PORTLAND COMMUNITY MUSEUM
ANYA DANIELS // ARCH 486 // SPRING 2017

PORTLAND COMMUNITY MUSEUM IS INFLUENCED BY THE INTERSECTING GRIDS, WHERE PORTLAND'S CITY GRID IS INTERSECTED WITH THE GRID THAT FOLLOWS THE RIVER AND THE TRAIN TRACKS.

GALLERY 1
BOOKSTORE // MUSEUM ENTRANCE
RESTAURANT
PRIVATE PRIVATE PUBLIC

STORAGE
CIRCULATION
MEDIA
COMMUNITY PERFORMANCE
CREATE

GROUND FLOOR PLAN

NORTH - WEST ELEVATION

NORTH - WEST SECTION
The Portland Community Museum will enhance understanding of contemporary urban experiences and strengthen community bonds by serving the past, documenting the present and serving as a catalyst for shaping the future. The community museum will practice exhibition development, where there is a direct collaboration with communities, and working directly with residents, members of the neighborhood organizations, artists, community activists, planning organizations, scholars, local officials, local businesses and families.

Community Empowerment
Discovery
Excellence
Integrity
Service