Chapter 4.1 - Types of Applications and Review Procedures

Sections:

- 4.1.100 - Purpose
- 4.1.200 - Description of Permit Procedures
- 4.1.300 - Type I Procedure
- 4.1.400 - Type II Procedure
- 4.1.500 - Type III Procedure
- 4.1.600 - Type IV Procedure
- 4.1.700 - General Provisions
- 4.1.800 - Special Procedures

4.1.100 Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to establish standard decision-making procedures that will enable the City, the applicant, and the public to reasonably review applications and participate in the local decision-making process in a timely and effective way.

4.1.200 Description of Permit/Decision-Making Procedures

All land use and development permit applications, except building permits, shall be decided by using the procedures contained in this Chapter. General provisions for all permits are contained in Section 4.1.700. Specific procedures for certain types of permits are contained in Section 4.1.200 through 4.1.600. The procedure "type" assigned to each permit governs the decision-making process for that permit. There are four types of permit/decision-making procedures: Type I, II, III, and IV. These procedures are described in subsections A-D below. In addition, Table 4.1.200 lists all of the City's land use and development applications and their required permit procedure(s).

- A. Type I Procedure (Ministerial). Type I decisions are made by the City Manager or his/her designee without public notice and without a public hearing. The Type I procedure is used when there are clear and objective approval criteria, and applies city standards and criteria that require no use of discretion;
- B. Type II Procedure (Administrative). Type II decisions are made by the City Manager or his/her designee with public notice, and an opportunity for a public hearing if appealed. The appeal of a Type II decision is heard by the Planning Commission;
- C. Type III Procedure (Quasi-Judicial). Type III decisions are made by the Planning Commission after a public hearing, with appeals heard by the City Council. Type III decisions generally use discretionary approval criteria;

4.1.200 Description of Permit/Decision-making Procedures (continued)

- D. Type IV Procedure (Legislative). Type IV procedures apply to legislative matters. Legislative matters involve the creation, revision, or large-scale implementation of public policy (e.g., adoption of land use regulations, zone changes, and comprehensive plan amendments which apply to entire districts). Type IV matters are considered initially by the Planning Commission with final decisions made by the City Council.

In the alternate, the reviewer may inform the applicant either in writing, or orally at a public hearing, that such changes may constitute a significant change (see "d", below), and allow the applicant to withdraw the new materials submitted, in order to avoid a determination of significant change;
- d. If the applicant's new materials are determined to constitute a significant change in an application that was previously deemed complete, the City shall take one of the following actions, at the choice of the applicant:
 - (1) Continue to process the existing application and allow the applicant to submit a new second application with the proposed significant changes. Both the old and the new applications will proceed, but each will be deemed complete on different dates and may therefore be subject to different criteria and standards and different decision dates;
 - (2) Suspend the existing application and allow the applicant to submit a new application with the proposed significant changes. Before the existing application can be suspended, the applicant must consent in writing to waive the 120-day rule (Section A., above) on the existing application. If the applicant does not consent, the City shall not select this option;
 - (3) Reject the new documents or other evidence that has been determined to constitute a significant change, and continue to process the existing application without considering the materials that would constitute a significant change. The City will complete its decision-making process without considering the new evidence;
- e. If a new application is submitted by the applicant, that application shall be subject to a separate check for acceptance and completeness and will be subject to the standards and criteria in effect at the time the new application is accepted.

OPEN PUBLIC HEARING

ZONE CHANGE REQUEST-

The Port of Morrow is requesting a zone change on 30 acres of ground surrounding the riverfront center from Port/Industrial to Heavy Commercial/Light Industrial, C-3. This property is owned by the Port of Morrow. Rex read the Staff Report which was prepared by Barry Beyeler. The report was for approval.

The Port Representative, Gary Neal, gave a presentation on the history of this area and the transition area between Heavy I to Park area. The Commission then opened the floor to opponents that have anything to be said. The audience asked what the Port was planning on developing on this land. John Prag read the zone language for the C1, C2, and C3 zones. He also gave an overview of past history of studies that have been done. Another question from the audience was asked. They wanted to know how much of each C zone is already in the city. Rex calculated that as of now there are 269.92 acres (13%) and if this zone change is approved it would change it to 309.92 acres (15%).

CLOSED PUBLIC HEARING

COMMISSION COMMENTS

Debi Watson moved to approve the application for the zone change. Dr Boss second the motion. All in favor.
