...a community college.

Marlinda Karo
Houston Community College (HCC) has 23 commuter campuses in Houston, Missouri City, Katy, and Stafford Texas.

- Offers singularly-accredited, open-admission, classes, offering associate degrees, certificates, workforce training and lifelong learning opportunities.

- Has three centers for entrepreneurship with 3 directors across Houston.

- The campuses are: Southeast College, Southwest College, and Northwest College.

- Various programming is offered throughout the 9 main campuses.
HCC offers a Business Management - Entrepreneurship Certificate Level 1

Program Length: 32 weeks

About 10 students at a time are enrolled in this program.

Provides students with instruction in entrepreneurial skills, business principles, accounting, and real life experiences through cooperative education. The program is designed to assist students in starting their own businesses.
Small Business / Entrepreneurship

• The Office of Entrepreneurial Initiatives:

• Established to build and sustain the Houston business community through effective and relevant educational initiatives to help businesses grow in revenue, personnel and business opportunities.

• Leads and coordinates all business and entrepreneurial initiatives by providing system wide support, and leadership to fulfill HCC’s Strategic Agenda to “Cultivate and Entrepreneurial Culture Across the Institution.”
Programs are for existing small business owners

Goldman Sachs 10,000 Small Businesses is a program for small businesses that links learning to action. Through the program, participants will gain practical skills in topics such as negotiation, marketing, and employee management that can immediately be put into action. In addition, they will receive the tools and professional support to develop a strategic and customized growth plan that will take their business to the next level.

The Houston Minority Business Development Agency is operated by HCC and is part of a national network of centers established to assist existing minority-owned businesses and has been hosted at HCC since September 2013. Services are designed to improve access to capital, procurement opportunities, and domestic and international markets, to make their business more profitable, create jobs, and make their company sustainable.

Ash E. Faulkner
● Entrepreneurship education out of the Engineering School
  ○ 2005: Center for Innovation in Engineering Education founded
    ■ 2009: becomes ‘Keller Center’, entrepreneurship courses increase (listed under ‘engineering’)
  ○ 2012: First eLab summer accelerator
  ○ 2014: Princeton Entrepreneurship Advisory Committee convened (recommendations)
  ○ 2016: Undergraduate Certificate Program in Entrepreneurship (cap 20)

● Two librarians
● Outreach
  ○ Entrepreneurship LibGuides portal (linked from eLab, Keller Center web pages)
  ○ Email outreach to entrepreneurship course professors, related programs (e.g. ‘Tiger Challenge’)
  ○ Attendance (incubator workshops, eLab Demo Day, Keller Center social events)

● Instruction
  ○ Class visits
  ○ Campus incubator instruction sessions

● Collection Development
  ○ No business school = different available resources
  ○ Business plans and marketing particular areas of need
  ○ Funding from Economics, Engineering, Marketing
  ○ Licensing and vendors; free resources
Successes and Challenges

+ Established relationships with Keller Center, eLab, entrepreneurship courses
+ eLab information sessions well attended
+ Discussions with vendors re: licensing

- Number of students involved in entrepreneurship still small
- Traditional resources cover traditional industries; most projects technical and innovative
- Growing interest in social media marketing and crowdfunding; resources still needed
Ideas to expand

○ Embedded librarian hours at incubator
○ Technology-specific entrepreneurship LibGuide(s)
○ Support for ‘Tiger Challenge’ startup competition
○ Partnerships with incubator ‘mentors’

Outreach Philosophy

- Be where your customers are. Be where the business happens.

- Look for the balance between what YOU think they need, what THEY think they need, and what they’ll ACTUALLY show up for.

- Be impactful. Address your customer with the right information when they feel the pain of the problem.
