This inaugural issue
of

DISSOCIATION: PROGRESS IN THE DISSOCIATIVE DISORDERS

is dedicated to the memory of David Caul, M.D.

November 14, 1921—March 14, 1988

David was President of the International Society for the Study of Multiple Personality and Dissociation at the time of his death.

It is sobering to reflect that at the very moment when this new Journal was being born to strengthen our field, we learned of the death of this great man, dedicated healer, innovative pioneer, caring statesman, and ardent supporter of the field of dissociation.

We are indebted to his wife Lois, daughter Carol, and sons Michael, Robert, and Stephen for sharing him with us.
