in public speaking. The first prize of $100 is the gift of Henry Failing of Portland; the second prize of $75 is the gift of C. C. Beekman of Jacksonville, Oregon.

LeJeune W. Griffith Theater Award. A $25 award is presented annually to the outstanding senior who contributed most during his University career to the collective theater arts: acting, directing, playwriting, designing, and technical theater. The award is supported through gifts from Mrs. LeJeune W. Griffith, Class of '48.

Haycox Short-Story Prizes. The Ernest Haycox Memorial Short-Story Prizes, $100 and $50, are awarded annually for the best original short stories of high literary quality submitted by undergraduate or graduate students. Information concerning this award may be obtained from the head of the Department of English. The prizes are supported through gifts from Mrs. Ernest Haycox in memory of her husband, a graduate of the University in the Class of '23.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Hunter Literary Award. An award of $50 is given annually for the best piece of creative writing (fiction, poetry, or drama) by a senior or graduate student in the creative writing program of the Department of English. The award is supported by gifts from Dr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Hunter.

Jewett Prizes. These prizes, amounting to more than $200, are awarded annually in a series of public-speaking contests. Funds for the prizes were given to the University in memory of the late W. F. Jewett by his wife, Mrs. Mary Jewett.

Pi Delta Phi Award. The University chapter of Pi Delta Phi, national French honor society, presents book prizes each year to the students who have made the greatest progress in undergraduate courses in French.

George Rebec Prize in Philosophy. A $100 U.S. savings bond is awarded annually to the undergraduate student who submits the best essay on a philosophical topic. The prize is named in honor of Dr. George Rebec, member of the University faculty from 1912 until his death in 1944.

Sigma Delta Pi Awards. Book prizes are awarded each year by the University Gamma chapter of Sigma Pi, national Spanish honor society, to students in advanced courses in Spanish who make the greatest progress during the year.

Sigma Xi Graduate Research Prize. A prize of $25 is awarded annually by the Oregon chapter of Sigma Xi to the graduate student, working in one of the fields from which Sigma Xi selects its members, who submits the most outstanding piece of research.

John Watson Vogan Spanish Essay Prizes. Prizes are awarded annually to the students presenting the best essays written in the Spanish language. The prizes are supported by an endowment established by Mrs. Grace Dawson Vogan of Portland as a memorial to her husband, the late John Watson Vogan.

Alicia Woods Poetry Prize. The Alicia Woods Poetry Prize of $15 is awarded annually for an outstanding original poem submitted by an undergraduate. Information concerning the award may be obtained from the head of the Department of English. The prize is supported from an endowment provided by friends of the late Alicia Woods, M.A., Oregon, 1958.

Architecture

LeRoy Flemming Kerns Award. An award of $100 is given annually to an architecture student for demonstrated originality and creativity. The award is supported by Miss Maude I. Kerns, Class of '99 and a member of the University faculty from 1921 to 1947, and is named in memory of her brother.

John Lee-Rick Bullis Memorial Fund. Income from a trust fund established by the parents and friends of John Philip Lee, Class of '65, is awarded annually to a third-year student in architecture in recognition of high potential in his field.

Business Administration

Beta Gamma Sigma Award. Each year the name of the sophomore student in business with the highest cumulative grade average is engraved on a plaque placed in the corridor of Commonwealth Hall by Beta Gamma Sigma, honorary business fraternity.

Comish Award in Marketing. An award of approximately $30 is presented annually to a junior student in business administration who is specializing in marketing and merchandising. The award is supported through a gift from Dr. Newell H. Comish, professor emeritus of business administration.

Erickson, Eiseman & Company Awards. Five $25 awards are made annually to students in accounting, for the purchase of books, periodicals, or other accounting materials. Funds for the awards are provided by Erickson, Eiseman & Company, Portland accounting firm.

Oregon State Society of Certified Public Accountants' Prize. This award, consisting of accounting books to the value of $50, is made each year to the outstanding student in accounting.

Phi Chi Theta Award. The name of the sophomore woman student in business with the highest cumulative grade-point average is engraved each year on a plaque placed in the corridor of Commonwealth Hall by Phi Chi Theta, national women's business fraternity.

Phi Chi Theta Key. The Phi Chi Theta Key is awarded annually, on the basis of high scholastic standing and student activities, to a woman in the senior class of the School of Business Administration.

Journalism

William G. Gurney Memorial Award. The name of the male student in journalism who, in his junior year, shows the greatest promise as a writer is recorded annually on a plaque in the Allen Seminar Room. The award is made jointly by Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity, and Alpha Tau Omega, social fraternity, in honor of William G. Gurney, a journalism student who was killed while on duty in the Air Force Reserve Officers Training Corps in 1953.

Harpham Award in Journalism. An award of $25 is given annually for the best journalistic writing or term paper by a foreign student in the School of Journalism. Funds for the award are provided by Mr. and Mrs. Everett H. Harpham of Eugene, Oregon.

Hillsboro Argus Award. The name of the senior woman in journalism having the highest scholastic average for her four years of undergraduate work is engraved each year on a plaque in the Allen Seminar Room. The plaque is a gift from the Hillsboro, Oregon, Argus.

Sigma Delta Chi Scholarship Award. Recognition for exceptional scholarship is made annually to journalism senior majors by Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity.

T. Neil Taylor Awards in Journalism. Awards of $50, $25, and $15 are given annually for the three best senior theses presented by majors in journalism. Funds for the awards are provided by an endowment established by the late T. Neil Taylor of Oakland, California, University journalism graduate in the Class of '31.

Turnbull-Hall Award. Each year the name of the outstanding senior member of the staff of the OREGON DAILY EMERALD is engraved on a plaque which hangs in the EMERALD news room. The plaque was presented in 1931 by George Turnbull and Vinton H. Hall.

Law

American Jurisprudence Prizes. The Lawyers Cooperative Publishing Company and the Bancroft-Whitney Company award annually separately bound topics from American Jurisprudence to those students having the best scholastic records in the several courses in the School of Law covering the topics included in American Jurisprudence.

Bancroft-Whitney Prize. The Bancroft-Whitney Company, law publisher, awards annually a legal publication to the senior law student who has maintained the highest grade average throughout his work in the School of Law.

Bender-Moss Prize. The Bender-Moss Company, law publisher, awards annually a set of Wharton's Criminal Evidence and of Schweitzer's Cyclopedia of Trial Practice to the senior law student who has earned the highest grades in pleading and practice courses during his three years of law study.

Bureau of National Affairs Prize. The Bureau of National Affairs awards annually a year's subscription to United States Law Week to the member of the graduating class of the School of Law who, in the judgment of the school faculty, has made the most satisfactory scholastic progress during his final year in the school.

Nathan Burkan Memorial Prizes. The American Society of Composers, Authors, and Publishers awards a $150 first prize and a $50 second prize for the best papers submitted by students in the graduating class of the School of Law on the subject of copyright law.

Corpus Juris Secundum Prizes. The American Law Book Company makes available each year three selected titles of Corpus Juris Secundum to be awarded to the student in the first-, second-, and third-year classes who, in the opinion of the faculty, has made the most significant contribution toward over-all legal scholarship.

Lane County Bar Association Prizes. The Lane County Bar Association awards a $65 first prize, a $40 second prize, and a $25 third prize for the best presentations made by law students in an annual oral case-analysis contest. The case analyses are presented at the regular luncheon meetings of the association during the academic year.

Lawyers Cooperative Prize. The Lawyers Cooperative Publishing Company awards annually a copy of Ballantine's Law Dictionary to the law student doing the best work in the course in Legal Bibliography.

Oregon District Attorneys' Association Prize. A book prize for legal writing in the field of criminal law is provided each year by the Oregon District Attorneys' Association for award to a law student or a practicing member of the Oregon State Bar who is adjudged to have produced the best piece of legal writing for publication in the OREGON LAW REVIEW.

West Publishing Company Prizes. The West Publishing Company awards annually a selected title from the Hornbook Series to the student with the highest cumulative grade-point average in each of the three classes in the School of Law.

Physical Education

Physical-Education Honor Awards. The faculty of the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation presents certificates each year in recognition of outstanding qualities of sound scholarship, high idealism, and professional accomplishment in the fields of physical education, health education, and recreation.

Erb Memorial Student Union

ALFRED L. ELLINGSON, B.S.....	Director
BURTON A. BENSON, B.S.....	Student Publications Director
JOHN A. CROSS, M.S.....	Associate Director
ADELL McMILLAN, M.S.....	Program Director
EUALDO REYES, M.A.....	Activities Director

THE ERB MEMORIAL STUDENT UNION is a building dedicated to making the extracurricular work of students an integral part of their education. It provides the extracurricular work of students an integral part of their education. It provides group meeting rooms, a lounge, soda bar, cafeteria, and dining room, an art gallery, a large ballroom, and a Browsing Room, a branch of the University Library. Student activity offices are on the third floor. For recreation there is a "listening room" for classical music, a room for jazz, a piano practice room, a "combo" practice room, a sixteen-lane bowling alley, billiard tables, and table tennis and shuffleboard facilities. Also housed in the building are the offices of the Y.M.C.A., a branch of the U.S. Post Office, and a six-chair barber shop.

The Student Union was built solely through gifts from alumni and friends of the University, student building fees, and the sale of bonds to be retired from future building fees. The building is named in memory of Dr. Donald M. Erb, President of the University from 1938 until his death in 1943.

Graduate School

LEONA E. TYLER, Ph.D., Dean of the Graduate School.

WESLEY C. BALLAINE, Ph.D., Associate Dean of the Graduate School.

FRED J. MOHR, B.A., Special Assistant to the Dean.

Graduate Council

THE PRIMARY AIM of undergraduate education is to prepare the student for cultured living and intelligent citizenship, and to acquaint him with techniques leading to a professional career. In graduate study the dominant aim is the development of the scholar, capable of original thinking and of creative achievement in the advancement and extension of knowledge. Hence, a graduate degree indicates more than the mere completion of a prescribed amount of advanced study; it indicates that the student has shown both promise and performance in some field of independent scholarship.

At the University of Oregon, all study beyond the bachelor's degree, except strictly professional work in law, medicine, and dentistry, is administered through the Graduate School. The formulation of the graduate programs of individual students and the working out and direction of these programs are the responsibilities of the instructional department, subject, however, to the general rules and requirements of the Graduate School.

Research. Through its Office of Scientific and Scholarly Research and with advice and assistance from the faculty Research Committee, the Graduate School administers the University's program for the encouragement and approval of research by members of its faculty and the University's interdisciplinary research institutes (see page 123-128).

Advanced Degrees

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON offers through the Graduate School work leading to advanced degrees in the liberal arts and sciences, and in the professional fields of architecture and allied arts, business administration, dental sciences (at the Dental School in Portland), education, health, physical education, and recreation, journalism, medical sciences (at the Medical School in Portland), music, and nursing (at the School of Nursing in Portland). The degrees granted, and the fields in which programs of study leading to the respective degrees are currently offered, are listed below:

Doctor of Philosophy: anthropology, biology, chemistry, comparative literature, economics, education, English, geography, geology, Germanic languages, health, physical education, and recreation, history, mathematics, medical sciences, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, Romance languages, sociology, speech.

Doctor of Business Administration: business administration.

Doctor of Education: education, health and physical education.

Doctor of Musical Arts: Music.

*Master of Arts: anthropology, art, biology, business administration, chemistry, Classical languages, comparative literature, economics, education, English, geography, geology, Germanic languages, health, physical education, and recreation, history, journalism, library science, mathematics, medical sciences, music, philosophy, physics, political science, psychology, Romance languages, sociology, speech.

*Master of Science: art, biology, business administration, chemistry, dental sciences, economics, education, geography, geology, health, physical education, and recreation, journalism, library science, mathematics, medical sciences, nursing, physics, political science, psychology, sociology, speech.

Master of Architecture: architecture.

Master of Fine Arts: drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, weaving, creative writing.

Master of Business Administration: marketing, insurance, and transportation, personnel and industrial management, finance and business environment, accounting and business statistics.

Master of Education: education.

Master of Landscape Architecture: landscape architecture.

Master of Music: music education, performance and music literature, composition.

Master of Urban Planning: urban planning.

General Regulations

THE UNIVERSITY recognizes two classes of graduate students: (1) students enrolled in the Graduate School for work toward a graduate degree, and (2) students enrolled for postbaccalaureate study. Students of the first class follow programs organized in conformity with the rules stated below. Students of the second class enroll for the courses in which they are interested, with the understanding that the University is under no implied obligation to accept credit earned as credit toward a graduate degree. Whether a student is adequately prepared to enroll in any graduate course is determined by the instructor in charge and the head of the department or school concerned.

Admission. Admission as a graduate student, either for work toward a graduate degree or for postbaccalaureate study, is dependent on the approval of the department or school in which the student wishes to work. The general University requirements for graduate admission, stated below, may be supplemented by special requirements of major departments and schools. An applicant should address inquiries concerning graduate admission to the department or school in which he plans to study, not to the Graduate School or the Office of Admissions.

General University requirements for graduate admission are as follows:

Admission for Work toward a Graduate Degree. Graduation from an accredited college or university with a cumulative undergraduate grade-point average of 2.75 or higher is required for admission for work toward a graduate degree. A student who has completed 12 or more term hours of graduate work at another institution with a GPA of 3.00 or higher is admitted without reference to his undergraduate GPA if the work is accepted by his major department or school as applicable toward a graduate degree.

* See also "Interdisciplinary Master's Programs," page 118.

Admission for Postbaccalaureate Study. A student who has earned a bachelor's degree but whose record does not meet the admission standards for work toward a graduate degree may be admitted for postbaccalaureate study. When such a student has earned 12 term hours of graduate credit, he is automatically transferred to graduate-degree status if his graduate GPA is 3.00 or higher. A postbaccalaureate student who has not earned a 3.00 GPA on completion of 12 term hours of graduate work may continue his postbaccalaureate studies, and is again eligible for transfer to graduate-degree status on the completion of 24 term hours of graduate work, if he has earned the required cumulative 3.00 GPA. A third, and final, opportunity to transfer to graduate-degree status is provided on the completion of 36 term hours of graduate work.

Not more than 12 term hours of work taken by a student with postbaccalaureate standing may be counted toward a graduate degree, except that a student who is transferred to graduate-degree status on the completion of 12 term hours of graduate work may count credit in excess of 12 hours earned before the transfer is made.

An applicant for admission as a graduate student must submit: (1) two copies of an application on an official University form, and (2) two copies of an official transcript of his college record. One copy of these credentials should be sent to the Office of Admissions and the second copy to the department or school in which the applicant plans to study.

Students with degrees from nonaccredited institutions may be admitted to the University as special students, and may be granted graduate standing after the successful completion of one term of full-time graduate work.

Provisional graduate standing is occasionally granted, as a temporary classification, pending the submission of complete official records, if the applicant files evidence that he has a bachelor's degree and will be able to qualify for regular graduate standing.

Continuous Enrollment. A graduate student who has been admitted for work toward a graduate degree is required to enroll in the University each term during the regular academic year from the time of first enrollment until the completion of all degree requirements, including the submission of thesis or dissertation, the passing of all examinations, and the awarding of the degree. His enrollment is either as a student in residence or as a student on leave of absence.

Leave of absence is granted for a stated period of time, normally not to exceed one calendar year. A graduate student on leave of absence is expected neither to make use of University facilities nor to place demands upon the faculty, and therefore pays no fees during the leave period.

Failure to maintain continuous enrollment, either in residence or on leave of absence, is considered evidence that the student has withdrawn from the University. If he wishes to resume his studies, he must formally apply for readmission, and must satisfy requirements for admission in effect at the time of application.

Reservation of Graduate Credit. The Graduate School encourages superior students to begin their graduate studies as early in their careers as feasible. A student at the University of Oregon who needs not more than 48 term hours in order to complete requirements for a bachelor's degree (i.e., who has senior standing) and who has a cumulative GPA of 3.00, and who has received assurance from the department in which he wishes to work that it will accept him in a program leading to an advanced degree, may petition the dean of the Graduate School for the reservation of credit in specified graduate courses. A "Reservation of Credit" form, available in the office of the Graduate School, must be filed not later than two weeks after the beginning of the term in which the courses involved are taken. Credit may not be reserved for courses taken during a period of more than three terms. A student who has been granted reservation of credit is assigned a graduate adviser to assist him in planning his graduate work.

Course Registration Requirements. The maximum course load for a graduate student devoting all of his time to graduate study in a regular term or in an eleven-week summer session is 16 term hours; the maximum for a teaching or research assistant is 12 term hours. The maximum course load for an eight-week summer session is 13 term hours. Credit for work taken in excess of these maximums cannot be applied toward a degree.

All graduate students using campus facilities or studying under the supervision of a member of the faculty are required to register for a minimum of 3 term hours of course work.

All graduate students holding half-time teaching or research assistantships are required to register for a minimum of 6 term hours of course work; students holding three-tenths-time assistantships are required to register for a minimum of 9 term hours of course work.

Students working for a master's degree with thesis are required to register for a minimum of 9 term hours in Thesis (503) before completing the program for the degree. Students working for a doctor's degree are required to register for a minimum of 18 term hours in Thesis before completing the program for the degree. (This regulation is effective for students who receive their degrees after September 1, 1966.)

Grade Requirement. A graduate student is required to earn at least a B grade average to qualify for a graduate degree. A grade-point average of less than 3.00 at any time during the student's graduate studies is considered unsatisfactory, and may result in disqualification by the dean of the Graduate School after consultation with the student's major department or school. Disqualification means reduction to postbaccalaureate standing. A course in which the student earns a grade of D will not carry graduate credit, but will be included in the computation of the student's GPA. F grades will also be included in the GPA computation.

In all divisions except the School of Law, Research (501) and Thesis (503) are classified as no-grade courses, and are disregarded in the calculation of the student's GPA.

Graduate Courses. All courses numbered in the 500s carry graduate credit, as do those in the 400s which have been approved by the Graduate Council. Approved courses in the 400s are designated in this Catalog by (G) or (g) following the course title. Courses designated (G) may form a part of either a major or a minor; courses designated (g) may be taken toward a minor only. Graduate students taking courses in the 400s are expected to do work of a higher order and broader scope than the work of undergraduate students in the same courses. Undergraduate enrollment in the 400 courses designated (G) is generally restricted to seniors; undergraduate enrollment in 400 courses designated (g) is generally restricted to juniors and seniors.

Courses numbered in the 500s and designated (p) represent instruction offered at a level of intellectual maturity suitable for graduate students who have earned a bachelor's degree in a field other than their professional field. Such courses carry credit toward a master's degree, but this credit may not be counted toward the minimum requirement of 30 term hours in the major.

Off-Campus Graduate Courses. Graduate students at the University of Oregon may, with the consent of their advisers, take courses carrying graduate credit at Oregon State University and at the Oregon College of Education. Students register for these courses on the Eugene campus. Grades are transmitted by the instructor to the University Registrar and recorded on the student's University of Oregon transcript.

Fees and Deposits. The regular fees and tuition for graduate students total $110.00 per term. Students holding graduate or research assistantships or fellowships pay a special reduced fee of $32.00 per term. Students enrolled in the Graduate School do not pay the nonresident fee. Graduate students registered for 7 term hours of work or less pay the regular part-time fee (see page 84). Payment of graduate fees entitles the student to all services maintained by the University for the benefit of students.

Graduate students must make a $25.00 deposit once each year at the time of first registration; the deposit is required as a protection to the University against the loss or damage of institutional property.

See also ADMISSION (page 73) for information concerning the admission application fee and the entrance deposit.

A special fee of $20.00 is paid by all students who are granted the Ph.D., D.B.A., D.Ed., or D.M.A. degree to cover the cost of reproduction on their theses on microfilm or microcards.

Degree Requirements

Master of Arts, Master of Science

Credit Requirements. For the M.A. or M.S. degree, the student must complete an integrated program of study totaling not less than 45 term hours in courses approved for graduate credit. Integration may be achieved either through a departmental major or through a program of interdisciplinary studies (see page 118).

For the master's degree with a departmental major, a minimum of two-thirds of the work (30 term hours) must be in the major. One-third (15 term hours) may be in: (1) a related minor; (2) appropriate service courses; (3) suitable complementary courses in the major; or (4) some combination of (2) and (3). The student's program must include at least 30 term hours of work in subjects having no direct connection with his thesis. A strong minor is recommended, especially for candidates for the M.S. degree.

Residence Requirement. The residence requirement for the M.A. and M.S. degrees (and all other master's degrees except the M.B.A.) is 30 term hours of work on the Eugene campus or at the Medical School, Dental School, or School of Nursing in Portland.*

Transferred Credit. Credit earned at other accredited institutions, or in the Division of Continuing Education of the Oregon State System of Higher Education, may be counted toward the master's degree under the following conditions: (1) the total of transferred credit may not exceed 15 term hours; (2) the courses must be relevant to the degree program as a whole; (3) the transfer must be approved by the student's major department and the Graduate School; (4) the grades earned must be A or B. Graduate credit is not allowed for correspondence courses. Credit granted for work done at another institution is tentative until validated by work in residence (see also "Time Limit" below).

Language Requirements. For the M.A. degree, the student must show, by examination or by adequate undergraduate courses (completion of the second-year college course), a reading knowledge of French, German, Russian, or a foreign language specified by his department. By petition to the dean of the Graduate School, a student may be permitted to substitute another language, if it is equally relevant to his program of graduate studies. A foreign student whose native language is not English may petition to substitute a reading and speaking knowledge of English for satisfaction of the language requirement. For the M.S. degree there is no foreign-language requirement unless a language is required by the school or department.

Course Requirements. For the M.A. or M.S. degree with a departmental major, at least one year sequence in the 500-599 series (normally of seminar or research nature and carrying approximately 3 hours of credit per term) is required.

Time Limit. All work toward the master's degree (including work for which credit is transferred from another institution, thesis, and the final examination) must be completed within a period of seven years.

Qualifying Examination. To become a candidate for a master's degree, the student must pass a qualifying examination designed to test his basic training and his ability to pursue studies at the graduate level in his chosen field. This examination may be oral or written or both, and may cover any work done at another institution for which transfer of credit is requested. It is expected that the examination be taken before the student has completed 15 term hours of graduate work. If satisfactory knowledge and ability are demonstrated, the student is formally advanced to candidacy for the degree sought, subject to the approval of the dean of the Graduate School.

A graduate of the University of Oregon who has taken the bachelor's degree with honors in the field of his graduate major is ordinarily exempt from the qualifying examination.

Thesis. In some fields, all candidates for the M.A. or M.S. degree are required to present a thesis; in others the thesis is optional.

If a thesis is presented, the student must file in the Graduate Office, not less than two weeks before the date of his final oral examination, six copies of a thesis abstract not exceeding 500 words in length. Three clear copies of the complete thesis, including the original copy, approved and signed by the adviser, must be distributed by the candidate to the members of his examining committee two weeks before date of his final examination. At the conclusion of the final examination, these copies are filed unbound in the Graduate Office, and are bound at the expense of the University. Two copies are deposited in the Library, and one becomes the property of the major department. One of the Library copies is available for general circulation.

Full information concerning the prescribed style for theses may be obtained in the Graduate Office. Copies of theses will not be accepted by the Graduate School unless they meet satisfactory standards of form and style.

Students are not allowed to register for the final hours of Thesis unless it is very probable that the thesis will be completed within the term.

The University participates in the University Microfilms program for the microfilming of selected master's theses and publication of 150-word abstracts in Masters Abstracts, issued by University Microfilms. Theses are selected on the basis of the recommendation of the candidate's examining committee. Candidates whose theses are selected may obtain a Certificate of Approval from the Graduate Office; after receipt of the certificate, they are responsible for making arrangements for microfilming with the Audio-Visual Department of the University Library. A fee of $15.00 is charged for microfilm and abstract publication. Publication is, however, not required.

Final Examination. A final examination is required of every candidate for a master's degree. For students presenting a thesis, the examination is oral and of not less than two hours' duration. For students not presenting a thesis, an oral examination of not less than one hour and a written examination are required.

The examining committee consists of from three to five members, nominated by the student's adviser, subject to the approval of the dean of the Graduate School, who is ex officio a member of all examining committees. The committee must include at least two members from the student's major field and one member from a department or school outside the major field.

A student passing a final examination with exceptional merit may, by vote of the examining committee, be awarded a master's degree with honors.

Interdisciplinary Master's Programs

In addition to specialized graduate work in the traditional fields of learning, the University provides opportunities for integrated interdisciplinary studies leading to the M.A. or M.S. degree—including both programs planned in the light of the individual student's interests and established programs of interdisciplinary studies organized and administered through interdepartmental faculty committees.

Established interdisciplinary programs have been approved by the Graduate Council in the following fields: international studies, overseas administration, Asian studies, juvenile correction, teaching, public administration, and industrial and labor relations.

Graduate students pursuing a program of interdisciplinary studies may supplement courses offered by the several departments and schools with individualized studies, for which they may enroll under the following course numbers:

*ISt 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

*ISt 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

The requirements for an M.A. or M.S. degree in interdisciplinary studies are the same as those for the departmental master's degree, except those requirements relating to major or minor fields.

The program is supervised by the Committee on Interdisciplinary Studies, of which Dr. Lloyd R. Sorenson, professor of history, is chairman.

Graduate Program for Teachers. A special program of graduate study for students working toward the satisfaction of the Oregon state requirement of a fifth year of college work for final high-school teacher certification is offered as one of the University's programs of interdisciplinary studies. Enrollment is open to any person eligible for admission to the Graduate School; the student must, however, have a reasonable background of undergraduate study in the fields in which he proposes to work, and must complete prerequisites for specific courses. The requirements for a master's degree in the program for teachers are as follows:

(1) A total of between 45 and 51 term hours in graduate courses, distributed in accordance with (a) and (b) below:

(a) A total of 36 term hours in subject fields (work in liberal arts departments or professional schools other than education), distributed in accordance with one of the following options:

Option 1. Between 15 and 21 term hours in each of two subject fields.

Option 2. A minimum of 36 term hours in any field in which the University offers major work toward the master's degree.

Option 3. A minimum of 36 term hours in the composite field of social studies or the composite field of science. A program in social studies may include work in the fields of anthropology, economics, geography, history, political science, psychology, and sociology. A program in science may include work in the fields of biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics, and physics.

* No-grade course.

In each of the options listed above, at least 6 term hours of work must be taken in 500 courses. The student's program must be planned to provide well-rounded knowledge, and must not be made up of scattered, unrelated courses.

For Options 1 or 2, 18 term hours in each of the subject fields involved must be presented as an undergraduate prerequisite. For Option 3, the prerequisite is 36 term hours in the composite field involved.

(b) Between 9 and 15 term hours in graduate courses in the field of education, the number of hours to be determined on the basis of the amount of work in education completed by the student as an undergraduate.

(2) Satisfaction of the regular requirements of the Graduate School for the M.A. or M.S. degree without thesis. The combined total of work transferred from other accredited institutions and work done in the Division of Continuing Education of the Oregon State System of Higher Education cannot exceed 15 term hours.

Master of Business Administration

The requirements for the degree of Master of Business Administration are listed under SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION.

Master of Education

The Master of Education is a professional degree in the field of education. Programs of study leading to this degree are designed to provide graduate training for teachers in either the elementary or the secondary schools. At the discretion of the faculty of the School of Education, the candidate may be required to submit a report of a field study. A written comprehensive final examination in the student's field of specialization is required.

Thirty term hours of work in residence is required for the M.Ed. degree. Candidates in the major fields of special education and remedial education may satisfy part of the residence requirement through work in the Portland summer session of the Division of Continuing Education.

Master of Fine Arts

The degree of Master of Fine Arts is granted for attainments and proven creative ability in the arts. The primary requirement is the satisfactory completion of a creative project of high quality. All candidates must, however, satisfy minimum requirements of residence and study.

Early in his M.F.A. program, the student takes a qualifying examination as prescribed by the major school or department. This examination may cover any work done at another institution which is to be part of the candidate's M.F.A. program.

The student plans his M.F.A. program with the assistance of a major adviser and such faculty members as may be designated by his school or department. The program must include at least 18 hours in formal graduate courses dealing with the history and theory of his genre or with the critical investigation of its standard or classic works; this work may include related studies outside the student's major field; with the approval of the student's advisory committee, this requirement may be satisfied by comprehensive examinations.

For the M.F.A. degree, at least two years of full-time work beyond the bachelor's degree are required, of which at least one year must be spent in residence on the Eugene campus of the University of Oregon.

Every candidate for the M.F.A. degree must submit an extended creative work or project of high professional character. It is expected that the preparation of an acceptable project will require the greater part of an academic year. Three clear copies of the project or of a report on the project as prescribed by the candidate's major school or department and approved by the adviser, must be distributed by the student to the members of his examining committee not less than four weeks before the time set for his final examination; at the conclusion of the examination, these copies, with required revisions, if any, are deposited in the Graduate Office.

The final examination for the M.F.A. degree may be written in part, but must include an oral examination, open to all members of the faculty and to advanced graduate students. The date of the oral examination is publicly announced at least one week before it is held. The examining committee consists of the candidate's advisory committee and other members, including at least one not directly connected with the major department or school. The committee is nominated by the major department or school, subject to the approval of the dean of the Graduate School.

Master of Architecture

The requirements for the degree of Master of Architecture are listed under SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE AND ALLIED ARTS.

Master of Landscape Architecture

The requirements for the degree of Master of Landscape Architecture are listed under SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE AND ALLIED ARTS.

Master of Urban Planning

The requirements for the degree of Master of Urban Planning are listed under SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE AND ALLIED ARTS.

Master of Music

The requirements for the degree of Master of Music are listed under SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Doctor of Philosophy

General Requirements. The degree of Doctor of Philosophy is granted primarily for attainments and proven ability. Requirements of time and credit are secondary; but no candidate will be recommended for the degree until he has satisfied the minimum requirements of residence and study.

A student whose academic work, both undergraduate and graduate, has been primarily at the University of Oregon will ordinarily be required to take graduate work at another institution before being accepted as a candidate for the degree.

Qualifying Examination. Early in his doctoral program, the student takes a qualifying examination as prescribed by the major school or department. This examination may cover any work done at another institution for which transfer credit is requested. An exceptionally good performance on the final examinations for the master's degree may be accepted as satisfying the qualifying-examination requirement.

Doctoral Program. The student plans his doctoral program with the assistance of his major adviser. As soon as he has passed his qualifying examination, his program is presented for approval to an advisory committee, appointed by the dean of the Graduate School. The committee determines the amount of work the student is expected to do outside his major school or department, in light of his background and objectives.

Residence. For the Ph.D. degree, at least three years of full-time work beyond the bachelor's degree are required, of which at least one year must be spent in residence on the Eugene campus of the University of Oregon or at the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland.

Language Requirement. For the Ph.D., the student must demonstrate by formal examinations a reading knowledge of two languages other than his native language. Normally the languages are selected from French, German, Russian, or other foreign languages specified by his department; languages other than French, German, or Russian may be approved only on petition to the Graduate School. A foreign student whose native language is not English may petition to substitute a reading and speaking knowledge of English for one of the two required languages.

Comprehensive Examinations. The student working toward the Ph.D. degree must pass a group of comprehensive examinations (oral or written or both) not less than one academic year before he expects to complete work for the degree. These examinations are expected to cover all areas of concentration and may cover any supporting area if this seems desirable to the advisory committee. Advancement to candidacy is contingent on passing these examinations. The student is not eligible to take the examinations until he has satisfied the language requirement and has taken substantially all the course work for the degree.

The final examination for a doctor's degree must be taken not later than three calendar years after advancement to candidacy. Failure to complete requirements for the degree within this period will result in invalidation of the student's comprehensive examinations.

Thesis. Every candidate for the Ph.D. degree must submit a thesis embodying the results of research, and showing evidence of originality and ability in independent investigation. The thesis must be a real contribution to knowledge, based on the candidate's own investigations. It must show a mastery of the literature of the subject, and be written in creditable literary form. It is expected that thesis preparation will require at least the greater part of an academic year.

Three clear copies of the thesis, including the original copy, approved and signed by the adviser, must be distributed by the student, unbound, to the members of his examining committee not less than four weeks before the time set for his final examination; at the conclusion of the examination, these copies, with required revisions, if any, are deposited in the Graduate Office. Copies of the thesis will not be accepted by the Graduate Office unless they meet satisfactory standards of form and style. Seven copies of an abstract of the approved thesis (not longer than 600 words) must be filed in the Graduate Office four weeks before the examination.

Final Examination. The final examination for the Ph.D. degree may be written in part, but must include an oral examination of at least two hours' duration. The oral examination is open to all members of the faculty and to advanced graduate students. The date of the oral examination is publicly announced at least one week before it is held. The examining committee consists of the candidate's advisory committee and other members, including at least one not directly connected with the major department or school. The committee is nominated by the major department or school, subject to the approval of the dean of the Graduate School.

In the oral examination the candidate is expected to defend his thesis and to show a satisfactory knowledge of his major field. The written examination, if given, is expected to cover aspects of the major field with which the thesis is not directly concerned.

Doctor of Business Administration

The requirements for the degree of Doctor of Business Administration are listed under SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION.

Doctor of Education

General Requirements. The degree of Doctor of Education is granted in recognition of mastery of theory, practice, and research in professional education or in health and physical education. In addition to a primary area of specialization, the student's plan of study should include work in supporting areas of education, foundation areas, a research area, and some noneducation courses related to his program. There is no specific foreign language requirement for the D.Ed. degree; however, a student whose fields of training or whose research project calls for a reading knowledge of one or more foreign languages may be required to demonstrate the needed linguistic ability. With the exceptions indicated in this section, the general requirements with respect to the qualifying examination, residence, comprehensive examinations, thesis, and final examinations for the D.Ed. degree are the same as those listed above for the Ph.D. degree.

Thesis. The doctoral dissertation may be either a report of research which makes an original contribution to knowledge or a study in which the student deals with knowledge already available and produces a constructive result of importance and value for educational practice. The dissertation proposal should be developed early in the doctoral program.

Advancement to Candidacy. Advancement to candidacy for the D.Ed. degree is based on proficiency shown in comprehensive examinations and the recommendation of a doctoral advisory committee. The comprehensive examinations may be taken only after the student has (1) been admitted to the degree program, (2) completed approximately two-thirds of the total course work in his program, (3) obtained approval of his dissertation proposal by his advisory committee, and (4) received the consent of his adviser to take the examinations.

Doctor of Musical Arts

The requirements for the degree of Doctor of Musical Arts are listed under SCHOOL OF MUSIC.

Assistantships, Scholarships, Fellowships

TEACHING AND RESEARCH assistantships, scholarships, and fellowships are available to well-qualified graduate students. All persons holding these positions are expected to register in the Graduate School, and to become candidates for advanced degrees. Applications should be made before March 1.

The University will welcome the submission of Graduate Record Examination scores by students applying for assistantships, scholarships, or fellowships. For information about this examination, write to Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J. or 4640 Hollywood Blvd., Los Angeles 27, Calif.

Teaching Assistantships. Nearly all schools and departments award graduate teaching assistantships. Stipends range from $1,800 to $2,600 for an academic year. Teaching assistants are allowed to register for a maximum of 12 term hours of course work. Duties, which are limited to 15 hours a week, consist of reading papers, supervising laboratory and quiz sections, etc.

Research Assistantships. A number of departments and schools employ graduate research assistants, who work under the supervision of faculty members. Funds come from research grants and contracts. Stipends, fees, and enrollment limitations are the same as for teaching assistants; augmented service in the summer may substantially increase the annual stipend.

Other Scholarships and Fellowships. Other scholarships and fellowships available to University graduate students are listed on pages 96-106. See especially Robert A. Booth Fellowship in Public Service, Coca Cola Scholarship, Thomas Condon Fellowship in Paleontology, Maud Densmore Music Fellowship, Haskins and Sells Teaching Fellowship in Accounting, Ion Lewis Scholarship in Architecture, F. G. G. Schmidt Fellowship in German, Weyerhaeuser Fellowship, and Zimmerman Scholarships.

Special Fellowship Programs. Graduate students at the University of Oregon are eligible for fellowship awards granted by the National Science Foundation, the National Institutes of Health, the Woodrow Wilson Foundation, and other national agencies, and for fellowships awarded under the National Defense Education Act. The University participates in the National Science Foundation traineeship program and in the N.S.F. program of summer fellowships for graduate assistants. Information concerning these programs may be obtained in the Graduate Office.

Loans. Graduate students are eligible for loans from University loan funds (see pages 94-95) and from funds available under the National Defense Education Act of 1958. The University also participates in United Student Aid Fund, Inc.

Graduate Work in Portland

GRADUATE WORK leading to degrees from the University is offered in Portland at the University of Oregon Medical School, the University of Oregon Dental School, and the University of Oregon School of Nursing, and through the Division of Continuing Education of the Oregon State System of Higher Education.

Medical School. The Medical School offers graduate instruction leading to the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in the medical sciences (anatomy, bacteriology, biochemistry, medical psychology, pathology, pharmacology, and physiology). Graduate degrees earned at the Medical School are conferred by the University, on the recommendation of the faculty of the Medical School.

Dental School. The Dental School offers graduate work leading to the M.S. degree for students planning careers in dental education and research. Graduate major programs are offered in the fields of anatomy, bacteriology, biochemistry, dental materials, oral pathology, orthodontics, pedodontics, pharmacology, and physiology. Graduate degrees earned at the Dental School are conferred by the University, on the recommendation of the faculty of the Dental School.

School of Nursing. The School of Nursing offers graduate work leading to the M.S. degree to prepare qualified professional nurses for teaching positions in nursing. Graduate degrees earned in the School of Nursing are conferred by the University, on the recommendation of the faculty of the School of Nursing.

Portland Center. Part of the requirements for a master's degree from the University may be completed in the Portland Center of the Division of Continuing Education of the State System of Higher Education, in fields where adequate course offerings are available for an integrated program.

Research Institutes

SEVERAL INTERDISCIPLINARY INSTITUTES administered through the Graduate School provide opportunities for graduate training and research in addition to those offered by the schools and departments. Institute staff members hold joint appointments in related teaching departments. Graduate students who intend to do thesis research work in one of the institutes must satisfy the graduate degree requirements of the related department through which they will receive their degree.

Students who wish to work in any of the institute fields may obtain detailed information concerning the programs and available financial aid from the institute directors.

Institute of Molecular Biology

AARON NOVICK, Ph.D., Director of the Institute of Molecular Biology; Professor of Biology.

SIDNEY A. BERNHARD, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Chemistry.

WILLIAM T. SIMPSON, Ph.D., Professor of Chemistry.

FRANKLIN W. STAHL, Ph.D., Professor of Biology.

GEORGE STREISINGER, Ph.D., Professor of Biology.

EDWARD HERBERT, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Chemistry.

FRANCIS J. REITHEL, Ph.D., Professor of Chemistry.

EDWARD NOVITSKI, Ph.D., Professor of Biology.

JOHN A. SCHELLMAN, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Chemistry.

WILLIAM R. SISTROM, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Biology.

RAYMOND G. WOLFE, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Chemistry.

The Institute of Molecular Biology is a center for research and research instruction in areas of biology where understanding is found in terms of the properties of macromolecules, particularly nucleic acids and proteins. Staff members hold joint appointments in a department (biology, chemistry, or physics).

Current research projects in the institute are concerned with such topics as genetic recombination and mutation in bacteria and bacterial viruses, the genetic control of protein synthesis, the regulation of the rate of protein formation, molecular structural aspects of biological specificity, biocatalysis, and biological coding.

The institute sponsors seminars, special lectures, visiting professorships, and instruction in research, but does not conduct a formal teaching program. Members of the institute staff offer courses in their fields of competence through the departments with which they are affiliated.

Research instruction is offered at both the graduate and postdoctoral levels. With the approval of the department concerned, graduate students in biology, chemistry, or physics may do research in the institute as a part of their programs leading to graduate degrees. Research advisers may be members either of the institute staff or of a departmental faculty.

Institute of Theoretical Science

ROBERT M. MAZO, Ph.D., Director of Institute of Theoretical Science; Professor of Chemistry.

MARVIN D. GIRARDEAU, JR., Ph.D., Associate Professor of Physics.

IAN E. MCCARTHY, Ph.D., Professor of Physics.

MARTIN L. SAGE, Ph.D., Assistant Professor of Chemistry.

WILLIAM T. SIMPSON, Ph.D., Professor of Chemistry.

TERRELL L. HILL, Ph.D., Professor of Chemistry.

JOEL W. MCCLURE, Ph.D., Professor of Physics.

JOHN L. POWELL, Ph.D., Professor of Physics.

GREGORY H. WANNIER, Ph.D., Professor of Physics.

The Institute of Theoretical Science provides a center for research leading to the understanding of natural processes in terms of logically constructed conceptual systems, and to the synthesis of the specialized research of physicists, biologists, and other natural scientists.

Theoretical science may be defined to include: (1) the discovery and description of the fundamental laws which govern the behavior of the elementary constituents of natural systems; (2) the theoretical description of complex systems, arising through the mutual interaction of a large number of simple systems of which we have a basic theoretical understanding; and (3) the utilization of the conceptual and analytic tools of the theoretical scientists in applied research.

Graduate students with adequate preparation in one of the science departments may elect thesis research in the institute. The institute also sponsors postdoctoral fellowships and visiting professorships.

Statistical Laboratory and Computing Center

FRED C. ANDREWS, Ph.D., Director of the Statistical Laboratory and Computing Center; Associate Professor of Mathematics.

GEORGE W. STRUBLE, Ph.D., Associate Director; Assistant Professor of Mathematics.

TED K. MATTHES, Ph.D., Research Associate; Assistant Professor of Mathematics.

DONALD R. TRUAX, Ph.D., Research Associate; Assistant Professor of Mathematics.

ROBERT F. TATE, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Mathematics.

ERNST MERZRATH, Research Assistant; Instructor in Mathematics.

The Statistical Laboratory and Computing Center conducts research in the development of new statistical and numerical procedures and provides a consulting service for graduate students and members of the faculty in the fields of statistical and numerical analysis. Computing facilities include an IBM 360, Model 50, and an IBM 1620. The electronic computers are available to the faculty and students of the University for research and instruction. The staff offers seminars in programming for these machines.

Institute of International Studies and Overseas Administration

JOHN F. GANGE, M.A., Director of Institute of International Studies and Overseas Administration; Professor of Political Science.

LEROY E. GRAYMER, M.A., Assistant to the Director; Instructor in Political Science.

GENE E. MARTIN, Ph.D., Associate Director; Associate Professor of Geography.

The Institute of International Studies and Overseas Administration is responsible for the development and coordination of University activities in the field of international affairs. Its primary functions are: (1) to develop programs of research, teaching, and administration, in cooperation with private and governmental agencies, and to arrange for the conduct of these programs by University personnel, both on the campus and overseas; (2) to assist the Committee on International Studies and Overseas Administration in the administration of graduate study in international affairs and to provide research training for graduate students; and (3) to serve as the University's center for other faculty and student activities concerned with international affairs.

The institute supervises a graduate study program leading to the Master of Arts in international studies (a two-year degree program) and a program leading to the M.A. in overseas administration (a second M.A. conferred in conjunction with an M.A. degree in a departmental discipline), and cooperates with major departments in supervising Ph.D. programs for students who elect an emphasis on international affairs within their chosen disciplines.

The institute sponsors and encourages faculty research in international affairs and assists in providing opportunities for joint faculty and student research projects on campus and overseas. Research assistantships are available in the institute; research and research training bases have been established in Chile, Colombia, and the Philippines.

The institute also conducts graduate seminars to provide opportunities for students and members of the faculty to share ideas and experiences with visiting lecturers, special consultants, and among themselves. In addition to its campus programs, the institute arranges for advanced students opportunities for overseas study and for administrative experience on foreign projects.

The institute conducts the University's annual Summer World Affairs Program and the program of the Oregon High School International Relations League.

Center for Social Service Training and Research

MARTIN H. ACKER, Ph.D., Co-Director of the Center for Social Service Training and Research; Associate Professor of Education.

KENNETH POLK, Ph.D., Co-Director of the Center for Social Service Training and Research; Assistant Professor of Sociology.

The Center for Social Service Training and Research administers programs of graduate instruction and research conducted by the University in the fields of juvenile correction, rehabilitation counseling, and related areas.

Rehabilitation Counseling. The program in rehabilitation counseling includes a two-year program of graduate work leading to a master's degree. The program, offered through the cooperation of the Department of Psychology and the School of Education, is designed to provide the student with a well-rounded background for professional employment as a counselor in a state or private agency concerned with the problems of physically or mentally handicapped persons. Courses in psychology, education, and sociology are supplemented by study of medical, legal, and other aspects of rehabilitation and by supervised experience in rehabilitation agencies. Financial assistance to full-time students in this program is available through traineeships provided by the U. S. Department of Health, Education, and Welfare.

Juvenile Correction. In the field of juvenile correction, the University offers, through the Center for Social Service Training and Research, a two-year interdisciplinary program of graduate study, leading to the master's degree, to prepare students for professional careers in the prevention and correction of juvenile delinquency in a variety of institutions and agencies. The research program includes studies of the etiology, prevention, and correction of juvenile behavioral problems.

Institute for Community Studies

ROLAND J. PELLEGRIN, Ph.D., Director of Institute for Community Studies and the Center for the Advanced Study of Educational Administration; Professor of Sociology.

ROBERT A. ELLIS, Ph.D., Director, Center for Research on Occupational Planning; Professor of Sociology.

KEITH GOLDHAMMER, Ph.D., Associate Director, Center for the Advanced Study of Educational Administration; Professor of Education.

PHILIP J. RUNKEL, Ph.D., Associate Director, Center for the Advanced Study of Educational Administration; Professor of Psychology.

The Institute for Community Studies conducts and encourages research in the behavioral and social sciences, education, and related areas. Most projects carried on under the auspices of the institute have a community orientation, focusing on the structure and functioning of the community as a social and political system. Emphasis is on the policy-formulation processes in the economy, government, education, and other institutional areas of the community.

The institute provides facilities for individual research by members of the faculty and for cooperative projects, together with opportunities for continuing communication, criticism, and reports of progress by participating scholars. It also provides research training for graduate students in connection with institute projects, with emphasis on the development of specific research designs as a basis for graduate dissertations.

The Center for the Advanced Study of Educational Administration, a division of the institute, was established in 1964 with funds granted by the Research and Development Program of the United States Office of Education. The program of the center is concerned with the internal organization and functioning of public educational institutions and educational systems and with the relationships of these institutions and systems to the larger environments in which they are located.

The Center for Research on Occupational Planning, also a division of the institute, was established in 1965 under contract with the Division of Vocational and Technical Education of the United States Office of Education. This center conducts nationwide research on occupational choice and planning.

As divisions of the institute, both centers draw upon the services of staff members and graduate students in the behavioral sciences and in the field of education.

Bureau of Business and Economic Research

WESLEY C. BALLAINE, Ph.D., Director, Bureau of Business and Economic Research; Professor of Business Economics.

PAUL L. KLEINSORGE, Ph.D., Associate Director; Director of Institute of Industrial and Labor Relations; Professor of Economics.

DONALD A. WATSON, Ph.D., Associate Director; Associate Professor of Finance.

EDWARD M. SIENKIEWICZ, M.S., Research Assistant.

The Bureau of Business and Economic Research conducts and encourages research in business, economics, and related fields. Studies undertaken by the bureau or for which it provides assistance in research design and facilities are financed through University funds and through grants from foundations, government agencies, and the business community.

The bureau publishes the monthly Oregon Business Review, the annual Oregon Economic Statistics, and monographs reporting the results of business and economic research.

The bureau works in close cooperation with the Institute of Industrial and Labor Relations.

Institute of Industrial and Labor Relations

PAUL L. KLEINSORGE, Ph.D., Director of Institute of Industrial and Labor Relations; Associate Director of Bureau of Business and Economic Research; Professor of Economics.

WESLEY C. BALLAINE, Ph.D., Director, Bureau of Business and Economic Research; Professor of Business Economics.

ROBERT DUBIN, Ph.D., Research Professor of Sociology.

JACK E. TRIPLETT, JR., Ph.D., Assistant Director; Assistant Professor of Economics.

The Institute of Industrial and Labor Relations conducts a program of research, public service, and graduate study in the field of industrial relations; see COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS for information on graduate study. The institute's research program includes studies in manpower resources, labor mobility, wage structures, personnel problems, management and labor organizations, communications in labor relations, labor legislation, and collective bargaining. The approach is interdisciplinary, involving the cooperative efforts of scholars in the several social sciences and related professional schools. In its research program, the institute is closely associated with the Bureau of Business and Economic Research. Research assistantships are available for graduate students.

The institute also sponsors programs in labor education and management, including regular campus courses, evening classes through the Division of Continuing Education, special seminars, and conferences, and provides an information service on problems of industrial relations.

Institute for College Teaching

WILLIAM C. JONES, Ph.D., Director of the Institute for College Teaching; Dean of Administration; Professor of Higher Education.

The programs of the Institute for College Teaching include: (1) the conduct of research on various problems relating to college teaching, the improvement of the quality of college teaching, the preparation of college teachers, and related professional problems of direct concern to college teachers; (2) the organization, supervision, and coordination of systematic programs of carefully supervised teaching experiences for students preparing for college teaching careers; (3) the preparation and presentation of courses and seminars dealing with the nature, structure, history, philosophy, and organization of institutions of higher learning.

The institute, with the cooperation of members of the faculties of the several schools and departments, offers a seminar concerned with the broad problems of higher education and college teaching:

*ISt 507. Higher Education Seminar. 1 hour.

Jones, staff.

* No-grade course.

Honors College

CHARLES E. JOHNSON, Ph.D., Dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

*LUCIAN C. MARQUIS, Ph.D., Director of the Honors College; Assistant Dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

STANLEY A. PIERSON, Ph.D. Acting Director of the Honors College.

THE HONORS COLLEGE offers a four-year undergraduate program leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts (Honors College). The College program is designed to provide full opportunity for the superior student to develop his highest potential in liberal education and specialized training; it is open to students majoring in liberal arts or in professional schools.

Honors College Center. An Honors College Center has been established in Friendly Hall. The center includes small study rooms, a colloquium meeting room, a small library, the office of the Honors College, and a common room where students may meet and talk informally.

Admission

Application for admission to the Honors College is invited from students in the top tenth of their high-school classes, who have had four years of work in English, three years in social science, and two years each in mathematics, science, and foreign language. Students of exceptional ability who lack some of these qualifications, but who believe they are capable of honors work at the University, are also invited to apply.

Freshman applicants must submit scores on College Entrance Examination Board tests, including aptitude tests and achievement tests in English, mathematics, and a foreign language. With the approval of the director of the Honors College, the examination in foreign language may be waived in special cases, e.g., if the student's high school does not offer adequate work in the field.

Students applying for admission to the Honors College must also make separate application for admission to the University. Both University and Honors College application forms may be secured from the Office of Admissions.

Admission of transfer students and students already enrolled in the University is based on the student's college records.

Curriculum and Requirements

The degree of Bachelor of Arts (Honors College) is conferred on students who satisfy the following requirements:

(1) Proficiency in a foreign language equivalent to that reached in the second-year college course.

(2) A satisfactory record on comprehensive examinations in each of six core areas. It is recommended that the student take these examinations during his lower-division years. The courses which prepare for the comprehensive examinations are:

(a) History—History (Honors College) (Hst 107, 108, 109).

(b) Literature—Literature (Honors College) (AL 101, 102, 103).

*On leave of absence 1965-66.

- (c) Social Science—Introduction to the Social Sciences (SSc 201, 202, 203); * or Principles of Economics, honors section (Ec 201, 202, 20).
- (d) Science—Physical Science (Honors College) (GS 204, 205, 206); or Biological Science (Honors College) (Bi 104, 105, 106); or General Chemistry (Ch 204, 205, 206); or General Physics, honors section (Ph 201, 202, 203).
- (e) Philosophy—Introduction to Philosophy (Honors College) (Phl 207, 208, 209).
- (f) Mathematics—Fundamentals of Mathematics (Honors College) (Mth 107, 108, 109); or Analytic Geometry and Calculus, honors section (Mth 204, 205, 206).

Students may prepare for the comprehensive examinations in the core areas by taking the designated courses or through independent study. A student who prepares without formal course work, and passes the comprehensive examination, may receive credit in the corresponding course. A student who receives full college credit, through the Advanced Placement Program, for a course included in the Honors College core program satisfies the requirement in that field and is excused from the comprehensive examination. With the consent of his adviser, a liberal arts major may omit one of the six core areas and a professional-school major may omit two.

(3) Honors work in English composition—one term of Expository Writing (Wr 226), two terms of Composition Tutorial (Wr 231, 232).

(4) Two terms in Colloquium (HC 404) in the junior or senior year. Colloquia provide seminar-type instruction for students of varying backgrounds, focusing for one term on a common topic outside the students' major fields.

(5) Completion of an honors program in the student's major; see MAJOR REQUIREMENTS, below.

(6) Satisfactory performance in a final comprehensive oral examination covering the student's major and related work.

Honors College students must also satisfy general University requirements for the B.A. degree (other than the group requirement).

An Honors College student majoring in a professional field may qualify for both the B.A. (Honors College) and a professional bachelor's degree.

In addition to the courses listed above, the Honors College curriculum includes honors work in English composition, honors sections in several other fields (including basic design, foreign languages, literature, United States history, speech, accounting, statistics, and health education), and opportunities for work in departmental honors seminars, research projects, and reading and conference.

The Honors College student takes approximately two-thirds of his work in honors classes and the remainder in regular University courses.

Major Requirements

The major programs planned by departments and schools for students in the Honors College provide for independent study and generally allow greater flexibility in the satisfaction of course requirements than the regular undergraduate programs of the divisions. The special requirements of the several divisions for majors enrolled in the Honors College are listed below.

General Arts and Letters. At least 9 term hours in seminar, reading and conference, thesis, or research (or a combination), leading to the preparation of senior honors thesis.

* SSc 201, 202, 203 satisfies prerequisite requirements for upper-division courses in anthropology, geography, political science, psychology, and sociology.

General Social Science. (1) Of the four upper-division year sequences required of all majors, at least one at the 400 level; (2) at least 9 term hours in seminar, reading and conference, thesis, or research (or a combination), leading to the preparation of senior honors thesis.

Anthropology. Senior honors thesis, requiring one or more terms for completion.

Architecture and Allied Arts. Honors reading and conference.

Asian Studies. Senior honors thesis utilizing materials in a foreign language germane to the region with which the thesis is concerned. (The final oral examination will cover the thesis.)

Biology. Honors thesis based on original observations or experiments, for which credit may be obtained under Bi 401. (Honors students may be admitted to graduate courses in the department.)

Business Administration. Major programs developed in consultation with school honors adviser.

Chemistry. (1) Ch 204, 205, 206, Ch 207, 208, 209 for satisfaction of freshman chemistry requirement; (2) Mth 204, 205, 206; (3) in senior year, research and honors thesis.

Economics. (1) Honors sections of Ec 201, 202, 203 and SSc 201, 202, 203; (2) at the option of the student and the instructor, 1 term hour each term in reading and conference related to the work of each upper-division economics course for which the student is enrolled; (3) Ec 375, 376, 377 before senior year; (4) 9-hour sequence in economics at the 400 level; (5) honors seminar in the fall and winter terms of the senior year; (6) senior honors essay.

Education. (1) Honors section of Ed 315; (2) reading and conference, 3 term hours, culminating in an essay.

English. (1) 9 term hours of independent study in a literary period, type, etc., approved by the department honors committee, culminating in winter term of senior year in a scholarly or critical honors essay; (2) a comprehensive written examination (in spring term of senior year) testing knowledge of literary history and critical ability.

Geography. (1) Geog 481, 482, 483; (2) Geog 421, 422, 423; (3) Geog 491, 492, 493; (4) junior and senior honors seminars; (5) at student's option, senior honors thesis. Recommended: Geol 101, 102, 103.

Geology. (1) Year sequence in calculus or statistics; (2) Geol 311, 312, 313, Geol 406, Geol 411; (3) additional year sequence in geology, mathematics, or other science; (4) senior honors thesis based on original research, for 3 term hours of credit.

History. Complete requirements for a major in history, including (1) junior honors seminar, 9 term hours; (2) senior honors essay, 7 term hours; (3) oral examination over two of the following fields: (a) Greece and Rome, (b) mediaeval Europe, (c) Renaissance and Reformation, (d) Europe 1500-1789, (e) Europe since 1789, (f) United States, (g) Far East, (h) Latin America.

Journalism. (1) J 485, J 487; (2) senior thesis (J 403), 6 term hours; (3) examination before faculty committee on thesis and professional course work.

Law. (1) Independent reading of four to six books about the law—history, biography, jurisprudence, fiction, etc.—selected with the approval of the faculty; (2) completion of law school work counted toward the B.A. degree with a GPA of 2.25 or higher.

Mathematics. (1) Mth 204, 205, 206 (preferably honors section); (2) Mth 412, 413, 414, Mth 431, 432, 433; (3) honors seminar or approved equivalent in junior or senior year.

Medicine. (1) Three years of work in the Honors College; (2) completion of the first-year professional program in medicine with a scholastic rank in the upper half of his class.

Modern and Classical Languages. (1) Normally, in the junior year, seminar in the literature of the student's principal language; (2) in the senior year, honors thesis, essays, or other evidence of serious and coherent work approved by the department honors committee.

Music. (1) 9 term hours of independent study of a musical period, style, genre, composer, etc.; (2) honors essay in spring term of senior year.

Philosophy. (1) Phl 301, 302, 303 before senior year; (2) senior honors essay, following intensive study of some aspect of philosophy either on a tutorial basis or in connection with a senior seminar; (3) a comprehensive written examination.

Physics. Maximum of 18 term hours of credit in independent study (research, reading and conference, thesis).

Political Science. (1) Fall term of senior year, honors seminar, 3 term hours; (2) winter term of senior year, reading and conference, 3 term hours; (3) spring term of senior year, honors essay, 3 term hours.

Psychology. (1) Honors seminar; (2) honors thesis. (It is strongly recommended that honors students take Mth 425, 426 or Mth 441, 442, 443 in the junior year; advanced laboratory courses required of all majors.)

Sociology. (1) Soc 311, Soc 334, Soc 342, Soc 343, Soc 470 (students planning to do graduate work are urged to substitute Soc 411, Soc 412, Soc 413 for Soc 311); (2) minimum of 12 term hours in a substantive area of sociology; (3) examination covering ten major works in the field of sociology; (4) honors thesis involving sociological analysis (maximum credit, 9 term hours).

Speech. (1) Honors seminar during junior year; (2) honors readings, fall term of senior year; (3) honors thesis, prepared during winter and spring terms of senior year.

Advanced Placement Program

Students who complete college-level work in high school under the Advanced Placement Program sponsored by the College Entrance Examination Board and who receive satisfactory grades in examinations administered by the Board may, on admission to the University, be granted credit toward a bachelor's degree in comparable University courses. The University's participation in this program is supervised by the Honors College.

The fields included in the Advanced Placement Program are: English composition and literature, American history, European history, biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics, French, German, Spanish, and Latin.

College of Liberal Arts

CHARLES E. JOHNSON, Ph.D., Dean of the College of Liberal Arts.

GLENN STARLIN, Ph.D., Associate Dean.

A. KINGSLEY WEATHERHEAD, Ph.D., Associate Dean.

*LUCIAN C. MARQUIS, Ph.D., Director of the Honors College; Assistant Dean.

STANLEY A. PIERSON, Ph.D., Acting Director of the Honors College; Assistant Dean.

PHIL SCHOGGEN, Ph.D., Director of Academic Advising; Assistant Dean.

FRED J. MOHR, B.A., Special Assistant to the Dean.

THE COLLEGE OF LIBERAL ARTS gives form to man's study of his world, his history, and himself. Programs centered in the three great disciplines of the natural sciences, the social sciences, and the humanities emancipate his mind and extend that knowledge which is indispensable to the good life of free men.

The instructional divisions of the college are: Anthropology, Biology, Chemistry, Economics, English, Geography, Geology, History, Home Economics, Mathematics, Modern and Classical Languages, Philosophy, Physics, Political Science, Psychology, Religious Studies, Sociology, and Speech. All the divisions, except the departments of Home Economics and Religious Studies, offer major curricula leading to baccalaureate and graduate degrees.

Also administered through the college are special programs in Asian studies, comparative literature, general arts and letters, general science, general social science, industrial and labor relations, and Latin American studies; preparatory programs in dentistry, medical technology, medicine, nursing, and pharmacy; and the Bureau of Municipal Research and Service and the Museum of Natural History.

Entrance Requirements. There are no entrance requirements, beyond the general entrance requirements of the University, for students intending to choose a major within the College of Liberal Arts.

Students intending to major in any of the natural sciences are, however, advised to present at least two units of high-school mathematics and two units of high-school science. Experience has proved that students who lack this preparation are handicapped in University work in science. Students planning to major in chemistry, mathematics, or physics or planning to prepare themselves for entrance to a medical school will find it to their advantage to take intermediate algebra, plane geometry, and trigonometry in high school.

Degree Requirements. For a bachelor's degree with a major in the College of Liberal Arts, a minimum of 186 term hours of University work is required, including:

(1) A minimum of four sequences in liberal arts courses numbered from 100 to 120 or 200 to 220, in satisfaction of the general University lower-division group requirement (for a complete statement of the regulations governing this requirement, and a list of group courses, see pages 78-80).

(2) In addition, two sequences in liberal arts courses numbered from 100 to 120, 200 to 220, or 300 to 310.† Of the total of six sequences elected for the satis-

* On leave of absence 1965-66.

† Requirement (2) does not apply to students who are admitted to the University of Oregon Medical School or Dental School from other accredited institutions and who are candidates for a baccalaureate degree from the University of Oregon.

faction of requirements (1) and (2), two must be chosen from each of the three groups, arts and letters, social science, and science; the two sequences in social science and in science must be from different departments. (For a list of group courses see pages 79-80.)

(3) A minimum of 62 term hours in upper-division courses.

(4) A minimum of 36 term hours in the student's major field, at least 24 of which must be in upper-division courses. Some departments require more than the 36-hour minimum. For certain interdepartmental majors the major requirement is approximately 72 term hours of work distributed in several departments.

Honors College. Through the Honors College, the University offers a four-year program of liberal education for selected superior students, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts (Honors College). The Honors College also supervises the University's participation in the Advanced Placement Program sponsored by the College Entrance Examination Board. See page 132.

Interdepartmental Courses

Arts and Letters*

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- AL 101, 102, 103. Literature (Honors College). 3 hours each term.

General Science*

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- GS 104, 105, 106. Physical-Science Survey. 4 hours each term.
General introduction to the physical sciences; principles of astronomy, physics, and chemistry, geologic processes, and man's relation to them. Special emphasis on scientific method. 4 lectures. Ebbighausen, Ellickson.
- GS 204, 205, 206. Physical Science (Honors College). 4 hours each term.
Introduction to certain basic concepts, terms, and methods of modern physical science, with emphasis on the interrelations of the physical sciences with each other and with other fields of knowledge. Wannier.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- GS 411, 412, 413. History of Science. (g) 2 hours each term.
Lectures, readings, and discussions of selected topics in the history of science, considered as a part of the cultural history of Western civilization in the period 1500-1900.

* For major program in general science, see pages 167-168.

General Social Science*

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

SSc 104, 105, 106. Social Science and Social Policy. 3 hours each term.

SSc 201, 202, 203. Introduction to the Social Sciences (Honors College). 3 hours each term.

A study of some fundamental concepts in the social sciences. Satisfies prerequisite requirement for upper-division courses in anthropology, geography, political science, psychology, and sociology. Dumond, Howard, Urquhart.

Anthropology

Professors: A. C. SPAULDING (department head), D. F. ABERLE, H. G. BARNETT, L. S. CRESSMAN (emeritus), THEODORE STERN.

Associate Professors: V. R. DORJAHN, A. G. SMITH.

Assistant Professors: H. B. BARCLAY, D. L. COLE, D. E. DUMOND, LEROY JOHNSON, J. G. JORGENSEN, MALCOLM MCFEE, P. E. SIMONDS, D. T. WALLACE.

Associates: KATHLEEN G. ABERLE, ANN G. SIMONDS.

Fellows: J. H. BODLEY, J. H. COLVIN, L. H. DONALD, J. F. HOFMEISTER, B. L. ISAAC, F. D. MCEVOY, F. E. POIRIER, J. C. RIDDELL, LINDA CORDELL, P. M. WEIL.

Assistants: A. C. ANDERSON, J. H. ATHERTON, J. E. CARTER, G. H. CLARK, C. N. COLE, G. G. ECK, J. L. ESKILDSEN, A. G. FANTEL, D. L. HARDESTY, K. E. KNUDSON, E. H. LARSON, A. P. LESSIN, MICHAEL LIEBER, S. M. LLOYD, R. L. A. MACE, W. E. OVERHOLT, A. B. PERLIN, H. S. RICE, C. M. SAUNDERS, SHELDON SMITH, D. R. SNOW, ALEXANDER SONEK, JR., W. T. STUART, R. E. WIEST.

THE COURSES offered by the Department of Anthropology are planned to provide a broad and deep understanding of human nature and society for students in other fields, as well as integrated programs for majors in anthropology.

A high-school student planning to major in anthropology is advised to take two years of high-school mathematics, preferably algebra. He should also come to the University with a sound background in English, so that he can read with understanding and express himself with clarity.

Majors in anthropology are required to take the following lower-division courses: General Anthropology (Anth 101, 102, 103) or Introduction to Cultural Anthropology (Anth 207, 208, 209); a year sequence in psychology.

At the upper-division level the following courses are required for majors: Peoples of the World (Anth 314, 315, 316); Physical Anthropology (Anth 320, 321, 322); World Prehistory (Anth 411, 412, 413); and one area course at the 400 (G) level. Students planning to do graduate work should take two years of German and two years of a second foreign language, preferably French or Spanish. To insure a broad liberal education, it is strongly recommended that the student limit his undergraduate work in anthropology to a maximum of 51 term hours.

The department offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Graduate instruction includes work in the fields of archaeology, ethnology, linguistics, and physical anthropology. To qualify for a master's degree, students must demonstrate a basic competence in all these fields.

The carefully selected anthropological collections of the Museum of Natural History provide excellent material for class instruction, particularly in the culture of the American Indian.

* For major program in general social science, see pages 168-169.

Secondary-School Teaching of Social Studies. For certification as a teacher of social studies in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in social studies and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, a major in anthropology must complete the following program, selected from the fields of history, geography, political science, economics, and sociology or anthropology, with a 2.50 GPA or higher: (1) work in anthropology required for a major in the field; (2) 27 term hours in history; (3) 9 term hours in a third field; (4) at least one course in each of two additional fields. The program must include a minimum of 36 term hours in upper-division courses.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the anthropology faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Anth 101, 102, 103. General Anthropology. 3 hours each term.

Fall: man as a living organism; biological evolution; fossil man; winter: prehistoric cultures; spring: organization and functioning of culture. 2 lectures, 1 discussion period.

Anth 207, 208, 209. Introduction to Cultural Anthropology. 3 hours each term.

The meaning of culture; its significance for human beings; its diverse forms and degrees of elaboration among different groups of men; its processes of growth and expansion. 2 lectures; 1 discussion period. Smith.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Interrelationships of environment, technology, and social organization. In second and third terms, preparation and comparative analysis of case reports. Aberle.

Asian Studies

THE CURRICULUM IN ASIAN STUDIES is a program of area training through selected courses dealing with Asian culture. The primary emphasis is upon the Chinese culture sphere, with special attention to Japan. The program is designed to provide necessary basic knowledge for students interested in commercial, governmental, journalistic, or educational work relating to the region, for students preparing for graduate work in Asian studies, or for those who wish to broaden their understanding of the interrelated world in which they live. The curriculum is administered by an advisory committee, of which G. Ralph Falconeri, lecturer in history, is chairman.

The major in Asian studies leads to the Bachelor of Arts degree. Normally, a candidate is required to take two years of either Chinese or Japanese; another language may, however, be substituted if it is germane to the region or country in which the student has a special interest. The major requirements are as follows:

(1) All majors must take the following: Far East in Modern Times (Hst or PS 391, 392, 393); Eastern and Southern Asia (Geog 451); Peoples of Southern and Eastern Asia (Anth 438, 439, 440).

(2) The candidate must take 39 term hours of work from groups (a) and (b) below; for the satisfaction of this minimum requirement, not more than 24 term hours may be selected from group (b).

(a) Lecture-seminar group: History of Oriental Art (ArH 246, 247, 248); Introduction to Japanese Literature (AL 301, 302, 303); Introduction to Chinese Literature (AL 307, 308, 309); Southern Asia in Modern Times (PS 337, 338, 339); Epochs in Oriental Art (ArH 446, 447, 448); Government and Politics of the Far East: China (PS 460, 461); History of China (Hst 494, 495, 496); History of Japan (Hst 497, 498, 499); Seminar: Religious Philosophy of China (R 407); Seminar: Religions in Japan (R 407); Seminar: Japanese Historiography (Hst 407); Seminar: China's Modern Revolution (Hst 407); other approved seminars and colloquia.

(b) Language-course group: Chinese and Japanese language instruction; for courses, see pages 196-197.

Honors: See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Work. The University also offers an interdisciplinary program of graduate work in Asian studies in conjunction with work in a departmental field of specialization. The program leads to two M.A. degrees, one in a departmental field and the second in interdisciplinary Asian studies. The student completes 45 term hours of work in his departmental field and, in addition, 30 term hours in Asian studies, including a seminar in the Asian field. His thesis applies the methodology of a departmental discipline to an Asian subject. The candidate must demonstrate mastery, equivalent to the attainment expected after two years of college study, in an Asian language relevant to his program.

Center for Japanese Studies. Graduate study and research in Japanese culture and civilization is sponsored through the University Center for Japanese Studies. The program of the center includes the direction of the work of graduate students who choose Japan as an area of concentration for the M.A. degree in Asian studies. Through the center, advanced students are provided an opportunity to pursue part of their studies in Japan.

THE DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY offers an undergraduate program planned to provide an understanding of the living world as a part of a liberal education, to prepare the student for professional careers in industry, government, and secondary education, and to provide preparation for graduate work leading to careers in higher education, research, and the medical sciences.

Modern biology is a quantitative science; students planning to specialize in biology should include in their high-school preparation as much mathematics as possible, including at least algebra and geometry. Preparation in English is essential, and work in French, German, chemistry, and physics is highly desirable.

The course requirements for majors are as follows: General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103 or Bi 104, 105, 106);‡ General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106 or Ch 204, 205, 206); Quantitative Analysis Laboratory (Ch 108, 109, or Ch 207, 208, 209); mathematics through Mth 106; General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203, Ph 204, 205, 206); Organic Chemistry (Ch 334, 335, 336); Introduction to Genetics (Bi 422); Cellular Physiology (Bi 311); 16 hours of upper-division work selected from zoology (Bi 355, Bi 356, Bi 361, Bi 362, 363, 364), botany (Bi 332, 333, Bi 334), or microbiology (Bi 481, 482), including courses in at least two of these three areas. Students who intend to go on for graduate work are urged to include calculus and two years of a foreign language (French, German, or Russian), in their programs.

Students who plan to enter medical or dental school for their senior year may substitute courses in anatomy and physiology for 8 hours of upper-division biology electives. Premedical and pre-dental students should make sure that their programs meet the requirements of the schools they plan to enter, as well as those of the department. Vertebrate Zoology (Bi 362, 363, 364), may be substituted for Comparative Anatomy (Bi 355), and Vertebrate Embryology (Bi 356), to meet medical-school entrance requirements.

Secondary-School Teaching of Biology. For certification as a teacher of biology in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in biology and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, the student should complete the major program

* On leave of absence 1965-66.

† On leave of absence, fall term, 1965-66.

‡ This requirement may be waived for students with superior high-school backgrounds, as indicated by Advanced Placement Program record or by special departmental examinations.

outlined above. The mathematics and physics requirements will be liberalized for students who enter student teaching in the senior year; these students should complete Introductory College Mathematics (Mth 105) and General Ecology (Bi 372), and may substitute Essentials of Physics (Ph 101, 102, 103) for General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203). Laboratory and Field Methods in Biology (Bi 494) satisfies the certification requirements for Special Secondary Methods (Ed 408).

For further information, the student should consult the member of the biology faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Work. The department offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Candidates for higher degrees are expected to meet undergraduate major requirements, as determined by their undergraduate records and by examination, before advancement to candidacy for the degree. Students taking a master's degree prior to doctoral work are advised to gain proficiency in French, German, or Russian, and to take the M.A. degree.

Facilities are available for graduate study in botany (plant morphology, cytology, anatomy, taxonomy, and physiology), ecology (plant and animal), genetics, marine biology, microbiology, physiology (comparative, general, and mammalian), and zoology (cytology, embryology, invertebrate, and vertebrate).

Institute of Marine Biology. The University operates for the Oregon State System of Higher Education an Institute of Marine Biology at Charleston on Coos Bay on the Oregon Coast. The institute is located in a setting providing access to an unusual variety of richly populated marine and terrestrial habitats. Under the guidance of an interinstitutional advisory committee, the institute serves all units of the State System. A program of undergraduate and graduate studies is offered during the summer session.

Institute of Molecular Biology. A program of research and research instruction in areas of biology where phenomena can be understood in terms of the structure of molecules is conducted through the University of Oregon Institute of Molecular Biology. See INSTITUTE OF MOLECULAR BIOLOGY (page 124).

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Bi 101, 102, 103. General Biology. 4 hours each term.

Principles of life science, illustrated by studies of selected organisms. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period.

Bi 104, 105, 106. Biological Science (Honors College). 4 hours each term.

Selected studies of biological principles, with emphasis on methods of observation, comparison, analysis, experiment, and synthesis in biological science. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

(Bi 101, 102, 103 or equivalent is prerequisite to all upper-division courses in biology. Other prerequisites are indicated in the course descriptions.)

Bi 311. Cellular Physiology. 3 hours.

Cellular phenomena common to all organisms, including chemical processes of metabolism and membrane processes. Prerequisite: Ch 334.

Bi 312, 313. Human Physiology. 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

Required for majors in physical education, elective for others qualified. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: one year of chemistry. Soderwall.

Bi 320. Cell Replication and Control Mechanisms. 3 hours.

Structure and properties of macromolecules common to all living matter, and the control of their synthesis. Prerequisite: Bi 311.

- Bi 332, 333. Plant Morphology. 4 hours each term, fall and winter.
Comparative study of the structure and life histories of representatives of the important plant phyla. Fall: ferns, fern allies, and seed plants; winter: algae, fungi, liverworts, and mosses. 3 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Tepfer, Castenholz.
- Bi 334. Systematic Botany. 4 hours.
Principles of plant classification; common plant families; collection and identification of Oregon plants. Cook.
- Bi 355. Comparative Anatomy. 4 hours.
Systematic study, dissection, and identification of vertebrate structures and anatomical relations. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Not open to students who have credit for Bi 362, 363, 364. Morris.
- Bi 356. Vertebrate Embryology. 4 hours.
Fertilization, morphogenesis, and differentiation of organ systems of vertebrates. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Not open to students who have credit for Bi 362, 363, 364. Risley.
- Bi 361. Essentials of Invertebrate Zoology. 4 hours.
Morphology, anatomy, and general biology of the major phyla of invertebrate animals. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods.
- Bi 362, 363, 364. Vertebrate Zoology. 4 hours each term.
An integrated presentation of morphological, developmental, and functional features of the vertebrates. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bi 101, 102, 103 and consent of instructor, or Bi 104, 105, 106. Not open to students who have credit for Bi 355, Bi 356. Morris, Munz.
- Bi 372. General Ecology. 4 hours.
Examination of the interrelationships between organisms and environment; designed for nonmajors and for majors who do not plan further work in ecology. 3 lectures; 1 field trip a week.
- Bi 381, 382. Introduction to Bacteriology. 3 hours each term.
Basic principles and techniques of bacteriology; role of bacteria and other micro-organisms in transformations of organic matter and in physical and chemical transformations in soil and water; their importance to man. 2 lectures; 2 two-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: general chemistry. McConnaughey.
- Bi 391, 392. Human Anatomy. 3 hours each term.
Gross anatomy; the skeletal and muscular structure; the circulatory, respiratory, digestive, and neural systems and their functioning in physical activities. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour dissection period. Prerequisite: junior standing. Sigersteth.
- *Bi 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- *Bi 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- *Bi 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- *Bi 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- *Bi 408. Laboratory Projects. (G) Hours to be arranged.
Special laboratory training in research methods.
- Bi 414, 415, 416. Comparative Physiology. (G) 4 hours each term.
Physiology of excitation, conduction, and muscular contraction in animals; nutrition, digestion, circulation, metabolism, excretion, and integration in the major animal phyla, in relation to ecology and the evolution of physiological function. 3 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: organic chemistry, general physics, invertebrate zoology.

* No-grade course.

- Bi 422. Introduction to Genetics. (g) 3 hours.
An introduction to the fundamental principles of genetics. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: general chemistry and college algebra (Mth 105). Clancy.
- Bi 423. Genetics Laboratory. (G) 2 hours.
Fundamental principles of genetics illustrated by experiments with Drosophila and other organisms. 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bi 422. Clancy.
- Bi 424. Human Genetics. (G) 3 hours.
The immunogenetics of the blood groups and transplantation incompatibilities; sex determination and the sex ratio; spontaneous and induced mutation; radiation effects; the genetics of populations; selection, eugenics, and the genetic aspects of the human races. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Bi 422. Novitski.
- Bi 426. Evolution. (G) 3 hours.
Theories of biological variation, race, and species formation. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Bi 422 or equivalent; senior or graduate standing.
- Bi 428, 429. Cytology. (G) 4 hours each term, winter and spring.
Microscopic and submicroscopic structure of cytoplasm, and its relation to cell function; structure and behavior of chromosomes and other nuclear components. Methods of study and experimental procedures. 2 lectures, 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Wimber.
- Bi 431. Microtechnique. (G) 3 hours.
Paraffin, squash technique, and handling of live cells. Theory and practice of light microscopes, photomicrography, and microcinematography. Two 3-hour laboratory-lecture periods. Prerequisite: senior standing; Bi 434. Bajer.
- Bi 432. Fungi. (G) 4 hours.
Structure, physiology, and classification of fungi. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Not offered 1966-67. Castenholz.
- Bi 433. Algae. (G) 4 hours.
Structure, life histories, and ecology of representative fresh-water and marine algae. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Castenholz.
- Bi 434. Plant Anatomy. (G) 4 hours.
Comparative study of the structure and development of cells, tissues, and organs of seed plants. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Bajer.
- Bi 441. Plant Physiology. (G) 4 hours.
Growth, respiration, water relations, and functions of plant organs. 3 lectures, 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisites: Bi 311, Ch 336. Straus.
- Bi 455. Histology. (G) 4 hours.
Systematic study, description, and identification of microscopic structures of vertebrate tissues. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Bi 355, Bi 356, or Bi 362, 363, 364.
- Bi 463. Parasitology. (G) 4 hours.
Biological relationships of parasite and host, and the effect of such relationships on each. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Offered in alternate years. McConnaughey.
- Bi 471, 472, 473. Principles of Ecology. (G) 4 hours each term.
Fall: introduction to the ecosystem; interrelations between organisms and the physical environment, with emphasis on examples from higher plants. Winter: study of population; growth, structure, and species interactions. Spring: ecosystem energetics and structure, with intensive study of a few selected examples. 3 lectures; field work. Prerequisite: general chemistry, college algebra, and consent of instructor. Bi 471 not offered 1966-67. Cook, Frank.
- Bi 475. Aquatic Biology. (G) 3 hours.
The ecology of fresh-water organisms. 2 lectures; 1 field trip and laboratory period. Prerequisite: Bi 372 or Bi 471. Offered alternate years. Not offered 1966-67. Castenholz, Frank.

Bi 481, 482. Microbiology. (G) 4 hours each term.

Physiology and biochemistry of micro-organisms. The first term is mainly devoted to laboratory work on the isolation of various types of bacteria from nature and on the physiology of growth. In the second term, the emphasis is on mechanisms of metabolic control and on the physiology of growth. Prerequisite: Bi 311, Ch 336 or consent of the instructor. Siström.

Bi 491, 492, 493. Historical Biogeography. (G) 3 hours each term.

Fall: classification of mammals and mammalian morphology, with emphasis on comparative osteology. Winter: history of mammals; principles involved in their chronological distribution. Spring: biogeography and paleoecology. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: senior standing in biology, geology, or anthropology. Offered alternate years. Shotwell.

Bi 494. Laboratory and Field Methods in Biology. (G) 4 hours.

Designed especially for biology teachers in the secondary schools. Field collection, identification, and culturing of living material; utilization of this material in the biology teaching laboratory. Field trips for exploration of the various kinds of habitats found in the Pacific Northwest. Prerequisite: consent of instructor.

Bi 495. History of Biological Ideas. (G) 3 hours.

Lectures, readings, and discussion of the historical origin and present status of leading biological ideas, and the contribution of biological thought to contemporary culture. Prerequisite: Bi 101, 102, 103.

GRADUATE COURSES

Bi 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.Bi 502. Supervised College Teaching. Hours to be arranged.Bi 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.Bi 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.Bi 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Animal Physiology.
Biophysics.
Botany.
Ecology.
Genetics.
Molecular Biology.
Radiation Biology.

Bi 510. Endocrinology Laboratory. 1-3 hours.

Laboratory work to accompany Bi 511, Bi 512, or Bi 513, conducted on a project basis.

Bi 511. Vertebrate Endocrinology. 3 hours.

The morphology and physiology of glands of internal secretion; their role in normal body function of the vertebrates. Soderwall.

Bi 512. Physiology of Reproduction. 3 hours.

Biochemical, histochemical, physiological, and other experimental approaches to problems in the physiology of reproduction. Soderwall, Risley.

Bi 513. Comparative Endocrinology. 3 hours.

The morphology and physiology of neurosecretory and other endocrine structures of the invertebrates and lower vertebrates. Scheer.

Bi 515. Physiology of Membrane Processes. 3 hours.

Experimental and theoretical approaches to the study of diffusion, permeability, and active transport across living membranes; the physiological significance of these processes. Scheer.

* No-grade course.

Bi 516, 517. Neurophysiological Basis of Behavior. 3 hours each term.

Physiology of the neuromuscular systems of animals, with emphasis on phylogenetic development and the evolution of animal behavior. Cohen, Hoyle.

Bi 519. Neurophysiology Laboratory. 3 hours.

Laboratory work to accompany Bi 516, 517, with emphasis on the electrical techniques for study of nerve and muscle function. Cohen, Hoyle.

Bi 520, 521, 522. Advanced Genetics. 2 hours each term.

Selected topics from the following: gene action, mutation, chromosome mechanics, population genetics, statistical methods, radiation genetics. 2 lectures. Novitski.

Bi 526. Developmental Genetics. 3 hours.

Selected topics from the field of developmental and biochemical genetics. Lectures, discussion, and student reports on current literature. Prerequisite: general genetics, cellular physiology. Clancy.

Bi 531. Experimental Plant Morphogenesis. 4 hours.

Lectures and laboratory work demonstrating experimental modifications of plant growth; the significance of these modifications in relation to normal growth and development. Prerequisites: Bi 332, Bi 441, or consent of instructor. Bonnett.

Bi 537, 538, 539. Advanced Systematic Botany. 3 hours each term.

Classification, distribution, and speciation of seed plants of the Pacific Northwest. Prerequisite: Bi 332, 333, Bi 334. Offered alternate years.

Bi 541. Advanced Plant Physiology. 3 hours.

Lectures on special aspects of plant respiration, salt metabolism, the photochemical reactions of photosynthesis, and on the role, mechanism of action, and metabolism of plant growth-substances. Prerequisite: plant physiology, cellular physiology. Straus.

Bi 544. Plant Physiology Laboratory. 2 or 3 hours.

Laboratory work in techniques used in plant-physiology research, with special emphasis on plant-tissue cultures. Prerequisite: plant physiology, biochemistry. Straus.

Bi 545. Physiology and Ecology of Algae. 3 hours.

Comparative physiology of freshwater and marine algae; ecological significance of physiological processes; annual cycles and limiting factors. Emphasis on experimental and theoretical approaches to the solution of ecological problems. 3 lectures. Offered alternate years. Castenholz.

Bi 551. Biology of Fishes. 4 hours.

The anatomy, development, and biology of fishes. Morris.

Bi 565. Experimental Embryology. 4 hours.

Problems and techniques of experimental morphogenesis and development. Lectures and laboratory work. Prerequisite: Bi 356. Offered alternate years.

Bi 597, 598, 599. Advanced Biology. 3 hours each term.

Lectures, readings, and discussions of basic principles and recent advances in selected aspects of biological science, with special attention to the needs and problems of secondary-school teachers. Tepfer.

R. WOODWARD, C. C. WRIGHT.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES in chemistry are designed primarily to provide a broad knowledge of the field as a part of the program of liberal education offered by the College of Liberal Arts. They are also designed to provide a substantial foundation in chemistry for students interested in (1) advanced work in chemistry or other sciences, (2) teaching in colleges or secondary schools, (3) a career in industrial chemistry, and (4) premedical or pre dental studies.

The high-school preparation of a prospective chemistry major should include as much mathematics as possible. One year each of algebra and geometry is a minimum. Students entering with insufficient preparation in mathematics must remedy their deficiencies in elementary courses offered by the University. Substantial preparation in English, social science, literature, and foreign languages is expected. High-school work in chemistry and physics is desirable but not required.

The recommended curriculum for majors includes the following courses in chemistry and related fields (variations in order may be approved by the department):

Freshman Year. General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106 or Ch 204, 205, 206); Inorganic Qualitative Analysis (Ch 207), Introductory Gravimetric Analysis (Ch 208), Introductory Volumetric Analysis (Ch 209); a year sequence in mathematics (as a basis for mathematics placement, high-school records are supplemented by a placement examination); German.

Sophomore Year. Organic Chemistry (Ch 334, 335, 336); Organic Chemistry Laboratory (Ch 340, 341, 342); General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203, Ph 204, 205, 206); Calculus with Analytical Geometry (Mth 200, 201, 202), if not taken in the freshman year; German.

Junior Year. Physical Chemistry (Ch 441, 442, 443); Physical-Chemical Measurements (Ch 446, 447, 448); Biochemistry (Ch 461, 462, 463) for students intending to do graduate work in this field.

Senior Year. Research (Ch 401); an additional sequence in chemistry at the senior level.

The additional advanced sequence in the senior year may be elected from such courses as Physical-Inorganic Chemistry (Ch 411, 412), Biochemistry (Ch 461, 462, 463, Ch 464), Chemical Thermodynamics (Ch 551, 552), Advanced Organic Chemistry (Ch 531, 532, 533). Students who are particularly interested in biochemistry may take Ch 461, 462, 463 in their junior year.

The recommendations for the major outlined above meet the specifications of the Committee on Undergraduate Training of the American Chemical Society. Upon notification by the Department of Chemistry, the society issues certificates to students who successfully complete the recommended curriculum. Students who desire a less specialized major, without American Chemical Society certification, may omit German and the extra chemistry sequence in the senior year.

Students who do not earn a grade of C or better in first-year chemistry courses are not permitted to enroll in second-year courses; however, they have the option to repeat the first-year chemistry course in which they received a grade lower than C.

To be recommended for the bachelor's degree with a major in chemistry, a student must have earned a minimum GPA of 2.00 in courses in chemistry, physics, and mathematics.

To be eligible for enrollment in upper-division courses in chemistry, transfer students who plan a major in chemistry must have a college GPA of 2.75 or higher.

For students who plan to teach in secondary schools the department recommends the following as basic preparation: General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106); Introductory Chemistry Laboratory (Ch 107); Inorganic Qualitative Analysis (Ch 108); Introductory Volumetric Analysis (Ch 109); Organic Chemistry (Ch 334, 335, 336); Organic Chemistry Laboratory (Ch 337, 338); Quantitative Analysis (Ch 320). These courses provide acquaintance with several fields of chemistry. This recommended program does not satisfy the requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in chemistry. Normally, students intending to teach in secondary schools meet the requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in general science. Additional courses for secondary-school teachers are offered during the summer sessions.

* Offered at the Institute of Marine Biology.

† On sabbatical leave 1965-66.

Secondary-School Teaching in Chemistry. For certification as a teacher of chemistry in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in chemistry and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, the student is advised to take the following courses: General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106); General Chemistry Laboratory (Ch 107); Inorganic Qualitative Analysis (Ch 108); Introductory Volumetric Analysis (Ch 109); Organic Chemistry (Ch 334, 335, 336); Organic Chemistry Laboratory (Ch 337, 338); Quantitative Analysis (Ch 320). These courses provide acquaintance with several fields of chemistry. The program does not satisfy the requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in chemistry. Normally, students intending to teach chemistry in secondary schools meet the requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in general science. Additional courses for secondary-school teachers are offered in the summer sessions.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the chemistry faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Undergraduate Research Fellowships. Through a grant from the National Science Foundation, the department offers a number of undergraduate research participation fellowships to qualified junior and senior chemistry majors. The stipends are, on the average, $200 for the academic year and $600 for the summer months. Inquiries about the program should be addressed to the department head.

Graduate Study. The Department of Chemistry offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Detailed information is published in the Graduate School Catalog.

The department is prepared to accept Ph.D. candidates for work in the following fields of chemistry: physical chemistry, chemical physics, organic chemistry, theoretical chemistry, biochemistry, and inorganic chemistry.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Ch 101, 102, 103. Elementary Chemistry. 4 hours each term.
A brief presentation of some of the major areas of chemistry. Does not satisfy prerequisite for upper-division courses in chemistry. 2 lectures; 1 two-hour laboratory period; 1 quiz period.
- Ch 104, 105, 106. General Chemistry. 3 hours each term.
An introduction to the field of chemistry, providing an understanding of the structures of atoms, molecules, and ions and their interactions, and a foundation for the further study of chemistry. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Mth 95 or equivalent.
- Ch 107. Introductory Chemistry Laboratory. 2 hours fall term.
Experiments related to fundamental chemical principles. 1 lecture-discussion and 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: Mth 95 or equivalent.
- Ch 108. Inorganic Qualitative Analysis. 2 hours winter.
The separation and identification of cations and anions by semi-micro methods. Planned to accompany Ch 105. Prerequisite: grade of C or better in Ch 104. 1 three-hour laboratory period; 1 quiz period.
- Ch 109. Introductory Volumetric Analysis. 2 hours spring term.
Introduction to titrimetric techniques for the estimation of selected species. Planned to accompany Ch 106. Prerequisite: Ch 108, with grade of C or higher. 1 three-hour laboratory period; 1 quiz period.
- Ch 204, 205, 206. General Chemistry. 3 hours each term.
First-year college chemistry for selected students with excellent backgrounds in high-school chemistry, physics, and mathematics. Quantitative and theoretical aspects of the subject emphasized, with less descriptive material than in Ch 104, 105, 106. Open by invitation only to Honors College students and other well-prepared students. Selection is based chiefly on mathematics preparation. 3 lectures.

- Ch 207. Inorganic Qualitative Analysis. 2 hours fall.
The separation and identification of cations and anions by semi-micro methods. Planned to accompany Ch 104 or Ch 204. Intended primarily for Honors College students and prospective chemistry majors. Admission limited to selected students. 2 three-hour laboratory periods.
- Ch 208. Introductory Gravimetric Analysis. 2 hours winter.
The separation and gravimetric determination of selected inorganic species. Planned to accompany Ch 105 or Ch 205. Intended primarily for Honors College students and prospective chemistry majors. Admission limited to selected students. 2 three-hour laboratory periods.
- Ch 209. Introductory Volumetric Analysis. 2 hours spring.
The quantitative estimation of selected molecular species by titration procedures. Planned to accompany Ch 106 or Ch 206. Intended primarily for Honors College students and prospective chemistry majors. Admission limited to selected students. 2 three-hour laboratory periods.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Ch 320. Quantitative Analysis. 4 hours spring.
Laboratory work devoted mainly to volumetric analysis. Satisfies the requirements in quantitative analysis for admission to medical or dental schools. Not intended for chemistry majors. 2 lectures; 2 three-hour laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Ch 106 or Ch 206; Ch 109 or Ch 209.
- Ch 334, 335, 336. Organic Chemistry. 3 hours each term.
Comprehensive study of the chemistry of the compounds of carbon. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Ch 106 or Ch 206 with a grade of C or better.
- Ch 337, 338. Introductory Organic Laboratory. 2 hours each term, fall and winter.
Introduction to the principles and techniques of laboratory practice in organic chemistry. Prerequisite: Ch 109 or Ch 209 with a grade of C or better. 1 lecture; 1 four-hour laboratory period.
- Ch 340, 341, 342. Organic Chemistry Laboratory. 2-3 hours per term.
A survey of the principles and techniques fundamental to laboratory practice in organic chemistry, including aspects of both qualitative and quantitative organic analysis. Prerequisite: Ch 109 or Ch 209 with a grade of C or better. Required for chemistry majors; open to Honors College students and, by selection, to others desiring a more intensive training in laboratory practice than is provided in Ch 337, 338. 1 lecture; 1 laboratory period.
- Ch 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.
For advanced undergraduates. An introduction to the methods of chemical investigation.
- Ch 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
Open only to students eligible to work for the bachelor's degree with honors in chemistry.
- Ch 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT
- Ch 409. Special Laboratory Problems. (G) Hours to be arranged.
Provides laboratory instruction not classifiable as research; laboratory work covered in other courses is not duplicated. Prerequisite: consent of instructor.

Ch 411, 412. Physical-Inorganic Chemistry. (G) 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

A comprehensive study of the structure, properties, and reactions of atomic and molecular species in the various states of aggregation. Prerequisite: three years of college chemistry.

Ch 414. Advanced Inorganic Laboratory. (G) 1 or 2 hours.

Students in Ch 411, 412 who expect American Chemical Society accreditation normally enroll in Ch 414 for one term of laboratory work. Students wishing more than one term of laboratory work may enroll in Ch 409. 1 or 2 three-hour laboratory periods.

Ch 416. Kinetics in Solution. (G) 3 hours.

Theories of rates of homogeneous reactions in solution; application to the elucidation of the mechanisms of chemical reactions. Prerequisite: physical chemistry. Offered alternate years.

Ch 441, 442, 443. Physical Chemistry. (g) 4 hours each term.

Comprehensive study of the theoretical aspects of physical-chemical phenomena. Atomic and molecular properties; macroscopic systems in equilibrium; nonequilibrium macroscopic systems. 4 lectures. Prerequisite: two years of college chemistry (except for physics majors), one year of calculus.

Ch 446, 447, 448. Physical-Chemical Measurements. (g) 2 hours each term.

Analytical applications of electrical and optical instruments; techniques of physical chemistry, including basic electronic, potentiometric, electrical, optical spectroscopic, and high-vacuum methods; experiments include thermodynamic and kinetic measurements and a short research project. Prerequisite: Ch 108, Ch 109 or Ch 208, Ch 209; Ch 441, 442, 443 (may be taken concurrently). 2 three-hour laboratory periods.

Ch 461, 462, 463. Biochemistry. (G) 3 hours each term.

Chemical interpretation of biological phenomena; study of compounds having biological significance. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Ch 108, Ch 109 or Ch 208, Ch 209; knowledge of organic and physical chemistry and biology.

Ch 464. Biochemistry Laboratory. (G) 3 hours fall.

Designed to illustrate approaches currently being used in research in enzyme kinetics, enzyme purification, structure of nucleic acids and peptides, protein synthesis in cell-free systems, nucleic acid coding, and biochemical pathways in bacterial mutants. 2 three-hour laboratory periods; 1 one-hour conference. Selected students may continue laboratory work in winter and spring terms under Ch 409.

GRADUATE COURSES

*Ch 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

*Ch 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Ch 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

*Ch 507. Seminar. 1 hour each term.

Seminars offered in physical chemistry, organic chemistry, and biochemistry.

Ch 508. Special Topics in Theoretical Chemistry. 2 or 3 hours.

Topics in thermodynamics (equilibrium and nonequilibrium), statistical thermodynamics, or quantum chemistry.

Ch 531, 532, 533. Advanced Organic Chemistry. 3 hours each term.

Advanced general survey of organic chemistry; structural theory, syntheses, scope and mechanism of reactions.

Ch 534, 535, 536. Special Topics in Organic Chemistry. 2 or 3 hours each term.

Discussion of advanced topics selected from: carbocyclic and heterocyclic compounds, surface reactions and catalysis, stereochemistry, physical-organic concepts.

* No-grade course.

Ch 537, 538, 539. Advanced Organic Laboratory. 2 hours each term.
Individual instruction in organic synthesis and techniques.

Ch 541, 542, 543. Chemical Kinetics. 3 hours each term.

The work of each term is selected from such topics as: classical kinetic theory of gases, statistical mechanics, statistical thermodynamics, chemical kinetics in the gas phase and in solution, catalysis. Offered alternate years.

Ch 544, 545, 546. Quantum Chemistry. 2 or 3 hours each term.

Topics of chemical interest discussed in terms of the quantum theory. Introduction to wave mechanics, discussion of chemical bonding and the origin of the theory of resonance, and topics from atomic and molecular spectra.

Ch 551, 552. Chemical Thermodynamics. 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

The laws of thermodynamics and their applications to gases, liquids, solids, phase equilibria, solutions, electrolytes, chemical equilibria, electrochemistry, surfaces, elasticity, external fields, etc.

Ch 553, 554. Statistical Thermodynamics. 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

Molecular interpretation of the properties of equilibrium systems; principles and applications to gases, crystals, liquids, phase transitions, solutions, electrolytes, gas adsorption, polymers, chemical equilibria, etc. Offered alternate years. Students may take Ph 451, 452, 453 when Ch 553, 554 are not offered.

Ch 556, 557. Molecular Spectra and Molecular Structure. 2 hours each term, fall and winter.

Survey of molecular spectra, with emphasis on the determination of molecular structure through spectroscopic methods.

Ch 561, 562, 563. Enzymes and Intermediary Metabolism. 2 or 3 hours each term.

Enzyme kinetics and detailed consideration of glycolysis, biological oxidation, lipid metabolism, and selected biological synthesis.

Ch 564, 565, 566. Physical Biochemistry. 2 or 3 hours each term.

The physical properties of biological macromolecules; proteins, nucleic acids, and viruses. The relationship between the molecular conformation and the special chemical, physical, and biological properties of these various macromolecules. Prerequisites: calculus and a knowledge of the elements of solution thermodynamics.

COURSES OFFERED ONLY IN SUMMER SESSIONS

Ch 419. Advanced General Chemistry. (g) 4 or 5 hours.

Ch 429. Survey of Analytical Chemistry. (g) 4 or 5 hours.

Ch 439. Survey of Organic Chemistry. (g) 4 or 5 hours.

Comparative Literature

THE UNIVERSITY OFFERS a program of graduate study in comparative literature, leading to the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees. The program is administered by a faculty committee drawn from the Department of English and the Division of Modern and Classical Languages. Dr. Chandler B. Beall, professor of Romance languages, is chairman of the committee.

While the student's program includes courses and seminars in comparative literature, the greater portion of his work is selected from advanced offerings in the classics and in English, German, Romance, and Slavic literatures. Command of at least one foreign language, ancient or modern, is required for admission.

Doctoral candidates must work in at least three literatures, one of which may be English, and must demonstrate competence in three foreign languages, one of which must be Latin or Greek.

COMPARATIVE LITERATURE, the official journal of the American Comparative Literature Association, is published quarterly by the University of Oregon.

Dentistry, Preparatory

THE COUNCIL ON DENTAL EDUCATION of the American Dental Association has established the following minimum requirements for admission to approved dental schools: at least 90 term hours of collegiate courses, including one year of English, one year of general chemistry, one year of biology or zoology, one year of physics, and one-half year of organic chemistry; a grade-point average of at least 2.00.

The University offers a three-year pre-dental curriculum, which satisfies these requirements, to prepare students for admission to the University of Oregon Dental School and other accredited dental schools. The completion of this curriculum and two years of dental-school work satisfies all requirements for a bachelor's degree from the University with a major in general science. With the proper choice of electives in the pre-dental curriculum, the student may qualify for a bachelor's degree with a major in biology.

Students who expect to complete the requirements for a bachelor's degree at the Dental School should satisfy, in their pre-dental program, all requirements for the degree (including general University requirements and requirements for a major in the College of Liberal Arts) that cannot be satisfied with work taken at the Dental School. For general University requirements for a bachelor's degree, see pages 76 ff.

Although a bachelor's degree is not prerequisite to a professional degree in dentistry, the University of Oregon Dental School and most other dental schools recommend that their students qualify for this degree in addition to the professional degree.

Pre-dental students are advised to begin correspondence with the University of Oregon Dental School or the dental school they plan to attend during the spring term of their first year at the University. Aptitude tests given by the American Dental Association should be taken not later than the fall term one year before admission; applications to take this test must be made well in advance of the scheduled date of the test. Pre-dental students should consult the Dental School Catalog for dates.

The following courses satisfy both the science requirements for admission to the University of Oregon Dental School and, with additional science instruction at the Dental School, the requirements for a major in general science:

	Term Hours
Mathematics (above level of Mth 10).....	12
General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106).....	10
Inorganic Qualitative Analysis (Ch 108), Introductory Volumetric Analysis (Ch 109).....	4
Organic Chemistry (Ch 334, 335, Ch 337).....	9
General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103).....	12
Upper-division biology (Bi 355, Bi 356 recommended).....	8
General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203, Ph 204, 205, 206).....	15

One term of Sculpture (Art 293) or Jewelry (Art 257) is recommended as an elective.

Associate Professors: B. N. SIEGEL, R. E. SMITH, J. N. TATTERSALL.

* On leave of absence 1965-66.

Assistant Professors: G. O. BIERWAG, M. A. GROVE, M. E. MCGOLDRICK, J. E. TRIPLETT, JR.

Instructor: D. B. ASHBY.

Fellows: K. A. BLACKERBY, J. M. COOPER, R. L. FERRAR, J. G. HARRIS, J. M. NEWTON, K. W. OLSON, D. M. REES, C. M. STROH, R. B. SWANSON.

Assistants: V. G. AFFOLTER, B. BEN-ZION, J. E. BURNS, J. R. CARTER, R. B. FISCHER, C. T. HAWORTH, L. E. JOHNSON, D. A. JOLLY, R. S. KOOT, G. B. LANDRY, G. J. LONG, D. C. SCHEEL, N. W. SCHROCK, J. D. SUTTON, J. P. VENERIS, C. H. WICKHAM, J. L. YAGER.

UNDERGRADUATE COURSES IN ECONOMICS are designed primarily to provide a broad knowledge of the field as a part of the program of liberal education offered by the College of Liberal Arts. They are also designed to provide a substantial foundation in economics for students interested in (1) professional graduate training in economics, (2) professional careers in business, law, and government, and (3) secondary-school teaching.

Major Requirements. The following courses are required for an undergraduate major in economics:

Lower Division. Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203); Introductory College Mathematics (Mth 104, 105, 106); 6 term hours of work in statistics. The statistics requirement may be satisfied with introduction to Business Statistics (BS 232), Elementary Inference in Business Statistics (BS 333) or Elements of Statistical Methods (Mth 425, 426).

Upper Division. Economic Theory (Ec 375, 376, 377). In addition, majors must complete 27 term hours of work in upper-division courses in economics, at least 18 of which must be in year sequences. (Ec 318, Ec 319, Ec 320 is not considered a year sequence.)

Suggested programs of study for economics majors planning to attend graduate school or to enter careers in business, law, government, or secondary-school teaching may be obtained from the Department of Economics.

Secondary-School Teaching of Social Studies. For certification as a teacher of social studies in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in social studies and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, a major in economics must complete the following program, selected from the fields of history, geography, political science, economics, and sociology or anthropology, with a 2.50 GPA or higher: (1) work in economics required for a major in the field; (2) 27 term hours in history; (3) 9 term hours in a third field; (4) at least one course in each of two additional fields. The program must include a minimum of 36 term hours in upper-division courses.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the economics faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Work in Economics. The Department of Economics offers graduate work leading to the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy. For the general requirements see GRADUATE SCHOOL, pages 112 ff.

A candidate for the Ph.D. degree in economics must select four fields for concentrated study, including economic theory, and must pass a written comprehensive examination in each field and an oral examination covering the four fields.

One field may be in another department or school of the University. A working knowledge of statistics is required for admission to candidacy for the degree.

A candidate for the Ph.D. degree in another discipline may present a field of economics as a cognate subject, provided he has had proper preparation, including a background in economic theory, to support the field of special interest.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Ec 201, 202, 203. Principles of Economics. 3 hours each term.

Principles that underlie production, exchange, distribution, etc. Special section for Honors College students. Prerequisite: sophomore standing. Allen, Bierwag, Campbell, Kleinsorge, Koplín, Smith, Wattles.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Ec 318. Money and Banking. 3 hours fall.

Operations of commercial banks, the Federal Reserve System, and the Treasury that affect the United States monetary system. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203 or consent of instructor. Grove.

Ec 319. Taxation and Fiscal Policy. 3 hours winter.

Principles and problems of government financing. Expenditures, revenues, debt, and financial administration. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203 or consent of instructor. Grove.

Ec 320. International Finance. 3 hours spring.

The nature of foreign-exchange markets; techniques of international payments; exchange rates and their determination; problems of an international monetary standard; international banking facilities; economic aspects of major international organizations. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203 or consent of instructor. Grove.

Ec 375, 376, 377. Economic Theory. 3 hours each term.

Systematic study of the concepts and methods of current economic analysis, with special attention to the neoclassical school. Includes work in the fields of value and distribution, fluctuations, employment, etc. Required of all majors. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Bierwag, Campbell, Koplín, Triplett.

Ec 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Ec 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

Ec 407. Seminar. (g) Hours to be arranged.

Ec 411, 412, 413. Monetary and Banking Theory. (G) 3 hours each term.

Analysis of the nature of money, effects of changes in the money supply, monetary controls used by the Federal Reserve System and the Treasury, international repercussions of domestic monetary policies, international banking agencies; critique of various monetary policies. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Siegel, Simpson.

Ec 414, 415, 416. Regional Economics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Economic analysis applied to regional problems, with emphasis on problems and techniques relevant to the Pacific Northwest economy. Fall: economics of land use and resource conservation; winter: theory of location of economic activities; regional social accounting, balance of payments, comparative cost studies; spring: application of analytical tools to study of regional specialization in the United States economy and to problems of regional growth and stability; urban and metropolitan structure and problems. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Tattersall, Allen.

Ec 417. Contemporary Economic Problems. (g) 3 hours fall.

Contemporary economic conditions and problems; analysis of economic policies and practices affecting such problems. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Campbell.

Ec 418. Economy of the Pacific Northwest. (g) 3 hours spring.

Historical development and present industrial structure of the Pacific Northwest economy. Analysis of recent income changes, locational factors influencing development of major industries, relations with other regions, impact of Federal and state government policy. Simpson, Tattersall.

Ec 429, 430, 431. Public Finance. (G) 3 hours each term.

Critical analysis of taxes as sources of public revenue, with emphasis on tax theories and incidence. Effects of expenditure, tax, and debt policies of government upon the total economy. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Grove.

Ec 432, 433, 434. The Economics of Public Policy. (G) 3 hours each term.

Application of economic principles and techniques to public policy issues; function of the economist in the formulation and implementation of public policy. Case studies involving systematic treatment of economic issues, including precise formulation and weighing of alternatives; compilation and analysis of relevant data. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Allen, Mikesell, Smith.

Ec 440, 441, 442. International Economics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Theory of international trade; problems in balance-of-payments adjustments during critical periods; commercial policies of the more-important nations; international economic organizations in theory and practice. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Allen, Wattles.

Ec 444. Labor Economics. (G) 3 hours fall.

Economic analysis applied to the labor market, with particular emphasis on wage determination, the relation between wages and prices, and the relation between wages and employment. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Kleinsorge, Smith.

Ec 445. Organized Labor. (G) 3 hours winter.

Theories of the labor movement; history of the American labor movement; aims, methods, and policies of trade unions, conservative and radical; the impact of labor organizations on the American economy. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Kleinsorge, Smith.

Ec 446. Labor Legislation. (G) 3 hours spring.

Analysis of labor legislation in the United States and of court decisions in leading labor cases; problems facing employee, employer, and public that call for regulation through public authority. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Kleinsorge, Smith.

Ec 447, 448, 449. Collective Bargaining. (G) 2 hours each term.

Major techniques of negotiation; union and management policies; strikes and lockouts. Methods of settling labor disputes, including grievance procedures, conciliation, fact finding, and arbitration. Prerequisite: Ec 444 or consent of instructor. Kleinsorge, Triplett.

Ec 450, 451, 452. Comparative Economic Systems. (g) 2 hours each term.

An analytical comparison of capitalism and other economic systems. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Smith, Wattles.

Ec 454, 455, 456. Economic History of Modern Europe. (G) 3 hours each term.

The economic development and economic institutions of modern Europe. Fall: from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the beginnings of the Industrial Revolution in Britain; winter: late eighteenth century to end of nineteenth century; spring: twentieth century. Lorwin.

Ec 460, 461, 462. Industrial Organization and Public Policy. (G) 3 hours each term.

First term: Business policies, market organization, methods of competition, and distributive relationships, with particular attention to large diversified industrial enterprises. Second term: The nature and application of the antitrust laws. Third term: Unsolved problems in the relations of government to business; comparison of American and foreign policies. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202,

203. Either of first two terms may be taken separately—both are requisite for the third term. Edwards, Smith.
- Ec 463. Economics of Regulated Industries. (G) 3 hours winter.
Analysis of economic characteristics of industries in which the decision-making process is regulated by government administration rather than by competition: a description and evaluation of administrative procedures employed. Industries covered include transportation and the production of electricity, natural gas, and crude oil. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Smith.
- Ec 464, 465, 466. Quantitative Economic Analysis. (G) 3 hours each term.
The use of mathematical techniques in economic analysis. Consumption and production theory, programming, input-output; general equilibrium; multiplier, accelerator, growth, and inventory models. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203; Mth 104, 105, 106 or equivalent. Bierwag, Grove, Simpson.
- Ec 470, 471, 472. History of Economic Thought. (G) 3 hours each term.
The evolution of man's ideas about economic matters; the classical school and the development of modern economic thought. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Campbell, Davis.
- Ec 480, 481, 482. Mathematical Economics. (G) 3 hours each term.
Construction and fitting of mathematical models of economic life. Prerequisite: Mth 104, 105, 106; Ec 201, 202, 203. Simpson.
- Ec 483, 484, 485. National Income and Business Cycles. (G) 3 hours each term.
Theory and practice of social accounting, index numbers, measure of business cycle stages, leading and lagging series, behavior of labor cost, productivity, and other economic measures of business fluctuations. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Simpson.
- Ec 487, 488, 489. American Economic History. (G) 3 hours each term.
All phases of the economic development of the United States. Peterson, Tattersall.
- Ec 490, 491, 492. Development of Industrial Economies. (G) 3 hours each term.
Comparative study of economic growth in the advanced industrial nations: North America, Western Europe, Japan, U.S.S.R. Analysis of differential national and regional growth rates; sources of economic growth; structural characteristics of developing economies; problems in measurement of long-term growth trends. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203. Tattersall.

THE DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH offers instruction in English and American literature and in writing. Its lower-division courses are designed to supply the training essential for good writing, to serve as an introduction to humanistic studies, and to impart the fundamental knowledge requisite for a major in English. Its upper-division courses are designed to develop an intelligent and just appreciation of literature, to give some insight into the continuity of literature and the interrelation of literary movements, and to provide the opportunity for a well-rounded knowledge of the history of English and American literature and of the English language.

Major Requirements. The Department of English expects its majors to acquire, in addition to a knowledge of English literature, a general knowledge of philosophy and history and a reading knowledge of at least one foreign language. The general major requirements for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Department of English are as follows:

- (1) Satisfaction of the University language requirements for the B.A. degree.
- (2) English History (Hst 304, 305, 306), History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 102, 103), or History (Honors College) (Hst 107, 108, 109).
- (3) Survey of English Literature (Eng 101, 102, 103), Introduction to Literature (Eng 104, 105, 106), World Literature (Eng 107, 108, 109), or Literature (Honors College) (AL 101, 102, 103); and Shakespeare (Eng 201, 202, 203).
- (4) A total of 36 hours in upper-division courses in the department, including 3 hours in the Middle Ages, 9 in other literature before 1800, and 9 in literature since 1800 (these hours need not be taken in period courses). Within the framework of these requirements, the student should construct, subject to his adviser's approval, a balanced and coherent program consistent with his personal interests and vocational needs. Programs centering on English literature, American literature, or creative writing are suggested, but other patterns are not excluded. Prospective high-school teachers must satisfy state certification requirements (see SCHOOL OF EDUCATION).

Secondary-School Teaching of English. For certification as a teacher of English in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

Completion of the requirements for a major in English at the University satisfies the state standards for undergraduate preparation and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, provided that the student includes in his program English Composition for Teachers (Wr 411), Literary Analysis for Teachers (Eng 488), Modern English Grammar (Eng 492), work in American literature, and at least one term of speech. The Department of English will approve enrollment in student teaching only in the student's work in English courses is of high quality.

Nonmajors who plan to teach English must complete a total of 42 term hours in English and speech, including the courses listed above and work in world literature.

For permanent certification, after a fifth year of preparation, the student must take work in literary criticism, additional work in English language and grammar, and literature courses to remedy deficiencies in his undergraduate preparation. It is recommended that students complete the interdisciplinary master's program for teachers during the fifth year of preparation.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the English faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Work. The Department of English offers graduate work in English literature, American literature, and linguistics, leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees, and a graduate program in creative writing leading to the M.A. or Master of Fine Arts degree. A Ph.D. program in comparative literature, administered by a committee representing the Department of English and the Department of Foreign Languages, offers opportunity for advanced study of several literatures in their original languages (see page 152).

Except for candidates in creative writing, a thesis is not required in the M.A. program. All M.A. candidates take a written examination on a selected list of literary works.

The program leading to an M.F.A. in creative writing includes studies in English and American literature, in aesthetics, and in the history and criticism of art, music, and drama, and the production of a sustained piece of writing of high literary merit.

For the Ph.D. degree, the department recommends an elementary knowledge of Latin or Greek in addition to the required reading knowledge of two modern languages.

Writing

The Department of English offers required and elective courses in writing for all University students, to help them develop an ability to express themselves clearly in good English.

Undergraduate English majors may plan a program emphasizing creative writing; students planning to emphasize creative writing are advised to complete at least 6 term hours of Wr 221, 222, 223. The department also offers a graduate program in creative writing, leading to the M.A. or M.F.A. degree.

English Composition (Wr 121, 122, 123) is a freshman sequence required of all students in the University; each term's work must be taken in its sequential order. A student who demonstrates, through examination, that his writing ability meets the standard aimed at in English Composition may be excused from all or part of this required sequence. Students who do superior work in the first two terms of English Composition may be permitted to substitute Wr 224, Wr 226, or Wr 227 for Wr 123.

Students whose placement examination indicates inadequate preparation may not register for English Composition until they either (1) pass Corrective English (Wr 10), offered through the Division of Continuing Education of the State System of Higher Education, or (2) improve their writing proficiency by private study and achieve a satisfactory score on a second English placement examination. Students failing to pass this second examination must then pass Corrective English (Wr 10) before they may register for English Composition.

General Arts and Letters

THE CURRICULUM IN GENERAL ARTS AND LETTERS is designed for students who wish to build a program of general studies around a core of literature. The work of the first two years serves as an introduction to the main aspects of Western culture. In the last two years the more intensive study of the history of ideas, of literary movements, and of art forms serves to interpret modern trends in civilization.

The curriculum is administered by a committee. Dr. Frederick M. Combella, professor of Greek literature, is chairman of the committee and adviser of majors in general arts and letters.

The major in general arts and letters leads to the Bachelor of Arts degree. The following courses are required:

Lower Division. (1) Literature (Honors College) (AL 101, 102, 103), or World Literature (Eng 107, 108, 109), or Survey of English Literature (Eng 101, 102, 103), or Introduction to Literature (Eng 104, 105, 106), or any sequence in foreign literature which has a prerequisite of two years (or equivalent) of foreign language in college. (2) Shakespeare (Eng 201, 202, 203), or Survey of the Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203), or History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206), or Introduction to Music and Its Literature (Mus 201, 202, 203). (3) At least one year of work in a foreign language beyond the first-year college level. (4) One of the following sequences in history: History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 202, 103); History (Honors College) (Hst 107, 108, 109); English History (Hst 304, 305, 306).

Upper Division. (1) Literature of the Ancient World (AL 304, 305, 306). (2) Dante and His Times (AL 477, 478, 479). (3) One of the following sequences in philosophy: History of Philosophy (Phl 301, 302, 303); Philosophy in Literature (Phl 431, 432). (4) History of Literary Criticism (Eng 414, 415, 416) or Aesthetics (Phl 441, 442, 443).

In addition the student must complete four upper-division year sequences, each totaling at least 6 term hours, chosen from the departments of the College of Liberal Arts that offer majors; however, two of the sequences may be chosen from sequences in the history of art and music. If a required course is not offered in the student's senior year, he may, with the consent of the adviser, substitute another upper-division sequence in the same general field of study.

The student's program of study should form an integrated whole. The electives should support the objectives of this program.

For interdepartmental courses in general arts and letters, see pages 134-135.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

General Science

THE CURRICULUM IN GENERAL SCIENCE is intended for students who wish to build a program of cultural studies around a central interest in science as an aspect of civilization, for students preparing for professional careers in science (such as medical research) for whom a departmental science major may be too narrow and highly specialized, and for prospective science teachers. The standard three-year premedical or pre dental curriculum, followed by a year of work in a medical school or two years of work in a dental school, meets all of the requirements for the bachelor's degree in general science.

The general science major leads to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. The special requirements are: (1) Four one-year sequences, numbered 100-120 or 200-220, one in each of four sciences selected from biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics, and physics; (2) a minimum of 24 upper-division hours in the sciences in which lower-division sequences have been taken, including not less than 9 term hours in each of two sciences.

For interdepartmental courses in general science, see page 135.

Secondary-School Teaching of General Science. For certification as a teacher of general science in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

The University's major program in general science satisfies these requirements. For further information, the student should consult the adviser of general science majors.

General Social Science

THE PROGRAM IN GENERAL SOCIAL SCIENCE includes a series of courses of broad interdepartmental scope and a major curriculum in general social science leading to the bachelor's degree.

The curriculum in general social science is designed for students who wish broad cultural training, and for prospective teachers for whom a departmental major may be too highly specialized. In addition to satisfying the general University requirements, students following this program must take a minimum of 72 hours in social science courses. This work must include four lower-division year sequences, one in each of four of the following fields: anthropology, economics, geography, history, philosophy, political science, psychology, religion, sociology. Introduction to the Social Sciences (Honors College) (SSc 201, 202, 203) may be substituted for any one of the four required sequences. The upper-division work must include two one-year sequences (not less than 18 hours) in one social science department, and one one-year sequence (not less than 9 hours) in each of two other social science departments.

For interdepartmental courses in general social science, see page 136.

Secondary-School Teaching of Social Studies. For certification as a teacher of social studies in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in social studies and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, a major in general social science must complete the following program, selected from the fields of history, geography, political science, economics, and sociology or anthropology, with a 2.50 GPA or higher: (1) 36 term hours of work in one field; (2) 18 term hours in history (including one upper-division sequence); (3) a 9-hour sequence in each of two additional fields; (4) at least one course in a fifth field. If history is chosen for the 36-hour concentration, the student must complete 18 hours in one of the two additional fields (3, above), including 9 hours in upper-division courses.

For further information, the student should consult the adviser of general social science majors.

Geography

Professors: E. T. PRICE (department head), S. N. DICKEN, C. P. PATTON, W. J. TALBOT.

Associate Professors: G. E. MARTIN, C. L. JOHANNESSEN,* E. G. SMITH.

Assistant Professor: A. W. URQUHART.

Instructor: D. GADE.

Fellows: C. MARTINSON, JANE PYLE, M. WILSON, G. SCHILL.

Assistants: J. ANDERSON, B. BECHTOL, T. BELL, R. HATTON, J. HOUGHTON, J. JORDAN, E. MCINTIRE, K. RUDDLE.

THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY serves: (1) professional major students; (2) nonprofessional major students who wish to build a broad cultural education around a central interest in geography; and (3) students majoring in other fields who wish some acquaintance with the contribution of geography to the understanding of the world and its problems.

The department offers work for major students in four fields of specialization: (1) cultural geography, including economic, urban, and population geography; (2) physical geography, including climatology and geomorphology; (3) regional geography; and (4) techniques and methodology, including cartography, the interpretation of aerial photographs, and field geography.

Major Curriculum in Geography. A total of 45 term hours in geography courses, including 36 hours in upper-division courses, is required for a major in geography. It is recommended that the student limit his major work to approximately 54 term hours and elect work in such related fields as anthropology, biology, economics, geology, history, planning, political science, and sociology.

The student's work in geography must include a minimum of 9 term hours in each of the following four groups: (1) physical geography—Geog 105, Geog 481, 482, 483; (2) cultural geography—Geog 107, Geog 433, Geog 434, Geog 435, Geog 491, 492, 493; (3) regional geography—Geog 106, Geog 201, 202, 203, Geog 301, Geog 302, 303, Geog 451, 452, 453, Geog 461, 462, 463, Geog 471, 472, 473; (4) geographic techniques—Geog 407, Geog 421, 422, 423, Geog 484, Geog 485, 486.

For the B.S. degree, the student must complete 21 hours of additional work in science, including a 9-hour upper-division sequence requiring a prerequisite.

Secondary-School Teaching of Social Studies. For certification as a teacher of social studies in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in social studies and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, a major in geography must complete the following program, selected from the fields of history, geography, political science, economics, and sociology or anthropology, with a 2.50 GPA or higher: (1) work in geography required for a major in the field; (2) 27 term hours in history; (3) 9 term hours in a third field; (4) at least one course in each of two additional fields. The program must include a minimum of 36 term hours in upper-division courses.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the geography faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Study. The department offers graduate work leading to the M.A. and Ph.D. degrees. To qualify for the master's degree the student must complete successfully 45 term hours of graduate work, of which 36 hours must be in the field of geography. All master's candidates must complete the following courses or their equivalent: Geog 421, 422, 423; Geog 481, 482, 483; Geog 484; Geog 485, 486; Geog 491, 492, 493. Nine term hours in seminars (Geog 507), including work in both physical and cultural geography, are required for candidates for the M.A. degree. For general requirements for graduate degrees see pp 112 ff.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Geog 105, 106, 107. Introductory Geography. 3 hours each term.

A general introduction to the field of geography, in sequence as follows: Geog 105, physical geography; Geog 106, regional survey of the world; Geog 107, cultural geography.

Geog 201, 202, 203. World Regional Geography. 3 hours each term.

Physical, political, and regional economic geography. Fall: Europe; winter: Latin America; spring: Asia.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Geog 301. Geography of Oregon. 3 hours fall.

Physical and cultural geography of Oregon. Dicken.

Geog 302, 303. Geography of North America. 3 hours each term, winter and spring.

Physical and cultural geography of the North American continent north of Mexico. Winter: western United States and western Canada; spring: eastern United States and eastern Canada. Dicken.

Geog 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Geog 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Geog 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

Geog 421, 422, 423. Geographic Field Methods. (G) 2 hours each term.

Research techniques in geography applied to special areas and problems. First term: introduction to tools and techniques of geographic field investigation; second term: research design, use of air photographs, maps, and other documents; third term: data gathering and analysis, report writing. Prerequisite: 9 hours of geography. Johannessen, Martin, Price.

Geog 433. Political Geography. (G) 3 hours.

Impact of political institutions upon the landscape; resources and political decisions; relation of formal and informal groups to political areas.

Geog 434. Economic Geography. (G) 3 hours.

Location factors in primary and secondary industries, and the distribution of these industries over the earth. Prerequisite: 6 hours in lower-division geography courses or consent of the instructor.

Geog 435. Urban Geography. (G) 3 hours.

World distribution of great cities; urban patterns, forms, and functions; systems of urban land classification; forces affecting urban land use; geographic aspects of city planning. Prerequisite: 6 hours in lower-division geography courses or consent of instructor.

Geog 451. Eastern and Southeast Asia. (G) 3 hours.

Geog 452. Southwestern Asia. (G) 3 hours.

Geog 453. Africa. (G) 3 hours.

Physical and cultural processes that have shaped the landscapes of the Afro-Asian world.

Geog 461. Andean America. (G) 3 hours.

Geog 462. Brazil and Argentina. (G) 3 hours.

Geog 463. Middle America. (G) 3 hours.

Physical and cultural processes that have shaped the landscapes of Latin America.

Geog 471. Atlantic and Mediterranean Europe. (G) 3 hours.

Geog 472. Central and Eastern Europe. (G) 3 hours.

Geog 473. Soviet Union. (G) 3 hours.

Physical and cultural processes that have shaped the landscapes of Europe and the Soviet Union.

Geog 481, 482, 483. Physical Geography. (G) 5-hours each term, fall and winter; 3 hours spring.

Systematic study of the elements of the physical landscape. Fall: geomorphology; winter: climatology; spring: biogeography. Prerequisite: 9 hours of geography. Urquhart, Patton, Johannessen.

Geog 484. Interpretation of Aerial Photographs. (G) 3 hours.

Introduction to the use and interpretation of map and air photographs. Dicken.

Geog 485, 486. Cartography. (G) 3 hours each term.

Study of maps; introduction to map projections; the map base; map content and design; map interpretation. Prerequisite: 9 hours of geography. Johannessen, Patton.

Geog 491, 492, 493. Cultural Geography. (G) 3 hours each term.

Systematic study of the elements of the cultural landscape; origin and spread of ways of living; treatment of culture by geographers. Prerequisite: 9 hours of geography.

GRADUATE COURSES

*Geog 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

*Geog 502. Supervised College Teaching. Hours to be arranged.

*Geog 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Geog 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Geog 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Geomorphology. Dicken, Urquhart.

Climatology. Patton.

Biogeography. Johannessen.

Urban Geography.

Rural Settlement. Martin, Price.

Historical Geography. Dicken.

Middle America. Johannessen.

Andean America. Martin.

Africa. Urquhart.

Europe. Patton.

Soviet Union.

Geog 555. History of Geographic Thought. 3 hours.

Development of concepts of the earth and of man's relation to it; ends and means of geographic study.

Geology

Professors: L. W. STAPLES (department head), E. M. BALDWIN, J. A. SHOTWELL, J. C. STOVALL, W. L. YOUNGQUIST.

Associate Professors: E. H. LUND, A. R. MCBIRNEY.

Assistant Professors: G. T. BENSON, SAM BOGGS, JR., M. A. KAYS, L. R. KITTLEMAN.

Fellows: C. F. FORBES, D. H. GARDNER, P. D. HESS, R. L. LENT, M. J. SWITEK.

Assistants: J. M. ARMENTROUT, T. L. BEZZERIDES, A. H. BRENAMAN, M. M. GODCHAUX, M. A. HEINRICH, C. J. HICKMAN, J. R. ILLIAN, R. R. JOHNSON, M. L. KLOHN, P. A. LYDON, L. B. MAGOON, L. G. MOSSEL, E. B. NELSON, B. L. STEFF, R. L. STEWART, J. K. TRIGGER.

THE DEPARTMENT OF GEOLOGY serves three classes of students: (1) professional major students; (2) nonprofessional major students who wish to build a broad cultural education around a central interest in geology; and (3) students majoring in other fields who wish some acquaintance with the contributions of geological studies to the understanding of the world and its problems.

High-school students planning to major in geology at the University are advised to include in their high-school course: algebra, plane geometry, trigonometry, geography, science (physics, chemistry, or general science).

Major Curriculum in Geology. The following courses are required for an undergraduate major in geology:

Lower Division. General Geology (Geol 101, 102, 103); Introductory College Mathematics (Mth 104, 105, 106); General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106, Ch 108, 109); General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203, Ph 204, 205, 206).

Upper Division. Mineralogy (Geol 311, 312, 313); Introduction to Paleontology (Geol 331, 332); Principles of Stratigraphy (Geol 392); Field Methods (Geol 393); Field Geology (Geol 406); Seminar (Geol 407), three terms; Economic Geology (Geol 421, 422, 423); Lithology (Geol 411) or Petrology and Petrography (Geol 414, 415, 416); Structural Geology (Geol 491).

Geophysics-Geochemistry Option. Undergraduate majors may elect an option in geophysics-geochemistry, in preparation for graduate work in this or other fields of quantitative geology. The requirements for this option differ from the requirements of the regular major program in geology in the following respects: (1) Calculus with Analytical Geometry (Mth 200, 201, 202) or Analytic Geometry and Calculus (Mth 204, 205, 206) is required; (2) either Advanced General Physics (Ph 320, 321, 322) or Quantitative Analysis (Ch 320) is required; (3) Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203), Vertebrate Paleontology (Geol 333), and Economic Geology (Geol 421, 422, 423) are not required.

Paleontology Option. Undergraduate majors may elect an option in paleontology. The requirements for this option differ from the requirements of the major curriculum in geology in the following respects: (1) Principles of Economics, and Economic Geology are not required; (2) General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103) is required, and Invertebrate Zoology (Bi 461, 462), offered at the Institute of Marine Biology, may be substituted for Field Geology; (3) an additional 12 term hours of work must be elected from: Comparative Anatomy (Bi 355), Principles of Ecology (Bi 471, 472, 473), Historical Biogeography (Bi 491, 492, 493), Micropaleontology (Geol 440).

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Study. The department offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. A satisfactory rating on a Graduate Record Examination and on a qualifying examination are required for admission to candidacy for a graduate degree. All candidates are required to write a thesis. Suggested minor fields are: chemistry, physics, biology, or mathematics.

Facilities. The Condon Museum of Geology contains extensive collections of rocks, minerals, and fossils; its resources are supplemented by working collections for classroom and laboratory use. The varied geological terrain of the state of Oregon offers an exceptionally interesting field laboratory. Field trips are conducted during the regular academic year. Field camps in various parts of the state are operated during the summer months.

Center for Volcanology. The Department of Geology includes a Center for Volcanology; Dr. A. R. McBirney, associate professor of geology, is director. Research and graduate instruction are conducted in several fields dealing with the products and processes of volcanism. The state of Oregon possesses a variety of volcanic features, providing exceptional opportunities for study of volcanic rocks and structures.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Geol 101, 102, 103. General Geology. 4 hours each term.

Earth materials, processes, and forms; formation of economic mineral deposits; the main events in earth history. Lectures, laboratory, and field trips.

Geol 291. Rocks and Minerals. 3 hours.

Common minerals and rocks; origin, lore, and properties of precious, semiprecious, and ornamental stones; economically important rocks and minerals. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period.

Geol 292. Elementary Areal Geology. 3 hours.

A study of regional geology primarily for nonmajors; areal distribution of sedimentary, igneous, and metamorphic rocks in Oregon. Field studies of selected areas, with emphasis on the relationships between rock type, structure, and topography. 1 lecture; 6 hours field work. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103. Stovall.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Geol 301, 302, 303. Geologic History of Life. 3 hours each term.

Fall: origins and early history of life, as revealed by the fossil remains of animals and plants; winter: geologic history of vertebrates; spring: geologic history of the mammals. Intended for nonmajor juniors and seniors. Stovall.

Geol 311, 312, 313. Mineralogy. 4 hours each term.

Descriptive and determinative mineralogy; geometric and X-ray crystallography; optical mineralogy. Prerequisite: Ch 104, 105, 106; Ch 108, 109; Geol 101, 102, Staples.

Geol 331, 332, 333. Introduction to Paleontology. 3 hours each term.

Structure and evolution of invertebrates and vertebrates, and their distribution in geologic time. Prerequisite: Geol 103. Youngquist, Baldwin.

Geol 352. Geology of Oregon. 3 hours.

Lectures, assigned reading, and field trips, to acquaint the student with some of the salient features of the geology of the state. Baldwin.

Geol 392. Principles of Stratigraphy. 3 hours.

Genesis and subsequent history of stratified rocks; sedimentation, induration, weathering; the methods of correlating such formations. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103. Baldwin.

- Geol 393. Field Methods. 3 hours.
Elementary topographic mapping; use of field instruments; field mapping of selected areas. Boggs.
- Geol 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 406. Field Geology. Hours to be arranged.
Prerequisite: Geol 393, HEc 250, consent of instructor. Staples.
- Geol 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Current Geological Literature.
Classical Geological Literature.
Engineering Geology.
Geological Report Writing.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- Geol 411. Lithology. (g) 3 hours.
The origin, occurrence, and classification of the principal rock types. Laboratory examination and classification of rocks in hand specimens. 2 lectures; 1 laboratory period. Prerequisite: Geol 312. Lund.
- Geol 414, 415, 416. Petrology and Petrography. (G) 4 hours each term.
Origins, occurrences, and classifications of rocks. Laboratory work in both megascopic and microscopic examination of rocks. Prerequisite: Ph 201, 202, 203. Geol 311, 312, 313. Lund.
- Geol 421, 422, 423. Economic Geology. (G) 3 hours each term.
The general principles of the formation of metallic and nonmetallic economic geologic deposits; principal economic deposits, domestic and foreign. 2 lectures; 1 laboratory period. Prerequisite: Ec 201, 202, 203; Geol 311, 312, 313. Kays.
- Geol 440. Micropaleontology. (G) 3 hours.
Survey of microfossil groups; stratigraphic distribution; methods of separation from matrices; classification. 1 lecture; 2 laboratory periods. Prerequisite: Geol 331, 332. Youngquist.
- Geol 451. Pacific Coast Geology. (G) 3 hours.
The general geology of the west coast of the United States and Canada from Alaska to southern California; special problems of the region. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103; senior or graduate standing. Baldwin.
- Geol 473. Photogeology. (G) 3 hours.
Geologic interpretation of stereographic pairs of vertical aerial photographs. 2 lectures, 1 three-hour laboratory period. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102, 103. Benson.
- Geol 491. Structural Geology. (G) 4 hours.
Origin, interpretation, and mapping of major and minor geologic structures. 3 lectures, 1 laboratory period. Prerequisite: Geol 101, 102. Benson.
- Geol 493. Petroleum Geology. (G) 3 hours.
Origin and accumulation of petroleum, methods of locating oil and gas, organization of exploratory programs, current economic and political factors affecting petroleum industry. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Geol 392, Geol 491. Youngquist.

GRADUATE COURSES

- *Geol 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- *Geol 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Geol 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

- Geol 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Regional geologic studies.
- Geol 511, 512, 513. Advanced Microscopy and Instrumentation. 4 hours each term.
Microtechniques in connection with the petrographic microscope, goniometer, X-ray diffractometer, and spectroscope; chemical microscopy; photomicrography. Prerequisite: Geol 313. Staples, Kays.
- Geol 514, 515, 516. Advanced Petrology and Petrography. 3 hours each term.
Advanced petrographic methods and study of topics related to the origin and genetic relations of igneous and metamorphic rocks; microscopic examination of rock suites selected for study of petrologic principles and problems. Prerequisite: Geol 414, 415, 416. McBirney.
- Geol 520. Advanced Economic Geology. 3 hours.
Theories of the origin of mineral deposits; study of examples illustrating general principles. Student reports on selected types of deposits. Review of current literature. Prerequisite: Geol 421, 422, 423. Kays.
- Geol 523. Advanced Regional Stratigraphy. 3 hours.
Stratigraphic framework of the United States and other countries. Prerequisite: Geol 392. Baldwin.
- Geol 524. Advanced Sedimentary Petrography. 3 hours.
Application of mechanical, optical, chemical, X-ray, and other techniques to the study of sediments and sedimentary rocks. Prerequisite: Geol 392, Geol 414. Boggs.
- Geol 525. Advanced Sedimentation. 3 hours.
Genesis, transportation, and deposition of sediments; geologic processes involved in formation of sedimentary rocks. Prerequisite: Geol 524. Boggs.
- Geol 531, 532, 533. Advanced Paleontology. 3 hours each term.
Fall: scope and nature of paleontologic literature, procedures in taxonomy, current paleontologic research; winter: history and development of evolution theories, mechanics of organic change, population dynamics, paleoecological studies and applications; spring: detailed study of selected fossil groups. Prerequisite: Geol 331, 332. Youngquist.
- Geol 551. Advanced Physical Geology. 3 hours.
Comprehensive appraisal of earth materials and processes, based on the study of original sources in classical and current literature of geology.
- Geol 561, 562, 563. Geochemistry and Geophysics. 3 hours each term.
Application of physico-chemical principles to geologic processes on and within the earth; special emphasis on thermodynamics and its application to geologic problems; methods of geophysics for the determination of the nature of the interior of the earth. Prerequisite: calculus and physical chemistry, or consent of instructor; physical chemistry may be taken concurrently. Kays.
- Geol 591, 592, 593. Advanced Structural Geology. 3 hours each term.
Theories of the origin of geologic structures observed in deformed rocks. Comparative study and classification of structures; theoretical and experimental studies. Prerequisite: Geol 491. Benson.

THE DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY offers instruction in American, European, and East Asian history, and major programs designed for general education and in preparation for public school teaching and for graduate study and research.

Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree. For a bachelor's degree with a major in history, a student must complete a balanced program approved by his departmental adviser. Specific requirements are as follows:

- (1) Satisfaction of the University requirement for the B.A. degree.
- (2) Forty-two term hours in history courses, of which 24 must be upper-division, including at least 9 hours of 400-level courses (15 upper-division hours must be taken at the University of Oregon).
- (3) History of Western Civilization (Hst 101, 102, 103), or History (Honors College) (Hst 107, 108, 109), or, with consent of adviser, 15 hours of upper-division European history, including courses both before and after 1600.
- (4) A year sequence in United States history.
- (5) Not less than two terms (6 hours) of upper-division courses in each of two fields selected from the following: (a) Europe before 1600, (b) Europe after 1600, (c) United States, Far East, or Latin America.
- (6) At least one term of Seminar (Hst 407) or Colloquium (Hst 408).
- (7) A 2.25 grade-point average in history courses.

History majors should take work in allied fields that will contribute to a well-balanced liberal education. The department recommends work in foreign language and literature extending, if possible, beyond the second-year level and leading to a thorough reading knowledge of a language.

Secondary-School Teaching of Social Studies. For certification as a teacher of social studies in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

* On sabbatical leave, fall term, 1965-66.

† On sabbatical leave 1965-66.

To meet the state standards in social studies and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, a major in history must complete the following program, selected from the fields of history, geography, political science, economics, and sociology or anthropology, with a 2.50 GPA or higher: (1) work in history required for a major; (2) 27 term hours in a second field; (3) 9 term hours in a third field; (4) at least one course in each of two additional fields. The program must include a minimum of 36 term hours in upper-division courses.

For further information, the student should consult a member of the history faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Work. The department offers graduate instruction leading to the degrees of Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy. For requirements for graduate degrees, see GRADUATE SCHOOL, pages 112 ff. A detailed statement of departmental requirements may be obtained in the department office.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Hst 101, 102, 103. History of Western Civilization. 3 hours each term.
Origins and development of Western civilization from ancient times to the present. Alef, Birn, Perrin, Smith, Sorenson.
- Hst 107, 108, 109. History (Honors College). 3 hours each term.
Significant events, ideas, and institutions in the development of Western civilization. Alef, Birn, Dill, Perrin, Pierson, Shanahan.
- Hst 201, 202, 203. History of the United States. 3 hours each term.
From colonial times to the present. Special section for Honors College students. Bingham, Hanna, Holbo, Peterson, Porter, Stephenson.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Hst 301, 302, 303. Europe since 1789. 3 hours each term.
Political, social, economic, and cultural trends from the French Revolution to the present. Fall: 1789 to 1870; winter: 1870 to 1918; spring: 1918 to the present. Pierson, Shanahan.
- Hst 304, 305, 306. English History. 3 hours each term.
A general survey, covering political, economic, social, intellectual, and religious developments. Lang, Smith.
- Hst 350, 351, 352. Hispanic America. 3 hours each term.
A survey of Hispanic America with emphasis on political and cultural history; the Spanish colonial period; the wars for independence and the early republican years; internal development of the modern states and inter-American relations. Holbo, Woodham.
- Hst 391, 392, 393. Far East in Modern Times. 3 hours each term.
Political, economic, and diplomatic history of China, Japan, and Korea, with some attention to Asiatic Russia and the Philippines, from the middle of the nineteenth century to the present. Dull, Falconeri.
- Hst 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Hst 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Hst 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Junior Honors Seminar.
Senior Seminar.
- Hst 408. Senior Colloquium in American History. 3 hours each term.
Study of significant historical writings from colonial times to the present, with emphasis on methods and interpretations. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Stephenson.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- Hst 411. History of Greece. (G) 3 hours fall.
Political, social, and cultural history of the Hellenic world from the Mycenaeans to Alexander the Great. Dill.
- Hst 412, 413. History of Rome. (G) 3 hours each term, winter and spring.
Winter: history of Rome from its earliest beginnings to the end of the Republic; spring: the period of the Empire. Dill.
- Hst 420. Historical Method. (G) 3 hours fall.
Introduction to methods of historical research and writing. Shanahan.
- Hst 421, 422, 423. Middle Ages. (G) 3 hours each term.
History of Europe from the decline of the Western Roman Empire to the Renaissance. Fall: to the Carolingians; winter: to 1100; spring: to 1300. Perrin.
- Hst 424, 425. Early Modern Europe. (G) 3 hours each term.
Political, economic, and cultural history of Europe from the Counter-Reformation to the French Revolution. Europe overseas, the rise of absolutism, the Age of Reason, and enlightened despotism. Birn.
- Hst 430, 431. Renaissance. (G) 3 hours each term, fall and winter.
Fall: the renaissance in Italy; winter: the northern Renaissance.
- Hst 432. Reformation. (G) 3 hours spring.
The Protestant and the Roman Catholic reforms of the sixteenth century.
- Hst 434, 435, 436. Western Institutions and Ideas. (G) 3 hours each term.
Intensive study of selected ideas and institutions that have influenced the history of Western civilization. Prerequisite: a college-level introductory course in European history. Sorenson.
- Hst 437, 438. History of Germany. (G) 3 hours each term.
First term: from the death of Frederick the Great (1786) through World War I; second term: the Weimar Republic, the Nazi era, World War II, and the postwar development of East and West Germany. Shanahan.
- Hst 441, 442, 443. History of France. (G) 3 hours each term.
Hst 441: Old Regime, revolutionary and Napoleonic era, nineteenth century to 1870; Hst 442: Third Republic, 1870-1940; Hst 443: since 1940. Lorwin.
- Hst 444, 445. Twentieth-Century Europe. (G) 3 hours each term.
The revolutionary consequences of World War I for society, politics, and the economy; the new democratic governments and the challenge of Bolshevism, Fascism, and Nazism; World War II and its aftermath; the Soviet satellites; rebuilding the European economy. Shanahan.
- Hst 447, 448, 449. History of Russia. (G) 3 hours each term.
Fall: the Kievan state and the emergence of Muscovy; winter: creation of the Russian Empire, political, social and economic developments; spring: revolutionary Russia, 1861 to the present. Alef.
- Hst 454, 455, 456. Economic History of Modern Europe. (G) 3 hours each term.
The economic development and economic institutions of modern Europe. Fall: from the beginning of the sixteenth century to the beginnings of the Industrial Revolution in Britain; winter: late eighteenth century to end of nineteenth century; spring: twentieth century. Lorwin.
- Hst 457. The Era of American Sectional Conflict. (G) 3 hours.
Forces, events, and persons that contributed to unity and particularism in the United States during the first half of the nineteenth century.
- Hst 458. The Era of the Civil War. (G) 3 hours.
Intensive study of the critical decade before the Civil War and of the course of that conflict.

- Hst 459. The Era of Reconstruction. (G) 3 hours.
Problems of the tragic era following the Civil War; continuing effects to the end of the nineteenth century.
- Hst 460, 461, 462. History of American Thought and Culture. (G) 3 hours each term.
Main currents of American intellectual and cultural life from colonial times to the present. Prerequisite: Hst 201, 202, 203 or consent of instructor. Bingham.
- Hst 463. History of Canada. (G) 3 hours.
A survey of the growth of Canada from colony to nation, emphasizing the period after confederation. Smith.
- Hst 464. History of Mexico. (G) 3 hours.
Political, social, economic and intellectual trends and problems from 1810 to the present. Woodham.
- Hst 465. British Empire. (g) 3 hours.
History of the British Empire since 1815; colonial nationalism and the development of the Commonwealth. Smith.
- Hst 466. Tudor England. (G) 3 hours.
The political, social, economic, and intellectual development of England through the reigns of the Tudor sovereigns, 1485-1603. Lang, Smith.
- Hst 468. Victorian England. (G) 3 hours.
Social, political, economic, and intellectual history of England from 1815 to 1900. Smith.
- Hst 469. Twentieth-Century England. (G) 3 hours.
Social, political, economic, and intellectual changes in Great Britain in the twentieth century. Smith.
- Hst 470, 471. Social Factors in American History. (G) 3 hours each term.
Effect of the varied character of the population on American history and culture. First term: national and racial influences; second term: religious factors. Porter.
- Hst 473, 474, 475. American Foreign Relations. (G) 3 hours each term.
The origins, character, and consequences of American foreign policies from the Revolutionary War to the present. Holbo.
- Hst 476, 477. History of the West. (G) 3 hours each term.
The American frontier. First term: the early American frontier; second term: the Great Plains and the Far West. Porter, Pomeroy.
- Hst 478. History of the Pacific Northwest. (G) 3 hours.
Detailed study of the building of civilization in the Pacific Northwest. Prerequisite: Hst 201, 202 or consent of instructor. Bingham, Porter.
- Hst 479. Forces and Influences in American History. (G) 3 hours.
Geographic influences; influence of the frontier; inheritance and tradition; economic forces; nationalism; sectionalism; manifest destiny; democracy.
- Hst 480, 481, 482. The United States in the Twentieth Century. (G) 3 hours each term.
Fall: to 1921; winter: 1921-41; spring: since 1941. Pomeroy.
- Hst 484, 485, 486. Early History of the American People. (G) 3 hours each term.
From the discovery of America to Washington's administration. Hanna.
- Hst 487, 488, 489. American Economic History. (G) 3 hours each term.
The economic development of the United States. Peterson.
- Hst 494, 495, 496. History of China. (G) 3 hours each term.
Fall: from legendary times through the T'ang Dynasty (618-907); winter:

from the Sung Dynasty (960-1276) to the "Second Treaty Settlement" of the Manchus in 1860; spring: 1860 to the present. Dull, Falconeri.

Hst 497, 498, 499. History of Japan. (G) 3 hours each term.

History of Japan, from its beginnings to the present. Dull, Falconeri.

GRADUATE COURSES

*Hst 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Home Economics

Professor: MABEL A. WOOD (emeritus).

Assistant Professors: MARGARET J. WIESE (department head), FAITH JOHNSTON, LOIS E. NELSON, ANIELA E. PELCH, FRANCES VAN VOORHIS.

Instructor: SALLY L. HANSEN.

THE UNIVERSITY offers elective courses in three main areas of home economics: clothing, textiles, and related arts; foods and nutrition; and family life and home administration. The courses are designed to prepare students for better home and community living as a part of their liberal education. The University does not offer major work in home economics; in the Oregon State System of Higher Education, major studies in the field are allocated to the School of Home Economics at Oregon State University.

* No-grade course.

Lower-division instruction in home economics offered at the University of Oregon and at Oregon State University is essentially the same. It is recommended that students intending to major in the field enter the institution where major work is offered at the beginning of their freshman year; they may if they wish, however, spend their freshman and sophomore years at the University of Oregon, and transfer to Oregon State University at the beginning of the junior year, with out loss of credit and with fundamental requirements for upper-division standing fully met.

The foods and clothing laboratories of the Department of Home Economics are designed and equipped in accordance with the best modern standards for instruction in these fields.

Secondary-School Teaching of Home Economics. For certification as a teacher of home economics in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

The University of Oregon offers an undergraduate program which satisfies the state standard, but does not offer the additional subject preparation required for permanent certification after a fifth year of study.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the home economics faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

HEc 121, 122, 123. Clothing Construction. 2 hours each term.

Principles of clothing construction. HEc 121: basic skills in use of patterns, fabrics, and equipment. HEc 122: selection, management, and construction, using silk and manmade fibers. HEc 123: planning and construction of a lined wool suit or coat. It is recommended that the sequence be preceded by HEc 124, 125, 126 or taken concurrently.

HEc 124, 125, 126. Clothing Selection. 1 hour any term.

Aesthetic and economic factors in the selection of clothing. HEc 124: aesthetic principles of line, color and texture. HEc 125: expression of individuality through clothing. HEc 126: problems of consumer buying of clothing; clothing expenditures of college students and the family.

HEc 127. Textiles. 2 hours any term.

Designed to develop a basic consumer understanding of the characteristics of fibers and fabrics; selection, purchase, and care of fabrics and household linens. Suggested parallel for HEc 121.

HEc 222. Family Relationships. 2 hours any term.

Values and goals of modern family life; family roles of men and women; choice of a marriage partner; adjustment to family life.

HEc 225. Nutrition. 2 hours any term.

Scientific study of foods; choice of foods for the maintenance of health; common nutritional problems; evaluation of nutritional information provided in the mass media.

HEc 226, 227, 228. Foods. 3 hours each term.

Scientific approach to food preparation; nutritional, managerial, and aesthetic aspects of meal planning. 2 recitations; 2 two-hour laboratory periods.

HEc 250. Camp Cookery. 1 hour any term.

Fundamental principles of cookery applied to simple meals in home and camp. 1 three-hour laboratory period. Open to men only.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- HEc 325. Child Care. 3 hours any term.
Current concepts of growth and development; prenatal care; behavior and development of the preschool child; the needs of the young child in the family; adult-child relationships.
- HEc 331. Home Planning and Furnishing. 3 hours any term.
Principles involved in the planning and furnishing of a home in the contemporary world; scientific, aesthetic, and traditional factors.
- HEc 339. Household Management. 3 hours any term.
Management principles applied to home life; work simplification; choice, use, and care of basic household equipment.
- HEc 340. Consumer Problems. 3 hours any term.
Management of the family income; budgeting, use of credit, insurance; intelligent choice in the market; consumer aids; consumer protection.

Industrial and Labor Relations

THE UNIVERSITY offers an interdisciplinary program of graduate study in industrial and labor relations, leading to the Master of Arts or Master of Science degree. The program is administered by the Institute of Industrial and Labor Relations (see page 128).

The student's program must include work in at least three disciplines, with at least 18 term hours in one of the three disciplines, and must include a minimum of 15 term hours in 500-level courses. Before advancement to candidacy for a degree, a student must submit a satisfactory score on the Miller Analogies Test or a comparable objective test.

The following University courses are especially relevant to the graduate program in industrial and labor relations:

Economics—Contemporary Economic Problems (Ec 417); Labor Economics (Ec 444); Organized Labor (Ec 445); Labor Legislation (Ec 446); Collective Bargaining (Ec 447, 448, 449); Comparative Economic Systems (Ec 450, 451, 452); American Economic History (Ec 487, 488, 489); Development of Industrial Economics (Ec 490, 491, 492); Seminar: Labor Economics (Ec 507).

Education—Seminar: Work Evaluation (Ed 407); Educational and Vocational Guidance (Ed 488).

History—American Economic History (Hst 487, 488, 489).

Journalism—Seminar: Industrial Editing (J 407); The Press and Society (J 450); Publicity and Public Relations (J 459); Public Relations Problems (J 483); Journalism and Public Opinion (J 494).

Law—Agency (L 427); Labor Law (L 476).

Political Science—Administrative Organization and Behavior (PS 412, 413); Theory of Democracy (PS 456, 457); The Supreme Court in American Government (PS 484, 485, 486); Seminar: Constitutional Law (PS 507); Seminar: Comparative Labor Movements (PS 507).

Production and Industrial Management—Personnel Management (PIM 412); Wage and Salary Administration (PIM 413); Problems in Personnel Management (PIM 414); Personnel Administration (PIM 534); Personnel Psychology (PIM 535); Organizational Conflict and Change (PIM 536).

Sociology—Seminar: Sociology of Professions (Soc 407); Theory of Small Groups (Soc 430); Group Dynamics (Soc 431); Sociology of Work (Soc 446); Industrial Sociology (Soc 447); Sociology of Occupations (Soc 448); Theory of Organization (Soc 541).

The Institute of Industrial and Labor Relations provides advice and assistance to doctoral candidates who are interested in work in industrial relations as a minor field or as a supplement to their major program.

Latin American Studies

THE UNIVERSITY offers undergraduate and graduate programs in Latin American studies. Students enrolled in these programs complete regular major requirements in a department of the College of Liberal Arts or a professional school, with additional studies providing an emphasis on the Latin American area. An interdisciplinary committee advises students in the planning of their area studies; Dr. Gene E. Martin, associate professor of geography, is chairman of the committee.

The special requirements for a B.A. degree with emphasis on Latin American studies are: (1) two years of college study of Spanish or Portuguese or equivalent; (2) a minimum of 27 term hours in Latin American area courses, other than language, of which at least 18 term hours must be outside the student's major field.

The special requirements for a M.A. or Ph.D. degree with an emphasis on Latin American studies are: (1) competence in Spanish or Portuguese, to be demonstrated by examination; (2) a minimum of 21 term hours in graduate courses in Latin American studies, including 9 hours in an interdisciplinary seminar; (3) a thesis on a Latin American topic, for which a maximum of 9 hours of credit may be applied toward requirement (2).

Mathematics

Professors: A. F. MOURSUND (department head), PAUL CIVIN, C. W. CURTIS, K. S. GHENT, D. K. HARRISON, R. D. JAMES, I. M. NIVEN, L. E. WARD, JR., BERTRAM YOOD.

Associate Professors: F. W. ANDERSON, F. C. ANDREWS, E. A. MAIER, K. A. ROSS, K. R. STROMBERG, R. F. TATE, D. R. TRUAX.

Assistant Professors: R. M. GILLETTE, FRANKLIN LOWENTHAL, T. K. MATTHES, W. H. SILLS, G. W. STRUBLE, J. M. VAN BUSKIRK, C. R. B. WRIGHT.

Senior Instructors: MARIE R. MASON, P. R. SHERMAN.

Lecturer: K. P. CASEY.

Instructors: ERNST MERZRATH, LULU MOURSUND.

Fellows: K. E. BATKER, R. P. BROWN, S. E. BROWN, J. L. CUNNINGHAM, R. E. DRESSLER, R. M. GRASSL, D. N. HAWLEY, GLORIA HEWITT, R. A. KREISS, M. E. MANIS, L. K. MOHLER, M. L. OSBORNE, D. K. PACK, F. A. RICHEN, H. G. RUTHERFORD, J. E. SCHNEIDER, G. M. SEITZ, D. R. TURNIDGE, D. D. WILLIAMS.

Assistants: D. F. ANDERSON, G. F. BACHELIS, J. O. BAKER, R. L. BERNHARDT III, C. B. BRADEN, D. W. BREE, JR., D. L. BRIDGES, W. J. CARSRUD, A. J. CLEMONS, R. S. CUNNINGHAM, E. N. FERGUSON, C. E. FORD, T. V. FOSSUM, J. M. FRANKLIN, K. R. FULLER, R. R. HALLETT, V. E. HILL, R. W. HONERLAH, W. M. HUBBART, D. R. ILLIS, R. F. JOHNSONBAUGH, D. H. KELKER, D. G. LAMET, L. C. LEINBACH, G. G. MICHAEL, T. B. PAINE, W. A. PARKER, H. L. PETERSON, W. E. PFAFFENBERGER, H. J. SCHMIDT, JR., G. M. SEITZ, J. W. SHERWOOD, T. A. SWANSON, L. D. TUCKER, E. D. TYMCHATYN, V. E. WALSH, C. C. WHITE, C. S. WONG.

MATHEMATICS COURSES at the University are designed to provide the training in rigorous thinking and analytical processes which is fundamental to a liberal education; to provide basic mathematical and statistical training for students in the social, biological, and physical sciences and in the professional schools; to prepare prospective teachers of mathematics; and to provide advanced and graduate work for students specializing in the field.

Preparation for Major Work. Students planning to major in mathematics at the University should take high-school courses in algebra (at least one and one-half years) and plane geometry and, if possible, courses covering trigonometry, solid geometry, and more advanced topics.

Majors usually begin University work in mathematics with Introductory College Mathematics (Mth 104, 105, 106), Fundamentals of Mathematics (Honors College) (Mth 107, 108, 109), Calculus with Analytical Geometry (Mth 200, 201, 202, 203), or Analytic Geometry and Calculus (Mth 204, 205, 206). The latter sequence is recommended for well-prepared freshmen whose high-school program included trigonometry. Students not prepared for one of these sequences must make up their deficiencies in one or both of the following courses: Elements of Algebra (Mth 10), Intermediate Algebra (Mth 95).

Students may enter Mth 204, 205, 206 upon completion of Mth 105; students electing Mth 95, 104, 105 must take Mth 106 if they wish to enroll for Calculus with Analytical Geometry (Mth 200, 201, 202, 203).

Science Group Requirement. Correlated sequences which satisfy the science group requirements are listed on page 80.

Mth 204, 205, 206 is the recommended sequence for all exceptionally well-prepared students. Mth 104, 105, 106 is the standard sequence for students who enter with one and one-half years of high-school algebra, and who intend to major in mathematics, the physical sciences, or architecture, or to take more than one year's work in college mathematics. Mth 107, 108, 109 provides a distinctive approach to college mathematics for students in the Honors College. The department will recommend suitable sequences in the light of the individual student's interests and mathematics placement-test score.

Requirements for Bachelor's Degree. To qualify for a bachelor's degree with a major in mathematics, a student must complete 48 term hours of work in the field, including Calculus with Analytical Geometry (Mth 200, 201, 202, 203) or Analytic Geometry and Calculus (Mth 204, 205, 206), and at least 30 term hours in upper-division mathematics courses exclusive of Mth 425, 426, 427. Not more than 15 hours selected from Mth 441, 442, 443, Mth 447, 448, 449 may be counted toward the minimum major requirement.

Students preparing for graduate work in mathematics should include in their programs: Mth 411, Mth 415, 416, 417; Mth 418, Mth 419; Mth 431, 432, 433; and Mth 447, 448, 449. Students preparing for graduate work in statistics should follow the same program. Attainment of a reading knowledge of at least one of the following languages is highly recommended: French, German, Russian.

Secondary-School Teaching of Mathematics. For certification as a teacher of mathematics in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in mathematics and the requirements for unqualified recommendation by the University of Oregon, students should satisfy the requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in mathematics, and should include in their programs: Calculus (Mth 313), Fundamentals of Algebra (Mth 341, 342, 343), Fundamentals of Geometry (Mth 344, 345), and Fundamentals of Statistics (Mth 346). Regular session courses with similar content and special upper-division and graduate courses offered during summer sessions are acceptable substitutes for these courses.

Nonmajor students who wish to prepare for the teaching of mathematics as a second field should include Fundamentals of Algebra (Mth 341, 342, 343) and Fundamentals of Geometry (Mth 344, 345) in their programs.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the mathematics faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Work. The Department of Mathematics offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Candidates for the Ph.D. degree are accepted in such fields as number theory, algebra, analysis, topology, topological algebra, and probability and statistics. Students interested in graduate work should consult the head of the department concerning departmental requirements.

Statistical Laboratory and Computing Center. A Statistical Laboratory and Computing Center is operated under the auspices of the Graduate School, in close cooperation with the Department of Mathematics. An IBM 1620 electronic computer is available for research and teaching. See page 125.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Mth 95. Intermediate Algebra. 4 hours.

Fundamentals of algebra. Intended for students entering with less than two years of high-school algebra; not open for credit for students entering with four years of high-school mathematics including trigonometry.

Mth 104, 105, 106. Introductory College Mathematics. 4 hours each term.

A unified treatment of college algebra, trigonometry, analytic geometry, and elementary calculus. Prerequisite: one and one-half years of high-school algebra or Mth 95.

Mth 107, 108, 109. Fundamentals of Mathematics (Honors College). 4 hours each term.

A terminal course. Selected topics from number theory, combinatorics, graph theory, infinite sets and other areas; does not prepare students for Mth 204. Prerequisite: enrollment in the Honors College.

Mth 121, 122, 123. Mathematics for Elementary Teachers. 3 hours each term.

Basic concepts of arithmetic, elementary algebra, and elementary geometry. Emphasis on the real number system and deductive process within the system. Open only to prospective elementary teachers. Sherman.

Mth 124. Mathematics of Finance. 4 hours.

Simple and compound interest and discount, annuities, periodic-payment plans, bonds, depreciation, mathematics of insurance, and other topics related to business. Prerequisite: Mth 104.

Mth 200, 201, 202, 203. Calculus with Analytical Geometry. 4 hours each term.

Standard sequence for students of physical, biological, and social sciences. Prerequisite: high-school trigonometry and a high placement score; or Mth 105; or Mth 104 with a grade of A or B. Not open to students who have credit for Mth 204, 205, 206.

Mth 204, 205, 206. Analytic Geometry and Calculus. 5 hours each term.

A unified treatment of analytic geometry and calculus; equivalent of Mth 200, 201, 202, 203. Special section for Honors College and other superior students. Prerequisite: high-school trigonometry and a high placement score; or Mth 105; or Mth 104 with a grade of A or B.

Mth 233. Introduction to Numerical Computation. 3 hours.

Basic principles of computation; programming a computer in an algebraic language. Prerequisite: Mth 104 or equivalent. Struble, Computing Center staff.

Mth 290. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Selected topics not covered in the regular lower-division courses. For students of high ability.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Mth 313. Calculus. 4 hours.

Foundations of the calculus. For prospective high-school teachers. Prerequisite: calculus and consent of instructor. Maier, Moursund.

Mth 319. Number Theory. 3 hours.

Divisibility, congruences, number theoretic functions, Diophantine equations. Prerequisite: year sequence in calculus or consent of instructor. Ghent, Maier, Niven.

Mth 341, 342, 343. Fundamentals of Algebra. 3 hours each term.

Algebraic topics, for prospective secondary-school teachers of mathematics. Inequalities, congruences, bases of the number system, foundations of algebra, set theory, Boolean algebras, elementary matrix and group theory. Prerequisite: year sequence in calculus or consent of instructor. Ghent, Maier.

Mth 344, 345. Fundamentals of Geometry. 3 hours each term.

Geometric topics, for prospective secondary-school teachers of mathematics. Length, area, volume, and the related limit problem. Ruler and compass constructions, locus problems. Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometries. Coordinate and noncoordinate techniques in the plane and in space. Prerequisite: year sequence in calculus or consent of instructor. Ghent, Maier.

Mth 346. Fundamentals of Statistics. 3 hours.

Topics in probability and statistics, for prospective secondary-school teachers of mathematics. Probability and random variables on finite sets. Binomial and hypergeometric distributions. Random number tables. Frequency distributions and histograms. Algebra of elementary statistical distributions. Tests of hypotheses and linear estimates. Prerequisite: year sequence in calculus or consent of instructor. Maier, Truax.

Mth 354. Mathematical Logic and Set Theory. 3 hours.

Topics in mathematical logic and set theory. Propositional calculus, algebra of sets, functions and relations, cardinal numbers, ordinal numbers, point sets on the real line. Prerequisite: calculus or consent of instructor. Gillette, Ward.

Mth 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Mth 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

Mth 407. Seminar. (g) Hours to be arranged.

Mth 411. Introductory Linear Algebra. (g) 3 hours.

Computational matrix algebra. Vector spaces, systems of linear equations, matrices, determinants, characteristic roots, quadratic forms and diagonalization. Prerequisite: Mth 202 or Mth 205, or consent of instructor. Anderson, Curtis, Harrison, Wright.

Mth 412. Linear Algebra. (g) 3 hours.

Proofs of theorems on basis and dimension in abstract vector spaces; linear transformations, the minimal polynomial; determinant of a linear transformation; characteristic roots and vectors; orthogonal, unitary, and symmetric transformations. Prerequisite: Mth 411. Anderson, Curtis, Harrison, Wright.

Mth 413. Geometric Algebra. (G) 3 hours.

Introduction to the classical linear groups and geometrics associated with them. Prerequisite: Mth 412.

Mth 414. Introduction to Hilbert Space. (G) 3 hours.

Geometry of infinite dimensional Hilbert space; bounded linear operators and their adjoints; spectral theorem for self-adjoint and unitary operators. Prerequisite: Mth 412.

Mth 415, 416, 417. Introduction to Abstract Algebra. (G) 3 hours each term.

Sets, relations, mappings; introduction to the theory of groups, rings, fields, polynomial rings; linear algebra and matrix theory. Prerequisite: Mth 411 or consent of instructor. Anderson, Curtis, Harrison, Wright.

Mth 418. Differential Equations. (g) 3 hours.

Linear differential equations, applications, systems of equations. Prerequisite: Mth 200, 201, 202, 203 or Mth 204, 205, 206, Mth 411. Niven, Wright, Yood.

Mth 419. Functions of Several Variables. (g) 3 hours.

Infinite series, power series, partial differentiation, multiple integrals, and other related topics. Prerequisite: Mth 200, 201, 202, 203 or Mth 204, 205, 206. Curtis, Niven, Wright.

Mth 420. Vector Analysis. (g) 3 hours.

Vector operations, divergence theorem, Stokes' theorem, applications. Prerequisite: Mth 419 or equivalent. Curtis, Niven, Wright.

Mth 421. Functions of a Complex Variable. (g) 3 hours.

Cauchy's theorem, residues, contour integration. Prerequisite: Mth 419 or consent of instructor. Lowenthal, Moursund, Stromberg.

Mth 422. Fourier Series. (g) 3 hours.

Pointwise and mean convergence, orthogonal functions, applications to partial differential equations. Lowenthal, Stromberg, Yood.

Mth 425, 426, 427. Elements of Statistical Methods. (g) 3 hours each term.

A basic sequence in statistical analysis; not intended for mathematics majors. Presentation of data; sampling theory; tests of significance; analysis of variance and covariance; regression and correlation; sequential analysis; design of experiments; distribution-free techniques. Prerequisite: Mth 95 or equivalent; junior standing. Matthes, Tate, Truax.

Mth 428. Scientific and Statistical Computation. (G) 3 hours.

Numerical computation, including programming a computer in algebraic language and numerical error control. Prerequisite: Mth 418 or concurrent registration in a 400-level analysis or statistics course. Struble, Computing Center staff.

Mth 429, 430. Numerical Analysis. (G) 3 hours each term.

Approximation theory, finite difference calculus, numerical integration, matrix methods, numerical solution of differential equations. Prerequisite: Mth 428 and one term in analysis. Struble.

Mth 431, 432, 433. Advanced Calculus. (G) 3 hours each term.

A rigorous treatment of topics introduced in elementary calculus or more-advanced topics basic to the study of real and complex variables. Prerequisite: calculus and upper-division mathematics sequence. Moursund, Ross, Stromberg.

Mth 438. Introduction to Topology. (G) 3 hours.

Elements of set theory, metric and topological spaces, connectedness and compactness; emphasis on those concepts of topology which are fundamental to advanced calculus. Prerequisite: calculus. Van Buskirk, Ward.

Mth 441, 442, 443. Introduction to Statistical Theory. (g) 3 hours each term.

Designed primarily for nonmajors who have a working knowledge of calculus and for mathematics majors intending to take no further work in statistics. Topics covered include: elementary theory of probability, sampling theory, estimation, hypothesis testing, sequential and nonparametric methods, elementary decision theory. Prerequisite: calculus. Andrews, Matthes, Truax.

- Mth 444. Computing. (g) 4 hours.
Introduction of the principles of digital computers; analysis of data-processing systems; programming languages and techniques; selected advanced topics of current interest. Prerequisite: Mth 233. Andrews, Struble.
- Mth 445. System Programming. (g) 4 hours.
Study of computer operating systems, input and output systems, assembler and compiler construction. Prerequisite: Mth 444. Struble, Computing Center staff.
- Mth 447, 448, 449. Mathematical Statistics. (G) 3 hours each term.
Combinatorial probability; development of distribution theory from the theory of probability; derivation of sampling distributions; introduction to theory of statistical estimation and inference. Prerequisite: calculus and upper-division mathematics sequence. Andrews, Matthes, Tate, Truax.

GRADUATE COURSES

- *Mth 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- *Mth 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Mth 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Mth 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Applied Mathematics. Yood.
Banach Algebras. Yood.
Commutative Algebra. Anderson, Harrison.
Complex Variable Theory. Lowenthal.
Fourier Analysis.
Groups and Representations. Curtis, Wright.
Harmonic Analysis. Civin, Stromberg.
Homological Algebra. Anderson, Curtis, Harrison.
Noncommutative Rings. Anderson, Curtis, Harrison.
Number Theory. Niven.
Statistics and Stochastic Processes. Andrews, Matthes, Tate, Truax.
Topics in Functional Analysis. Civin, Ross, Stromberg, Yood.
Topology. Gillette, Van Buskirk, Ward.
- Mth 541, 542, 543. Abstract Algebra. 3 hours each term.
Group theory, fields, Galois theory, algebraic numbers, matrices, rings, algebras. Anderson, Curtis, Harrison, Wright.
- Mth 544, 545, 546. Structure of Rings and Algebras. 3 hours each term.
Topics selected from: rings with minimum condition, algebras over a commutative ring, rings without finiteness assumptions, and nonassociative rings and algebras. Anderson, Curtis, Harrison, Wright.
- Mth 547, 548, 549. Algebraic Number Theory. 3 hours each term.
Algebraic, irrational, transcendental, and normal numbers; approximation of algebraic and transcendental numbers by rationals. Niven.
- Mth 551, 552, 553. Theory of Functions of a Real Variable. 3 hours each term.
Measure and integration, Hilbert and Banach spaces, and related topics. Ross, Stromberg, Yood.
- Mth 554, 555, 556. Theory of Functions of a Complex Variable. 3 hours each term.
The theory of Cauchy, power series, contour integration, analytic continuation, entire functions, and related topics. Civin, Lowenthal, Stromberg.
- Mth 557, 558, 559. Topics in Classical Analysis. 3 hours each term.
Fourier series, Fourier transforms, integral equations, linear operations in Hilbert space, spectral theory. Civin.
- Mth 561, 562, 563. Modern Theories in Analysis. 3 hours each term.
Measure theory, Banach spaces and algebras, analysis in topological groups;

* No-grade course.

- modern functional analysis, with emphasis on the connections with classical analysis and on applications to harmonic analysis. Civin, Ross, Stromberg, Yood.
- Mth 571, 572, 573. Topology. 3 hours each term.
General and point set topology, introduction to algebraic topology. Gillette, Van Buskirk, Ward.
- Mth 581, 582, 583. Theory of Estimation and Testing Hypotheses. 3 hours each term.
Classical theory of testing and estimation, BAN estimates, moment estimates, sequential analysis. Andrews, Matthes, Tate, Truax.
- Mth 584, 585, 586. Theory of Probability. 3 hours each term.
Elements of measure theory, probability in abstract spaces, random variables, independence, cumulative distribution functions, characteristic functions, moments, convergence of distributions, the central limit problem, infinitely divisible distributions; applications to statistics. Andrews, Matthes, Truax.
- Mth 587, 588. Stochastic Processes. 3 hours each term.
A non-measure-theoretic introduction to the theory of stochastic processes; processes discrete in space and time, discrete in space and continuous in time, continuous in space and time; applications. Andrews, Truax.
- Mth 591, 592, 593. Advanced Mathematical Statistics. 3 hours each term.
Topics selected from: analysis of variance and design of experiments; multivariate analysis; sampling from finite populations; nonparametric methods. Andrews, Matthes, Tate, Truax.
- Mth 594. Theory of Games. 3 hours.
The theory of games, with special emphasis on zero-sum two-person games. Matthes, Truax.
- Mth 595, 596. Statistical Decision Theory. 3 hours each term.
Statistical decision theory based on the theory of games; sequential decision theory; comparison of experiments. Matthes, Truax.

COURSES OFFERED ONLY IN SUMMER SESSIONS AND EXTENSION

- Mth 10. Elements of Algebra. No credit (extension).
- Mth 457, 458, 459. Foundations of Mathematics. (g) 3-4 hours each term (summer sessions).
- Mth 468, 469. Probability and Statistics. (g) 3-4 hours each term (summer sessions).
- Mth 478, 479. Algebra. (g) 3-4 hours each term (summer sessions).
- Mth 487, 488, 489. Geometry. (g) 3-4 hours each term (summer sessions).
- Mth 498, 499. Analysis. (g) 3-4 hours each term (summer sessions).
- Mth 578, 580. Algebra. 3-4 hours each term (summer sessions).
- Mth 589. Geometry. 3-4 hours (summer sessions).
- Mth 598, 599. Analysis. 3-4 hours each term (summer sessions).

Medical Technology

THE UNIVERSITY offers a four-year program in medical technology, leading to the bachelor's degree. The program includes three years of work on the Eugene campus and one year at the Medical School in Portland. During his three years on the Eugene campus, the student must satisfy (1) all general University degree requirements that cannot be satisfied with work taken at the Medical School, and

(2) the special science requirements for admission to the fourth-year program at the Medical School. The following recommended courses satisfy the science requirements:

	Term Hours
Mathematics (above Mth 10).....	12
General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103).....	12
General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106).....	10
Inorganic Qualitative Analysis (Ch 108).....	2
Intro. Volumetric Analysis (Ch 109).....	2
Organic Chemistry (Ch 334, 335, Ch 337, 338).....	10
Quantitative Analysis (Ch 320).....	4
Essentials of Physics (Ph 101, 102, 103).....	9
Intro. to Bacteriology (Bi 381, 382).....	6
Upper-division biology.....	6

For an outline of the fourth-year program, see the University of Oregon Medical School Catalog.

Medicine, Preparatory

THE UNIVERSITY offers a premedical program which satisfies the requirements for admission to American medical schools, including the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland. The program is supervised by a special advisory committee, of which Dr. Bradley T. Scheer, professor of biology, is chairman.

Medical schools have varying admission requirements. The requirements of the several schools are listed in Admission Requirements for American Medical Colleges, an annual volume published by the Association of American Medical Colleges; students planning to seek admission to a particular school should consult this volume, and plan their premedical studies to satisfy any special requirements of the school.

Nearly all medical schools require applicants to take the Medical College Admissions Test. The test is given twice each year, in October and May; students are advised to take the test in May of the calendar year before they plan to enter medical school. Application for permission to take the test must be made about a month before the scheduled date. Application blanks may be obtained in the Office of Admissions.

The University of Oregon Medical School requires that the student must have earned a B.A. or B.S. degree before entrance or must complete the work for the degree at the University of Oregon or at the institution at which he received his premedical preparation before entering upon the work of the third year at the Medical School. Under University of Oregon regulations, a maximum of 48 term hours of work in medicine may be counted as credit earned in residence toward the bachelor's degree.

Students who expect to complete the requirements for a bachelor's degree at the Medical School should satisfy, in their premedical program, all requirements for the degree (including general University requirements and requirements for a major in the College of Liberal Arts) that cannot be satisfied with work taken at the Medical School.

Many students elect a departmental major in the College of Liberal Arts (history, biology, chemistry, physics, etc.); these students should consult their departmental adviser at the beginning of their junior year concerning major requirements. Students may also elect a more general program leading to a major in general science.

The following courses satisfy both the science requirements for admission to the University of Oregon Medical School and, with additional science instruction at the Medical School, the requirements for a major in general science:

	Term Hours
Mathematics (above level of Mth 10).....	12
General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106).....	10
Inorganic Qualitative Analysis (Ch 108), Introductory Volumetric Analysis (Ch 109).....	4
General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103).....	12
General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203, Ph 204, 205, 206).....	15
Organic Chemistry (Ch 334, 335, Ch 337, 338).....	10
Advanced biology (comparative anatomy, embryology, or genetics).....	7-8

Transfer students will be expected to take Quantitative Analysis (Ch 320), 4 term hours.

Scholarships. For special scholarships for premedical students, see page 105.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Modern and Classical Languages

D. M. DOUGHERTY, Executive Officer of Division

Classics, and Chinese and Japanese

Professor: F. M. COMBELLACK.

Assistant Professors: C. B. PASCAL (department head), H. C. KIM, EDNA LANDROS (emeritus), HIROSHI MIYAJI, W. E. NAFF, ANGELA PALANDRI.

Assistants: N. T. CHAO, RAPHAEL CHODOS, CHARLES HUMPHREYS, YOKO MCCLAIN, TSENG-WEN SHEN, BRUCE TAGGART.

German and Russian

Professors: W. A. LEPPMANN (department head), E. P. KREMER, (emeritus), H. W. NORDMEYER.

Associate Professors: P. B. GONTRUM,* W. L. HAHN, R. A. NICHOLLS, ASTRID WILLIAMS.

Assistant Professors: CAROL BEDWELL, J. R. MCWILLIAMS, R. E. STEUSSY, VLADIMIR TOLSON.

Instructors: NICHOLAS CHICHERIN, R. M. STOCKMAN, KLAWA THRESHER.

Fellows: DAVID BENSELER, MARY BOWEN, GLEN FRANKLIN, LAWRENCE JOHNSON, OTMAR JONAS, EILEEN KRUMM, JOAN McALLISTER, BETH MAVEETY, GILBERT NOSTRANT, DAVID WILLIAMS, JEAN WOODS.

Assistants: AXEL BEHN, HENRY CROES, DONALD DUGGER, ULRICH GOEBEL, HANS KASDORF, ESTHER LESÉR, JOSEPHINE MAYER, MICHAEL MOORAD, ADAM STIENER, JOHN WALTER.

Romance Languages

Professors: C. B. BEALL, D. M. DOUGHERTY, T. R. HART, C. L. JOHNSON, L. O. WRIGHT (emeritus).

Associate Professors: P. J. POWERS (department head), E. S. HATZANTONIS,* CARLOS LOZANO, T. E. MARSHALL, J. I. PALLEY, D. G. SIMONIN.

THE DIVISION OF MODERN AND CLASSICAL LANGUAGES includes the Department of Classics, and Japanese and Chinese, the Department of German and Russian, and the Department of Romance Languages. The departments offer instruction in Chinese, French, German, Greek, Italian, Japanese, Latin, Norwegian, Portuguese, Russian, Spanish, and Swedish. The undergraduate course offerings provide: (1) an introduction to the nature and structure of language as a basic aspect of human culture; (2) an introduction to the principal literatures of the world; (3) major programs in Greek, Latin, French, German, Italian, Spanish, and Russian; (4) a reading knowledge of languages required of candidates for advanced degrees; and (5) proficiency in the speaking, understanding, and writing of French, German, Italian, Russian, and Spanish.

A fully equipped language laboratory provides practice in speaking and understanding the modern languages through the use of tapes and of recordings made by native speakers.

Major Requirements. Major requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree are as follows:

Classics. Twenty-four term hours in Greek or Latin beyond the second-year sequence; History of Greece (Hst 411), History of Rome (Hst 412, 413). Majors in Greek or Latin are normally expected to take work in the other Classical language or in French or German.

French, German, Italian, Russian, or Spanish. Thirty term hours beyond the second-year sequence—normally survey of literature, composition and conversation, and two additional upper-division year sequences (at least one a literature sequence).

Romance Languages, Modern Languages, Classical and Modern Languages. Thirty term hours beyond the second-year sequence in one language and 15 term hours beyond the second-year sequence in a second language, including two upper-division literature sequences in the first language and one in the second.

Secondary-School Teaching of Foreign Languages. For certification as a teacher of French, German, Spanish, or Latin in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

Completion of 45 term hours of work in any one of these languages satisfies the state standards for undergraduate preparation and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon. The Division of Modern and Classical Languages will, however, approve enrollment for student teaching only if the student's course work in the language he plans to teach is of high quality, if he has attained reasonable oral and written control of the language, and if he has completed Ed 315 and at least 3 term hours in Ed 408.

For permanent certification, after a fifth year of preparation, the student must complete an additional 15 term hours in linguistics, culture and civilization, and phonetics (phonetics not required for certification in Latin). The following courses are recommended: French, RL 429, 430, RL 331, 332; German, GL 340, 341, 342, phonetics; Spanish, RL 432, 433, RL 350, 351; Latin, Hst 411, Hst 412, 413; all languages, AL 450, 451.

It is recommended that, if possible, the student complete the five-year program for permanent certification before he begins teaching, and that, during the fifth year, he satisfy the requirements for the interdisciplinary master's degree in teaching.

For further information, the student should consult a member of the faculty of the Division of Modern and Classical Languages who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Study. The Division of Modern and Classical Languages offers programs of graduate study leading to the degree of Master of Arts in Greek, Latin, Classical languages, German, French, Spanish, Romance languages, and comparative literature, and to the degree of Doctor of Philosophy in Romance languages, Germanic languages, and comparative literature. For the master's degree, courses are offered in the languages and literatures of Greece, Rome, France, Germany, Spain, and Spanish America; preferably, the student's program should include work in two of these fields. For the doctorate in Romance languages, opportunities for advanced study are provided in the French and Spanish fields, supplemented by offerings in Italian, German, and Classical languages. The program for the doctorate in Germanic languages includes advanced study of literature and philology, supplemented by courses in English literature and philology and in Romance and Classical languages and literatures.

The graduate program in comparative literature is administered by a committee representing the Department of English and the Division of Modern and Classical Languages; it offers opportunity for advanced study of several literatures, in their original languages. The doctoral programs are intended primarily to prepare college teachers and research scholars. Doctoral studies may center in the investigation of a single problem, the results of which are embodied in the dissertation, or may be more broadly cultural, with less emphasis on research.

The resources of the University Library for research in Classical languages, French, Spanish, and German are adequate for the division's graduate programs; in some fields they are outstanding. The Library's holdings of learned periodicals are extensive; the quarterly journal, COMPARATIVE LITERATURE, is edited in the department.

GREEK

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

CL 50, 51. Beginning Greek. 4 hours each term.

The fundamentals of the Attic Greek language. Kim.

CL 52. Introduction to Xenophon. 4 hours.

Reading of the first four books of Xenophon's Anabasis. Kim.

CL 101, 102. Introduction to Homer. 4 hours each term.

Reading of Books I-VI of the Iliad. The Homeric dialect; practice with the Homeric meter. Lectures on the Homeric Age. Combella, Kim.

CL 103. Introduction to Plato. 4 hours.

Reading of the Euthyphro, Crito, and Apology. Combella, Kim.

CL 231, 232. New Testament Readings. 4 hours each term.

Selected readings from the Gospels and Paul's Epistles. May be followed by CL 103 or CL 316 to complete a year sequence.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- AL 304, 305, 306. Literature of the Ancient World. 3 hours each term.
For description, see page 134. Combella.
- AL 321, 322, 323. Classic Myths. 1 hour each term.
For description, see page 134. Pascal.
- CL 314, 315. Introduction to Homer. 4 hours each term.
For description, see CL 101, 102. Not open to students who have completed that sequence. Combella.
- CL 316. Introduction to Plato. 4 hours.
For description, see CL 103. Not open to students who have completed that course. Combella.
- CL 317. Euripides. 3 hours.
Reading of Alcestis and Electra. Lectures on Greek stage antiquities. Combella.
- CL 318. Herodotus. 3 hours.
Reading of selections from Herodotus' History. Study of the Ionic dialect. Combella.
- CL 319. Aristophanes. 3 hours.
Reading of The Frogs and one or two other plays. Aristophanes as a literary critic. Lectures on Greek comedy. Combella.
- CL 320. Sophocles. 3 hours.
Reading, in alternate years, of the Trojan and the Theban plays. Combella.
- CL 321. Demosthenes. 3 hours.
Reading of the De corona. Lectures on the Attic orators. Combella.
- CL 351, 352, 353. Greek Prose Composition. 1 hour each term.
- CL 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- CL 407. Greek Seminar. (G) Hours to be arranged.
- CL 411. Thucydides. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of selections from the History of the Peloponnesian War. Lectures on fifth-century Athens. Combella.
- CL 412. Aeschylus. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of the Oresteia. Pascal, Combella.
- CL 413. Theocritus. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of Theocritus and selections from other Greek bucolic poets. Lectures on ancient pastoral poetry and its influence. Pascal, Combella.
- CL 414. Plato's Republic. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of the Republic, with special attention to Plato's literary art and to his attitude toward literature. Pascal, Combella.
- CL 415. Aristotle's Ethics. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of the Nicomachean Ethics. Lectures on ancient ethical theories and on Aristotle's relationship to Plato. Combella.
- CL 416. Greek Lyric Poetry. (G) 3 hours.
Readings from the lyric poets, including some elegiac poets. Combella.

GRADUATE COURSES

- *CL 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- CL 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

* No-grade course.

- CL 507. Greek Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
- CL 517, 518, 519. Studies in Greek Literature. Hours to be arranged.
Introduction to methods and materials for research in the classics; special attention to literary problems. Study of one of the following: Homer's Odyssey, Sophocles, Thucydides, Plato's Republic, Alexandrian poetry. Combella.

LATIN

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- CL 60, 61, 62. First-Year Latin. 4 hours each term.
Fall and winter: fundamentals of Latin grammar; spring: selected readings from Caesar.
- CL 104. Cicero's Orations. 4 hours.
Reading of selected orations, with close study of classical Latin forms and constructions as exemplified in Cicero's speeches.
- CL 105. Virgil's Aeneid. 4 hours.
Reading of the first six books of the Aeneid. Practice in reading Latin hexameter.
- CL 106. Terence. 4 hours.
Reading of a representative comedy of Terence. Survey of the early Roman theater.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- CL 301. Livy. 3 hours.
Reading of Books I and II, with attention to Livy's prose style and especially his narrative technique. Pascal, Kim.
- CL 302. Virgil's Eclogues and Georgics. 3 hours.
Selected readings from the earlier poetic works of Virgil. Pascal, Kim.
- CL 303. Horace's Odes. 3 hours.
Selected odes from the four books. Special attention to Horace's employment of the lyric form to express national ideals as well as personal thought and emotion. Pascal, Kim.
- AL 304, 305, 306. Literature of the Ancient World. 3 hours each term.
For description, see page 134. Combella.
- AL 321, 322, 323. Classic Myths. 1 hour each term.
For description, see page 134. Pascal.
- CL 341. Horace's Satires and Epistles. 3 hours.
Reading of selections from the Satires and Epistles. Study of the Horatian technique of satire. Pascal.
- CL 342. Pliny and Martial. 3 hours.
Selected letters of Pliny and epigrams of Martial. Development of Silver Latin as seen in a representative prose writer and poet; the literary and historical trends in Rome of the first and early second century A.D. Pascal.
- CL 343. Tacitus' Agricola and Germania. 3 hours.
Close study of Tacitean style in the earlier works. Pascal.
- CL 345. Ovid's Metamorphoses. 3 hours.
Reading of some of the major myths. Study of Ovid's storytelling technique. Pascal.
- CL 346. Petronius' Cena Trimalchionis. 3 hours.
Reading of the entire Cena. Petronius' role in the development of the picaresque novel. Special attention to the colloquial Latin spoken by the characters in the Cena. Pascal.

- CL 347, 348, 349. Latin Composition. 2 hours each term.
Survey of classical Latin syntax; extensive practice in prose composition. Designed for majors and prospective teachers. Pascal.
- CL 361. Cicero's Philosophical Works. 3 hours.
Reading of the Tusculan Disputations and the De officiis. Cicero's role as an eclectic philosopher.
- CL 362. Lucretius. 3 hours.
Reading of Book I and other selections from the De rerum natura. Review of ancient atomic theory. Close study of the Lucretian hexameter. Pascal.
- CL 363. Catullus. 3 hours.
Reading and analysis of both the "personal" and Alexandrian poems. The political and social background of Catullus' poetry.
- CL 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- CL 408. Latin Seminar. (G) Hours to be arranged.
- CL 461. Propertius and Tibullus. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of works of Propertius and Tibullus. Comparison of the poetic styles of these two Augustan poets. Combella.
- CL 462. Juvenal. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of the selected satires. Juvenal's relation to the Roman tradition of satire. Pascal.
- CL 463. Tacitus' Annals. (G) 3 hours.
Reading of the first six books of the Annals. Analysis of Tacitus' style. His importance as an interpreter of the early empire. Pascal.

GRADUATE COURSES

- *CL 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- CL 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

THE UNIVERSITY offers on the Eugene campus a three-term prenursing curriculum to prepare students for admission to the University of Oregon School of Nursing located on the campus of the Medical School in Portland. The student enters the School of Nursing in the summer term after her freshman year for continued liberal studies and professional courses leading to the B.S. degree. The total nursing curriculum requires four academic years and one summer term for completion.

The requirements for admission to the School of Nursing are as follows:

(1) Completion of a required freshman program at the University of Oregon, or at any accredited junior college, college, or university whose program is acceptable for transfer of credit to the University of Oregon.

(2) A grade-point average of at least 2.00 for the freshman-year program.

(3) A satisfactory rating on the National League for Nursing Prenursing and Guidance Examination. This examination should be taken early in the student's freshman year; application to take the examination should be made well in advance. Prenursing students should consult their prenursing adviser or write to the School of Nursing concerning examination dates.

Initial application for admission to the School of Nursing should be made in January of the student's freshman year. A transcript showing completion of the prenursing requirements should be filed at the close of the spring term in June. Because of the professional nature of nursing and the responsibility of the profession to the public, the faculty of the school has established high standards of student selection.

The required freshman prenursing program is outlined below:

	Term Hours
Chemistry (Ch 101, 102, 103 or Ch 104, 105, 106)	12
English Composition (Wr 121, 122, 123)	9
Literature (Eng 101, 102, 103 or Eng 104, 105, 106 or Eng 107, 108, 109)	9
Social science group	9
Nutrition (HEc 225)	2
Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 121)	3
Physical education	3
Electives—Background for Nursing (Nur 121) recommended	3

For a detailed outline of the total nursing program, see the School of Nursing Catalog; copies of the Catalog may be obtained by writing to: Director, University of Oregon School of Nursing, 3181 S.W. Sam Jackson Park Road, Portland, Oregon.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSE

Nur 121. Background for Nursing. 3 hours.

The historical background of modern social and health movements; the relation of these to the evolution of nursing as a profession. Olson.

Pharmacy, Preparatory

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON offers a one-year prepharmacy program to prepare students for admission to the Oregon State University School of Pharmacy or other accredited pharmacy schools. The following courses are required:

	Term Hours
Introductory College Mathematics (Mth 104, 105, 106)	12
General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103)	12
General Chemistry (Ch 104, 105, 106, Ch 108, Ch 109)	14
English Composition (Wr 121, 122, 123)	9
Physical Education	3

The professional program in pharmacy at Oregon State University is a four-year curriculum following one year of preprofessional work.

Philosophy

Professor: B. E. JESSUP.

Associate Professors: HENRY ALEXANDER (department head), F. B. EBERSOLE.

Assistant Professors: JOHN COOK, D. S. LEVI, ARNULF ZWEIG.

Instructors: ROBERT PAUL, J. K. STEPHENS.

Assistants: J. G. ALEXANDER, J. T. ALEXANDER, R. M. DAVIS, A. DRENGSON, J. T. HOPKINS, B. J. KELLENBERGER, N. MARSHALL, A. ROSENHOLM.

THE DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY offers a major program leading to the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree. The lower-division courses in philosophy provide an introductory survey; the upper-division courses provide a more intensive study of selected philosophical problems and authors.

The minimum major requirement is 45 term hours of work in philosophy with grades of C or better, including 36 hours in upper-division courses. The 45-hour requirement must include History of Philosophy (Phl 301, 302, 303), Symbolic Logic (Phl 461, 462) or History of Logic (Phl 466, 467), and 6 hours of courses on the works of specific authors. Courses of study must be arranged in consultation with department advisers.

The department also offers a graduate program leading to the Master of Arts and Doctor of Philosophy degrees. Programs are arranged in consultation with the department head.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Phl 201, 202, 203. Problems of Philosophy. 3 hours each term.
An introduction to philosophical problems through the study of philosophical classics.
- Phl 207, 208, 209. Introduction to Philosophy (Honors College). 3 hours each term.
Introduction to the study of some significant problems of philosophy and philosophical methods; concerned primarily with topics in logic, ethics, metaphysics, and theory of knowledge. Open only to students in the Honors College.
- Phl 221. Elementary Logic. 3 hours.
An introduction to the study of reasoning. How to recognize, analyze, criticize, and construct the main types of argument and proof.
- Phl 222. Elementary Aesthetics. 3 hours.
An elementary study of aesthetic fact and value, and of the relation of aesthetic interest to other human interests, such as the moral, the intellectual, and the religious. Jessup.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Phl 301, 302, 303. History of Philosophy. 3 hours each term.
Survey of Western philosophy from the Greeks to the twentieth century.
- Phl 304, 305, 306. Social and Political Philosophy. 3 hours each term.
A survey of the major social and political theories from Plato through Marx. Inquiry into such ideas as justice, natural law, natural rights, and the social contract.
- Phl 328, 329. Modern American Philosophy. 3 hours each term.
Intensive study of selected works of major American philosophers from the late nineteenth century to the present.
- Phl 361, 362. Ethics. 3 hours each term.
Study of the most important traditional ethical theories; modern philosophical analysis of moral terms and statements.
- Phl 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- Phl 407. Seminar. (G) Hours to be arranged.
Philosophy of Mathematics. Levi.
Locke. Cook.
Philosophy of History. Paul.
Kant. Zweig.
Berkeley. Levi.
Kierkegaard. Jessup.
Wittgenstein. Cook.
Philosophy of Religion. Cook.
Leibniz. Paul.
- Phl 411, 412. Philosophy of Science. (G) 3 hours each term.
Analysis of basic concepts of science, such as "explanation," "chance," "causation," etc. Nature of mathematics and its relation to science.
- Phl 413, 414. Philosophy of Mind. (G) 3 hours each term.
Analysis of some basic concepts of psychology, such as "mind" and "behavior"; discussion of the mind-body problem and of methodological issues in psychology.
- Phl 415. Plato. (G) 3 hours.
Analysis of Plato's major dialogues.

- Phl 416. Aristotle. (G) 3 hours.
Aristotle's major writings on theory of knowledge, metaphysics, and ethics.
- Phl 417. Hume. (G) 3 hours.
Hume's writings on knowledge, morals, and religion.
- Phl 418. Kant. (G) 3 hours.
Kant's writings on knowledge, morals, and religion. Zweig.
- Phl 431, 432. Philosophy in Literature. (G) 3 hours each term.
Selective study of major philosophical ideas and attitudes expressed in the literature of Europe and America. Jessup.
- Phl 435. Existentialism. (G) 3 hours.
The basic ideas of the Christian and atheistic divisions of the existentialist movement; reading of selected works of Kierkegaard, Jaspers, Heidegger, and Sartre; some attention to precursors and to the general modern philosophical situation which negatively has generated the existentialist "rebellion." Jessup.
- Phl 441, 442, 443. Aesthetics. (G) 3 hours each term.
Systematic study of the meaning and value of aesthetic experience in everyday life and in the arts—painting, music, literature, etc. Jessup.
- Phl 452. Philosophy of Language. (G) 3 hours.
Examination of philosophical theories of language and meaning; ideals and methods of clarification; definition, analysis; philosophy as study of language. Selected readings. Ebersole.
- Phl 453, 454. Analytic Philosophy. (G) 3 hours each term.
A critical study of recent analytic philosophy, with special emphasis on the writings of the logical positivists and their predecessors and of contemporary British "linguistic" philosophers.
- Phl 461, 462. Symbolic Logic. (G) 3 hours each term.
A consideration of the critical results of mathematical logic; e.g., the completeness and undecidability of the predicate calculus, the essential incompleteness of elementary number theory, set and recursive function theory.
- Phl 465. Logical Theory. (G) 3 hours.
Formal and informal logic; proof; acceptability of logic; measuring, computing, formalizing and arguing, contradiction and paradox.
- Phl 466, 467. History of Logic. (G) 3 hours each term.
A study of writers in the philosophy of logic; e.g., Plato, Aristotle, the Stoics, Ockham, Frege, Strawson.

GRADUATE COURSES

- *Phl 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- Phl 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Phl 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Aristotle. Levi.
Metaphysics. Alexander.
Analytic Aesthetics. Jessup.
- Phl 511, 512, 513. Problems of Knowledge. 3 hours each term.
Examinations of attempts at philosophical analysis and justification of knowledge; perception, memory, induction, the self and other selves.
- Phl 514, 515, 516. Ethical Theory. 3 hours each term.
An examination of contemporary ethical theory.

* No-grade course.

Physics

Professors: J. L. POWELL (department head), BERND CRASEMANN, S. Y. CH'EN, F. E. DART,* E. G. EBBIGHAUSEN,* R. T. ELLICKSON, I. E. MCCARTHY, J. W. MCCLURE, G. H. WANNIER.

Associate Professors: M. D. GIRARDEAU, J. C. KEMP, H. W. LEFEVRE.

Assistant Professors: R. J. HIGGINS, D. K. McDANIELS, D. O. WELLS.

Instructors: J. C. BURG, R. J. HARDY.

Associate: P. V. Rao.

Fellows: C. O. CLARK, J. C. COOPER, D. D. DAVIS, K. W. DOLAN, V. O. KOSTROUN, C. J. PILUSO.

Assistants: G. A. BARNES, K. W. BATTLESON, J. L. BINNEY, S. D. CLOUD, P. DEUTCHMAN, B. D. EVANS, D. E. GILBERT, J. A. GLAZE, Q. A. HOLMES, D. T. HON, J. T. HUNT, H. D. KAEHN, D. W. KNEFF, J. W. TANIMOTO, D. W. TERWILLIGER, D. G. TONN, J. P. VANDYKE, H. S. WAFF, MINGHU WU, W. R. WYLIE, CHENG-CHIH YAN, L. H. ZIEGLER, W. M. ZINIKER.

COURSES OFFERED by the Department of Physics are planned to provide basic training for professional physics majors, for persons who wish to obtain a broad liberal arts education centered around a major in physics, for major students in other science fields, for premedical and pre dental students, and for students planning to teach the physical sciences in the secondary schools.

Preparation for Major Work. Students planning to major in physics at the University should take as much mathematics in high school as possible. Students entering with insufficient preparation in mathematics must remedy their deficiencies in elementary courses offered by the University. Substantial preparation in English and a foreign language is expected. High-school work in chemistry and physics is desirable but not required.

Requirements for Bachelor's Degree. To qualify for a bachelor's degree with a major in physics, a student must complete 39 term hours of work in the field, including General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203), General Physics Laboratory (Ph 204, 205, 206), and at least 24 term hours in upper-division physics courses including Advanced General Physics (Ph 320, 321, 322). All physics majors must complete a year sequence in differential and integral calculus and a year sequence in chemistry, including laboratory.

Students preparing for graduate work in physics should include in their programs: Electricity and Magnetism (Ph 431, 432, 433), Modern Physics (Ph 411, 412, 413), a year sequence in advanced mathematics (Mth 418, 419, 420), and at least one additional upper-division sequence in physics.

Science Group Requirement. Any one of the following sequences will satisfy the science group requirement: Essentials of Physics and General Physics Laboratory (Ph 101, 102, 103, Ph 204, 205, 206); Descriptive Astronomy (Ph 104, 105, 106); General Physics (Ph 201, 202, 203).

Secondary-School Teaching of Physics. For certification as a teacher of physics in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

* On sabbatical leave 1965-66.

For information concerning subject preparation required to meet state standards in physics and to obtain the recommendation of the University of Oregon, the student should consult the member of the faculty of the Department of Physics who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Work. The Department of Physics offers a program of graduate work leading to the M.A., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees, with a variety of opportunities for research. Some fields of current research interest in the department are the following: Nuclear physics—nuclear structure, including beta- and gamma-ray spectroscopy; nuclear theory. Solid state physics—optical and magnetic resonance properties of crystals; theory of the behavior of electrons in crystals. Optical spectroscopy—perturbation of atomic-energy levels due to high pressure and temperature.

A qualifying examination for first-year graduate students is given at the beginning of the fall term. The examination is restricted to questions in the fields of mechanics and electricity. Students who show a lack of adequate preparation in either of these fields are required to take an appropriate undergraduate course, for which no graduate credit is given.

Course requirements for a master's degree with a major in physics normally include, in addition to the substantial equivalent of the undergraduate requirements listed above: two year sequences in physics, at least one of which must be a 500 sequence; and one of the following sequences in mathematics—Advanced Calculus (Mth 431, 432, 433), seminar in applied mathematics (Mth 507), Theory of Functions of a Real Variable (Mth 551, 552, 553), Theory of Functions of a Complex Variable (Mth 554, 555, 556), Topics in Classical Analysis (Mth 557, 558, 559).

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Ph 101, 102, 103. Essentials of Physics. 3 hours each term.

Fundamental principles of physics, intended for students not majoring in science; requires less mathematical preparation than Ph 201, 202, 203. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Mth 95. Ch'en.

Ph 104, 105, 106. Descriptive Astronomy. 4 hours each term.

Descriptive treatment of both the solar and stellar systems, including the earth, moon, sun, planets, comets and meteors, properties of individual stars, star clusters, bright and dark nebulae, double and multiple stars, variable stars, our galaxy, the extragalactic system, and the expanding universe. Occasional viewing of celestial objects with a telescope. 4 lectures. Ebbighausen.

Ph 201, 202, 203. General Physics. 4 hours each term.

First-year college physics. Special section for Honors College and other superior students. 4 lectures. Prerequisite: mathematics equivalent of Mth 104, 105 or consent of instructor. Powell, Elllickson.

Ph 204, 205, 206. General Physics Laboratory. 1 hour each term.

Planned to accompany Ph 101, 102, 103 or Ph 201, 202, 203. 1 two-hour laboratory period.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

(Unless an exception is noted in the course description, general physics and calculus are prerequisite to all upper-division and graduate courses.)

Ph 320, 321, 322. Advanced General Physics. 4 hours each term.

Fundamental principles of Newtonian mechanics; brief introduction to Lagrange's equations; thermodynamics and kinetic theory of gases; introduction to statistical mechanics. 4 lectures. Lefevre.

Ph 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.

Ph 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Ph 409. Special Laboratory Problems. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

Ph 407. Seminar. (G) Hours to be arranged.

Ph 411, 412, 413. Modern Physics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Brief introduction to special relativity. The experimental foundations of quantum physics. Basic ideas and methods of elementary quantum mechanics, with applications to atomic physics. Introductory nuclear physics. Prerequisite: Ph 320, 321, 322 or consent of instructor. Powell.

Ph 417, 418. Atomic and Nuclear Physics. (g) 3 hours each term.

Atomic structure, elements of spectroscopy. Radioactivity, nuclear reactions, nuclear structure; selected topics in quantum physics. Designed for students preparing for secondary-school teaching. 3 lectures.

Ph 427, 428, 429. Electronics and Electrical Measurements. (g) 2 hours each term.

Analysis and laboratory study of DC, transient, and AC response of passive networks, and networks containing active elements such as vacuum tubes and transistors; measurement of electric and magnetic fields; use of transducers and electronic circuits for study and control of physical variables. 1 lecture; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Kemp.

Ph 431, 432, 433. Electricity and Magnetism. (g) 3 hours each term.

Advanced undergraduate study of electromagnetic phenomena, with emphasis on vector methods; electrostatic potentials by solution of Laplace's and Poisson's equations; field and potential changes produced by dielectric and magnetic materials; magnetic fields, potentials, and induced electromotive forces; steady currents and transients using Kirchhoff's laws; AC circuit theory with complex impedance; Maxwell's equations and electromagnetic waves. Prerequisite: Ph 320, 321, 322 or consent of instructor. McDaniels.

Ph 434, 435, 436. Advanced Physical Measurements. (G) 1 or 2 hours each term.

Primarily for advanced students interested in experimental physics. Selected topics in electronics and in nuclear and solid state physics instrumentation. Course material adapted to students' interests when possible. Lectures and laboratory.

Ph 441, 442, 443. Advanced Optics. (G) 4 hours each term.

Theory of optical images, aberrations; effects of apertures, optical instruments; interference, diffraction, polarization, double refraction, optical activity, dispersion, absorption, scattering, theory of reflection, the nature of light. Kemp.

Ph 444. Spectrochemical Analysis. (G) 3 hours.

Methods of excitation, qualitative analysis, photographic photometry, methods of quantitative analysis, analysis of absorption spectra, practical applications to various fields of industry and research. 2 lectures; 1 three-hour laboratory period. Ch'en.

Ph 451, 452, 453. Statistical Physics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Thermodynamics, statistical mechanics, kinetic theory; applications to gases, liquids, solids, atoms, molecules, and the structure of matter. Wannier.

Ph 471, 472, 473. Introduction to Theoretical Physics. (G) 3 hours each term.

Elementary quantum mechanics; the Schroedinger equation, wave functions and wave packets, uncertainty principle, hermitian operators, one-dimensional problems, the WKB approximation, angular momentum and spin, the hydrogen atom, identical particles, approximate methods, scattering theory, electromagnetic radiation. Prerequisite: Ph 320, 321, 322 and concurrent registration in Ph 411, 412, 413 or consent of instructor. Wells.

GRADUATE COURSES

*Ph 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.

*Ph 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.

Ph 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Ph 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Experimental Solid State Physics.
Nuclear Physics.
Advanced Quantum Theory.

Ph 517, 518, 519. Quantum Mechanics. 3 hours each term.

The physical basis of wave mechanics; the Schroedinger equation; the hydrogen atom and other problems with exact solutions; approximation methods; time-independent and time-dependent perturbation theory; collision theory; matrix mechanics; angular momentum, radiative transitions; relativistic quantum mechanics; field quantization. Prerequisite: Ph 471, 472, 473 or consent of instructor. 3 lectures. McClure.

Ph 524, 525, 526. Nuclear Physics. 3 hours each term.

Properties of nuclei; two-body problem; nuclear forces; polarization phenomena; beta decay; electromagnetic interactions; nuclear models; scattering, nuclear reactions. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: concurrent enrollment in Ph 517, 518, 519. McDaniels.

Ph 538, 539, 540. Theoretical Mechanics. 3 hours each term.

Lagrangian and Hamiltonian mechanics; rigid bodies; special relativity; canonical transformations; Hamilton-Jacobi theory; small oscillations; continuous systems and fields. 3 lectures. Higgins.

Ph 541, 542, 543. Theoretical Nuclear Physics. 3 hours each term.

Theory of nuclear reactions and their use in obtaining information about nuclear structure. 3 lectures. McCarthy.

Ph 544, 545, 546. Electromagnetic Theory. 3 hours each term.

Microscopic form of Maxwell's equations; derivation and solution of the wave equation; relativistic formulation; motion of charges in given fields; propagation and diffraction; radiation by given sources; coupled motion of sources and fields; the electromagnetic field in dense media. 3 lectures. Girardeau.

Ph 551, 552, 553. Atomic Spectra. 3 hours each term.

Relation of observed spectra to the theory of atomic and molecular structure, quantum mechanical model, electron configurations, spectral terms, Zeeman effect, Stark effect, hyperfine structure, X-ray spectra, spectral line shape; rotational, vibrational, and electronic band spectra of diatomic molecules. Ch'en.

Ph 554, 555, 556. Experimental Spectroscopy. 1 hour each term.

Spectroscopic instruments (prismatic and grating); flame, arc, and spark spectra of elements; analysis of series lines in atomic spectra; Zeeman effect, analysis of band spectra of diatomic molecules, absorption spectra, Raman spectra, and photographic photometry. 1 three-hour laboratory period. Ch'en.

Ph 578, 579, 580. Solid State Physics. 3 hours each term.

Crystallography; thermal, electrical, optical, and magnetic properties of solids; band theory; metals, semiconductors, and insulators; defects in solids. 3 lectures. Prerequisite: Ph 471, 472, 473 or equivalent. Higgins, Wannier.

* No-grade course.

Political Science

Professors: J. C. DAVIES (department head), R. E. AGGER,* A. S. FLEMMING, J. F. GANGE, THOMAS HOVET, JR., W. C. MITCHELL, C. P. SCHLEICHER, L. G. SELIGMAN.

Associate Professors: DANIEL GOLDRICH, HERMAN KEHRLI, J. A. KIEFFER, J. R. KLONOSKI, L. C. MARQUIS,† L. H. ZIEGLER.

Assistant Professors: D. J. FINLAY, J. R. FIZZMAN,* A. M. HANHARDT, JR., JOYCE M. MITCHELL.

Instructors: C. L. KIM, JOANN PAINE.

Fellows: KAREN LINDENBERG, KATHLEEN O'BRIEN, JOE PULLCRABEK, CHARLES SCHULLER.

Assistants: MICHAEL BAER, BARRY BARLOW, JUDY BERTELSON, PETÈ BULLARD, JR., WINSTON COX, DONALD CRAWFORD, RANDAL CRUIKSHANKS, JAMES HUTTER, CLIFFORD KAUFMAN, MICHAEL KING, ROBERTA KOPLIN, F. D. LAWS, JAMES MCKENNEY, JERRY MEDLER, RAYMOND PRATT, BARRY RUNDQUIST, ROLAND SMITH, MICHAEL SULLIVAN.

THE UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAM in political science is designed: (1) to provide a systematic understanding of the political process; (2) to provide a basic background to students preparing for careers in government, law, journalism, and the teaching of social studies; (3) to prepare students for graduate work leading to professional careers in political science.

At the lower-division level, the department offers three terms of work in American governmental politics (PS 201, 202, 203), with an alternative, for the third term, of international relations (PS 205), and Introduction to Political Science (PS 206, 207, 208), a year sequence concerned with basic concepts and methods.

The advanced courses offered by the department fall into three groups—(1) Political theory and method: PS 311; PS 430, PS 431, PS 432; PS 433, 434, 435; PS 456, 457; PS 470; PS 492, 493. (2) Comparative politics: PS 312; PS 330, 331, 332; PS 337, 338, 339; PS 351; PS 412, 413; PS 414, 415, 416; PS 424, PS 425, PS 426, PS 427, PS 428; PS 460, 461; PS 463, 464; PS 467, 468, 469; PS 475; PS 482; PS 483; PS 484, 485, 486; PS 487, 488, 489; PS 490, 491; PS 494, 495, 496. (3) International relations: PS 320, 321, PS 322; PS 391, 392, 393; PS 420, 421; PS 422; PS 440, 441, 442.

Undergraduate majors in political science build their programs on a base of a minimum of 9 term hours of lower-division courses in political science or Introduction to Social Science (Honors College) (SSc 201, 202, 203). Introduction to Political Analysis (PS 311), Introduction to Comparative Politics (PS 312), one term of World Politics (PS 320), and two additional terms of work in political theory are required of all majors. Courses presented in satisfaction of the minimum 36-hour major requirement must be completed with a grade average of C or better.

Secondary-School Teaching of Social Studies. For certification as a teacher of social studies in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in social studies and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, a major in political science must complete the following program, selected from the fields of history, geography, political science, economics, and sociology or anthropology, with a 2.50 GPA or higher: (1) work in political science required for a major in the field; (2) 27 term hours in history; (3) 9 term hours in a third field; (4) at least one course in each of two additional fields. The program must include a minimum of 36 term hours in upper-division courses.

* On sabbatical leave 1965-66.

† On leave of absence 1965-66.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the political science faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Master's Degree. Normally, full-time advanced study for one year beyond the bachelor's degree will prepare a student for the final comprehensive written examination for the master's degree. A thesis is optional.

Doctor's Degree. Two years of full-time study beyond the bachelor's degree is normally required in preparation for the preliminary comprehensive examination for the Ph.D. degree. During these years the student is expected to take regular courses, seminars, and reading courses to prepare himself for the examination. After satisfaction of the language requirement and the preliminary examination, the student is expected to write a thesis. For advanced studies in political science, graduate students may draw upon the resources of the Institute for Community Studies and the Institute of International Studies and Overseas Administration.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

PS 201, 202, 203. American Governments. 3 hours each term.

An introduction to the study of forms of government, public policy, public opinion, and community politics in the United States. Klonoski, staff.

PS 205. International Relations. 3 hours.

An introduction to the intellectual tools for the analysis of relations among nations; the nature of international relations, with contemporary international issues used for reference and illustration. Finlay.

PS 206, 207, 208. Introduction to Political Science. 3 hours each term.

What political science is about: its basic concerns, fields, and methods of study. J. Mitchell, staff.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

PS 311. Introduction to Political Analysis. 3 hours fall.

Theoretical analysis of political action and systems, their nature, types, and functioning. Particular attention is paid to certain processes of action, including political socialization, the distribution of benefits and costs, integration and stability. Required of majors. W. Mitchell.

PS 312. Introduction to Comparative Politics. 3 hours, winter or spring.

Analysis of major concepts and approaches in the study of comparative government and politics. Required of majors. Hanhardt.

PS 320, 321. World Politics. 3 hours each term, fall and winter.

Systematic analysis of the nature of international society, and of the motivating and conditioning factors which explain interaction among states and other international entities. Required of majors. Schleicher.

PS 322. American Foreign Policy. 3 hours spring.

Contemporary foreign relations of the United States; objectives, world and domestic factors affecting American foreign policy, governmental institutions concerned with development and execution of foreign policy, major issues and problems. Schleicher.

PS 337, 338, 339. Southern Asia in Modern Times. 3 hours each term.

The political forces, institutions, and international relations of the inde-

- pendent countries extending from Pakistan to the Philippines; emphasis on common problems and trends. Schleicher.
- PS 340. Introduction to Public Policy. 3 hours.
An introduction to policy making as it reflects the sources and means of effective political action, the political resources and patterns of power in the society. Questions of initiation and change, interest-group patterns, and modes of policy resolution are compared in various policy areas. J. Mitchell.

THE UNDERGRADUATE COURSES in psychology offered by the University are designed to serve several different objectives: to provide a sound basis for later professional or graduate training in psychology; to satisfy the needs of students, majors and nonmajors, who are interested in psychology primarily as a part of a broad liberal education; and to provide a background in psychological principles and techniques as intellectual tools for work in other social and biological sciences and in such professional fields as education, business, law, and journalism.

Lower-Division Program. The lower-division courses are intended to facilitate the several objectives of the psychology curriculum. The six lecture courses at the lower-division level are offered in pairs: fall, Psy 211, Psy 212; winter,

* On sabbatical leave 1965-66.

† On sabbatical leave, winter and spring terms, 1965-66.

‡ On leave of absence 1965-66.

Psy 214, Psy 215; spring, Psy 217, Psy 218. For a general introduction to psychology or for preparation for advanced courses, a student should take one of the courses in each pair in sequence. Psychology Laboratory is integrated with the two paired lecture courses offered each term: Psy 213 with Psy 211, Psy 212; Psy 216 with Psy 214, Psy 215; and Psy 219 with Psy 217, Psy 218.

For satisfaction of the social science or science group requirement, a student must elect a sequence including one of the two paired lecture courses offered each term. To satisfy the science group requirement, the student must also take the related laboratory courses. (A student may take a lower-division sequence in psychology to satisfy the social science or the science group requirement, but not both.)

Any one of the several patterns will ordinarily provide adequate preparation for upper-division courses in psychology. Students should consult their advisers in making their selections from the paired offerings each term.

Major Requirements. Majors in psychology are required to take at least three lower-division courses in psychology or equivalent and either the lower-division laboratory sequence (Psy 213, 216, 219) or an upper-division laboratory course. The minimum major requirement is 36 term hours in psychology, including at least 24 upper-division hours. The courses presented in satisfaction of the 36-hour minimum requirement must be completed with a grade average of C or better.

Students who do not plan on graduate work in psychology may arrange a program of courses which will prepare them for a career in teaching, social service, or other professions. Such a program should be planned in consultation with the Department of Psychology.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Preparation for Graduate Study. A bachelor's degree is seldom a sufficient qualification for professional work in psychology; even the simpler professional positions require at least a master's degree.

Students should not undertake graduate work unless their grades in undergraduate psychology and related courses have averaged better than B.

Prospective graduate students in psychology are advised to take only the minimum of 36 hours in psychology required for an undergraduate major (a suggested maximum is 42 hours)—leaving time for work in such related fields as anthropology, biology, chemistry, mathematics, physics, and sociology. Preparation for graduate work should include courses in quantitative methods and foreign languages. All prospective graduate students should take the Quantitative Methods in Psychology (Psy 313) and at least one upper-division laboratory course and are strongly urged to take at least two terms of statistics in the Department of Mathematics. A student who intends to work for a Ph.D. degree should acquire a reading knowledge of two foreign languages; languages with particular relevance for psychologists are German, French, Russian, and Japanese.

Graduate Work. The department offers graduate work leading to the degrees of Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy. Candidates for graduate work are accepted in the following fields: clinical, cognition, counseling, developmental, differential, learning, perception, personality, physiological, quantitative, and social psychology. The department maintains a general experimental laboratory, rat and monkey laboratories, a child-study center, and a psychological clinic.

All students beginning graduate work in psychology, regardless of prior graduate training, are required to take a series of core seminars (see Psy 507, below) which provide a breadth of background in psychology as well as an introduction to research. A thesis is required for all advanced degrees. Further information concerning the core program and other requirements may be obtained on request to the department. For general regulations governing graduate work at the University, see GRADUATE SCHOOL, pages 112 ff.

All students applying for admission for graduate work in psychology must provide scores on the Graduate Record Examination, including psychology, verbal, and quantitative scores (the score on the Miller Analogies Test is also desirable) and three letters of recommendation on special forms provided by the department. Detailed information on admission, including application forms and information on awards and assistantships may be obtained from the Department of Psychology.

Clinical Psychology. Although the department's clinical program stresses the model of a clinical psychologist as a producer of knowledge through research and writing, as well as a consumer of knowledge, it recognizes that many students are interested principally in applied work. The newly admitted student is not required to commit himself to clinical or any other area of psychology. Prospective clinical students should take Foundations of Clinical and Counseling Practice (Psy 530) and practicum work in the University Psychology Clinic during their first year to explore the strength of their interest and ability in clinical psychology. Formal admission to the clinical program is granted in the second graduate year, upon successful completion of the work of the first graduate year.

Beyond the core program, clinical students have great freedom in choosing a study program. Some may concentrate on physiological psychology; others find that work in anthropology and sociology will contribute more to their vocational goals. The clinical preliminary examination consists of two parts, a written and a field examination. The written examination samples personality theory, assessment and diagnostics, psychotherapy, psychopathology, and professional problems and ethics. The field examination, in diagnosis and therapy, may be scheduled anytime after the written examination is passed. In the field examination the student is required to demonstrate that he has acquired practical clinical skills in addition to his academic knowledge.

Counseling Psychology Program. The Department of Psychology and the School of Education cooperate in a joint graduate program in counseling psychology, with a degree granted in either psychology or education. Students who elect a psychology major begin with the core program and the basic course in Foundations of Clinical and Counseling Practice, and take many of the same courses offered for clinical students.

Counseling students place somewhat more emphasis than clinical students on the positive aspects of personality development from youth to old age. They may elect courses in vocational psychology and career planning, marriage and family, community organization, rehabilitation, special education, personnel relations, and other related fields. As in other areas of specialization in the department, emphasis is placed on training for research.

Practicum training is given in the University Counseling Center, Veterans Administration hospitals, and in other school and community agencies.

School Psychologist Program. A special undergraduate and graduate program is offered, through the cooperation of the Department of Psychology and the School of Education, to prepare students for positions as school psychologists. Further information can be obtained from the School of Education or the Department of Psychology upon request.

Rehabilitation Counseling. The Department of Psychology and the School of Education sponsor jointly a two-year program of graduate training in rehabilitation counseling leading to a master's degree. The program is administered through the Center for Social Service Training and Research (see page 126).

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Psy 211. Learning and Thinking. 3 hours fall.

An introduction to the principles underlying the acquisition, retention, and utilization of information and behavior. Anderson, Hyman, Leeper, Littman.

- Psy 212. Perception. 3 hours fall.
Introduction to principles and evidence concerning the way in which we sense and perceive the world around us. Attneave, Kimble, Leary.
- Psy 213. Psychology Laboratory. 1 hour fall.
Introduction to research methods; designed to familiarize the student with scientific approaches to problems in psychology. Integrated with Psy 211 and Psy 212. Psy 213, 216, and 219 must be taken in sequence. Anderson.
- Psy 214. Motivation and Physiological Psychology. 3 hours winter.
Introduction to the basic issues concerning the relationship of the brain to behavior. Special emphasis on the role of physiological factors in motivated behavior. Kimble, Leary, Littman.
- Psy 215. Social Psychology. 3 hours winter.
Introduction to social psychology as that part of general psychology concerned with how the individual behaves in relation to his culture. The features of human nature which man shares with other animals and those features which are unique; special attention to the social behavior of animals, to language and communication, and to man's attitudes towards social issues. Hyman, Runkel, Ziller.
- Psy 216. Psychology Laboratory. 1 hour winter.

- Psy 217. Human Development and Individual Differences. 3 hours spring.
An introductory survey of the changes in human behavior throughout the lifespan. Development of psychological processes in man from conception to senescence; emphasis on the origin of individual differences in the areas considered. Bricker, Schoggen, Tyler.
- Psy 218. Personality. 3 hours spring.
A general survey of principles in the development, structure, function, and alteration of adult character and personality. Davison, Leeper, Patterson, Sermat.
- Psy 219. Psychology Laboratory. 1 hour spring.
For description, see Psy 213. Integrated with Psy 217, 218. Psy 213, 216, and 219 must be taken in sequence. Anderson.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Psy 313. Quantitative Methods in Psychology. 4 hours.
Methods which psychologists have devised for summarizing, describing, and interpreting information from field observations, clinical work, interviews, sensory judgments, learning trials, tests, and experiments. Lectures and supervised workshops. Hyman.
- Psy 401. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- Psy 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
Open only to students eligible to work for honors.
- Psy 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
Open only to students eligible to work for honors.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- Psy 407. Seminar. (g) Hours to be arranged.
Opportunity for small groups of students to pursue further the subject matter of an upper-division course or to explore in depth a specific topic arising out of material covered in a course. The seminars offered vary from year to year, depending upon interests and needs of students and upon availability of faculty.
Nature of Psychological Inquiry. Hyman.
Thinking. Anderson.

Physiological Psychology. Kimble, Leary.
Child and Developmental Psychology. Bricker, Patterson, Schoggen.
Motivation. Littman.
Learning. Anderson, Leeper.
Perception. Attneave.
Social Psychology. Hyman, Sermat, Ziller.
- Psy 417, 418. Laboratory in Advanced Psychological Statistics. (G) 1 hour each term.
Designed to familiarize the student with the principal applications of statistical methods in psychological research. Emphasis on correlational methods, including partial and multiple correlation, analysis of variance, and design of experiments. Prerequisite: enrollment in Mth 426, 427 or completion of this sequence or equivalent. Fagot.
- Psy 421. Principles and Methods of Psychological Assessment. (g) 3 hours.
Application of psychological methods to the study of the individual; theoretical and statistical rationale of test construction and interpretation; problems involved in the prediction of human behavior; survey of psychological assessment techniques. Prerequisite: Psy 313 or Mth 425, or equivalent. Davison, Goldberg.
- Psy 436. Character and Personality. (g) 3 hours.
An intensive study of selected topics in personality theory and related research. Prerequisites: 9 hours in psychology or consent of instructor. Breger, Davison, Leeper, Sermat.
- Psy 437. Social Psychology. (g) 3 hours.
The relationship of the individual to his social environment, especially in his participation in small groups; social perception and motivation as shown in the acquaintance process, power and dependence, roles in the group, and the part played by the group in attitude change. Materials and issues treated in terms of basic psychological concepts. Hyman, Runkel, Ziller.
- Psy 439. Somatopsychology. (G) 3 hours.
Psychological effects of marked physical deviations, including physical disability and chronic illness. Application of basic principles of motivation, perception, learning, socialization, and adjustment to the behavior and situations of disabled persons. Prerequisite: 9 hours in psychology. Schoggen.
- Psy 441. Group and Individual Differences. (G) 3 hours.
Basic principles for quantitative assessment of human characteristics; research findings concerning intelligence, achievement, aptitudes, interests, and personality; group differences related to sex, age, social class, race, nationality. Psy 313 or equivalent recommended as preparation for this course. Tyler.
- Psy 449. Occupational Choice and Psychology of Careers. (g) 3 hours.
Theories of occupational choice and their importance for the theory of counseling; factors related to vocational development and the patterning of careers; sources of vocational information, and its evaluation and uses in educational counseling situations. Tyler.
- Psy 450. Abnormal Psychology. (g) 3 hours.
Various forms of unusual behavior, including anxiety states, hysteria, hypnotic phenomena, and psychoses. Normal motives and adjustments considered in their exaggerations in the so-called neurotic person. Psy 313 is recommended as preparation for this course. Fosmire, Patterson.
- Psy 451. Physiological Psychology. (g) 3 hours.
Study of relationships between nervous system functions and behavior. Emphasis on neuropsychological analysis of stimulus processing, motivation, learning. Kimble, Leary.

Psy 460. Developmental Psychology. (g) 3 hours.

Study of the development of behavior and psychological activity through the prenatal period, infancy, childhood, adolescence. Topics include development of language and cognition, socialization, emotional development, and the development of motor capabilities. Emphasis on social influences. Bricker, Patterson, Schoggen.

Psy 465. Motivation. (g) 3 hours.

Conceptions of motivation; human and animal research on instinct, arousal, motivational physiology, learned motives, conflict and stress, and organization of dispositions. Leeper, Littman.

Psy 470. Animal Psychology. (g) 3 hours.

Survey of learning, motivation, and perception in selected species of animals; phylogenetic comparison and the modern viewpoint. Concurrent enrollment in Psy 471 normally required. Kimble, Leary.

Psy 471. Laboratory in Animal Psychology. (g) 2 hours.

Laboratory experience with rats and monkeys. Prerequisite: Psy 313. Kimble, Leary.

Psy 490. Psychology of Learning. (g) 3 hours.

Survey of fundamental concepts of conditioning, rote learning, discrimination, problem solving, memory, and motor skill. Theory and experimental literature. Psy 313 strongly recommended as preparation for this course. Anderson, Leeper, Littman.

Psy 491. Laboratory in Learning. (g) 2 hours.

Laboratory work in design, conduct, and analysis of experiments in learning. Prerequisite: Psy 313. Anderson.

Psy 492. Psychology of Perception. (g) 3 hours.

Survey of fundamental concepts of vision, audition, somesthesia, etc. Psychophysiological factors and psychophysical methodology. Psy 313 strongly recommended as preparation. Attneave, Kimble.

Psy 493. Laboratory in Perception. (g) 2 hours.

Laboratory work in design, conduct, and analysis of experiments in perception. Prerequisite: Psy 313. Attneave.

- Psy 545. Theory and Construction of Tests. 3 hours.
Basic theory of test scores; reliability and validity of tests; methods of standardizing and equating test scores; problems of norms and units; weighting and differential prediction; item analysis. Prerequisite: Mth 426 or equivalent. Fagot.
- Psy 546. Factor Analysis. 3 hours.
Systematic and critical development of the theory of factor analysis; applications in psychology. Prerequisite: Mth 426 or equivalent. Fagot.
- Psy 560. Advanced Physiological Psychology. 3 hours.
Theory of nervous-system function in learning, motivation, and perception. Detailed study of special areas. Kimble.
- Psy 566. Advanced Psychology of Perception. 3 hours.
Basic problems and phenomena of perception. Attneave.
- Psy 570. Advanced Animal Psychology. 3 hours.
Special topics in animal learning, motivation, and species comparison. Leary.
- Psy 572, 573, 574. Advanced Psychology of Learning and Thinking. 3 hours each term.
Detailed study of special topics in learning, thinking and problem solving. Anderson, Leary, Leeper, Littman.

Religious Studies

Professor: P. B. MEANS (emeritus).
Associate Professor: DOUGLAS STRATON (department head).
Assistant Professor: ALFRED BLOOM.

THE DEPARTMENT OF RELIGIOUS STUDIES is nonsectarian in spirit, the aim being to acquaint students with the far-reaching influence of religion in the cultural history of the world. Its courses are planned in accordance with the same standards of authoritative scholarship recognized in other departments of the University.

Through these courses, the University seeks to develop an understanding of the nature and processes of religious thought and experience, and to relate these to the problems of our time. The courses are also intended to meet the needs of students whose major work in other fields fits them for positions of leadership, and who can become effective and influential in the religious and spiritual life of their communities through a better understanding of the power of religion in men's lives and in the destiny of civilization.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- *R 201, 202, 203. Great Religions of the World. 3 hours each term.
Study of the Hindu-Buddhist, Confucian-Taoist, Zoroastrian, Judeo-Christian, and Islamic philosophic and religious systems. Special attention to the philosophy of these religions as shown in their classic scriptures; concluding resumé of their present organization and major sectarian divergencies; analysis of their world views and conceptions of God, man, ethics, human destiny, and salvation. Must be taken in sequence.
- R 224, 225, 226. The Bible and Civilization. 3 hours each term.

SOCIOLOGY is the analytical study of the development, structure, and function of human groups and societies. It is concerned with the scientific understanding of human behavior as it relates to, and is a consequence of, interaction within groups.

The undergraduate program in sociology at the University is designed: (1) to prepare students for graduate work leading to professional careers in the field; (2) to provide a basic background for those preparing for careers in personnel work, journalism, organizational management, social work and public welfare, city and regional planning, teaching of social studies, and research in human relations; and (3) to provide a scientific basis, in knowledge and understanding, for constructive adult citizenship.

Alpha Kappa Delta, a national sociology honorary society, has a chapter on the University campus; all students who have had at least 15 term hours of work in sociology with a grade-point average of 3.00 or higher and a general scholastic average of 3.00 or higher are eligible for membership.

Interested sophomores and juniors should inquire about the availability of undergraduate research participation fellowships.

Brochures describing the undergraduate program in sociology are available in the department office on request.

Requirements for Bachelor's Degree. Candidates for the bachelor's degree with a major in sociology must satisfy all general requirements of the University and the College of Liberal Arts and complete the following required courses in sociology:

	Term Hours
General Sociology (Soc 204, 205, 206).....	9
Introduction to Social Research (Soc 311).....	3
Social Psychology (Soc 334).....	3
Development of Sociology (Soc 470).....	3
Any two of the following: American Society (Soc 301), World Population and Social Structure (Soc 303), The Community (Soc 304), Contemporary Social Problems (Soc 305)	6

Majors in sociology are required to complete a minimum of 42 hours in sociology; not more than 54 hours in sociology may be counted toward a bachelor's degree.

A grade-point average of 2.00 or higher in all sociology courses is required for graduation with a major in sociology.

Secondary-School Teaching of Social Studies. For certification as a teacher of social studies in Oregon high schools, The Oregon Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in social studies and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, a major in sociology must complete the following program, selected from the fields of history, geography, political science, economics, and sociology or anthropology, with a 2.50 GPA or higher: (1) work in sociology required for a major in the field; (2) 27 term hours in history; (3) 9 term hours in a third field; (4) at least one course in each of two additional fields. The program must include a minimum of 36 term hours in upper-division courses.

For further information, the student should consult the member of the sociology faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Undergraduate Concentration in Social Work. The department offers two sequences of special value for undergraduate students who are interested in careers in social welfare: The Social Welfare Institution (Soc 467, 468, 469) and Principles and Concepts of Social Work (Soc 425, 426). A strong background in several of the social sciences is recommended for all students interested in careers in social welfare.

The department does not offer graduate study in social work; students interested in graduate work in the field may consult the School of Social Work, Portland State College.

Areas of Study. The department offers introductory courses in General Sociology (Soc 204, 205, 206) and Principles of Sociology (Soc 300), and specialized upper-division and graduate courses in the following broad areas:

Methodology. Introduction to Social Research (Soc 311); Sociological Research Methods (Soc 411, 412, 413); Theory and Methods in Population and Ecology (Soc 415); Experimental Sociology (Soc 518).

Social Welfare and Social Work. The Social Welfare Institution (Soc 467, 468, 469); Principles and Concepts of Social Work (Soc 425, 426).

Social Psychology. Social Psychology (Soc 334, 335); Marriage and the Family (Soc 338); Theory of Small Groups (Soc 430); Group Dynamics (Soc 431); Collective Behavior (Soc 436); Social Psychology of the Family (Soc 438); Analytical Problems in Social Psychology (Soc 530); Propaganda and Social Control (Soc 532); Social Movements (Soc 537).

Social Structures and Processes. American Society (Soc 301); Social Organization (Soc 342, 343); World Population and Social Structure (Soc 303); The Community (Soc 304); Contemporary Social Problems (Soc 305); Criminology and Delinquency (Soc 440, 441); Urbanization and the City (Soc 442); Social Control (Soc 443); Social Stratification (Soc 451, 452); Sociology of Race Relations (Soc 445); Sociology of Work (Soc 446); Industrial Sociology (Soc 447); Sociology of Occupations (Soc 448); Social Change (Soc 449); Analytical Problems in Social Structures and Processes (Soc 540); Theory of Organization (Soc 541); Power and Influence in Society and Community (Soc 542).

Social Institutions. Social Institutions (Soc 460); Sociology of Religion (Soc 461); Sociology of the Family (Soc 462); Social Psychology of the Family (Soc 438); Political Sociology (Soc 465); Analytical Problems in Social Institutions (Soc 560); Values and Social Structure (Soc 561).

General Theory. Development of Sociology (Soc 470); Analytical Problems in Sociological Theory (Soc 570); History of Social Thought (Soc 571); Development of American Sociology (Soc 572); Contemporary Sociology (Soc 573); Theory Building in Sociology (Soc 575).

Graduate Work. The graduate program of the Department of Sociology, leading to the M.A., M.S., and Ph.D. degrees, is an intensive program designed to train professional sociologists for teaching, research, and administrative posts in sociology and related fields. Most candidates for the Ph.D. degree first obtain a master's degree, but occasionally qualified students who have completed one year of work in residence are permitted to develop programs leading directly to the Ph.D.

Students are not advised to seek an advanced degree in sociology unless they have achieved a grade-point average of 3.00 or better in their undergraduate work in the field; students whose undergraduate major has been in another field should have a grade-point average of 3.00 in all social science courses taken.

Early in their undergraduate years, students interested in graduate work in preparation for careers as professional sociologists should consult an adviser in the department concerning the department's undergraduate preparatory program for research and teaching. Requirements include: (1) satisfaction of the language requirement for the B.A. degree; (2) a year sequence in mathematics; (3) at least one upper-division year sequence in two of the following fields—anthropology, economics, political science, psychology.

Although the department accepts students who are interested only in the master's degree, its program is primarily intended for doctoral candidates. All students of good academic ability are encouraged to follow a course of study leading to the Ph.D. degree.

The Department of Sociology offers graduate study in four broad areas of concentration: theory and methodology, social psychology, social structures and processes, and social institutions. Theory and methodology are combined to insure that no student may concentrate in one without preparation in the other.

A core program, required of every graduate student, is provided in each of these broad areas. The graduate core courses are open only to students who have been accepted as candidates for an advanced degree. The core courses with their prerequisites insure that every graduate student will have at least a minimum exposure to the subject matter of each of the general areas. The doctoral candidate, in consultation with his adviser, selects a field of specialization within one of the four core areas; in his specialized field he is expected to achieve a high level of competence through an intensive program of study culminating in the doctoral dissertation.

The department offers two programs leading to the master's degree. One program, leading to the M.A. degree, is designed as a stepping stone to the Ph.D. degree. The other leads to a terminal master's degree for students preparing to enter professional positions other than college or university teaching or research. No thesis is required in the latter program.

Candidates for the doctor's degree must demonstrate clearly their basic and serious commitment to a professional career in the social sciences, with particular emphasis on sociology. The doctoral candidate's dissertation must embody the results of research and show evidence of originality and ability in independent investigation. It is recommended that work on the dissertation be begun early in the doctoral program, so that the candidate's research experience will be an integral part of his total program of study.

A broad range of research is carried on by members of the staff. Graduate students often have opportunities to participate in planning and carrying out research projects. Graduate awards of various kinds are available for well qualified students. Emphasis is placed on close working relationships between students and faculty.

A brochure describing the graduate program in sociology in more detail and specifying the materials that must be submitted with applications for admission may be obtained from the department. All application material must be submitted at least two months before the student plans to begin graduate work; students wishing to apply for graduate assistantships must submit these materials by March 1.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Soc 204, 205, 206. General Sociology. 3 hours each term.

Introduction to the sociological perspective; basic findings regarding the development, structure, and function of human groups and societies, with emphasis on the descriptive comparison of modern complex societies.

THE DEPARTMENT OF SPEECH offers major curricula leading to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, Master of Arts, Master of Science, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees, with opportunities for study in rhetoric and public address, radio and television broadcasting, speech pathology and audiology, and theater.

Work in speech is also offered for students majoring in other fields. For these students, the department directs its efforts toward two principal objectives: (1) the development of the ability to communicate thought and feeling; and (2) the improvement of powers of appreciation and evaluation in listening.

Practical experience in the various phases of the departmental program is provided through the University Theater, the University Symposium and forensic activities, the Division of Broadcast Services, and the Speech and Hearing Clinic.

In the planning of its major undergraduate programs, the Department of Speech recognizes three principal objectives:

(1) The achievement, by all of its major students, of a broad liberal education. The following major requirements relate to this objective:

(a) To complement work in the department, the student must elect courses in other departments which are of substantial value in relation to his major program, including at least 18 term hours in upper-division courses in related fields.

(b) A maximum of 60 term hours of work in speech is recommended in the student's program for a bachelor's degree.

(2) Sufficient work in the several fields of speech instruction to provide an appreciation of the different areas of communication. The following major requirements relate to this objective:

(a) The following basic courses are required of all majors: Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 121, 122); Theory and Literature of Rhetoric (Sp 301); Advanced Interpretation (Sp 311); Speech Science (Sp 371); Radio, Television and the Public (Sp 448); History of the Theater (Sp 464).

(b) A minimum of 40 term hours in speech courses is required of all majors, at least 24 of which must be upper-division courses.

(c) A minimum of 9 term hours of work in general psychology or in history is required of all majors.

(3) Concentration in at least one of the four following fields: rhetoric and public address, radio and television broadcasting, speech pathology and audiology, theater. The minimum requirements in each of the four fields are as follows:

(a) Rhetoric and Public Address: Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 123); Public Discussion (Sp 221) or Advanced Public Discussion (Sp 331); Argumentation, Persuasion, and Discussion (Sp 321, 322, 323); Theory and Literature of Rhetoric (Sp 302, 303); Classical Oratory (Sp 421), British Oratory (Sp 422), American Oratory (Sp 423).

(b) Radio and Television Broadcasting: Fundamentals of Broadcasting (Sp 241); Theater Principles (Sp 261, 262, 263) or Play Direction (Sp 364); Radio and Television Workshop (Sp 341); Radio Workshop (Sp 342, 343) or Television Workshop (Sp 344, 345); Radio and Television Script Writing (Sp 347, 348, 349).

(c) Speech Pathology and Audiology: Phonetics (Sp 370); Speech Pathology (Sp 481, 482, 483); Clinical Speech Therapy (Sp 484, 485, 486); Audiology (Sp 487, 488); Seminar: Teaching of Lip Reading (Sp 407).

(d) Theater: Theater Principles (Sp 261, 262, 263); 6 term hours selected from Production Workshop (Sp 264, 265, 266), Costume Workshop (Sp 315); Elements of Acting (Sp 251); 3 term hours selected from Technique of Acting (Sp 351, 352); Play Direction (Sp 364); History of the Theater (Sp 465).

Secondary-School Teaching of Speech and Drama. For certification as a teacher of speech and drama in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

For information concerning subject preparation required to meet state standards in speech and drama and to obtain the recommendation of the University of Oregon, the student should consult the member of the faculty of the Department of Speech who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Committee on Discussion and Debate. The national office of the Committee on Discussion and Debate of the National University Extension Association is located on the campus of the University of Oregon. The committee provides services to high-school debate leagues throughout the United States, including publication of The Forensic Quarterly and related books, distribution of discussion and debate materials, and maintenance of a forensics library.

THE BUREAU OF MUNICIPAL RESEARCH AND SERVICE carries on a comprehensive program of research and service in the field of local government. A reference library is maintained and an information service provided for public officials and civic groups on various aspects of municipal administration, municipal law, local planning, and public finance. Special studies are conducted, at the request of legislative interim committees, state agencies, and public officials, in the broader fields of state government, public finance, public law, and planning. The bureau cooperates with the League of Oregon Cities and the Association of Oregon Counties in providing a consultation service on problems related to local legislation, charter revision, ordinance codification, finances, capital budgeting, public law and general administration. A program of planning assistance to city, county, and regional governmental agencies in Oregon, authorized by the Oregon Legislature, is administered by the bureau.

Assistance is provided in conducting in-service training programs for local officials in cooperation with the Oregon Finance Officers Association, the Oregon Association of City Police Officers, and other groups.

The bureau publishes special research studies and several series of bulletins, intended primarily as a service to city and county officials in the state of Oregon.

THE SCHOOL OF ARCHITECTURE AND ALLIED ARTS offers instruction leading to baccalaureate and advanced degrees in the fields of architecture, interior architecture, landscape architecture, urban planning, drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, weaving, jewelry and metalsmithing, art history, and art education. Most art studio courses and all courses in art history may be elected by nonmajors.

Admission. The major curricula in the fields listed above are organized on an upper-division and graduate basis. Freshman students intending to major in any of these fields are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts and pursue, for two years, a program combining liberal arts courses with introductory preprofessional courses in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts.

The lower-division preprofessional courses are planned to provide continuity of training and experience in the several major fields throughout the student's undergraduate years. Educational continuity is further insured through the assignment of members of the faculty of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts as advisers to preprofessional students.

Before admission as professional majors, students are expected to satisfy all lower-division requirements of the University.

Students transferring to the University from other collegiate institutions for work in the School of Architecture and Allied Arts must satisfy the regular lower-division requirements, including both liberal arts and preprofessional requirements, before admission as professional majors. Students transferring from institutions outside the Oregon State System of Higher Education must have earned a 2.50 grade-point average for all courses for which credit is transferred. Credit may be transferred for courses that are the equivalent of University offerings; but transfer students wishing credit toward major requirements for upper-division professional work completed at another institution must first submit evidence of ability for performance at an advanced level.

Facilities. The school is housed in Lawrence Hall, named in memory of Ellis F. Lawrence, first dean of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. The building contains drafting rooms, exhibition rooms, studios, classrooms, a library, and staff offices.

The school provides desks, easels, and certain materials that are not readily available for individual purchase. Students supply their own instruments and drawing materials; these materials are obtainable from a branch of the University Co-operative Store maintained in Lawrence Hall.

The Architecture and Allied Arts Library is a reference collection of about 6,000 books, administered as a branch of the University Library.

All work done by students is the property of the school unless other arrangements are approved by the instructor.

Graduate Work. The School of Architecture and Allied Arts offers graduate work leading to master's degrees in architecture, landscape architecture, urban planning, drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, weaving, art education, and art history. Graduate programs may emphasize either creative work or technical, theoretical, and historical studies. The following graduate degrees are granted:

- Master of Architecture—for creative work in architectural design.
- Master of Landscape Architecture—for creative work in landscape design.
- Master of Fine Arts—for creative work in drawing and painting, sculpture, ceramics, or weaving.
- Master of Urban Planning—for work in urban planning.
- Master of Arts, Master of Science—for historical and theoretical studies in the visual arts or art education.

Graduate work in the school is governed by the regulations of the University Graduate School and by special requirements of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. These special requirements, which apply particularly to graduate work of a creative nature leading to the M.Arch., M.L.Arch., or M.F.A. degree, are as follows:

- (1) A student applying for admission for creative work at the graduate level must submit to the dean of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts photographs of recent work or other materials indicating creative ability.
- (2) The student's qualifying examination must include a display of creative work done both before and after admission to graduate standing.
- (3) The requirements for the M.Arch., M.L.Arch., and M.F.A. degree include the completion of a creative terminal project. The student's plan for his terminal project must be approved by his graduate committee before it is undertaken.
- (4) On the completion of his terminal project, the student must submit as a supplement three copies of a typewritten report describing the development of the project, the materials and equipment employed, and the technical procedures followed, and give other essential information bearing on the project; the report should be documented by photographs.
- (5) After the completion of the terminal project, but before his final examination, the student must install a public exhibition presenting the several parts of the project. The School of Architecture and Allied Arts reserves the right to retain any part of the material exhibited as an indefinite loan.
- (6) After the installation of the exhibition, but before public showing, the project is given a final review by the graduate committee, in the presence of the candidate. The review is accompanied by an oral examination of the candidate, which may be supplemented by a written examination.

Architecture

THE CURRICULUM IN ARCHITECTURE, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Architecture, is a five-year program. The lower-division program includes courses which provide acquaintance with the elementary aspects of architecture; these courses are organized to insure continuity with the professional work begun in the third year. The following courses are required for admission to an upper-division major in architecture:

First Year	Term Hours
Design Studio I (Arch 187)	9
Painting (Art 290) or Sculpture (Art 293) or Drawing (Art 291)	6
Mathematics	12
Second Year
Design Studio II (Arch 287)	9
Architectural Graphics (Arch 231, 232, 233)	6
Design Orientation (Arch 11, 12, 13)	0
Physics	9
Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203) or History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206)	9

Because the upper-division program is planned in continuity with the basic courses offered during the first two years, students intending to major in architecture at the University of Oregon are strongly advised to enter the University as freshmen, in order to profit by this continuous training. Students transferring from other institutions, with preprofessional preparation differing from the pattern indicated above, may be admitted to the professional curriculum upon examination. The following upper-division program is required:

Third Year	Term Hours
Architectural Design (Arch 387)	12
Mechanical Equipment of Buildings (Arch 320, 321, 322)	9
Theory of Structures I (Arch 369, 370, 371)	12
History of Architecture I (ArH 337, 338, 339)	9

Calculus	12
Theory of Structures III (Arch 472, 473, 474)	12

Graduate work is offered in architecture, leading to the Master of Architecture degree. For requirements, see pages 245-246.

The curriculum in architecture is accredited by the National Architectural Accrediting Board.

Business and Construction. Under the joint supervision of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts and the School of Business Administration, the University offers a five-year program of study for students who plan to enter the construction industry. The program, which leads to a bachelor's degree with a major in business administration, combines training in business methods and in the structural phases of architecture. For requirements see SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

*Arch 11, 12, 13. Design Orientation. No credit.

Lectures on the theory and practice of planning and design, intended to acquaint the student with the scope and nature of the design professions. Required for majors in architecture, landscape architecture, and interior architecture. Normally taken concurrently with Arch 287. 1 hour. Dole.

Arch 121. Construction Materials. 2 hours any term.

Materials and techniques of construction used in buildings and their furnishings. Materials utilized in framing, fabrication, enveloping, surfacing, and finishing. Aspects of color, scale, texture, techniques for use. Manufacture, distribution, availability, maintenance, and depreciation. Field trips, demonstrations, illustrated lectures, and laboratory investigation.

* No-grade course.

*Arch 187. Design Studio I. 3 hours each term.

Execution of design projects and exercises intended to familiarize the student with fundamental form and space concepts of architecture; development of skill in control of proportion, scale, and design relationships. Students are encouraged to develop habits of problem formulation and sound bases for value judgments; the release of the student's potential creative capacities is a primary concern of the course. Batista, Campbell, Ferens, Gilmore, Gygax, Hudson, Kleinsasser, Pease, Smith.

Arch 231, 232, 233. Architectural Graphics. 2 hours each term.

Intensive study of systems of drawing. Orthographic projection, descriptive geometry. Integration of the media and methods controlling delineation and other expressions of architectural subjects. 6 hours required for majors in architecture. Cook, Bryan.

*Arch 287. Design Studio II. 3 hours each term.

The major factors which influence design decisions; relation of the physical and human environment to design; integration of design considerations involved in the production of an art form. Required for majors in architecture, interior architecture, and landscape architecture. Prerequisite: Arch 187 or equivalent. Andrews, Cook, Dole, Hudson, Moursund, Pease, Peting, Unruh.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Arch 317. Surveying for Architects. 2 hours fall or spring.

Elements of plane surveying adapted to the needs of architects; field practice in the use of steel tape, level, and transit; determination of building-plot contours and their interpretation on plot-plan drawings; methods of calculating excavations and fills for building purposes. Quiner.

Arch 320, 321, 322. Mechanical Equipment of Buildings. 3 hours each term.

Principles of plumbing, heating, ventilation, lighting, acoustics. Prerequisite: Ph 101, 102, 103; Mth 104. Milne.

Arch 369, 370, 371. Theory of Structures I. 4 hours each term.

Application of mathematics to the design of building structures. Wood and steel construction; beams, columns, and simple frames; the relationship of structural design to architectural design. Prerequisite: algebra, trigonometry, physics. Briscoe, Peting.

*Arch 387. Architectural Design. 1 to 8 hours any term.

Exploration of the creative process in architecture through development of design projects. Methods of problem solution, visual communication; individual criticisms, review of drawings and models, group discussion, field trips. Prerequisite: Arch 287. Ferens, Gilmore, Hudson, Kleinsasser, Pease, Poticha, Stafford.

Arch 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 417, 418, 419. Working Drawings, Specifications, and Estimating. 2 hours each term.

The preparation of working drawings, including scale and full-sized details; architectural specifications; field supervision of building construction. Bryan.

Arch 420, 421, 422. Building Materials and Construction. (g) 3 hours each term.

Study of materials and methods of building construction. Contract documents and their use. Materials and labor estimating methods used by contractors and material dealers. Hannaford.

* No-grade course.

*Arch 487. Architectural Design. 1 to 10 hours any term.

Extension of creative processes; synthesis and coordination of technological, cultural, and social aspects of architecture; design projects, individual criticism, group discussions, lectures and discussions by visiting specialists, reviews of projects. Prerequisite: 12 term hours in Arch 387. Batista, Gygax, Moursund, Smith, Unthank.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

Arch 469, 470, 471. Theory of Structures II. (G) 3 hours each term.

Wood and steel building trusses, reinforced-concrete building construction; retaining walls, footings, and foundations for buildings. Prerequisite: Arch 369, 370, 371. Hodge.

Arch 472, 473, 474. Theory of Structures III. (G) 4 hours each term.

Continuous frames, rigid frames, and their effects on architectural design. A series of problems, presented in conjunction with fifth-year architectural design. Hannaford.

GRADUATE COURSES

*Arch 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.

Open only to master's degree candidates.

*Arch 529. Ethics and Practice (Architecture). 2 hours fall or spring.

Problems of professional ethics, business relations, office management, etc. Open only to fifth-year students. Hayden.

Arch 541. Architecture as Amenity. 2-4 hours.

The effect of social theory on the planning and design of buildings for human use; concepts of social amenity as a factor in the architectural environment; direct relations of the field of architecture with the humanities and the sciences. Hayden.

Arch 542. Architecture as Form. 2-4 hours.

Form and space-ordering concepts in contemporary architecture; procedures for the solution of aesthetic problems in planning and design; analysis of the morphology of building space. Hayden, Lyndon.

*Arch 587. Architectural Design. 1 to 12 hours any term.

Relation of architecture to the immediate environment and to the city-scape; analysis of determinant factors influencing planning and design. One-half of the year is devoted to the solution of problems of extensive scale and broad scope. The terminal architectural design project is executed as a final half-year problem under the direction of a thesis committee. Prerequisite: 15 term hours in Arch 487. Andrews, Dole, Milne.

Arch 599. Architecture Workshop. 2-4 hours any term.

Investigation of visual and tactile effects in architecture through experimental construction and demonstration; construction of full-scale mockups representing three-dimensional architectural space; integrated study of visual perception phenomena, light behavior, color influence, and perspective effect. Hayden.

Interior Architecture

The school offers a five-year curriculum in interior architecture leading to the degree of Bachelor of Interior Architecture. The lower-division program includes courses which provide acquaintance with the more elementary aspects of interior design, architectural design, and landscape design, organized to provide continuity with the professional design work begun in the third year. The curriculum is planned to prepare students for the professional practice of interior design.

* No-grade course.

For students who do not intend to practice professionally, the school also offers a two-year upper-division program in interior architecture, following two years of lower-division work; this program leads to a Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Arts degree.

The following courses are required for admission to an upper-division major in interior architecture.

	First Year	Term	Hours
Design Studio I (Arch 187)			9
Painting (Art 290)			6
	Second Year
Design Studio II (Arch 287)			9
Architectural Graphics (Arch 231, 232, 233)			6
Interior Design (Arch 288)			4
Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203) or History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206)			9
Design Orientation (Arch 11, 12, 13)			0

In the upper-division program, the student is assigned individual problems involving all phases of interior planning; emphasis is placed on creative development. Individual criticism is supplemented by lectures and reviews by members of the design staff. The student works in the same drafting room with the students and instructors in architecture and landscape design. The program includes field trips to acquaint the students with outstanding examples of current professional work in interior architecture. Opportunities are provided for collaboration on design problems with students in other fields in the arts. Students transferring from other institutions, with preprofessional preparation differing in some respects from the pattern indicated above, may be admitted to the professional curriculum upon examination.

The following courses are required in the three-year upper-division program:

	Third Year	Term	Hours
Interior Design (Arch 388)			12
Materials of Interior Design (Arch 330, 331, 332)			9
Ceramics (Art 255) or Weaving (Art 256)			6
History of Architecture I (ArH 337, 338, 339)			9
Liberal arts			12
	Fourth Year
Interior Design (Arch 488)			15
History of Interior Architecture (ArH 443, 444, 445)			6
Furniture & Accessories (Arch 424)			2
Custom Cabinet & Furniture Design (Arch 425, 426)			8
Advanced Ceramics (Art 455) or Advanced Weaving (Art 456)			6
History of Architecture II (ArH 437, 438, 439)			9
Liberal arts (upper-division)			9
	Fifth Year
Interior Design (Arch 588)			18
Ethics & Office Practice (Interior) (Arch 530)			2
Working Drawings in Interior Arch. (Arch 462, 463, 464)			9
Workroom Procedures in Interior Design (Arch 449)			1
Art & architecture electives (American Architecture, Background of Modern Art, or Applied Design)			9
Liberal arts			9

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Arch 223. Elements of Interior Design. 2 hours.

Introduction to the scope, aim, and techniques of interior design, intended to provide a comprehensive understanding of the professional field. Open to nonmajor students with the consent of instructor. Frasier.

*Arch 288. Interior Design. 2 hours any term.

Introduction to the field of interior design; relation to architecture and the allied arts; the basic principles of design and planning processes by which interior spaces and forms are studied and executed. Frasier, Nielson.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Arch 330, 331, 332. Materials of Interior Design. 3 hours each term.

Critical survey and study of the properties, manufacture, and application of materials used in interior design. Field trips to supply sources, etc. Open only to professional majors. Frasier.

*Arch 388. Interior Design. 1 to 8 hours any term.

A series of creative problems in interior design; intensive analysis of design; methods of problem solution; individual criticism, review of design projects; group discussion and field trips. Prerequisite: Arch 287, 288. Frasier, Nielson.

Arch 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 424. Furniture and Accessories. 2 hours.

Analysis of standard lines of furniture and accessories; emphasis on design and its development, materials, methods of manufacture and distribution; furniture construction and techniques of shop drawing. Neilson.

Arch 425, 426. Custom Cabinet and Furniture Design. 4 hours each term.

First term: projects involving the design of custom furniture, preparation of detailed shop drawings, shop procedure; second term: construction of furniture designed during first term. Prerequisite: Arch 424. Open to nonmajors with consent of instructor. Nielson, Muster, Frasier.

Arch 449. Workroom Procedure in Interior Design. 1 hour.

Technical study of old and new materials; design and installation; drawings and estimates. Visits to workrooms. For professional majors only. Frasier.

Arch 462, 463, 464. Working Drawings in Interior Architecture. 3 hours each term.

Preparation of working drawings, specifications, and estimates for materials and labor on projects in interior design. For professional majors only. Nielson.

*Arch 488. Interior Design. 1 to 10 hours any term.

A series of advanced creative design problems in interior architecture intended to develop the analytical approach; emphasis on integration with architecture and landscape design. Individual criticism, group discussions, and reviews. Prerequisite: 12 term hours in Arch 388. Frasier, Nielson.

GRADUATE COURSES

*Arch 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Arch 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.

Open only to master's degree candidates.

Arch 530. Ethics and Office Practice (Interior). 2 hours.

Ethics and office procedure for the interior designer in private practice; trade contracts, discounts, interprofessional relations; sources of materials. Frasier.

* No-grade course.

*Arch 588. Interior Design. 1 to 12 hours any term.

Professional interior design problems of increasing complexity for one-half of the year, involving collaborative problems, field trips, and reviews. A terminal design project executed as a final half-year problem under the direction of a thesis committee. Prerequisite: 15 term hours in Arch 488. Frasier, Nielson.

Landscape Architecture and Urban Planning

THE CURRICULUM IN LANDSCAPE ARCHITECTURE, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Landscape Architecture, is a five-year program. The following courses are required for admission to an upper-division major in landscape architecture:

First Year	Term Hours
Design Studio I (Arch 187).....	9
Painting (Art 290) or Sculpture (Art 293) or Drawing (Art 291), and Water Color (Art 292).....	6
Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203) or History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206).....	9
Second Year
Landscape Design (LA 289).....	2
Design Studio II (Arch 287).....	9
Architectural Graphics (Arch 231, 232, 233).....	6
Design Orientation (Arch 11, 12, 13).....	0
Surveying for Architects (Arch 317).....	2
Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 121).....	3

The program provides the student with a broad educational background, together with technical studies essential for the professional practice of landscape architecture. Courses in the field are supplemented by courses in art, architectural design, construction, and city planning. Majors in landscape architecture work side by side with students of architecture and interior architecture, and have the benefit of design criticism from the entire faculty of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts. Opportunities are provided for collaboration on design problems by landscape and architecture students. The instructional program includes field trips to acquaint students with outstanding examples of the design and construction of parks, cemeteries, airports, private properties and subdivisions, golf courses, and planned civic developments—and for study of the use of various plant materials under difficult conditions of climate, soil, and exposure.

Students planning to major in landscape architecture may obtain necessary preparation in mathematics by completing courses in high-school mathematics through trigonometry.

The following upper-division courses are required for a major in landscape architecture:

Third Year	Term Hours
Landscape Design (LA 389).....	12
Plant Materials (LA 326, 327, 328).....	9
Landscape Maintenance (LA 358, 359).....	4
Landscape Construction I (LA 360, 361, 362).....	9
City Planning I (LA 353, 354, 355).....	6
History of Architecture II (ArH 437, 438, 439).....	9
Fourth Year
Seminar: Landscape Design Theory (LA 407).....	3
Landscape Design (LA 489).....	12
Plant Composition (LA 430, 431, 432).....	9
Landscape Field Practice (LA 459).....	3
Landscape Construction II (LA 460, 461).....	6
History & Literature of Landscape Architecture (ArH 453, 454).....	6
Landscape Structures (LA 366).....	3

* No-grade course.

Fifth Year

Landscape Design (LA 589).....	24
Ethics & Practice (Landscape) (LA 433, 434, 435).....	3
City Planning II (LA 499).....	6
Seminar in Planning & Housing (LA 508) or Seminar in Planning Administration (LA 507).....	6

During the three upper-division years, the student must complete 6 term hours of work in sculpture or painting and 9 term hours in electives outside the school.

The curriculum in landscape architecture is accredited by the American Society of Landscape Architects.

Graduate work is offered in landscape architecture, leading to the degree of Master of Landscape Architecture, and in urban planning, leading to the degree of Master of Urban Planning. The graduate program in urban planning is described below.

Urban Planning. The University offers a program of graduate study leading to the degree of Master of Urban Planning, for students interested in professional careers in city planning and in the planning of other areas affected by urbanization.

The program usually requires two years for completion. It is interdisciplinary in approach, including studies in urban geography, land economics, state and local government, statistics, sociology, etc., in addition to studies in physical planning, civic design, and planning administration. A thesis or terminal planning project is required.

Undergraduate major work in architecture, landscape architecture, civil engineering, economics, geography, or political science provides good preparation for graduate study of urban planning.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSE

*LA 289. Landscape Design. 2 hours any term.

Study of the background and principles of landscape design; lectures, field trips, design of small properties. Open to nonmajors. Bochkor.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

LA 326, 327, 328. Plant Materials. 3 hours each term.

The characteristics, identification, and design uses of trees, shrubs, vines, and flowers. Open to nonmajors with consent of instructor. Jette.

LA 353, 354, 355. City Planning I. 2 hours each term.

Fall and winter: history and significance of city planning; modern achievements in zoning, housing, and city and regional planning. Spring: economic, practical, and aesthetic factors. San José.

LA 358, 359. Landscape Maintenance. 2 hours each term.

Cultivation of landscape plant materials; maintenance problems in relation to landscape architecture. Ruff.

LA 360, 361, 362. Landscape Construction I. 1 to 3 hours each term.

Elementary problems in the construction of landscape features. Lovinger, Peting.

LA 366. Landscape Structures. 3 hours.

The design and construction of simple wood and masonry landscape structures. Peting.

*LA 389. Landscape Design. 1 to 8 hours any term.

A series of problems in landscape architecture, beginning a three-year sequence of intensive study in analysis, solution, and presentation. Seminars and field trips. Prerequisite: Arch 287.

* No-grade course.

LA 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

LA 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

LA 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

*LA 489. Landscape Design. 1 to 10 hours any term.

A series of advanced problems in landscape architecture, with emphasis on broad planning problems and integration with architecture. Field trips and seminars. Prerequisite: 9 term hours in LA 389.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

LA 411, 412, 413. Parks, School Grounds, and Recreation Areas. (g) 3 hours each term.

Principles of landscape design, related to the location and development of land for school, park, and recreation uses. Topographical factors and construction and maintenance problems. Planned for students in recreation, urban planning, and educational administration. Lectures, reports, study trips, projects. Jette .

*LA 430, 431, 432. Plant Composition. (G) 3 to 6 hours each term.

Design of plantings of trees, shrubs, and flowers. Lectures, field trips, and drafting. Prerequisite: LA 326, 327, 328. Bochkor.

LA 433, 434, 435. Ethics and Practice (Landscape). (G) 1 hour each term.

Professional ethics, office management, and principles of superintendence. Cuthbert, Jette, Ruff.

LA 459. Landscape Field Practice. (G) 3 hours.

Problems in making surveys, calculating grading, road layout, and siting. Bochkor.

LA 460, 461. Landscape Construction II. (G) 3 hours each term.

Advanced problems in landscape construction; retaining walls, drainage, irrigation; specification writing. Quiner.

*LA 499. City Planning II. (G) 1 to 6 hours any term.

Urban and regional planning. Seminars, field study, design laboratory. Prerequisite: LA 353, 354, 355. San José.

GRADUATE COURSES

*LA 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.

LA 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.

LA 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Planning administration. Buford.

LA 508. Seminar in Planning and Housing. 2 to 3 hours any term.

Discussions of housing and of urban and regional planning problems, led by faculty members and consultants. Assigned reading. Prerequisite: LA 353, 354, 355; fifth-year or graduate standing; consent of instructor. Cuthbert, Hudson.

LA 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.

Open only to master's degree candidates.

*LA 589. Landscape Design. 1 to 12 hours any term.

Landscape-design problems of increasing complexity. Collaborative problems, field trips, seminars. Third term devoted to terminal project. Prerequisite: 12 hours in LA 489.

* No-grade course.

Fine and Applied Arts

Drawing, Painting, and Graphic Arts

Work in drawing and painting at the lower-division level is offered both for students preparing for advanced professional study and for other University students who wish some experience in creative work as a part of a liberal education. Sufficient studio work is provided to insure adequate technical training as a basis for an upper-division major in drawing and painting.

At the upper-division level, the special interests of students (landscape, portraiture, mural design, commercial applications, etc.) are given attention and encouragement. All teaching is through individual criticism. The student works at his easel or drawing board on his particular problem, and receives individual help from the instructor.

The following lower-division courses in art are required as preparation for a major in drawing and painting or in graphic arts:

	Term Hours
Basic Design (Art 295).....	6
Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203) or History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206)	9
Painting (Art 290)	12
Drawing (Art 291)	4
Water Color (Art 292)	2

Drawing and Painting. The upper-division major program leading to a bachelor's degree with a major in drawing and painting must include a minimum of 75 hours, normally distributed as follows:

	Third Year	Term Hours
Painting (Art 390).....		9
Drawing (Art 391).....		9
Composition & Visual Theory (Art 392).....		6
Art history		9
Art electives		6
	Fourth Year	Term Hours
Advanced Painting (Art 490).....		9
Advanced Drawing (Art 491).....		6
Composition & Visual Theory (Art 492)		9
Art electives		12

Graduate work leading to the degree of Master of Fine Arts is offered in the field of drawing and painting. For requirements, see pages 245-246.

Graphic Arts. The upper-division requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in graphic arts are as follows:

	Third Year	Term Hours
Composition & Visual Theory (Art 392), Visual Continuity (Art 493).....		12
Fundamentals of Print Making (Art 349).....		6
Calligraphy & Letter Design (Art 382).....		2
Drawing (Art 391)		6
Lithography (Art 480).....		2
Studio elective		4
	Fourth Year	Term Hours
Composition & Visual Theory (Art 492), Visual Continuity (Art 493).....		12
Fundamentals of Print Making (Art 349).....		6
Drawing (Art 491).....		6
Painting (Art 490).....		6
Studio elective		4
Art history		4

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- Art 290. Painting. 2 to 3 hours any term.
Instruction in the use of oil color, water color, and other media. Registration permitted any term, but it is desirable that the work be started in the fall. 12 term hours required for upper-division standing. Ryan, Soeder, Tetzner, Vincent, Wilkinson, Yarowsky.
- Art 291. Drawing. 1 to 3 hours any term.
Training in observation and selection of significant elements. Registration permitted any term, but it is desirable that the work be started in the fall. 6 term hours required for upper-division standing. Ryan, Soeder, Yarowsky.
- Art 292. Water Color. 2 to 3 hours.
The technique and use of water color, with special attention to its characteristics as a painting medium. Emphasis on landscape material. May be substituted for a third term of Art 291 to meet lower-division major requirement. Open to nonmajors with 4 hours of work in Art 291 or with consent of instructor. Ryan, Yarowski.
- *Art 295. Basic Design. 2 hours each term.
Studio participation exercises involving the basic principles of design; a three-term introductory sequence. Open to nonmajors. Special section for Honors College students. Foster, Ryan, Stannard, Starck, Tetzner, Yarowski.
- *Art 298. Sketching. 1 hour any term.
Sketching from costumed models, to develop ability to observe clearly and record accurately. Offered especially for nonmajor students who have had no previous training in sketching or drawing.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- Art 349. Fundamentals of Print Making. 3 hours.
Graphic reproduction and print techniques in silk screen, block printing, and photographic processes. Starck.
- Art 381. Water Color. 2 to 3 hours.
Continuation of Art 292. The technique and use of water color, with particular attention to landscape material. Ryan, Soeder.
- Art 382. Calligraphy and Letter Design. 1 to 3 hours.
Basic historical and contemporary determinants of letter forms; configuration and recognition in relation to communication problems; development of skill and expression in the formation of letters. Starck.
- Art 390. Painting. 2 to 4 hours any term.
Third-year painting. Still life, figure, portrait, and landscape; pattern and space organization; color and design studies; various media and processes. Prerequisite: 9 hours in Art 290. Vincent, Wilkinson.
- Art 391. Drawing. 1 to 4 hours any term.
Second sequence in drawing. Space and form representation; analysis and statement of form; linear and total statement; structure and movement as factors in drawing; still life and figure; use of various media. Prerequisite: 6 hours in Art 291 or Art 292. Ryan, Soeder.
- Art 392. Composition and Visual Theory. 2 to 4 hours any term.
Light, color, and design as they relate to painting problems; relationship of painting to architecture; mural design and other problems. Open to nonmajors with consent of instructor. Wilkinson.
- Art 401. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.
- Art 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Art 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

* No-grade course.

- Art 481. Water Color. 2 to 4 hours spring.
Advanced work in water color, with particular attention to landscape material. Open to nonmajors with consent of instructor. Continuation of Art 381. Ryan, Soeder.
- Art 482. Anatomy for Artists. 2 to 4 hours winter.
Study of the principles and formation of the skeletal and muscular structure of the human figure, as an aid to observation for graphic statements. Prerequisite: Art 290 or Art 291.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- Art 480. Lithography. (g) 2 to 4 hours any term.
Principles and methods of lithography; practice in all stages from the preparation of stones to the hand printing of editions. Special emphasis on the medium's contribution to drawing.
- Art 490. Advanced Painting. (g) 2 to 4 hours any term.
Advanced problems in portrait figure, landscape, and still life, in all media. Prerequisite: 12 hours in Art 290 or Art 390. Vincent, Wilkinson.
- Art 491. Advanced Drawing. (g) 1 to 4 hours any term.
Advanced work in drawing. Study of form from the figure. Prerequisite: 6 hours in Art 291 or Art 391. Ryan, Soeder.
- Art 492. Composition and Visual Theory. (G) 2 to 4 hours any term.
A study of light, color, and visual processes as they relate to easel and mural painting. Wilkinson.
- Art 493. Visual Continuity. (G) 1 to 3 hours any term.
Study of the problems of image sequence and continuity in printed material, display, photography, and film. Prerequisite: Art 295 or consent of instructor. Open to nonmajors. Foster.

GRADUATE COURSES

- *Art 501. Special Studies. Hours to be arranged.
- Art 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- Art 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
- Art 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.
- Art 580. Graduate Studies in Print Making. Hours to be arranged.
Advanced work in lithography and engraving. Black-and-white and multiple-color process.
- Art 590. Graduate Studies in Painting, Drawing, and Design. Hours to be arranged.
Work at an advanced level with problems of color and form, techniques, processes, and visual theories. Vincent, Wilkinson, Ryan, Soeder.

Sculpture and Applied Design

The program in sculpture and applied design includes instruction and major curricula in sculpture, ceramics, weaving, and jewelry and metalsmithing.

Sculpture. The degree program in sculpture is planned to provide a sound foundation for mature investigation of the practical, theoretical, and historical aspects of the discipline. The student is encouraged to take advantage of the opportunities offered by the University for liberal education, while at the same time developing appreciation and technique within the broad field of art.

* No-grade course.

In the lower-division classes, the emphasis is on elements in the language of form. Upper-division instruction enlarges upon theoretical perspectives, directing the student to personal investigations of the physical and expressive provinces of sculpture, to the study of constructive and destructive elements of light, and to the use of air as a plastic solid in equal partnership with the visible solid.

The following lower-division courses in art are required as preparation for a major in sculpture:

	Term	Hours
Basic Design (Art 295).....		6
Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203) or History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206).....		9
Elementary Sculpture (Art 293).....		9
Drawing or Painting (Art 290 or Art 291).....		6

The upper-division major program in sculpture, leading to a bachelor's degree, includes the following required courses:

	Third Year	Term	Hours
Techniques of Sculpture (Art 393).....			15
Art history			9
Advanced Drawing (Art 491).....			6
Fourth Year
Advanced Sculpture (Art 494).....			12
Seminar (Art 407).....			6
Background of Modern Art (Art 476, 477, 478).....			9

For the requirements for the Master of Fine Arts degree with a major in sculpture, see pages 245-246.

Applied Design. The University offers instruction and major programs in the following fields of applied-design: ceramics, weaving, and jewelry and metal-smithing. The following lower-division courses in art are required as preparation for a major:

	Term	Hours
Basic Design (Art 295).....		6
Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203) or History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206).....		9
Drawing or Painting (Art 290 or Art 291).....		6
Applied design		9

The curriculum is designed to acquaint the student with the general character, techniques, and materials of applied design.

The upper-division major program in applied design, leading to a bachelor's degree, includes the following required courses:

	Third Year	Term	Hours
Advanced applied design			12
Advanced studio course (drawing, painting, or sculpture).....			6
Art history			9
Art electives			9
Fourth Year
Advanced applied design.....			18
Advanced studio course.....			9
Background of Modern Art (ArH 476, 477, 478).....			9

For the requirements for the Master of Fine Arts degree with a major in ceramics or weaving, see pages 245-246.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Art 255. Ceramics. 2 to 4 hours any term.

Introduction to ceramic techniques and materials. Throwing, molding, and hand building. Surface decoration of two- and three-dimensional surfaces. Students participate in stacking, firing, and drawing the kilns. Open to nonmajors. James, Stannard.

Art 256. Weaving. 2 to 4 hours any term.

Introduction to basic weaving techniques. The dressing, care, and manipulation of several types of looms. Experimentation with a wide variety of fibers. Production of textiles of original design on 4- and 8-harness looms. Nixon.

Art 257. Jewelry and Metalsmithing. 2 to 4 hours any term.

Introduction to the handworking of nonferrous metals—copper, brass, bronze, silver, gold; practical information about making jewelry and metal objects—soldering, stone setting, centrifuge casting, forging, raising. Nixon.

Art 293. Elementary Sculpture. 2 to 4 hours any term.

Introduction to materials. Elementary considerations of form; technical and compositional exercises in clay, plaster, wood, and stone. Sections for pre-dental students and other nonmajors. Zach, Buckner.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Art 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

Art 509. Terminal Creative Project. Hours to be arranged.

Art History

THE PROGRAM IN ART HISTORY provides: (1) instruction in this basic aspect of human culture for all University students (all courses in art history are open to nonmajors); (2) the historic background in art and architecture needed in the several major curricula of the School of Architecture and Allied Arts; and (3) a core of studies for a major curriculum in the history of art.

The art-history major combines historical study with creative studio practice. It is designed to provide a broad perspective for the understanding of the art of the past and present, and a basis for critical judgment of individual works of art. The following lower-division courses are required as preparation for a major:

	Term	Hours
Elementary studio courses (drawing, painting, sculpture, or applied design).....	12
History of Western Art (ArH 204, 205, 206) or Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203).....	9

For certification as a teacher of art in Oregon secondary schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

Completion of the requirement for a major in art education at the University meets the state standards for undergraduate preparation and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon.

A fifth year of preparation is required for permanent certification in Oregon. Students working toward the completion of fifth-year requirements are advised individually concerning the selection of courses. Students completing a properly planned fifth-year program may qualify for a master's degree.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

THE SCHOOL OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION recognizes, as its primary function in the University, the provision of the broad education and understanding essential for responsible careers in the business world, in which leaders must be capable of continued adjustment to changing conditions in the firm and in the general social, economic, and political environment within which the firm operates.*

To insure such an education for its students, the school requires that undergraduate majors take one-half of their work in the liberal arts and sciences. Within the school, professional courses relate new insights and developments in the social and natural sciences to the needs of business firms in meeting their responsibilities to their owners, employees, and customers.

Although the school is primarily concerned with providing capable administrative, research, and technical personnel for business, its curricula also provide excellent preparation for careers in government and education.

The instructional program of the school is organized in two divisions: the Division of Undergraduate Studies and the Division of Graduate Studies. The Division of Graduate Studies operates under the general direction of the Graduate School of the University.

The School of Business Administration was established in 1914 as the School of Commerce; the present name was adopted in 1921. Its undergraduate program was accredited in 1923, and its M.B.A. program in 1962, by the American Association of Collegiate Schools of Business.

The following business honorary and professional societies have active chapters at the University: Alpha Kappa Psi, men's business fraternity; Beta Gamma Sigma, business administration scholastic honorary; Beta Alpha Psi, accounting; Delta Nu Alpha, transportation; Eta Mu Pi, merchandising; Insurance Society; Phi Chi Theta, business women; Propeller Club, foreign trade.

Scholarships and Awards. For scholarships and fellowships established specifically for students in business administration, see page 102. For business administration prizes and awards, see pages 108-109.

* An undergraduate program, combining courses in business and courses in a technical field, is offered at Oregon State University, Corvallis, through the School of Business and Technology. Technical "minors" are available in science, agriculture, engineering, forestry, and home economics; 27 term hours in the technical minor are required, in addition to courses in business. The Oregon State program leads to a bachelor's degree; by action of the State Board of Higher Education, graduate major work in business is offered exclusively at the University of Oregon.

Forest Industries Management Center. The major activities of the Forest Industries Management Center include instruction, research, and industry conferences. Introductory training is provided to undergraduate students interested in job opportunities in forest products companies (lumber, plywood, pulp and paper).

At the graduate level, the Center offers work leading to the M.B.A. degree with a major in forest industries management. This program, which supplements the regular core curriculum in business administration, is open to students with an undergraduate forestry major.

The education, research, and conference programs of the Center are planned and conducted with the support of executives in the forest industries of the Pacific Northwest, through the Forest Industries Management Center Advisory Committee. The current members of this committee are: James R. Turnbull, executive vice-president, American Plywood Association; Edward A. Stamm, general sales manager, Boise-Cascade Corporation; Lester E. Anderson, publisher, Random Lengths; Ehrman V. Giustina, partner, Giustina Brothers Lumber and Plywood Company; Donald S. Andrews, western manager, National-American Wholesale Lumber Association; Carl A. Newport, chief, Division of Forest Economics Research, Pacific Northwest Forest and Range Experiment Station; G. Cleveland Edgett, vice-president, Promotion, Western Wood Products Association; Leonard M. Guss, manager, Marketing Research, Weyerhaeuser Company.

Conferences and Lectures. Frequent conferences on general and specialized business problems are sponsored each year by the School of Business Administration, with the cooperation of business leaders of the Pacific Northwest. These conferences are usually open to students in the school.

Leaders in various fields of business are regularly invited to the campus to discuss new developments and professional opportunities with undergraduate and graduate students.

Division of Undergraduate Studies

THE DIVISION OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDIES of the School of Business Administration includes four departments, each of which offers several major options, leading to the Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Arts, or Bachelor of Science degrees:

Accounting and Business Statistics—accounting; professional accounting; business statistics.

Finance and Business Environment—banking; investments; finance management; international business; business economics; business teacher education.

Marketing, Insurance, and Transportation—marketing; insurance; transportation, traffic management, and utilities; real estate; business and construction.

Personnel and Industrial Management—production; personnel; management; office administration.

Degrees. The School of Business Administration offers undergraduate major work leading to the Bachelor of Business Administration, Bachelor of Science, and Bachelor of Arts degrees.

Honors: See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Admission. The undergraduate major curricula in business administration are organized on an upper-division basis. Freshman students intending to major in business administration are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts for a two-year prebusiness program, which combines liberal arts courses with introductory preprofessional courses in the School of Business Administration. The lower-division prebusiness courses are planned to provide continuity of training throughout the student's undergraduate years. Educational continuity is further insured through the assignment of members of the faculty of the School of Business Administration as advisers to prebusiness students.

Students planning to enroll in the School of Business Administration for upper-division major studies leading to a bachelor's degree must make formal application to the dean of the school after the completion of two years of college work, but not later than one month before the opening of the term in which admission is sought. Notification of acceptance will be made when eligibility has been established.

To be eligible for admission, the student must have satisfied all lower-division requirements of the University, must have maintained a C average in English Composition (Wr 121, 122, 123), and must have completed the following required prebusiness courses:

	Term Hours
*Intro. College Math. (Mth 104)	4
Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 121)	3
Business Law I (FBE 226)	3
Intro. to Business Statistics (BS 232)	3
Principles of Economics (Ec 201, 202, 203)	9
Fundamentals of Accounting (Ac 221, 222)	6

Business Environment, (MIT 125, 126) is recommended as a freshman elective, but is not required.

Major Requirements. To qualify for a bachelor's degree with a major in the School of Business Administration, the student must complete: (1) a group of core courses required of all majors, (2) the specialized courses required in one of the several major options offered by the school, (3) a minimum of 66 term hours of work in business administration after formal admission as an upper-division major, and (4) a minimum of 90 term hours in courses outside the School of Business Administration. The student must also earn a cumulative 2.00 grade-point average in business courses and a 2.00 GPA in business courses taken at the University of Oregon. The upper-division core courses are:

Junior Year	Term Hours
Organization & Interpersonal Relations (PIM 321)	3
Financial Institutions (FBE 320)	3
Elements of Marketing (MIT 323, 324)	6
†Production Management (PIM 329)	3
Elementary Inf. in Bus. Stat. (BS 333)	3
Managerial Accounting (Ac 313)	3
Business Finance (FBE 322)	3
Business Law II (FBE 326)	3

Senior Year	Term Hours
Two of the following courses:
Business Policies (PIM 453)	3
Business Fluctuations & Expansion (FBE 466)	3
Business History (PIM 480)	3
Business Enterprise & Social Responsibility (FBE 434)	3

The core courses provide all able graduates with a general education for the management of business firms and a sound management background for careers in government and education and for life in our highly competitive and technical society. The major options offered by the several departments provide specialized training for a variety of careers in business.

* Students who receive a grade of 4 on a mathematics placement test given all entering students are exempt from this requirement.

† Not required for the option in business teacher education.

Accounting and Business Statistics

THE PROGRAM IN ACCOUNTING and business statistics is designed to prepare students for professional careers in these fields and to provide all students of business with an understanding of the theory and techniques of quantitative analysis as a basis for administrative decision making.

General Accounting. The major curriculum in accounting is a four-year program designed for students who wish to prepare for a professional career in business or government service with an emphasis on accounting and quantitative analysis of business data. The major requirements, in addition to the core program of the school, are listed below:

	Term Hours
Asset Valuation & Income Measurement (Ac 350, 351)	6
Principles of Cost Accounting (Ac 360, 361)	6
Corporate Accounts & Statements (Ac 352)	3
Income-Tax Procedures (Ac 411, 412)	4
Minimum of 11 term hours selected from electives listed below	11

	30
ELECTIVES
Introduction to Numeric Computation (Mth 233)	3
Income-Tax Procedures (Ac 413)	2
Special Topics in Accounting (Ac 450, 451)	6
Accounting Verification (Ac 440, 441)	6
Management Information Systems (Ac 420, 421)	6
Taxation & Business Policy (Ac 311)	3
Economic Theory (Ec 375, 376, 377)	9
Investments (FBE 463)	3
Risk & Insurance (MIT 354)	3
Quantitative Analysis for Business Decisions (BS 432)	3
Seminar: Operations Research (PIM 407)	3
Seminar: Production Control (PIM 407)	3

All majors in general accounting are required to take one year of college mathematics during their lower-division years. Courses in mathematics of finance or similar courses may not be counted toward the satisfaction of this requirement.

Professional Accounting. A special five-year program in professional accounting is offered for students who wish to prepare for careers as certified public accountants or accounting executives. Students who satisfy the requirements of the Graduate School and the School of Business Administration may earn the M.B.A. degree at the end of the fifth year. The major requirements, in addition to the core program of the school, are as follows:

	Term Hours

Economic Theory (Ec 377).....	3
Linear Algebra & Coordinate Geometry (Mth 316).....	3
Computing (Mth 444).....	4
Mathematical Economics (Ec 480).....	3
Principles of Cost Accounting (Ac 361).....	3
Seminar: Operations Research (PIM 407).....	3
Taxation & Business Policy (Ac 311).....	3
National Income & Business Cycles (Ec 483, 484, 485).....	9

Majors in business statistics must include Business Fluctuations and Expansion (FBE 466) as a part of their senior core program.

Accounting

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Ac 221, 222. Fundamentals of Accounting. 3 hours each term.

Function of accounting as a tool for the planning and administration of organizations; primary emphasis on analysis and interpretation of financial data. First term: position and income statements, conceptual bases for collecting and presenting data, flows of cost, the accounting cycle, depreciation, formation of working capital; second term: inventory and its control, debt-equity relationships, interest, asset valuation problems, manufacturing costs. Special sections for Honors College students. Prerequisite: sophomore standing.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Ac 311. Taxation and Business Policy. 3 hours.

Designed for students not specializing in accounting. Emphasis on the impact of Federal income and estate taxes on decisions of business management, such as decisions to invest, to merge, to distribute earnings, to establish retirement programs. Prerequisite: Ac 223 or Ac 313. Lindholm, Peiterson.

Ac 313. Managerial Accounting. 3 hours.

Cost concepts and decision-making; survey of taxation for its effect on planning; break-even analysis for planning and reporting; internal control; critique of accounting reports as elements of information systems; analysis of financial reports from viewpoint of outside interests. Required of all transfer students. Special section for Honors College students. Prerequisite: Ac 222.

Ac 314. Financial Accounting Analysis. 3 hours.

Underlying concepts; preparation of financial statements from the point of view of the users of these statements. Planned for students who are not majors in accounting. Prerequisite: Ac 223 or Ac 313.

Ac 315. Managerial Accounting Analysis. 3 hours.

Uses of cost data for control and decision making, from the point of view of management; collection and transmission of quantitative information to meet various needs within the firm. Planned for students who are not majors in accounting. Prerequisite: Ac 223 or Ac 313.

Ac 350, 351. Asset Valuation and Income Measurement. 3 hours each term.

Accounting principles and procedures in asset valuation and management and in the determination of periodic income; problems of measurement and of interpretation of financial accounting data. Prerequisite: Ac 223 or Ac 313. Lunneski, Caplan, Thomas.

Ac 360, 361. Principles of Cost Accounting. 3 hours each term.

Development, presentation, and interpretation of cost information to aid management in planning and controlling business operations; methods of collecting cost information, basic principles of cost reports to management, problems of cost allocation; use of standard costs for control, various concepts of capacity in relation to overhead allocation, cost-volume relationships, variable budgeting, and analysis of differential costs. Prerequisite: Ac 223 or Ac 313. Harwood, Caplan.

Ac 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

(For 500 courses, open only to graduate students, see pages 292-293)

Ac 411, 412, 413. Income-Tax Procedures. (G) 2 hours each term.

Professional study and analysis of the Federal and Oregon income-tax structure, and of the problems involved in determining income-tax liabilities; determination of taxable income and computation of taxes for individuals, partnerships, corporations, estates, and trust; introduction to tax research. Prerequisite: Ac 223 or Ac 313. Peiterson.

Ac 420, 421. Management Information Systems. (G) 3 hours each term.

Study and analysis of information models for the management of complex organizations; secondary research on problems arising from indiscriminate mechanization of natural systems; generalized definitions of management information; adjustment to particularized definitions; total-systems flow charting; primary research into particularized information systems. Prerequisite: computer course work or experience with mechanized mass-data systems; senior standing or consent of instructor. Harwood.

Ac 430. Fund Accounting. (G) 3 hours.

Financial administration and reporting requirements of governmental and nonprofit entities, emphasizing the use of fund accounting as a basis for budgetary control. Consideration of broader theoretical aspects of fund accounting and its possible extension to profit-oriented entities. Prerequisite: Ac 313. Thomas, Harwood.

Ac 440, 441. Accounting Verification. (G) 3 hours each term.

Auditing standards and procedures observed by certified public accountants in the examination of the financial statements of business and other organizations; audit standards and objectives, collection of evidence, evaluation of internal control, problems of verification and application of procedures, preparation of programs, work papers, and reports. Prerequisite: Ac 352, Ac 361. Soha.

Ac 450, 451. Special Topics in Accounting. (G) 3 hours each term.

Advanced topics in financial accounting analysis of cash flows and the capital budgeting decision; special problems in partnership accounting; accounting reports for firms in financial difficulties; consolidated financial statements; estate and trust accounts and reports. Prerequisite: Ac 352; one year of college mathematics. Johnson.

Ac 480, 481. Advanced Accounting Problems. (G) Hours to be arranged.

Problems in professional examinations given by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants; emphasis on problem analysis and development of working papers. Prerequisite: consent of instructor. Luneski.

Business Statistics

LOWER-DIVISION COURSE

BS 232. Introduction to Business Statistics. 3 hours.

Modern business decision theory, and statistics as a tool for business decision making. Primary emphasis on statistical description (tables, charts, and frequency distributions) and the elements of probability; consideration also of modern data processing, index numbers and time series analysis (trend, cyclical, and seasonal adjustments) of business data. Special section for Honors College students. Baerncopf, Browning, Luneski, Mace.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSE

BS 333. Elementary Inference in Business Statistics. 3 hours.

Applications of statistical inference and regression analysis to business situations; sampling and its role in estimation and hypothesis testing; uses of subjective probability for business decisions; simple linear regression analysis and correlation. Special section for Honors College students. Prerequisite: BS 232. Baerncopf, Christy, Mace.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

(For 500 courses, open only to graduate students, see pages 292-293)

BS 432. Quantitative Analysis for Business Decisions. (G) 3 hours.

Personnel and Industrial Management

THE EDUCATIONAL OBJECTIVE of the Department of Personnel and Industrial Management is to provide an understanding of basic management functions and techniques in the use of people, materials, and equipment in the operation of a business enterprise.

The department offers major options in production, personnel, management, and office administration.

Management Development Committee. The School of Business Administration participates actively in development programs for industrial executives through seminars and conferences on the campus. In these programs and in the planning of the regular instructional program in management, the school is assisted by a Management Development Committee, a group of Pacific Northwest businessmen. The members of the committee are: F. O. Boylon, vice-president, manufacturing, Crown-Zellerbach Corporation; J. O. Julson, branch manager, Pulp Division, Weyerhaeuser Company; E. E. Coleman, general manager for Oregon, Hanna Mining Company; Marshall Leeper, vice-president, United States Plywood Corporation; C. E. Sheldon, assistant manufacturing manager, Aero-Space Division, Boeing Company; W. J. William, vice-president, Harry and David at Bear Creek Orchards; Warne Nunn, executive assistant to the Governor, state of Oregon; Dwight E. Haugen, president, Wedgwood Homes.

Production. The production option provides specialized knowledge in preparation for careers in production management in manufacturing, with emphasis on such areas as methods-time analysis, production control, and quality control.

The major requirements for the production option, in addition to the core program of the school, are listed below:

Master's Program

THE DIVISION OF GRADUATE STUDIES offers a two-year program leading to the Master of Business Administration, Master of Science, or Master of Arts degree. For students entering with little or no undergraduate work in business, a total of 75 term hours of work is required, including a 30-hour first-year core program, all or part of which may be waived for students who have had equivalent work as undergraduates.

Admission. For admission to the master's program, the student must satisfy the general requirements for admission to the Graduate School (see pages 113-114), and must submit an acceptable score on the Admission Test for Graduate Study in Business, a letter of purpose, and three letters of recommendation.

Graduate work taken in summer sessions before a student is admitted formally to a graduate program in business must have prior approval of the dean in order to be counted as credit toward an advanced degree.

Core Programs. The first year of the master's program includes a series of core courses and two terms of work in Principles of Economics, planned especially for students whose undergraduate studies have been in fields other than business administration. For these students, the first-year core program is required; all or part of the requirement may be waived for students who have had equivalent instruction as undergraduates at the University of Oregon or another institution. The first-year core requirement is as follows:

Master of Business Administration. The program leading to the M.B.A. degree emphasizes the development of breadth of understanding of business problems and of general management skills; the program is well adapted to the needs of students who have earned their bachelor's degree in the social sciences, humanities, sciences, or engineering.

The requirements are: (1) completion of the first-year core program or equivalent; (2) a minimum of 45 term hours, including completion of a major in a specialized area of business of not more than 18 hours. A thesis is not required; if the student elects to submit a thesis, thesis credit (9 term hours) is counted as part of the 18-hour maximum in his field of specialization.

All candidates for the M.B.A. degree are required to take a final written comprehensive examination, covering the field of specialization and a final oral examination.

Master of Science or Master of Arts. The program leading to the M.S. or M.A. degree allows more specialization than the M.B.A. program, and is especially adapted to the needs of students interested in careers in accounting, business statistics and research, and industrial management.

The requirements are: (1) completion of the first-year core program or equivalent; (2) a minimum of 45 term hours, including completion of a major in a specialized area of business, normally 15 hours; (3) a thesis, 9 term hours, in the area of specialization; (4) completion of a minor in the school or in a cognate field (minimum, 12 term hours); (5) for the M.A. degree, competence in a foreign language.

Candidates for the M.S. or M.A. degree are required to take a final written comprehensive examination covering the major field of specialization and an oral examination on the thesis.

Minor in Business Administration. A master's candidate with a major in another field may elect a minor in business administration. The minor may consist of 15 term hours in one general field of specialization. The adequacy of the candidate's preparation is reviewed by the school before admission to work for a minor.

Foreign Students. The work of foreign graduate students (other than Canadians) during their first year of residence is considered probational. A foreign student will be admitted to candidacy for a master's degree only after the faculty has had an opportunity to judge the adequacy of his background in business education, his facility in the English language, and his ability to adjust to an unfamiliar educational environment. In the program of the Division of Graduate Studies, considerable attention is given to individual student problems, and especially to the problems of foreign students.

Doctoral Program

THE DIVISION OF GRADUATE STUDIES offers a program of advanced graduate study and research leading to the degree of Doctor of Business Administration, to careers in college teaching and administration, and to responsible research positions in business and government.

Admission. For admission to the doctoral program, the student must (1) satisfy the admission requirements of the Graduate School, and (2) have the background of graduate work required for a master's degree in business administration.

Degree Requirements. Course requirements for the D.B.A. degree are not rigidly specified. The student's program of studies is developed under the guidance of an advisory committee. It is, however, generally recommended that the student complete studies in each of the following five areas: business organization theory and policy; a major functional area of business (e.g., accounting, finance, or marketing); statistics and quantitative control; advanced economic theory; a field of study other than business.*

Candidates must also: (1) submit a thesis presenting an original contribution to the understanding of the thesis subject, for a minimum of 18 term hours of credit (the student must enroll for 3 term hours in Thesis in each term the thesis is uncompleted after he has passed his comprehensive examinations, up to a maxinum of 36 term hours); (2) pass the following examinations: (a) a qualifying examination, normally taken during the student's second term of doctoral studies; (b) written comprehensive examinations, not less than one academic year before the student expects to complete work for the degree, covering the five areas of study—see above; (c) a final oral examination on the thesis.

Reading knowledge of foreign languages is not required.

Research. Doctoral candidates are expected to become actively engaged in the research program of the school. Opportunities for research experience are provided in connection with projects of individual faculty members and in the comprehensive program of the Bureau of Business Research.

Dental School

HAROLD J. NOYES, D.D.S., M.D., Dean of the Dental School.

LOUIS G. TERKLA, D.M.D., Assistant to the Dean.

EUGENE W. BAUER, B.S., Business Manager; Assistant to the Dean.

ERNEST A. HURLEY, D.M.D., Registrar.

ROBERT M. DONNELL, M.A., Librarian.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON DENTAL SCHOOL, located in Portland, was established through an act of the 1945 Oregon Legislature; the act accepted the gift of the property of the North Pacific College of Oregon, and incorporated the college into the Oregon State System of Higher Education as a school of the University. The North Pacific College was the outgrowth of the merger in 1900 of the Tacoma Dental College (founded in 1893) and the Oregon College of Dentistry (founded in 1898).

The Dental School offers a professional curriculum in dentistry, leading to the degree of Doctor of Dental Medicine, graduate programs leading to the Master of Science degree with majors in the fields of anatomy, bacteriology, biochemistry, dental materials, oral pathology, orthodontics, pedodontics, pharmacology, and physiology, and a two-year program for the training of dental hygienists.

The professional curriculum is organized to provide the basic scientific knowledge, the mechanical skills, and the clinical experience essential for competence and success in dentistry. The curriculum requires four years of didactic and clinical training, following two or more academic years of preprofessional work in liberal arts in an accredited college or university. The University offers, on the Eugene campus, a three-year pre dental curriculum which satisfies the admission requirements of the Dental School (see page 154).

Students completing the two-year dental-hygiene program may, by taking two additional years of work on the Eugene campus, satisfy the requirements for the Bachelor of Science degree with a major in health education (see SCHOOL OF HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION, AND RECREATION).

Detailed information concerning the Dental School is published in a separate catalog; copies will be furnished on request.

THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION offers undergraduate and graduate work in teacher education at the elementary and secondary levels. Instruction is also offered, principally at the graduate level, in the fields of school administration, school psychological services, and higher education. Through the Department of Librarianship, undergraduate and graduate professional education is provided for librarians, with particular emphasis on the preparation of school librarians.

The University of Oregon is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education for the preparation of elementary and secondary teachers, school administrators, and specialists in school personnel services. The council has also approved the graduate programs in these fields leading to the master's and doctor's degree.

Admission to Teacher Education. Students may enroll in methods courses in the School of Education only after they have been admitted to the teacher education program. Admission requirements include (1) at least sophomore standing, (2) a cumulative GPA of at least 2.25, (3) speech clearance, and (4) writing clearance. Further information and admission application forms may be obtained in the Teacher Education Office in the School of Education.

Undergraduate Program. In planning its teacher education program, the University recognizes three qualifications for a good teacher: (1) a broad and liberal education; (2) a mastery of subject matter; (3) a knowledge of child and adolescent psychology and an understanding of professional problems and techniques.

Students preparing for secondary-school teaching are usually required to complete their work for a bachelor's degree with a major in a subject field—taking as electives the professional courses in education required for teacher certification. An undergraduate major program in education is, however, available principally for students preparing for elementary-school teaching. The program leads to the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, or Bachelor of Education degree.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Program. Professional work in education beyond the undergraduate courses required for certification is offered principally at the graduate level. Specialized graduate work is offered in school administration and supervision, librarianship, school psychological services, curriculum and instruction, elementary education, secondary education, higher education, history and philosophy of education. Graduate work in education leads to the following degrees: Master of Arts, Master of Science, Master of Education, Doctor of Philosophy, Doctor of Education.

Special programs of graduate study are also offered toward the satisfaction of the Oregon state requirement of a fifth year of college work for the standard secondary-school certificate. The student may qualify, on the completion of the fifth year, for an interdisciplinary M.A. or M.S. in a program planned especially for teachers or for a departmental degree with a major in a subject field or in education.

Bureau of Educational Research. The Bureau of Educational Research conducts basic research in the field of education and provides consultant and field services to the schools of the state for the solution of problems related to the administration, organization, and operation of educational programs.

Affiliated with the Bureau is the Oregon School Study Council, a research and service agency sponsored by the Oregon State Department of Education, the Oregon School Boards Association, and the University of Oregon. Its program is supported by dues paid by participating school districts.

Curriculum Library. The Curriculum Library, located in the University Library, provides facilities for specialized study of the public school curriculum and for practical research on curriculum problems. The materials of the library include: (1) recent and important courses of study, units, and other curriculum materials available in the United States; (2) a comprehensive collection of elementary- and secondary-school textbooks; (3) an extensive file of standardized texts and other instruments of pupil evaluation; (4) a large collection of free and inexpensive pamphlets, maps, exhibits, and other material suitable for use in the classroom; (5) bibliographies on various phases of the public school curriculum.

Placement Service. The University maintains a central Placement Service which provides assistance to graduating students and alumni who are seeking new or better teaching and administrative positions at the elementary, secondary, and college levels. See page 88.

Teacher Education

Foundations of Education

Broad fundamental courses offered by the School of Education for students preparing for teaching and administration at all levels of education are listed below.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Ed 310. The School in American Life. 3 hours.

Elementary Education

In the field of elementary education the University offers (1) a four-year program leading to a bachelor's degree and (2) a full program of graduate work leading to advanced degrees.

Undergraduate Program. The undergraduate program in elementary education is planned to meet the requirements of the Oregon State Board of Education for a basic certificate. The program includes: (1) a broad distribution of studies in subject fields, (2) three integrated blocks of professional courses, and (3) an additional group of professional courses. The three blocks must be taken in sequence, and the instruction included in each block must be taken concurrently.

General Education Courses†	Term Hours
Arts and Letters:
English Composition (Wr 121, 122, 123)	9

Secondary Education

Under Oregon school law, five years of collegiate preparation, including specified work in education and in subject fields, is required for a standard teacher's certificate. However, graduates of accredited colleges and universities who have completed a four-year teacher-education program may, on graduation, be granted a basic certificate, which is valid for three years. For renewal of the basic certificate after three years, 24 term hours of work toward the completion of the fifth-year program are required.

The following education courses are recommended as part of the preparation of junior high-school teachers:

	Junior Year	Term Hours
Human Development & Learning (Ed 315)	5	5
Reading in High School & College (Ed 469)	3	3
Senior Year
The Junior High School (Ed 484)	3	3
Special Methods (Ed 408)	3	3
Student Teaching: Junior High School (Ed 416)	10	10
Electives in education	6	6
Graduate Year
Junior High School Curriculum (Ed 571)	3	3
Principles & Practices of Guidance Services (Ed 485)	3	3
Diagnostic Techniques in the Basic Skills (Ed 465)	3	3
Electives in education	6	6

The following education courses are recommended as part of the preparation of secondary teachers:

	Junior Year	Term Hours
Human Development & Learning (Ed 315)	5	5
Reading in High School & College (Ed 469)	3	3
Senior Year
*Special Secondary Methods (Ed 408)	3	3
*Student Teaching: Junior High (Ed 416) or Senior High (Ed 417)	10	10

* This work may be taken in the graduate year, but may not be applied toward a graduate degree; Ed 416 or Ed 417 is required for the basic certificate.

Graduate Year
Philosophy or history of education.....	3
Courses in two of more of the following fields of education: curriculum, evaluation of learning, guidance & counseling, teaching of reading, social foundations of education, education of the exceptional child, educational teaching media	12

A student who has completed the courses listed under "junior year" and "senior year," has attained adequate preparation in a subject field, has earned a bachelor's degree, and has been recommended to the Oregon State Department of Education by the University, is eligible for a basic certificate. A student who has taken part of his preparatory work at another institution, especially an out-of-state institution, should consult the School of Education concerning allowed equivalents for the satisfaction of Oregon requirements.

Before assignment to student teaching, a student must obtain the recommendation of his major school or department.

Subject Preparation. Under regulations adopted by the Oregon State Board of Education, new teachers employed in approved high schools may be assigned to teach only in those subject fields in which they have been recommended by the University as having adequate preparation.

One of the student's subject fields must be a field in which the University offers supervised teaching: art, biology, business, chemistry, English, French, general science, German, health education, journalism, Latin, librarianship, mathematics, music, physical education, physics, social studies, Spanish, or speech and drama. For specific requirements in these fields the student should consult the special advisers for prospective teachers in each field. Names of advisers are available upon inquiry at the Certification Office in the School of Education.

The University also has a secondary teacher education program that includes a period of internship. For details of this program, consult the School of Education.

Graduate Work. Most students, while meeting the fifth-year requirements for standard secondary teacher certification, find it possible to satisfy, at the same time, the requirements for an interdisciplinary master's degree or for a departmental master's degree in a subject field or in education.

School Psychological Services

THE DIVISION OF SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGICAL SERVICES offers programs leading to master's and doctor's degrees in the following areas: educational psychology, counseling, remedial education, and education of exceptional children. The division coordinates instruction and clinics in such fields as remedial education, school psychology, school and rehabilitation counseling, mental retardation, and emotional disturbance. The clinical services operate through the DeBusk Memorial Center, named for its founder and first director, the late Dr. Burchard W. DeBusk.

The program, in all of its phases, is interdisciplinary in character, involving cooperation of the faculties of the School of Education and of several departments of the College of Liberal Arts. The courses listed below are those for which the School of Education has the principal responsibility; students working in the several fields also take selected courses offered in the college.

A doctoral program in counseling psychology and two-year programs in rehabilitation counseling and in school psychology, leading to the master's degree, are offered jointly by the Department of Psychology and the School of Education. Graduate programs in speech pathology and audiology are offered through the School of Education in collaboration with the Department of Speech and the University of Oregon Medical School.

Programs of students in the Division of School Psychological Services are planned according to the student's academic background, experience, and professional objectives. Courses offered satisfy needs of students completing degree or certification requirements in elementary education, secondary education, and school administration.

In all fields, supervised practical experience is provided in schools, hospitals, mental health agencies, juvenile departments, rehabilitation centers, and other agencies concerned with learning and adjustment problems of children and adults.

Practicum instruction is organized on two levels. Students who are receiving their first experience in a field and require relatively close supervision are enrolled in Ed 409; advanced students who are able to work more independently are enrolled in Ed 509.

The programs in rehabilitation counseling and in juvenile correction are administered through the Center for Social Service Training and Research. Both programs lead to the master's degree, and normally require two years for completion. For further information see CENTER FOR SOCIAL SERVICE TRAINING AND RESEARCH, page 126.

Educational Administration, Curriculum, and Supervision

THE SCHOOL OF EDUCATION offers a comprehensive graduate program in educational administration. The program, which is accredited by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, includes two-year programs, which satisfy requirements for administrative certificates issued by the Oregon State Department of Education and the membership requirements of the American Association of School Administrators, and work leading to the Ph.D. and D.Ed. degrees.

By act of the Oregon Legislature, all persons employed in the Oregon public schools in administrative or supervisory positions must hold an administrative certificate. To qualify for an administrative certificate, the applicant must: (1) hold a valid Oregon standard teacher's certificate or an Oregon certificate based on a five-year program of teacher preparation; (2) have had five years of successful teaching and administrative experience, at least three years of which has been successful experience in some supervisory or administrative capacity; (3) have completed, for a principal's certificate, 33 term hours or, for a superintendent-ent's certificate, 45 term hours of upper-division or graduate study in educational administration in a college or university approved by the State Board of Education after earning the master's degree (this preparation must include emphasis on administrative processes such as communicating, building morale, administering change, decision making, personnel and staff relations, finance and budgeting, research procedures, school law, administrative organization for education, school building, curriculum, and evaluation, and work in the behavioral sciences and other disciplines with a bearing on educational administration and administrative problems); (4) be recommended by the college or university in which he has completed his graduate program as having the qualifications essential for an educational administrator; (5) have completed specialization requirements set by the State Board of Education.

* No-grade course.

The two-year programs outlined below meet the Oregon State Department of Education requirements for superintendent's and principal's certificates.

Superintendent's Certificate. The following program satisfies the requirements for the superintendent's certificate:

(1) Nine term hours in the following introductory courses: Public School Administration (Ed 572), Public School Organization (Ed 573), Secondary School Administration (Ed 527), or Elementary School Administration (Ed 554).

(2) Not less than 9 term hours in fields of specialization, selected from the following courses:

School Finance (Ed 575)	Seminar: Problems of Government Finance (Ed 507)
School Buildings (Ed 576)
Seminar: Advanced School Law (Ed 507)	Seminar: School Business Administration (Ed 507)
Seminar: Change & Organization (Ed 507)
Seminar: Problems of Staff Organization (Ed 507)	Seminar: School Surveys (Ed 507)

(3) Not less than 12 term hours in the field of curriculum and supervision, including the following: Secondary School Curriculum (Ed 522), Elementary School Curriculum (Ed 553), and School Supervision (Ed 574). The remainder may be selected from the following courses:

Elementary-School Problems (Ed 552)	Seminar: Evaluation of the Elementary-School Program (Ed 507)
Evaluation of Secondary-School Programs (Ed 559)	Seminar: Pupil Personnel Policies & Services in the Elementary School (Ed 507)
Secondary-School Problems (Ed 560)	Seminar: The Community College (Ed 507)
Curriculum Materials (Ed 567)	Seminar: Procedures of Classroom Observation & Analysis of Teaching (Ed 507)
Junior High-School Curriculum (Ed 571)

(4) Fifteen term hours in advanced graduate seminars, including 9 hours in: Seminar: Administrative Problems (Ed 507). The remainder may be selected from the following:

Seminar: The Nature & Problems of Administrative Behavior (Ed 507)	Seminar: The Scope & Method of the Social Sciences (Ed 507)
Seminar: Curriculum & Supervision (Ed 507)

(5) Six term hours in research methods and field services, selected from the following (3 term hours must be in field services):

Seminar: Advanced Research Design (Ed 507)	Educational Statistics (Ed 515, 516, 517)
Research Procedures in Education (Ed 512)	Research: Field Studies (Ed 501)

(6) Nine term hours in behavioral sciences and humanities, including Group Dynamics (Soc 431), and Seminar: The Humanities and Education (Ed 507) or approved substitutes.

On completion of the required course work outlined above, the candidate is given a comprehensive written examination covering the entire field of educational administration.

Principal's Certificate. The following program satisfies the requirements for the principal's certificate.

(1) Nine term hours in the following introductory courses: Public School Administration (Ed 572), Public School Organization (Ed 573), Secondary School Administration (Ed 527) or Elementary School Administration (Ed 554).

(2) Twelve term hours in Curriculum and Supervision, including: Secondary School Curriculum (Ed 522) or Elementary School Curriculum (Ed 553) or Junior High School Curriculum (Ed 571); Evaluation of the Secondary School Program (Ed 559) or Evaluation of the Elementary School Program (Ed 507); Procedures of Classroom Observation and Analysis of Teaching (Ed 507); School Supervision (Ed 574).

(3) Three term hours in research methods and field services, including Research Procedures in Education (Ed 512) or an approved substitute.

(4) Six term hours in the behavioral sciences and humanities.

(5) Three term hours in other administrative courses selected with approval of the student's adviser.

Admission. For admission to the graduate program in educational administration, the student must: (1) provide evidence of successful completion of work for the master's degree in a standard college or university, or equivalent; (2) file formal application for admission, on a form provided by the School of Education; (3) provide a satisfactory score on the Miller Analogies Test and evidence of effective ability in written communication; (4) provide recommendations from at least three persons, capable of evaluating the candidate's teaching and administrative experience, of his satisfactory professional performance; (5) present a complete program of studies for either (a) the two-year graduate program in educational administration or (b) the doctoral program in educational administration, with the approval of his adviser; (6) be recommended for admission by the Committee on Advanced Administrative Programs of the School of Education.

Approximately two-thirds of the candidate's program must be completed after he has received formal notification of admission. Candidates must have an adequate background in the foundation areas of philosophy, psychology (learning), and sociology. Deficiencies in these areas must be remedied prior to or concurrent with advanced work.

Librarianship*

Professor: C. W. HINTZ.

Associate Professors: ELIZABETH FINDLY, R. R. MCCOLLOUGH, IONE F. PIERRON, A. W. ROECKER.

Assistant Professors: HOLWAY JONES, MARGARET LANE, ELIZABETH E. MARTIN, MARY C. MEYER.

THE DEPARTMENT OF LIBRARIANSHIP offers courses designed for: (1) graduate students, who may complete a program leading to the M.A. or the M.S. degree with a major in librarianship; (2) students preparing for certification as librarians and teacher librarians in the public schools, as a part of their undergraduate program (an undergraduate major in librarianship is not offered); (3) teachers and prospective teachers who wish to become better acquainted with books and other library materials suitable for children and young people; (4) school administrators who wish to explore, from an administrative viewpoint, the place of the library in the instructional program of the school; (5) students preparing for intermediate positions in public libraries; (6) University students in general, to acquaint them with the resources of the University Library and the literature of subject fields, together with instruction in their efficient use.

Subject Preparation for School Librarians. For certification as a school librarian in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of preparation in library science and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his work in library science.

To meet the state standards and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, the student should complete the following courses in library science: Undergraduate—Bibliography and Reference (Lib 481); School Library Administration (Lib 484); Introduction to Cataloging and Classification (Lib 486); Audio-Visual Aids (Ed 435); two of the following three courses—Books and Related Materials for Young People (Lib 488), Children's Literature (Lib 490), Storytelling (Lib 491). Fifth year—Cataloging and Classification (Lib 487); Library in the Community (Lib 496); electives, 6 term hours.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSE

Lib 127. Use of Library. 1 hour any term.

Training in the use of the card catalog, periodical indexes, and reference books; experience in the preparation of bibliographies. As far as possible, problems are coordinated with the individual student's study program. Meyer.

* At its Jan. 1966 meeting, the Oregon State Board of Higher Education authorized the University of Oregon to reorganize the Department of Librarianship as a professional School of Librarianship.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

THE SCHOOL OF HEALTH, PHYSICAL EDUCATION, AND RECREATION is responsible for three programs: (1) service courses in health education and physical education for men and women; (2) intramural sports for men and women; (3) professional study, both undergraduate and graduate, in health education, physical education, dance, and recreation and park management.

* On sabbatical leave 1965-66.

† On leave of absence 1965-66.

Service Courses. Courses providing instruction in recreational skills and in the principles of physical conditioning and health are offered for all students.

The University graduation requirements for all students include five terms of physical education and a course in health education, unless the student is excused by the dean of the school.* Students may be exempted from one or more terms of the physical-education requirement and from the health-education requirement on the basis of proficiency examinations.

Courses which satisfy the physical-education requirement are: PE 180 for women, PE 190 for men; not more than 1 hour of credit may be earned in these courses in any one term. The student's program in physical education is adjusted to his needs and abilities; whenever possible, the work is adapted to remedy physical disabilities. Majors and other students preparing for the teaching of physical education in the schools satisfy the requirement with a series of professional activity courses. A student may not take a service course and a professional activity course for credit at the same time.

Both men and women students satisfy the health-education requirement with HE 150 or HE 250. Students are urged to satisfy this requirement during their freshman year.

Elective service courses (regularly scheduled classes) in physical activities are offered for juniors and seniors. A total of not more than 12 term hours may be earned toward graduation in lower-division and upper-division service courses in physical education. Not more than 1 hour of credit may be earned in any one term.

Intramural Sports. The School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation sponsors a comprehensive program of intramural sports. A primary purpose of the program is to encourage sportsmanship and friendly relations among the students of the University through athletic competition. Individual and group competitive sports for men are organized under the guidance of the department for men. The department for women provides a wide variety of sports for women students. Student leadership for women's athletics is furnished by the Women's Recreational Association.

Undergraduate Study. Undergraduate major programs are offered in the fields of health education, physical education, dance, and recreation and park management. Graduates of the school hold positions as: high-school teachers of physical education and health education; athletic coaches; directors of high-school athletics; supervisors of health and physical education; community recreation and playground directors; leaders in Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., and other youth-organization work; directors of restricted and corrective physical education; workers in the field of physical therapy; college and university teachers and research workers in child growth, health education, physical education, and dance.

Graduate Study. The School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation offers graduate work leading to the Master of Arts, Master of Science, Doctor of Education, and Doctor of Philosophy degrees.

Candidates for the master's degree may major in one of the following seven areas or in a combination of related areas: (1) administration of programs, buildings and grounds; (2) school health education; (3) corrective activities and physical therapy; (4) recreation and park management; (5) anatomy, kinesiology, and physiological training and conditioning factors; (6) morphological, physiological, and motor aspects of child growth; (7) measurement and evaluation in physical education.

Ph.D. and D.Ed. candidates are expected to concentrate in one of the following fields of specialization: (1) administration; (2) health education; (3) child growth and development; (4) corrective physical education; (5) scientific bases of physical education; (6) recreation and park management. The Ph.D. dissertation must be an original contribution to knowledge.

Advance study in dance may be arranged under the interdisciplinary master's program (see page 118).

Fees. Payment of regular University registration fees entitles every student to the use of gymnasiums, pools, and showers, to the use of gymnasium and swimming suits and towels, and to laundry service, whether or not they are registered for physical-education courses. Students are urged to make full use of the gymnasium facilities for exercise and recreation.

Facilities. The University's buildings and playfields devoted to physical-education instruction and recreation occupy a 42-acre tract at the southeast corner of the campus. The Physical Education Building provides offices, classrooms, study halls, and research laboratories for the school and gymnasium facilities for men. The building is planned especially for the professional preparation in physical education, as well as for the recreational needs of students. The men's swimming pool is adjacent to the Physical Education Building.

The women's gymnasium and the women's swimming pool are in Gerlinger Hall, west of the Physical Education Building across University Street. There are playing fields for women south and west of Gerlinger.

Adjoining the Physical Education Building to the south is McArthur Court, basketball pavilion and athletic center of the Associated Students. McArthur Court seats over 10,000 spectators.

Playing fields located east and south of the Physical Education Building provide excellent facilities for outdoor class instruction and for intramural and intercollegiate sports. Hayward Stadium, the Associated Students' athletic field, has seats for 23,000 spectators. North of Hayward Stadium are six standard concrete tennis courts. Eight additional courts are located south of the Education Building.

Institute of Recreation Research and Service. The Institute of Recreation Research and Service, maintained by the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation in conjunction with its instructional program in recreation and park management, assists communities in the development of recreation, park, and youth-service resources, conducts research in various aspects of recreation development, and provides information on research findings and nation-wide community experience as a basis for the solution of recreation problems. The Institute sponsors conferences and workshops, and welcomes requests for information and assistance from public and private recreation agencies.

Secondary-School Teaching of Health and Physical Education. For certification as a teacher of health and physical education in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation. The following programs meet state standards and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon.

Mental Health (HE 540)	3
Administration of School Health Education (HE 552)	3

Health and Physical Education. The Oregon State Department of Education has set special subject-preparation requirements for positions involving the teaching of both health and physical education. A program for the satisfaction of these requirements may be arranged with advisers in the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Physical Education

THE BASIC UNDERGRADUATE CURRICULUM in physical education, leading to the Bachelor of Science or Bachelor of Physical Education degree, provides a strong program of professional work. During his freshman and sophomore years, the student obtains a sound foundation in the liberal arts and in the sciences basic to professional studies, supplemented by introductory instruction in physical-education theory and activities. The upper-division program is devoted principally to professional studies.

The basic program is planned to satisfy the usual needs of the student planning to teach physical education in the public schools; it includes sufficient work in health education to enable him to qualify for positions which require the teaching of both physical education and health education. Modifications of this program may be arranged for students with special interests in such fields as the dance, social studies, and physical therapy. Students who elect a minor in a field other than health education are required to complete an approved program in the second field, including 21 term hours of work beyond the introductory sequence in the field.

Superior students who are interested in preparing for careers in the scientific and research aspects of physical education may arrange a program in which greater concentration in biology, physiology, chemistry, and mathematics is substituted for certain courses directly related to preparation for secondary-school teaching.

Lower Division		Term Hours
General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103)	12
Elementary Chemistry (Ch 101, 102, 103)	12
Nutrition (HEc 225)	2
Psychology	9
Introduction to Health & Physical Education (PE 131)	2
First Aid (HE 252)	3
Professional activities	12

Upper Division		Term Hours
Human Anatomy (Bi 391, 392)	6
Human Physiology (Bi 312, 313)	6
Princ. & Practices of Physical Education (PE 341)	3
Class Techniques in Physical Education (PE 342)	3
Organ. & Admin. of Physical Education (PE 343)	3
Tests & Measurements in Physical Educ. (PE 446)	3
School Program (PE 445)	3
Corrective Physical Education (PE 444)	3
Kinesiology (PE 472), Physiology of Exercise (PE 473)	6
Personal Health Problems (HE 361), Community Health Problems (HE 362), Communicable & Noncommunicable Diseases (HE 363)	9
Health Instruction (HE 464), School Health Service (HE 465)	6
Professional activities	12

Social Science Option. Majors in physical education who wish to place an emphasis on the social sciences in their studies in the liberal arts may, with the approval of the dean of the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, substitute selected social science courses for a portion of the science requirement in the basic undergraduate curriculum.

Dance Option. The dance option combines professional work in physical education with special instruction in dance and related arts. There are excellent vocational opportunities in the fields of physical education and recreation for persons whose professional training includes this instruction. In addition to the dance option, the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation offers a major curriculum in the dance as a contemporary art form (see pages 331-333).

Pre-Physical Therapy Option. Standard schools of physical therapy, which are usually operated in conjunction with medical schools, have admission requirements with strong emphasis on foundation work in the basic sciences. The sciences included in the basic curriculum in physical education, together with the understanding of body movement and exercise activities gained in professional physical-education courses, provide excellent preparation for physical-therapy training. Students interested in this work may arrange a special program, within the general framework of the physical-education major, but excluding courses especially designed to meet the requirement for a teacher's certificate.

Minor for Elementary Teachers. Majors in elementary education may, in consultation with advisers in the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation, arrange a minor in physical education, including selected theory and activities courses in addition to work required for elementary teacher certification.

Service Courses for Men

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

PE 190. Physical Education (Men). 1 hour each term, six terms.

A variety of activities taught for physiological and recreational values. Special sections for restricted and corrective work. A total of five terms required for all lower-division men students. 3 hours a week.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- PE 390. Physical Education for Junior and Senior Men. 1 hour each term, six terms.
3 hours a week.

Service Courses for Women

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- PE 180. Physical Education (Women). 1 hour each term, six terms.
A variety of activities taught for physiological and recreational values. Special sections for restricted and corrective work. A total of five terms required for all lower-division women students. 3 hours a week.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- PE 380. Physical Education for Junior and Senior Women. 1 hour each term, six terms.
3 hours a week.

Professional Courses

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- PE 131. Introduction to Health and Physical Education. 2 hours fall or spring.
Professional orientation; basic philosophy and objectives; professional opportunities and qualifications. Puckett, Schendel.
- PE 194. Professional Activities (Women). 1-2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Instruction and practice. Fall: field sports, basic physical education. Winter: tumbling, basketball. Spring: elementary contemporary dance, tennis.
- PE 195. Professional Activities (Men). 2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Methods, teaching techniques, and basic skills. Fall: fundamentals of body movement, games. Winter: elementary aquatics. Spring: track and field.
- PE 221. Games for the Elementary School. 1 hour.
Creative games, games of low organization, and fundamental sport skills suitable for elementary children. Munson.
- PE 223. Fundamental Body Movement, Posture, and Tumbling. 1 hour.
The mechanics of movement, posture, conditioning exercises, stunts, tumbling, self-testing, apparatus, and evaluation for the elementary-school child. Munson.
- PE 291. Life Saving in Aquatic Programs. 2 hours.
Basic skills of life saving in aquatic programs; leads to American Red Cross certification in senior life saving. Open to men and women students who pass qualifying tests in swimming.
- PE 292. Swimming and Water Safety Instruction. 2 hours.
Analysis, methods of instruction, and evaluation at all age levels; leads to American Red Cross certification in water safety instruction. Open to men and women students who pass qualifying tests in swimming and life saving.
- PE 294. Professional Activities (Women). 1-2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Instruction and practice. Fall: swimming, badminton. Winter: tumbling, trampoline, and apparatus. Spring: track and field, golf.

- PE 295. Professional Activities (Men). 2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Methods, teaching techniques, and basic skills. Fall: baseball, basketball. Winter: elementary apparatus. Spring: football and touch football.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- PE 341. Principles and Practices of Physical Education. 3 hours fall.
An interpretative study and analysis of the principles and practices of physical education, through their historical development and in their present application and significance. Sprague.
- PE 342. Class Techniques in Physical Education. 3 hours winter.
Organizing and conducting physical-education classes in secondary schools. Sprague, Puckett.
- PE 343. Organization and Administration of Physical Education. 3 hours spring.
Planning and organizing the use of buildings, grounds, and recreational areas for the physical-education program; purchase and care of equipment; budgeting equipment and operating costs. Sprague.
- PE 344. Administration of Aquatic Programs. 3 hours spring.
Organization and administration of aquatic programs. Open to men and women majors, and to others with consent of instructor.
- PE 361. Care and Prevention of Injuries. 3 hours winter.
Bandaging, massage, and other specialized mechanical aids for the prevention of injuries. Analysis of types of injuries; emergency procedures. Prerequisite: Bi 391, 392. Rhoda, Sigersteth.
- PE 394. Professional Activities (Women). 1-2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Advanced practice and teaching techniques. Fall: fundamental activities, field sports, or dance composition. Winter: folk, square, and ballroom dance. Spring: softball, swimming.
- PE 395. Professional Activities (Men). 2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Methods, teaching techniques and basic skills. Fall: tennis and soccer. Winter: dance. Spring: badminton and volleyball.
- PE 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
Thesis based on student's own investigation. Subject chosen after consultation with adviser. Credit determined by quality of work done.
- PE 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
Reading and assignments in connection with other courses for extra credit. Honors readings. Prerequisite: consent of instructor; approval of the dean.
- PE 406. Special Problems. Hours to be arranged.
Prerequisite: approval of the dean.
- PE 420. Methods in Elementary-School Physical Education. 3 hours.
Program development; methods of instruction in elementary-school physical education. The purposes and requirements of the elementary-physical-education program, with emphasis on program planning, methods, and materials of instruction. Munson.
- PE 444. Corrective Physical Education. 3 hours spring.
Survey of common deviations of posture and feet, functional disturbances, and crippling conditions found in school children. Consideration of the extent and limitations of the teacher's responsibility for their amelioration or improvement. Prerequisite: Bi 391, 392; PE 472.
- PE 445. The School Program. 3 hours winter.
Construction of physical-education and intramural programs, on the basis of accepted principles, criteria, functions, and evaluations; emphasis on integration with the total school program. Prerequisite: PE 341, PE 342. Sprague.

- PE 465. Football Coaching. 3 hours winter.
Systems of play, strategy, responsibilities of the coach, public relations, conference organization. Casanova.
- PE 466. Basketball Coaching. 2 hours winter.
Coaching methods and problems. Fundamentals of team play; comparison of systems; strategy; training, conditioning; selection of men for positions. Belko.
- PE 467. Baseball Coaching. 2 hours spring.
Review of fundamentals, with emphasis on methods of instruction; problems and duties of the baseball coach, including baseball strategy, baseball psychology, training, conditioning. Kirsch.
- PE 468. Track Coaching. 2 hours spring.
Principles of training; development of performance for each track event; selection of men for different events; conducting meets. Laboratory experience in PE 195. Bowerman.
- PE 472. Kinesiology. 3 hours spring
Action of muscles involved in fundamental movements, calisthenics, gymnastics, and athletics. Prerequisite: Bi 391, 392. Sigerseth.
- PE 473. Physiology of Exercise. 3 hours spring.
Physiological effects of muscular exercise, physical conditioning, and training; significance of these effects for health and for performance in activity programs. Prerequisite: Bi 312, 313. Sigerseth.
- PE 494. Professional Activities (Women). 1-2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Advanced practice and teaching techniques. Fall: basketball-volleyball officiating, intermediate contemporary dance. Winter: contemporary dance. Spring: archery, bowling, tennis.
- PE 495. Professional Activities (Men). 2 hours each term, three terms.
For professional students. Methods, teaching techniques, and basic skills. Fall: wrestling and weight training. Winter: advanced apparatus. Spring: advanced aquatics or golf, handball, archery.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- PE 408. Workshop. (g) Hours to be arranged.
- PE 421, 422, 423. Foundations of Elementary-School Physical Education. (g) 3 hours each term.
Anatomical and physiological factors basic to physical education in the elementary schools; motor-skill development in children.
- PE 424. Administration of Elementary-School Physical Education. (g) 3 hours.
Modern trends in elementary-school physical education; duties of the physical-education specialist; organization and administration at the primary, intermediate, and upper-grade levels; evaluative procedures and techniques; the role of elementary physical education in outdoor education. Prerequisite: PE 221, PE 223, PE 420, or consent of instructor. Munson.
- PE 446. Tests and Measurements in Physical Education. (G) 3 hours.
Use of tests and measurement in physical education; evaluation of objectives, programs, and student achievement through measurement techniques. Reuter.

GRADUATE COURSES

- *PE 501. Research. Hours to be arranged.
- *PE 503. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- PE 505. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
Prerequisite: approval of the dean.

* No-grade course.

- PE 506. Special Problems. Hours to be arranged.
Study of selected problems in the field of physical education. Prerequisite: approval of the dean.
- PE 507. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
Anatomical, Physiological, and Kinesiological Bases of Physical Education. Body Growth and Development through Physical Education. Administration of Physical Education Service Programs. Philosophy of Physical Education. Advanced Study in Motor Learning. Current Literature in Physical Education.
- PE 508. Workshop. Hours to be arranged.
- PE 509. Practicum. Hours to be arranged.
Practical experience in handling corrective cases; to be taken in conjunction with PE 521, PE 522, PE 523.
- PE 515. History and Theories of Physical Education. 3 hours fall.
The history of physical education from the Greeks to modern times; emphasis on modern development. Washke.
- PE 516. Intramural Organization and Management. 3 hours.
Nature and purposes of intramural programs; history of their development. Departmental organization. Relationship of the program to physical-education instruction. Administrative problems. Washke.
- PE 517. Methods of Research. 3 hours.
Study of the methods and techniques of research in health, physical education, and recreation; practice in application to problems of current interest. Clarke.
- PE 521. Basic Procedures in Corrective Physical Education. 3 hours.
Common postural deviations; causes; basic principles underlying the prescription of exercise for those conditions which may be handled safely by the physical-education teacher; methods of referral when advisable. Prerequisite: Bi 391, 392; PE 472.
- PE 522. Advanced Corrective Procedures. 3 hours.
Survey of the orthopaedic conditions which fall in the province of the corrective physical-education specialist; recommended therapeutic procedures; the orthopaedic examination; organization of the corrective physical-education program in schools and colleges. Prerequisite: PE 521 or consent of instructor.
- PE 523. Physical Education of the Handicapped. 3 hours.
The major crippling conditions, such as cerebral palsy and poliomyelitis, and functional disturbances, such as cardiac and respiratory conditions; planning the physical-education program for these conditions.
- PE 530. Developmental Program in Physical Education. 3 hours.
Programs to meet individual physical-fitness and social needs through physical-education activities; case-study techniques, developmental programs, development of social traits; administrative problems. Prerequisite: PE 444, PE 446. Clarke.
- PE 531. Muscle Testing and Therapeutic Exercise. 3 hours.
Fundamentals of muscle re-education. Methods of determining specific muscle weaknesses; restoration of normal function following injury.
- PE 532. Heat Therapy and Massage. 3 hours.
The theory and technique of the use of heat and cold as first-aid measures and as adjuncts to rehabilitative procedures practiced by physical educators. The commonly used techniques of massage, their physiological and mechanical effect, and their application by physical educators.
- PE 533. Techniques of Relaxation. 3 hours.
The common causes of fatigue and neuromuscular hypertension; methods of combating them. Theories underlying techniques of relaxation; application of these techniques in daily living and in activities.

- PE 540. Statistical Methods in Physical Education. 3 hours fall.
Elementary statistics applied to research, including central tendency, variability, normal probability curve, reliability and correlation. Prerequisite: graduate standing. Clarke.
- PE 541. Statistical Methods in Physical Education. 3 hours winter.
Advanced statistics applied to research, including variance analysis, co-variance analysis, partial and multiple correlation, regression equations, chi-square, special correlational techniques, and non-parametric processes. Prerequisite: PE 540. Clarke.
- PE 542. Experimental Design in Physical-Education Research. 4 hours.
Techniques and procedures of laboratory research in physical education; construction of tests; technical laboratory tests and their use; design of experiments; application of advanced quantitative methods. Prerequisite: PE 446, PE 540, 541. Clarke.
- PE 550. Current Movements in Physical Education. 3 hours.
The different schools of thought and practice which determine the purposes and procedures in the professional field of physical education. Analysis of the Oregon and other regional public school physical-education programs. Washke.
- PE 551. Administration of Physical Education. 3 hours winter.
Organization and administration of the physical-education program at the college level. Esslinger, Rhoda.
- PE 552. Administration of Athletics. 3 hours.
Historical development of athletics and their control. Place of athletics in education; purposes, administrative control, management, operational policies, care of equipment and facilities. Sprague.
- PE 553. Motor Skill Learning. 3 hours.
Review of the psychology of learning as it pertains to motor skills; research bearing upon the teaching and learning of gross motor skills. Prerequisites: PE 517, PE 540, at least one year's teaching experience. Brumbach.
- PE 556. Administration of Buildings and Facilities. 3 hours.
Building layout and equipment; the relationship of the various functional units—equipment service, dressing facilities, activity spaces, administrative units, permanent and dismantlable equipment. Rhoda.
- PE 557. Supervision of Physical Education for City Supervisors. 3 hours.
The purpose of supervision; supervision of staff, facilities, and areas; departmental organization, regulations, and policies. Sprague.
- PE 558. Curriculum Construction in Physical Education. 3 hours.
Basic elements and procedures of curriculum construction in physical education: special application at the city, county, and state levels. For supervisors and administrators of physical-education programs. Sprague.
- PE 559. Professional Preparation in Physical Education. 3 hours.
Historical development of professional preparation in the field of physical education; curriculum, evaluation, and recruitment in the development and conduct of teacher-education programs in physical education. Sprague.
- PE 561. Foundations of Physical Growth. 3 hours.
Concept of growth, objectives in studying growth, procedures in collection and analysis of growth data. Physical growth from the beginning of prenatal life to the close of infancy. Prerequisite: Bi 391, 392, PE 472, PE 540.
- PE 562. Changes in Body Size and Form During Childhood and Adolescence. 3 hours.
Growth in external dimensions and proportions from late infancy to early adulthood. Differences associated with sex, puberty, socio-economic status, race, secular periods, health regimen. Prerequisite: PE 561.

- PE 563. Growth of Body Tissues and Organs. 3 hours.
Study of materials important to teachers and others concerned with child growth. Ossification of the child's skeleton, calcification and eruption of teeth, morphologic development of heart and voluntary musculature, age changes in subcutaneous adipose tissue. Prerequisite: PE 561.
- PE 564. Morphologic and Physiologic Appraisalment of School Children. 3 hours.
Critical examination of various proposals for evaluating individual status and progress; emphasis on measurement proposals suitable for use in school health and physical-education programs. Prerequisite: PE 446 or HE 465.
- PE 566. Research Methodology for Child Growth. 3 hours.
Anthropometric instruments, landmarks, and methods; reliability of measurements and ratings; application of biometric procedures.
- PE 567. Motor Development in Infancy and Childhood. 3 hours.
Study of the acquisition of motor skills during the first decade of life. Prerequisite: PE 446 or Psy 460, or consent of instructor.
- PE 572, 573. Gross Anatomy. 3 hours each term.
Principles and facts in the fields of myology, osteology, arthrology, neurology, and angiology of importance to college teachers of physical education who give instruction in anatomy, kinesiology, and physiology of exercise. Application to body movement and performance. Prerequisite: Bi 391, 392, or equivalent. Sigersteth.
- PE 574. Physiological Principles of Advanced Conditioning. 3 hours.
Physiological principles and facts upon which conditioning for competition in athletic activities and physical performances should be based. Direct application to training for competition in major sports and individual activities. Prerequisite: Bi 312, 313; PE 473. Sigersteth.
- PE 575. Mechanical Analysis of Motor Skills. 3 hours.
Analysis of various physical-education activities to determine their relation to laws of physics concerning motion, force, inertia, levers, etc. Prerequisite: Bi 391, 392, PE 472, or equivalent. Sigersteth.

Dance

A MAJOR CURRICULUM IN THE DANCE as a contemporary art form and a major option combining work in physical education and the dance (see page 325) are offered by the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation. The major curriculum provides a broad cultural education and instruction in related arts; the requirements are:

	Lower Division	Term Hours
General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103) or foreign language.....		12
Personal Health (HE 250)		3
Introduction to Music & Its Literature (Mus 201, 202, 203).....		9
Professional activities		4
Electives in supporting fields.....		6
Intro. to Cultural Anthropology (Anth 207, 208, 209).....		9
Psychology		9
*Psychology Laboratory		3
Survey of Visual Arts (ArH 201, 202, 203) or foreign language.....		9-12
Introduction to Dance (PE 251).....		2
Fundamentals of Rhythm (PE 252).....		2
Rhythms for the Elementary School (PE 222).....		1

Electives in supporting fields.....	31

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- PE 222. Rhythms for the Elementary School. 1 hour spring.
The dance program for children in the elementary school, grades one through six. Locomotor and nonlocomotor movement; dramatization and creative dance studies; singing games; traditional dance skills and folk dances for children of the intermediate grades. Offered alternate years. Munson.
- PE 251. Introduction to the Dance. 2 hours fall.
An overview of the dance. Introduction to dance history and to the significance of dance as an art form. Dougherty.
- PE 252. Fundamentals of Rhythm. 2 hours spring.
Rhythm as a basic factor for movement. Rhythmic devices used in the dance. Notation and rhythmic analysis. Offered alternate years.
- PE 254, 255, 256. Dance and Physical Education Laboratories. 2 hours each term.
Instruction and practice. Fall: contemporary dance; winter: folk and square dance; spring: contemporary dance.
- PE 257. Movement Notation. 3 hours.
Instruction and practice in labanotation, a process of recording bodily movement on paper; the conversion of the elements of space, time, and bodily movement into symbols which can be read back and reinterpreted into movement.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- PE 351. Elementary Dance Composition. 3 hours fall.
Analysis of the dance medium, and the relationship of the aspects of time, space, and force to that medium. Principles of form basic to dance composition.
- PE 352. Advanced Dance Composition. 3 hours winter.
Compositional forms and styles in dance. Preclassic and modern dance forms. Prerequisite: PE 351.
- PE 353. Dance Accompaniment. 3 hours spring.
Function of accompaniment for dance skills and composition. Types of accompaniment—instrumental, percussion, voice. Prerequisite: PE 351. Dougherty.
- PE 354, 355, 356. Dance and Physical-Education Laboratories. 2 hours each term.
Advanced instruction and practice. Fall and winter: dance, composition; spring: ballroom dance.
- PE 403. Thesis. Hours to be arranged.
- PE 406. Special Problems. Hours to be arranged.
- PE 451. Dance Programs and Production. 3 hours winter.
Production problems of staging, lighting, and costuming for the dance; dance demonstration and concert. Construction of a dance program as a part of the physical-education program for the secondary schools.

- PE 452. History of the Dance to 1900. 3 hours fall.
Historical survey of the dance and its relationship to other arts from the basic cultures through the late Middle Ages. Dougherty.
- PE 453. History of the Dance since 1900. 3 hours spring.
Development of the dance in America. Influences of leading dance artists; dance in education; dance in psychotherapy. Dougherty.
- PE 454, 455, 456. Dance and Physical-Education Laboratories. 2 hours each term.
Advanced instruction and practice. Fall: technique of teaching contemporary dance; winter: dance workshop; spring: dance workshop.

Health Education

A MAJOR PROGRAM OF UNDERGRADUATE STUDY is offered for students who wish to specialize in health education. A few Oregon public school systems and many schools in other states organize their health instruction as the responsibility of one specially trained teacher. Excellent vocational opportunities are available in such schools and with public and voluntary health agencies for persons with professional training in health education. The curriculum provides a strong basis for graduate work in health education, public health, physical therapy, and the health sciences. The requirements are as follows:

	Lower Division	Term	Hours
General Biology (Bi 101, 102, 103).....			12
Elementary Chemistry (Ch 101, 102, 103).....			12
Psychology.....			9
General Sociology (Soc 204, 205, 206).....			9
Nutrition (HEc 225).....			2
First Aid (HE 252).....			3
Personal Health (HE 250).....			3
Upper Division
Intro. to Bacteriology (Bi 381), Human Physiology (Bi 312, 313).....			9
Human Anatomy (Bi 391, 392).....			6
Safety Education (HE 358).....			3
Personal Health Problems (HE 361).....			3
Community Health Problems (HE 362).....			3
Communicable & Noncommunicable Diseases (HE 363).....			3
Introduction to Public Health (HE 364, 365, 366).....			9
Social Health (HE 463).....			3
Health Instruction (HE 464).....			3
School Health Services (HE 465).....			3
Evaluation of School Health Education (HE 466).....			3
Genetics (Bi 422, 423, 424).....			8
Parasitology (Bi 463) or Intro. to Bacteriology (Bi 382).....			4

Dental-Hygiene Option. Students who complete the two-year curriculum in dental hygiene, offered by the University of Oregon Dental School in Portland, may satisfy the requirement for a B.S. degree, with a major in health education, on the satisfactory completion of two additional years of work on the Eugene campus of the University. Under an alternative plan, dental-hygiene students may begin their University work with one year of study on the Eugene campus, transfer to the Dental School for two years, and return to the Eugene campus in their senior year to complete general University and professional requirements for a bachelor's degree and requirements for a major in health education.

Service Courses

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

- HE 150. Health Education. 1 hour any term.
Study of personal health problems which confront the college student; the - basic scientific principles of healthful living. Meets the health-education requirement for men or women. Furrer, Jacobson, Kime.

- HE 250. Personal Health. 3 hours any term.
Study of the personal health problems of university men and women, with emphasis on implications for family life. Mental health, communicable diseases, degenerative diseases, nutrition. Satisfies the University requirement in health education for men or women. Furrer, Gillespie, Haar, Jacobson, Malumphy, Kime, Puckett, Smith, Tuck.
- HE 251. Community Health. 3 hours winter.
Methods of handling health and sanitation problems in the community, with special reference to water supply, food and milk sanitation, sewage disposal, insect and rodent control; state and county health departments. Kime.
- HE 252. First Aid. 3 hours any term.
Immediate and temporary care for a wide variety of injuries or illnesses; control of bleeding, care for poisoning, and proper methods of transportation, splinting, and bandaging. Successful completion of course leads to Red Cross standard, advanced, and instructors' certificates. Brumbach, Schendel, Smith, Washke.

Professional Courses

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

- HE 359. Safety Education. 3 hours spring.
Basic principles of safety education; current safety programs as they apply to the school, home, and community. Individual and group projects in the organization of materials for teaching safety education in public schools. Smith.
- HE 361. Personal Health Problems. 3 hours fall.
For health teachers in the public schools. Hygienic care of the body and other personal health problems important in health instruction. Prerequisite: junior standing in health or physical education, or consent of instructor. Kime.
- HE 362. Community Health Problems. 3 hours winter.
Basic community health problems important in public school health instruction. Designed primarily for teachers and community leaders. Prerequisite: junior standing or consent of instructor. Gillespie.
- HE 363. Communicable and Noncommunicable Diseases. 3 hours spring.
Nature, prevention, and control of common communicable diseases, considered in relation to health instruction in the public schools. Prerequisite: junior standing in science or health and physical education. Gillespie.
- HE 364, 365, 366. Introduction to Public Health. 3 hours each term.
Functions and organization of public health; vital statistics; consumer health problems; functions of voluntary and governmental health organizations; health education in Oregon public schools, with special emphasis on health teaching in the junior and senior high schools. Admission after fall term only with consent of instructor. Prerequisite: junior standing in science or health and physical education. Haar.
- HE 405. Reading and Conference. Hours to be arranged.
- HE 407. Seminar. Hours to be arranged.
- HE 467. Driver Education. 3 hours.
Designed to prepare teachers to conduct driver-education courses in the secondary schools. Use of teaching devices, development of instructional units, behind-the-wheel instruction. Kime.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES CARRYING GRADUATE CREDIT

- HE 408. Workshop. (g) Hours to be arranged.

Recreation and Park Management

THE DEPARTMENT OF RECREATION AND PARK MANAGEMENT offers programs of undergraduate and graduate professional study planned to prepare young men and women for careers in leadership, supervision, and management of recreation, park, and youth-serving agencies. The programs provide a broad liberal education, together with professional and technical studies essential for careers in the field. Graduates in recreation and park management become recreation directors in community centers, playgrounds, the armed forces, industries, hospitals, churches, and institutions; directors, supervisors, and secretaries in youth-serving agencies; superintendents and managers of park departments and districts; administrators of recreation in cities, counties, and state agencies; and directors of camping and outdoor education.

* No-grade course.

The undergraduate major programs lead to the Bachelor of Science degree and provide a foundation for graduate work leading to the Master of Science and doctoral degrees.

Requirements for Bachelor's Degree. The undergraduate curriculum in recreation management places strong emphasis on courses designed to give the student a broad liberal education, together with professional study in recreation leadership and management. The requirements include: (1) courses in liberal arts which satisfy general University requirements for a bachelor's degree; (2) a core of basic professional courses; (3) a minimum of 36 term hours in recreation management, including (a) a core of basic professional courses and (b) courses providing concentration in one of five professional options; (4) a minimum GPA of 2.50 in recreational management courses; (5) a minimum of 93 term hours of work outside the School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation.

Liberal arts requirements include Fundamentals of Speech (Sp 121) and a minimum of 36 term hours in social science, including General Sociology (Soc 204, 205, 206) and one term of introductory psychology.

The professional core required of all majors includes the following courses:

	Term Hours
Recreation in Society (RM 150)	3
History & Theory of Recreation (RM 251)	3
Recreation Leadership (RM 352)	3
Organization & Administration of Recreation (RM 370)	3
School & Community Recreation Programs (RM 499)	3
Recreation Field Work (RM 415)	9

Options are offered in the following five areas of concentration:

Park and Recreation Administration. The option in park and recreation administration is designed to provide preparation for careers in the management of public park and recreation programs and in the supervision and administration of recreation in public and private agencies or institutions. Emphasis is placed on management techniques, managerial problems, park and recreation organization and operation, and recreation programs and service. The work includes training in phases of landscape architecture and urban planning related to recreation. The major requirements, in addition to the core program, are:

	Term Hours
Organization & Administration of Recreation (RM 371)	6
Parks, School Grounds & Recreation Areas (LA 411, 412, 413)	9
Recreation & Natural Resources (RM 492) or Youth Agencies (RM 395)	3
Recreation & Park Facilities (RM 497)	3

Youth Agencies. The youth-agencies option provides preparation for careers in voluntary youth-serving recreation organizations and clubs (Y.M.C.A., Y.W.C.A., Boy and Girl Scouts, etc.). Emphasis is placed on community leadership, group work, and the role of recreation in the social structure of the community. The major requirements, in addition to the core program, are:

	Term Hours
Camp Counseling (RM 290) or approved elective	3
Camp Administration (RM 391)	3
Youth Agencies (RM 394, 395)	6
Human Development & Learning (Ed 315)	5
Professional activities	6

Recreation Leadership. The option in recreation leadership is designed to prepare students for leadership in recreation programs in community and youth centers, playgrounds, hospitals, institutions, service clubs in the armed forces, etc. The major requirements, in addition to the core program, are:

	Term Hours
Art in Elementary School (Art 311, 312)	4
Music Fundamentals (Mus 321, 322)	4
Camp Counseling (RM 290)	3
Youth Agencies (RM 394)	3
Recreation Leadership (RM 352)	3
First Aid (HE 252)	3
Human Development & Learning (Ed 315)	5
Professional activities	6

Program Specialties. The option in program specialties is designed to prepare students for careers in special recreation program areas such as music, arts and crafts, dance, drama, physical education, or athletics. Emphasis is placed on the development of a high degree of competency in a field of specialization currently represented in recreation programs. In consultation with his adviser, the student elects from 24 to 35 hours in courses in a field of specialization. The major requirements, in addition to the core program, are:

	Term Hours
Camp Counseling (RM 290) or approved elective	3
Youth Agencies (RM 394)	3
Recreation Leadership (RM 352)	3
Human Development & Learning (Ed 315)	5
Courses in area of specialization	24-35

Camping and Outdoor Education. The option in camping and outdoor education is designed to prepare students for careers in camp management, supervision, or outdoor education in the public schools. The major requirements, in addition to the core program, are:

	Term Hours
Music Fundamentals (Mus 321, 322)	4
Camp Counseling (RM 290)	3
Org. & Admin. of Camping (RM 391)	3
Camp Administration (RM 391)	3
Principles of Outdoor Education (RM 490)	3
Recreation & Natural Resources (RM 492)	3
Science	9-12

A DEPARTMENT OF JOURNALISM was organized at the University of Oregon in 1912, and was raised to the rank of a professional school in 1916. The school is accredited by the American Council on Education in Journalism.

Admission. The major program in journalism is organized on an upper-division and graduate basis. During his freshman and sophomore years, a student planning to specialize in journalism pursues a preprofessional program which will insure a sound educational basis for professional study at the upper-division level.

Introduction to Journalism (J 224, 225, 226) is required of all prejournalism students. The following basic courses are open to sophomores: Mechanics of Publishing (J 321); Reporting I (J 361); Principles of Advertising (J 341); Copy Editing I (J 371).

Prejournalism students are advised: (1) to complete as many as possible of the courses in liberal arts which are required and recommended by the school; (2) to gain proficiency in the use of the typewriter; and (3) to participate in extracurricular journalistic activities.

Requirements for Bachelor's Degree. In its requirements for an undergraduate major, the School of Journalism places strong emphasis on courses which will provide a broad liberal education. The requirements in liberal arts are as follows:

Lower Division—(1) English or American literature, 18 term hours; (2) history, 9 term hours; (3) economics and political science, 9 term hours in each field, or 9 term hours in either economics or political science and 9 term hours in one of the following fields: anthropology, geography, philosophy, psychology, sociology. All journalism majors are encouraged to study one foreign language through the second-year college level.

Upper Division—At least two 9-hour sequences in liberal arts courses.

The professional requirements for a bachelor's degree with a major in journalism are as follows:

(1) Introduction to Journalism (J 224, 225, 226).

(2) A minimum of 33 term hours in upper-division professional courses (the total number of upper- and lower-division hours combined should be limited to 46 hours within the first 186 hours of an undergraduate program).

† On sabbatical leave, spring term, 1965-66.

(3) At least two courses or sequences chosen from each of the following three groups: Group A—Reporting I (J 361); Reporting II (J 462); Magazine and Feature Writing I (J 468); Advertising Copy Writing (J 446); Radio-Television News I (J 431). Group B—Copy Editing I (J 371); Copy Editing II (J 372); Magazine Editing (J 470); Seminar: Picture Editing (J 407). Group C—Law of the Press (J 485); History of Journalism (J 487); Journalism and Public Opinion (J 494); Senior Thesis (J 403).

(4) A minimum cumulative grade-point average of 2.25.

In consultation with his adviser, a journalism major selects professional courses which will provide a measure of concentration in a special field of journalism. The following concentration programs are recommended:

Advertising—Principles of Advertising (J 341); Advertising Copy Writing (J 446); Advertising Layout (J 447). Courses selected from the following: Media of Advertising (J 441, 442, 443), Advertising Production (J 440), Advertising Agencies and Departments (J 445), Advertising Problems (J 444), Photography (J 335), Reporting I (J 361), Mechanics of Publishing (J 321).

News-Editorial—Reporting I (J 361); Copy Editing I and II (J 371, 372); Reporting II (J 462); History of Journalism (J 487); courses selected from the following: Mechanics of Publishing (J 321), Law of the Press (J 485), Magazine and Feature Writing (J 468, 469), The Community Newspaper (J 424), Photography (J 335).

Newspaper Management—Mechanics of Publishing (J 321); Principles of Advertising (J 341); Reporting I (J 361); Copy Editing I (J 371); The Community Newspaper (J 424); Newspaper Management (J 421); courses selected from the following: Reporting II (J 462), Photography (J 335), Law of the Press (J 485), Advertising Copy Writing (J 446); Advertising Layout (J 447), Advertising Production (J 440).

Radio-Television Journalism—Radio-Television News I and II (J 431, 432); Seminar: Radio-Television Station Management (J 407); courses selected from the following: Radio and Television Workshop (Sp 341, Sp 345), Photography (J 335), Reporting II (J 462), Radio-Television Direction (Sp 444), Radio-Television Production (Sp 445), Radio-Television Programming (Sp 446), Seminar: Television News Film (J 407), Media of Advertising (J 441, 442, 443), Radio and Television Script Writing (Sp 347, 348, 349).

Public Relations—Principles of Public Relations (J 459); Public Relations Problems (J 483); courses selected from the following: Mechanics of Publishing (J 321), Principles of Advertising (J 341), Reporting I (J 361), Seminar: Industrial Editing (J 407), Seminar: Documentary News Film (J 407), Advertising Production (J 440), Media of Advertising (J 443), Advertising Copy Writing (J 446), Advertising Layout (J 447).

Visual Communication—Photography (J 335); Photojournalism (J 336); Seminar: Picture Editing (J 407); courses selected from the following: Seminar: Television News Film (J 407), Reporting I (J 361), Radio and Television Workshop (Sp 341, Sp 345), Principles of Advertising (J 341), Advertising Layout (J 447), Public Relations Problems (J 483), Magazine Editing (J 470), History of Journalism (J 487).

Secondary-School Teaching of Journalism. For certification as a teacher of journalism in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in journalism and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, the student should complete the following program: undergraduate—Reporting I (J 361), Copy Editing I (J 371), The Press and Society (J 450); fifth year—Reporting II (J 462), Copy Editing II (J 372), Supervision of School Publications (J 455); additional recommended preparation—Mechanics of Publishing (J 321), Photography (J 335), Principles of Advertising (J 341).

For further information, the student should consult a member of the journalism faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Graduate Study. The School of Journalism offers work leading to the Master of Arts or Master of Science degree. Programs are provided for candidates with considerable journalistic experience and for those with little experience, under the following plans:

Plan A. Thesis required. Designed for students with an extensive background in journalism. The candidate may, on request, be permitted to satisfy the major requirement with less than the normal 30 term hours of work in journalism.

Plan B. Thesis optional. Designed for students with little or no journalistic background. The candidate may take a maximum of 40 term hours of work in journalism. If he elects not to write a thesis, he must submit three term papers, written under the supervision of his adviser.

Facilities. The School of Journalism is housed in Eric W. Allen Hall, a three-story brick structure erected in 1954 and named in memory of the late Eric W. Allen, the first dean of the School of Journalism. Fully equipped laboratories are provided for newswriting, editing, advertising, radio-television news (the school has its own broadcasting studios), photography, and typography. Current files of newspaper and trade publications are maintained in the Journalism Reading Room; the University Library has an excellent collection of the literature of mass communications. The School of Journalism receives the regular newspaper, radio-television, and teletypesetter monitor services of the Associated Press and the United Press International. Offices of the OREGON DAILY EMERALD, the University student newspaper, are located on the third floor of Allen Hall. The Eric W. Allen Seminar Room, furnished by contributions from friends and alumni of the school, is a center for meetings of journalism seminars and student groups.

The Oregon Newspaper Publishers Association and the Oregon Association of Broadcasters have their offices in Allen Hall. The school and these associations cooperate in providing placement services for journalism graduates. The Oregon Scholastic Press also has its headquarters in Allen Hall.

Scholarships, Awards, and Financial Aid. For scholarships established specifically for students of journalism, see pages 102-103; for journalism prizes and awards, see page 109.

The interest from a $15,000 endowment fund, bequeathed to the University by the late Mrs. C. S. Jackson, widow of the founder of the Oregon Journal, provides no-interest loans to men students majoring in journalism.

A fund established by Zeta chapter of Gamma Alpha Chi, professional society for women in advertising, provides loans for women students majoring in journalism. A fund established and administered by the Oregon Press Women provides loans for senior women majoring in journalism.

School of Law

ORLANDO J. HOLLIS, B.S., J.D., Dean of the School of Law.

LOIS I. BAKER, M.A., Law Librarian.

Professors: W. M. BASYE, O. J. HOLLIS, C. G. HOWARD (emeritus), F. R. LACY, H. A. LINDE.

Associate Professors: C. D. CLARK, P. L. LARSEN, T. W. MAPP, R. S. SUMMERS.

Special Lecturer: E. C. HARMS.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON SCHOOL OF LAW, established in 1884 as a night law school in the city of Portland, was moved to the Eugene campus in 1915 and reorganized as a regular division of the University. The School of Law was admitted to the Association of American Law Schools in December 1919; the standards of the school were approved by the American Bar Association in August 1923.

Facilities. The School of Law is housed in Fenton Hall, a three-story brick structure, with a fireproof annex in which the main book collection of the Law Library is located. Fenton Hall, named in honor of the late William David Fenton, Oregon attorney and benefactor of the school, was formerly the University Library. The building was extensively remodeled in 1938 to provide a permanent home for the School of Law. A new Law Library reading room with modern facilities was provided in 1953.

The holdings of the Law Library total 61,198 volumes, including complete case reports of the National Reporter System, complete state reports from colonial times to the establishment of the Reporter System, a substantial collection of English and Canadian case law, codes and compilations of state and Federal statute law, standard legal digests and encyclopaedias, etc. Its periodical collection includes files of about 335 legal journals. An excellent collection of publications relating to Oregon territorial and state law includes an extensive file of Oregon Supreme Court briefs.

The Law Library reading rooms are adjacent to the stacks, allowing students direct and easy access to the book collections.

Admission to the School of Law. The minimum requirement for admission to the School of Law is three-fourths of the total credit required for a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree from the institution at which the student completes his prelegal work—but not less than 140 term hours (the requirement for a student completing his prelegal work at the University of Oregon). The minimum requirement may include no work taken by correspondence, and may include a maximum of 14 term hours in nontheory courses in military science, hygiene, domestic arts, physical education, vocal or instrumental music, or other subjects of a nontheoretical nature.

The student's prelegal program must include: (1) courses satisfying all lower-division requirements of the University; (2) the basic college course in accounting (Ac 221, 222, 223 or equivalent); (3) a minimum of 36 term hours of credit in courses in the general field of social science. An applicant who has a baccalaureate degree need not comply with requirement (1) above.

For admission to the School of Law, a student must have, for all prelegal work, a cumulative grade-point average of at least 2.25 (computed in accordance with the system of grade-point-average determination used by the University of Oregon). This requirement applies to all applicants, including those who hold degrees.

Applicants for admission to the School of Law must take the uniform Law School Admission Test administered by the Educational Testing Service, and have a report of the test score sent to the School of Law prior to the first day of June preceding the fall term for which admission is sought. Inquiries concerning the dates, places, and fee for the Law School Admission Test should be addressed directly to the Educational Testing Service, Box 944, Princeton, N. J. 94704.

An applicant who receives a score of less than 475 on the Law School Admission Test will not be admitted unless his academic record, when considered together with his test score, is of such quality as to justify a prediction of probable success in the study of law.

All students intending to enter the School of Law must file a formal application for admission with the dean of the school, from whom official application forms may be obtained. Applications should be filed before the first day of May preceding the fall term in which the student intends to enroll.

A student intending to transfer to the University of Oregon from another institution and to enter the School of Law must also submit, to the dean of the school, complete records of all school work beyond the eighth grade. For failure to submit complete records, the University may cancel the student's registration. This regulation applies to work taken at other law schools, whether or not the student wishes to transfer credit.

Admission to the School of Law is restricted to students who are candidates for a professional law degree. Students are admitted to the professional study of law only at the opening of the fall term of each academic year.

Prelegal Program. Students pursuing prelegal studies at the University of Oregon are enrolled in the College of Liberal Arts during the three years of the required preparatory program. They are, however, assigned academic advisers from the faculty of the School of Law. The student is allowed considerable freedom of choice in selecting his courses, as long as his program provides a substantial cultural background. The prelegal adviser, after considering the student's high-school record and any available evidence of his native abilities, assists him in working out a program that will provide such a background. The student's program should include courses which will enable him to meet all lower-division requirements by the end of the second year of his prelegal studies.

Law students may qualify for a nonprofessional baccalaureate degree after the satisfactory completion of prelegal requirements and one year of professional work in the School of Law, provided that they have satisfied all general University requirements for such a degree. For a nonprofessional degree, the major requirement in law is 36 term hours (unweighted) in professional courses. The dean of the School of Law will not recommend a student for the B.A. or B.S. degree with a major in law who has been awarded, or is a candidate for, either of these degrees with a major in another field.

Registration and Fees. Law students register and pay their fees at the times set in the University calendar for registration. Law students pay the regular fees prescribed for all students. Nonresident law students who hold a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university are not required to pay the nonresident fee.

Curriculum and Degrees. The School of Law offers a standard professional curriculum leading to the Doctor of Jurisprudence degree. A total of three years of resident professional study in the University of Oregon or another law school of recognized standing is required for a law degree, of which, normally, the two last years must be in residence at the University of Oregon. The curriculum is aranged, as far as possible, to present the fundamental topics of the law during the first year, and the more specialized subjects during the second and third years.

Since the school owes its primary responsibility to the people of the state of Oregon, special emphasis is placed on Oregon substantive law and on Oregon procedure. Courses based upon the common law are organized to provide the student a thorough foundation in the fundamental principles of the common law and an understanding of the modification of these principles in Oregon by judicial decisions and statutes.

In the list of courses on pages 350-353, elective courses are indicated with an asterisk (*). All other courses are required. The school reserves the right to make any desirable or necessary changes in courses as listed and described.

A student admitted without a baccalaureate degree must obtain that degree before entering upon his second year of study in the School of Law.

The School of Law reserves the right to withhold recommendation for the granting of a degree to any student who, in the opinion of the faculty of the school, does not possess the character and abilities essential to the maintenance of the public trust in the legal profession. Regular class attendance is required of students in the School of Law. Credit for any course may be denied for irregular attendance. Classes are regularly scheduled Monday through Saturday.

An honor system, which has been in operation in the School of Law for more than forty years, is applicable to all students in the school. The system is explained to first-year students at an assembly at the opening of the fall term of each year.

Students who have met the requirements for admission to the School of Law, and who have successfully completed courses in law aggregating 123 hours and have otherwise satisfied the requirements of the University and the School of Law, will be granted the degree of Doctor of Jurisprudence (J.D.), provided that they:

- (1) Obtain (at least two years before completing work for the law degree) the Bachelor of Arts, Bachelor of Science, or an equivalent degree from this University or some other institution of recognized collegiate rank.
- (2) Earn a minimum grade-point average of 2.00 in the School of Law.
- (3) Comply with such other requirements as the law faculty may from time to time impose.

Transferred Credit. A student as a general rule may transfer not to exceed one year of credit earned in another law school of recognized standing, provided that, at the time he was admitted to the law school from which he wishes to transfer credit, he could have met the then-existing admission requirements of the University of Oregon School of Law. In exceptional cases only, a student may be permitted to transfer not to exceed two years of credit. The right to reject any and all such credit is reserved.

Application for admission by a student who has attended another law school will not be considered unless: (1) the school from which transfer is sought is on the list of schools approved by the American Bar Association and is a member of the Association of American Law Schools; (2) the student is eligible for re-admission in good standing to the school previously attended; and (3) the student's cumulative grade-point average for all professional law courses completed is at least 2.00, when computed on the basis of the system of grade-point-average determination used by the University of Oregon. Transferred credit will be accepted, however, only if the student's professional law-school record is of high quality.

In determining whether a student who has transferred credit from another law school has satisfied the 2.00 grade-point-average requirement for the J.D. degree, only grades earned at the University of Oregon will be considered.

Oregon Law Review. The OREGON LAW REVIEW is published quarterly under the editorship of the faculty of the School of Law, with the assistance of a student editorial staff, as a service to the members of the Oregon bar and as a stimulus to legal research and productive scholarship on the part of students. The LAW REVIEW has been published continuously since 1921.

Legal Aid. Members of the third-year law class each year have the opportunity to participate on a voluntary, noncredit basis in the legal-aid program operated by the Lane County Bar Association. For several years the voluntary cooperation of third-year students has been 100 per cent.

Oral Case Analysis Contest. Law students entering the Lane County Bar Association Oral Case Analysis Contest are afforded the unique opportunity of discussing a recent case or legal topic of interest with an audience composed entirely of lawyers. Any registered law student may enter the contest. The Lane County Bar Association offers each year cash prizes of $65, $40, and $25 to the three students judged to have made the best presentations at the weekly luncheon meetings of the bar association.

Order of the Coif. The Order of the Coif, national law-school honor society, maintains a chapter in the University of Oregon School of Law. The Order of the Coif was founded to encourage high scholarship and to advance the ethical standards of the legal profession. Members are selected by the faculty during the spring term each year from the ten per cent of the third-year class who rank highest in scholarship. Character, as well as scholarship, is considered in selecting members.

Scholarships and Awards. For scholarships and fellowships established specifically for students in the School of Law, see pages 103-105. For prizes and awards for law students, see pages 109-110.

Placement. The School of Law maintains its own placement service for its graduates, under the personal direction of the dean of the school. Individual attention is given to the wishes of each graduate concerning his placement. No substantial problem in finding suitable opportunities to practice law has been experienced since the depression days of the 1930s. During the last few years, graduates of the school going into law offices and government positions have received starting salaries ranging from $475 to $600 a month. A very large proportion of the school's graduates enter the private practice of law.

Medical School

DAVID W. E. BAIRD, M.D., LL.D., Dean of the Medical School.
CHARLES N. HOLMAN, M.D., Associate Dean of the Medical School; Medical Director of Hospitals and Clinics.
WILLIAM A. ZIMMERMAN, B.S., Associate Dean for Business Affairs.
JOSEPH J. ADAMS, B.B.A., Assistant Dean for Institutional Relations.
CAROLINE H. POMMARANE, B.S., Registrar.
MARGARET HUGHES, B.S., Librarian.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON MEDICAL SCHOOL, located in Portland, was chartered in 1887, as Oregon's second medical school. The first, the medical department of Willamette University, was merged with the University of Oregon Medical School in 1913. The campus is a 101-acre tract overlooking the city in Sam Jackson Park. Located on the same campus are the University of Oregon Dental School and the University of Oregon School of Nursing.

The Medical School offers a standard curriculum in medicine, leading to the M.D. degree, a special five-year combined medical and graduate program leading to the M.S. and M.D. degrees, graduate studies in the basic sciences leading to the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees, programs in medical technology leading to the B.S. and M.S. degrees, a two-year program in radiologic technology, an internship in hospital dietetics, and training in occupational therapy, cytotechnology, and orthoptic technique. The school's internship and residency programs provide more than 180 appointments to qualified physicians. Extensive continuing education programs are conducted for physicians and medical technologists.

The Medical School's hospitals and clinics, located on the campus, provide teaching laboratories for clinical studies; 13,000 patients receive medical services and treatment annually in the school's hospitals; recorded visits to the school's outpatient clinics total more than 200,000 each year. The Medical School's research program is supported through funds provided by the state and Federal governments and by foundations and private donors; research grants total more than $7,500,000 annually.

Curriculum in Medicine. The curriculum in medicine leading to the M.D. degree requires a minimum of three years of premedical studies, followed by four years of work at the Medical School.

A student entering the Medical School without a Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree must complete the work required for one of these degrees at the University of Oregon or at the institution at which he received his premedical preparation, before entering upon the work of the third year in the Medical School.

The University of Oregon and most of the colleges and universities of the Pacific Northwest recognize credit earned by a student during his first two years at the Medical School as credit earned in residence toward the bachelor's degree.

A suggested premedical curriculum for students planning to enter the Medical School is presented on pages 190-191 of this Catalog.

Curriculum in Medical Technology. The curriculum in medical technology leading to the bachelor's degree is a four-year program, including three years of work on the Eugene campus of the University, followed by one year at the Medical School. See pages 189-190 of this Catalog.

Medical School Catalogs. Separate catalogs describing the curriculum in medicine and the graduate programs in the basic sciences may be obtained from the Medical School.

School of Music

ROBERT M. TROTTER, Ph.D., Dean of the School of Music.

Professors: E. A. CYKLER, MILTON DIETERICH (emeritus), GEORGE HOPKINS, HOMER KELLER, R. E. NYE, JANE THACHER (emeritus), R. M. TROTTER, R. S. VAGNER.

Associate Professors: EXINE A. BAILEY, F. W. BITTNER, GEORGE BOUGHTON, FLOYD ELLEFSON, J. M. GUSTAFSON, JOHN HAMILTON, J. R. HLADKY, I. D. LEE, M. D. RISINGER, ROYCE SALTZMAN, VIRGINIA WHITFIELD, N. E. WILSON, W. C. WOODS.

Assistant Professors: PETER BERGQUIST, R. G. CUNNINGHAM, LAWRENCE MAVES, JAMES MILLER.

Instructors: GABRIEL CHODOS,* ROBERT HURWITZ, DAVID SCHRADER, RICHARD TROMBLEY.

Assistants: CATHERINE ARNOLD, SUE CULBERTSON, D. D. FARR, JERRY HARRIS, M. A. HEDEGAARD, H. C. HUNT, SHARON JARMAN, KAREN KAMMERER, K. E. MCGILLIVRAY, PATRICIA MYERS, T. S. STANFORD, H. G. VOM HOFF.

IN THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC, students learn by performing and by listening to music, by analyzing musical style, and by examining the historical contexts—artistic, philosophical, social, political, technological—in which our musical heritage has developed. Courses and curricula are planned to provide a vital unity of musical education and technical training, emphasizing the juncture where ideas and understanding meet direct experience of musical beauty.

The school recognizes two basic obligations: (1) the preparation of professional musicians for careers as performers, teachers, composers, scholars, and critics; (2) as a part of the University's program of liberal education, instruction in the history and understanding of music for all students and instruction in musical performance for students interested in performance as an avocation.

A department of music was established at the University of Oregon in 1886. The School of Music was organized in 1902, and was admitted to membership in the National Association of Schools of Music in 1928; the standards of the school are in accordance with the standards set by the association.

Instruction for Nonmajors. The following courses offered by the School of Music are planned especially for nonmajor students who have had little or no previous musical instruction: Introduction to Music and Its Literature (Mus 201, 202, 203); Music Fundamentals (Mus 321, 322); Listening with Understanding (Mus 450); The Music of Bach and Handel (Mus 451); The Classic Symphony and Sonata (Mus 452); Introduction to Opera (Mus 453); Introduction to Twentieth-Century Music (Mus 454).

Nonmajor students who meet proficiency requirements may also enroll for private performance instruction and for work in several ensemble groups, including band, orchestra, chorus, chamber ensemble, and opera workshop.

Admission to Major Curricula. The major curricula in music are organized on an upper-division and graduate basis. Preparation for the major consists of two years of work in the College of Liberal Arts, under the guidance of a faculty adviser from the School of Music. The lower-division program includes introductory work in music history, theory, and performance, in addition to studies in the arts and sciences providing a broad intellectual basis for advanced work in the music major.

* On leave of absence 1965-66.

It is important that high-school students planning to major in music acquire, before entering the University, a thorough knowledge of standard musical symbols and terminology, some knowledge of the piano keyboard, considerable proficiency in performance, and as wide an acquaintance as possible with great music.

During registration week, all new students are given auditions to determine their eligibility for private performance studies and examinations in basic musical grammar and keyboard knowledge to test their aptitude and readiness for introductory theoretical studies (information concerning these examinations may be obtained from the School of Music office). Exceptionally well-prepared and gifted students may be granted advanced placement or exemption from certain introductory studies on the basis of the examinations.

Because the upper-division program is planned in continuity with basic courses taken during the first two years, students planning to major in music at the University of Oregon are strongly advised to enter the University as freshmen. Students transferring from other institutions with preprofessional preparation differing from the University pattern may, however, be admitted to the professional curriculum if they show satisfactory proficiency by examination.

The proficiency examinations are required of all students, including transfers and students who have taken their lower-division work at the University, before admission to upper-division major programs (information concerning these examinations may be obtained from the School of Music office).

All degree candidates in music are required to attend campus musical events each year of residence as follows: 12 or more credits, 10 events per term; 8-11 units, 8 events per term; 1-7 credits; 5 events per term.

Facilities. The School of Music is housed in a building complex designed for instruction, practice, and performance—including an auditorium seating 600 persons, rehearsal rooms, studio-offices, classrooms, and more than fifty practice rooms. The school's equipment includes William Dowd and Wittmayer concert harpsichords, a two-manual Schlicker organ, a four-manual Reuter organ, and a number of Steinway grand pianos. The University Theater in Villard Hall provides facilities for operas and other stage productions.

The music holdings of the University Library include a large collection of scores, complete critical editions of the works of the great composers, standard reference works, and extensive collections of periodicals, recordings, and books on music. The music collection is supported by gifts from Phi Beta and Mu Phi Epsilon and a bequest from the late Matthew H. Douglas, former University librarian. Through acquisitions under the Farmington Plan, the Library has a particularly strong and growing collection of contemporary foreign books on music.

Musical Organizations. The University Symphony and String Orchestras, the University Singers, the University Chorale, University bands, and the Opera Workshop offer membership and performance opportunities to all qualified students. Collegium Musicum, a vocal-instrumental group, provides opportunity for the study of mediaeval, Renaissance, and baroque music. The work of these organizations is planned to complement the theoretical and historical courses offered by the school.

Concerts and Recitals. Frequent concerts and recitals are presented on the campus throughout the year, by visiting artists, members of the faculty of the School of Music, and advanced music students. Regularly scheduled concerts include performances by artists of international fame sponsored by the Eugene-University Civic Music Association, the Little Concert Series, and concerts by the University Trio, three artist members of the School of Music faculty.

Music Fees. Music students pay special fees, in addition to regular registration fees, for private performance instruction. These fees are due at the time of registration each term.

Fees for private instruction in piano, voice, violin, cello, organ, and harpsichord are: ten half-hour lessons, $30.00 per term; twenty half-hour lessons, $50.00 per term.

Fees for private instruction in wind and percussion instruments are: ten half-hour lessons, $20.00 per term; twenty half-hour lessons, $40.00 per term.

Fees for the use of practice rooms, paid by all students enrolled for private instruction, are: $5.00 per term for one hour a day ($3.00 for rooms without a piano); $9.00 per term for two hours ($6.00 without a piano); $12.00 per term for three hours; $15.00 per term for four hours. The organ practice fee is $12.00 per term for one hour a day.

Curricula in Music

THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC offers undergraduate curricula leading to the Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Music degrees and graduate work leading to the Master of Arts and Master of Music degrees.

In the undergraduate program, the candidate for the B.A. degree takes approximately one-third of his work in music and two-thirds in fields outside the school. B.A. candidates are advised to plan their programs to broaden their understanding of music in its relations to other humanistic fields; studies in art, philosophy, history, languages and literature, speech and drama, and the dance are especially recommended.

The curricula leading to the B.Mus. degree are more rigorously professional; the student takes approximately two-thirds of his work in the School of Music and one-third in fields outside the school.

The programs outlined below show only the minimum requirements; additional studies may be required in the light of individual needs.

Lower-Division Major Requirements. Completion of the following lower-division work in music is required for admission to all upper-division degree programs:

	First Year	Term Hours
Music Theory I (Mus 121, 122, 123).....		12
Ensemble (selected from Mus 195, Mus 196, Mus 197).....		3
Performance Studies (Private Instruction) (Mus 190).....		3
	Second Year
Music Theory II (Mus 221, 222, 223).....		9

Secondary-School Teaching of Music. For certification as a teacher of music in Oregon high schools, the Oregon State Department of Education requires (1) the satisfaction of certain minimum standards of subject preparation and (2) the recommendation of the institution at which the student completes his subject preparation.

To meet the state standards in music and the requirements for recommendation by the University of Oregon, the student should complete the general requirements for a major in music and the requirements for a school music option, listed above.

For further information, the student should consult a member of the music faculty who serves as adviser for prospective teachers.

Honors. See HONORS COLLEGE, pages 129 ff.

Minor for Elementary Teachers and Others. Majors in elementary education may, in consultation with advisers in the School of Music, arrange a minor in music, including selected courses in theory, literature, performance and pedagogy.

Graduate Work. The School of Music offers graduate work leading to the M.A., M.Mus., and D.M.A. degrees.

Master of Arts—music history, music theory, music education.

Master of Music—composition, music education, performance and music literature, church music.

Doctor of Musical Arts—college teaching in the field of performance or of public school music. Requirements include work in music history and literature, music theory, music pedagogy and curriculum planning; performance, composition, conducting, or arranging. For further information, see the Graduate School Catalog or consult the School of Music.

Candidates for the Doctor of Education degree or the Doctor of Philosophy degree in the School of Education may choose music education as a field of major specialization.

During fall-term registration week and the first week of summer session, all entering candidates for graduate degrees in music, including graduates of the University of Oregon, are required to take a series of examinations to test the adequacy of their preparation for graduate study. Deficiencies shown by the examinations must be remedied before the student is formally admitted to candidacy for a graduate degree. Information concerning the examinations and guides for study are available in the School of Music office.

School of Nursing

JEAN E. BOYLE, M.N., Director of the School of Nursing.

THE UNIVERSITY OF OREGON has offered professional instruction in nursing in Portland since 1919; a degree curriculum was established in 1926. Until 1932 the program in nursing was administered through the Portland Division of the School of Sociology and the Portland School of Social Work. When the social-work program was discontinued in 1932, instruction in nursing was transferred to the University of Oregon Medical School, where it was offered through the Department of Nursing Education. A graduate program, leading to the Master of Science degree, was established in 1955. In the fall of 1960, the department was reorganized as the University of Oregon School of Nursing.

The School of Nursing offers two curricula which lead to the Bachelor of Science degree—one for basic students with no previous preparation in nursing and one for registered nurses from diploma schools of nursing. These programs include preparation for beginning positions in public health nursing. An advanced curriculum leading to the Master of Science degree provides graduate study and advanced professional education.

The first year of the basic degree program is offered on the Eugene campus of the University of Oregon (see pages 206-207) and by other accredited colleges and universities. The following three years of the basic program and all other nursing programs of the School of Nursing are offered on the campus of the University of Oregon Medical School in Portland. The School of Nursing utilizes the teaching resources of the hospitals and clinics of the Medical School, the Division of Continuing Education of the Oregon State System of Higher Education and Portland State College.

Upper-division courses in public health nursing are offered on the Eugene campus for senior students in the School of Nursing who are assigned to health agencies in Eugene for clinical experience.

The programs of the School of Nursing are accredited by the National Accreditation Service and the Oregon State Board of Nursing; the school is a member of the Department of Baccalaureate and Higher Degree Programs of the National League for Nursing.

Detailed information concerning the School of Nursing is published in a separate catalog, copies of which will be furnished by writing to: Director, University of Oregon School of Nursing, 3181 S.W. Sam Jackson Park Road, Portland, Oregon.

Department of Military Science and Aerospace Studies

EMBERT A. FOSSUM, B.A., Colonel, U.S. Army; Head of Department; In Charge of Army R.O.T.C. Program.

JOHN W. KREITZ, M.S., Lieutenant Colonel, U.S. Air Force; In Charge of Air Force R.O.T.C. Program.

THE DEPARTMENT OF MILITARY SCIENCE AND AEROSPACE STUDIES is organized as a regular instructional division of the University. The department includes a U.S. Army Instructor Group, Senior Division Reserve Officers' Training Corps, offering instruction in military science, and a unit of the Air Force Reserve Officers' Training Corps, offering instruction in aerospace studies.

The mission of the department is to select and prepare students to serve as commissioned officers in the United States Army and the United States Air Force, and to promote understanding of problems and policies of national security. The instruction includes a two-year lower-division program and a two-year upper-division program.

Lower-Division Program. The lower-division program is elective for men students who are under 23 years of age on first enrollment in the University, who are citizens of the United States, and who meet prescribed physical standards. Students who are members of any of the reserve forces of the armed services or who have served on active duty in any of the armed services should consult the department concerning eligibility for advanced standing.

Upper-Division Program. The upper-division program includes two years of instruction on the University campus, plus a summer training period. Completion of the upper-division program and academic requirements for a bachelor's degree qualifies the student for appointment as a commissioned reserve officer.

The summer training period, normally in the summer between the student's junior and senior years, is conducted at one of the regular installations of the Army or Air Force. It provides application of theory and familiarization with weapons, operations, organizational methods, and installational activities.

Students enrolled in the upper-division program receive retainer pay for a total period of not to exceed twenty months (the current rate is $40 a month). Students are issued all required textbooks and uniforms. During the summer training period, students are rationed and quartered, are paid at the rate for service academy cadets, and receive a travel allowance of 6 cents a mile to and from the training installation.

Admission to Upper-Division Program. To be admitted to the upper-division program, a student must have completed either (1) the lower-division program offered by the University or (2) a six-week field training course at an Army or Air Force installation during the summer between his sophomore and junior years. Other qualifications for eligibility are as follows:

- (1) Acceptance by the University of Oregon as a regularly enrolled student.
- (2) Selection for advanced training by R.O.T.C. and University officials, with the concurrence of the President of the University of Oregon.
- (3) Ability to complete all requirements for appointment as a second lieutenant before reaching 28 years of age (if scheduled for Air Force flight training, the student must be able to complete all requirements for appointment as a reserve officer before reaching the age of 26 years, 6 months).
- (4) Successful completion of such survey or general screening tests as may be prescribed.
- (5) United States citizenship.
- (6) Physical qualification for appointment as a commissioned officer.
- (7) Execution of a written agreement with the United States government to complete the two-year upper-division program, including attendance at the summer training period, and to satisfy the service obligation after graduation.

Relation of R.O.T.C. to Selective Service. Enrollment in the R.O.T.C. program does not waive the requirement for registration under the Universal Military Training and Service Act of 1951; all students who are 18 years of age must register with their local draft boards.

Students accepted for enrollment in the lower-division program may be granted draft deferment. Students enrolled in the upper-division program are enlisted in the armed services reserves until completion of the program. Students receiving R.O.T.C. deferment are required to satisfy their service obligations as commissioned officers after graduation and appointment.

Military Science

Professor: COLONEL E. A. FOSSUM.

Assistant Professors: CAPTAIN K. W. CHAMPION, MAJOR H. C. TODD, CAPTAIN D. K. WELLS.

Administrative Specialist: SERGEANT MAJOR J. J. FREITAG.

Technical Specialists: MASTER SERGEANT J. N. BARNETT, STAFF SERGEANT D. H. PALMER, STAFF SERGEANT C. G. MCHENDRY.

THE MILITARY SCIENCE PROGRAM has as its principal objective the production of junior officers who, by their education, training, and inherent qualities, are capable of filling positions of leadership in the active and reserve components of the United States Army. For students who take only the lower-division program, a second objective is to provide a broad concept of the role and problems of the United States Army and the part it plays in national defense.

Students who complete the upper-division program, receive a baccalaureate degree from the University, and qualify for designation as distinguished military graduates may apply for appointment as commissioned officers in the regular Army.

Flight Training. A program of flight training is offered, without charge, to selected students who are enrolled in Military Science IV (Mil 411, 412, 413) or have completed Military Science IV and are still enrolled in the University as undergraduates. Information concerning eligibility requirements may be obtained in the Army R.O.T.C. office.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

Mil 121, 122, 123. Military Science I. 1 hour each term

Organization of the Army and the Army R.O.T.C.; individual weapons and marksmanship; United States Army and national security; counterinsurgency; leadership laboratory. Students enrolled must also take a course within the general academic area of effective communications, general psychology, science comprehension, or political institutions and political development which carries 2 or more term hours of credit and satisfies the University group requirement.

Mil 221, 222, 223. Military Science II. 1 hour each term.

Map and aerial photograph reading; American military history; introduction to basic tactics and techniques; counterinsurgency; leadership laboratory.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

Mil 311, 312, 313. Military Science III. 4 hours each term.

Leadership; military teaching principles; branches of the Army; small-unit tactics and communications; counterinsurgency; precamp orientation; leadership laboratory.

Mil 411, 412, 413. Military Science IV. 4 hours each term.

Operations; logistics; Army administration; military law; the role of the United States in world affairs; counterinsurgency; service orientation; leadership laboratory.

Aerospace Studies

Professor: LIEUTENANT COLONEL J. W. KREITZ.

Assistant Professors: MAJOR P. E. GUSHWA, MAJOR M. S. NICHOLSON, CAPTAIN W. E. CUNLIFFE.

Administrative Specialists: TECHNICAL SERGEANT V. B. THORNTON, STAFF SERGEANT K. W. BASTION, STAFF SERGEANT C. B. WOOD.

THE AEROSPACE STUDIES CURRICULUM is designed to provide education that will develop skills and attitudes vital to the career of the professional Air Force officer, and to qualify college men for commissions in the United States Air Force. It includes two major activities, University and aerospace instruction and leadership laboratory.

Students qualify for appointment as commissioned reserve officers upon completion of the upper-division program and the award of the baccalaureate degree. Students designated as distinguished military graduates may apply for commissions in the regular Air Force.

Flight Training. The Air Force offers a flight instruction program to senior cadets who will enter pilot training after commissioning. The flight training, conducted at a local F.A.A.-approved civilian flying school, provides flight instruction of sufficient scope to qualify the student in the basic principles of flying in aircraft of 65-200 horsepower. Students who successfully complete the flight instruction program may qualify for a private pilot's license.

LOWER-DIVISION COURSES

AS 121. Aerospace Studies I. 1 hour fall.

Causes of the present world conflict, the role and relationship of military power to that conflict, and the responsibility of an Air Force officer. Discussion of the factors from which differing political philosophies have evolved; analysis of the three prime political philosophies which have guided segments of society in the twentieth century.

AS 122. Aerospace Studies I. 1 hour winter.

Discussion of the means that nations develop to pursue their objectives, and how they confront each other in the use of these means; various military systems, with emphasis on the U.S. Department of Defense and the U.S. Air Force.

AS 123. Aerospace Studies I. 1 hour spring.

Leadership laboratory, 1 hour a week. Students enrolled must also take a course which satisfies the University group requirement, contributes to the professional education of an Air Force officer, and carries 2 or more term hours of credit.

AS 221, 222. Aerospace Studies II. 1 hour each term, fall and winter.

Leadership laboratory, 1 hour a week. Students enrolled must also take a course which satisfies the University group requirement, contributes to the professional education of an Air Force officer, and carries 2 or more term hours of credit.

AS 223. Aerospace Studies II. 1 hour spring.

Study of world military forces and related political-military issues. The U.S. Army and the U.S. Navy, their doctrines, missions, and employment concepts; the military forces of NATO, CENTO, and SEATO, and their role in free world security; the military forces of the U.S.S.R., the Soviet satellite armies, and the Chinese Communist army. Analysis of the trends and implications of world military power.

UPPER-DIVISION COURSES

AS 311, 312, 313. Aerospace Studies III. 3 hours each term.

The nature of war; development of air power in the United States; mission and organization of the Defense Department; Air Force concepts, doctrine, and employment; astronautics and space operations; the future development of aerospace power; United States space programs, vehicles, systems, and problems in space exploration.

AS 411, 412, 413. Aerospace Studies IV. 3 hours each term.

Study of professionalism, leadership, and management; the meaning of professionalism, professional responsibilities, the military justice system, leadership theory, functions, and practices, management principles and functions, problem solving, and management tools, practices, and controls.
