

Percent for Art: Opportunity for Collaboration Between USFSP and the St. Petersburg Public Arts Commission

Presentation by
Carol Hixson, Dean
Nelson Poynter Memorial Library
University of South Florida St. Petersburg
October 2, 2012

<http://dspace.nelson.usf.edu/xmlui/handle/10806/4866>

Advantages

- ▶ Better searching and discovery
- ▶ Consistency
- ▶ Easy access
- ▶ Customizable – you decide on indexes, labels, detail of description, etc.
- ▶ Based on international standards
- ▶ Marketability
 - URLs that can be posted and linked anywhere
 - Specific searches have unique URLs, as well as items, entire collections, or whole indexes
- ▶ Multiple formats (images, documents, maps)
- ▶ Items hosted and preserved for you
- ▶ Organization and technical expertise of USFSP librarians and staff

Next steps

- ▶ If yes, MOU would be needed
 - Who does what? Responsibility? Sustainability?
 - ▶ Decide whether to apply for grant
 - ▶ Develop project plan and timeline
 - How much detail? Types of indexes? Resolution of images? Contextual wrapper?
 - ▶ Load in images
 - ▶ Add descriptions
 - ▶ Develop web pages, as needed
 - ▶ Market
-

Resources

- ▶ UO Digital Collections:
<http://boundless.uoregon.edu/digcol/>
- ▶ Picturing the Cayuse:
<http://boundless.uoregon.edu/digcol/mh/>
- ▶ Percent for Art:
<http://boundless.uoregon.edu/digcol/oac/>
- ▶ Sample copyright statement:
<http://boundless.uoregon.edu/digcol/rights.php>
- ▶ CONTENTdm software:
<http://www.contentdm.org/>